Jurisdictional Statement

1. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Article V, § 4(b)(1) of the Florida Constitution and Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.130(a)(3), which authorizes appeals from non-final orders determining venue in civil actions, including dissolution of marriage proceedings. The order denying Appellant's motion to transfer venue (R. 1-4) was rendered on June 24, 2025. Appellant filed a timely motion to vacate (R. 23-29) and a timely notice of appeal (R. 61). The trial court denied the motion to vacate on August 1, 2025. This Court confirmed jurisdiction as a non-final appeal on July 24, 2025 (R. 65).

Statement of the Case

2. This is a dissolution of marriage action initiated by Appellee/Wife in Hillsborough County (13th Judicial Circuit) (R. 1417-1450).
3. Appellant/Husband admitted venue was initially proper but later filed a verified motion to transfer venue under Fla. Stat. § 47.122 "in the interest of justice" due to judicial bias, discovery obstructions including severe attorney misconduct, due process violations, and systemic corruption that has infected the 13th Circuit Family Law Division (R. 47-60).

4. The facts of this case reveal a pattern of unmistakable corruption – officials taking action that is contrary to the law and the oath they take in favor some other interest, still undisclosed.
5. Mr. Davis's silence in the face of these allegations Husband has made consistently since November 2024 is also telling.
6. The pattern of actions from the trial court that prevent any meaningful consideration of wrongdoing from Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis illustrates the collusion across the bench in the 13th Circuit. While Mr. Davis's silence operates as a confession to his involvement in serious misconduct designed at concealing records.
7. Wife continues to oppose Husband's motion to transfer even though it seeks transfer to her current county of residence (R. 16-22).
8. Wife's refusal to agree to transfer jurisdiction to her county of residence offers even further confirmation of the corruption she and Mr. Davis continue to enjoy in the 13th Circuit. Clearly, she's again choosing corruption over cooperation and convenience for herself, choosing to engage in expensive litigation in her attempt to keep Husband trapped in the biased venue.
9. There is no good faith explanation offered for Wife's preference to incur further costs associated with this appeal as opposed to agreeing to a more convenient venue for her.

10. This is once again consistent with this longstanding pattern demonstrating intentional delay, harassment, obstruction, and concealment from Wife and Davis, as they enjoy the intentional ignorance and cover up attempts from the trial court.

11. The non-sensical positions Wife has taken since the start of the litigation, clearly demonstrate the intent to conceal marital assets. Her position to the trial court that she has nothing to hide, but still continues to steadfastly refuse any compromise that involves providing Husband even reciprocal discovery. That's non-sensical considering the likely financial windfall she would receive if she accepted Husband's offer to void the post marital agreement in exchange for agreeing to reasonable discovery.

12. Wife refused to void the PMA despite Husband's offer and motion highlighting that voiding it would result in a substantial windfall for her under equitable distribution principles (e.g., access to Husband's assets), choosing instead to prolong litigation, object to all Husband's discovery attempts, and escalate conflict through baseless, retaliatory motions, further harming the children (R. 245-261: Husband's motion to void PMA; R. 576-581: Wife's objections to Chase subpoenas even after motion to void, demonstrates her preference for concealment over cooperation, and the underlying corruption in the 13th Circuit supports it. (R. 23-29)

13. Following the hearing on June 3, 2025, during which Husband explained parts of the long history of corruption and misconduct, Judge Felix denied the motion to transfer on June 24, 2025 (R. 1-4).

14. Appellant moved to vacate the denial under Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.530 and Fla. Fam. L. R. P. 12.530, arguing misapplication of law, constitutional violations, and failure to consider evidence of bias (R. 23-29).

15. The trial court denied the motion, while once again refusing to make any findings of fact regarding Husband's longstanding, consistent, and unrefuted allegations of and requests for relief from attorney misconduct, concealment of evidence, and corruption in the 13th Circuit (R. 61).

16. Once Judge Felix took following Judge Ayers' disqualification, Appellant (for the second time) formally sought emergent relief on subpoenas and discovery to address ongoing obstructions at the core of the parties' dispute and escalating conflict from Wife (R. 93-111). Judge Felix denied the motion as non-emergent without explanation.

17. Appellant moved for a stay pending appeal on July 22, 2025 (R. 62-64).

18. Husband followed up with the Court on 3 occasions without a response (R.

65) despite significant time and expense associated with a rapidly approaching hearing that baselessly threatens the welfare of the children.

19.Appellant filed an amended motion to stay in this Court, given the fast approaching hearing and strong grounds for concerns over bias and corruption in the 13th Circuit. (R. 66-92).

20.Ultimately, the trial court granted the motion to stay on August 1, 2025.

21.This appeal challenges the venue denial based on profound constitutional errors, egregious violations of the Judicial Code of Conduct, and a pervasive pattern of systemic corruption that fundamentally undermines the impartiality of the tribunal and denies Appellant a fair process.

22.These errors, including deliberate obstruction of justice through delay and harassment, compel reversal and immediate transfer to Pasco County to restore due process and protect the parties' children from further harm.

Statement of the Facts

23.Wife admitted in her original petition for dissolution that she made no financial disclosures in relation to the post-marital agreement (R. 844-847; R. 1415-1416: original petition lacking disclosures).

24.Under Casto v. Casto, 508 So. 2d 330 (Fla. 1987), this admission establishes Husband's clear right to discovery into Wife's marital assets to assess the PMA's reasonableness, as nondisclosure shifts the burden to Wife to prove fairness (R. 146-174; R. 146, ¶¶13, 21; R. 245-261: initial response highlighting discovery as sole issue).

25.Regardless of Husband's efforts to pursue this discovery imperative for a fair process, through motions to compel (R. 188-192), subpoenas (R. 569-575), and repeated pleas in other motions and hearings (R. 848-875), Wife, Mr. Davis, Judge Ayers, and others within the 13th Circuit circled the wagons and collaborated to baselessly attack Husband, weaponizing the children and the legal process to obstruct transparency and retaliate against his insistence on compliance with the law. The trial court has put off Husband's sole concern since May of 2024 just as Wife and her attorney insist on keeping marital assets hidden as long as possible. (R. 188-192; 130-145; R. 1527-1548; R. 835-840)

26.Personal attacks against Husband from Mr. Davis and Judge Ayers were acknowledged as unsubstantiated during hearings, with no evidence supporting claims of any inappropriate emails or misconduct by Husband, once he had the opportunity to press that issue during a hearing, (R. 898-941; R. 47-60; R. 188-192, pp. 1-3, ¶¶3-8, 10-13). Judge Ayers and Mr. Davis were agreeing on conclusory admonishments and dismissals of Husband, but there was a complete lack of support for those allegations when addressed during the hearings. (R. 848-1365).

Wife's concealment of marital income/assets during and after marriage, prior to initiation of formal proceedings:

27. As illustrated by Wife's initial onslaught of pleadings and explained in Husband's Response (R. 146-174; R. 245-261, filed May 14, 2024), the sole issue necessitating court involvement was discovery into Wife's finances to assess PMA reasonableness.
28. Casto v. Casto, 508 So. 2d 330 (Fla. 1987) controls and entitles Husband to reasonable discovery given Wife's refusal to disclose assets at time of entering the post marital agreement. (R. 146-174; R. 245-261).
29. Wife kept her marital income in a separate account for the last few years of marriage, concealing that information from Husband, while he paid the vast majority of household/family expenses (R. 146-174, ¶¶7-10).
30. A major issue in the years leading up to the divorce was Husband's request that Wife assist more with financial obligations for the family at least while he went through some career changes (R. 146-174, ¶¶6, 9, 11).
31. Husband signed a post-marital agreement under duress on October 8, 2023, and with Wife making no disclosures while continuing to conceal what happened to hundreds of thousands of dollars of marital income she kept separately (R. 245-261; R. 146-174, ¶¶13, 24).
32. The parties were completing the divorce process on their own until this dispute came up on discovery with Wife continuing to refuse Husband access to the accounts that held the concealed marital income referenced above (R. 146-174, ¶¶14-15, 25).

33. Once Wife refused to cooperate in sharing information about marital assets without litigation, Husband immediately pursued an attorney with the sole goal of resolving the discovery as efficiently as possible so that the family can move on to a productive coparenting relationship (R. 146-174, ¶26).

34. The discovery dispute escalated on May 13, 2024, before Husband could even get an attorney. In email correspondence, Husband insisted on financial discovery, citing suspicions of fraud and hidden marital assets (R. 1527-1548, pp. 20-22; R. 582-601, pp. 4-5).

35. Wife responded by filing multiple motions and 16 pages of interrogatories the next day, May 14, 2024 for court-monitored communications and to compel payment of expenses. She attached emails and claimed Husband's communications were threatening although close review of that correspondence shows Husband desperately trying to the time, expense, and damage to the family the litigation process is causing. (R. 1527-1548, ¶¶2-3; R. 582-601, ¶¶6-9; R. 1549-1564).

36. These filings evidence Wife's immediate retaliatory lawfare attack against Husband's insistence on financial discovery, a pattern that will repeat itself (with attorney representation) by December 13, 2024. (R. 1527-1548).
37. Wife had moved out of the marital home into a home she purchased several months before the May 2024 correspondence. There was nothing happening around May of 2024 that changed involving the children or either parent, other than Husband's insistence on financial discovery. (R. 844-847; R. 146-174, ¶¶7-10)
38. Wife never even pursued either motion nor the discovery sought in the 16 pages of interrogatories in the May 14, 2024 attack although Husband did timely provide responses to Mr. Davis.
39. The failure to even pursue any follow up on these May 14, 2024 filings provides further confirmation of Wife's intent – to create conflict and chaos and distract from the discovery issue all consistent with Wife's delay, obstruct, harass, and conceal strategy throughout. (R. 1527-1548; R. 582-601)

Pattern of delay, obstruct, burden, and conceal with Mr. Davis handling the case.

40. Davis's pattern of obstruction and increasing conflict began early and persisted through a series of emails where Husband sought clarification and cooperation on discovery, only to be met with refusal, deflection, and escalation. On November 25, 2024, Husband emailed Davis seeking basic information and clarification on Wife's positions regarding custody changes and discovery, emphasizing the need for transparency to resolve the case and protect the children (R. 1527-1548). Davis responded minimally or not at all, setting the tone for ongoing obstruction.

41. This pattern continued into January 2025. On January 7, 2025, Davis forwarded an email from the court reporter regarding the December 13, 2024 hearing transcript but provided no substantive response to Husband's inquiries about discovery or the baseless custody motions (R. 1527-1548, p. 27; R. 582-601).

42. Husband followed up on January 31, 2025, with a detailed email seeking clarification on Davis's refusal to provide discovery outside of mandatory disclosures, the purportedly "unrelated nature of custody issues to the discovery dispute," and why Wife was pursuing GAL and psychological evaluation without evidence (R. 1527-1548, pp. 21-25). In this email, Husband responded inline to Davis's statements, numbering seven specific questions for clarification, such as: "1. Your filings represent that the kids are not getting what's in their 'best interest' right now, but you and Sarah are keeping secret what your concerns are? Why?" and "3. The children were an area of agreement for years. What came up about my parenting that's a concern, that you've needed to keep secret for so long?" (R. 1527-1548, pp. 22-23).

43. Davis's response was evasive, insisting no additional discovery was required and that custody issues were "completely unrelated" to discovery, without addressing the questions or providing any basis for the change (R. 1527-1548, pp. 21-22).

44. Wife's deposition testimony and hearing testimony are completely inconsistent with the record evidence as Wife testifies that the May 14, 2024 filings were not retaliatory but actually were good faith requests relating to concerns she had for the kids.

45. Obviously, Wife's difficulty in finding any story that matches her actions in the litigation which are clearly designed to delay, obstruct and conceal evidence; as there is nothing legitimate about Wife and Mr. Davis's actions and strategies. It is pure bad faith for the purpose of concealing critically relevant evidence and likely fraud Wife perpetrated on Husband. (R. 23).

46. A close review of the record demonstrates a clear intent to leverage the children based on the Wife's escalating lawfare, attempts at delay, and Husband's efforts to get the discovery issue before the Judge: The amended petition seeking primary custody filed 25 days before the first discovery hearing, was Wife's creation of a corrupt bargaining chip to exchange for Husband dropping discovery efforts. When that didn't work, there's a clear pattern of events demonstrating strategically planned misconduct designed to maximize the "obstruct, harass, and conceal" objectives.

47. The lawfare attack of 4 motions filed on December 13, 2024 came precisely as Husband's attorney baselessly withdrew from the claim on a single day's notice.

48. Wife had never filed a motion in the case until that date.

49. The fact that Mr. Davis, Ms. Hodz, and Judge Ayers were able to schedule a hearing that quickly is a minor miracle offering clear evidence of at least something to hide. What other motivation could there be for the incredibly rushed and even cruel manner in which the trial court proceeded with snatching Husband's attorney representation. (Need CITES!)

50. The obstruction escalated in February 2025 emails. On February 7, 2025, following Husband's continued efforts to seek answers and contradict "baseless claims" involving his children, Davis once again refused to engage or make any effort at explaining all the evidence of ethical violations, stating, "I am done communicating with you except as necessary."

51. Yet moments later, Mr. Davis emailed a veiled threat bringing a weapon into the conversation that was previously unmentioned, just after advising that he would only communicate with Husband when “necessary.”

(R. 1527-1548, pp. 5-8, 13-14).

52. Given the unexpected response, the addition of a weapon, and confirmation that any future communication would be “necessary,” Mr. Davis was clearly aware of the impact of adding the word, “bat” and chose to go forward with the intimidation anyway.

53. Judge Ayers did absolutely nothing to protect Husband nor admonish Mr. Davis for bringing a weapon into the conversation.

54. Davis never contradicted Husband's accusations nor provided the requested discovery, perpetuating the pattern. This course of emails, from November 25, 2024's initial inquiries, through January 7 and 31's (2025) refusals to clarify or produce non-objectionable documents in his possession, to February 7's aggressive shutdown, demonstrates Davis's consistent strategy of obstruction, deflection, and escalation to avoid addressing the core discovery issue. (R. 1527-1548; R. 582-601; R. 130-145, p. 1: intentional obstruction of Husband's discovery efforts).

55. Baseless retaliatory filings like the December 13, 2024 motions have introduced unnecessary and ongoing conflict into the coparenting situation and placed Husband in an impossible situation.

56. It's obvious Wife is trying to find faults with anything he does because she has a motion pending that makes allegations still completely unsupported by the facts. (R. 66)

57. Wife has every motive to actively work against the coparenting relationship, a problem that is escalating the past several weeks to a concerning degree given the ongoing conflict surrounding the children. (R. 93),

58. Only Wife has the ability to resolve this dispute. And she could do so immediately, just by showing some transparency, providing the equivalent of what Husband had to provide in response to her interrogatories. The fact that she's putting the family through over a year of litigation suggests there are very significant secrets that need to get out if there's any hope of a successful coparenting relationship.

Pattern of Events and Evidence of Concealment, Harassment, Obstruction, and Corruption.

59. The Court's failure to address the misconduct for over a year has directly resulted in more formal and severe litigation tactics that now comprise a longstanding pattern of obstruction and concealment harmful to the children and the coparenting relationship. (R. 1527-1548; R. 582-601; R. 130-145: intentional obstruction of Husband's vacation plans, church ceremony where Husband and children became members of Grace Lutheran Church, and refusal to engage in further dialogue).

60. During the January 21, 2025 hearing, when Husband sought to inquire into the conversations between Davis and his former attorneys that led to their abrupt change in outlook, Ayers explicitly stated that "the conversations between attorneys are not discoverable. They are privileged," preventing any exploration of potential misconduct.
61. Despite no legal basis for such privilege, Judge Ayers just makes one up that puts an attorney in direct conflict with her client, but it accomplishes her intent - shielding ethical violations from scrutiny for the attorneys who practice before her. (R. 942-985, p. 7).
62. Judge Ayers made a factually absurd legal assertion, with the obvious goal of covering up for and suppressing information about attorney misconduct, a near constant recurrence for Husband in the 13th Circuit.
63. The collusion and "thick as thieves" culture in the 13th Circuit prioritized Hodz's baseless withdrawal, over Husband's due process, ultimately turning to truly terrifying lengths as Judge Ayers and Mr. Davis attempted to force a GAL on healthy, happy children.
64. What should be a simple discovery issues persists as the Court's handling of that matter supports delay, just as Mr. Davis and Wife want – a dishonest, corrupt result that harms Husband and complicates many years of coparenting.

65. Wife has provided no response to Husband's third Request for Production despite no objections, a motion to compel, no response, and multiple unanswered follow-ups; R. 835-840; R. 297-305; R. 66-92: Appellate motion with exhibits).

66. The noncompliance is willful, intentional, and ongoing ever since Mr. Davis reached the stipulation on a discovery deadline, June 28, 2024. Wife made no efforts to comply and committed multiple ethical violations in the process of trying to conceal evidence.

67. Ongoing harm is constant and increasingly burdensome through the 13th Circuit's facilitation of Wife and Mr. Davis's bullying tactics including persistent harassment through baseless filings.

68. Judge Felix's denial of emergent relief on subpoenas which, (if granted, would likely end or greatly limit the litigation in this matter) without explanation, perpetuating due process harms (R. 93-111, ¶¶3-6; attachments on custody disruptions like graduation interference).

69. Forcing the family to continue in this posture now for over 8 months presents a serious risk of harm to the children caused by the corruption involving multiple individuals associated with the 13th Circuit including those retained and paid to help Husband. (R. 66-92, ¶¶8-10, 12-14; R. 62-64, ¶¶3-4, 8-10; R. 23-29, ¶¶6-11).

70. Davis benefited from the circuit's "local legal culture," with unchecked intentional ethical violations like failing to produce non-objectionable discovery and breaking rules to conceal PMA validity information, and filing and maintaining baseless, retaliatory motions for harassment and imposing burden. (R. 5-15, ¶¶9-13, 21-35; R. 1451-1458, 876-897, 835-840, 47-60, 16-22, 5-15, 1-4, 93-111, 23-29, 1342-1365, 62-64, 61, 65, 187, 175-187, 188-192, 193-199, 1459-1488, 1459-1488, 200-222, 112-124, 223-227, 815-822, 228-244, 486-492, 1028-1051, 262-267, 268-270, 306-308, 312-315, 1052-1121, 1122-1341, 13-15, 66-92, 271-296, 215).

72. These facts demonstrate a pattern of unfairness that § 47.122 was designed to remedy, amplified by Husband's attorneys' abrupt abandonment after Davis conferences, with no changes in facts or law.

73. Given the identical reactions from Hodz and Samarkos to the Davis conferences and the lack of any explanation for it, one must assume that what truly occurred is illicit or inappropriate.

74. The fact that Judge Ayers suppressed inquiry about it presents further evidence supporting those conclusions and the widespread awareness of inevitable corruption Husband would face given Mr. Davis's intent to "not cooperate with anything,” precisely what continues to prevent resolution to simple discovery for a year and a half. (R. 1342-1365; R. 175-187; R. 193-199; R. 1459-1488; R. 200-222; R. 876-897; R. 200-222).

75. Judge Felix continued the pattern of ignoring, excusing, and/or covering up severe, ongoing attorney misconduct harming a family consistently for over a year. Husband’s consistent efforts at this singular goal and un refuted facts demonstrating improper litigation tactics and strategy are thus far insufficient to warrant any relief in the 13th Circuit. (R. 1-4; R. 1342-1365; R. 47-60, ¶¶10-35; R. 245-261; R. 62-64).

76. The trial court rejected Husband's motion to vacate the venue transfer denial on August 1, 2025, continuing the pattern of ignoring Husband’s “interest in justice,” assisting or at least prolonging ongoing bias, procedural irregularities, Davis's "mafioso-style" control over former attorneys, unchecked ethical violations, and discovery delays (R. 61; R. 23-29, ¶¶3-5, 36-39, 40-42; R. 61).

77. Despite hundreds of hours of work, thousands of dollars in legal fees, and many more thousands in legal costs, the 13th Circuit continues to delay the one central issue that brought us here.

78. Contrasting the outrageous delays on the core discovery issue with how shockingly quick the Court moved up the December 13, 2024 hearing from the January date the Court initially chose, when there was no allegation of anything remotely emergent, it becomes very clear that the 13th Circuit looks out for their own before they consider the due process rights of litigants.

79. Extraordinary relief is warranted given the damages already sustained from the lower court's "stall and obstruct" tactics for over a year.

Summary of Argument

80. The trial court abused its discretion by denying venue transfer under Fla.

Stat. § 47.122's "interest of justice" prong, ignoring Husband's "interest in justice," and all the evidence of systemic bias and due process violations, requiring relief over a nonsensical interpretation of the law when combined with Fla. Stat. §47.011.

81. The order misconstrued the motion as a convenience challenge, misapplied non-controlling cases like McGee and Vitale, and violated Appellant's rights to an impartial tribunal under the Florida and U.S. Constitutions.

76. Statutory construction of § 47.122 demands broad interpretation to avoid absurd "traps" in extreme corruption scenarios like these facts where there is such obvious bias that continuing in the one and only appropriate jurisdiction per the statute violates Husband's constitutional right to due process and a fair and impartial tribunal.

77. Transfer to Pasco County is warranted under Goedmakers to protect fairness and the children, who have suffered direct harm from Wife's retaliatory lawfare tactics, including baseless motions weaponizing parenting issues to distract from discovery.

78. The court's failure to make findings on bias, discovery, and ongoing ethical violations causing significant harm to a litigant and his children—compounded by delays in rulings and multiple recusals (Ayers disqualified, DePaul self-recused) further prejudices Husband and delays justice, requiring reversal and remand with instructions to transfer the case to Pasco County, Wife's county of residence.

79. Systemic corruption is further evidenced by attorneys' abrupt abandonment of discovery objectives after conferences with Mr. Davis, despite no changes in facts or law.

80. The only logical explanation for the sudden change in outlook experienced by Ms. Hodz and Ms. Samarkos is that they were well aware of the corruption and unfairness that were coming for Husband.

81. They were both simply unwilling to help Husband fight for his very basic rights to discovery under these facts, further evidencing the pervasive nature of 13th Circuit corruption and the urgency required of this Appellate Court.

82. The average litigant has no chance of a fair process, and Husband's unique situation and experience present a unique opportunity for the Court to address active and harmful corruption affecting Florida citizens.

83. The trial court's refusal to allow inquiry into why the sudden change in outlook from Ms. Samarkos and Ms. Hodz, underscores the need for transfer given their unrelenting attempts to avoid this corruption problem.

84. Davis's constant obstruction, from complete and unwavering blanket objections to all subpoenas and Husband's first 2 Requests for production, and the refusal to produce a response to the non-objectionable third one, illustrates Wife's litigation strategy – concealing evidence of Wife's finances at all costs (R. 146-174).

85. The Court's failure to enforce basic mandatory disclosures, sanction misconduct, and allow Husband even just reciprocal discovery post-motion to void (R. 245-261) while the Court allows the retaliatory motions to proceed puts the parties in such an unfair position, the Court may be damaging the family to the point it can't recover.

86. The Court's engagement with suppressing evidence of Davis's misconduct began by December 19, 2024 when she interrupted Husband just as he was starting a list of discovery and ethical violations already committed by Judge Ayers. (R. 898-941)

87. Judge Ayers not only suppressed information about his wrongdoing, she went on to flaunt her intent to move the case forward and vouch for Mr. Davis as a reasonable lawyer who wouldn't engage in delay tactics.

Specifically, Judge Ayers stated:

"Mr. Hanson, we're not going backwards. You've expressed your complete frustration that this case is not going in the direction. I'm going to make sure it does. I've already told you that. I've seen you twice in the last couple weeks. I'm going to set another hearing. It's going to go forward. There's not going to be any delay tactics. I'm going to tell you I know what lawyers delay and what lawyers don't. Mr. Davis is not one of those lawyers that I've ever had a problem with the delay tactics. I'm on top of this case and I don't like that you said I don't care about your case as much as I care about anyone else's. I have roughly --

(R. 898-941, pp. 4-5)

88. Of course, Judge Ayers' now obviously false assurances further confirm the deep nature of the corruption, where the strategy is to tell litigants the opposite of what's true. (R. 30-60)

89. The Court's unlawful retaliation against Husband intensified after Appellant's February 12, 2025 letter to the Chief Judge, turning Ayers vindictive through actions like eye-rolling (April 4, 2025 hearing), feigning due process while pushing the absurd GAL issue, and demonstrating outright and obvious dishonesty (R. 1122-1341, 47-60, 23-29).

90. However, Judge Ayers has clearly acted outside the law and in a manner that intentionally discriminates against Husband in putting off this simple discovery issue for over a year.

91. Judge Felix has shown no indication that he will do anything other than allow Mr. Davis to continue to delay matters further while encouraging conflict, to the great detriment of this family.

Argument

Standard of Review

87. The trial court's denial of Husband's motion to transfer venue involves questions of law. And given the complete refusal to make any findings of fact, the statutory construction and constitutional issues, should be de reviewed de novo. Eggers v. Eggers, 776 So. 2d 1096 (Fla. 5th DCA 2001)

Point I: The Trial Court Abused Its Discretion by Failing to Transfer Venue Under Fla. Stat. § 47.122's 'Interest of Justice' Prong

88. The trial court abused its discretion by misconstruing Appellant's motion as a mere forum non conveniens challenge focused on inconvenience or expense, completely ignoring the independent "interest of justice" prong under § 47.122 (R. 1-4, p. 2, ¶¶C-D).

89. This is the story of a father who, seeking only fair discovery into his soon to be ex-wife's marital income she largely concealed during the last years of marriage to ensure an equitable divorce.

90. Husband was forced into handling this legal matter himself because the 13th Circuit's handling of it raised serious questions about whether any local attorney would have the courage and capability to confront this corruption as Husband has.

91. The court's actions continue to complicate Husband's health and work situations as he tries to protect his children from this web of judicial bias and systemic corruption in the 13th Circuit.

92. From the beginning, Husband's pursuit of legitimate discovery, triggered by Wife's admitted nondisclosure at the time of entering the PMA (R. 844-847) and history of concealing marital assets while avoiding household expenses, met constant distraction and retaliatory tactics from Wife and Davis. (R. 1527-1548; R. 582-601; R. 146-174, ¶¶ 7-10, 13, 21, 24).

91. The 13th Circuit allowed baseless motions to weaponize the children and deflect from Wife's concealment of marital assets when the simple delay and obstruction tactics failed to deter him. (R. 1527-1548; R. 582-601). These efforts to suppress the truth will only increase the costs and pain on the family.

92. Instead of enforcing Rule 12.285, Judge Ayers circled the wagons, calling Davis a "Teddy Bear" while excusing his absence at key hearings, covering for intentional, ongoing misconduct and attempting to find any reason to reprimand Husband without basis (R. 876-897; R. 898-941).

92. Husband first began to understand the expanse of the corruption when attorney Hodz had the same reaction to the Davis conference that attorney Samarkos did months earlier. Both abruptly abandoned the most basic discovery efforts after private conferences with Davis. (R. 175-187; R. 193-199).
93. Ayers rushed Hodz's withdrawal on, at best 24 hours notice, ignoring Husband's objections and unavailability, in a blatant attempt to bury the misconduct while showing active contempt to Husband and his right to a fair process. (R. 193-199; R. 876-897).
94. After Ayers disqualification, the case was reassigned to DePaul, who self-recused suggesting her recognition of the circuit-wide conflicts. (R. 187)
95. The case landed with Judge Felix, who denied transfer without addressing these facts, perpetuating the bias by ignoring emergent motions, forcing appellate intervention, wasted resources, and further delay and damage to the kids' innocent years. (R. 1-4; R. 1342-1365; R. 62-64; R. 66-92).
96. This inaction contrasts sharply with quick hearings favoring Davis/Hodz, underscoring the favoritism they enjoy.

97. Husband/Appellant presented un rebutted, verified evidence of this extreme bias and systemic corruption, yet the court consistently failed to engage, abusing its discretion. (R. 848-1365).
98. Goedmakers v. Goedmakers, 520 So. 2d 575, 577-78 (Fla. 1988), demands flexible transfers in family cases to ensure fairness, especially where bias threatens impartiality.
99. Statutory construction supports reversal: § 47.122 must be broad to avoid absurd "jurisdictional traps" forcing families into corrupt venues, defying Carroll v. Carroll, 341 So. 2d 771 (Fla. 1977). Narrow interpretation undermines justice, efficiency, and child welfare under § 61.13.
100. The "interest of justice" prong exists for scenarios like this, where venue became so biased and corrupt that it made a fair process impossible for certain litigants. (R. 47-60; R. 23-29; R. 1052-1122).
101. Both the State and Federal Constitutions guarantee Husband due process of law. Husband experienced the bias, corruption and the helplessness that comes with being attacked in an unfair forum, for over a year now, precisely what Husband always tried to avoid.
102. Yet, Wife still objects to transfer to her home county as she chooses corruption over convenience.

103. Wife's objection to transfer to her own county, combined with her refusal to void the PMA despite it ending or at least limiting litigation while giving her a financial windfall (assuming she's been forthcoming to date) (R. 245-261; R. 576-581), reveals improper motives, requiring reversal and remand with instructions to transfer and compel discovery.
104. The only logical view of Wife's position is that she's concealed evidence that would change the equitable distribution analysis.
105. Husband was entitled to the requested discovery since May of 2014 under the Casto analysis yet Wife, Davis and the 13th Circuit prolong the suffering.
106. Allowing this corruption to continue terrorizing the mental and physical health of this family is a massive abuse of judicial discretion, that should compel this Court to remand the case to the 13th Circuit with instructions to immediately transfer jurisdiction to Pasco County, and enter orders compelling Wife's responses to the requests for production, allowing the Chase subpoenas, striking any objections Wife may have had to financial discovery efforts, and any other relief this Court deems appropriate.

Point II: The Venue Transfer Denial Violates Appellant's Constitutional Rights to Due Process and an Impartial Tribunal

107. Husband's quest for transparency turned into a nightmare of constitutional violations when the 13th Circuit's bias created a "jurisdictional trap," denying due process (Fla. Const. Art. I, § 9; U.S. Const. Amend. XIV) and an impartial tribunal. Berry v. Berry, 765 So. 2d 855, 857 (Fla. 5th DCA 2000); Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009). 102. Under Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976), the balancing test weighs overwhelmingly for Husband: The private interest in having a fair end to the marriage, where the parties can move on with the comfort only transparency and truth can offer.

108. As unresolved discovery stalled in the trial court for over a year, Husband suffered delays in medical care, career decisions, and establishing an effective coparenting relationship. (R. 47-60, ¶96; R. 23-29, ¶¶6-11). The risk of erroneous deprivation is high from unchecked bias and systemic corruption—Ayers' vindictiveness post-Chief Judge letter (eye-rolling, GAL push without evidence, R. 1122-1341; R. 306-308), Davis's personal attacks and obstruction (insulting emails, universal discovery objections, R. 112-124; R. 835-840), and Judge Felix's failure to offer relief despite the June 3, 2025 hearing and relevant motions. (R. 1342-1365; R. 23).

109. The government's interest in retaining venue is minimal, with Pasco as a viable alternative where Wife resides (R. 23-29, ¶109). This trap heightens deprivation risks, as the circuit shielded Davis's consistent and ongoing misconduct for over a year. R. 175-187; R. 193-199) and

110. Judge DePaul's self-recusal signals real, deeper conflicts where some in the 13th Circuit are understandably afraid to get involved. (R. 187).
111. Even the appearance of bias must be avoided under Mackenzie v. Super Kids Bargain Store, Inc., 565 So. 2d 1332 (Fla. 1990), extended to venue via § 38.10 and Rule 2.330.
112. Here, the core discovery issue, questions about Wife's concealed marital assets (R. 844-847), continues to be evaded, with the trial court protecting Davis from his own longstanding ethical violations against Husband. (R. 47-60, ¶117).
113. Wife's escalating child weaponization (summer vacation/graduation/church interference, R. 93-111), the Court's continuing refusal to compel discovery before forcing hearings on GAL and other retaliatory motions, and evidence supporting widespread corruption from actions involving DePaul, Hodz, and Samarkos (R. 245-261) raise legitimate fears of partiality.
114. The fact that Husband cannot get the discovery he's sought for over a year when he disclosed all assets to Wife at the time of filing the PMA and he's requesting less documentation than he had to produce for Wife.
115. This includes Wife's retaliatory lawfare from May of 2014 before attorneys, sudden and quiet change in custody position in October 2024, days after Husband's home was flooded by hurricane Helene, and the barrage of lawfare attacks again on December 13, 2024.

116. Looking at the timeline of Davis's delays and course of what he's filed, it's obvious the objective is retaliation and obstacles blocking Husband's discovery push. They actively weaponize parenting issues without any evidence of concerns over Husband's parenting nor the children's welfare. The conduct from Wife and Mr. Davis is especially cruel because it attacks Husband's children directly, and additionally, Husband independently and as a father, all while he has to look over his shoulder for Wife to create conflict or manufacture complaints.

117. Davis, Wife, and the trial court are creating artificial conflict that harms the children, and transfer to a new venue is the only possible solution.

Point III: The Trial Court's Reliance on McGee and Vitale Is Erroneous and Non-Binding

118. The trial court's reliance on McGee v. McGee, 145 So. 3d 955 (Fla. 1st DCA 2014), and Vitale v. Vitale, 994 So. 2d 1242 (Fla. 4th DCA 2008), is misplaced, as these address forum non conveniens under § 47.011, not the "interest of justice" prong of § 47.122. Goedmakers, 520 So. 2d at 578.

119. McGee and Vitale are non-binding and do not preclude transfers where bias renders venue unjust, as in the present facts. (R. 1-4; R. 47-60).

120. Accordingly, state and Federal constitutional rights to a fair and imbalanced tribunal should control over a litigant, like Wife in the present facts, who is objecting to a more convenient forum for her, her current county of residence.
121. The courts should make an effort to look at the facts and use common sense. The trial court's handling of this matter supports corruption and concealment over transparency and fairness.
122. Citizens of Florida deserve Judges who follow the law, and reversal and remand are necessary under the present facts.

Point IV: Transfer to Pasco County Is Essential to Restore Justice and Protect the Children

123. Transfer to Pasco County—Wife's residence—is essential under Goedmakers v. Goedmakers, 520 So. 2d 575 (Fla. 1988), to protect the children's best interests (§ 61.13) from the 13th Circuit's corruption, which has enabled Wife's retaliatory lawfare and inflicted ongoing harm.
124. The children, miraculously still thriving in a 50/50 custody arrangement despite Wife's expanding attempts at alienation, have been weaponized as leverage since Wife's abrupt October 2024 shift in custody position, culminating in her all-out attack via the December 13, 2024 motions (R. 130-145; R. 1527-1548).

125. These motions were pursued purely as retaliation and lawfare to deter Husband's legitimate discovery efforts into concealed marital assets—filed immediately after his May 13, 2024 emails demanding reciprocity (R. 1527-1548, pp. 20-22; R. 582-601, pp. 4-5).
126. When this tactic failed to push Husband away from discovery, Wife and Davis were stuck proceeding with the motions or admitting their frivolity, forcing Husband into a defensive position for months where he must look over his shoulder as Wife tries to "find and create problems" to try and find support for baseless allegations. (R. 93-111, attachments showing custody disruptions like graduation interference).
127. To date, Mr. Davis has never provided any facts, arguments, or evidence regarding Husband's parenting deficiencies, nor any safety or welfare concerns with the children to justify this lawfare—starting from the October 2024 custody change and escalating to the December 13, 2024 assault (R. 898-941; R. 47-60). Instead, Davis has resorted to aggressive tactics, including veiled threats in emails (R. 539), which Husband reasonably interpreted as an attempt at intimidation amid heated discovery disputes.
128. This has placed Husband and the children under a constant microscope, with Wife picking at every aspect of parenting and daily life in hopes of provoking issues to retroactively support her still-baseless motions (R. 130-145, p. 1). The resulting artificial conflict—disrupted routines, unnecessary GAL pushes without evidence (R. 1052-1122), and prolonged instability—directly damages the children's emotional well-being, turning a once-stable family dynamic into chaos solely to shield Wife's financial concealment.

129. Under Casto v. Casto, 508 So. 2d 330 (Fla. 1987), and § 61.075, resolving discovery would end this harm, but the 13th Circuit's bias (e.g., Ayers' GAL gaslighting, R. 1122-1341) perpetuates it. Transfer restores justice, efficiency, and child protection per Thomas v. Thomas, 724 So. 2d 1246 (Fla. 4th DCA 1999), avoiding absurd traps under § 47.011 where corruption overrides fairness (de Rey v. Rey, 114 So. 3d 371 (Fla. 3d DCA); Smith-Fullerton v. Fullerton, 5D2024-0855 (Fla. 5th DCA December 6, 2024)).

130. Wife's refusal to transfer to her own county, despite the windfall from voiding the PMA (R. 245-261), confirms motives of concealment over child welfare, demanding reversal.

Point V: The Trial Court's Failure to Make Specific Findings of Fact on Bias, Discovery, and Ethical Violations Prejudices Appellate Review and Causes Unnecessary Delays

131. The trial court's refusal to make findings on bias, discovery obstructions, and ethical violations—despite verified evidence (R. 47-60)—prejudices review and delays justice, requiring remand under Broadfoot v. Broadfoot, 791 So. 2d 584 (Fla. 3d DCA 2001), and Ruberg v. Ruberg, 858 So. 2d 1147 (Fla. 2d DCA 2003).
132. No findings address Davis's unchecked misconduct (e.g., universal objections, no RFP responses, R. 835-840; Rule 12.285 violations) or judicial favoritism (Ayers excusing absences, R. 876-897), prolonging harm like retaliatory child weaponization without evidence of parenting concerns (R. 898-941).
133. This echoes the pattern of ignoring baseless motions, forcing unnecessary appeals and delaying coparenting, violating Rule 2.330.

Point VI: The Course of Events involving Ms. Samarkos, Ms. Hodz, Mr. Davis, and Judge Felix further confirm the Systemic Corruption in the 13th Circuit that's caused so much unnecessary conflict and expense the last couple of years

134. Systemic corruption is evident in Hodz/Samarkos's abrupt abandonments post-Davis conferences, with no factual/legal changes—only logical explanation: awareness of inevitable bias preventing discovery (R. 175-187; R. 193-199; Fla. R. Prof. Conduct 4-1.16(b)).
135. The court's refusal to inquire about what occurred during those calls effective stripped Husband of any right to counsel. Husband paid two sets of reputable attorneys who ran from what was previously described as a simple discovery issue, until Mr. Davis spoke to them. (rushing Hodz withdrawal, R. 876-897).

Conclusion

136. For the foregoing reasons, the trial court's denial of Appellant's motion to transfer venue constitutes a profound abuse of discretion and violates fundamental principles of due process and impartiality under the Florida and U.S. Constitutions.
137. The un rebutted evidence of systemic bias—exemplified by eye-rolling during the April 4, 2025 hearing (R. 1122-1341, pp. 75, 193) and unaddressed delays in the April 22, 2025 transcript (R. 1052-1121, pp. 5-10)—has created an untenable "jurisdictional trap," denying Appellant a fair forum and inflicting irreparable harm on the parties' children through prolonged retaliatory litigation.
138. This Court should reverse the order denying transfer and remand with explicit instructions to: (1) immediately transfer the case to Pasco County, Wife's county of residence, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 47.122 in the interest of justice; (2) compel Wife to respond fully to Appellant's requests for production and subpoenas, including striking any objections to financial discovery; (3) sanction the misconduct by Wife's counsel, including ethical violations and baseless motions; and (4) appoint a special master or take other measures to ensure expeditious resolution of the core discovery issues under Casto v. Casto.

139. Such relief is essential to restore justice, protect the children's best interests under Fla. Stat. § 61.13, and prevent further erosion of public confidence in the judiciary. As Judge Ayers herself interrupted in a prior hearing, "we're not going backwards" (R. 848-875, p. 13)—yet the 13th Circuit's actions have done just that, necessitating appellate intervention on two really egregious abuses of discretion, not coincidentally, both intended to benefit Mr. Davis and his client at the expense of Husband.
140. Appellant respectfully requests oral argument if deemed necessary although timeliness and efficiency are paramount given the ongoing damage the 13th Circuit corruption continues to cause Husband and his children.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Throughout this Response, Appellee shall be referred to as Wife or Appellee, and Appellant shall be referred to as Husband or Appellant. Citations to the Appendix filed by Wife shall be with SA followed by the page number and line number as applicable, i.e., (SA.##:##). Appellee did not locate page numbers on Appellant's Appendix so the page number referenced is out of the 1 through 1618 of the pages.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND OF THE FACTS

This is an appeal from an order denying a transfer of venue entered June 23, 2025. On July 24, 2025, Appellant filed an Appeal and also a motion for the Trial Court to vacate its Order denying the venue transfer. As of August 1, 2025, Judge Felix entered an Order denying Appellant's Motion to Vacate.

A. Factual Background & Procedural History regarding Venue

On January 26, 2024, Wife initiated the underlying dissolution of marriage (with the agreement of Husband) by way of filing a "Joint Petition for Dissolution of Marriage with Dependent/Minor Children" in Hillsborough County, Florida. Hillsborough County is where the parties last resided (and only ever resided together). (SA. 30). Both a pre-nuptial agreement and a post-marital settlement agreement exist between the parties as entered into in Hillsborough County, Florida. (SA. 57-81). Appellant currently resides in Hillsborough County, Florida. Appellee currently resides in Pasco County, Florida.

On May 6, 2024, an initial Case Management Conference occurred. (SA. 39). The Court entered the initial jurisdiction order May 9, 2024. (SA. 41). No objection was raised to venue. On October 2, 2024, through counsel, Appellee filed an Amended Petition. (SA. 48-81). At paragraph 4 of the Amended Petition, Wife maintained venue appropriate in Hillsborough County, Florida. (SA. 48). On December 16, 2024, Appellant filed a response to the Amended Petition admitting Hillsborough County as the appropriate venue. (SA. 82). Husband also filed a counter-petition, maintaining venue to be appropriate in Hillsborough County, Florida. (SA. 85). On January 29, 2025, Appellant filed a Motion to Disqualify the assigned Judge Ayers, which was denied as of February 5, 2025. Appellant filed a second Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers on April 24, 2025. (SA. 90-103). This Motion included a request for a venue transfer in conjunction with the disqualification of Judge Ayers. The request to transfer venue is outlined in only two paragraphs set forth within the Motion, wherein it provides:

It's necessary that the Court transfer the case to a new Judge, or ideally, to a new venue such as Pasco County where Wife resides so that, the litigants have "their disputes resolved by impartial judges" "free from bias and prejudice" in assessing these issues critical to the litigants and children's future well being as required by Berry v. Berry 765 So.2d 855 (Fla. 5th DCA).

Given the evidence of bias in favor of Mr. Davis, Ms. Hodz, and the other attorneys involved, at the expense of Husband's due process rights and other interests, it's obvious Husband has no change at fair process in front of Judge Ayers, and likely in Hillsborough county at all.

(SA. 101). Judge Ayers disqualified herself as of April 28, 2025, but did not rule on the Venue transfer request. Judge Ayers also did not enter an Order on Wife's Motions for Guardian Ad Litem to be appointed, for a Psychological Evaluation of Husband, or on Wife's Motion for Temporary Custody, for which testimony was presented April 4, 2025. The newly assigned, Judge Felix, held a Case Management Conference on May 19, 2025. At this hearing, Judge Felix set Wife's Motions previously heard April 4, 2025, by Judge Ayers and several of Husband's Motions for an eight (8) hour hearing to occur August 8, 2025. (SA. 33).

At Husband's insistence, a 15-minute hearing occurred on the Motion to Transfer Venue and Disqualify Judge Ayers with the remaining issue of the Venue transfer to be addressed. The Court denied the venue transfer from Hillsborough to Pasco County. Appellant appealed the denial of the venue transfer and sought a stay of the underlying proceedings. On August 1, 2025, without hearing, the Trial Court entered the stay and unilaterally cancelled the eight (8) hour hearing scheduled for August 8, 2025.

B. Evidence Contradicting Appellant's Corruption Theory

Throughout Appellant's Initial Brief, he outlines an alleged conspiracy of corruption supported solely by his self-serving conclusory statements. With this Appeal, Appellant maintains the basis for the venue change is "corruption" within the entirety of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit to include his own attorneys retained by him. A reasonable interpretation of the documents filed by Appellant demonstrates no corruption on the part of the attorneys or the courthouse.

While Appellant faults Mr. Davis for his lawyers not acting the way Appellant demanded, the record evidence shows a different relationship. The emails between Appellant and his counsel of Harris, Hunt & Derr, P.A., document the legal analysis provided to Appellant by his counsel along with an explanation of the path intended to be taken to move the case forward. (HA: 277-296) Nothing within the communication illustrates a hesitancy to put forth an argument on his behalf because of Mr. Davis's involvement in the case. Indeed, the cases cited and explained to Appellant in the communications are the cases cited and relied upon by him in this Appeal although no orders have been issued on any alleged fraud. Instead of working with this firm, Appellant questions his attorney and expresses frustration directly with them. This is also highlighted within his communications with his second counsel of record, Attorney Hodz.

The basis for Appellant's second counsel's abrupt departure is clearly outlined at the second hearing on Ms. Hodz's withdrawal where Ms. Hodz's husband appeared on her behalf and expressly stated:

So this isn't about Mr. Davis or discovery.

It has become repugnant, unfortunately, to represent Mr. Hanson. He has attacked Ms. Hodz. . . . Mr. Hanson has attacked Ms. Hodz, just continuously berated her and sent a barrage of e-mails. It has to end. We cannot represent him. (HA: 887: 8-25).

The Court properly permitted the withdrawal of Ms. Hodz over Husband's continued unsupported objections. (HA:893). Notably, the trial court held two hearings on this attorney's withdrawal to appease Appellant although absolutely no legal or factual basis existed to preclude Attorney Hodz from withdrawing.

The barrage of emails referenced by Mr. Hodz is well-known to Mr. Davis, who has become one of the targets of Appellant's unrelenting aggression. While it is absurd to attribute silence as a confession to the baseless allegations, it cannot be overlooked that Mr. Davis responded to numerous inquiries of Appellant to learn a response serves only a means to engage in unnecessary unsolicited contention. (HA: 451, 457, 470, 473, 475, 503, 505 through 526, 815-821). Mr. Davis even advised Appellant of his resolve to limit email communications:

Because I clearly cannot communicate with you without you making false allegations, I am done communicating with you except as necessary (such as scheduling matters). You are welcome to raise whatever issues you have up with the Court.

Once again, I am not going to take the time to contradict your baseless claims. It's wasteful and unnecessary. Just because you want to throw accusations against the wall in hopes that something will stick does not mean I have to respond.

(HA: 505 – 507).

Throughout Appellant's Brief, he insinuates Appellee's opposition to a venue transfer as evidence of corruption or fraud. Yet, again, this is not evidence nor are his unsupported conclusions evidence or facts. Appellee previously testified to most, if not all, of the allegations relied upon by Appellant to assert corruption; he simply rejects the testimony. (HA: 602-759, 967-968, 1056-1111). As explained to Appellant more than once, Appellee has serious concerns over his mental and physical ailments having a negative impact on their minor children and is adamant to have her motions heard. The best way to go about this process is as expeditiously as possible. A venue transfer is an additional unnecessary delay.

The discovery arguments raised by Appellant have not been ruled upon by the current trial judge. Indeed, an eight (8) hour hearing was coordinated to address all pending motions with Judge Felix. Yet, the only hearings before Judge Felix have been a CMC to set the eight (8) hour hearing and the fifteen (15) minute hearing on venue. Appellant inexplicably maintains Judge Felix refuses to rule on Motions. The only reason Judge Felix has not ruled on the discovery disputes of Appellant is that the case was stayed at Appellant's insistence with the hearing subsequently cancelled. The discovery complaints of Appellant are not properly before this Court. Of note, Appellant already has a pending Writ of Certiorari before this Court regarding discovery. See Case No. 2D2025-0681.

Appellee has provided extensive testimony to Appellant surrounding this litigation; however, Appellant has rejected same. Appellant rejects it to assert Appellee is acting unreasonable. Appellant maintains Appellee would receive a windfall if agreeing to set aside the post marital agreement but there is no evidence of same. He maintains Appellee is obstructing and causing delay; however, as thoroughly detailed within the Motion to Lift Stay filed in this case, the only delays have been caused by Appellant who has blocked two Judges from addressing Appellee's Motions that directly impact the children's welfare. Specifically, following the hearing held on April 4, 2025, on Appellee's Motion for Guardian Ad Litem and Motion for Psychological Examination of Husband, Appellant filed a second Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers on April 24, 2025. Judge Ayers disqualified herself as of April 28, 2025. Considering the disqualification, Orders on Wife's Motions were not entered. As noted above, Appellant Husband appealed the denial of the venue transfer and sought a stay. On August 1, 2025, without a hearing, the Trial Court entered the stay and unilaterally cancelled the eight (8) hour hearing scheduled for August 8, 2025. The only clear delays and outright blocking of a party to the courthouse have been carried out by Appellant. Further, transferring a case to Pasco County will result in yet another significant delay with a new Judge and new courthouse treating the divorce as a new filing.

Appellant argues fraud regarding the post-marital agreement as a basis to maintain fraud within the 13th Judicial Circuit, which is not before this Court and has never been ruled upon by the trial judges in this matter. Appellant seeks to circumvent presenting evidence to the trial court and seeks to circumvent an actual order setting aside the post-marital agreement under a pretense that the trial court is incapable of ruling on the issue. However, there is no evidence of same and such a request for discovery is beyond the scope of this Court's jurisdiction.

SUMMARY OF THE ARGUMENT

Not a single case supports a venue transfer. The trial court is bound by the decisions of McGhee v. McGhee, 145 So.3d 955 (Fla. 1st DCA 2014); Goedmakers v. Goedmakers, 520 So.2d 575 (Fla. 1988) (venue in dissolution action is in the single county where the intact marriage was last evidenced by a continuing union of partners who intended to remain there and to remain married). Pasco County would not have been a proper venue for filing as the parties never resided together in Pasco County, and Wife filed for divorce. It cannot be overlooked that the limitation of the transfer of venue to “any other court of record in which it might have been brought,” in the transfer statute, means that any transfer is limited to a county that would have been a proper venue initially. McGhee, 145 So.2d at 959. A court cannot transfer venue for the convenience of the parties or witnesses, or in the interests of justice, to a forum that would not have been appropriate for the filing of the complaint or petition in the first place. Id. Ergo, there is no legal basis to transfer venue.

Appellant’s elaborate conclusory statements portraying himself as a victim of the system are grossly misplaced. The sole issue before this Court is whether a venue transfer is appropriate. The original Trial Judge granted Appellant’s disqualification request. The disqualification itself does not act as the basis to seek a venue transfer on the premises of justice. No evidence exists of unfair prejudice or bias by the 13th Judicial Circuit Court. The law and facts mandate affirmance.

ARGUMENT ON APPEAL

STANDARD OF REVIEW

Standard of review for an order on a motion to transfer or dismiss for improper venue is abuse of discretion. Kopecky v. Kopecka, 967 So.2d 1109 (Fla. 4th DCA 2007); Florida Health Sciences Center, Inc. d/b/a Tampa General Hospital v. Elsenheimer and Johnson, 952 So.2d 575 (Fla. 2d DCA 2007) (abuse of discretion standard applies where venue challenge is premised upon interest of justice).

LEGAL ARGUMENT

Because It's The Last County Where The Parties Resided As A Marital Couple, Hillsborough County Is the Proper Venue Per Florida Law And No Legal or Factual Basis Exists To Transfer.

The trial judge did not abuse his discretion in denying Appellant's Motion to Transfer Venue. It is settled Florida law that venue is proper where the defendant is domiciled, where the cause of action accrued, or where the property in litigation is located. s.47.011, Fla. Stat. Venue in a dissolution proceeding is to be brought in the single county where the intact marriage was last evidenced. McGhee v. McGhee, 145 So.3d 955 (Fla. 1st DCA 2014). Here, the County is unquestionably Hillsborough County. This is also where the Respondent Husband resides. He confirmed this fact multiple times and agreed multiple times: Hillsborough County is the proper venue.

Appellant seeks a change of venue premised upon the “interest of justice.” However, a trial court transferring a matter even in the interest of justice is not a means to transfer to another County that would never have had jurisdiction. Pasco County would not have been a proper venue for filing as the parties never resided together in Pasco County, and Wife filed for divorce. She is not the Defendant. It cannot be overlooked that the limitation of the transfer of venue to “any other court of record in which it might have been brought,” in the transfer statute, means any transfer is limited to a county that would have been a proper venue initially. McGhee, 145 So.2d at 959. A court cannot transfer venue for the convenience of the parties or witnesses, or in the interests of justice, to a forum that would not have been appropriate for the filing of the complaint or petition in the first place. Id. Ergo, there is no legal basis to transfer venue rendering the likelihood of success on appeal to negligible. None of the cases cited by Appellant support a transfer of venue.

Moreover, nothing within the law permits a party to uproot ongoing litigation on the unsupported premises that he/she deems the entire courthouse unfair. Indeed, Appellant sought the recusal of Judge Ayers twice. The relief if one believed to have been before a bias Judge, regardless of how unfounded, is to request the Judge be recused / disqualified; it is not to change venue. Appellant acquired the relief sought: disqualification and a new Judge. There is no legal basis to now request a venue change nor is there a courthouse to which the matter could be legally transferred.

Appellant acquired the remedy sought and cannot now use that remedy granted (disqualification of a judge) to impute the entire courthouse is bias. The precedent established with such an exception is also contrary to law and order. Once a litigant acquires a disqualification, then can change courthouses because had a judge disqualified? That creates chaos and defeats the entire purpose of the venue statutes.

Further, a transfer of venue does not negate that Pasco County is also within the Second District Court of Appeal. To the extent the 13th Judicial Circuit's decision is unsupported by the law or facts, an appeal may be pursued. Indeed, Appellant is already pursuing his second appeal (a Writ of Certiorari is currently pending as pursued by Appellant). It follows, the only purpose for a transfer to another County is to cause further delay of this matter and block the children from having a voice in this litigation through Wife's Motions. The black letter of the law simply does not support a transfer of venue. Ergo, the trial court did not abuse its discretion in denying the venue transfer.

Not an iota of evidence has been presented to support such a radical conclusion of conspiracy surrounding Appellant's discovery. Judge Felix has not entered a single order on this case as to the discovery sought of Appellant, nor can he in light of the stay granted at Appellant's request. Indeed, Judge Felix had the Motions set for hearing for August 8, 2025; yet, Appellant inexplicably maintains Judge Felix refuses to hear the Motions. The Second District Court of Appeal simply does not have jurisdiction to rule on the relief requested by Appellant concerning discovery as evidence has not even been presented on this issue and the sitting trial judge has not even issued a ruling on the discovery. The entire purpose of this appeal was to cause delay and stay the lower case to avoid the Motions set by Appellee for August 8, 2025.

The paramount concern in family law cases involving a child is to address what is in the best interests of the child. Hassenplug v. Hassenplug, 346 So.3d 149 (Fla. 2d DCA 2022). Husband fully acknowledges his own emotional, physical, and psychological problems and the numerous actions taken by him in these ongoing proceedings demonstrate same. Causing further delay is what Appellant seeks, having successfully cancelled two hearings on Wife's Motions for Psychological Evaluation and for a Guardian Ad Litem. The Guardian Ad Litem is the best means to give the minor children a voice in these proceedings; yet, using the court's processes, Appellant has silenced them. The very proceedings in place to protect the children that is to operate in their best interest during parental disputes is failing them. Appellee cannot even get a hearing to have these Motions set for a third time until an unsupported venue challenge is resolved. If there is truly no basis for the Motions, then let them be heard. Let the trial judge rule on them.

Appellant's bald general assertions that the Court is corrupt because he disagreed with a ruling is not basis to transfer venue nor does it convey jurisdiction to the District Court of Appeal. Appellant has already demonstrated his intent to continue to attempt to alienate the children from their mother and to hinder them from having a voice in these proceedings. It is readily apparent a transfer only causes further delay, blocks Appellee and her children from access to the Courts, and causes unnecessary harm. It is clearly not in the best of interest of the children. No orders have been entered on motions pending for over 250 days that directly impact the well-being of the children. If they are as baseless as Appellant maintains, then let them be heard and ruled upon by the judge.

Moreover, both the pre-nuptial and post-marital settlement agreements are drafted to highly benefit Appellant financially; yet, he has engaged in a pattern of ongoing harassment of everyone involved in the dissolution proceedings. His own attorney withdrew after only approximately a month, with her husband appearing in her defense at a second hearing. The Judge has recused herself after months of harassment by Husband. The minor children are the only ones who cannot escape without Court intervention, which has continuously been delayed by Appellant.

No basis in law or fact exists to transfer venue. The lower court received no evidence or supporting case law to transfer a case in litigation for over-a-year-and-a-half nor is there a legally proper venue to transfer this matter. Appellant's relief is to appeal a decision of the trial judge, which does not change with a venue transfer either. Clearly, there was no abuse of discretion by the lower court.

CONCLUSION

As stated within this Answer, the Trial Court's Order denying a transfer of venue must be affirmed as no abuse of discretion occurred.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

CASE NO. 24DR1150
DIVISION: D

SARAH HANSON, PETITIONER,

AND

CHRISTOPHER HANSON, RESPONDENT.

RESPONSE TO MOTION TO COMPEL PAYMENTS AND MOTION TO COMPEL EVIDENCE OF MARITAL ASSETS AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Petitioner, SARAH HANSON, moves this Court for an Order compelling Respondent CHRISTOPHER HANSON, to reimburse the undersigned for the childcare expenses incurred to date and for expenses incurred by Respondent and states:

1. Some background is necessary to understand the isolated email attached to Petitioner's motion and Respondent's request for Petitioner's financial statements going back nearly 8 years. The Respondent had truly hoped to avoid the divorce itself and certainly time and expense associated with discovery, assets, etc., however, that has become impossible.
2. Physical abuse at the hands of Petitioner started almost exactly six years ago when the parties and their first born daughter were leaving dinner with relatives at Bonefish.
3. Back in 2018, while Petitioner was driving home and Respondent was seated in the back driver's side seat, with their daughter in the back passenger's seat, Petitioner struck Respondent multiple times. Petitioner was driving erratically while swinging at Respondent behind her, crossing over into other lanes of traffic.
4. Petitioner showed little to no remorse in the hours and days after the event. Respondent considered divorce at that time, but with a second child on the way, remained determined to make the marriage work.

5. That experience did leave Respondent quite scared of Petitioner especially when she would become enraged in front of the children.
6. Despite Respondent paying for nearly every living expense, finances were always a contentious point and Respondent largely avoided conversations about them in order to keep the peace.
7. Respondent opened a joint bank account with petitioner at 5/3 bank on November 8, 2016, 11 days after the marriage. Respondent consistently funded this joint account, out of which Petitioner spent, but to which she never contributed any funds. Respondent frequently put additional funds in the account.
8. Petitioner never contributed anything whatsoever to payments for the mortgage, taxes, or insurance on the marital home at any time throughout the marriage.
9. Respondent worked long hours paying for nearly every aspect of their lives while Petitioner proudly declared more than once, "I have no appreciation for anything that you do."
10. While Petitioner had access to balance and log in information for Respondent's accounts, she was never forthcoming about her finances throughout the marriage, only insisting she was unable to contribute to anything other than some child care/school, groceries and the occasional bill she didn't pay out of the joint account funded solely by Respondent.
11. Petitioner consistently told Respondent that she could only pay the bare minimum required payment on her student loans, even complaining when the minimum went up as Respondent's income increased over the first 4-5 years of the marriage.
12. Respondent's health and income have declined significantly in the past 3 years.
13. The parties entered into a Premarital Agreement (attached as Exhibit A) which specifically identifies personal assets and liabilities from prior to the marriage remain personal. Incomes earned by either party during the marriage are marital property.

Respondent is seeking discovery into marital property.

14. Even up to and including the hearing when Your Honor asked the question about whether the marriage was irretrievably broken, Respondent hoped there could be a way to reconciliation for the family. The thought of not having his children in his home consistently was enough that the undersigned endured an excessive amount of mistreatment in trying to make the marriage work.
15. At a minimum, Respondent hoped that the parties could work out discovery and support issues on their own and remains steadfast in the belief that reciprocity is fair.
16. Respondent is requesting all statements for all accounts on which Petitioner's name appeared ever since the marriage, October 28, 2016.
17. Respondent offered to provide all statements on all of his accounts during that same period, but Petitioner still refuses to provide information about marital assets absent a Court order.
18. This is antithetical to the parties' conversations about trying to get through this difficult process without legal expenses.
19. Further, a refusal to provide reciprocal information about marital assets demonstrates a lack of transparency and the likelihood that there is information that Petitioner wants to conceal, specifically marital property that she may be hiding.
20. Petitioner grossly overstates Respondents income in her financial disclosures. Especially the net income has decreased consistently over the course of the past 3 plus years. Gross income went down to $208,029 in 2023 (paid as K1 partner with firm contributions and tax liabilities in multiple other states where the firm does business all coming out of that total). Respondent changed law firms in 2021, and his income decreased significantly ever since due to a loss of accounts receivable and the policies at the new law firm which resulted in significantly less net income.
21. Over the years with continuing and increasing marital problems, Respondent struggled continuing to do the job often suggesting that he needed to find another line of work.

Currently, the undersigned is unable to work due to severe physical, mental and emotional conditions related to these marital and other recent issues.

22. Respondent is undergoing invasive treatments both for physical and psychiatric issues requiring significant time and expense, while trying to put off at least one back surgery to a time when a successful result is more likely. With the stress and totality of the current reality, Respondent is concerned that back surgery is likely to produce a poor result. He will soon start daily (5 days per week) TMS treatments that will increase the time and cost of necessary medical care.
23. Once the Respondent's health fell apart and income decreased, Petitioner chose to leave Respondent and now continues to conceal information about marital assets.
24. In paragraph 1 of Petitioner's motion, she states she, "relocated, in part at Respondent's insistence, from the marital home." That is simply not accurate. Respondent was always pushing to continue working on the marriage and only insisted that the outbursts and cruelty had to stop.
25. Respondent has pleaded with Petitioner to provide the requested financial information without the need for attorney involvement although she has continued to refuse.
26. Respondent momentarily refused to provide payment for expenses, certainly in part out of anger and frustration, but primarily in hopes that Petitioner would simply provide the requested bank statements without the need to spend money on an attorney.
27. The last thing Respondent wanted to do was to make this ugly and spend money on lawyers that could be spent on or saved for the children, especially given the current health concerns. He has gone to great lengths of which he is very proud to put the children first.
28. Petitioner has indicated that she will only comply with Court orders in terms of providing financial information requested by Respondent. She also recently resorted to formal interrogatories when the Respondent has indicated that he would informally provide any information requested including bank records, medical information, etc.

29. While Respondent is disappointed in Petitioner's sudden departure from working cooperatively and continuing with informal discussions the parties had always discussed, he understands that is her right.
30. Respondent has spent many hours trying to respond to this Motion, and had a final draft that included a misconception about Petitioner's financial disclosure and status of student loan payments. Respondent is not in a position that he can handle the stress and analysis required to efficiently navigate these legal issues that Petitioner is now pushing.
31. It's clear that Respondent is not able to engage in contentious discovery on his own. And although this is the last option the Respondent wanted to pursue, he will need to retain an attorney to help with discovery into marital assets and hopefully the parties will be able to resolve these issue informally once that is complete.
32. While Respondent is agreeable to making payments for half of reasonable expenses for the children, Respondent does not waive the right to seek child support from Petitioner. In fact, Respondent intends on seeking child support from Petitioner and reserves the right to request Court intervention on the current 50/50 custody arrangement.
33. Because respondent agrees to make payment for the appropriate expenses, the Motion to Compel payment should be denied as moot. Furthermore, there is no order or other agreement before the Court on which an order from the Court is necessary or appropriate on the support issue. Finally, Petitioner did not ask Respondent if he objected to a formal motion on the topic and that should also justify denying the motion to compel payment.
34. Respondent requests that the Court enter an order requiring Petitioner to provide bank statements that document her use of marital assets throughout the marriage to investigate into whether the financial disclosures are accurate or if there are additional accounts that she is not disclosing or other discovery that is appropriate. Respondent asked Petitioner if she objects to the motion. She's expressed objection to it multiple times, but if she agrees to provide the documents, the motion will be moot. The Petitioner will also likely supplement the motion to compel once counsel is retained.

WHEREFORE, Respondent CHRIS HANSON respectfully requests this Court enter an Order denying Petitioner's motion to compel and enter an order granting Respondent's motion to compel financial information.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, STATE OF FLORIDA FAMILY LAW DIVISION

In re: the Marriage of:

SARAH HANSON,

Petitioner,

Case Number: 24-DR-001150

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,

Respondent.

_____ /

WIFE’S AMENDED PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE WITH MINOR CHILDREN AND FOR OTHER RELATED RELIEF

Petitioner, Sarah Hanson, by and through the undersigned attorney, files this Amended Petition for Dissolution of Marriage with Minor Children and for Other Related Relief (the “Amended Petition”). As grounds therefore, Petitioner states the following:

1. Action. This is an action for dissolution of marriage with minor children and for other related relief.
2. Parties. The parties to this action are Petitioner, Sarah Hanson (“Wife”) and Respondent, Christopher Hanson (“Husband”), collectively, (the “Parties”).
3. Jurisdiction. The Parties were continuous residents of the State of Florida for more than six (6) months immediately preceding the filing of Wife’s initial Joint Petition for Dissolution of Marriage with Dependent/Minor Children (“Wife’s initial Petition”) [DIN 5] on January 26, 2024. The Court entered an Initial Jurisdictional May 9, 2024 [DIN 23].
4. Venue. Venue is proper in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit because the Parties last resided together as Husband and Wife in Hillsborough County.
5. Motion for Leave to Amend Not Required. It is not necessary for Wife to file a motion requesting leave to amend her pleadings because Husband did not file an answer to Wife’s initial Petition.

6. Marital Statistic. The Parties were married on October 28, 2016, at Newport, Tennessee.
7. Marriage Irretrievably Broken. The marriage of the Parties is irretrievably broken, and the bonds of marriage should be dissolved, a vinculo.
8. Military Service. Both Parties are over the age of 18, and neither Party is an active member of the Armed Forces of the United States (“U.S. Armed Forces”), nor were they active members of the U.S. Armed Forces within a period of 30 days immediately preceding the date of filing of Wife’s initial Petition.
9. Minor Children. There were two (2) minor children born to the Parties during the marriage, to wit: H.G.H., a female, born October 2017, at Tampa, Florida; and H.G.H., a female, born July 2019, at Tampa, Florida (the “Children”). No other children were born to or adopted by the Parties, the Parties are not parties to a pending adoption proceeding, and Wife is not pregnant.
10. UCCJEA Affidavit. Florida was the home state of the Children as of the date of filing of Wife’s initial Joint Petition for Dissolution of Marriage with Dependent/Minor Children. Wife will file a Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) Affidavit.
11. Premarital Agreement. On or about October 25, 2016, the Parties executed a Premarital Agreement. A true and accurate copy of the Premarital Agreement is attached hereto as “Exhibit A”.
12. Marital Separation Agreement. On October 8, 2023, the Parties executed a Marital Separation Agreement. A true and accurate copy of the Marital Separation Agreement is attached hereto as “Exhibit B”.

13. Parental Responsibility. It is in the best interests of the Children for the Parties to have shared parental responsibility of the Children with Wife having ultimate decision-making authority regarding education, healthcare, childcare, extracurricular activities, and other matters which are unique to this family.

14. Time-Sharing. Wife acknowledges that section 61.13(2)(c)(1) creates a rebuttable presumption that equal time-sharing of minor children is in the best interests of the minor children. However, based on the facts and circumstances that are unique to this family, equal time-sharing is not in the best interests of the Children. Furthermore, the provision set forth in the Marital Separation Agreement that stating “[t]he Parties agree to joint custody of the Children with 50/50 custody to be shared between Husband and Wife as agreed to by the Parties” is not in the best interests of the Children. It is in the best interests of the Children for the Court to establish a Parenting Plan awarding Wife majority time-sharing with the Children on a temporary and permanent basis.

15. Parenting Plan. In establishing the Parenting Plan, the Court should adjudicate, on a temporary and permanent basis, describing in adequate detail, how the Parties will share and be responsible for the daily tasks as associated with the upbringing of the Children; the time-sharing schedule arrangements specifying the time that the Children will spend with each of the Parties; a designation of who will be responsible for any and all forms of health care, school-related matters, other activities; the methods and technologies that the Parties will use to communicate with the Children; provisions relating to the right of first refusal; and provisions for domestic travel, international travel, and the acquisition, maintenance, and renewal of United States Passports for the Children.

16. Legal and School Designation. It is in the best interests of the Children for the Court to designate Wife's address as the Children's address for school (in the event that the Children attend public school) and legal purposes on a temporary and permanent basis.

17. Child Support. Both Parties can contribute to the support of the Children in accordance with the Florida Child Support Guidelines, section 61.30, Florida Statutes. The Court should calculate the Parties respective child support contributions, including contributions for the Children's insured and uninsured medical, dental, pharmaceutical, orthodontic, ocular, psychiatric, psychological, and related expenses and contributions to the Children's childcare expenses, summer camps, and extracurricular activities, as applicable.

18. Imputation of Income to Husband for Calculation of Child Support. Wife respectfully asserts that Husband is voluntarily unemployed. Husband is an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Florida. For purposes of determining the Parties' respective obligations to contribute to the support of the Children as requested herein, the Court should find that Husband is voluntarily unemployed and impute an appropriate income to Husband, considering the employment potential and probable earnings level of Husband as determined based upon his employment history, education, professional licensure, other occupational qualifications, transferrable skills, and the prevailing earnings level in the community.

19. Payment of Child Support Via IWO and Through SDU. It is in the best interests of the Children that any child support ordered by the Court is paid via an Income Withholding Order and payable through the State Disbursement Unit pursuant to section 61.1301, Florida Statutes.

20. Health Insurance for the Children. Wife presently provides health and dental insurance for the Children and the Parties equally share the premiums. Wife should be required to continue to maintain health and dental insurance for the Children, so long as such insurance is reasonably available to her through her employment or through other reasonable and affordable means. The costs relating to the Children's health, dental, and ocular insurance should be equally divided between the Parties in accordance with the Marital Separation Agreement.

21. Children's Uncovered Health Care Expenses. The Parties should equally contribute to the Children's uncovered medical, dental, orthodontia, and ocular expenses both prospectively and retroactively, in accordance with the Marital Separation Agreement.

22. Children's Other Expenses. The Parties should equally contribute to the Children's childcare expenses to include after-school activities and clubs, extended day program at school, extracurricular activity costs for enrollment, supplies, and athletic gear, and the cost of tuition and school uniforms at Cambridge Christian, both prospectively and retroactively, in accordance with the Marital Separation Agreement.

23. Life Insurance to Secure Child Support. To secure the Parties respective obligations to provide for the support of the Children, both Parties should be required to maintain a life insurance policy on their respective lives and/or a bond and/or other mechanism with the other Party designated as the irrevocable beneficiary to provide for the support of the Children in the event of said Party's untimely demise.

24. Dependency Exemption and/or Child Tax Credit. Each Party should each claim one (1) Child for dependency exemptions¹ and/or for purposes of child tax credits on their ¹ As of the time of the filing of this Amended Petition for Dissolution of Marriage and for Other Related Relief, the deduction for personal exemptions is suspended for tax years 2018 through 2025 by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. Although the exemption amount is zero, eligibility to claim an exemption may make a taxpayer eligible for other tax benefits. Although taxpayers can't claim a deduction for exemptions, eligibility to claim an exemption for a child remains important for determining who may claim the child tax credit, the additional child tax credit, and the credit for other dependents, as well as other tax benefits. respective federal income tax returns each year in accordance with the Marital Separation Agreement. The other Party should be required to execute Internal Revenue Service Form 8332 (Release/Revocation of Release of Claim to Exemption for Child by Custodial Parent) on an annual basis and no later than January 31st of each calendar year.

25. Division of Assets and Liabilities. The Premarital Agreement and Marital Separation Agreement govern the division of assets and liabilities between the Parties. The Court should award each Party their respective assets and liabilities according to the Premarital Agreement and Marital Separation Agreement.

26. Alimony. The Premarital Agreement and Marital Separation Agreement include a waiver of alimony. Neither Party should pay alimony to the other.

27. Attorney's Fees, Costs, and Suit Money. Wife retained DML Attorneys, P.A. and subsequently Tampa Bay Family Law & Mediation, P.A. to represent her in this action and is obligated to pay reasonable attorney's fees, costs, suit money incurred for professional services rendered. The Premarital Agreement addresses attorney's fees incurred for the enforcement of the provisions therein and states "[s]hould any party hereto retain counsel for the purpose of enforcing or preventing the breach of any provision of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, by instituting any action or proceeding to enforce any provision hereof, for damages by reason of any alleged breach of any provision hereof, for a declaration of such party's rights or obligations hereunder, or for any other judicial remedy, then the prevailing party shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the losing party for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred thereby, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and costs for the services rendered to such prevailing party, whether at trial, in bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings, or on appeal." Accordingly, should it become necessary for Wife to engage in litigation to enforce the terms and conditions of the Premarital Agreement and Marital Separation Agreement, Husband should be required to pay for Wife's reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and suit money, irrespective of need and ability to pay. The Parties should otherwise pay their own attorney's fees, costs, and suit money incurred in connection with this action.

WHEREFORE, Wife, Sarah Hanson, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage awarding Wife the following relief:

- A. Continue to exercise jurisdiction over the subject matter and the Parties;
- B. Grant the relief requested herein and dissolve the marriage of the Parties, a vinculo;
- C. Award the Parties shared parental responsibility of the Children with Wife having ultimate decision-making authority regarding education, healthcare, childcare, extracurricular activities, and other matters which are unique to this family;
- D. Enter a Parenting Plan awarding Wife majority time-sharing with the Children on a temporary and permanent basis;
- E. Order the Parties to contribute to the support of the Children, equal contributions to the Children's insured and uninsured medical, dental, pharmaceutical, orthodontic, ocular, psychiatric, psychological and like expenses, after-school activities and clubs, extended day program at school, extracurricular activity costs for enrollment, supplies, and athletic gear, and the cost of tuition and school uniforms at Cambridge Christian, both prospectively and retroactively, in accordance with the Marital Separation Agreement;
- F. For purposes of determining child support, find that Husband is voluntarily unemployed and impute an appropriate income to Husband, considering the employment potential and probable earnings level of Husband as determined based upon his employment history, education, professional licensure, other occupational qualifications, transferrable skills, and the prevailing earnings level in the community;

- G. Order both Parties to maintain a life insurance policy on their respective lives and/or a bond and/or other mechanism with the other Party designated as the irrevocable beneficiary to insure their respective child support obligations and provide for the support of the Children in the event of the other Party's untimely demise;
- H. Order that any child support payments ordered be paid via an Income Withholding Order and through the State Disbursement Unit pursuant to section 61.1301, Florida Statutes;
- I. Order that neither Party pay alimony to the other Party in accordance with the Premarital Agreement and Marital Separation Agreement;
- J. Divide the Parties' assets and liabilities in accordance with the Premarital Agreement and Marital Separation Agreement;
- K. To the extent that it is necessary for Wife to engage in litigation to enforce the terms and conditions of the Premarital Agreement and Marital Separation Agreement, Order Husband to pay Wife's reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and suit money, irrespective of need and ability to pay. Otherwise, order that each Party pay their own attorney's fees, costs, and suit money incurred in connection with this action;
- L. Award Wife any other relief requested herein; and
- M. Granting all such other and further relief as the Court may seem proper under the circumstances.

Exhibit A

PREMARITAL AGREEMENT

THIS PREMARITAL AGREEMENT (herein after "Agreement") is between Christopher Hanson and Sarah Sorgie, each of whom reside in Tampa, Florida.

RECITALS

This agreement is made with reference to the following facts, which each party acknowledges to be true:

- A. The parties contemplate marriage to one another in the near future.
- B. The parties desire to define their financial and property rights and responsibilities, insofar as these can be seen, with the objective of this Agreement governing the disposition of the parties' financial and property rights should the marriage of the parties be dissolved in the future. Except as expressly described in this Agreement, each party intends for his or her respective assets to benefit his or her respective children, heirs, or other designated beneficiaries, free of any right, interest, or claim of the other party, or of a spouse.
- C. Each party owns separate assets. A simple financial statement of each party has been attached to this Agreement. While neither party represents that his or her financial statement, as attached, presents a precise delineation of his or her assets and liabilities, each acknowledges that it constitutes a full and frank disclosure in general and approximate terms.
- D. Each party acknowledges that his or her financial statement has been prepared without the benefit of professional appraisals and without the assistance of accountants; consequently, the values reflected in each statement represent the owner's personal, good faith estimate of value, which each party has presented in a manner which seems logical to the drafter. However, each party represents to the other that he or she has fully disclosed to the other his or her financial position by the representations contained in the attached financial statements, subject only to the caveat that the attached statements were prepared informally and without professional assistance.

E. Each party acknowledges that he or she has substantial information concerning the financial position of the other party, and the financial opportunities available to the other party, by virtue of the fact that they have dated each other for an extended period of time and have discussed these matters in detail in the context of their anticipated marriage to each other and the execution of this Agreement.

F. Each party acknowledges that he or she has had a full and fair opportunity to learn the current assets, income, financial opportunities, and financial position of the other. All questions concerning such matters which he or she has asked the other party have been answered to his or her satisfaction.

G. Each party is satisfied with the information and disclosures which he or she has received from the other party, or otherwise possesses, and each feels prepared to execute this Agreement knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily, as a product of his or her free will. Each party hereby waives the necessity of further financial disclosure from the other party, acknowledging that additional disclosure is unnecessary to the decisions set forth in this Agreement.

H. Each party acknowledges that he or she has given careful thought to the making of this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that he or she has had sufficient time to make an informed decision in this regard, having begun this process well before the date of this document's execution.

I. Each party acknowledges that he or she independently desires to execute a premarital agreement for his or her own personal reasons, which include defining their financial and property rights and responsibilities should the marriage be dissolved.

REAL PROPERTY AND HOME FURNISHINGS

In consideration of the mutual promises contained herein and their forthcoming marriage to each other, Christopher Hanson and Sarah Sorgie agree as follows:

Mr. Hanson currently maintains his home in a residence located at 3934 E. Eden Rock Circle, Tampa, FL 33634. The residence is deeded solely to Christopher Hanson as a single man. The home secures, and is encumbered by, a mortgage, of which Mr. Hanson is the sole obligor. Mr. Hanson purchased the home within the past year and made a ninety-thousand dollar ($90,000.00) down payment on the home at the time of the purchase.

If the parties do make the home their marital residence, it is expected that payments on the mortgage will be made from marital funds. Should either party file a petition for dissolution of the parties' marriage (or similar proceeding) within thirty (30) days of the date of the filing of said petition for dissolution of marriage, Sarah Sorgie shall provide to Christopher Hanson a list of four (4) names of qualified and licensed residential property appraisers. Mr. Hanson, at his expense, shall have the marital home appraised by one of the aforementioned residential property appraisers. Upon completion of the appraisal Mr. Hanson, at his sole discretion, may elect to pay to Sarah Sorgie one half of the appraised value of the marital home less $90,000.00. In consideration of said payment, Sarah Sorgie shall at that time, waive any right, interest, or claim to the marital home, notwithstanding the use of the property as a marital homestead, Sarah Sorgie's investment of funds in the property, or her provision of services in connection with such property, or either party's investment of funds or provision of services to the property, even if such funds or services enhance the value of the property. Upon said payment, Mr. Hanson shall retain the marital home free of any and all rights, interests, or claims of Sarah Sorgie. The payment shall be made prior to the entry of any final judgment of dissolution of marriage.

Sarah Sorgie's waiver provided for herein shall include, without limitation, the right to claim a life estate under Florida homestead law, and the right to seek continued use or possession of the marital residence. The waiver provided for herein shall also include, but is not limited to, the right to share in the increased or enhanced value of the marital residence, even if such increased or enhanced value accrued during the parties' marriage, or resulted from either party's investment of funds or use of personal efforts, skills, or services in connection with the property during their marriage, or from the parties' mutual investment of funds or mutual commitment of personal efforts, skills, or services in connection with the marital residence.

Each party owns certain furnishings, decorative effects, and personal items which may accompany them to the residence which they establish after their marriage. Such furnishings, decorative effects, and personal items always shall remain the separate, exclusive, non-marital property of the original owner, free of any and all rights, interests, or claims of the other party, notwithstanding the combination of such furnishings, decorative effects, and personal items in a mutual marital home, or the commitment of such property to use by the parties mutually or by either party, individually, after their marriage.

The parties anticipate purchasing with marital funds certain furnishings, decorative effects, electronic equipment, and other personal items for the marital home after their marriage. All such property shall be considered marital assets as that term is defined in Chapter 61 of the Florida Statutes and subject to equitable distribution as provided for in said Chapter.

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

Each of the parties agrees that the assets and liabilities described hereafter shall remain the separate property of the party who originally owned them, free of any and all right, claim, or interest of the other party:

- A. All property, whether real or personal, belonging to the party at the commencement of the parties' marriage to each other;
- B. All property acquired by a party out of the proceeds or income from property owned at the commencement of the parties' marriage, or attributable to appreciation in value of said property, whether the enhancement in value is due to market conditions or to the services, skills, financial investments, or efforts of either or both of the parties, or to a combination of factors;

61 gms

C. All property hereafter acquired by a party by gift, devise, bequest, or inheritance from any source, or income from said property, or attributable to appreciation in value of said property, whether the enhancement in value is due to market conditions or to the services, skills, efforts, or financial investments of either or both of the parties, or to a combination of factors;

D. All gifts of personal property made by either party to the other prior to or during their marriage shall become and always remain the separate property of the recipient;

E. All property purchased or acquired from the earnings, financial entitlements, or income of a spouse during the marriage shall become a marital asset as that term is defined in Chapter 61 of the Florida Statutes and subject to equitable distribution as provided for in said Chapter; and

F. All debts owed by either party individually at the inception of their marriage shall remain the separate liabilities of the original individual obligor.

G. All liabilities entered into during the marriage shall become a marital liability as that term is defined in Chapter 61 of the Florida Statutes and subject to equitable distribution as provided for in said Chapter.

EARNINGS, INCOME, AND FINANCIAL ENTITLEMENTS

The parties mutually agree that all of the earnings, income, and financial entitlements resulting from a party's personal services, skill, effort, work, investments, retirement, or disability prior to their marriage, together with all property acquired or income derived therefrom, shall be and remain the separate

DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY TO SPOUSE

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, either party may, by appropriate valid written instrument only, transfer, convey, devise, or bequeath any property to the other, or nominate the other as personal representative of his or her estate. Either party may make gifts of assets or items to the other, which shall constitute the sole, exclusive separate property of the recipient. Neither party intends by this Agreement to limit or restrict in any way the right to receive any such transfer, conveyance, gift, devise, or bequest from the other, or to act as such personal representative if so nominated.

JOINTLY OWNED ASSETS

During their marriage, the parties may acquire and own property jointly with the other party, as reflected in the title of the joint asset, or the written instrument which created their mutual ownership. To the extent that such jointly owned property may exist, the parties intend for it to be resolved as follows: Jointly owned assets shall pass by operation of law to the survivor upon the death of the first joint tenant, to be owned, controlled, and enjoyed by the survivor as his or her sole separate property, as the survivor sees fit. In this regard, the parties understand that jointly owned assets are not estate assets, which otherwise would be governed by the estate planning of the first spouse to die. Should the parties' marriage end in dissolution or annulment, then they intend for jointly owned assets to be partitioned equally between them in such proceedings, irrespective of the original source of funding for such joint assets, and irrespective of claims of special equity, or of the right to seek a disproportionate equitable distribution, or of any other claim or assertion which otherwise might increase a joint owner's equal share, all of which they hereby waive and relinquish. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, an owner who pays ownership expenses on behalf of the other co-owner after a legal proceeding has been filed by one party against the other shall be entitled to reimbursement of the ownership expenses which he or she has advanced on the other owner's behalf. Such reimbursement shall be paid promptly upon the request of the party who advanced payment, but in no event later than the division of proceeds in the context of a closing of the sale of such property, including a court-ordered partition of such property.

SPOUSAL RIGHTS IN DISSOLUTION PROCEEDINGS

This Agreement shall be construed as a Marital Settlement Agreement in the event that proceedings are filed to dissolve or annul the parties' marriage, or to establish support obligations related to it, and it shall not be subject to modification by the Court thereafter regardless of any change in circumstances of either or both parties which may occur after its execution. Except as provided herein, each party releases all claims or demands that either of them may acquire because of the marriage against the other for property of the other (including the separate property of the other and the other's share of joint or marital property), whether by way of equitable distribution, lump sum alimony to effect equitable distribution, special equity by reason of special contribution of money, property, or services, or otherwise, for spousal support, and for attorney's fees, costs, and suit money, both on a temporary and ongoing basis. This paragraph shall include all rights now existing or which hereafter may be conferred on either party by statute, decisional law, or otherwise. Nothing in this paragraph, however, shall preclude a court of competent jurisdiction from partitioning the joint property of the parties in an action for dissolution of marriage or annulment of the parties' marriage, or in a separate action for partition. In the event of dissolution or annulment of the marriage of the parties, this Agreement shall be enforced by the court and incorporated into any final judgment rendered by the court, provided that, despite incorporation, the Agreement shall not merge into the final judgment but shall survive the judgment and also be binding according to its terms.

ALIMONY

Each party hereby releases the other from any and all claims or demands that he or she may acquire because of the marriage against the other for alimony or spousal support in any form, including, without limitation, temporary, rehabilitative, durational, bridge-the-gap, lump sum, and permanent alimony, support, and separate maintenance (both periodic and lump sum in nature), whether unconnected or connected with dissolution or annulment of marriage, and for attorney's fees, costs, and suit money incurred in connection with a dissolution or annulment of the parties' marriage pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude an award of attorney's fees, costs, and suit money to a prevailing party who successfully enforces this Agreement, as set forth herein.

DEBTS

Neither party shall assume or become responsible for the payment of any debts or obligations of the other party because of the marriage. Neither party shall do anything that would cause the debt or obligation of one of them to be a claim, demand, lien, or encumbrance against the property of the other party without the other party's written consent. If a debt or obligation of one party is asserted as a claim or demand against the property of the other without his or her written consent, then the party who is responsible for originating the debt or obligation shall indemnify the other party from the claim or demand, and hold him or her harmless, including the indemnified party's costs, expenses, and attorney's fees.

CONSIDERATION FOR AGREEMENT

The consideration for this Agreement is the contemplated marriage between the parties and the mutual promises contained herein, the sufficiency of which the parties acknowledge.

FURTHER ASSURANCE

Without any additional consideration, each party shall promptly, at the request of the other, execute, acknowledge, and deliver from time to time all additional instruments which may be required to accomplish the intent of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, title papers, deeds, or other documents usually executed by a husband and wife residing in the state of Florida which are necessary or convenient to transfer or encumber real or personal property, or to evidence the fact that the property of a married man or woman residing in Florida is the separate property of such married man or woman. In the event any of the separate property owned by either of the parties is or becomes characterized as homestead property under Florida law, the non-owning party shall join in any conveyance or documents of encumbrance (e.g., deed or mortgage) without additional consideration to permit the owning party to convey or encumber such property at will.

EFFETIVE DATE OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall not be effective until the marriage contemplated by the parties has been solemnized. In the event that the marriage is not solemnized within one year from the date the last party to execute this Agreement does so, then this Agreement shall be null, void, and of no legal force and effect whatsoever.

TRANSMUTATION, MODIFICATION, OR REVOCATION

Except as otherwise provided herein, property or interests now owned or hereafter acquired by either party, which by the terms of this Agreement are classified as the separate property of one of the parties, can only become the separate property of the other party, or the parties' joint or marital property, by a valid written instrument which has been executed by the party whose separate property is being transferred or reclassified. Except as otherwise provided herein, the parties acknowledge that contributions of money, property, or services by one or both parties toward the separate property of the other, or toward property held by them jointly, shall not result in the creation of a special equity, enhanced interest, or other claim for a share of separate property or for a disproportionately greater share of jointly owned property.

The parties do not intend for this Agreement to be challenged or nullified by virtue of a party's conduct which may be viewed as being inconsistent with its terms (unless such conduct results in execution of a valid written instrument which conveys title or creates an interest in previously separate property, as described and authorized in this Agreement). They do not intend for the validity or operative effect of this Agreement to be challenged or successfully attacked through contractual defenses, which they hereby waive, or through claims or arguments that one or both parties failed to comply with this Agreement in some respect, or revoked this Agreement verbally or through conduct, including destruction of the document, or failed to furnish consideration, or that he or she has breached this Agreement by failing to perform its terms in whole or in part, so as to relieve the other party of its operative effect. Consequently, to the extent that one or both parties engage in personal or financial transactions which are, or could be viewed as being, inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, then such conduct shall not result in revocation, rescission, alteration, revision, modification, or amendment of this Agreement in any manner, or provide grounds to avoid specific performance of its terms. Conversely, such transactions shall not, either individually or by cumulative effect, alter, affect, revoke, invalidate, or excuse specific performance of this Agreement, which shall remain valid and binding for all time unless modified or revoked in writing, as described below.

Modification, amendment, or revocation of this Agreement shall occur solely through a valid written instrument which specifically modifies, amends, or revokes it, which is executed in the presence of a notary and two subscribing witnesses.

CK

BENEFIT AND BURDEN

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, administrators, personal representatives, successors, and assigns. No other person shall have a right or cause of action arising or resulting from this Agreement.

INTEGRATION

This Agreement sets forth the entire understanding and agreement between the parties with regard to the subject matter hereof. All agreements, covenants, representations, and warranties, express and implied, oral and written, of the parties with regard to the subject matter hereof are contained herein. No other agreements, covenants, representations, or warranties, express or implied, oral or written, exist or have been made by either party to the other with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. All prior and contemporaneous conversations, negotiations, possible and alleged agreements, and representations, covenants, and warranties with respect to the subject matter hereof are waived, merged herein, and expressly superseded by this document. This is an integrated Agreement, which shall not be altered by parole evidence.

GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE

This Agreement has been drafted in Tampa, Florida, and shall be governed by, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, as applied to contracts made in Florida by Florida domiciliaries to be wholly performed in Florida. Venue of any legal proceeding brought on or in connection with this Agreement, including, without limitation, a proceeding to dissolve or annul the parties' marriage, shall lie exclusively in Hillsborough County, Florida.

COSTS AND EXPENSES

Each party shall bear his or her respective costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement, including without limitation, the negotiation, preparation, and consummation thereof.

INDEPENDENT COUNSEL AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Prior to signing this Agreement, each party consulted with an attorney of his or her choice, or had a full and adequate opportunity to secure desired legal consultation. Each party acknowledges to the other that he or she has a complete understanding of this Agreement and the rights and obligations that each would have to the other if this Agreement were not made. Each party acknowledges that but for this Agreement, the rights which each would be entitled to as a spouse or which each could assert against the other would be greater than as provided in this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that the provisions of this Agreement are fair and reasonable as to each. Each party acknowledges that he or she is signing the same freely and voluntarily and that neither party has any reason to believe that the other party did not understand fully the terms and effects of this Agreement or that he or she did not freely and voluntarily execute this Agreement.

SEVERABILITY

In the event any of the provisions of this Agreement are deemed to be invalid or unenforceable, the same shall be deemed severable from the remainder of this

5/17/20

Agreement and shall not cause the invalidity or unenforceability of the remainder of this Agreement. If such provision shall be deemed invalid due to its scope, such provision shall be deemed valid to the extent of the scope or breadth permitted by law.

CAPTIONS

Paragraph titles or captions contained herein are inserted as a matter of convenience and for reference and do not define, limit, expand, or describe the scope of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

INTERPRETATION

No provision in this Agreement is to be interpreted for or against a party because that party or that party's legal representative drafted the provision.

FUTURE ATTORNEY'S FEES

Should any party hereto retain counsel for the purpose of enforcing or preventing the breach of any provision of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, by instituting any action or proceeding to enforce any provision hereof, for damages by reason of any alleged breach of any provision hereof, for a declaration of such party's rights or obligations hereunder, or for any other judicial remedy, then the prevailing party shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the losing party for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred thereby, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and costs for the services rendered to such prevailing party, whether at trial, in bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings, or on appeal.

RELEASE

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each party releases all claims or demands in the property or estate of the other, however or whenever acquired, including acquisitions, appreciations, enhancements in the future, and for alimony in all forms, support, separate maintenance, attorney's fees, costs, and suit money.

FAILURE TO ENFORCE

The failure of a party to insist on strict performance of any provision of this Agreement is not a waiver of this Agreement, or of any provision of this Agreement, nor does it have any legal consequence or bearing on the matters of future enforcement of this Agreement.

Exhibit B

MARITAL SEPARATION AGREEMENT

This Marital Separation Agreement is to be effective as of the date of signature of both spouses and is made in the spirit of cooperation between Christopher Hanson (Husband) and Sarah Hanson (Wife).

In exchange for Wife relinquishing any and all claims/rights she may have to any of husband's assets and any future rights to support (outside of sharing in children's expenses discussed separately below) including but not limited to the following: real estate/real property including but not limited to the property of 3934 E Eden Roc Cir., Tampa, FL 33634 (including but not limited to any proceeds from sale or other transaction), any and all property and/or property rights within and/or outside the City of Tampa, any claims to any past, present, and/or future inheritance(s), any and all investment property, any vehicles, any claims of alimony, and/or spousal support, Husband agrees to a one-time payment of $100,000.00 to Wife's Chase Banking Account. Funds are to be transferred to: the account of Sarah Sorgie, account number [REDACTED] routing number 267084131 or made payable by way of Money Order to be deposited by Wife upon receipt. The payment/transfer is to occur within one week of the signed agreement.

This one-time payment of $100,000 shall forever resolve Husband's financial responsibilities and obligations to wife for any financial duties or responsibilities he may otherwise owe or may have owed under the law including but not limited to past, present and/or future support (outside of the child expense agreement referenced below) and/or alimony, any right Wife may have and/or have had to any marital funds and property of any kind (other than items purchased specifically by the wife). By accepting payment of the $100,000, Wife understands and agrees that the Husband is not waiving any protections offered by the Pre-Nuptial agreement. Wife further agrees in exchange for the $100,000 consideration, not to challenge any protections the Pre-Nuptial agreement may offer Husband and agrees not to seek any additional money, investments, or property of any kind from Husband (outside of the child expense agreement referenced below). By accepting the $100,000 payment referenced above, Wife specifically understands that she waives any rights to the property and support described herein that she otherwise had, has, or may have at the time of formal divorce should that occur. In the event the Husband and Wife formally divorce in the future, child support will continue per the agreement herein, while this agreement specifically confirms that there will be no further obligation for Husband to offer any further payment or support to Wife.

The parties agree as part of the separation that Husband/Wife is absolved of his/her spouse's liabilities, financial responsibilities, and obligations and holds no past, present, or future financial responsibilities and obligations to his/her spouse for any financial duties or responsibilities he/she may otherwise owe or may have owed under the law including but not limited to past, present and/or future support and/or alimony, any right Husband may have and/or have had to any marital funds and property of any kind (other than items purchased specifically by the Husband Husband/Wife further agrees not to seek any money, investments, or property of any kind from his/her spouse (outside of the voluntary child support referenced below). Husband/Wife specifically understands that he/she waives any rights he/she otherwise had, has, or may have at the time of formal divorce and any other event that may otherwise have impacted past, present and/or future support and/or alimony, any right Husband/Wife may have and/or have had to any marital funds and property of any kind. In the event the Husband and Wife formally divorce in the future, child support will continue per the agreement herein, while this agreement specifically confirms that there will be no further obligation for Wife to offer any further payment or support to Husband.

Wife shall continue to reside at the premises of 3934 E Eden Roc Cir., Tampa, FL 33634 until such reasonable time for her to locate a permanent residence. During her residency at the property address, she shall continue to make payments for the internet, pool, electrical (TECO) and water/sewage expenses. Husband shall continue to remit payment of the mortgage and remaining caretaker expenses of the property. Wife shall have access to the entirety of the house; however, shall maintain her sleeping and showering in the upstairs area during this time of "nesting."

Wife agrees to promptly look for and secure a new homestead. Wife agrees to continue assisting in keeping the house in appropriate condition for showing between the monthly housekeeper visits. Wife further agrees to make the home available for any showings as needed. Husband may sell the house within the nesting period. Husband shall give wife 3 weeks' notice prior to the closing date of any sale.

Husband shall continue to be on Wife's Health Insurance in accordance with company guidelines/protocols. Husband shall contribute to the premium paid by Wife to cover his portion and half the child-care portion of the premium, totaling approximately $354.00 payable monthly and/or in one lump sum. This figure is to be adjusted at the time of renewal of the health insurance elections.

Husband agrees to not damage or remove or sell or destroy any of Wife's belongings and personal property within the home.

The parties shall file taxes as married but separate in the following years and each may claim one child as a dependent.

Wife shall have access to 3934 E Eden Roc Cir., Tampa, FL 33634, after purchase of any new property for the sole purpose of gathering her belongings, the children's belongings (that are going as per any property division agreement to be decided between the parties separately) and personal property. Any property upon which the parties cannot agree shall be addressed separately.

Husband/wife relinquishes his/her spouse's claims to any property purchased by his/her spouse after the date of this signed separation agreement. It is understood between the parties that from the signing of this agreement forward, any property purchased by Wife for use by Wife and the children will belong solely to Wife and any property purchased by Husband for use by Husband and the children will belong solely to Husband. It does not become marital property. It is the intent of Husband and Wife to divest any and all marital property pursuant to the terms outlined above with the only exceptions being the children's property which remains to be divided/determined. Husband and Wife also specifically intend and agree that the above eliminates any obligation for spousal support and/or alimony from his/her spouse.

The parties agree to joint custody of the children with 50/50 custody to be shared between Husband and Wife as agreed to by the parties. The parties agree to 50/50 payment of childcare expenses to include after-school activities/clubs, extended day program at school, extra-curricular activities costs for enrollment and supplies/athletic gear, and the cost of tuition and school uniforms at Cambridge Christian.

The expenses payable by the Husband to include the premium payment and monthly childcare expenses are to be paid within 30 days from the date of notice of the expense payable.

BeoWoof Hanson shall belong to Husband who shall remain responsible for any and all financial obligations and liabilities of BeoWoof. BeoWoof Hanson's primary residence shall be with Husband; however, at Husband's discretion with Wife's permission BeoWoof may stay with Wife and children as permitted.

In the event of breach by either party of this agreement involving financials, the breaching party shall remit payment of a financial stipend representative of the amount of the breach as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction with interest at the rate established under s.55.03 payable within 10 days of the breach. The prevailing party is entitled to payment of taxable costs in relation to any litigation related to enforcement of the contract.

SIGNED THIS DAY OF Jan, October, 2023

The parties sign this on his/her own behalf with the understanding and the intention to formally separate with the duties and rights as described above.

FAMILY LAW DIVISION

In re: the Marriage of:

SARAH HANSON

Petitioner,

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON

Respondent.

RESPONDENT'S ANSWER TO WIFE'S AMENDED PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE WITH MINOR CHILDREN AND FOR OTHER RELATED RELIEF
AND

ANSWER TO WIFE'S AMENDED PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

The Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, hereby responds to the Petitioner's Amended Petition for Dissolution of Marriage and states in response to each correspondingly numbered paragraph:

1. Admitted.
2. Admitted.
3. Admitted.
4. Admitted.
5. Denied that the Respondent did not file an answer to the Petitioner's initial Petition and affirmatively averred that the initial filing was a Joint Petition for Dissolution of Marriage with Dependent/Minor Children on January 26, 2024.
6. Admitted.

7. Admitted.
8. Admitted.
9. Admitted.
10. Admitted.
11. Admitted.
12. Admitted – although Respondent objects to enforcement of it as Petitioner specifically withheld access and balance information about her finances beyond insisting that she was unable to contribute to any household expenses beyond some groceries and paying an occasional bill.
13. Admitted that it is in the best interests of the children for the Parties to have shared parental responsibility based on currently available information. The remainder of the paragraph is denied. It is specifically denied that the Petitioner should have ultimate decision-making authority.
14. Denied.
15. Denied.
16. Denied.
17. Admitted.
18. Denied.
19. Denied.
20. Denied – Marital separation agreement is not enforceable as to Husband as Wife provided intentionally misleading information about her finances before entering into the Martial separation agreement. Information Wife already produced in these proceedings is inconsistent with Wife's representations prior to entry into the agreement, even while Wife and her counsel continue to obstruct and delay other relevant discovery. If, in order to move discovery forward, it is necessary to throw out the entire separation agreement even though Husband provided proper disclosure to Wife before entry, Husband still insists that the agreement is unenforceable because of misleading information and the lack of any meaningful disclosure from Wife.

21. Denied. As Husband is currently unable to work due to various factors including health problems and a pending decision over a lumbar fusion surgery, Wife should be the sole or at least primary payer. Furthermore, marital separation agreement is not enforceable as to Husband as Wife never provided proper disclosures as reflected in the language of the document. The only financial information provided by wife before the marital separation agreement appears to have been intentionally misleading based on information Wife produced in these proceedings.

COUNTER-PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

The Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, by and through his undersigned counsel, files this, his Counter-Petition for Dissolution of Marriage and states as follows:

1. ACTION FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE. This is an action for dissolution of marriage pursuant to Chapter 61, Florida Statutes.

2. RESIDENCY. The Parties have resided in Florida for more than six (6) months prior to filing this Counterpetition for Dissolution of Marriage.

3. VENUE. Venue is proper in Hillsborough County because this is where the intact marriage of these Parties was last evidenced by a continuing union and the intent to remain married to each other.

4. MILITARY SERVICE DECLARATION. Both Parties are over the age of eighteen (18). Neither Party is, nor has been within a thirty (30) day period immediately preceding the filing of this action, an active member of the military services of the United States.

5. MARRIAGE. The Parties were married to each other on October 28, 2016.

6. GROUND FOR DISSOLUTION. The marriage of the Parties is irretrievably broken.

7. MINOR CHILDREN. There are two minor children born of the Parties' marriage; initials H.G.H., a daughter born on October 28, 2017, and initials H.G.H., a daughter born on July 10, 2019. The Parties are not in the process of adopting and no further children are anticipated.

8. PARENTING PLAN. If the Parties cannot reach an agreement to establish a Parenting Plan, the Court should establish a Parenting Plan that is in the best interests of the minor children and includes the following:

a. Parental Responsibility. The Parties should have shared parental responsibility over the minor children.

b. Timesharing. The Court should establish a timesharing schedule in accordance with the best interests of the minor children. While Husband continues to hope that the parties will resolve the discovery issues and establish a 50/50 timesharing and successful coparenting relationship, Wife's actions to avoid producing discovery in this matter raise some concerns on whether equal timesharing is in the best interests of the children. Wife suddenly and without explanation abandoned several years of constant agreement between the parties on 50/50 custody when she filed the Amended petition for dissolution on October 2, 2024. Husband reserves the right to amend and seek primary or even full custody of the children depending on the impact this ongoing obstruction has on the children and what additional information comes out in discovery.

9. CHILD SUPPORT. The Court should establish an amount of child support in accordance with Section 61.30, Florida Statutes. Both Parties should be required to pay their pro rata share of any reasonable expenses related to the children, including, but not limited to, uncovered medical expenses, extracurricular expenses, and other miscellaneous uncovered child-related expenses.

10. EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION. The Parties have earned significant income, acquired certain assets and incurred certain liabilities during their marriage. The Court should allow for broad discovery in terms of Mrs. Hanson's finances due to her ongoing refusal to share information about her finances going back to the time of marriage, during which Petitioner never put a dime into the joint account respondent set up days after the wedding. Nevertheless, petitioner still frequently paid the few household bills she did pay, out of the joint account funded entirely by the Respondent, all while keeping her paychecks in accounts she insisted on keeping entirely separate. The parties and then the Court should identify, value, and distribute these marital assets and liabilities, once fully investigated and documented, between the Parties with due regard for the factors set forth in Fla. Stat. § 61.075(1). The Court should further identify and set apart to each Party his or her nonmarital assets and liabilities.

11. ATTORNEY'S FEES, COSTS, AND SUIT MONEY. The Respondent has retained the firm of Harris, Hunt & Derr, P.A. to represent him in this cause, and has agreed to pay the firm reasonable fees and costs for their services. The Respondent has the need and the Petitioner has the ability to pay these fees and costs on a temporary basis, and the Respondent requests that the Court order the Petitioner to pay these fees, costs, and suit monies consistent with Florida Statutes Section 61.16. Should the Court agree that the delay in meeting a stipulated deadline for 4 months and other legal action on behalf of wife is unreasonable and unnecessary, the Respondent requests that this Court consider Section 61.16, Florida Statutes, Rosen v. Rosen, 696 So. 2d 697 (Fla. 2d DCA 1997); Dralus v. Dralus, 627 So. 2d 505 (Fla. 2d DCA 1993); Wrona v. Wrona, 592 So. 2d 694 (Fla. 2d DCA 1991), Diaz v. Diaz, 826 So. 2d 229 (Fla. 2002), and their progeny in determining the Petitioner's responsibility for the resulting fees and costs.

WHEREFORE, the Respondent respectfully requests that this Court grant the following relief:

- A. Take jurisdiction over the subject matter and the Parties hereto;
- B. Find that the Parties' marriage is irretrievably broken and enter a Final Judgment dissolving the marriage;
- C. Ordering a Parenting Plan be put in place, granting the Parties equal timesharing with the children and shared parental responsibility;
- D. Order Child Support be awarded, in accordance with Florida Statutes

Section 61.30;

E. Identify and set apart to each Party his or her nonmarital assets and liabilities;

F. Allow for the necessary discovery into Mrs. Hanson's finances in order to fully identify and value the Parties' marital assets and liabilities and effect an equitable distribution of these assets and liabilities between the Parties with due regard for Fla. Stat. § 61.075 and any relevant circumstances in terms of the parties actions in relation to this subject matter, allowing for broad discovery in light of Mrs. Hanson refusal to allow for any open conversation about her income during or now after the marriage, without court intervention;

G. Award the Respondent temporary and when appropriate future attorney's fees;

H. Take into consideration any unreasonable legal action by the Petitioner in determining the Parties' responsibilities for fees and costs; and

I. Provide for such other and further relief as this Court deems fair and appropriate under the circumstances herein.

FAMILY DIVISION

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF

SARAH HANSON,
Petitioner,

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,
Respondent,

HUSBAND/RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO TRANSFER VENUE AND/OR SECOND VERIFIED MOTION TO DISQUALIFY JUDGE AYERS

The Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON files this Motion to disqualify Judge Ayers and in support thereof, states:

1. This Motion is made pursuant to Florida Statute § 38.10 and Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.330, which allow for the disqualification of a judge where there is a well-founded fear that the judge cannot act impartially or where there is evidence of bias.
2. “Litigants are entitled to have their disputes resolved by impartial judges. Canon 3 and rule 2.160 emphasize the essential importance of assuring that presiding judges are free from bias and prejudice.” “Berry v. Berry 765 So.2d 855 (Fla. 5th DCA).
3. Florida Statute §38.10 provides that disqualification of the trial Judge is appropriate if there are facts that demonstrate bias against a certain party.
4. Rule of Judicial Procedure 2.330 provides for a party to seek disqualification of the trial Judge if he does not believe he can get a fair process.
5. Husband initially filed a motion to disqualify judge Ayers based upon bias, in favor of Mr. Davis and other attorneys practicing before her over the litigants under her jurisdiction, likely as a manner to keep and gain favor with those who may be able to assist her including a possible run for re-election in 2026. (Docket #112)

6. The court denied the motion noting it to be “legally insufficient” without any explanation or further comment. (Docket #119).

7. Confused over this purported “insufficiency,” Husband filed a motion to vacate, for rehearing, and for a formal written order. (Docket #128).

8. The court, then drafted an order that again failed to address any of the factual allegations husband made nor provide any information whatsoever about any reported “insufficiency” in husband’s motion. (Docket #131).

9. Unfortunately, Judge Ayers’ bias against Husband has only increased with the court’s actions consistently in blatant and damaging contradiction to the relevant facts and law. (Docket #22, 72, 84, 87, 91, 92, 98, 105, 109, 110, 118, 128, 130, 134, 145, 162, 163, 172).

10. Husband incorporates the facts and arguments from the pleadings above along with transcripts of all the hearings (some to be provided upon receipt), and the petition for writ of certiorari in renewing this request for Judge Ayers disqualification based on the additional conduct described below.

11. It is also important to note at the outset, that Judge Ayers (and Mr. Davis) have made multiple negative comments and insinuations about Husband in hearings and pleadings, all without any real description or explanation. (Docket #131, 136, 141).

12. However, at the April 22, 2025 hearing, when asked about any examples of any emails or statements/sentences from Husband, neither the Court nor Mr. Davis could provide a single example of any inappropriate conduct in this matter. (Transcript to be provided upon receipt).

13. The Court should compare that to Mr. Davis’s unrefuted misconduct that Husband has described in numerous pleadings and emails, requesting some clarification or response regarding the abuses.

14. Husband's single objective since day one remains reasonable (at least equal/reciprocal discovery) from Wife based on circumstances reviewed with the Court many times very real concerns over hidden assets, concerns which obviously only multiplied throughout a year of delay, obstruction and concealment facilitated by corrupt actions from the bench.

15. Given that Husband was the disclosing party and Wife was the (admitted) non-disclosing party, it's an absolutely absurd position where the Court continues to refuse to allow the non-disclosing spouse to have more than twice as much financial discovery as the disclosing spouse.

16. The only explanation for the course of events described herein is extreme bias in favor and/or against a party or an attorney.

17. Husband has waived any attorney client privilege back in December in an attempt to move this forward efficiently given the toll it's taken on Husband and the children.

18. Still, Judge Ayers acts as only an impediment and advocate against Husband, specifically finding ways to avoid the law and prevent the only discovery or relief Husband has requested for almost exactly a year.

19. Corruption has consequences, and the Hanson family has suffered them in the Hillsborough County Courthouse for a year with no relief.

20. The more one looks at this case, the clearer the proof of corruption becomes, and Husband desperately pleads for relief from the Court's and Mr. Davis's well-documented abuses.

JUDGE AYERS INEXPLICABLY REFUSED TO REQUIRE WIFE AND MR. DAVIS TO COMPLY WITH MANDATORY DISCLOSURES AND THE CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE EVEN WHEN IT'S THE SINGLE ISSUE THAT BROUGHT THE PARTY TO LITIGATION AS HUSBAND EXPLAINED SINCE DAY ONE (DOCKET #22).

21. The parties attended a hearing on February 12, 2025 to address various motions including Husband's motion for contempt and enforcement issued back on October 28, 2024.

22. Despite numerous detailed requests from Husband, with descriptions of the information Mr. Davis needed to provide for compliance, Mr. Davis simply refused to address the issue.

(Docket #22, 84, and 145).

23. At the hearing on February 12, 2025, Mr. Davis made it clear that Wife was not swearing to what's required in the rule in the mandatory disclosures and certificate of compliance:

I've been doing this for almost 27 years and I don't know that she has the -- for example, I'm looking at one. No. 8, 12 months of banking account statements. She provided Chase, Fifth Third, Fifth Third, two of them are by minor children. I don't think she has to say and none other exists."

24. The following exchange makes it very clear that Judge Ayers (while looking for a reason to rule in Mr. Davis's and Wife's favor) that she understood the deficiency in Wife's certificate of compliance relating to the mandatory disclosures, as the Court read Rule 12.285(j):

"THE COURT: The party must swear or firm under oath that the disclosure is complete, accurate and in compliance with this rule. Unless the party indicates otherwise with specificity in the certificate of compliance.

MR. HANSON: I mean, that couldn't be more clear. And that's what they're trying to avoid and why isn't the Court curious about why they're trying to avoid that? Why is that big deal?" (Docket #158, page 68, Line 12-19.)

25. Especially given that financial disclosures are at the core of this case and all of this family's suffering, it is incredibly egregious for the Court to actively and knowingly excuse Mr. Davis and Wife from following the law.

26. Of course, it was obvious the bias is intentional given the months of excusing and shielding Mr. Davis from any consequences whatsoever for his grossly unethical conduct combined with Judge Ayers refusal to either disqualify herself or identify some insufficiency in Husband's motion.

27. Instead of simply requiring Wife to follow the law which very likely would have provided Husband with answers to move the case forward, Judge Ayers went beyond what one can consider her judicial role in refusing to hold Wife and Mr. Davis in contempt for the several months of non-compliance.

JUDGE AYERS BIAS IS BECOMING MORE PROMINENT AND HARMFUL TO THE FAMILY UNDER HER JURISDICTION.

28. The parties attended a hearing on the Court's order to show cause on April 22nd, 2025.

29. It became clear during that hearing that neither Mr. Davis nor the Court had a single example of even an inappropriate sentence from Husband.

30. What bothers Mr. Davis so much about emails from Husband is that he's forced to encounter the truth, which will certainly result in Husband getting the relevant discovery under the law, raising even more questions about his and Judge Ayers' conduct.

31. Given the history here and Judge Ayers recent handling of issues at the April hearings, it's very possible that Judge Ayers, after inexplicably shielding an attorney from any consequences for his unethical behavior for several months with an unrepresented litigant, is acting out of self-preservation.

32. Given the level of ethical concerns here, Judge Ayers may be actively working against Husband in order to assist Wife and Mr. Davis in burying the records so as to avoid further scrutiny of her conduct in this matter.

33. The order of hearings came up during that event, with Husband focusing on the single, simple discovery issue that's existed for nearly a year.

34. The parties attended numerous hearings focusing on the Chase subpoena, and if any issue is ripe for adjudication, it's that.

35. One longstanding issue that the parties could have disposed with at the April 4, 2025 hearing is the Chase subpoena, pending since an August 9, 2024 motion on Mr. Davis's objections.

36. Mr. Davis requested an expedited hearing on the updated (post-Motion to void PMA) Chase subpoenas at Docket #149 at paragraph 18.

37. Husband then sent an email on March 4, 2025 agreeing with the requested hearing, and following up to get it set again on March 10, 2025. (Docket #177, p. 4)

38. That is precisely the reason that the CMC was added to the April 4, 2025 hearing, where on March 10, the Court indicated, “A CMC will need to take place to discuss whether the motion to void (doc 146) would need to be heard first.”

39. If there were any issue that deserved attention, it is husband’s discovery one that is truly the core of this dispute as demonstrated consistently for a year now.

40. Instead, Judge Ayers seemed focused on the Guardian ad Litem issue, one where the testimony/facts are closely related with the other motions Mr. Davis had pending on April 4, 2025.

41. Instead of having any concern for judicial efficiency, the Court apparently expected Husband to have a cross-examination prepared that specifically focused on a motion/issue he had no idea the Judge would mention at the hearing.

42. It’s nonsensical to have a witness testify on direct only related to one motion, then have cross that must be directed solely to that motion, and argument on that motion, and then go back into testimony on the next motion, producing several rounds of testimony and argument. Yet, that’s the way Judge Ayers wanted it to go, for some unexplained reason.

43. The pattern tells us that it’s obviously bias and if Judge Ayers can hurt Husband by bringing the kids into the litigation, it seems she is more than happy to do it.

44. What’s more concerning about the Court’s apparent focus on the Guardian ad Litem issue is it’s obviously the one most likely to have a detrimental effect on the children as explained by an independent observer at Docket #169.

45. Husband strongly disagrees with the proposition that the April 4, 2025 hearing offered “due process” related to the Guardian ad Litem issue.

46. The Court’s refusal to allow Husband to complete the cross-examination on a complicated issue like bringing a stranger and litigation into the children’s life through the GAL is completely outrageous, not to mention the complete refusal to hear evidence from Husband on the subject.
(Transcript to be provided).

47. These are actions that seem outside Judge Ayers' role on the bench because the pattern demonstrates how intentionally contrary to the law they often are. (Docket #119 and 128).

48. The Court acknowledged at the April 22, 2025 hearing that it was nonsensical to have the Motion to void hearing without allowing Husband the opportunity for some discovery.

49. We are currently in a posture where Wife (a lawyer) submitted interrogatories to which Husband responded, that produce far more information than Husband is currently seeking from Wife, the spouse who failed to disclose anything at the time of entering the post marital agreement.

50. The Court has failed to follow the law in multiple respects in a manner that has allowed this process to continue far too long.

51. Husband maintains that based upon wife's simple admitted lack of any disclosure in reaching the post marital agreement, discovery into her finances is critically relevant to allowing the case to go forward. (Docket # 84, 91, 97).

52. However, now that Husband has filed the motion to void the post-marital agreement as suggested by Judge Ayers on numerous occasions, she continues to block or at least delay the discovery, perfectly consistent with Mr. Davis's and Wife's interests.

JUDGE AYERS INEXPLICABLY RESCINDED A REQUEST MADE OF MR. DAVIS ONCE HE REFUSED OR FAILED TO DO WHAT THE COURT REQUESTED, EVEN AFTER HUSBAND POINTED OUT THE FAILURE AND INSISTED THAT MR DAVIS PROVIDE THE SUMMARY OF WIFE'S TESTIMONY.

53. Despite many requests from Husband in email and in pleadings, Mr. Davis has never reduced any argument in this matter to writing.

54. The plan seemed to be a trial by ambush for the April 4, 2025 hearing although there were no surprise witnesses and no evidence other than some vague references to relatively minor marital problems grossly exaggerated and distorted.

55. Finally, the Court's request for Mr. Davis to summarize Mrs. Hanson's testimony from the April 4, 2025 hearing allowed for an opportunity to force Mr. Davis to reduce some of his arguments/evidence to writing.

56. Obviously, he's avoided this at all costs throughout several months even when Wife's position is that the welfare of the children are at issue.

57. Mr. Davis didn't want to put anything in writing, instead, wanting the Court to do the dirty work for him of somehow finding grounds to rule in his favor based on the nebulous, one-sided description of a marriage falling apart in a relatively benign manner.

58. Husband filed a motion to strike pleadings based on Mr. Davis's failure to comply with the Court's request.

59. Of course, the corruption continued with Judge Ayers not even willing to ask Mr. Davis why he didn't do the work the Court requested.

60. Judge Ayers excuses Mr. Davis of gross misconduct for months straight, and now, she actively excuses him from following her directives, even when Husband is insisting that he actually reduce the testimony to writing as the Court requested.

61. The absurdity of Mr. Davis and Judge Ayers attempts to avoid scrutiny became outright embarrassing at the April 22, 2025 hearing.

62. They each suggested that it would be even worse for me if Mr. Davis reduced the testimony to writing.

63. Of course, that's precisely what I wanted, and when the threat didn't work, Mr. Davis and Judge Ayers decided that Mr. Davis didn't have to do the summary at all.

64. So the Court's decision, over Husband's objection, to change course, and suddenly not need the summary is absolutely appalling.

65. There is no logical explanation for the Court's change in position other than that "if Mr. Davis doesn't want to do it, then he doesn't have to as long as Judge Ayers is in charge..."

66. The parties attended an October 28, 2024 hearing where the parties were directed to submit memorandums on this subpoena issue.
67. Mr. Davis submitted his late (after being 4 months late in making any attempt to comply with a stipulated obligation).
68. Nevertheless, the Court did what Mr. Davis asked on the issue with no comment on the late submission of his memo, nor the 4 month delay from his stipulated obligation on the issue at the core of the case.
69. The Court's suspicious level of disinterest in Mr. Davis's misconduct is quite concerning especially at the recent hearing where the Court had no concerns with Mr. Davis failing to follow a Court instruction.
70. The Court even refused to require Mr. Davis to follow through with what the Court requested despite Husband's insistence that he follow through, before the Court had its change of heart relating to having Mr. Davis actually reduce some argument or evidence to writing.
71. The pattern of allowing Mr. Davis to control the litigation in this matter despite a complete lack of effort towards discovery, evidence, and argument is very disturbing.
72. Mr. Davis has now successfully obstructed discovery into the single issue this family had for nearly a year, with a 4 month delay at the start, that the Court has completely excused without even requiring comment from Mr. Davis.
73. The Court needed the summary, then Husband pointed it out wasn't done, and the Court changes course to say, "well Mr. Davis doesn't have to do it."
74. This is reminiscent of how Mr. Davis seems to choose the hearings he wants to attend vs. those he doesn't want to attend.
75. Despite being at the center of the arguments Husband offered at the January 9, 2025 hearing, the Court simply allowed him to avoid the hearing altogether apparently without approval, and certainly without any consequences.

76. That's all consistent with Judge Ayers conduct at the first hearing Husband was forced to attend without an attorney:

JUDGE AYERS BIAS AGAINST AND EVEN CONTEMPT AND DISDAIN FOR HUSBAND WAS ON FULL DISPLAY DURING THE APRIL 4, 2025 HEARING WHEN SHE ROLLED HER EYES AT HUSBAND, DENIED IT WHEN CONTEMPORANEOUSLY ACCUSED OF IT, OFFERED TO CHECK THE VIDEOTAPE, AND HAS NOW REFUSED TO CHECK OR PROVIDE THE TAPE FOR ALL TO SEE CLEARLY WHAT HAPPENED.

77. The April 4, 2025 transcript will provide additional details about Judge Ayers rolling her eyes at Husband, denying it, offering to check the tape, and then refusing when requested by Husband.

78. It's worse than Judge Ayers simply rolling her eyes at Husband.

79. She lied about it right after doing it, and she knew she lied about it.

80. Husband requests that Judge Ayers and/or the Hillsborough County Clerk/Sheriff's office/bailiff office provide the videotape especially if Judge Ayers is still inclined to deny the motion.

81. There's a long history of extreme bias and attempts to shield Mr. Davis from accountability for his actions are detailed at Docket #'s 72, 91, and in all of the hearings at Docket #'s 90, 109, 118, 152, 155, 158

82. In fact at the Hearing on April 22, 2025, the Court suggested that she was simply disinterested in or she had no authority or jurisdiction to address ethical and discovery violations.

83. That is a wild proposition, but the fact that the Court takes this position in relation to discovery and ethical violations that harm Husband is completely consistent with the Court's incredibly biased handling of this matter.

CONCLUSION:

84. Given the Court's handling of severe ethical concerns in this matter, Judge Ayers may be actively working against Husband in order to assist Wife and Mr. Davis in burying the records so as to avoid further scrutiny of her own conduct.

85. In fact, the long history referenced above and throughout the file reveal a pattern which has no explanation other than corruption, dishonesty, and a complete lack of good faith and respect for an opposing litigant.

86. Judge Ayers is guided by how Mr. Davis wants the case to proceed as demonstrated many times over, most recently, in a hearing on April 4, 2025, and again on April 22, 2025 although neither transcript is currently available. (Docket #'s 84, 87, 91, 92, 98, 105, 109, 110, 118, 128, 130, 134, 145, 162, 163, 172).

87. Judge Ayers has demonstrated that she has no concerns whatsoever for husband nor the children involved in this litigation.

88. It's obvious that wife and Mr. Davis are hiding evidence of marital assets.

89. Judge Ayers has demonstrated that she is willing to go to all costs to protect Mr. Davis from his own misconduct and follow his directions on how the case is to proceed. (Docket #'s 84, 87, 91, 92, 98, 105, 109, 110, 118, 128, 130, 134, 145, 162, 163, 172).

90. It's clear Judge Ayers cannot address this particular case in a fair manner that will allow this family to move forward.

91. Husband can only hope that Judge Ayers will ultimately decide to do the right thing as her conduct in this case has strayed far outside the bounds of her judicial role into a very disturbing and ugly place for Hillsborough county families.

92. Having judge Ayers continue on the present case, puts this family in danger of never being able to move on as the Florida system intends.

93. It's inconceivable that Judge Ayers continues to keep the parties in such unfair positions when Husband has made his due process concerns so prominent while always maintaining that his pursuit of this discovery is the motivating factor in all of the motions and other allegations Wife has since made since her preemptive attack with 16 pages of interrogatories seeking financial information going back 3 years. (Docket #22).

94. Judge Ayers intentionally ignores the obvious to provide cover and support for the absurd, unethical and dangerous.

95. The Court continues to ignore the law, and the family's interests in getting this issue behind them, precisely in line with what Mr. Davis wants, and what Husband's 2 attorneys refused to assist with after conferences with Mr. Davis.

96. Husband has even pleaded with the Court about these delays putting off decisions on 2 surgeries and other health related concerns, yet the Court continues to put off addressing this one core issue and worse, Mr. Davis's inappropriate conduct. (Docket #22, 72).

97. It's necessary that the Court transfer the case to a new Judge, or ideally, to a new venue such as Pasco County where Wife resides so that, the litigants have "their disputes resolved by impartial judges" "free from bias and prejudice" in assessing these issues critical to the litigants and children's future well being as required by Berry v. Berry 765 So.2d 855 (Fla. 5th DCA).

98. Given the evidence of bias in favor of Mr. Davis, Ms. Hodz, and the other attorneys involved, at the expense of Husband's due process rights and other interests, it's obvious Husband has no change at fair process in front of Judge Ayers, and likely in Hillsborough county at all.

WHEREFORE, the Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, respectfully requests the Court enter an Order:

A. Transferring the matter to a new venue such as Pasco County where Wife resides,

- B. Disqualifying Judge Ayers from any further action on the case.
- C. Vacating any prior Court orders limiting Husband's rights to discovery,
- D. Assigning a new Judge to expedite the core issue in the case – Husband's right to discovery.
- E. Requiring Ms. Hodz to produce all file materials including those documents and text messages to Husband as referenced in prior pleadings before this Court.
- F. Scheduling and holding an evidentiary hearing where at a minimum, Husband, Mr. Davis and Ms. Hodz can offer testimony about the first and only call between counsels, and the call that took place between Husband and formere counsels just after the attorney conference.
- G. Granting Husband attorney's fees and costs and any other sanctions this Court may deem appropriate.
- H. Granting Respondent all other and further relief and damages as this and any future Court may deem just and necessary including but not limited to transferring venue as will be requested in a motion in draft form..

Verification of Husband pursuant to F.S. 92.525

Under Penalties of Perjury, I, Chris Hanson, declare that I have read the foregoing Verified Motion to disqualify, and that the facts are true.

Subject: RE: Hanson v. Hanson - 2024-DR-001150 (A)

Hello,

I fully intend to have lunch with my daughters at school on days where you have them. I have lunch with them once a week on the days you have them and you are not there. It is permitted by the school. I also fully intend to support Hope while at gymnastics even on days you take her. I am there for the hour you are not.

They are 6 and 7 and the divorce proceedings are not to be discussed with them; you have a very skewed idea of these proceedings and you discussing it with them is entirely inappropriate.

You will need a Court Order telling me that I am not to be near my kids to support them.

Good afternoon. Sarah - I really hate to have to send this email, but since around when you changed your position on vacation day this summer, things have changed for the worse. There were some concerns here and there going back to when I first started to pursue this discovery, but it's worsened. I need to request that you not attend lunch with the girls during the days that I have them. Also, no attending gymnastics during my times. School is a time for them to be social with their friends. It's not good for them to learn how to use a true sad thing to get Mom to bring them McDonald's happy meals or Jimmy Johns, or whatever it is they request. I didn't see anything because I want to limit our dispute to what actually matters. Yes, this is a sad thing and we need to be patient and loving, but it's not a tool to use to control mom and dad. I wish we could at least get on the same page about the kids. You know how hard I tried to avoid lawyers at all, and never could have imagined you proceed how you have. You're now forcing my hand to fight for the kids. Please reconsider your course of actions. At least, please let me know if you will agree to comply with not seeing the kids at lunch of gym during any period they would be with me?

Also, I didn't appreciate that you were at Gymnastics on last Friday especially without giving me a heads up. It's not appropriate for you to take other kids where our kids are just so you can see them and attempt to interfere with our time together. Please do me that courtesy to advise me if you plan on being somewhere where the kids and I will be.

And again, what is this emergency your attorney keeps vaguely referencing. If it surrounds the kids, is it new? Your attorney had about 2 weeks to essentially write whatever order he wanted on the GAL and Ayers was going to slam at thru for yall. And the story is he didn't have time to get it done?? It looks much more like Ayers and Davis had the same corrupt goal, but neither would get their hands dirty to write an inevitably corrupt and ridiculous order. It's about 9 months straight I've been waiting to hear one concern about the kids or my parenting despite consistently following up on this information for months. Hard not to conclude that you simply have no basis.

Finally, I have not given the kids the general summary of where we are at yet. I wanted to get your input on it. They are doing very well overall. I think this could help with some of the recent difficulties they've experienced with the attempts at alienation that your litigation strategy now requires you to act out. However, I'm open to your thoughts both on what's told to them and whether now is a good time for that or not. Please let me know if you want to have input before tomorrow morning at 7.

Not sure I'll get response out to the new motion to stay today, but I do need to correct some things about the history there. Have a good weekend.

Chris

Good morning. I have removed the court from this email. I'm very confused about what you're hoping to accomplish here. What is the emergency?? I've been asking you since 11-25-24 to share any concerns about the children's welfare. The Judge even asked you to summarize the concerns

PETITIONER'S VERIFIED EMERGENCY MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR STAY PENDING APPEAL

Petitioner, Sarah Hanson ("Wife"), by and through the undersigned attorney, and pursuant to Fla. Fam. L. R. P. 12.530 and Fla. R. App. P. 9.310, files this Verified Emergency Motion for Reconsideration or in the Alternative, to Vacate Order Granting Motion for Stay Pending Appeal. As grounds therefore, Petitioner states the following:

1. Parties. The parties to this action are Petitioner, Sarah Hanson ("Wife") and Respondent, Christopher Hanson ("Husband"), collectively, (the "Parties").
2. Pending Action. Pending before the Court is Wife's Amended Petition for Dissolution of Marriage with Minor Children and for Other Related Relief ("Wife's Amended Petition") [DIN 42] and Husband's Counter-Petition for Dissolution of Marriage [DIN 79].
3. Minor Children. There are two (2) minor children who were born to the Parties during the marriage, to wit: H.G.H., a female, born October 2017, at Tampa, Florida; and H.G.H., a female, born July 2019, at Tampa, Florida (the "Children").
4. Husband's Motion to Transfer Venue. On April 24, 2025, Husband filed a Motion to Transfer Venue and/or Second Verified Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers [DIN 183].
5. Hearing on Motion to Transfer Venue. The venue issues set forth in Husband's motion were heard by the Court on June 3, 2025. A copy of the Transcript of Proceedings is attached hereto as “Exhibit A.”

6. Order Denying Motion to Transfer Venue. On June 23, 2025, the Court entered an Order Denying Respondent’s Motion to Transfer Venue and/or Second Verified Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers (as to Venue) [DIN 204].
7. Husband’s Motion to Vacate. On July 3, 2025, Husband filed his Motion to Vacate, for Rehearing/Reconsideration on Order Denying Motion to Transfer Venue Based on Violations of Husband’s Constitutional Rights to Due Process Including a Fair and Impartial Trial [DIN 211].
8. Husband’s Notice of Appeal. Twenty-eight days later, on July 22, 2025, Husband filed his Notice of Appeal [DIN 216], appealing the Order Denying Respondent’s Motion to Transfer Venue and/or Second Verified Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers (as to Venue).
9. Husband’s Motion to Stay Pending Appeal. On July 22, 2025, Husband filed his Motion to Stay Pending Appeal [DIN 215].
10. Order Denying Husband’s Motion to Vacate. On August 1, 2025, the Court entered an Order Denying Husband’s Motion to Vacate.
11. Order Granting Husband’s Motion to Stay. On August 1, 2025, without conducting a hearing or considering legal argument, the Court entered an Order Granting Motion for Stay Pending Appeal.
12. Husband Previously Acknowledged Hillsborough County Proper Venue. Regarding the choice of venue, paragraph four (4) of Wife’s Amended Petition for Dissolution of Marriage [DIN 42] states “Venue is proper in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit because the Parties last resided together as Husband and Wife in Hillsborough County. Paragraph four

(4) of Husband's Answer to Wife's Amended Petition for Dissolution of Marriage [DIN 79] responds by stating "Admitted." Furthermore, paragraph three (3) of Husband's Counter-Petition for Dissolution of Marriage [DIN 79] states "Venue is proper in Hillsborough County because this is where the intact marriage of these Parties was last evidenced by a continuing union and the intent to remain married to each other." Accordingly, the Court finds that Hillsborough County is the appropriate venue for this action.

13. Florida's Venue Statute. Section 47.011, Florida Statutes is the controlling venue statute in this matter. In general, an action shall be brought only in a county where the defendant resides, where the cause of action accrued, or where the property in litigation is located.

14. Application of Venue Statute to Dissolution of Marriage Action. For purposes of applying section 47.011, Florida Statutes to a dissolution of marriage action, the cause of action arises in the last county where the parties resided as husband and wife with the common intent to remain married. Carroll v. Carroll, 347 So. 2d 771, 772 (Fla. 1977); Kopecky v. Kopecky, 967 So. 2d 1109, 1111 (Fla. 4th DCA 2007).

15. Forum Non-Conveniens. Generally, a party may challenge venue because the venue chosen by the petitioner was legally improper or because the petitioner's chosen venue (although proper) is an "inconvenient forum." The inconvenient forum argument comes from section 47.122, Florida Statutes, which states that "[f]or the convenience of the parties or witnesses or in the interest of justice, any court of record may transfer any civil action to any other court of record in which it might have been brought." Notwithstanding, it is legal error and an abuse of discretion for a court to utilize forum non conveniens to transfer an action to a venue not permitted by the applicable venue statute(s), as a court can only transfer an action to a jurisdiction where the action “might have been brought.” See Vitale v. Vitale, 994 So. 2d 1242, 1243 (Fla. 4th DCA 2008); McGee v. McGee, 145 So.3d 955, (Fla. 1st DCA 2014).

16. Only Basis to Change Venue Alleged in Husband’s Motion. It should be noted that the only paragraphs of Husband’s motion seeking a venue transfer that appear to directly address Husband’s request for a transfer of venue are paragraphs 97 and 98, which state the following:

- a. Paragraph 97: It’s necessary that the Court transfer the case to a new Judge, or ideally, to a new venue such as Pasco County where Wife resides so that, the litigants have “their disputes resolved by impartial judges” “free from bias and prejudice” in assessing these issues critical to the litigants and children’s future well-being as required by Berry v. Berry 765 So.2d 855 (Fla. 5th DCA 2000).
- b. Paragraph 98: Given the evidence of bias in favor of Mr. Davis, Ms. Hodz, and the other attorneys involved, at the expense of Husband’s due process rights and other interests, it’s obvious Husband has no change (sic) at fair process in front of Judge Ayers, and likely in Hillsborough County at all.

17. The Berry Case Does Not Address Venue. It should be noted that the Berry case cited in paragraph 97 of Husband’s motion addresses the disqualification of a trial judge and not a transfer of venue.

18. No Other Proper Venue Exists. Perhaps most importantly, the limitation of the transfer to "any other court of record in which it might have been brought" in section 47.122, Florida Statutes means that any transfer is limited to a county that would have been a proper venue initially, which is only Hillsborough County. The Court cannot transfer venue for the convenience of the parties or witnesses, or in the interests of justice, to a forum that would not have been appropriate for the filing of a petition for dissolution of marriage in the first place.

19. Husband's Argument Regarding Transfer of Venue. Husband's argument during the hearing on June 3, 2025, was effectively a complaint as to how the case was progressing and his belief that even though The Honorable Kelly Ayers granted Husband's Second Motion, "all of the attorneys and Judges that [Husband] dealt with are in Hillsborough County and [Husband] know[s] I [has] not gotten anything close to a fair process and it terrifies [Husband] how brazen the unfairness has been. And [Husband] think[s] that going to a different venue serves everyone." (Transcript, page 10, lines 2-7). However, Husband offered no actual evidence to support his assertion.

20. Lack of Evidence of Bias. Husband's Motion to Transfer Venue and/or Second Verified Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers [DIN 184] resulted in the entry of an Order wherein Judge Ayers disqualified herself on April 28, 2025. However, Husband has not proven, nor can he even reasonably believe, that that all of the circuit judges situated in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit are biased against Husband or in favor of Wife's counsel.

21. Husband's Motion to Stay Does Not Meet the Likelihood of Success Burden. Husband's Motion to Stay Proceedings argues that the Court should stay the proceedings pending appeal because of discovery issues (paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8), alleged weaponization of the Children (paragraph 3), a blanket self-serving statement that "[a] stay will serve the interests of justice as it will allow the parties to have these important matters determined by an impartial tribunal (paragraph 9), and a blanket, speculative, and self-serving statement that "[a]llowing the proceedings to continue in the [Thirteenth] Judicial Circuit under these circumstances poses a great risk of permanent harm to the Children (paragraph 10).” Husband’s motion fails to demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits or irreparable harm if the stay is not granted.

22. Harm in Staying the Proceedings. The paramount concern in family law cases involving a child is the best interests of the child. See Hassenplug v. Hassenplug, 346 So.3d 149 (Fla. 2d DCA 2022). Husband’s repeated allegations that Wife’s counsel is responsible for delay is contradicted by the record, which shows that Husband engaged in a pattern of conduct deliberately obstructing the timely progression of the proceedings. The Order Granting Motion for Stay Pending Appeal entered by the Court on August 1, 2025, resulted in the cancellation of the following motions that were scheduled to be heard on August 8, 2025, none of which were scheduled to be heard for the first time:

- a. Wife’s Motion for Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem [DIN 69] filed December 13, 2024. As of the date of the filing of this motion, Wife’s Motion for Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem has been pending before the Court for 234 days. This motion was heard by the Honorable Kelly Ayers on April 9, 2025, however; Judge Ayers was unable to enter a ruling on same due to the filing of Husband’s Motion to Transfer Venue and/or Second Verified Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers on April 24, 2025.
- b. Wife’s Motion for Psychological Examination of Husband [DIN 77] filed December 13, 2024. As of the date of the filing of this motion, Wife’s Motion for Psychological Examination of Husband has been pending before the Court for 234 days. This motion was heard by the Honorable Kelly Ayers on April 9, 2025, however; Judge Ayers was unable to enter a ruling on same due to the filing of Husband’s Motion to Transfer Venue and/or Second Verified Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers on April 24, 2025.

- c. Wife's Verified Motion for Temporary Relief [DIN 96] filed January 6, 2025. As of the date of the filing of this motion, Wife's Verified Motion for Temporary Relief has been pending before the Court for 210 days. This motion was heard by the Honorable Kelly Ayers on April 9, 2025, however; Judge Ayers was unable to enter a ruling on same due to the filing of Husband's Motion to Transfer Venue and/or Second Verified Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers on April 24, 2025.
- d. Wife's Motion for Vocational Evaluation of Husband [DIN 114] filed January 31, 2025. As of the date of the filing of this motion, Wife's Motion for Vocational Evaluation of Husband has been pending before the Court for 185 days. This motion was previously scheduled to be heard by the Honorable Kelly Ayers on April 9, 2025, but was not because Husband dragged the proceeding out so long that not all the scheduled motions could be heard.
- e. Wife's Objections to Husband's Second Request for Production of Documents and Motion for Protective Order [DIN 101] filed January 16, 2025. As of the date of the filing of this motion, Wife's Objections to Husband's Second Request for Production of Documents and Motion for Protective Order has been pending before the Court for 200 days. This motion was scheduled to be heard by the Honorable Kelly Ayers on both February 12, 2025, and April 24, 2025; however, the completion of the hearing was impeded by Husband's repeated introduction of repetitive, irrelevant, and immaterial arguments which only served to unnecessarily prolong the proceeding.

In other words, as to paragraph 21(a-c), Continued suspension of the proceedings pending appeal will unnecessarily prolong resolution of important issues concerning the Children—an outcome that evidently serves Husband's purposes.

23. The Court Should Not Permit Unnecessary Delay. In summary, Wife respectfully asserts that the stay entered on August 1, 2025, will continue to cause unnecessary delay in the litigation, most concerningly, the issues relating to the Children. As such, Wife requests that the Court reconsider or in the alternative, vacate the Order Granting Motion for Stay Pending Appeal.

24. Attorney's Fees, Costs, and Suit Money. Wife engaged the undersigned attorney to represent her in this action and is obligated to pay attorney's fees, costs, and suit money for professional services rendered. Wife asserts that Husband's efforts to delay the proceedings rises to the level of unnecessary and vexatious litigation, bad faith conduct, and an attempt by Husband to thwart prior rulings by the Court and cause Wife to incur unnecessary attorney's fees, costs, and suit money. Therefore, the Court should award Wife her attorney's fees, costs, and suit money incurred in connection with this Objection pursuant to the Court's inherent authority. See Rosen v. Rosen, 696 So.2d 679 (Fla. 1997); Wrona v. Wrona, 592 So.2d 694 (Fla. 2d DCA 1991); Young v. Hector, 884 So.2d 1025 Fla. 3d DCA 2004); Sutter v. Sutter, 578 So.2d 788 (Fla. 4th DCA 1991); Moakley v. Smallwood, 826 So.2d 221 (Fla. 2002); Dralus v. Dralus, 627 627 So.2d 505 (Fla. 2d DCA 1993).

WHEREFORE, the Wife, Sarah Hanson, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order awarding the following relief:

- A. Reconsider or in the alternative, vacate the Order Granting Motion for Stay Pending Appeal;

- B. Require Husband to pay Wife's reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and suit money incurred in connection with this motion; and
- C. Grant any other relief that the Court finds to be necessary or appropriate in this matter.

VERIFICATION OF WIFE
PURSUANT TO SECTION 92.525, FLORIDA STATUTES

Under penalties of perjury, I, Sarah Hanson, declare that I have read the foregoing Verified Emergency Motion for Reconsideration or in the Alternative, to Vacate Order Granting Motion for Stay Pending Appeal, and that the facts stated in it are true.

THE COURT: We are here on Case Number 24-DR-1150, Hanson versus Hanson. Can I get appearances for the record starting with the Petitioner/Wife, please.

MR. DAVIS: Scott Davis representing the Petitioner/Wife, Sarah Hanson.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Davis.

MR. DAVIS: Good afternoon, sir.

THE COURT: And you are Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Sarah Hanson, correct?

MRS. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Good afternoon. And then for the Respondent/Husband?

MR. HANSON: This is Chris Hanson on my own behalf, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Hanson. How are you?

MR. HANSON: I'm okay. Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: Okay. So I have us here for a 30-minute hearing on Motion to Disqualify Judge Ayers which has, obviously, been resolved and Motion to Transfer Venue, is that correct?

MR. DAVIS: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, it's your motion. You
3 may proceed.

4 MR. HANSON: Okay. Your Honor, I know that
5 you're coming in to this late and at a difficult
6 time. And I'm not certain what you've reviewed or 7 not but I'll just try to be relatively brief here.
8 There's two Motions to Disqualify and I'd like both 9 of those to be considered in the Motion to Transfer
10 hearing that we're having today. There's a really 11 long --

12 MR. DAVIS: I would object to that.

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Hanson. There's an 14 objection on the floor.

15 MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir. Only one motion is set 16 for hearing which is the one that is -- that's on the 17 notice which is -- was e-filed, excuse me one second,
18 I'm sorry, April 24th, 2025.

19 THE COURT: That's Bates number or not Bates 20 number, excuse me, Docket Number 183, is that 21 correct?

22 MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir, it is.

23 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry, Mr. Hanson, you're 24 saying that there were two Motions to Disqualify that 25 you want considered?

1 MR. HANSON: Well, yes, Your Honor. There's two
2 Motions to Disqualify that tell one coherent story.
3 And that's -- it's really all part of the same
4 argument on Transfer of Venue. Your Honor, I don't 5 understand what's been occurring this past year but 6 I've been involved in litigation enough to know when 7 there's very serious ethical concerns. And I don't 8 raise those lightly.

9 And if you've read Docket Number 183 you'll see 10 a pretty concerning story in terms of ethical 11 violations and judicial compliance. And, really, I 12 was reviewing the record today and it's judicial 13 gaslighting in a lot of instances, Your Honor. I
14 sent you a copy of the April 4th of 2025 hearing
15 earlier and from Page 75 there's an excerpt where the 16 Judge had rolled her eyes at me, Judge Ayers, at 17 least three times, the third time or so I said
18 something.

19 She denied doing it and suggested that she was 20 going to get the video. I asked her to please get 21 the video. I noted that I would swear on a Holy 22 Bible at that moment that she had done that and she 23 had. So that's my experience with the Thirteenth 24 Circuit. What I'm asking for is very simple. It's 25 less in terms of discovery that I've already provided

1 to Wife yet Wife was the non-disclosing spouse at the 2 time of the PMA, post marital agreement, that was
3 issued -- that was entered into before any attorneys
4 were involved.

5 I've asked the Judge to void the post marital 6 agreement because Judge Ayers suggested that's what I
7 needed to get this financial discovery. And let's be 8 clear about how low Mr. Davis has sunk here. He's 9 using my children as pawns. There's no doubt about 10 that. If you look at the record, the lack of any 11 explanation or justification for the timing of those 12 four motions on December 13th when my attorney was 13 taken away on less than a day's notice that was an 14 attack.

15 And it continues the same pattern of intentional 16 delay trying to avoid producing the records and 17 answering even the mandatory disclosure questions.
18 That's on appeal on a writ because Judge Ayers
19 excused them from certifying what the Rule requires.
20 It's really been outrageous. And, Your Honor, it's 21 not nothing against you I feel a bit embarrassed that 22 I'm in this position but I've dealt with what's come 23 my way.

24 I would ask Mr. Davis to show you one example of 25 an inappropriate email I've sent, something

1 inappropriate I've done during a hearing. There's a
2 lot of conclusions that Judge Ayers and my former
3 attorney, Mr. Hodz, and Mr. Davis have thrown out
4 there that don't have any support. They'll say these 5 conclusions about me. I have to look over my 6 shoulder because now Mrs. Hanson is trying to find
7 anything to complain about me as a dad.

8 I'm trying to get through this. And I've said
9 since day one I have one objective and that's getting 10 some financial discovery. If you look at the story
11 everything that they have done has been obstruction 12 to that, an increasing pattern of harassment and 13 obstruction, pushing my attorneys off the case.
14 Judge Ayers had no interest in why even though I 15 waived any attorney-client privilege. The attorneys
16 were free to say anything they wanted about me.

17 But no one has anything negative to say about 18 the way I've handled this because I've been 19 completely forthcoming. I've tried to cooperate.
20 And, Your Honor, it's taking a big toll on me and my 21 family and I just pray that there will be an end in 22 sight. And there's so many reasons to order the 23 discovery that's -- I just, Your Honor, I would feel 24 better if --

25 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Hanson, we're here on

1 the Transfer of Venue, right?

2 MR. HANSON: Correct. And all of that relates 3 to that, Your Honor, because that's why I want the 4 venue transferred is because I don't understand
5 what's been going on in the Thirteenth Circuit. And 6 maybe, Your Honor, you feel like this is something
7 that you can fix and address.

8 I think it puts you in a hard position working
9 in the same courthouse as Judge Ayers and, you know,
10 working with Mr. Davis and the other attorneys
11 involved within Hillsborough County, you know,
12 that -- I would not want to be put in that position
13 that you're being put in with your colleagues. And 14 the fact that Mr. Davis is fighting so hard against 15 it, against transfer concerns me.

16 I mean, can't we just get a fair process. I
17 don't know why he thinks it's so critical to keep it 18 in Hillsborough County unless there's some strings he 19 can pull or something that he can do to continue down
20 this absurd path. And I don't know how much longer, 21 you know, everyone can keep excelling. My kids are 22 still doing well, by the Grace of God, but they're 23 really put in the middle here.

24 And I know that they're asked to tell their mom
25 things about me. And it's just, it's gotten to the

1 point of the absurd. So, Your Honor, I'll stop
2 there, I just thank you for the time, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. I just want to make sure I
4 understand that the basis of your request for the 5 Motion to Transfer Venue has to do with, and I say
6 from your perspective, I'm not saying you're right or 7 you're wrong I just want to make sure that I
8 understand. Your perspective is that the basis for 9 the Transfer of the Venue has been the way the case
10 has been progressing so far, right? And we know that 11 Judge Ayers isn't on the case but also because I am 12 in the same judicial circuit as Judge Ayers, is that 13 correct?

14 MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor, and in the same 15 circuit as the attorneys who are practicing. One of 16 my major concerns in the case is that Judge Ayers
17 specifically hid any misconduct from the attorneys.
18 And, you know, Mrs. Hodz's firm had said that they 19 would get the records and then the conversation with 20 Mr. Davis and it changed. And, you know, to me, 21 that's a reasonable basis to object and at least
22 inquire as to why.

23 THE COURT: Well, but Judge Ayers is off the 24 case now and you're saying that that doesn't correct
25 the issue, is that correct, so that's why you want

1 the Transfer of Venue?

2 MR. HANSON: Right. It's just that all of the 3 attorneys and Judges that I've dealt with are in 4 Hillsborough County and I know I have not gotten 5 anything close to a fair process and it terrifies me
6 how brazen the unfairness has been. And I think that 7 going to a different venue serves everyone.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And I'm not, asking and I
9 apologize if you thought I was, I wasn't asking you
10 to reiterate, I just wanted to make sure I 11 understood. Okay. Mr. Davis, response?

12 MR. DAVIS: Yes, Your Honor. I have to, even 13 though it's not really responsive to the legal issue,
14 state that at no time have Mrs. Hanson and I 15 attempted to use the children as pawns and there has 16 been no intentional delay. Mr. Hanson has tried to 17 hijack multiple hearings and just drag them out until 18 they don't finish and that has been the primary
19 reason for the delay in the case.

20 And he alleges that, for example, that we didn't 21 file proper a mandatory disclosure certificate but I
22 think we did, that can come before the Court another 23 time, if it needs to. It's already been before the 24 Court and Judge Ayers asked me to amend it to satisfy
25 Mr. Hanson and we did and we filed it.

1 Notwithstanding, legally, number one, and I've set
2 all this out in a memo that I filed, Judge, 47.011 is 3 the general venue statute.

4 "For the purposes of applying the venue statute
5 to a dissolution of marriage action the cause of 6 action is the last county where the parties resided 7 together as husband and wife with a common intent to 8 remain married." That's Carroll versus Carroll, 347
9 So. 2d 771, that's from the Florida Supreme Court.

10 THE COURT: Sorry, Mr. Davis, let me just stop
11 you real quick.

12 MR. DAVIS: Sure.

13 THE COURT: I apologize if you guys see me
14 looking off to the side I have another screen here
15 with pleadings on it. So if you see me looking this 16 way it's because there's another screen there. I
17 promise you, everyone, I'm still listening. Okay.
18 I'm sorry.

19 MR. DAVIS: I know that, Judge.

20 THE COURT: You can proceed.

21 MR. DAVIS: But for Mr. Hanson's purposes he may 22 or may not. I understand.

23 THE COURT: Sorry.

24 MR. DAVIS: That's okay. And then Copecky,
25 C-O-P-E-C-K-Y, which is 967 So. 2d 1109, Florida

1 Fourth DCA, 2007. The case was filed in the right
2 jurisdiction. Hillsborough is where Mrs. Hanson and 3 Mr. Hanson last resided together as husband and wife
4 with a common intent to remain married to one
5 another.

6 Mrs. Hanson's Amended Petition for Dissolution
7 of Marriage which is Document Identification Number 8 42, specifically, Paragraph Four alleges venue is 9 proper in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit because the 10 parties last resided together as husband and wife in 11 Hillsborough County. The husband admits that in his 12 answer, specifically, Paragraph Four in his answer.
13 For the Court's edification it's Docket
14 Identification Number 79.

15 Additionally, in Mr. Hanson's counterpetition, 16 Your Honor, Paragraph Three Mr. Hanson alleges that 17 venue is proper in Hillsborough County because this 18 is where the intact marriage of these parties was 19 last evidenced by a continuing union and the intent
20 to remain married to one another. But here's the 21 thing, Mr. Hanson wants to transfer and it appears to 22 me to be relying on 47.122.

23 And 47.122 says, essentially, that a case can be 24 transferred for the interest of justice, the 25 convenience of parties or a witness, I got that

1 backwards because I was going off the top of my head,
2 to any other court of record in which it might have 3 been brought. And those are the important words to 4 consider.

5 Under Vitale versus Vitale and that's
6 V-I-T-A-L-E, 994 So. 2d 1242, Fourth DCA, 2008
7 specifically says that "The statute authorizes a
8 change of venue under Florida's forum
9 non-convenience" which is 47.122 "under certain
10 specified grounds but only to a court in which it 11 might have been brought."

12 And then McGee versus McGee which is 145 So. 3d
13 955 First DCA, 2014, I emailed that one to the Court
14 this morning, I'm reading from the third page of the 15 print-out "The limitation to transfer to quote any 16 other court of record in which it might have been 17 brought in Section 47.122 means that any transfer is 18 limited to a county that would have been a proper 19 venue initially." And that's the problem that we 20 have here is Pasco would not have been initially a 21 proper jurisdiction.

22 A Court cannot transfer for the convenience of 23 parties or witnesses or the interest of justice to a 24 forum that would not have been the appropriate for 25 the filing of the complaint or the petition in the

1 first place. So the law doesn't support the relief
2 Mr. Hanson is seeking. And what I think is 3 respectfully unusual about this is Mr. Hanson says
4 why is Mr. Davis fighting so hard. I'm fighting so
5 hard because he's wrong on the law, that's why.

6 I practice in Pasco regularly. I'm fine going 7 to Pasco on a personal level. I don't find Pasco to 8 be any different than Hillsborough. Good Judges in 9 Pasco, good Judges in Hillsborough. That being said,
10 he just files motions and throws things at the wall
11 to see what will stick. And he is incorrect on the 12 law.

13 I will also note that the majority, if not all,
14 of his motion, Paragraphs One through 98 mostly deal
15 with his complaints about Judge Ayers which is moot
16 now and his complaints about me. And I'm not going
17 anywhere. It's only until you get to Paragraph 97
18 and 98 where he says "It's necessary that the Court
19 transfer the case to a new Judge" which he, actually,
20 got, "or ideally to a new venue such as Pasco County
21 where Wife resides so that the litigants have their 22 disputes resolved by impartial justice free from bias
23 and prejudice."

24 If Mr. Hanson is suggesting that every Judge in 25 the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit is unfair, well,

1 that's just preposterous. The bottom line is that
2 the law does not provide for a transfer because Pasco
3 is not the proper jurisdiction where the case may 4 have been brought. And, respectfully, the Court
5 should deny Mr. Hanson's motion. In our memorandum
6 we request fees and I just ask the Court to reserve
7 on that for future litigation.

8 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hanson, any 9 response?

10 MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. I noted that 11 Mr. Davis said that I was wrong on the law but he 12 didn't say I was wrong on the facts and he hasn't 13 disputed the facts. And, Your Honor, I would ask you
14 to review my memo in support of the Transfer of Venue
15 in conjunction with the Motions to Disqualify slash
16 Transfer Venue and just consider whether given that 17 Mr. Davis hasn't disputed any of those facts and that 18 they're in the record whether it seems reasonable
19 that I would have concerns about the fairness
20 proceeding in the environment that has allowed -- 21 it's not just Judge Ayers, it's Mr. Davis, it's 22 Ms. Hodz and, to some degree, Ms. Samarkos' firm
23 because the same thing happened where they quit
24 trying once they talked to Mr. Davis.

25 So it's a systemic issue in Hillsborough County.

1 And Mr. Davis doesn't seem to care about fairness or,
2 you know, the way that the case has progressed thus
3 far because it's progressed exactly how he wants it
4 to. He's arguing a technicality. And I haven't had 5 a chance to review all of the case law but it doesn't 6 seem, to me, like there's anything that is 7 controlling or anything other than dicta supporting 8 what his position is and his position is nonsensical.

9 It's no matter how unfair the trial is you have 10 to stay in the venue you're at if there's not another
11 venue that would have been appropriate at the start
12 of the case. It really makes sense that Mr. Davis 13 would argue that because that's the way he wants to 14 practice where it's in the venue he wants and he gets 15 the results he wants. And as far as I can tell, Your 16 Honor, it's a systemic issue in Hillsborough County
17 that needs a lot of attention and I'm prepared to 18 bring it to Hillsborough County.

19 I'll be out on the courthouse protesting soon.
20 And I think that I have nothing to hide. I've waived 21 any attorney-client privilege. And for the Court to 22 continue me in this position of not even having 23 reciprocal discovery, Your Honor, and I would ask 24 that you consider just ordering the subpoena that 25 I've been asking for --

1 MR. DAVIS: I have to object to anything being 2 requested that's not part of the motion being even 3 addressed. There's due process rights.

4 THE COURT: I understand. I understand,
5 Mr. Davis.

6 MR. HANSON: My motions do say "all other relief
7 the Court sees fit." And it's an outrage what this
8 Court has done so far, Your Honor, and it's nothing
9 against you but it is an outrage as an attorney
10 that's practiced for 18 years, never had a bar
11 complaint, good reputation for honesty and fairness
12 and being a tough litigator but honesty and fairness, 13 seeing that this could happen to a family and the 14 kids could be used like this, it's horrifying and 15 it's not debatable.

16 If someone looks at the facts, and I'll make 17 sure people look at the facts, it's not debatable
18 what Mr. Davis has done and what Judge Ayers approved
19 of. And if that continues throughout the Thirteenth
20 Circuit it's going to cause more damage to my family
21 and, you know, I'm prepared to deal with whatever it
22 is. I just hope that the Court will offer some 23 relief that allows my family to start moving past
24 this, Your Honor. Thank you for your time.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you both very much for

1 your presentations today. I've reviewed the motion,
2 I've reviewed the memorandums in support of the 3 motion and in opposition. The -- based on my review
4 of the relevant case law and the cases I'm going to 5 deny the Motion to Transfer Venue at this time.
6 Mr. Davis, if you would prepare an order on the same.
7 I'm not going to grant any other relief or,
8 obviously, I'll reserve on anything else. Okay.

9 MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir. Thank you for your time.

10 THE COURT: All right. Any questions,
11 Mr. Hanson?

12 MR. HANSON: No, I'll look into the actions,
13 Your Honor. Thank you for your time.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Any questions, Mr. Davis?

15 MR. DAVIS: No, sir. Nice to see you. Have a 16 good afternoon.

17 THE COURT: Thank you, all, very much. Ms.
18 Taylor, are we good?

19 THE COURT REPORTER: Yes.

20 MR. DAVIS: I think Mrs. Hanson is raising her 21 hand.

22 THE COURT: Mrs. Hanson, you raised your hand?

23 MRS. HANSON: No, no, no, I'm saying bye.

24 MR. DAVIS: Okay. I was just making sure.

25 THE COURT: All right. You all have a good day

1 then. Thank you very much.

2 MR. DAVIS: Thank you, sir. You, as well. Take 3 care.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Throughout this Reply Brief, Appellee shall be referred to as Wife or Appellee, and Appellant shall be referred to as Husband or Appellant. Citations to the appendices and briefs filed in this appeal are abbreviated as follows: (IBA): Initial Brief Appendix filed by Appellant; (AB): Answer Brief filed by Appellee/Wife; (SBA): Supplemental Appendix filed by Appellant, (MSR): Documents filed with this Court as part of the Motion to Supplement on 9-24-25. All citations refer to the record as submitted in these appendices unless otherwise noted.
2. Appellant recognizes the gravity of the substantiated allegations of misconduct and the direct tone employed herein. These concerns stem from documented ethical violations and systemic failures and refusals in the 13th Judicial Circuit, to see the simple truth of what Mr. Davis, Judge Ayers, and others have done.
3. The repeated failures to enforce discovery obligations and address misconduct continue to harm this family, yet the 13th Circuit actors continue to protect those guilty of misconduct while letting the victims, including children, suffer.
4. The “club house culture in the 13th Circuit Family Law division has gone too far, and given that the local judges will not protect citizens from their fellow “club members,” transfer is imperative.
5. Attempts to cover up Davis’s misconduct so deserving of bar action and other consequences now involve the Florida bar, making the direct tone even more critical. As confirmed by correspondence (SBA, pp. 86-107), the bar violated its own rules in handling the complaint refusing to offer any transparency nor accept any assistance.

6. Appellant urges careful review to ensure accountability and a step toward repairing public trust in the judiciary.

I. CORRECTIONS TO THE FACTS INCLUDING MISREPRESENTATIONS IN ANSWER BRIEF

7. Wife's Answer Brief (AB. 2–4) relies on demonstrably false, unsupported conclusory allegations where she is even able to offer any citation to the record.

8. These allegations contradict the record and law, ignoring documented instances of concealment and obstruction spanning now, a year and a half.

9. The case's posture reflects deep systemic bias in the 13th Circuit Family Law Division (13th Circuit). (SBA. pp. 53-61; SBA. pp. 62-75).

10. Relationships control results over the facts and the law, seemingly, with no end, as evidenced by the trial court's consistent refusal to address the core issue, ethical complaints against Mr. Davis related to his efforts to obstruct the core issue (IBA. pp. 854–859), with now a third level of corruption obstructing Husband's access to the videotape evidence of active bias during a hearing, (Please see MSR filed 9-24-25)

11. Every action Wife and Mr. Davis have taken the past year and a half 1) intentionally delays, harasses, or otherwise obstructs Husband's sole objective: discovery into concealed marital assets, which Wife admitted failing to disclose during the execution of the post-nuptial agreement (IBA. pp. 1122–1125, 1569-1618) and 2) there is no basis in the facts and law to support any need for the actions.

12. The 13th Circuit has operated as more of a club house than a court house.

13. It prioritizes personal connections over truth and law, as seen in the handling of disqualification motions and discovery enforcement (IBA. pp. 325–338; IBA. pp. 777–804).

14. Prioritizing relationships over the facts and law (or simply corruption) blocks public access to justice in violation of state and Federal constitutional rights.

15. The following reflects the various corrupt and dishonest actions Wife, Mr. Davis, and Judge Ayers pursued, that build on the initial concealment:

Actor	Misconduct	Evidentiary support
Wife	Concealed marital assets	"Wife's refusal to disclose financials" (IB. pp. 1122–1125)
	Baselessly weaponized custody to block discovery	"Use of custody issues to avoid discovery" (SBA. p. 35-48)
	Pursued 1.5 years of litigation all to derail discovery	"No factual allegations of an actual emergency" (SBA. PP 1-34.)
	Refused to produce records after stipulating to do so	"Stipulated to produce records by June 28, 2024 — did nothing" (IB. pp. 1392–1395)
Mr. Davis	Helped Wife conceal evidence	"Strategically trickled out documents" (IB. pp. 22–25)
	Misrepresented compliance with discovery	"Sneakily worded certificate of compliance" (IBA. 1569-1618)
	Filed retaliatory motions timed to harass Husband	"December 13 motion filed to derail pending discovery" (IB. pp. 1176–1219)
	Made dishonest statements impacting children	"Accused Husband of gamesmanship despite offering alternate dates" (SBA. Exhibit E)
Judge Ayers	Silenced objections to Davis's discovery violations	"Refused to address discovery obstruction and ethical violations" (IB. pp. 854–859)
	Showed open bias against Husband	"Lied on the record, refused to produce courthouse video" (SBA. Pp.76-83)
	Tried to impose GAL despite lack of evidence	"Impossible to draft an order supporting it" (IB. pp. 1402–1405)
Husband	Requested discovery into concealed assets	"Husband's May 2024 filing seeking financial transparency" (IB. pp. 22–25)
	Sought to minimize harm to children	"Offered alternate hearing dates and signed releases" (SBA. 35-48)

16. The core of all of the concealment efforts are financial documents – some of which Wife, (non-disclosing party for post marital agreement) demanded and received the equivalent of

Husband (the disclosing party for same PMA), yet she refuses to reciprocate. (IBA. pp. 844-847; IBA. pp. 1415-1416)

17. Wife and Mr. Davis have objected to and refused to respond to every single effort Husband has made to get records, failing to even properly comply with mandatory disclosures, an issue that remains pending before this Court.

18. Wife specifically misstates the issue on appeal, taking it to the illogical extreme as suggested in her Answer Brief at p. 3: “Appellant maintains the basis for the venue change is ‘corruption’ within the entirety of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit to include his own attorneys retained.” (Emphasis added).

19. Wife suggests the legal standard for Husband to prevail is a showing that every person employed at the 13th Circuit from janitors to Judges is corrupt.

20. It’s quite telling that Wife extrapolates the precise issue for this Court to the absurd; a tacit admission that there’s a massive amount of evidence to demonstrate corruption involving the actors in this case, “but not the entire circuit...”

21. Wife's credibility is undermined by concealment.

22. She refuses to void the PMA (IBA. p. 221), which would, if she’s been honest and has nothing to hide, would provide her a windfall if she’d simply agree.

23. She then misrepresents the facts again in her appellate brief suggesting there’s no evidence of the windfall she’d receive if she agreed to waive discovery objections in exchange for voiding the PMA. The parties financial documents are cited as part of the record and demonstrate that if that’s the proper total, as wife claims, she’d be entitled to significantly more money.

24. If she'd agree to void the PMA, Wife would net over $100,000 in additional assets assuming her disclosures were honest and absent any other significant change.
25. Wife could agree to waive discovery and gain access to in excess of $100,000, while shutting down most of the litigation, if she would simply allow Husband the opportunity to investigate these marital assets.
26. Her refusal is tantamount to a confession.
27. Judge Ayers failed to enforce orders, repeatedly silencing Husband's pleas to focus on the core discovery problem while covering up for objections to Davis's violations (IBA. pp. 854–859).
28. The 13th Circuit continues in its failures to address the corruption, while still entertaining motions meant only to disrupt and harass.
29. Judicial bias causing unnecessary damage to a family requires transfer under Fla. Stat. § 47.122. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 876 (2009) (requiring recusal where bias probability is too high).
30. Disqualification alone does not cure systemic issues, as the pattern of protection among circuit actors persists.
31. The 13th Circuit has shirked its responsibility to address misconduct.
32. A fair outcome is impossible, as demonstrated by the trial court's action in support and covering up obvious ethical violations despite multiple filings (IBA. pp. 854–859; IBA. pp. 1402–1405).

II. ARGUMENT

33. The standard of review for venue transfer denial under Fla. Stat. § 47.122 is abuse of discretion, although De novo review should apply on the constitutional violations described in detail throughout especially given how much corruption impacted the proceedings below.
34. Here, denial of venue transfer is an extreme abuse of discretion. The conduct of the 13th Circuit actors is an elephant stampede over Husband and his due process rights, as the trial court failed to address evidence of systemic favoritism (IBA. pp. 854–859). Fla. Const. Art. I, § 9; U.S. Const. Amend. XIV. The transfer denial implicates Husband's right to an impartial tribunal.
35. § 47.122's "interest of justice" prong, distinct from convenience, requires transfer amid bias, where the record shows repeated procedural irregularities favoring Wife (IBA. pp. 1176–1219). Caperton, 556 U.S. at 876; Livingston, 441 So. 2d at 1087.

A. CLARIFICATION OF CORRUPTION ALLEGATIONS AND WIFE'S RELIANCE ON DOUBLE HEARSAY

36. Wife dismisses bias claims as "self-serving" (AB. 4), ignoring massive irregularities, such as the rushed handling of attorney withdrawals without scrutiny for grounds to withdraw which should and would have revealed the corruption active within the 13th Circuit (IBA. pp. 854–859; IBA. p. 387). Judge Ayers, and now Felix seem intent on preventing that. (IBA, pp.93-111, transcript of October 9, 2025 hearing to be provided)
37. Wife relies on double hearsay falsely citing “a barrage of emails” from Husband, (AB. 5) that attorney, Mr. Hodz described trying to justify the unjustifiable – Mrs. Hodz withdrawing without doing the one objective she was hired to accomplish, based on one phone call with Mr. Davis. (1-21-25 hearing ,IBA, pp. 898-941)

38. While Mr. Hodz suggested there were many inappropriate emails from Husband, no threatening or even inappropriate emails were ever produced, despite opportunities in hearings and filings. Id.
39. The January 9, 2025 transcript (AIB. p. 387, 876-897, and, 1028-1051) demonstrates Ms. Hodz's withdrawal was granted without substantiation, allowing avoidance of discovery obligations.
40. Ms. Hodz's withdrawal served to help Mr. Davis and Wife continue the concealment, even though it was directly detrimental to her client and the sole objective for which she was hired and agreed to accomplish. (IBA. p. 387)
41. It aligns with Davis's threats (IBA. pp. 777–804) and Bainter v. League of Women Voters of Fla., 150 So. 3d 1115, 1120 (Fla. 2014) (condemning obstructive tactics in discovery).
42. Wife's child concerns (AB. 6) are contradicted by delays and concealment going back even before signing the PMA.
43. She weaponizes custody (SBA. Exhibit C), filing baseless motions without evidence of harm to the children.
44. This prejudices due process and requires transfer to Pasco serves justice.
45. Under the required analysis for Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 335 (1976) balances state and private interests here although no one has identified a state interest in keeping the case in Hillsborough under these circumstances.
46. Protecting corrupt attorneys and judges is the only interest served by forcing the parties to remain in Hillsborough, obviously against public interest. (IBA. pp. 777–804; IBA. pp. 1392–1395).

47. Wife still has offered no valid explanation for refusing to agree to a more convenient venue as the delay explanation is absurd given that she'll be waiting on a constitutional appeal.
48. Noting that Wife could end this litigation by agreeing to reciprocal discovery to what she makes the reality of the current situation and the required result crystal clear – get the family away from the corruption so that they may begin healing and salvaging a coparenting relationship.

B. RESPONSE TO SELF-SERVING CONCLUSORY STATEMENTS AND CASE LAW WIFE IMPROPERLY CITES FOR SUPPORT

49. Wife claims no basis for transfer (AB. 10), because she's actively benefited from the very grounds that require transfer, judicial complicity and even advancement of her continuing efforts to conceal evidence of marital assets, under truly outrageous circumstances.
50. She, quite self-delusionally ignores (while benefitting from) massive judicially supported unlawful obstruction and corruption (IBA. pp. 854–859; IBA. pp. 1176–1219), including the strategic timing of motions to coincide with the date when Ayers, Hodz, and Davis conspired to take his attorney away on a single day's notice.
51. Wife improperly relies on McGee v. McGee, 145 So. 3d 955 (Fla. 1st DCA 2014), and Vitale v. Vitale, 994 So. 2d 1242 (Fla. 4th DCA 2008). The cases are completely irrelevant to the present case based on the obvious difference of the massive, uninterrupted, unchecked, harmful dangerous corruption that's infected everything about the present case.
52. It's no surprise that the corrupt would like to ignore the massive corrupt elephant in the room. But it's still here causing chaos on a family as the 13th Circuit actors continue to conspire to suppress the truth and much needed consequences.

53. Failure to make bias findings prejudices review and demonstrates the fact that all of the 13th

sweep it under the rug is the way to handle it. Reeves v. Fleetwood Homes of Fla., Inc., 889

So. 2d 812, 822 (Fla. 2004) (requiring specific findings for meaningful appellate review).

54. Disqualification (IBA. pp. 325–338) does not cure institutional bias. Goedmakers v.

Goedmakers, 520 So. 2d 575, 579 (Fla. 1988) states fairness outweighs rigid venue, emphasizing that transitory actions like divorce allow flexibility for justice.

III. REBUTTAL OF WIFE’S CLAIMS ON JUDICIAL CORRUPTION, PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND DELAY CLAIMS

55. Wife's delays are clear and intentional. She ignored the June 28, 2024 stipulation (IBA. pp.

1392–1395), providing no records despite agreement.

56. She shifted custody positions in October 2024 (SBA. Exhibit C), with no basis in fact for doing so, raising unsubstantiated allegations to divert from financial issues.

57. When that didn’t deter Husband’s discovery, she filed 4 baseless December 13 motions

(IBA. pp. 1176–1219), timed to harass and delay discovery hearings. (IBA, pp.297-315)

58. Escalations in weaponing the children have consistently coincided with Husband's refusal to abandon discovery efforts. With Wife’s history of violence towards Husband and the severity of the misconduct and fraud, and attempts to cover it up, it’s important that the Court act quickly to protect Husband from being permanently silenced.

59. Judge Ayers confirmed Mr. Davis runs her courtroom, when she excused Davis from documenting a basis for his GAL motion, when Husband already filed a motion to strike the GAL based on Davis's noncompliance and complete inability to draft any support for a GAL.

(IBA. pp. 1052– 1121),

60. Despite Husband's formal motion and insisting on Davis providing his summary before the excusal, Ayers still allowed him to avoid scrutiny of the unsupported GAL position.

61. This supports § 47.122 transfer for justice. Guntner v. Jennings, 980 So. 2d 1185, 1187 (Fla. 5th DCA 2008) (transfer appropriate to ensure fair proceedings).

62. Judge Felix confirmed that he's more concerned with relationships over seeing the obvious truth in this case in denying Husband's motion for emergency relief, focused on the core problem. (IBA pp.93-111).

63. Goedmakers and Caperton, require transfer based on the appearance of unfairness despite the trial Court's refusal to make findings of fact regarding the misconduct. Transfer to Pasco is necessary and lawful under these circumstances given the severity of the corruption Husband has suffered in the 13th Circuit.

IV. JUDICIAL OVERSIGHT FAILURES

64. This Court is well aware of 13th Circuit leadership actively concealing evidence of in-house corruption, even refusing to provide the video evidence Ayers offered during the April 4, 2025 hearing. MSR, pp. 1-50).

65. The 13th Circuit's Leadership and the bar that practices before it have circled their wagons in quite a disturbing way as explained further in Husband's motion to supplement the record, filed in this matter on September 24, 2025. Husband reasserts and incorporates the facts, arguments, and evidence associated with the motion to supplement herein to support transfer to Pasco County.

66. Again, Wife's opposition to the Court turning over evidence of its own bias is obvious.

67. It further demonstrates how the bench and Wife/Mr. Davis are working as a team now – trying to bury one another’s misconduct, still to the ongoing detriment of Husband and the children, in clear and obvious violation of constitutional rights.
68. The chief Judge has done nothing to remedy the problem despite being advised of these concerns as of February 12, 2025 correspondence describing Ayers’ handling of this case and history including self-funding her campaign and using a name other than the one she used to practiced law.
69. Ongoing issues persist with Wife filing more harassing litigation right as this reply brief became due reminiscent of the sudden attack of 4 motions (after no motions whatsoever were filed by Wife the first several months) just as the club members organized snatching my attorney out from under me, before she did what she agreed to do. (SBA, pp. 1-48, 62-75).
70. Wife's counsel scheduled the October 9 hearing unilaterally despite the active stay and no attempt whatsoever to describe any emergency. (SBA, 1-48),
71. In doing so, he misrepresented coordination efforts twice. Id.
72. Baseless fees motion followed (SBA. 1-34), accusing Husband of gamesmanship despite his offers of alternative dates, within the timeframe demanded by Davis.
73. No emergency exists (SBA, pp. 1-48) as confirmed by lack of factual allegations and recent parent-teacher conferences showing no concerns.
74. Perhaps the most concerning recent development is that the Florida Bar dismissed the bar complaint on Mr. Davis, while violating its own rules, without any findings, or even any evidence suggesting that Husband’s description of serious, credible, and harmful violations is anything less than perfectly accurate. (SBA, pp. 86-107).
75. This violates procedural transparency and the basic purpose of the Florida bar.

76. While Husband is very concerned about having to state this so openly against the bar with authority over his livelihood, there is corruption in the bar that's harming Florida citizens, and requires investigation, as one can plainly see from the intentional ignorance in relation to plain obvious violations. SBA, pp. 86-107.
77. The Florida Bar is concealing evidence related to a purported investigation, relying on 2 attorneys, Allie Huston and Alicia Gangi's dismissal of the complaint with nothing suggesting that they have any understanding of the facts whatsoever, all while each refused pleas and offers from Husband to assist in providing irrefutable evidence of severe, harmful misconduct. P. 86-107 SBA).
78. It seems like the Florida bar is operating in that same clubhouse culture, where certain lawyers will just not be disciplined or even investigated because of relationships, irrespective of how dishonest, unethical and harmful their conduct is. Id.
79. The Florida bar failed to contact Husband regarding anything on the investigation despite Husband's diligent and good faith offers to help.
80. There's no excuse or explanation for failing to hold Davis is accountable which is why the bar remains silent, providing need for further investigation and consequences in order to protect the public.

VI. CONCLUSION

81. In response to Husband's sole objective, investigating concealed martial assets at a very painful time, Wife, Mr. Davis and the 13th Circuit have colluded with one another, leveraging the clubhouse contacts and culture, to thwart that sole good faith objective, using Husband's candor to label him inaccurately while refusing his offers to sign releases, attend evaluations, void the PMA (that currently protects Husband), etc. simply to convince Wife to waive the discovery efforts.

82. It's Wife who refuses to allow this case to move forward due to one simple dispute –

Husband desperately wants answers to what happened to marital assets and how badly he was defrauded, while Wife wants to perpetuate and perfect the fraud.

83. The 13th Circuit has revealed its priorities – protecting fellow club members.

84. Husband's position has not changed since May of 2024 and will not change.

85. Wife's Answer Brief fails to refute the evidence of procedural abuse, bias, and judicially enabled obstruction of evidence, offering only weak objections, i.e. "it's not the "entire" 13th Circuit that's revealed itself as corrupt..." AB. p. 3

86. The facts demonstrate an inconvenient truth for Mr. Davis, the 13th Circuit, and the Florida

Bar: a system prioritizing relationships over truth and the children's right to a fair process.

87. The trial court's order misapplies § 47.122 and disregards constitutional safeguards under Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976), and Goedmakers v. Goedmakers, 520 So. 2d 575 (Fla. 1988).

88. The interest of justice requires transfer to Pasco County, where Wife resides, to restore fairness and protect due process and the children's welfare. Given the abdication of ethical rules and entitlement to ignore facts and law in favor of protecting insiders, further investigations and consequences beyond transfer are imperative to address systemic corruption in the 13th Circuit (SBA. pp. 86-107; SBA. pp. 108-116)
