NOTICE OF FILING CERTIFIED TRANSCRIPT OF AUGUST 17, 2026 HEARING

Plaintiff, Christopher Hanson, self-represented, gives notice of filing the certified transcript of the August 17, 2026 hearing before this Court on "Plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions and Entry of Peremptory Writ of Mandamus, or, Alternatively, for Written Order with Findings Setting Evidentiary Hearing" (Doc. 78) and "Plaintiff's Combined Motion for Interlocutory Reconsideration, Rehearing Under Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.530(g), and Clarification on Orders at Docket 80 and 81" (Doc. 86), attached as Exhibit 1. The transcript (pages 1 through 44, plus reporter's certificate and index, 57 pages total) was prepared by Lorial L. Milazzo, RPR, of Vincent M. Lucente & Associates, Inc. (Job No. L26-133), and certified August 19, 2026. This transcript is cited in Plaintiff's Motion for Production of the April 4, 2025 Hearing Video and, in the Alternative and Without Waiver, Submission on Good Cause in Response to the August 27, 2026 Order, and in Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration in Part and Clarification of the August 27, 2026 Order, both filed contemporaneously herewith.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I certify that on September 8, 2026, a copy of the foregoing, with Exhibit 1, was served through the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal on: Jessica Schwieterman, Senior Assistant Attorney General, Office of the Attorney General, 3507 E. Frontage Road, Suite 200, Tampa, FL 33607, jessica.schwieterman@myfloridalegal.com, counsel for the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Defendants; and Keiana R. Wilkerson, Akerman LLP, keiana.wilkerson@akerman.com, counsel for Defendant Clerk of Court Victor Crist.

Respectfully submitted,

(2) THE COURT: All right. Madam Court Reporter,
(3) we'll be on the record at this time. I'm Judge
(4) Sherwood Coleman. We're here for further
(5) proceedings today in Case 25-CA-10255, a matter in
(6) the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit where I am sitting
(7) by appointment here in the Sixth Circuit.

(8) I have several folks present for these
(9) proceedings, which the parties have agreed should be (10) conducted using Zoom court technology. I will have
(11) them all identify themselves by name for the record,
(12) and then we'll see if our observer wishes to be
(13) identified as well for purposes of the record.

(14) We'll start with the plaintiff. Mr. Hanson, go
(15) ahead.

(16) MR. HANSON: This is Christopher Hanson for the (17) plaintiff and as attorney for plaintiff.

(18) THE COURT: All right. And Miss Schwieterman?

(19) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor, Jessica
(20) Schwieterman on behalf of the Thirteenth Judicial (21) Circuit, the current trial court administrator,
(22) formerly Gina Justice, Chief Judge Christopher
(23) Sabella of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Judge
(24) Kelly Ayers, and Judge Matthew Felix.

(25) THE COURT: All right. And we have a staff

(1) attorney here from the Sixth Circuit. We also have
(2) an observer, or that's the identification in the
(3) Zoom box.

(4) Observer, if you want to identify yourself, you
(5) can, but obviously this is an open proceeding, so
(6) you can certainly observe if you wish, but go ahead.

(7) MR. NAUMAN: Your Honor, my name is Chris
(8) Nauman. I am the assistant general counsel of the (9) Thirteenth Circuit. Obviously I'm just observing.
(10) That's it.

(11) THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

(12) And my notes and my recollection from our last
(13) gathering at a case management conference in this
(14) proceeding led to the Court setting down for (15) hearing, at your request, Mr. Hanson, you specified
(16) matters that are on the Hillsborough County Clerk's
(17) docket as docket number 78 and docket number 86. I
(18) assume you want to address 78 and then 86, but
(19) certainly the hearing time has been reserved for you
(20) to present these motions. I'll allow you to proceed
(21) when ready and in any order you wish.

(22) MR. HANSON: Okay. And, Your Honor, I believe
(23) it's docket 85 is the second one. The second one is (24) a motion for reconsideration and rehearing and
(25) clarification of orders at docket 80 and 81. It

[Page 5]

(1) primarily relates to the Court's order which is at
(2) docket 80 and relates to the protective order
(3) entered at the request of the defendants.

(4) THE COURT: I will take a look while we're
(5) there, but I made a pretty specific note that that
(6) was actually docketed as number 86.

(7) Miss Schwieterman, what was your intention or
(8) your preparation for this matter?

(9) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Your Honor, I had docket
(10) number 86. I will say that 85 and 86 are very
(11) similar. I believe they are almost identical. I
(12) think there's a font difference between the two of (13) them.

(14) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, that may be the one
(15) where I had some difficulty. It was rejected
(16) because of the case heading initially. I don't
(17) remember what the issue was, but the case heading
(18) wasn't quite right. So that might be the reason for (19) two documents, but, I'm sorry, docket 86 works just (20) as good.

(21) THE COURT: All right. Very good. If there's (22) any discrepancy that comes up between the documents
(23) or anything else like that, you all can just clarify
(24) for me during your argument. And I'm just going to
(25) go ahead and pull up that Hillsborough County docket

(1) now just in case I need to refer back and forth to
(2) any different documents.

(3) All right. Mr. Hanson, then whenever you're
(4) ready.

(5) MR. HANSON: Okay. Your Honor, if it's okay
(6) with you, I think it makes more sense to start with
(7) the motion on the protective order and then get into
(8) the issuance of the writ and sanctions. Is that
(9) okay with the Court?

(10) THE COURT: Sure. It's your hearing time. Go
(11) ahead.

(12) MR. HANSON: Okay. So as far as background,
(13) this is still a situation where I don't even know
(14) what records the Thirteenth Circuit has concealed.
(15) The pleadings make it clear that they have not (16) identified all of the documents that they have that
(17) are responsive to my requests, and that's something
(18) that I've been requesting since my first petition
(19) for writ and ever since, and the Court's position
(20) and the Attorney General's position seems to be we (21) should just go to a final hearing as we are.

(22) And first, I think that the peremptory writ is (23) certainly ripe for adjudication, but even if it's (24) not, to say that they -- they had to do request for (25) admissions, but they were excused from all of the

[Page 7]

(1) other discovery, including interrogatories, requests
(2) to produce, and depositions, and there was no
(3) explanation for that. So I'm in a situation where,
(4) not only do I not understand or know of any issue of
(5) material fact that's been raised, and at the last
(6) hearing the Court and Miss Schwieterman were asked
(7) about that, and no one could name an issue of
(8) material fact that was raised. So I don't even know
(9) what I need to be proving.

(10) And beyond that, they haven't identified what
(11) documents they still have that I have not seen, so
(12) certainly you can't prepare for trial on something
(13) you don't know the identity of it. So obviously I
(14) need some discovery, unless there's just going to be
(15) an order on production of all of the materials,
(16) including those that haven't been identified.
(17) That's what I think the appropriate resolution is (18) here, because there has not been any showing of an
(19) issue of material fact.

(20) There is not even a sworn statement on the (21) alleged confidential nature of the video of the (22) April 4th, 2025, hearing. Beyond that, it was (23) something that the judge placed into the record and
(24) the proceedings in the underlying case, which makes
(25) it certainly a public record.

(1) And the background of this is the constitution,
(2) and it's basic human rights that we put into the
(3) constitution where we protect citizens from
(4) government and court overreach. And citizens have
(5) the right to public records, to investigate whether
(6) courts or state agencies are overreaching and doing
(7) things out of self-interest or doing anything that
(8) is unlawful for any motivation.

(9) And in the present case, it's the most basic (10) human right that I know that is at issue here, and
(11) that's being apparent. That's been the issue all
(12) along is that the Thirteenth Circuit Court's actions
(13) are greatly interfering with my ability to parent my
(14) children and placing enormous difficulty on us
(15) financially, emotionally, health-wise, and there's (16) no good faith basis for it at multiple levels.

(17) I've sought relief throughout the justice system
(18) in Florida, and everyone rubber-stamps the -- we'll (19) just let them keep it hidden. It's all -- every (20) node or fork in the road or issue that I've
(21) presented to the various courts and oversight
(22) institutions provided a point where the law required
(23) the relief that I was requesting to get us past this
(24) issue, but instead the institutions are committing
(25) first-party presentation violations at back-to-back

(1) hearings with different judges.

(2) And all of those are nodes that show a
(3) misalignment where the court is deviating from the
(4) legally expected result or outcome all in one
(5) direction across multiple courts, across multiple
(6) oversight institutions, and it's doing that at the (7) expense of my ability to parent my kids and placing (8) our family in a horrible circumstance.

(9) And it's gone on for over two years now, and
(10) this Court has the ability to require some (11) accountability to begin to allow us to get past all
(12) of the mistakes and damage that's already been done
(13) to move forward and figure out what's exactly on
(14) that video, what does it show about a sitting judge
(15) and their temperament or ability to continue trying
(16) cases and overseeing families.

(17) And I would hope that that's a concern for the (18) Court, because I can tell you firsthand how damaging (19) it is, and if the idea is we're just not going to (20) look at that and not have any concern about open
(21) bias shown in court and then lying about it, that to
(22) me is a very serious problem for Florida citizens,
(23) and that's what's at issue here.

(24) The Attorney General's Office really has two (25) rules here. You have an oversight that they owe to

[Page 10]

(1) all citizens. I requested that they investigate the
(2) Thirteenth Circuit long before they ever represented
(3) them, but now they're taking an active role within
(4) the judicial system supporting the suppression of
(5) public records and evidence critical to my case. So
(6) it's really an egregious situation.

(7) I apologize for some of my frustration that I've
(8) expressed in court. I truly don't understand how
(9) the things that I just explained are not
(10) self-evident and are not leading to some reasonable
(11) result here that gets us past all of this. So
(12) that's -- I don't know if it's an excuse or an
(13) apology or what exactly, but I do regret that I have
(14) to do any of this. I don't like litigation.

(15) I don't want to be involved in this, but it's (16) important, not only for my case, but it's important
(17) for citizens of Florida, because these are basic (18) constitutional rights, rights to public records,
(19) rights to oversight, rights to see what's happening
(20) behind closed doors, especially when there's
(21) evidence of consistent misalignment in one direction
(22) and when it's at the expense of citizens.

(23) So I plead with the Court to look at the (24) peremptory writ. There's only two potential
(25) consequences or actions that the Court can take once

[Page 11]

(1) there is a response or a return to the petition for
(2) writ, and it is either identify issues of material
(3) fact on certain requests or certain documents that
(4) are still within the defendants' possession or enter
(5) the peremptory writ. Those are the requirements.

(6) And the defendants have been given I believe
(7) it's three additional bites at the apple. They've
(8) had three times to respond to my petition for writ
(9) beyond what they're entitled to under the statute,
(10) and in none of those is there anything approaching
(11) support for an exemption. There's not even an
(12) affidavit supporting their suggestion that the video
(13) is covered by confidentiality.

(14) So it's really a situation where the evidence is (15) clear, the evidence has been clear. I've made prima
(16) fascia requests that the Court has found twice, and
(17) they've done nothing to move me closer to getting (18) these public records here that are so important in (19) the underlying case.

(20) In the underlying case, there is now a motion
(21) for contempt against me. There's a guardian ad
(22) litem that's actively involved and will be meeting
(23) with my children soon who have gone two years
(24) excelling and not even really understanding that
(25) there's conflict between me and my opposing party in

(1) the underlying case, and they've done incredibly
(2) well, and it just terrifies me to know that I might
(3) be helpless to stop that from their happy healthy
(4) lives oblivious to the misconduct or to the conflict
(5) and misconduct that's ongoing.

(6) I haven't told my kids what the facts are here,
(7) because I don't want to have them have a fractured
(8) relationship with their mom, but the Court is
(9) putting me in a position where I don't have a
(10) choice. If there's going to be someone that is (11) going to start drawing their attention to these (12) issues and they are going to be in the middle and (13) weaponized, then they have a right to know what's (14) going on, but there is nothing good that can come
(15) from allowing the Thirteenth Circuit to retaliate
(16) against me in this way.

(17) The judge in the Thirteenth Circuit has issued
(18) an order forbidding me from posting in public about
(19) what's happening while there's a structural conflict
(20) against him. This case -- this litigation and this
(21) petition for mandamus case is pretty contentious.
(22) I'm pretty frustrated with it, and I think that the (23) Thirteenth Circuit personnel, including Judge Felix,
(24) have acted incredibly inappropriately, and I think
(25) that there's going to be accountability there.

[Page 13]

(1) So there is every reason for Judge Felix to have
(2) animosity against me, yet he refuses to make any
(3) findings of fact about my constitutional rights or
(4) about the structural conflict where federal due
(5) process as a floor requires his disqualification.
(6) So he's acting out precisely the bias that that rule
(7) is based on. He's not -- not only is the concern
(8) for bias, it's being acted out at every step of (9) litigation.

(10) And I've created something that's called a node
(11) map using interpretability signs, which is usually
(12) used for studying AI systems, but I found that it
(13) studies judicial systems perfectly well. The
(14) judicial system is just like the AI and that you
(15) have a black box where you have an expected result
(16) based upon the facts and the law and then you have (17) the actual output, and I'm mapping that. And (18) there's over a hundred misalignments across
(19) institutions each with statistically significant (20) deviations from the legally expected result all in (21) the same direction.

(22) The results are statistically significantly just
(23) for the Sixth Circuit. I believe there's twenty in
(24) the Sixth Circuit, obviously the first-party
(25) presentation principles and many others. So this is

(1) shaping out to demonstrate in an objective way
(2) serious problems where there's proof that something
(3) needs to change on multiple levels.

(4) And the one thing this Court can do is get the
(5) public records out in the open, let the
(6) accountability that happens or the relief that comes
(7) from it happen, but continuing to delay things and
(8) find ways to let the Thirteenth Circuit continue to (9) avoid even identifying materials that are in all
(10) likelihood public records. In fact, that's why they
(11) don't want to identify them, I assume, is that they
(12) would be identified as purely public records.
(13) That's just an untenable situation, and the damage
(14) that can result from that is irreversible, and it
(15) could impact my kids.

(16) So I hope that the Court will consider that and
(17) the fact that truly it's constitutional rights and a
(18) dad's right to have a pristine relationship with his
(19) kids. I would ask the Court to provide the relief
(20) that allows that path back.

(21) THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

(22) Miss Schwieterman?

(23) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor. As it
(24) pertains to a peremptory writ, a peremptory writ of (25) mandamus isn't proper when material issues of fact

(1) remain unresolved, and that's exactly what we have
(2) in this case. As the husband said in the responses,
(3) as Mr. Hanson continues to amend his initial
(4) pleading, we respond accordingly or he has requested
(5) that the court order be stricken and reentered to (6) which we are entitled to a response to the (7) alternative writ.

(8) Our response maintains the same, which is also
(9) evidenced in Mr. Hanson's initial pleadings in the (10) documents for his request for public records and
(11) that we maintain, pursuant to Florida Statute 119,
(12) that the video that he has requested is (13) confidential, as it is surveillance video or it's (14) security footage, and there are specific things that (15) Mr. Hanson has to follow in order to have that (16) released. Mr. Hanson has not done that, and because
(17) he has not done that, we cannot release the footage.
(18) That's ultimately the crux of why we are here.

(19) And despite Mr. Hanson being instructed and it
(20) being written in all of our pleadings, we continue
(21) to go through all of these back-door attempts to (22) receive the same video, despite the statute being
(23) abundantly clear as to what he needs to do to obtain
(24) that video. We continue to go through these long
(25) exhaustive proceedings, and at this point, Your

[Page 16]

(1) Honor, we just need to get to a final hearing. A
(2) peremptory writ is not appropriate or proper in this
(3) scenario, because we have a factual dispute.

(4) And Mr. Hanson claims that we did not attach an
(5) affidavit. We didn't need to attach an affidavit,
(6) because the documents Mr. Hanson produced proved our
(7) point. The discovery does not need to exist in a
(8) writ of mandamus case, because the documents that
(9) Mr. Hanson provides in his initial pleading are what
(10) is -- are what the Court is supposed to look at.
(11) You are supposed to look at the evidence that is (12) provided to the Court. It is an encapsulated
(13) proceeding, if you will.

(14) The intention of the legislature and everyone
(15) who came up with the proceedings is that you look at
(16) the documents that are in the initial pleadings.
(17) The reason you have the appendix and all of the (18) attachments to the writ of mandamus is so that you
(19) have all of the evidence and everything is there.

(20) So, again, we maintain that the peremptory writ
(21) is inappropriate, as there are factual disputes, and
(22) that there is no need for clarification as to the (23) discovery as, again, we maintain our argument
(24) discovery is not appropriate in a writ of mandamus
(25) proceeding as the statute -- or I'm sorry, the rules

(1) are very clear as to what the Court needs to look at
(2) for evidence and it's what's attached to the writ of
(3) mandamus with all of the documents.

(4) I understand that Mr. Hanson is upset about the
(5) underlying proceedings, but that is not what this
(6) peremptory writ -- or that's not what the issuance
(7) of a peremptory writ is going to fix. This is
(8) specifically about his public records request, and
(9) we maintain that there is a factual dispute as to (10) what needs to occur, and that has not occurred.

(11) And so we would request that the peremptory writ
(12) not be entered, as it's not appropriate, and that (13) this move to a final hearing, which is the (14) appropriate procedure in this -- in this case.

(15) THE COURT: Question, Miss Schwieterman.
(16) Earlier in your remarks you alluded to there being a
(17) video, it not being subject to public records, and
(18) that it was confidential and that, therefore, there
(19) were things that Mr. Hanson needed to do in order to (20) get this video. And I believe your assessment was
(21) that, in your client's opinion, he has not done
(22) those things in order to get that video.

(23) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: That's correct, Your Honor.

(24) THE COURT: So that seems to imply, one, there
(25) is a video.

(1) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes.

(2) THE COURT: Two, that it is getable --

(3) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes.

(4) THE COURT: -- for lack of a better word. And
(5) that, three, there are things that need to be done
(6) in order for you to agree to its release. Would you
(7) agree with all three of those?

(8) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor. That is
(9) correct.

(10) THE COURT: Okay. So what are -- then since
(11) you've agreed to all three of those, let me
(12) delineate number three. As far as the things that (13) need to be done in order to allow release of the (14) confidential video that Mr. Hanson seeks -- and I
(15) know, Mr. Hanson, you seek a number of records,
(16) right, but it seems like the Court's impression of (17) the focus of our hearings and your arguments and the (18) back-and-forth really have been putting a spotlight
(19) on this video, so for the moment I am just going to (20) focus on the video.

(21) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(22) THE COURT: Miss Schwieterman, what are those
(23) steps, if you can put them forward or even summarize
(24) them for us here.

(25) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor, if you give

[Page 19]

(1) me just a second. I am going to pull up Florida
(2) Statute 119.071 subsection (3) subsection (a), which
(3) delineates all of those, which was provided to
(4) Mr. Hanson in a letter that was attached to his
(5) initial writ of mandamus. However, there are
(6) general exemptions from inspection or copying of (7) public records as subsection (3)(a) states -- give
(8) me just one moment. I have to get to it.

(9) THE COURT: And again, that's 119.071(3)(a)?

(10) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

(11) THE COURT: Okay.

(12) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: It's a very very long
(13) section. Your Honor, with this section, the (14) surveillance video -- Mr. Hanson is seeking (15) surveillance video of the courthouse, which is
(16) confidential pursuant to statutes that security
(17) systems, public records of meetings, and criminal (18) intelligence information means information with
(19) respect to an identifiable person or group of (20) persons collected by criminal justice agency. This
(21) data is protected; however, there is an allowance
(22) for the release of these items, and at this point
(23) Mr. Hanson has not made that request.

(24) Since that request has not been made, my clients
(25) maintain that they have not failed to complete their

(1) ministerial duties, which is the purpose of a writ
(2) of mandamus. So that is where our factual dispute
(3) comes in. We agree that there is a video. That
(4) video is protected under 119, as it is surveillance
(5) video, which is exempt from public records.

(6) There is a way to overcome that exemption.
(7) Mr. Hanson has not engaged in that procedure,
(8) despite being told in at least two different letters
(9) how to go about that, not directly in step-by-step
(10) methods as the section of the statute was provided.
(11) Mr. Hanson needed to take it upon himself to read
(12) the section of the statute to ensure that that could (13) be completed, but that procedure has not been
(14) followed, and since that has not been followed, my (15) clients are not releasing the video, because the (16) appropriate steps have not been completed.

(17) If those were to be completed, we would not be (18) here, but my clients not releasing the video because
(19) Mr. Hanson has engaged in a bunch of tangential
(20) proceedings and other attempted methods without
(21) following the statute, that's not the defendants
(22) failing to complete their ministerial duties.
(23) That's Mr. Hanson not understanding the statute.

(24) THE COURT: So I'm looking at -- and granted,
(25) you know, the law is an open book test, but my book

(1) here in the courtroom is from 2022, so I'm going to
(2) assume that this is not a section that's been
(3) subject to wholesale revision. If either of you
(4) think so, let me know what the update is, and I'll
(5) try and call it up online.

(6) But when I'm looking at 119.071(3), that appears
(7) to be the section, in my version of the statute,
(8) that deals with security and firesafety is the (9) overall heading.

(10) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor. That's
(11) correct.

(12) THE COURT: Okay. And it goes on to define what
(13) certain records are and certain things are in a list
(14) after that. And then after we get to a
(15) categorization of what that includes, we have an
(16) explanation, briefly summarized, that exemptions are
(17) remedial in nature, intent of the legislature is
(18) explained, and that in the next section
(19) information -- and this would be I guess (3)(a) sub
(20) (3), for purposes of our record.

(21) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

(22) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, do you have that statute
(23) available to you, also?

(24) MR. HANSON: What's the first numbers? 119.071?

(25) THE COURT: 119.071.

(1) MR. HANSON: And then (3)(a)?

(2) THE COURT: (3)(a). And now I'm at what I have
(3) as (3)(a)(3).

(4) MR. HANSON: I just -- it took me to 119.01.
(5) I'm sorry. Just give me one second.

(6) THE COURT: That's okay. We have a moment. Let
(7) me know when you get there. I'm going to try to get
(8) up the latest version of it to make sure there
(9) hasn't been any changes, but --

(10) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Your Honor, I am looking at (11) the latest version. I don't believe there have been (12) any changes.

(13) THE COURT: Okay.

(14) MR. HANSON: Okay. I got it. 119.071(1)(a)(3)?

(15) THE COURT: No, sorry, 119.071(3)(a)(3).

(16) MR. HANSON: Got it. All right. Man, this is a
(17) long statute. I am just looking for the section
(18) (3).

(19) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: It's under the heading
(20) security and firesafety.

(21) MR. HANSON: They should really bold the main
(22) headings here. I see -- yeah. Okay. I got it.
(23) Thank you.

(24) THE COURT: All right. So you all let me know
(25) if this has changed at all. I am going to go from

(1) the book, since as you indicated and agree it's a
(2) long section, so there is a lot of scrolling on the
(3) computer to find that place again.

(4) So under subheading (3) under sub (a) and then
(5) moving through the explanation of what's included
(6) and the explanation of the nature of the exemption
(7) and the intent of the legislature we get to part
(8) (3) -- or sub (3) of part (3). And (3)(a)(3)
(9) indicates: Information made confidential and exempt
(10) by this paragraph may be disclosed:

(11) Is that the section that you're suggesting
(12) provides guidance to the Court, Miss Schwieterman?

(13) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor, that is.

(14) THE COURT: Okay. And under the 2022 book, I
(15) see that there are four subparts to that section --

(16) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: That's correct. That has not
(17) changed.

(18) THE COURT: -- that are currently in effect.

(19) Mr. Hanson, are you at that section with me?

(20) MR. HANSON: I am, Your Honor. I do have a
(21) response to it, but I don't know if you're ready for (22) that.

(23) THE COURT: No. I just want to make sure I have (24) a clear understanding of the position. And, of (25) course, since they're your motions, I will

(1) definitely give you the final response; okay?

(2) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(3) THE COURT: So, Miss Schwieterman, your
(4) indication to the Court is that, one, as we said,
(5) this video exists, two, this video may be obtained
(6) by Mr. Hanson, and that, three, that ability to (7) obtain that video is contingent upon compliance with
(8) 119.071(3)(a)(3)?

(9) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes.

(10) THE COURT: Okay. So what do you contend,
(11) then -- to take this forward to a fourth step, if (12) you will, what do you contend that Mr. Hanson has to (13) do in order to comply with 119.071(3)(a)(3)(a)
(14) through (d)?

(15) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: Yes, Your Honor. The (16) defendants' position is that he needs to comply with
(17) subsection (d), upon showing of good cause before a
(18) court of competent jurisdiction, which could be the (19) underlying court in which the video occurred or the (20) court in which that occurred.

(21) Mr. Hanson would need to provide a motion to the (22) court with good cause requesting that the video be
(23) released, and if the judge overhearing that case,
(24) either at the time or the current sitting judge,
(25) were to issue an order releasing that video,

(1) Mr. Hanson could then take that order to the public
(2) records and say, Here is this order, I have a court
(3) of competent jurisdiction issuing good cause, and
(4) the video would be released.

(5) THE COURT: And what is your client's position,
(6) then -- just sort of presuming this may come up in
(7) Mr. Hanson's response as a question in trying to
(8) move things along efficiently, what is the Attorney
(9) General's position on whether this Court is a court
(10) of competent jurisdiction as defined by statute or (11) as referenced here? It's not defined in the (12) statute. I guess that's why I have the question.
(13) What's your client's position on whether or not this (14) is a court of competent jurisdiction sufficient to (15) satisfy 119's language here?

(16) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: As this is based on a writ of (17) mandamus, we would maintain that this would also be
(18) appropriate; however, we would just request that
(19) there would need to be a showing of good cause by (20) Mr. Hanson before the Court. We do feel that this
(21) Court is a court of competent jurisdiction, but to
(22) date we would contend that there has not been a
(23) motion or a showing of good cause as to the need of (24) the video other than a vague description of (25) constitutional violations. So we would request an

(1) actual showing of good cause.

(2) THE COURT: Would the Court need to review the
(3) video in order to make a determination of whether
(4) the particular video -- whether there's good cause?
(5) Is that part and parcel of any determination of good
(6) cause?

(7) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: No, Your Honor, I don't
(8) believe so. It would be the good cause as to why
(9) Mr. Hanson is entitled to the video.

(10) THE COURT: Okay. I think -- give me a moment
(11) just to think over those things and see whether or (12) not I have any other questions that I would want to (13) ask at this moment. If you'll just give me a second
(14) to deliberate, if you will.

(15) All right. Mr. Hanson, I don't think I have any (16) other questions for opposing counsel regarding their
(17) argument, so why don't I allow you to make a closing
(18) response. You indicated that you had some other
(19) matters that you wanted to address regarding Miss
(20) Schwieterman's remarks to the Court.

(21) MR. HANSON: Right. I would just note that Miss
(22) Schwieterman said that there are issues of material
(23) fact on multiple occasions, but she didn't name one,
(24) and they haven't even identified records that they
(25) have not produced. So, you know, there's public

(1) records that under the constitution are presumed to
(2) be public records that they're just saying, We're
(3) not going to tell anybody about these.

(4) So all of this needs to be viewed through the
(5) lens of the Thirteenth Circuit's conduct before this
(6) Court, and even before that the conduct of the (7) Thirteenth Circuit in response to the public records
(8) request is important. And they engaged in document
(9) dumping where they printed a bunch of double-sided
(10) copies that they made me go pick up, which I brought
(11) a double-sided scanner to scan them and send back to (12) them, and they didn't include the records. They (13) didn't include anything relevant. They just
(14) included things that I already had.

(15) And still to this day we have sneaky language in
(16) their pleadings where there is a gap for records
(17) they haven't identified where they're not denying
(18) that they exist, but they're just not identifying (19) what they are, and that is directly contrary to my (20) constitutional rights, to the constitution in (21) general and the presumption of public access to (22) judicial records. So that's one problem that Miss
(23) Schwieterman didn't address.

(24) And then the other one that I mentioned first is
(25) that she didn't actually raise any issue of material

[Page 28]

(1) fact. Miss Schwieterman did say that in deciding
(2) this peremptory writ that this Court needs to look
(3) at the evidence, and I agree with that, and the
(4) record is completely absent of any evidence that the
(5) April 4th, 2025, video falls under the exemption,
(6) the confidentiality exemption that the Court read in
(7) section 119.

(8) So that's not an issue of material fact.
(9) There's no evidence. They've pleaded it, but that's (10) not sufficient to withstand -- to qualify as
(11) competent substantial evidence that raises a dispute
(12) as to a material fact. It's just an assertion in a
(13) pleading.

(14) And they're also refusing depositions where I
(15) wanted to depose the records custodian for the (16) security video. They wouldn't let me do that. And
(17) it is their burden to prove an exemption, to offer
(18) evidence that an exemption exists. The constitution
(19) presumes public access, and that's very important,
(20) because their pleading level assertion that these (21) are confidential and you've got to do the work is
(22) directly contrary to the rule and the constitution.

(23) And also, section 119 doesn't apply, that the (24) defendants have made that argument on multiple
(25) occasions. I believe they've actually gone back and

[Page 29]

(1) forth on whether it applies as to depending on
(2) whether it's convenient for them at the time.

(3) THE COURT: Well, do you say -- just so I'm (4) clear on what your position is, Mr. Hanson, because
(5) I want to make sure that I'm just as clear about
(6) your position as theirs, do you contend that 119
(7) applies?

(8) MR. HANSON: I believe it can be informative as
(9) to the responsibilities with the judicial records
(10) and court records. I do not believe it applies
(11) strictly. I think Ake, A-K-E, I think it's a
(12) Thirteenth Circuit Court case, actually, but I think
(13) that's pretty clear that it can be useful to fill in
(14) some gaps here and there, but it does not apply.

(15) And there is a section in the judicial branch
(16) records at 2.420 where it becomes very clear that (17) absent evidence presented to support an exemption or (18) a disputed fact the peremptory writ is the (19) appropriate option. And this is just another delay
(20) technique. It's just more making me jump through
(21) hoops.

(22) And to say that I haven't shown a need for it
(23) where I have a judge who has replaced the one who is (24) lying and been openly biased on the video that
(25) they're hiding, I mean, to me it's self-evident

(1) that's relevant. I am telling you that the court
(2) system was biased against me and abused me for years
(3) now and there is video of it. Well, you got to
(4) actually show there is good cause. That's
(5) offensive. It's ridiculous and offensive, so it's (6) really just more absurdity.

(7) And the fact that the Attorney General is
(8) arguing this on behalf of the courts is absolutely
(9) terrifying. That's what we have in Florida now. We
(10) have courts who think that they are above the law,
(11) that they can treat citizens however they want, and (12) the Attorney General is stepping in and defending (13) them for that.

(14) Now, I'd ask either the Court or Miss
(15) Schwieterman to tell me where I'm wrong in saying
(16) that, that the courts are acting as though they are
(17) above the law and the Attorney General is defending
(18) them trying to help them conceal critical evidence,
(19) while that same court continues to abuse a litigant
(20) and his family. I think that those are self-evident
(21) facts, and if either of you disagree, I'd be happy
(22) to walk you through the documentation that proves
(23) that very clearly.

(24) So, Your Honor, it's just -- it's more of the (25) same. It's just they're throwing anything they can

[Page 31]

(1) at the wall for a delay. They don't want to appear
(2) for discovery. They don't want to produce anything.
(3) They don't even want to identify what they have to
(4) produce, and they've had three additional bites at
(5) the apple for responding to the writ.

(6) Another argument I have on their confidentiality
(7) position is that it was waived. They have not
(8) properly asserted that with any evidence at any time
(9) throughout this matter.

(10) And, Your Honor, it's a frustrating situation,
(11) because I understand the different ideas, like the (12) summary judgment or the motion for summary final
(13) order that was discussed at the previous hearing. I
(14) understand like that the Attorney General's Office
(15) and the Thirteenth Circuit is looking for anything
(16) that could come anywhere close to being a basis for (17) continuing to conceal these records, but there's (18) nothing close. The evidence is very clear. They (19) have failed in their responsibility to respond to my
(20) petition for writ at every single level.

(21) And now there is a reference to me in Miss
(22) Schwieterman's statement to me amending my initial
(23) pleadings to try and -- I can't recall exactly what
(24) the quote was, but my position has been the same
(25) since day one. They have not even identified what

[Page 32]

(1) they're concealing, and if we're going to have
(2) courts that can do whatever they want and another
(3) court is going to allow them to handle their public
(4) records litigation in a way where they don't even
(5) have to say what they're hiding, there can't be
(6) justice in Florida.

(7) It's just -- it's directly violative of the (8) constitutional principle access to government
(9) records so stuff like this doesn't happen, and it's (10) happening, and it's hurting me. It's hurting my
(11) family. And I think that those facts are unrefuted,
(12) so I would ask the Court to immediately enter the (13) peremptory writ on the video and then all of the (14) documentation.

(15) I don't know if the Court is even aware of this,
(16) but back in December of 2024 Judge Ayers rushed a
(17) withdrawal hearing for the attorney representing me
(18) at the time. I waived any attorney-client
(19) privilege, because there was no good faith basis for (20) her to even withdraw, let alone do it on a rushed
(21) basis, and they did it on I think it was less than (22) twenty-four hours notice for a time I wasn't
(23) available.

(24) And some of the materials that they haven't
(25) identified I'm certain are related to communications

[Page 33]

(1) on how the court justified doing that to a litigant
(2) who is just trying to get one thing done that the
(3) attorney had agreed was very doable and that she
(4) would handle it for me, but she wanted to back out
(5) of it when she talked to the other attorney.

(6) So it's not possible to get into all of the (7) misconduct that's brought us here, but there's (8) enough before the Court here where it's clear the (9) Thirteenth Circuit is not playing fair here and
(10) they're continuing to exercise jurisdiction over
(11) this same case in the same bias and retaliatory and
(12) spiteful manner, and kids' lives are being impacted.

(13) And as judges and attorneys, we have a
(14) responsibility to do better than just average.
(15) We're not supposed to just go through the motions
(16) and try and, you know, protect the people that we (17) work with, make sure that there's nothing awkward at (18) conventions. That is not consistent with the (19) obligations of judges and attorneys, and I hope that
(20) people start to change here soon.

(21) Thank you for -- may I just look over my notes
(22) here one last time, Your Honor? Miss Schwieterman
(23) referenced some response to one of the petitions. I
(24) don't know which response she is referring to.
(25) Again, I don't know of any issue of material fact

(1) that she has raised. They're trying to rush it to a
(2) final hearing where they can hide from giving any
(3) answers ever, no discovery. There was the request
(4) for admissions, which I still don't understand the
(5) split there where those were ordered but everything
(6) else was excused.

(7) I think I mentioned this, but the proper cite
(8) for any procedures with purportedly surveillance
(9) video would be found in 2.420 and not Chapter 119.
(10) And then, of course, I've already covered the lack (11) of any affidavit or evidence to support the (12) assertion that the video qualifies for that
(13) exemption and then the waiver of those -- of the (14) exemption arguments based upon the failure in their (15) multiple responses, and then the other issue is the (16) unidentified records that I still require for
(17) basically the reasons that I've already outlined.

(18) Thank you, Your Honor.

(19) THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Hanson.

(20) Miss Schwieterman, follow-up question in light
(21) of those remarks. If the Court found good cause --
(22) well, rewind. If Mr. Hanson filed a motion
(23) asserting that he has shown good cause and then we
(24) have a hearing and if the Court ends up concluding
(25) that there is good cause, is there some separate

(1) exemption that your client is going to then assert
(2) to prevent release of the video?

(3) MS. SCHWIETERMAN: No, Your Honor.

(4) THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Hanson, courts are
(5) frequently cautioned that they are to remain
(6) umpires, not coaches; right?

(7) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I have zero respect for
(8) anything that you would say. I think that you are a
(9) despicable judge, and if you are going to allow them
(10) to delay this again without any evidence that this
(11) video qualifies for confidentiality, make me jump
(12) through more hoops, then it's so outrageous and
(13) corrupt that I don't have the energy to pretend it's (14) not, and that's what you all are doing. You and the (15) Attorney General's Office are pretending that this
(16) stuff isn't happening for convenience of other
(17) powerful people, and it's disgusting.

(18) And if you think I'm wrong, Judge, please
(19) respond. You've already told me that you thought I
(20) was wrong on the law or the facts at one point.
(21) You've never said where. And I would ask that you
(22) respond to every one of those allegations that I
(23) just made against this Court if there's any reason
(24) to dispute it, because I think that those are
(25) factual conclusions.

(1) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'm not on trial here.

(2) MR. HANSON: You should be, and hopefully you
(3) will be one day.

(4) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I have tried to do my
(5) best to --

(6) MR. HANSON: No. No, you haven't, Judge. Don't
(7) gaslight me. Do what you're going to do, but don't
(8) gaslight me. You haven't, and you know it. And you
(9) would do something. You would hold me in contempt
(10) or something if you didn't know that what I'm saying
(11) is true, so you are corrupt and a coward.

(12) THE COURT: We're a -- we're a far sight from (13) the beginning of this proceeding where you
(14) apologized to the Court for letting your frustration
(15) get the better of you, and now you --

(16) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, there is a ceiling for (17) that, and it's so absurd what you all are doing, and
(18) I see it. I see it in seven- and eight-year-old
(19) kids. I see it every day. I talk to them every (20) day. The fifty percent I don't have them I see
(21) them, and I know it's your fault. I know you're (22) contributing to it, because you have some power and
(23) you want to help your friends that have some power,
(24) and if you don't think that's disgusting, you
(25) shouldn't be on the bench. Like you're just there

(1) to manipulate facts and to handle cases and fix them
(2) for the powerful people. That's what it seems like
(3) from this court case.

(4) And you'll see my node map, Your Honor, and it's (5) pretty objective evidence of the outrageous
(6) misalignment of the Florida justice system, and, you
(7) know, I'll work the rest of my life until there's (8) consequences for that.

(9) So the reason why I lose my temper is because I
(10) see it every day on seven- and eight-year-old kids
(11) who are completely innocent, and I'm doing my best.
(12) I am sleeping maybe three hours a night trying to be
(13) a good dad and trying to protect their right to have (14) the truth and reality control their childhoods to (15) keep them out of being weaponized in a disgusting,
(16) corrupt procedure.

(17) And you're doing that to me, so I'm exhausted,
(18) and, yeah, you deserve much worse than what I am
(19) saying here. I am still trying to be respectable,
(20) but, yeah, it's -- I know what the next few weeks
(21) will be, because you're kicking the can down the
(22) road more, and it's just beyond reprehensible.

(23) THE COURT: Can I ask my question now,
(24) Mr. Hanson?

(25) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I don't know that I can

[Page 38]

(1) stop you. You can -- it's your courtroom.

(2) THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Hanson, is there a
(3) reason that you wouldn't file a motion to determine
(4) good cause upon which opposing counsel has indicated
(5) that they're not asserting any other exemptions and
(6) that, if the Court found good cause, they would
(7) release the video that you're asking for?

(8) MR. HANSON: I would try, Your Honor, but I have (9) a lot of things on my plate now, and I know that the (10) law doesn't require it, and you haven't been fair at (11) any step. So why would I waste more time on filing
(12) something where you're again just more than likely
(13) going to protect the powerful insiders? There is no
(14) basis to put this situation in that basket where (15) you're making the conclusion that it's confidential.

(16) There's a presumption that it's public records.
(17) They've asserted no evidence. They've pleaded some (18) stuff suggesting that it's security. That doesn't (19) put it in the box. That doesn't raise an issue of (20) material fact. A signed pleading doesn't do that.
(21) It needs to at least be an affidavit, and the fact
(22) that they're hiding from depositions and all other
(23) discovery make it even more clear that the (24) confidentiality box placing a burden on me to file
(25) something to prove it's not confidential completely

(1) upends the law and the actual procedure here.

(2) And given the amount of delays there have
(3) already been, you stepping in as a defense counsel
(4) for them at the first hearing you were involved in
(5) to delay things after Judge Frayman did that and
(6) muted me, I mean, this isn't the United States.
(7) This is like a third-world country court.

(8) Like it's unimaginable that -- what makes it so
(9) bad, Your Honor, is that you know what you're doing,
(10) and the other people accused of it, Miss
(11) Schwieterman and others, you know exactly what
(12) you're doing and you still do it. And even though
(13) the facts and the law are right in front of you, you
(14) still do it. So that makes me wonder, you know,
(15) what else is happening in the courts that we don't (16) know about.

(17) Yep, I would appreciate if the Court would (18) provide me with some explanation for how they're
(19) putting this factual scenario into the box where I
(20) have a burden to file something to prove that it's (21) not confidential. Are you saying that pleading a
(22) fact is sufficient?

(23) THE COURT: If you're done with arguments, I'll (24) make my order promptly as --

(25) MR. HANSON: I would like to understand what the

(1) basis is. I don't understand how we're getting it
(2) into the confidential box.

(3) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'll issue an order once
(4) the hearing is concluded and I have reflected upon
(5) the court receiving these arguments, and I'll
(6) examine it against the record, and I'll issue a
(7) ruling. And if you have an issue with the ruling,
(8) then you can take the next appropriate step. If you
(9) have any further arguments, you can make them at (10) this time; otherwise, I'll conclude our record for (11) today.

(12) MR. HANSON: I have arguments that I would like
(13) to make. There is still the unidentified records
(14) that the Court has not addressed with Miss
(15) Schwieterman. What basis is there to continue to (16) allow them to sneakily semantically admit that there
(17) is records that are -- and not be forced to identify (18) them, produce them, use a privilege log? All of the (19) privilege log rights have been waived long ago, but
(20) the Court is not addressing that.

(21) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'm listening to (22) arguments. Then I'll go back and reread the (23) motions. I'll reread the authority cited in the (24) motions, and as-needed I'll look at the other
(25) filings in the case, and then I'll make a ruling.

[Page 41]

(1) I'm here to listen to your arguments. I'm not here
(2) to answer your questions, to be a coach for you, for
(3) the other side, or to do anything other than try to
(4) get you to a prompt ruling.

(5) It seems like the primary issue that you have
(6) addressed repeatedly throughout the proceedings is
(7) an eagerness to get this video. It's --

(8) MR. HANSON: That's not accurate, Judge.

(9) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, stop interrupting me.
(10) You've interrupted me enough today.

(11) MR. HANSON: I would say that your abuse of my
(12) family --

(13) THE COURT: You've interrupted me enough today.

(14) MR. HANSON: Your abuse of my family is worse --

(15) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson --

(16) MR. HANSON: I'll interrupt you when I feel like
(17) it.

(18) THE COURT: Oh, please go ahead, Mr. Hanson.

(19) MR. HANSON: Yeah, I will.

(20) THE COURT: Go ahead. Go ahead. I'm all
(21) listening here now.

(22) MR. HANSON: I'm telling you that that's not the (23) primary concern. The primary concern is everything
(24) that this Court has been allowed to hide while it's (25) reigned retaliation and hell on my family. All of

(1) it is my priority.

(2) THE COURT: I don't have any further questions
(3) for counsel. That will close our --

(4) MR. HANSON: I have a few more comments. I have
(5) a few more comments. You still haven't addressed
(6) the discovery. Why on earth would we have a
(7) situation where neither of you can name a material
(8) issue of fact that's at issue but I'm not allowed to (9) have some discovery to depose the judges and the (10) court administrator and the records custodian? Is (11) the Court going to address that, Your Honor?

(12) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'm not here to answer
(13) your questions. I'm here to listen to your (14) arguments and to issue a ruling. Please make your (15) arguments. Let me know when you've concluded, and (16) then I'll tell the court reporter to close our
(17) record, and then I'll get to work making a ruling;
(18) okay? But I'm not here to be interrogated by you,
(19) Mr. Hanson.

(20) MR. HANSON: Someone needs to.

(21) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'm not here to endure
(22) insults and be called despicable, but I'm trying to
(23) do that, because I want to make sure that I hear all
(24) of your arguments. If you have any other arguments
(25) based on number 78 and number 86 that were set down

(1) for hearing today, let me hear those, and then when
(2) you're done making those arguments, let me get to
(3) work.

(4) MR. HANSON: Well, it's important to look at the
(5) past, the Court's first-party presentation principle
(6) violations that delayed things, and then at every
(7) step the past delays, that's an important
(8) consideration. And then everything that's addressed
(9) in those two motions, 78 and 86, the discovery, the (10) pattern that you see with the Thirteenth Circuit,
(11) which is we're just going to keep him -- we're just
(12) going to hold this stuff back and say what we need
(13) to and the Court is going to help us delay it,
(14) that's been the pattern, and there's been no basis
(15) for it.

(16) So if the Court is inclined to deny me the right
(17) to have discovery or to delay production of any of (18) the materials requested, I would request that the
(19) Court make specific findings of fact and citations
(20) to the law that support those conclusions, because (21) for a long time now in multiple cases the facts and
(22) the law have been clear. It's just they're not
(23) acceptable to the Court.

(24) And I would ask the Court to consider its duties
(25) and start to right the record here, because this

(1) is -- you know, my kids have been excelling so
(2) incredibly well. I know about judicial immunity,
(3) Judge, but this case is pretty egregious, and things
(4) are starting to change. They are having a real
(5) difficult time all of a sudden, and Florida courts
(6) and the corruption within it are responsible for
(7) that, and I hope that you're not okay with that, and
(8) I hope everyone in the Sixth Circuit isn't, but I
(9) will make sure that I do everything I can to get
(10) things back on track.

(11) So I would ask the Court to grant all of the (12) relief requested in both of the motions at issue.
(13) Thank you, Your Honor.

(14) THE COURT: All right. That will conclude our (15) hearing. The Court will issue a prompt ruling.
(16) Thank you all very much.

(17) MR. HANSON: Okay. I'd like to order the (18) transcript, please. You can just e-mail me if you
(19) want. Thank you.

(20) (Proceedings adjourned at 11:05 a.m. on (21) 8/17/26.)
