(3) THE COURT: Good morning, everyone.

(4) MR. HANSON: Good morning.

(5) THE COURT: And, Madam Court Reporter, I
(6) will go ahead and have counsel make their
(7) appearances by name for the record, other than
(8) the court staff attorney, I'll just be having
(9) the attorneys for the parties announce
(10) themselves.

(11) Mr. Hanson, you're the plaintiff. Can you
(12) go ahead and make your appearance for the (13) record, please?

(14) MR. HANSON: Yes. This is Christopher
(15) Hanson for the plaintiff.

(16) THE COURT: And Ms. Schwieterman.

(17) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Jessica Schwieterman for
(18) the respondent, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, as
(19) well as the listed respondents who have been
(20) served.

(21) THE COURT: All right. Very well. So, I'm
(22) Judge Coleman.

(23) And the Court had received a request by (24) e-mail from you, Mr. Hanson, regarding
(25) scheduling, and a case management conference, so

[Page 5]

(1) we've scheduled that for today.

(2) Were there specific matters that you wanted
(3) to request the Court's assistance in managing or
(4) is it for the Court to go ahead and schedule the
(5) final hearing that I've been trying to schedule?

(6) MR. HANSON: No, your Honor, there's
(7) certain things that need to be addressed first,
(8) and it's been a very frustrating ordeal here.
(9) So, I just want to explain that, and make sure
(10) that the Court understands my position is that
(11) this Court and others in Florida judiciary seem
(12) to be intentionally obstructing my rights under
(13) the Florida constitution, and they all seem to
(14) want to pretend that it's not happening, but it
(15) clearly is in unrefuted ways.

(16) And I had requested entry of the peremptory
(17) writ requiring production long ago. I requested
(18) discovery, if there was some reason that we
(19) weren't going to ensure the peremptory writ. I
(20) don't understand any issues of material fact
(21) that are in dispute. So, I'm stuck in this
(22) litigation not knowing what I need to prove.
(23) So, it's just been incredibly frustrating
(24) because in the underlying case Ms. Schwieterman,
(25) defendant, Judge Felix continues to preside over

[Page 6]

(1) the family law case, and he's retaliating
(2) against me in ways that are impacting my
(3) children.

(4) My children have been thriving with 50/50
(5) custody for almost three years in separate
(6) homes. There's no concerns about anything
(7) associated with their welfare or education or
(8) anything else, but he's dragging them back into
(9) this system that's been so unfair and costly to
(10) me, and putting them back in that conflict, and
(11) I'm already seeing what's happening with them.
(12) It's -- they're already getting dragged back
(13) into it in ways that -- that wouldn't be
(14) happening without this guardian that was
(15) appointed by Judge Felix.

(16) All of this is perfectly connected in a
(17) cause and effect manner. And I've documented it
(18) throughout multiple Courts now, multiple
(19) appeals, it's -- it's simply happening. No one
(20) is refuting any of the facts, they're just
(21) pretending that they're not happening.

(22) So, your Honor, I would respect -- I would
(23) ask the Court to understand that I do have
(24) respect for the Court, and I do not mean to be
(25) argumentative or inappropriate in any way, it's

[Page 7]

(1) simply the facts here are very egregious as I
(2) see them, and as I have to experience them with
(3) my children downstairs in the next room.

(4) And what happened at the drop off
(5) yesterday, I won't go too far into it, but it's (6) very ugly to see a six year old who is -- was
(7) doing great, drop offs and changes were fine
(8) until yesterday, and I hope the Court can
(9) understand that in my view of the facts as I've (10) pled them consistently since May of 2024 in the (11) defendant's courtroom make the judicial conduct
(12) and the attorney conduct here extremely
(13) concerning.

(14) And I would ask the Court for -- again, to (15) enter the peremptory relief. The Thirteenth
(16) Judicial continues to sit on these clearly
(17) public records that the Judge even made part of
(18) the -- the case that I'm still litigating. It
(19) was a guardian ad litem motion, where the video
(20) that I'm trying to get was taken, and all of (21) that would have been helpful but for these
(22) delays. And I don't see any reason for the
(23) delays other than that it's protecting the (24) defendants.

(25) I've tried to depose the defendants in the

[Page 8]

(1) family law case to get information about the
(2) status of these materials. Not surprisingly,
(3) Judge Felix excused his co-defendants from
(4) having to testify.

(5) So, your Honor, I think that the law is
(6) clear that it's time to enter the writ or at
(7) least provide some clarification on what the
(8) Court sees as a genuine issue of material fact.

(9) I saw the Court's suggestion that that was
(10) up to the parties, but when I filed motions for
(11) the peremptory writ, and mistakenly the motion
(12) for summary final order, that's when it becomes
(13) the Court's responsibility to either enter that
(14) order granting the relief or advising the
(15) parties as to what to -- what the facts in (16) dispute are.

(17) So, depending on what -- what the Court may
(18) state about any material facts in dispute, I may
(19) still need discovery before I get to a final
(20) hearing.

(21) So, your Honor, my first choice is a
(22) peremptory writ as soon as possible. I suppose
(23) the second choice depends on the Court's
(24) actions, but I would really like to get this
(25) moving forward.

(1) Thank you for allowing me that time.

(2) THE COURT: All right. Opposing counsel,
(3) any response or remarks for the Court?

(4) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Your Honor, we -- I
(5) understand Mr. Hanson's confusion; however, his
(6) misunderstanding of the law is unfortunately
(7) lower here. My belief of his misunderstanding
(8) of the law is why we're here.

(9) We have responded to his motion for summary
(10) judgment slash request for peremptory writ, and
(11) our response I believe was clear, and that a
(12) hearing is necessary, and we would just request
(13) that that hearing be necessary. I understand
(14) Mr. Hanson does not feel that way; however, I
(15) believe our response to his motion for summary
(16) judgment slash peremptory writ was sufficient to
(17) state that there is issues that need to be
(18) addressed, and a hearing would be appropriate at
(19) this time. So, we would just request that you
(20) schedule a hearing.

(21) Thank you.

(22) THE COURT: To clarify, a hearing as in a
(23) final hearing or --

(24) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes.

(25) THE COURT: -- a hearing on a motion for

(1) summary?

(2) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: No, your Honor, a
(3) hearing as in a final hearing.

(4) THE COURT: All right. And, Mr. Hanson,
(5) was there anything that you wish to say in
(6) response to that?

(7) MR. HANSON: Yes, your Honor.

(8) She didn't raise one issue of material fact
(9) that's in dispute. She vaguely references a
(10) response, and I'm not even certain that I -- I
(11) had filed a motion for summary final order that
(12) was at docket 74 and 79. I withdrew that
(13) because that was apparently going to cause
(14) further delays because of the procedure attached
(15) to a motion for summary final order, and instead
(16) filed docket 78, which is the motion for entry
(17) of the peremptory writ, which should be
(18) immediate, that -- that's part of the expedited
(19) process that the rules provide for.

(20) So, I'm not sure what response she is
(21) referring to. And she just vaguely references
(22) that there's some reason for needing a hearing,
(23) and I -- I don't know what that is based upon my (24) review of the materials, and -- and listening to
(25) opposing counsel. But the -- the defendants and

[Page 11]

(1) the Attorney General's Office just want to skip
(2) overall of the discovery process, skip over the
(3) part where they -- they need to plead, and --
(4) and support some evidence to support a dispute
(5) in a material fact, they just want to skip that.

(6) And then there was some talk about giving
(7) me ten days before a final hearing before which
(8) they would have to produce things, it would just
(9) be setting me up for a trial by ambush because
(10) the situation we're in now, for months I have
(11) not had any information to suggest that there's
(12) an issue of material fact in dispute. So, I
(13) don't know what to prove.

(14) I believe my proof is sufficient, and
(15) there's certainly no basis to skip over the part
(16) about where the issues are narrowed, and the --
(17) the defendants provide some basis to deny the
(18) motion for peremptory writ, skip over discovery,
(19) and just get to a final hearing really quick,
(20) that's the opposite of what the statute
(21) requires.

(22) We're talking about constitutional right
(23) here, where there's a presumption in favor of
(24) it. And what's happened across the Thirteenth
(25) and Sixth Circuit, I don't believe there's any

[Page 12]

(1) -- any excuse for it, any basis for it. And I
(2) would ask the Court to look closely at opposing
(3) counsel's statements, and -- and inquire as to
(4) what are these disputes because so far it's just
(5) been kicked down the road without actually
(6) looking at those things.

(7) THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

(8) So, Mr. Hanson, you know, it resonates with (9) me when you say that you feel like they want to
(10) skip over some part of the process because I
(11) feel like you're not recognizing the
(12) availability of a procedural vehicle that --
(13) that you appear to know about, but are trying to
(14) skip over.

(15) The procedural vehicle that I'm referring
(16) to is the one that allows you to move for
(17) summary judgment. And you have filed for that.
(18) And to the Court's experience and training, the (19) motion for summary judgment is the procedural
(20) vehicle that has been designated under the law
(21) for a litigant who believes that there are no
(22) issues of material fact remaining, and that a
(23) judgment as a matter of law in their favor is
(24) appropriate.

(25) That is the procedural vehicle that's been

(1) created, it's been refined. If you -- and it's
(2) been accentuated by the more recent revisions to
(3) it, and that's the procedural vehicle that you
(4) started to avail yourself of, but then withdrew
(5) that motion.

(6) That is the motion by which you can lay out
(7) what you believe are the undisputed material
(8) facts that allow you to have the Court rule in
(9) your favor as a matter of law without having to
(10) have a final hearing. That applies in all sorts
(11) of cases, from auto negligence, to contractual
(12) disputes, to construction and manufacturing,
(13) liability, it applies across all of those sorts
(14) of things.

(15) And as you originally argued, it can be
(16) used in these proceedings as well, but then the
(17) other side gets to have their say in that as
(18) well, and then the Court issues an order either
(19) granting you that relief of a summary final
(20) judgment without further necessity of a hearing
(21) beyond that motion or the Court under the rule
(22) as it's written is to specify those remaining
(23) issues of material fact that require a final
(24) hearing, also known as a trial.

(25) If you want the Court to weigh the

(1) undisputed material facts to determine whether
(2) there's -- whether or not there is an issue of
(3) material fact, and if there is an issue of
(4) material fact, to specify it for you in an
(5) order, that's the rule that you have to operate
(6) under. There's not a different rule for it,
(7) otherwise it would appear to this Court that you
(8) want this Court to skip over those interim
(9) processes, and -- because you have said to the (10) Court, a trial is not necessary, that I should
(11) just issue an order in your favor because you
(12) said so, and that's not -- that's not any more
(13) fair than what you imply they're doing.

(14) The rule defining what summary judgment is,
(15) is to this Court's awareness the exclusive
(16) remedy for you to move forward and establish
(17) whether there are or are not issues of material
(18) fact as to part or all of the petition that you
(19) brought.

(20) So, if you want that declaration regarding
(21) whether or not there are any issues of material
(22) fact that require a trial as a final hearing,
(23) then that is the process that we need to go
(24) through for you to get the relief that you are
(25) requesting of having a judgment entered without

[Page 15]

(1) a trial or the Court to define what those issues
(2) are that remain for you to present evidence on
(3) at trial.

(4) I don't have another rule for you, and that
(5) appears to be the appropriate one in this
(6) Court's estimation. If you -- if you want to
(7) engage in discovery so that you can present that
(8) motion, then we can have another case management
(9) conference, and lay out a discovery schedule,
(10) and talk about what's -- what's going to be a
(11) part of that discovery, and when we will have
(12) our hearings.

(13) If you don't want to present a motion for
(14) summary judgment to the Court, then I can set a
(15) final hearing or you're indicating that you are
(16) not prepared to conduct a final hearing, as
(17) there's additional discovery that you -- you
(18) need to conduct or you need additional time to
(19) be prepared for that final hearing, then I won't
(20) set it until you tell me that you're ready
(21) because it's -- it's your petition, and you
(22) deserve to be able to advance it in the manner
(23) appropriate under the law, which allows you the
(24) right to be prepared to present to the Court.

(25) So, we either need to go through door

(1) number one, which is the rule under which you
(2) can move for summary judgment or door number
(3) two, which is final hearing, and I send you some
(4) proposed dates because you're all ready to go,
(5) and I set them out within a certain timeframe or
(6) door number three, which is you let me know when
(7) you're ready for that final hearing because
(8) you're done with discovery, and then I set the (9) final hearing.

(10) If there's another rule out there that
(11) gives you the right to have a ruling in your
(12) favor without a trial, then you can tell me what
(13) that rule is, and I'll entertain that motion,
(14) but to my knowledge and experience summary
(15) judgment is the path by which a litigant gets a
(16) ruling regarding what the issues of material
(17) fact are, if any, and can request the Court to (18) rule without holding a trial.

(19) Is there a different rule that you want me
(20) to look up, and look at while we're here on this
(21) Zoom, because I'll look at it?

(22) MR. HANSON: Yes, your Honor. And I need
(23) to make a bit of a summation in response to some
(24) of the things you said as well.

(25) THE COURT: Well, let me ask first, so that

[Page 17]

(1) I can clarify and delineate. You know, I've
(2) always given you the opportunity to be heard.

(3) MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

(4) THE COURT: Not that you opt it.

(5) But can you tell me if there's another rule
(6) that I can pull up on my screen and look at with
(7) you right now?

(8) MR. HANSON: Sure, your Honor. If you look
(9) -- do you have the constitution, the Florida
(10) constitution?

(11) THE COURT: I'm looking for a rule of
(12) procedure that -- can you tell me a rule of (13) procedure that --

(14) MR. HANSON: Well, it's a process, your
(15) Honor. You have to know what the constitution
(16) requires to be able to interpret the rules.

(17) THE COURT: I am aware of the constitution,
(18) I'm aware of how it informs all of our process
(19) here.

(20) But the question I have specifically for
(21) you at this moment is, is there a rule of
(22) procedure besides the rule governing summary
(23) judgment that you want me to look at?

(24) And if I don't understand the rule, I can
(25) work backwards to the constitution, but I need

[Page 18]

(1) to have a rule as my starting point because --

(2) MR. HANSON: Sure, I'll get you that rule.

(3) Your Honor, it's 2.420 Rule of Judicial

(4) Practice and Administration. But I think that

(5) the delays that this Court has caused already is

(6) important context in terms of what the Court is

(7) now saying.

(8) The -- the case started with the first

(9) hearing in front of Judge Frayman, and the first

(10) hearing in front of yourself. I saw the first

(11) and second party presentation principle

(12) violations of my nearly 20 year legal career,

(13) litigating hundreds of cases a year. I've never

(14) seen that before. But both of you at your first

(15) hearings violated the party presentation

(16) principle, stepping into the shoes of your

(17) fellow Judges in the Thirteenth Circuit, and

(18) offering defenses and causing delays that their

(19) attorney didn't even ask for.

(20) So, with that in mind, and that

(21) understanding that the constitution calls for

(22) the right to public records to be a self

(23) executing one, and for it to take priority over

(24) other hearings, and for them to be expedited,

(25) and for the entire process that the -- the rules

[Page 19]

(1) of judicial administration contemplate for a
(2) public records action, it takes less time than
(3) the summary final order process would take.

(4) So, for the Court to -- and the Court has a
(5) duty to enter orders. The Court found prima
(6) facie cases, and the Court has a duty to execute
(7) on that, unless there is evidence that it's
(8) inappropriate. So, the prima facie case
(9) findings control, that's what requires issuance
(10) of the -- the peremptory writ that requires
(11) immediate production.

(12) I don't have to file a motion for summary
(13) final order because they haven't raised any
(14) issue of material fact that would prevent entry
(15) of the peremptory writ. So, the delays are
(16) intentional on the Court's part at this point,
(17) and they have been for a long time. And now the
(18) Court's attempt to push me back towards a slower
(19) procedure than what the writ -- or than what the
(20) rules require for the entire process, it's very
(21) frustrating, your Honor. It's just another
(22) delay tactic while my children are suffering
(23) from an abusive power at the hands of the (24) defendants, your fellow Judges, are -- are
(25) forcing my kids into unnecessary pain and

[Page 20]

(1) conflict. And you are up there helping them get
(2) away with that abusive power, and I think it's
(3) incredibly inappropriate.

(4) And, your Honor, I'm happy to have a
(5) conversation about this as long as you want
(6) today, those are the facts, and any conversation
(7) we have, that's where they will end. You've
(8) accused me of being wrong about the law. I've (9) requested at the hearing and multiple times
(10) since for you to tell me where. I make that
(11) request again now.

(12) And I want all of that giving context with
(13) the intentional delays the Sixth Circuit has
(14) already provided as cover and delay for the (15) Thirteenth Circuit.

(16) And in light of the constitution's
(17) requirements for the procedures to be self
(18) executing, and the presumption of public access,
(19) the existence of the prima facie findings, and
(20) the failure of the defendants to raise any
(21) issues that would prevent entry of the
(22) peremptory writ to execute immediately I would
(23) request that the Court respond to those
(24) concerns.

(25) THE COURT: Well, Mr. Hanson, the Court's

[Page 21]

(1) initial, under the precedent, is to determine
(2) whether there's a prima facie case. The Court
(3) found that, as you recognize by your remarks.
(4) The Court did not find that there was a
(5) conclusive case, so the Court allowed a
(6) response, which is the appropriate framework --
(7) next step in the framework, that is. And then
(8) the Court reviewed those responses.

(9) The Court found that upon its review of
(10) those responses that there remained issues,
(11) issues of fact that the Court needed to conduct
(12) a final hearing on, and --

(13) MR. HANSON: What are those issues, your
(14) Honor?

(15) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, you're interrupting
(16) me, and I didn't interrupt you, so I would beg
(17) you the courtesy of listening, please.

(18) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(19) THE COURT: The Court upon its review of
(20) those matters found that it was necessary to set
(21) a final hearing, and I have been trying to set a
(22) final hearing or come to a conclusion in this
(23) matter over and over again.

(24) But I've also understood that you have --
(25) have needed to file motions, and, therefore,

[Page 22]

(1) I've set hearings on those motions. Regardless
(2) of those interim issues and matters that you
(3) wish to raise and have addressed by the Court,
(4) the status remains the same, which is in the
(5) Court's review of your initial documents, after
(6) the Court's requirement of a response, the Court
(7) did not find the matters of dispute between the
(8) litigants so sufficiently resolved that it did
(9) not need a final hearing. And, so, the Court at (10) this point stands at the same procedural fork in
(11) the road of needing to set a final hearing when
(12) you are prepared to have one.

(13) And I'm ready to set that final hearing. I
(14) have been ready to set that final hearing. But
(15) if you wish to have a conclusive ruling in your
(16) favor without having a final hearing, this
(17) Court's understanding of the rules of civil
(18) procedure is that you would need to file a
(19) motion for summary judgment. If you believe
(20) that there are no issues of material fact, and
(21) you are prepared to demonstrate that, then the
(22) Court will utilize that process as has been laid
(23) out by the rules of civil procedure to assess
(24) that, and to issue an order either ruling in
(25) your favor that there are no issues of material

[Page 23]

(1) fact in issuing the writ, which you request or
(2) it will specify for you and delineate any issues
(3) that remain, and any issues of material fact
(4) specifically that are preventing the Court from
(5) issuing a final judgment in your favor.

(6) That's the way the rules are written,
(7) that's the way the Court is going to apply them.
(8) Your other allegations regarding conspiracy or
(9) violations of certain principles or doctrine
(10) based upon your experience, and those other
(11) sorts of things are not lost on the Court, but I
(12) remain focused on the issue of how to move this
(13) case forward procedurally consistent with the
(14) mandates that you cite over and over again to
(15) this Court regarding expediting these matters,
(16) and getting them to a resolution.

(17) I assure you this Court is trying to get
(18) your matters to a resolution, but I have had to
(19) rule on your motions, I've had to have hearings
(20) on your motions, and have other Zoom proceedings
(21) on your motions, and I've done those as quickly
(22) as any Judge would be able to in these matters.

(23) Where we stand here is that you can file a
(24) motion for summary judgment. If you want to
(25) move forward under that track, I can set a final

(1) hearing, if you're ready for me to set a final
(2) hearing or I can wait for you to tell me that
(3) you're ready to set a final hearing, and then I
(4) will set a final hearing, but that's where we
(5) stand.

(6) And if you don't want to make that choice
(7) until you've reviewed your options further, I
(8) completely understand. I will -- I will wait
(9) until I hear from you regarding which of those
(10) paths you intend to choose, but those are the
(11) options that the Court has for managing this
(12) litigation, and trying to get it to resolution.

(13) MR. HANSON: May I ask a couple of -- the (14) question that I was trying to ask, your Honor?

(15) THE COURT: You may. It may not be a
(16) question that is for the Court to answer, but
(17) I'll entertain it.

(18) MR. HANSON: What are the issues of
(19) material fact based upon any of defendant's
(20) responses?

(21) THE COURT: Why don't you read their
(22) response, Mr. Hanson.

(23) MR. HANSON: Well, your Honor, I did.

(24) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson --

(25) MR. HANSON: And it's not --

[Page 25]

(1) THE COURT: No, Mr. Hanson.

(2) Mr. Hanson, you asked me a question, I get
(3) to answer.

(4) Those issues are contained and delineated
(5) within their response. If you can't comprehend
(6) it or you don't agree with it, then the rule
(7) regarding summary judgment is the procedural
(8) vehicle available to you. The procedural
(9) vehicle available to you is not, Judge, explain
(10) it to me, I don't understand it, I don't think
(11) you're wrong. That's what we're doing here, and
(12) that's what you've done at several stages, and
(13) it's inappropriate, and I don't want you to do
(14) it again.

(15) So, don't ask me to explain those matters
(16) to you. We're in a case management conference.
(17) I'm trying to get this matter to a resolution,
(18) as I have consistently during the time that this
(19) case has been assigned to me. You have not had
(20) to wait for hearings. You have not had to wait
(21) for responses. You have not had to wait for
(22) orders.

(23) So, if you're ready to tell me which option
(24) I should use to manage this case forward today,
(25) then you can tell me now. If you're not ready,

(1) then I'll conclude our case management
(2) conference, and I will wait for a response from
(3) you.

(4) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I was patient in
(5) listening to you, and you assured me I would
(6) have time to speak; right?

(7) THE COURT: I believe I've given you time
(8) to speak.

(9) MR. HANSON: No, your Honor.

(10) THE COURT: Would you like to tell me
(11) something else, Mr. Hanson?

(12) MR. HANSON: Yes, I have quite a bit to
(13) say, your Honor.

(14) Thank you.

(15) So -- well, 2.420 (e)(1) is another basis
(16) on which the Court is required to enter the writ
(17) in my favor now. The defendants have never
(18) submitted a privilege log. In fact, they've
(19) never even identified all of the documents that
(20) they're concealing. And the Court has just
(21) glossed over that, and that -- that is so
(22) violative of any good faith interpretation of
(23) Florida's constitution, that it's really
(24) difficult to -- to encounter that, and see the
(25) Court continue to try to rewrite the facts, and

[Page 27]

(1) gaslight in terms of any good faith motivations
(2) from the Court. I don't believe that there are
(3) any.

(4) I think that the Court is -- is clearly
(5) just trying to delay things. 2.420 (e)(1), it
(6) perfectly requires entry of the writ at this
(7) time.

(8) THE COURT: And (e)(1) is a matter for the
(9) Appellate Court jurisdiction; right?

(10) MR. HANSON: 2.420 -- Rule of Judicial (11) Administration 2.420 (e)(1), it deals with if (12) they're asserting confidentiality, it's their
(13) burden to file a motion for -- to determine
(14) that.

(15) And then additionally they need to file a
(16) privilege log, and the failure to do that
(17) operates as waiver. So, they have waived any
(18) rights regarding anything I've requested to.

(19) Additionally, your Honor, the Court is
(20) ignoring its duty to rule on the writ. There
(21) has to be some of the things that I've requested
(22) for the prima facie case applies. So, just
(23) saying that, you know, I get nothing until a
(24) final hearing is just that delay without any
(25) explanation to me as to what I've already proven

(1) the prima facie case to, and there's no
(2) exemptions I need to be concerned with versus
(3) any exemptions that may exist for anything.

(4) So, the Court's failure to make findings
(5) based upon the -- the petition, and the several
(6) responses that they've been given the
(7) opportunity to draft is where the problem is.
(8) It's not something where after that the Court is
(9) just supposed to say, well, I need a hearing to (10) figure this stuff out. The matter is to be
(11) expedited. And saying there's a prima facie
(12) case without any findings in terms of a basis to
(13) delay the writ, other than I just need a final
(14) hearing is just having the delay inconsistent
(15) with the spirit of the rule, and the spirit of (16) constitution for delaying it.

(17) And, so, your Honor, based upon the
(18) privilege log failure, failure to identify
(19) documents, and the -- that's one requirement for (20) entry of the writ. The other one is that
(21) there's a prima facie case with no findings as
(22) to any issue of material fact.

(23) The Court has a duty to make findings on
(24) that. They had a duty to do it a long time ago,
(25) and it just hasn't been done because there

[Page 29]

(1) aren't any. The Court would have to enter the
(2) writ, and force the Thirteenth Circuit to give
(3) me the records, and for some reason the Court
(4) doesn't want that. And that to me is such a
(5) shocking abusive power when the facts and the
(6) law and the constitution require one result.
(7) They require entry of the writ.

(8) But the Court is so committed to protecting
(9) other Judges, which is the only interest I can
(10) see that's served, that it will violate the law,
(11) violate the facts, and violate the constitution
(12) in a way that harms my family just in order to
(13) protect fellow Judges from accountability for
(14) their actions, and that's not the way it's (15) supposed to be.

(16) The constitution gives public access direct
(17) -- to records for precisely this reason. The (18) Thirteenth Circuit and the Sixth Circuit is
(19) tyrannizing my family now. You all are playing
(20) out this pretend game of we're really trying to (21) move things along, but you're not. You're
(22) trying to protect the fellow Judges. It's
(23) happening at multiple Courts, and in The Florida
(24) Bar, and it's incredibly inappropriate.

(25) And -- and you must think that you're going

[Page 30]

(1) to get away with this to -- to continue doing
(2) it, I assure you, you will not. I will not drop
(3) this. I will be out in front of your courthouse
(4) protesting. And I'm saying that you're
(5) gaslighting me. I'm saying that you are
(6) intentionally delaying things. You should
(7) report me. That's a violation of the rules,
(8) right? Report me. Let's have a trial on it.
(9) I'm that sure of what you're doing, your Honor.
(10) And you can continue doing it, but this isn't
(11) going away.

(12) So, I will leave it at that. I encourage
(13) you to do the right thing. You will continue to
(14) cause damage to my family as long as you put off
(15) doing the right thing, but the right thing will
(16) come.

(17) THE COURT: All right. This will conclude
(18) our case management conference.

(19) MR. HANSON: Nothing to say, your Honor?
(20) Nothing to say?

(21) You should be ashamed. You should be
(22) ashamed.

(23) THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Hanson?

(24) MR. HANSON: I don't think you're ashamed,
(25) and that's disappointing.

[Page 31]

(1) THE COURT: That will conclude our case
(2) management conference this morning.

(3) MR. HANSON: So, you do nothing, your
(4) Honor? I mean, this was just a waste of time?

(5) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson.

(6) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(7) THE COURT: This is a case management
(8) conference, and I told you what your options
(9) were based upon my legal assessment of where we
(10) stand. If there are different --

(11) MR. HANSON: I --

(12) THE COURT: Please go ahead, Mr. Hanson. I
(13) didn't mean to interrupt you.

(14) MR. HANSON: Nothing that I've said
(15) warrants any response, your Honor? We just get
(16) more delay?

(17) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I have responded,
(18) and I have explained --

(19) MR. HANSON: No, you haven't. You haven't
(20) in any meaningful way. You're just -- you put
(21) things off. And, you know, it's shameful that,
(22) you know, you can't even offer a denial or, you
(23) know, anything. It's just -- this is how much
(24) power has been abused and corrupted is that you
(25) just think these things are okay, and you don't

[Page 32]

(1) even need to respond to it, and -- and it's
(2) truly tragic and terrifying.

(3) And if -- if your Honor is not going to do
(4) anything in terms of identifying an issue of
(5) material fact or of addressing whether there's a
(6) prima facie case for some of the requests where
(7) the entry of the order for at least some things
(8) are appropriate, and it's just going to be
(9) delay, I would ask that the Court at least allow
(10) me to set some discovery.

(11) THE COURT: You can propound discovery. If
(12) there's an objection to your discovery, I will
(13) rule on that matter as it's brought forward to (14) the Court's attention.

(15) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, we already ruled
(16) on that, and there's already something pending
(17) on that currently. At docket number 86, it's my (18) motion for rehearing on your order granting the (19) motion for protective order. So, that is an
(20) issue that's before the Court, and I would
(21) request a hearing on that as soon as possible.
(22) If the Court can't review based upon the -- the
(23) filings, and my position today because in terms
(24) of where we are in discovery, I don't even know
(25) what the issues are. So, of course, I need some

(1) discovery.

(2) You know, usually you know what the issues
(3) are, and then you -- you have some idea what the
(4) issues are, and then you explore further and
(5) investigate them further with discovery.

(6) For me I have no clue what the issues are,
(7) so I certainly need the discovery, and that's
(8) really what is argued in the motion at docket
(9) 86.

(10) THE COURT: All right. Well, I will send
(11) out some hearing time, as you've requested here
(12) on that matter after I assess that.

(13) Which motion is it that you wish to set for
(14) a hearing, Mr. Hanson?

(15) MR. HANSON: Docket number 86. And then,
(16) of course, the docket 78, the -- the motion for
(17) entry of the immediate writ.

(18) THE COURT: Okay. I will have my assistant
(19) be in touch with the parties to attempt to
(20) coordinate a time for a hearing on docket number
(21) 78, and docket number 86 as requested here.

(22) MR. HANSON: Okay. Thank you, your Honor.

(23) THE COURT: Thank you, everybody.

(24) Have a good morning.

(25) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(1) THE COURT: That will conclude our record,
(2) Madam Court Reporter.

(3) Thank you.

(4) Everyone can exit the Zoom --

(5) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Thank you, your Honor.

(6) THE COURT: -- at your own leisure or I will
(7) end the meeting shortly.
