IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF:

and
CHRISTOPHER HANSON, Respondent/Husband

FLORIDA BAR RECIPIENTS' MOTION TO QUASH SUBPOENAS DUCES TECUM FOR HEARING

Nonparties Richard F. Courtemanche, Jr., Esq., Shanell M. Schuyler, Esq., Jason R. Kelley, Esq., Joshua Sheridan, Esq. (the "Florida Bar Recipients"), respectfully make this limited appearance solely for the purpose of filing this Objection and Motion to Quash the attached Subpoenas Duces Tecum for Hearing (collectively, the "Subpoenas"), issued by Christopher Hanson, Esq. ("Mr. Hanson"), as follows:

Background

1. On February 18, 2025, Mr. Hanson filed a complaint with The Florida Bar against Scott Paul Davis, his wife's attorney in this matter. After review by Bar counsel, Mr. Hanson's complaint was closed, effective February 24, 2025. See Rul. Reg. Fla. Bar 3-7.3(a) (Bar counsel may decline to pursue the inquiry if bar counsel determines that the facts, if proven, would not constitute a violation of the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar warranting the imposition of discipline.").

2. Mr. Hanson objected to the closure. Therefore, his allegations against Mr. Davis were reviewed by Ms. Schuyler, Director of the Attorney Consumer Assistance Program and Intake for The Florida Bar, who concurred in the closing of the matter. After Mr. Hanson objected again, the matter was referred to Alicia Gangi, the Chair of The Florida Bar Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee 13A. Ms. Gangi sustained the prior decisions to close the file as proper and correct. Mr. Hanson meanwhile also filed a complaint against the Judge presiding over his divorce proceedings; it similarly was not acted upon by The Florida Bar except to review and close it. See Standing Board Policy § 15.75(d)-(f) (available at https://www.floridabar.org/rules/policies/) (particularly, see § 15.75(d)(1)("After review of the inquiry, bar counsel may [¶] (A) decide not to pursue the inquiry because there was no rule violation that justifies discipline").

3. Thereafter, Mr. Hanson filed a public records request with The Florida Bar, requesting copies of all records related to his complaint against Mr. Davis. Mr. Courtemanche, Deputy General Counsel of The Florida Bar and a nonparty, provided Mr. Hanson with the entire public record related to his request. These documents have been in Mr. Hanson's possession since no later than November 10, 2025. See Exhibit A hereto.

4. Miffed that his complaint did not result in charges against his wife's attorney or the Judge, and apparently believing that The Florida Bar had not provided the full record in response to his public records request, Mr. Hanson filed suit against The Florida Bar and individual defendants. He challenged the records production and sought mandamus to compel investigations of Mr. Davis and the Judge more to Mr. Hanson's liking. Mr. Hanson's suit was ultimately dismissed and judgment entered. See Exhibit B hereto. He has appealed.

5. Mr. Hanson simply refuses to believe that such records were not produced because they do not exist—the Bar did not act on his complaint and so did not share it with or request a response from Mr. Davis. The Subpoenas are merely another chapter in his harassment campaign against The Florida Bar.

The Subpoenas

6. Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.280(c) provides for protection from "annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense that justice requires, including…that the discovery not be had."

7. The targets of Mr. Hanson's Subpoenas cannot provide any information outside the documents that have long been in Mr. Hanson's possession.

8. Mr. Hanson demands Mr. Courtemanche appear and testify at the evidentiary hearing on May 29, 2026, and bring with him the documents and tangible things described in Section A of the Subpoena directed to him:

> 1. All communications (e-mails, memoranda, Microsoft Teams messages, text messages, and notes of telephone calls) sent or received by you concerning Christopher Hanson, Sarah Hanson, Scott Paul Davis, or Vivian Hodz from May 1, 2024 to present.

2. All records, communications, or memoranda concerning Florida Bar Request for Assistance (RFA) No. 25-6861 regarding Attorney Scott Paul Davis, including the decision to dismiss or decline that matter without obtaining a formal written response from Attorney Davis.
3. All records, communications, or memoranda regarding the Florida Bar File No. 2026-10,395(13F) regarding Christopher Alan Hanson.
4. All records, communications, or memoranda regarding the Florida Bar File No. 2026-10,601(13E) regarding Vivian Hodz, Esq.
5. All internal policies, training materials, slide decks, and presentations authored or used by you regarding Florida public-records law compliance, including the presentation containing "Rick's Rule."
6. All communication between you and Christopher Hanson, or concerning his requests for rebuttal materials to or from Scott Paul Davis, including any communication stating or reflecting that the matter was "closed."
7. All communications between you (or other agents of The Florida Bar) and Judge Kelly A. Ayers, Chief Judge Christopher C. Sabella, or Judge Matthew L. Felix concerning Christopher Hanson or Case No. 2024-DR-001150.
8. All conflict-check records and internal communications regarding any conflict of interest in The Florida Bar's handling of complaints involving Christopher Hanson, Scott Paul Davis, or Judge Kelly A. Ayers.

See Exhibit C hereto (Subpoena to Mr. Courtemanche). The Subpoena to Mr. Sheridan is virtually identical. See Exhibit D hereto (Subpoena to Mr. Sheridan).

9. Mr. Hanson demands Ms. Schuyler appear and bring with her the following:

1. The complete, unredacted intake and ACAP file – including all intake notes, screening determinations, routing slips, and metadata – for Florida Bar Request for Assistance (RFA) No. 25-6861 regarding Attorney Scott Paul Davis.
2. The complete, unredacted intake and ACAP file for the Florida Bar File No. 2026-10,395(13F) regarding Christopher Alan Hanson.
3. The complete, unredacted intake and ACAP file for the Florida Bar File No. 2026-10,601(13E) regarding Vivian Hodz, Esq.
4. All communications, memoranda, or directives concerning the decision to dismiss, decline, or decline to investigate the complaint against Scott Paul Davis (RFA No. 25-6861) without obtaining a formal written response from Attorney Davis.
5. All communications (e-mails, memoranda, Microsoft Teams messages, text messages, and notes of telephone calls) sent or received by you concerning Christopher Hanson, Sarah Hanson, Scott Paul Davis, or Vivian Hodz from May 1, 2024 to present.
6. All records reflecting the intake screening, classification, or routing of, and any conflict check concerning, complaints involving Christopher Hanson, Scott Paul Davis, or Judge Kelly A. Ayers.
7. All documents, internal memoranda, or correspondence establishing the specific, > identified statements made by Christopher Hanson that the Florida Bar alleges to be false or in violation of Bar Rules 4-8.2(a) and 4-8.4(d).

See Exhibit E hereto (Subpoena to Ms. Schuyler). The Subpoena to Mr. Kelley is similar. See Exhibit F hereto (Subpoena to Mr. Kelley).

10. Mr. Hanson has also served notice of intent to serve a subpoena on The Florida Bar's records custodian, seeking essentially the same information. See Exhibit G hereto (Notice of Intent to Issue Subpoena to The Florida Bar's records custodian).

11. In addition, the Subpoenas for appearance were served on May 18, 19, and 20, 2026, for a hearing scheduled for May 29, 2026.

WHEREFORE, the Florida Bar Recipients respectfully request the Court quash the Subpoenas (Exhibits C-G hereto).

ORDER GRANTING THE FLORIDA BAR DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS AND FINAL JUDGMENT FOR DEFENDANTS

THIS CAUSE having come before the Court on the Florida Bar Defendants' Motion to Dismiss filed on January 27, 2026 ("Motion"). The Court has considered the motion and reviewed the file including Plaintiff's Response and attachments. It is ORDERED as follows:

1. The Court does not have jurisdiction to review the Bar's decision to dismiss Plaintiff's grievance against the attorney in his dissolution case. See Tyson v. The Fla. Bar, 826 So. 2d 365 (Fla. 2002).

2. The Florida Bar and its employees are immune from suit in acts taken in their official capacity. See Cole v. Owens, 766 So. 2d 287 (Fla. 2002).

3. The Plaintiff has failed to state a cause of action for all the reasons articulated in the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. Any Amendment would be futile.

Therefore, Defendant's Motion is hereby GRANTED. Final Judgment is entered in favor of Defendants who shall go hence without day.
