COURT PROCEEDING COMMENCED	3
WITNESS: SCOTT DAVIS	54
REPORTER'S CERTIFICATE	61

(WHEREUPON, the court proceeding commenced.)

THE COURT: All right. Madam Court Reporter, we are here on Hanson v. Hanson, 24-DR-1150. We are here for an order to show cause. Present in the courtroom we have Mrs. Hanson's counsel, Mr. Scott Davis, and we also have Mr. Hanson representing himself. And I will tell you that I did amend the order to show cause. I believe it was just to change the date. That is Docket 141, which is the amended order to show cause for why this Court should not limit communications between the parties, limit communications between the Court and the parties, and an order setting hearing. Mr. Davis filed a response by counsel. It was filed with respect to my original order to show cause. It is Docket 135. And Mr. Davis, you stand by that still being your response to the amended, correct, sir?

MR. DAVIS: I do, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And Mr. Hanson, his response to court order to show cause, which is Docket 137, and it's the same issue, Mr. Hanson. Yours was filed a little bit before, but we all agree it still goes to amended.

MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Perfect. I guess since it's my order to show cause I will actually begin. Ms. Priestley, can you still hear me?

THE COURT REPORTER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I just want to make sure I'm speaking loud enough. This Court set this order to show cause because of this numerous communications that my judicial assistant receives on almost a daily basis and there was some back and forth. I do believe that has subsided. I do know, Mr. Hanson, you reached out to her and sent her a long one recently, but since then things have gotten better and things had slowed down before whatever the last one you sent her. And she did concur, once we did the order to show cause, things did lighten up a little bit. I apologize. Do you have a motion, Mr. Davis, with respect to communication? I think you mentioned it at one time.

MR. DAVIS: I have a half prepared motion at the time the Court entered an order to show cause, but I would have asked for it, if I filed it, to limit in some way communications from Mr. Hanson to me or basically communications with the plaintiff. I felt that the order to show cause appropriately addressed that issue and essentially abandoned my preparation of the motion.

THE COURT: All right. Well, let me ask you this. Before we were able to have this hearing we kind of got into this posture of -- I guess from the last order that I sent that because we were just having trouble keeping track of everything that was being requested of us.

So Mr. Davis, you filed on 4/17 a compliance of paragraph 6 of Husband's Request For Clarification Order in which we stated that everyone needs to request it through a formal filing. So this was very helpful because it was just very simple and Dee Dee was actually able to go pull the motions and attach them. So they're all ready for me to review.

Mr. Hanson, I did ask her before we came in here and she said you have not filed any such request yet, but no hurry. I know you still have some things you want to have heard. So my suggestion was or we can go forward with the hearing, since this worked well for me, I was thinking maybe we could always just do husband's request for, wife's request for, just a simple, one page what you want to have heard and the docket number so we can reference it. And that would be the easiest way for Dee Dee to print them. In fact, Mr. Hanson, this right here are all the motions that we think you need to have heard and we're just waiting for you to give us the list and then I'll have Dee Dee attach them to your list and provide them to me just as I have Mr. Davis' so that I can hear them all. I just didn't want to print them twice while holding them for you. Would you have any objections to -- I don't want you to do a motion because I have to rule on it. Each time you want to have something set or a request of the Court, you can file a quick request and provide Dee Dee with a copy.

MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Would that work for you, Mr. Hanson, or would you prefer to have free reign?

MR. HANSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I don't know that I understand exactly what you're asking and I did file something. I forgot to send a courtesy copy. Do you want me to do that now?

THE COURT: Let me look real quick.

MR. DAVIS: I believe it was yesterday.

THE COURT: I tried to look before I came.

MR. HANSON: I think it's on the docket now.

THE COURT: Yes, it is, and I think I looked last night. So I apologize.

MR. HANSON: Do you want one?

THE COURT: No. I got it now. Let me just make sure. Okay. So paragraph 7 is where you give me each motion and the docket number.

MR. HANSON: I believe so.

THE COURT: And that's another request on the top.

MR. HANSON: The top reference is motions that were noticed for April 3rd.

THE COURT: April 4th. Yeah. It was 4/4 that we were here.

MR. HANSON: I'm sorry.

THE COURT: It was 4/4. It was easier to remember. I will print this for you. I see it's 22 pages.

MR. HANSON: It's an attachment, Your Honor, I believe --

THE COURT: Communications between you and Dee Dee?

MR. HANSON: I don't remember exactly. I'm sorry.

THE COURT: Yeah. It looks like it's between you and Dee Dee.

MR. HANSON: Yes. I requested some hearings, but I didn't do it in the exact format that you had requested before the order. So I just included that email. I referenced it in the motion, I believe.

THE COURT: Okay. So what you did in paragraph 7 is perfect what I need just because it's easy. Like I said, hopefully, I'm going to print this. She's got them already printed because she kind of knew what you wanted. Just to let you know too, I even attempted to retrace the docket to see if I could figure it out. It's too voluminous for me to do that. It's just much easier because each of you have your hands wrapped around exactly what you need for me.

This is perfect. I'll have Dee Dee attach the motions. Each time I get a request from you guys each week, I'll look at what's been requested of me and give you hearing time. I just go over the list Mr. Hanson and I see -- I think you said you're asking me for all day; is that right?

MR. HANSON: Yeah. I don't know that I did a specific time request looking back on it. I don't think that I did.

THE COURT: No. It says one day. You were just trying to tell me. Just to let you know the reason I'm going to have to do it is because the time on my docket is so tight. I'm going to have to piecemeal it because when we did that four-hour hearing with the eight motions, we didn't get very far. I want to make sure that we hone in. Like if we're doing discovery motions, we do them all together and I set the appropriate amount of time because we should have gotten through all of those eight motions, but we didn't. So I'm just going to have to somehow hone in so we can get through this as easily as we can.

With that being said, we can continue to have this hearing on the order to show, but if everyone -- it sounds like if you stipulate, Mr. Hanson, that you sending me this request works well for you, you said it worked well for you?

MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: That will work well for Dee Dee. We can go forward that way.

MR. HANSON: I would still like to have the hearings in terms of communications with Mr. Davis.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. So as far as communications with the Court, we're all in agreement that we'll file a request, send a copy to Dee Dee, Dee Dee will print the motions for you after you give us the docket numbers, and she will put it in my Hanson To Be Set folder that I have right here and I will do -- unless I'm on vacation, which I have none planned, I will review your requests on at least a weekly basis and have her send updates. Okay. All right. And I would like to limit that you have one request -- no more than one request a day. Doesn't mean you can't put as many as you want on there, but just one email a day to Dee Dee, please. You won't believe how many emails she gets.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, do you want me to file an updated filing with a time request? I don't think I did a time request.

THE COURT: Oh, I can figure out the time.

MR. HANSON: Okay.

THE COURT: What I'm going to do is go through and group them together by subject matter and once I do, I will say this is how much time I think and when Dee Dee sends that back to you, you are free to say why you think you need more time. I will just tell you getting a half a day on my calendar is like very hard. Like I have a waiting list for half day trials and I have a waiting list for full day trials. That's why we're going to have to break this up. Me giving you four hours and we weren't dispositive of all the motions, I'm going to have to work a little bit harder to make sure we manage our time and we're able to get done what we need to get done.

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 10

As far as the order to show cause with respect to Dee Dee, you will be able to file one request for hearings per day and send it to Dee Dee. She will print. You don't have to attach your motions unless they're not on the docket and you feel like you need to. She will print the motions, put them in my file folder, and I will get back with you hopefully on a weekly basis.

Now, Mr. Davis, what are you requesting with respect to communications between your office and Mr. Hanson?

MR. DAVIS: I'd also like that to be limited. It started out with demands that I explain things and that's just not how the system works. Mr. Hanson got pretty heated in some of the communications and making accusations. I don't want to go through them unless the Court wants to because I don't think it serves a legitimate purpose, but I don't think there's much -- opposing attorneys and I don't ask to communicate terribly often unless trial is set or something.

THE COURT: Settle something, is that what you said?

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 11

MR. DAVIS: Unless we're trying to settle an issue or trial or something, we don't communicate to schedule things. We communicate if there's something urgent relating to a minor child. We communicate about potential stipulations if we're going to a trial or hearing that's relating to exhibits, et cetera. It's not that we have a lot of day-to-day communications with opposing attorneys unless it's called for.

THE COURT: All right. So what's your suggestion on your limitations? What do you propose and how?

MR. DAVIS: Well, definitely has got to be by email. I will not speak to Mr. Hanson on the telephone because I am concerned about false allegations being made about what is said. So it has to be in writing.

THE COURT: How often do you hear from Mr. Hanson.

MR. DAVIS: A lot less than I used to.

THE COURT: That came from my office and everybody seemed to have calm down a little bit.

MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: So you're leaving it to my discretion. Mr. Hanson, what are you proposing for communications between you and Mr. Davis?

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 12

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, he hasn't filed an single example of an unreasonable email that I sent. He makes these conclusions like I'm being unreasonable with demands and that I'm demanding he explain things. I'm making false allegations. From Day 1 I tried to talk to Mr. Davis to get us on the same page because it's a simple issue. The only issue is discovery and obstruction to discovery. Those are the only two issues in the case. And if you look closely at the timeline and how things occurred, it's impossible to be anything else. And without examples of what I'm doing that is unreasonable, I don't understand how the Court could limit anything. He's not offering any evidence. It's just conclusions. If you look at the correspondence, it tells a very clear story. The first communication I had with Mr. Davis was November 25th.

THE COURT: November 25th, 2024.

MR. HANSON: Yes. Docket No. 70. If you'd like to look at it.

THE COURT: 7-0.

MR. HANSON: Yes. It's a long email. I won't deny that it is a long email because these are important issues to me that I'm trying to get behind me, Your Honor. I'm trying to do that in good faith in every way I can. There's only one way through this and that's getting past all this obstruction, getting some answers, and again, I just want to resolve it and get it behind it. But I've prayed on whether I could live without an answer to this for a long time a year ago and I cannot. I can't coparent with Sarah without an answer to this.

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 13

THE COURT: Answer to what question?

MR. HANSON: The discovery. The mandatory disclosures.

THE COURT: The Chase subpoenas.

MR. HANSON: The Chase subpoenas, Request to Produce that are outstanding for information. It's 11 months to day since I filed something on May 22nd that clearly laid out my objective to efficiently get through this. Get the discovery. It's been ugly. I'm not trying to make any of the ugly allegations or prolong this. I'm suffering through that as attempts to obstruct my right to this discovery.

If you look at the timeline, Your Honor, it's very clear that, you know, he filed four motions the day that my attorney is withdrawing over my objection, where during the hearing I explained that I've been up all night trying to get an objection out to Ms. Hodz withdrawing. He hadn't filed a motion in the entire seven months he'd been on the case, but suddenly I'm losing my attorney and he files four motions. And I'm sorry, Your Honor. I'm getting beyond the email correspondence here that I know that we're here on.

If you just look at the first paragraph of what I sent to him on November 25th, the third line down towards the second half, it says, "I'm sending this in the spirit of the cooperation and hope that you will review and consider it carefully with Ms. Hanson." First paragraph of the section under "Current status and objectives", "I'm hoping this email provides an opportunity to reset and work cooperatively towards a resolution."

So if you read the whole email, it explains the timeline and some of my concerns with the discovery. For example, the four months late on the stipulation he reached on a singular issue in the matter from my May filing and from communications with Ms. Hanson before we got attorneys. Everybody knew that discovery was the only issue. My wanting discovery into her financial information that she didn't provide me. And since Day 1 that's been the objective.

It's my position that Mr. Davis's entire strategy in this case is a direct violation of Rule 4-3.4 of professional conduct that prohibits a lawyer from unlawfully obstructing other party's access to evidence by unlawfully altering, destroying, or concealing a document or other material having potential evidentiary value.

Part D of that same rule says in pretrial procedure making frivolous discovery requests or failure to make reasonably diligent effort to comply with a legally proper discovery request by an opposing party. So there's very serious things going on here, Your Honor. There's concealment of evidence. You know, I don't understand how I don't have access to at least what Mrs. Hanson had access to when I provided disclosures at the time of the postmarital agreement. She did not.

I'm willing to rip up the postnuptial agreement, even though it looks like, if they're being honest, Mrs. Hanson would end up with more money. That doesn't make any logical sense, but I don't really know what I'm supposed to think here and these emails, they are professional, cordial attempts to get an understanding of what's happening.

Is there an explanation for four-month delay in the single issue that's keeping me up at night? No explanation. The Court's never asked him for an explanation. I've asked for it in numerous pleadings and numerous hearings. He's gotten away with not even providing an explanation for being four months late on a stipulated discovery obligation on the singular issue in the case. And then there's a whole long pattern of trickling out information and put things off and he hasn't had to answer for any of that. And I'm suffering because of it, Your Honor, and it's been 11 months.

I'm in it as long as it takes, but I didn't ask for any of this. I didn't ask to give you a hard time, Judge. I didn't ask to give Sarah a hard time. Everything I filed has been trying to get us through this for my kids and they're using my children as pawns. That's very, very clear if you look at the evidence in this case. So all things considered, I've been incredibly cordial and professional with Mr. Davis. I would urge you to look at all the email correspondence and consider the fact he hasn't filed one email I've sent. He's got all this evidence that I'm so horrible with emails with demands and dishonesty and all that, file something. He doesn't have evidence. He wants you to go along with what he's said even though it's completely inconsistent with everything in the case.

Your Honor, I'm going to try my best to get us through this. I won't change my mind about getting answers to this discovery, but I just hope that the Court will -- now, that there's a motion to void the postmarital agreement -- I think -- I just know there's no way through this other than the discovery.

THE COURT: But isn't right now -- just make sure I'm correct. The discovery -- they wouldn't give you the discovery because they believed you weren't legally entitled to it. And then it came in front of me and I concurred with it just based on the two agreements. And that's when you came in front of me a few times and I think I did "wink wink", you got to do something before I consider it and then you finally said oh, okay. I will try to set aside the postnuptial because that does change the trajectory of the discovery.

Right now they're not giving you the discovery because there's a current court order in place that they don't have to until we hear your motion to set aside. Am I correct on that?

MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Are they violating any of my orders right now with respect to discovery? I think I ruled on that. You have these agreements. That's the only way I can limit it. When you have a prejudgment and a post-judgment agreement, the whole reason you do is that is to limit discovery. Now that you've asked to throw one of those out because you think that was entered into with you not knowing everything, correct?

MR. HANSON: I know it was. I know it was.

THE COURT: Okay. That's something I now need to rule on and once I rule on that, it will be whether you're entitled to discovery.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, how could you even consider that motion without allowing me the opportunity to have some discovery?

THE COURT: Absolutely.

MR. HANSON: It was supposed to be addressed on April 3rd.

THE COURT: April 4th.

MR. HANSON: It's really in my head, the 3rd.

THE COURT: I just want it to be on my record right.

MR. HANSON: I've had the 3rd in my mind. I'll try to get it right. I apologize, Judge. I forgot.

THE COURT: So you were saying that we were supposed to address it on April 4th, but we didn't get to it.

MR. HANSON: At the end of the hearing we started to address it. I know that is going to resolve the other issues. That will ease the tension. That's really I think the end then. All I want to do is resolve issues. I don't think Mrs. Hanson really wants to change the custody. The kids are doing incredible. I'm a very good father. There's never been a complaint about anything associated with the kids and me. They have to suffer through these motions and allegations about my psychological conditions and then they make no effort to get the records. I offered to sign releases to assist them in getting all of my medical records. They're placing that at issue, but like everything else they're burying their hands in the sand to the truth and hoping that the Court will too.

THE COURT: You understand right now there's an order that says they don't have to give you discovery? We do need to have a hearing on that on whether you're entitled to discovery and I concur with you that it does -- there will be some discovery you will be entitled to, I would imagine, without prejudging the case, in order for you to determine if the post judgment should be set aside. That's what you're asking and I imagine you would be correct on that.

MR. HANSON: When you say post judgment --

THE COURT: The agreement.

MR. HANSON: The postmarital agreement, which I had no counsel involved, and there's no disclosure.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. HANSON: Under the case law, I believe that's -- when there's not disclosure, a party is entitled to investigate into what the assets were based upon my reading of the case law. The Fullerton case is one. Fullerton case is one, a recent one, where there was specific language in the postmarital agreement that limited discovery. We don't have anything like that in our case. There's nothing limiting discovery in the postmarital agreement. There's nothing suggesting there's any disclosures. In the Fullerton case, there's something in the postmarital agreement that says no discovery. The Judge still let them have discovery. That was the issue on appeal and the Court said wait, if there's no -- if there's something in the postmarital agreement that says no discovery, that prevails until -- I can't recall what type of hearing it was. There was still possible the person was going to get it. It's just the language prohibited it.

In my case when there's nothing that prohibits discovery and there's clear nondisclosure, it's clear evidence to support, logically it doesn't make sense that she's not hiding anything. She's turning down money and fighting for more litigation. I offered her to tear up the postmarital agreement in exchange for waiving discovery. So there's every reason to give me discovery. I've asked for it several times. I don't know the latest time, whether there's an order denying it or not. There's definitely not one after the motion to void the postmarital agreement.

THE COURT: It still has to be set a hearing.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, how can you have a meaningful hearing on that motion to set aside that postmarital agreement if you don't allow me to have discovery before that hearing.

THE COURT: I concur with you, but we need to have a hearing. Right now there's an order that says you can't. An order that says you can't have the discovery. Now that you have filed a motion to set aside the post judgment, you would have to file another motion now saying now that I filed the motion to set aside the post judgment, am I entitled to this discovery so that I can prove to you that this agreement was entered into in bad faith, on fraud, without proper disclosure. That motion has already been disposed of.

Now that you filed a motion asking me to set it aside, we have to have an evidentiary hearing because they have a right to be heard to tell me why I shouldn't allow you to delve into it. And you're going to says, "I need to delve into it, Judge, because that's the only way I can prove to you that this post judgment needs to be set aside."

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it's a new subpoena that was issued after your order denying my right to it.

THE COURT: Did you do an objection?

MR. DAVIS: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. You can set that.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, after 11 months? Do you have the authority to just say hey, you know what. Let's just move this along for this family. He's filed the motion to void the postnuptial agreement. He's been asking this since Day 1 back in May of 2024. Let's see if maybe doing the one thing I've ever asked the Court to do, other than defending against all the law fare to push you away from all this. Do you have the authority, Your Honor, to say hey --

THE COURT: If I say right now I'm going to have a hearing on that objection to subpoena and I'm going to rule against Mrs. Hanson and I'm going to allow the subpoena to be issued, Mr. Davis is going to file an appeal and say it wasn't noticed for hearing today and he didn't have due process and the appellate court is going to reverse me. It has to be set and you have to have notice.

MR. HANSON: I literally asked for an emergency hearing on this subject. He filed something -- I'll show you in the docket where it is. He filed something after the motion -- after I filed the subpoena asking the Court to file or to set. I don't know if it was an emergency or expeditious hearing on it.

THE COURT: Let me pause for a second because 11 months sounds like a long time. I can pretty much guarantee, without looking at the docket -- I'm sorry. At the motion to void the post judgment was not filed 11 months ago.

MR. HANSON: No. Getting the financial records.

MR. DAVIS: Not even four.

THE COURT: But after you filed the motion to set aside the post judgment, you reissued the Chase subpoenas.

MR. HANSON: Yes.

THE COURT: And then he filed an objection. That's just been a couple of months. You can set those objections. And correct me if I'm wrong, I believe on April 4th the objection to the Chase subpoenas was not something that was noticed for April 4th.

MR. HANSON: The reason that you set a case management conference on April 4th was to address whether the subpoena would go out.

THE COURT: No. When he files an objection, you have to set a hearing on his objection.

MR. HANSON: I understand, Your Honor, but the email correspondence explains the purpose of doing it at the case management conference was to address

THE COURT: That's the whole issue I have the issue with the emails. I don't read them. I'm not allowed to read all of that email stuff. Dee Dee is not even supposed to read it. I do recall her saying Mr. Hanson would like to have a case management off the top of my head. My recollection is you wanted to address setting other hearings. You can't set a CMC to have a motion heard without the motion being properly noticed because the other side has a right to due process to prepare a defense to that.

So a hearing on -- with that being said, if you want to do it ore tenusly and Mr. Davis doesn't object, I can add to what you filed yesterday in paragraph 7, would you like me to add to this list that you would also like me to hear the objections to the subpoena, the subpoenas that were supposed to be issued to Chase? Would you like me to add that to your list?

MR. HANSON: It's already on there, Your Honor. It's really, really concerning to me the way the Court is going.

THE COURT: Hold on. We can't cross over each other. So you knew and asked me for that request that that needed to be done. Otherwise, you wouldn't have requested it of me.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I feel like no matter what I do or have done, the Court goes with Mr. Davis even though there is a complete lack of evidence for anything he has stated and an abundance of evidence that all it is is law fare and attempts to avoid stuff. If someone is allowed to practice like this, in this day and age for months, without consequences, is horrifying to me. I can't imagine how many families have suffered because of Courts allowing people to act like Mr. Davis has acted in this case.

I think maybe my new calling for my career is to help people that are in my position because I couldn't get a lawyer to help me. I couldn't get a Court to help me on why the lawyers went from no problem, we'll get this to this is impossible after conferences with Mr. Davis. Two occasions, two separate cases. I have no answers to why that happened. I essentially can't get attorneys because I think the same thing will probably happen. So if the Court wants to put it off further --

THE COURT: Sir, I don't want to, but I know we all remember one of my least favorite classes was rules of civil procedure and there's rules of civil procedure. I have to follow them and if I don't, I'm going to be appealed and reversed. And I sit here right now with one appeal in five years in which I made new case law. It's very important to me to not drag anybody through that. And the other thing they just added, which is so amazing are these motions for rehearing. Now, if I do make a mistake, you guys can bring it to my attention. I can rectify before we file with appellate court. So there's rules of civil procedure.

So if you do a notice of sending out a subpoena and they object, you must set an objection hearing. My hands are tied.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Hold on. Hold on. It's not that I don't want to help your family. Do you think I want to drag this out and keep coming into court every week with the same case?

MR. HANSON: I do.

THE COURT: You think that's what I want to do?

MR. HANSON: I do.

THE COURT: Well, I don't.

MR. HANSON: I think you want to do anything Mr. Davis wants you to do, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Why do you think I have favor with Mr. Davis?

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, there's a very long list of things at Docket -- the order denying --it was Docket No. 145.

THE COURT: Because Mr. Hanson, as I sit here today, I believe the only substantive ruling that I've made is you can't get your discovery because we've got the two agreements. I don't think I've made any -- I'm getting ready to make a huge ruling from 4/4, but I don't think I've made any rulings since. And I can't tell you how many times I hinted to you, you need to file something, you need to file somebody, and once you did, now you set up the posture for getting another bite at apple on your discovery.

Now all we have to do is set the objection to decide. It's because you moved to set aside one of the agreements, are you entitled to that discovery so you can approve -- approve. So you can prove your allegations of fraud from Mrs. Hanson. So we have to do this in a procedural way, sir.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, is there any case law that suggests that motion to void is appropriate or necessary in order to get discovery?

THE COURT: So if you -- when you have an agreement in place that's both a prenup and a postnup, we're done. I ratify those and we're done.

MR. HANSON: There's no disclosure.

THE COURT: No.

MR. HANSON: Is the disclosure required before postmarital agreement?

THE COURT: That's a legal question. I can't answer.

MR. HANSON: It is required and there was no disclosure.

THE COURT: That's what you're going to argue.

MR. HANSON: I didn't need to file the motion to void. Once there was the argument there wasn't disclosure and there's reason to believe it's going to lead to evidence or relevant evidence.

THE COURT: Let me ask a question. How are you to put Mrs. Hanson on notice that you need this discovery because you're going to challenge the postnuptial agreement if you don't file a motion? You just can't come in and say I believe now, because there wasn't any discovery, this isn't binding. So I want you to order discovery. You have to file a motion. They have a right to due process and to be put on notice. You just can't come in. And it's called a fishing expedition. You're not permitted to do that. They have a right to know what they're defending. Now that you teed it up correctly, it's teed up correctly. I agree with you. We need to come in and discuss if discovery is going to happen. I think the thing that is going to be most concerning to you is go ahead and get the objections to the subpoena set.

Because I have to tell you, I wrote this down and I've written it down in all my other hearings. Every time you come here and you say -- I just wrote it down. "The most important thing in this case is the discovery. I can't coparent until I receive the discovery."

I spent four hours with you on April 4th trying to do what's best for your kids and I asked you so many times and Mr. Davis objected so many times. We're here on the best interest with respect to your children. That's all I'm hearing today and you spent your entire time, sir, talking about the Chase subpoenas. That's not what's most important to me right now. What's most important to me is your kids are safe, sound, and doing well.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, perhaps we can ask the Court or Mr. Davis why he didn't follow the Court's instructions about a summary of the testimony from Ms. Hanson. Why hasn't he reduced any arguments to writing?

THE COURT: He didn't. So I'm doing it myself.

MR. HANSON: Right. But if the Court asked me to do something and I didn't do it, I don't expect the result to be don't worry about it. That's an example of how you favor Mr. Davis. I'll give you another one if you want to hear that.

MR. DAVIS: Mr. Davis, did you send me your arguments?

MR. HANSON: It's a summary of her testimony.

THE COURT: Sure. Absolutely.

MR. HANSON: And summary of the argument because I have no idea what the argument is. All they do is say they want this and then have Ms. Hanson testify about some vague, minor marital stuff. I don't know what the argument is. So what. We had a bad ending to our marriage and that's the basis for the motion. I don't understand.

THE COURT: I asked Mr. Davis to summarize it so I could get it done faster based on how heavy my docket is. But when he didn't do it, I actually said to Dee Dee, don't give him a reminder. It will probably be best especially since you believe I favor Mr. Davis that I don't take his argument and I do it from my position. Because if Mr. Davis gives it to me, I can promise you it's going to be a lot harsher on you than what I'm going to do because he's sitting there litigating for his client.

When I asked Dee Dee to ask him for a summary of his argument to get you an order as quickly as possible and he didn't comply, I said Dee Dee, don't worry about it. I'll draft the order from scratch. I'll tell you what my other issue is. I have the most fabulous staff attorney who just came to my office today and I just gave her flowers and told her good-bye. She's moving to Harris, Hunt & Derr. So I just lost my staff attorney at the same time all this was going on and she's been helping me with your case.

So I'm tasked with sitting at the computer myself typing every single word to do the ruling from the hearing on 4/4. I'm spending my weekends too, which I don't mind. If you want Mr. Davis to sent that to me, I'll be happy to incorporate it, but I'm almost done with the order and I don't need anything from either of you.

MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, I would like the answers to some of these questions. Why didn't he do the summaries? Can you ask him that?

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 33

THE COURT: You can't ask him.

MR. HANSON: Why wouldn't the Court be curious that he didn't comply with the Court request?

THE COURT: I can't be concerned with that every single day. People don't return my phone calls. It's shocking to me.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

THE COURT: I don't get a call back on the phone.

MR. HANSON: Can we ask him about the trickle of documents?

THE COURT: You can't ask him anything.

MR. HANSON: If the Court were interested in helping my family, it would be interested in his conduct and the Court intentionally closes its eyes to his conduct.

THE COURT: You can't ask a lawyer a question.

MR. HANSON: I said the Court intentionally closes its eyes with respect to his conduct.

THE COURT: Have you filed a motion with respect to his conduct? I believe you have.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, my goal is not to go after Mr. Davis even. It's to get a fair result and an efficient result for my kids to get them out of this. I'm shocked by the way the Court handled it. I can't get over it.

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 34

THE COURT: I'm not the Florida Bar. I don't discipline lawyers.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I would think as the opposing party, you would have some respect for me to say hey, why are you doing this to him? Why did you wait four months after the stipulated documents? With the amount of different things that happened and then, when I'm talking about it during a hearing and then you say that he's a teddy bear instead of addressing his conduct. You say generally things that are completely inconsistent with the facts of this case and you ignore the facts of this case.

THE COURT: I can't ask him any questions. If you have an issue --

MR. HANSON: You can't ask the lawyer questions about his conduct?

THE COURT: No. He has not done -- the only thing that both of you have acted inappropriately were those emails about going to the baseball field with bats and balls and I called you both in and gave you both a lecture. I don't that I've ever done to be honest with you. I gave both of you a lecture. I was upset that you were the writing the emails and that you were allowing him to get under your skin and you were going back and forth with him. I thought all that was inappropriate. That's conduct that I saw. Mr. Hanson, do not talk. That's conduct I saw and I called you both out on it. All the other conduct that he's done that's horrible is your allegations and your vision. I haven't seen him doing any of it.

If you want to file a motion and ask me to look at his conduct and I see that he's been used misconduct, I'm going to call the Florida Bar and report him because that's what the Florida Bar does. I don't do that. If he comes to my courtroom and lies to me, heck, yeah. I'm going to do an order to show cause on why he came and lied to me. He hasn't done anything to me or in these proceedings that give me any indication that he's doing anything wrong. Neither have you.

MR. HANSON: So he can do anything he wants to me.

MR. DAVIS: Mr. Hanson has filed a grievance and the Florida Bar declined to take any action.

MR. HANSON: I'm appealing it to the ACAP, I believe. I'm in the process of drafting that and I need additional documentation. And I'll continue with this process.

THE COURT: If he acts unkind to you, that's not what that process does.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, you're the judge and I'm an unrepresented party.

THE COURT: -- the client --

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I filed a motion alleging all of these discovery violations and your reaction is I don't really care. I really can't believe --

THE COURT: You have to set it for a hearing.

MR. HANSON: It's been set for hearing, Your Honor. It's been a set for hearing before. It's been before the Court, but the Court just won't ask Mr. Davis about the conduct. It's shocking.

THE COURT: What you're asking me to do, what you're upset about is you still want to know why your two lawyers quit on you, for lack of a better word, after they had a conversation with Mr. Davis. I am not permitted to ask Mr. Davis what he said to Mrs. Hodz and what he said to Ms. Samarkos. Is that who he had?

MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

MR. HANSON: Why can't you, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Because it's none of my business.

MR. HANSON: The Court --

THE COURT: What two lawyers talked about is none of my business.

MR. HANSON: Even if it affects an unrepresented litigant.

THE COURT: No. You were represented.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, she already refused to do any work on the file. She didn't tell me that I had a major pleading that was due, I believe, the day she withdrew. The Court didn't tell me either.

THE COURT: What's shocking to me is I have so many lawyers in front of me on a daily basis and if you would tell me to list the three -- I want to use an appropriate word right now. Three women lawyers who come in and take names and no mercy, Vivian Hodz would be at the top of that list. So didn't call him necessarily a teddy bear. I just don't see Vivian Hodz backing down to anyone. Okay.

MR. HANSON: I asked her.

THE COURT: So what I'm saying --

MR. HANSON: When I asked her --

THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, we can't talk over each other. So the fact that you're telling me that Mr. Davis called Vivian Hodz, come in and take names, take no prisoners, and intimidated her into quitting, I would find shocking and I can't ask it. It's none of my business.

MR. HANSON: Even when I'm objecting to her withdraw?

THE COURT: You can't object to her withdraw. The only way you can object to her withdraw is if you -- let me give you an example.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor.

THE COURT: No, sir. I'm talking. I just had a hearing, an emergency hearing, at 2:00. They were set for trial on Thursday. The lawyer moved to withdraw. First time ever I wouldn't let him withdraw because if he withdraws I have to continue the hearing that's already been continued three times. So I'm making this lawyer litigate a case on Thursday and he wanted to withdraw because he hadn't been paid and I said no. First time I ever said no. That's the only time the rule allows me to say no because they're set for Thursday. I continued it three times and he hasn't been paid. Other than that, I have to let them withdraw. If you recall, Mr. Hanson, when you came in, you said all these horrible things about Ms. Hodz, why you didn't like her.

MR. HANSON: I didn't say I didn't like

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 39

Ms. Hodz. I told you what happened. That she quit on me because of a conversation with Mr. Davis. She said you're going to need to hire the most aggressive male attorney in town if you want to get these records. She didn't have any explanation for why she said it would be straightforward to get them. She put that in writing for me and filed with the Court. Then it suddenly changed to I can't help you. She didn't provide and explanation for that. It was just the conversation with Mr. Davis that went from no problem, I can help you, confirmed in writing, where she was already aware of what was going in the case. Hey, are you sure you're up for this, Ms. Hodz? This is going to be contentious and she said I'll get you taken of. And that was always the attitude up until the conversation and after the conversation, it was I can't help you. So I want to ask the question --

THE COURT: Let's supposed you're 100 percent right. Let's say Mr. Davis called up and was a complete you know what. Threatened her, said you don't want to do this, and she's like you know what. I don't want to deal with Mr. Davis. He's a jerk and it's not worth the money. And she said I don't want to be your lawyer. There's nothing against the law on that. He can go be a total jerk to whoever he wants and get them not to be your lawyer and there's nothing I can do it about it. I don't think there's anything the Florida Bar can do about it.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I know that we're running out of time here. Will the Court ask Mr. Davis why he failed to comply with the Court's request to provide a summary?

THE COURT: No.

MR. HANSON: Will the Court ask Mr. Davis why he was four months' late in providing discovery?

THE COURT: I don't know what you're talking about.

MR. HANSON: He agreed to produce discovery by July 28th and despite follow-ups from my attorney at the time, it being the singular issue in the case, four months, nothing and slow trickle started three days before the hearing.

MR. DAVIS: May I address the Court on this.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. DAVIS: No. 1, this is already been adjudicated. Mr. Hanson, for some reason that I don't understand, and perhaps won't, we were late on our discovery for honestly multiple reasons. We provided a significant amount of discovery a couple days prior to the hearing. I asked the Court to give us additional time, not award fees. The Court disagreed. The Court said nope. I'm going to grant the motion and found that he's entitled to fees. After that we sent our notice of compliance, which was the rest of the discovery. What he argued was Ms. Hodz asked for some retirement records outside the scope of mandatory disclosure. My paralegal communicated with my client. My client said sure and they were sent over outside of the scope.

So you have, prior to the hearing, one batch, after the hearing, the compliance batch, that wasn't prior to the hearing, and then the request for extra that's outside the scope and we said sure. Take it. Your Honor, that's what he calls the trickle and it's hardly a trickle and it's hardly a strategy.

MR. HANSON: It is.

MR. DAVIS: What could I hope to gain, when no hearings were set, by slowing a roll on discovery. It just didn't even make sense. I've never seen a hearing -- I don't think so, in 27 years, where somebody's stalling on discovery has been beneficial to the party who's stalling. All that does is make judges mad. So it wasn't a trickle and he got what he asked for. He even got things he was asked for above and beyond the complaint because Ms. Hodz asked nicely and we said sure.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, that's blatantly untrue and from the first email I sent, you'll see that. There's actually a paragraph entitled -- hold on for a second. It looks like it's page 3. The title of the paragraph is "Eventual and apparent strategic trickle of long overdue discovery documents."

MR. DAVIS: That's what he wants to characterize. Just like Ms. Hanson's testimony. He takes his reality and it's the only way he can see things. It's unfortunately part of the reason we asked the Court to do an order on psychological evaluation, but that's just not what happened.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, some of what he just said that is just the truth doesn't exist. To me, truth exists and that's what I'm trying to get to here where I go into very specific detail where the second batch of records including Ascensus records October 1st, 2023 forward. That doesn't comply with mandatory disclosures. They have to get back to at least April of 2023 and Ascensus was an account I didn't know about. To me, that looks very curious and suspicious with all of the other documents they provided, they provided it back to April of 2023 in compliance. For the Ascensus records, he was very specific that the first set of records that I got just before the hearing only went back to June 1st of 2024. The second set of Ascensus records also, that I got after the hearing, went back from October 1st to 2023.

In my email here on page 3, I guess the third paragraph down on the second line, there it says, "I have real concerns about using a delay you created to avoid producing the required documents going back to April of 2023." It makes it obvious and simple the information is there, but that's the issue. It wasn't outside of mandatory disclosures. It was a clear attempt to say -- to delay things. Make me thinks that stuff from April 1st of 2023 to end of September 2023 would be what I'm looking for. Ultimately, there was nothing there, but still the shenanigans with hiding things. Why not? Discovery is supposed to be broad in family law cases. Is that right, Your Honor?

THE COURT: It is, but not when you have a post and prenuptial agreement.

MR. HANSON: If there's no disclosure -- but

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 44

you're treating it as though there were disclosures.

THE COURT: No, I'm not. I don't know.

MR. HANSON: Where is the evidence that says you need anything more than a lack of disclosure for discovery to go forward?

THE COURT: I just need to set a proper hearing and have you both present your case.

MR. HANSON: That's been a fact for a long time. That I've presented.

THE COURT: We haven't had a hearing on it.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, will the Court ask Mr. Davis about -- you can go through the email. The email lists things like hey, this is what happened? Can you provide some explanation or just another part of the pattern of unethical behavior to conceal documents? And it would be very simple if this stuff isn't all true to say hey, Judge, he's saying things that aren't true here. He hasn't said that. He knows they're true. His response in the order to show cause, I believe it's paragraph 6 especially says, don't let her tell me the truth anymore. Let her hide from the truth, Judge. The second order said he can't tell me the truth and or ask for my impression of it.

THE COURT: It is paragraph 6 says he would like that you no longer make allegations against him and demand response or explanation or legal advice.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, please look at the correspondence.

THE COURT: I'm going to make my ruling right now. I already made my ruling on how we're going to keep the communications between the three of us, which is going to be great. And right now as far as the communications between the two of you, I'm going to limit the communications that they're going to be via email in writing and I'm going to reserve on whether I limit anything further and that will give either of you the ability to file a motion at a later juncture if things get out of hand.

MR. HANSON: Can he provide --

THE COURT: One at a time for the court reporter. Right now I'm going to limit that your communications are in writing via email, which no one has to return a phone call, and if there's any further limitation, I'm going to reserve on that and either of you are free to file a motion at a later date if it becomes a problem.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, just so I'm clear --

THE COURT: Do you realize you just won this hearing?

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 46

MR. HANSON: I just don't understand any email I sent that's inappropriate.

THE COURT: I didn't limit them.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it's a situation where it allows Mr. Davis to continue hiding.

THE COURT: I'm ruling in your favor.

MR. HANSON: I understand, Your Honor, but --

THE COURT: I'm not limiting them.

MR. HANSON: I won't say anything more, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. So I'm not limiting them. I'm going to go back to my office right now and print your motion or your request for Dee Dee to put in this folder so she can attach them all so I have time to look at them and get them set. I am in a trial all day tomorrow and Thursday and I'll be on conference on Friday. I'll bring your information to the conference with me and when I get a break, I will dictate some emails for Dee Dee to send you to start getting these things set.

Mr. Hanson, I'm assuming the first thing of importance to you since you said at our April 4th hearing and today the most important thing to you and the only issue in this case is this discovery issue that you believe. So if you want me to get everything set with respect to discovery first, correct, sir? Is that the most important thing to you?

MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. I'm going to go through all your requests. I'm going to try to set everyone's discovery requests ASAP so we can get headed that direction and you cannot feel the frustration that you're feeling.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it's your position that I can't have a hearing at this point?

THE COURT: It has to be filed and noticed, sir. It's called due process.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, what about the one-day notice for the hearing on the motion to withdraw that I wasn't available for.

THE COURT: You're right. You're right. You filed a motion for reconsideration. I agreed with you and set it for 15 days.

MR. HANSON: It was absolutely meaningless at that point. She wasn't representing me. I didn't have an attorney for those days. I still had an attorney. So it was a hollow attempt.

THE COURT: You didn't have an attorney because you wanted me to give you 10 days of notice, which you're required. Actually there's no rule, but if you read between the law, typically I have to give you a 10-day notice. When you filed the motion for reconsideration, I said I need to give you 10 days. I set it out 10 days so you would have the opportunity. That's what you requested if of me.

MR. HANSON: You already granted the order and I emailed your staff and said does this mean I can ask Vivian questions during this period. The answer was no. So I still didn't have an attorney.

THE COURT: You wouldn't have been able to ask her questions even if I waited 10 days.

MR. HANSON: Even if she was still my attorney? You don't think that she has a reasonable obligation to work with me in terms of withdrawing the day that the response to the amended petition -- it's a separate issue, Your Honor. This will not go away.

THE COURT: Well, I just hope I get you and your family out of litigation. That's my goal.

MR. HANSON: I have no faith in that --

THE COURT: That's the No. 1 thing is the kiddos. I want all the kids to be safe. I want parents to heal and move on because I've been through it and it's not fun.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I haven't said a single thing negative about Sarah. You know how hard's that's been when I have this stress going on? All it is is she's hiding something. It's so hard and the legal system, you know -- I'm going to write on it.

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 49

THE COURT: Let me tell you, Mr. Hanson. I've got kids in their 20s and I just had to bite my tongue the other day with my 26-year-old. It doesn't stop. My daughter graduated from law school. She didn't hear from her dad until the day she graduated from law school and he wrote her and said can we be in a relationship now. You know how hard it was to bite my tongue? You know what I wrote her back? Honey, I support you in anything you want to do. If you want to have a relationship with your dad, let me know what I can do to help you. After I just did everything to put that kid through law school, emotionally, financially, everything, but I had to bite my tongue because it's the thing you have to do.

You're going to be doing this for the rest of your life. I'm sorry. It's just what we have to do. I'm proud of you that you're being the bigger person because it is hard. I'll tell you it's hard. I've been through it and that made me a better lawyer and better judge. I know it's hard when you have a family.

MR. HANSON: Add into that an attorney who has made it his legal strategy to violate the rules for an improper purpose and deal with that for a year and bring it up in court and the judge says I'm not going to ask him why he didn't do what I requested.

THE COURT: I can't ask him.

MR. HANSON: You can't ask him why he didn't comply with your order?

THE COURT: It wasn't order.

MR. HANSON: What limits your ability to ask him why didn't you comply with my request?

THE COURT: If I had issued an order asking him to do it and he didn't do it, I would have asked him why he violated my order.

MR. HANSON: Is there any authority that prevents you from asking him a question about why he didn't follow through with the request, which he said he was going to do follow through with in a couple days? Is there any authority that prevents you from asking that?

THE COURT: If I wanted it.

MR. DAVIS: Mr. Hanson, I had a family emergency and that's why I didn't do it. Are you satisfied?

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 51

MR. HANSON: For the entire time? For the entire time?

MR. DAVIS: It's none of your business. That's my answer.

MR. HANSON: Well, then it doesn't satisfy. It looks like you know that there's no substance there and you didn't want to put it in writing. You want to put that on Judge Ayers to try and figure out a way to grant your motion because you don't have an argument. You have silly allegations and anger and fussiness.

MR. DAVIS: Apparently Mr. Hanson doesn't understand on a regular basis parties come before the Court and present their case. Court makes a decision. The Court makes the Court's findings. The Court makes the Court's ruling. I think the Court is right. The Court doesn't want me to write the proposed findings.

THE COURT: Well, when you didn't write the proposed findings, I think you asked Dee Dee about it and Dee Dee said something. And I said you know what. With the animosity between this case, it's probably better that Mr. Davis do not send me his summary because I'm going to cut and paste and use it and a lot of my own terms, but anything I used from him you would have thought I was siding with him. So when I didn't get a proper response from Mr. Davis, which is unlike Mr. Davis, and Dee Dee said you brought it to her attention, I said you know what. Don't bother with it. It's probably better I draft it from my perspective, So nobody things I'm favoring anybody.

MR. HANSON: Once I asked a Court in the pleading to get him to file it and the Court said I don't really need it.

THE COURT: You didn't ask --

MR. HANSON: The motion --

THE COURT: I don't know what you filed.

MR. HANSON: Why even file it?

THE COURT: What you do is you have to put it in the court file and when you want it set, you have to reach out to my judicial assistant. That is a misnomer. Everyone thinks everything filed I get a copy of it. Neither Dee Dee or I get a copy. The only thing I have to read is reports for any motions for reconsideration and any order -- anything to reopen the case. That's the only thing I get a list on.

MR. HANSON: Now that you're aware that he hasn't done anything for almost 10 days or two weeks and then I filed a motion requesting that he do it and the Court said I don't need it.

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 53

THE COURT: I didn't see it.

MR. HANSON: I understand that. Now that you know that, can we have him do?

THE COURT: Sure. Raise your right hand, Mr. Davis. Do you swear or affirm that the testimony you're about to give will the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

MR. DAVIS: I do.

MR. HANSON: I'd like it in writing.

WHEREUPON:

SCOTT DAVIS,

a witness, having been duly sworn to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, was examined and testified as follows:

THE COURT: Can you tell me why you did not respond to Dee Dee as much as you feel comfortable doing?

MR. DAVIS: I have an ongoing family emergency regarding my oldest child, who is 17 years old. That has been going on since the Sunday at the conclusion of spring break, which was March 23rd and is still going on to date.

THE COURT: And how has that impacted your caseload?

MR. DAVIS: I have to spend time every day. First of all, he's not in school right now when he should be in school. Second of all, I have to spend a significant amount of time driving him to places that he would normally drive himself and participating in things that are scheduled during the business day and it has put me significantly behind.

THE COURT: In this case and other cases or just this case?

MR. DAVIS: This case and other cases. I had to file a motion for extension of time to file an answer and counterpetition this morning. I just asked for 48 hours and I'll have it done. I'll do it tonight, but it's not only this case.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it seems like the emergency that's even before the hearing and certainly at the time that he said I'll get it in a couple days, the emergency existed. So it doesn't really answer the question.

THE COURT: I'm not going to ask him. I would never do that to you.

MR. HANSON: Have him do the summary.

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 55

THE COURT: I don't want a summary.

MR. HANSON: Well, I do. Your Honor, it's pretty frustrating that the Court says it wants a summary. I filed to say hey, let's get the summary. The Court, I don't want a summary.

THE COURT: Why don't you do a summary?

MR. HANSON: I can't. To me there's nothing of substance there. It's like trying to catch air. I don't know what argument is.

THE COURT: I'm doing a summary because I took really good notes.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, can you see why it's frustrating to me? I said please do it. The Court said yes, do it. I said yes, do it. The Court said no.

THE COURT: No. I asked him for a summary because I needed assistance because I don't have a staff attorney and I knew it was going to take me a lot of weekends to do this. I asked him because I'm assuming he has notes on the questions he was going to ask his client. I was assuming he would go through his notes, give me a summary, and I can take that information and cut and paste it when I do the findings of fact from the hearing. When he didn't do it right away and you complained, I said to Dee

Dee you know what. If I look at his summary, Mr. Hanson is probably going to think I'm favoring him. I'll just do it from my perspective as the trier of fact because I have my own notes. You're going to get a summary. It's from me.

MR. HANSON: Just for a global look at this, I didn't get to offer any evidence at all. If you enter an order against me, I'm going to think it's pretty bias. I was not allowed to offer evidence or argument. The Court came in and said we're going to do the motions for -- I want to focus on the motion for the Guardian ad Litem. The one thing I really have big concerns about. Why was the Court choosing that? It seems like the testimony was on the motions in general.

THE COURT: I said very clearly for the record. I have the case to present to you. Sir, it's going to be very clear on due process. I've done all the research on what I have to do on due process. When I came in, I clearly set out the roadmap. Said Judge Ayers set out the roadmap like she always does. I set out the roadmap. The first thing I'm going to deal with is the children. Chase subpoenas are not a paramount thing when I'm dealing with children. So I said we're going to do the Guardian ad Litem, the motion for psych eval, and as to the temporary motion, what are we going to do for timesharing. Mr. Davis objected, I would say, 10 times to the fact that all you kept talking about was discovery. I reminded you at least 10 times, sir, this is about the best interest of the children and at the end of this four-hour hearing, I'm going to rule on the psych eval, the GAL motion, and the timesharing for the children. I reminded you numerous times. Mr. Davis objected numerous times. That's what I'm going to do.

I have a brand new case that was just handed down from the Second DCA last week that says as long as I gave you due process and I gave you equal timing, I can make a ruling.

MR. HANSON: Equal timing with just the wife testifying. So I don't get to cross-examine her. She testified to two hours.

THE COURT: You used your time.

MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

THE COURT: If you don't like my ruling, you can file a motion for rehearing.

MR. HANSON: My argument is that the children are being used as pawns. The discovery is the motive for that. That's part of my argument.

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 58

THE COURT: Okay. I'll take that into consideration.

MR. HANSON: But not let me offer any testimony?

THE COURT: I gave you two hours and you chose to talk about the Chase subpoenas the entire time and go through emails about agreeing to discovery and extensions and you were a few days late. And I warned you 10 times at least. Mr. Davis objected at least 10 times. I have to run my courtroom and get these things done efficiently. I will be ruling on the GAL motion, the psych eval, and temporary timesharing requested by Ms. Hanson.

MR. HANSON: I think it's shocking that you can say that you have children's best interest at heart and you won't let me present any evidence or argument.

THE COURT: You had two hours and you chose --

MR. HANSON: Your Honor, even if you're right, you're not going to listen to my argument? You're going to rule on something with the children without letting the party argue.

THE COURT: Sir, you had your star witness come and rule against you.

MR. HANSON: She didn't rule against me.

5/15/2025 1:32 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 59

THE COURT: She testified against you.

MR. HANSON: That's what you don't want to hear. Sure.

THE COURT: I heard it loud and clear.

MR. HANSON: Yeah. I really have questions about your history with Guardian ad Litems too. I'll be looking into further. Were you ever -- I can't ask you a question?

THE COURT: This hearing is concluded. Thank you, Ms. Priestley.

MR. DAVIS: Thank you for your time, Your Honor.

(The court proceeding concluded at 5:35 p.m.)
