2 THE COURT: All right. We're here on Hanson v.
3 Hanson, 2024-DR-1150. We have present starting with 4 Ms. Hanson's side. Could you please make your 5 appearances?

6 MR. DAVIS: Scott Davis appearing for the 7 Petitioner, Sarah Hanson.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

9 MR. HANSON: Chris Hanson appearing for myself.

10 THE COURT: Let the record reflect that I had a
11 conference with counsels prior to starting this 12 hearing. I cautioned them on their conduct with 13 respect to this case and the numerous correspondence
14 that are being provided to my judicial assistant and 15 how we are going to proceed thus far.

16 I'm also going to do a sua sponte motion setting
17 an order to show cause on why I should not limit the 18 communications between counsels and my judicial 19 assistant and communications between counsels. When 20 you come back for your order to show cause I will 21 hear why you do not believe I should limit your 22 communications with my JA and then you will argument
23 against each other on while I shouldn't limit your 24 communications between each other. And I will select 25 that date before we leave.

1 We're here on four hearings. Everyone is going
2 to have exactly 30 minutes and I'm going to be timing
3 you. That is to present your motion and to defend
4 your motion. Let me see who filed first.

5 MR. DAVIS: Your Honor, while you're doing that
6 may I address the Court extremely briefly?

7 THE COURT: Of course.

8 MR. DAVIS: I have almost fully prepared a
9 motion asking the Court to do just that. So I am
10 absolutely not opposed to the Court entering an order
11 regarding the communications.

12 THE COURT: Okay. We're going to do an order to 13 show cause and at that same time you can notice your 14 motion. And you did want to say something, what did
15 you want to say, Mr. Hanson?

16 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I understand what
17 you're saying about the emails to your JA and I
18 apologize for that. It's confusion. I just, you
19 know, I don't know what to do. So I understand what 20 I need to fix there. In terms of my communications
21 with Mr. Davis. I don't know what you're referring 22 to. I'm proud of everything that I have done in 23 terms of dealing with Mr. Davis. So I don't 24 understand what is problematic about my 25 communications and if I don't understand what is

1 problematic I can't fix it.

2 THE COURT: I can't read them and neither can my 3 JA, so that's what she's been trying to explain to 4 you. Everything has to be in the court file. But 5 it's my understanding from my judicial assistant that 6 all of your communications -- she showed me the 7 paper, I did not read it, but she said, "Mr. Hanson,
8 please list the motions that you want to have heard."
9 And instead I saw two pages of paragraphs. That's 10 not what she asked you.

11 And it's my understanding that you are sending 12 communications that you have with Mr. Davis. You are 13 sending communications that you have with Cambridge
14 Christian. So all of that cannot be done. She's 15 there to schedule and answer simple questions and 16 that's it. It's my understanding from my judicial 17 assistant that you are forwarding emails between the 18 two of you to her.

19 MR. HANSON: So --

20 THE COURT: That's not appropriate.

21 MR. HANSON: -- I'm not sure that I've done
22 that, but I can E-file them.

23 THE COURT: You can E-file anything.

24 MR. HANSON: I'm sorry.

25 THE COURT: If you want a record -- she tells me

1 that you keep asking for a record, that's where your 2 record is going to be made. The emails to my
3 judicial assistant are not admissible.

4 MR. HANSON: I understand.

5 THE COURT: So, I mean, she's there -- people
6 are frustrated in this process. So she has to deal
7 with frustration and she doesn't mind doing that, but 8 it can't consume her whole day. I have 850 cases and 9 I know you've already said that you don't think I
10 think your case is important. I absolutely do. But 11 she has to attend to everyone.

12 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I didn't say that.
13 I'll look back. I can show you in the record.

14 THE COURT: I'm not holding it against you. I
15 just want you to know your case is important to me.
16 Your first motion was filed on December 13th, 2024
17 and it's Wife's Motion to Compel Discovery. If you
18 will please note that we are starting at 12:40.

19 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: Go ahead.

21 MR. DAVIS: Has the Court had a chance to review
22 the motion?

23 THE COURT: Yes. But you have a record.

24 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am. I think the motion
25 speaks for itself. There are documents that

1 Mr. Hanson did not provide relating to mandatory
2 disclosure. We sent him a good faith letter on 3 December 2nd through prior counsel, Ms. Hodz. We 4 identified the missing and complete disclosure that's 5 on Page 2 and 3 of the motion. I'm happy to go
6 through, but I don't want to waste the Court's time.

7 THE COURT: It is just you have a record. So
8 it's up to you.

9 MR. DAVIS: It's in the record to the extent
10 it's in the motion and I'm referring to it.

11 THE COURT: It's in Paragraph 7?

13 THE COURT: On Page 2?

14 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am. All the way through 15 Page 3. And it's also Exhibit A is the good faith
16 letter which identifies the same documents. I will 17 tell the Court and I have emails for the Court to 18 review regarding these issues.

19 THE COURT: Have any of the items Exhibit A 1
20 through 8 been provided since you filed the motion?

21 MR. DAVIS: No, ma'am.

22 THE COURT: And what are these emails that 23 you're going to show me?

24 MR. DAVIS: The first email is dated
25 December 13th, 2024 from Mr. Hanson to me over the

1 copy to Ms. Hanson regarding mandatory disclosures.
2 And the relevent portion I've highlighted on all the 3 copies as I mentioned some of the records have to be 4 mailed. I never went to either attorney's office to 5 get them scanned which basically suggests that he has 6 them and Helene, referring to the hurricane,
7 rearranged my house very well. I will try to find
8 the records and get them scanned or mail you copies.

9 And then the other email is January 7th, 2025,
10 Page 2. I also highlighted the relevent portion.
11 And I said I did find the records and had to be 12 mailed to him. Should take care of the motion to 13 compel. It's a large stack of records says he 14 doesn't have a good scanner and wants to drop them
15 off at my office, which I don't have an office, and 16 have me scan them for him. Which respectfully is not 17 for me do. He can mail them to my post office box or 18 he can procure a scanner or go to any office place
19 like Office Max or UPS store and have them scanned.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. DAVIS: And he hasn't provided any of them.

22 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hanson, did you have 23 an opportunity to look at Exhibit A on that motion, 24 please?

25 MR. HANSON: Is that the email that you just

1 described?

2 THE COURT: No. I'm showing him Exhibit A to 3 your motion.

4 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am. While he's reviewing 5 that, the only other thing I wanted to say is the 6 December 18th email was 57 days ago and January 7,
7 email was 37 days ago. So it has been plenty of time
8 to comply.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, have you complied with 10 that discovery list?

11 MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, my argument is 12 based upon relevance and, you know, my argument all 13 along has been that Mrs. Hanson doesn't need any of 14 these documents. She doesn't want them.

15 THE COURT: Okay. What do you do? If you think 16 they're not relevant what do you do?

17 MR. HANSON: I'm object to it.

18 THE COURT: Well, you have to file an objection
19 so I can rule on it.

20 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, with all due respect
21 I've had to file due process arguments. I've had to 22 research all different things. I'm doing the best I
23 can. I'm sleeping three hours a night. I'm really 24 trying.

25 THE COURT: How long do you need to respond to

1 that? It -- you have to provide the documents or you
2 have to go item by item and tell me your specific 3 legal objection and then set it for hearing. So how 4 long do you need to do either provide the documents
5 or file an objection? I don't need anything but just 6 how long do you need?

7 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I'm not trying to 8 ignore you. I'm just trying to think.

9 THE COURT: Take your time.

10 MR. HANSON: The other things I'm trying to do
11 and prioritize.

12 THE COURT: Take your time.

13 MR. HANSON: I don't know what comes first and 14 what doesn't. I've already got four things --

15 THE COURT: I don't need an explanation. You
16 just take the time and tell me how many days you
17 need.

18 MR. HANSON: Unless there is some new due date
19 for something I'm not aware of I think I should be 20 able to do that in 10 days. Although I'm actually
21 okay arguing it now. My argument --

22 THE COURT: You can't. You have to file an 23 objection because he has the right to review the 24 objections and be prepared to come in and tell me why
25 he thinks your legal objection is not correct. So

1 you have to go through each document, number them --
2 each request numbering them and telling me your legal
3 objection as to why you should not provide it. So 10
4 days is not a problem. So today is the 12th. So how
5 about the 24th? And that gives you two extra
6 weekends.

7 MR. HANSON: Okay.

8 THE COURT: So that's 12 days. So your response
9 will be due on February 24th or the documents
10 provided on February 24th. And it can be and/or.
11 You might to want give some and object to some. So
12 it's your choice. All right.

13 MR. DAVIS: May I address the Court?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MR. DAVIS: Judge, we were here on Mr. Hanson's
16 motion to compel several months ago and the Court
17 granted that as mandatory disclosure and found
18 entitlement to fees and I would ask that Ms. Hanson
19 be treated the same in that regard and that the Court
20 find entitlement to fees and reserve on the 21 reasonableness and amount.

22 THE COURT: I'll reserve on fees all together.

23 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

24 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, may I address that?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MR. HANSON: I mean, the facts matter, right?

2 THE COURT: Right. So I didn't find
3 entitlement. I'm going to wait to see what you say.
4 If your objections are all granted, do you think I'm 5 going to give him fees? Probably not. So I'm going
6 to reserve completely until I see what your 7 objections are.

8 MR. HANSON: I'll have a chance to explain the 9 difference in terms --

10 THE COURT: Absolutely.

11 MR. HANSON: -- of timelines and --

12 THE COURT: And just because I know you brought 13 this up to my judicial assistant too. There is only 14 a few instances where I can rule without a hearing.
15 And one of them is reconsideration and rehearing.
16 And I don't know if you recall you've already filed a
17 motion for rehearing with respect to the Hodz law
18 firm and I granted it and let you have a hearing. So
19 I did do that.

20 But on reconsideration and rehearing if there is 21 no new information and especially yours was the same
22 argument that we've already dealt with I have a right
23 to enter an order without a hearing. But that is one 24 of the few occasions when I do it. So, of course, if 25 he's seeking fees you're going to get a hearing on

1 it, sir. So next up --

2 MR. HANSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor, but in terms
3 of the award for fees, you may award fees without me
4 getting a chance to argue that?

5 THE COURT: Absolutely not.

6 MR. HANSON: You may award entitlement to fees?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 MR. HANSON: Then I would like to make a record.

9 THE COURT: I didn't do that.

10 MR. HANSON: But you are saying you can entering 11 an order --

12 THE COURT: I reserved on entitlement and 13 amount.

14 MR. HANSON: I thought you said you can enter an 15 order providing entitlement without a hearing.

16 THE COURT: No, I can do it right here at this
17 hearing, but I'm not doing it.

18 MR. HANSON: Okay. So I'll have a chance to 19 argue to the Court before any entitlement to fees are 20 found.

21 THE COURT: He filed a motion to compel
22 discovery. In this he asked me to award fees. I
23 just said, "No, I'm reserving." Which means I didn't 24 grant fees. I didn't deny fees. I didn't grant an 25 entitlement. Versus he just pointed out when you

1 came before with your motion to compel or contempt I
2 gave a reservation to fees. So you're going to get
3 those fees, you just got to come back and talk to me
4 about the amount. I didn't even give them
5 reservation -- I'm sorry. I didn't even give them
6 entitlement.

7 MR. HANSON: I guess the things I'm confused
8 about is you mentioned you could enter an order
9 without having a hearing on the issue.

10 THE COURT: No. I can enter at this hearing
11 just like I did for you when you came and said they 12 didn't complete their mandatory disclosure, your 13 lawyer asked me for entitlement to fees, I thought
14 you were entitled to them and I gave them to. I'm 15 not giving them entitlement today.

16 MR. HANSON: Okay. So my only question is I'll 17 have a chance to argue about whether you're going to 18 order entitlement before the Court before you order
19 entitlement?

20 THE COURT: And a hearing.

21 MR. HANSON: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: You're welcome. All right. So next
23 up I have filed on December 18th, 2024 Husband's -- 24 Respondent's Motion for Enforcement and Finding of 25 Contempt for Failure to Comply with the Court's Order

1 on Mandatory Disclosures. And that would be yours,
2 Mr. Hanson. Do you need a moment to locate that?

3 MR. HANSON: Sure.

4 THE COURT: All right. Do you need a copy,
5 Mr. Hanson?

6 MR. HANSON: I have a copy. I have a couple of 7 copies. I misplaced the one I had notes on. But
8 that's okay, Your Honor. Are you ready for me to go
9 ahead?

10 THE COURT: Yes, I am.

11 MR. HANSON: The motion relates to mandatory
12 disclosures, but it all goes back to the single issue
13 that I said would come up in the case when I first
14 obtained an attorney. Actually, when I first filed a
15 pleading back in May at Document No. 2022, I
16 explained there is an issue where I need discovery
17 into our finances based upon her reaction to 18 mandatory disclosure requirements and things that 19 were going on in the marriage and that was the only 20 issue in the case.

21 We had navigated everything without getting
22 attorneys and it was just that issue where when I
23 told her that was a redline for me she responded by 24 sending me 16 pages of interrogatories requesting
25 everything from medical records to education records

1 going back to 20-plus years. So I want the Court to 2 view this within that lens.

3 MR. DAVIS: I respectfully have to object to 4 relevance and I'm happy to expound.

5 THE COURT: What is your objection with respect
6 to relevance?

7 MR. DAVIS: Relevance because this is did she or 8 did she not comply with mandatory disclosure. That's 9 it. It's not the history. It's not interrogatories.
10 It's not other things.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Did she comply with mandatory
12 disclosures?

13 MR. HANSON: No, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Can you give me an example of what 15 she didn't comply with?

16 MR. HANSON: She has not complied with the 17 requirements of, I believe, it's 12.285 with respect
18 to the months where one must swear that they had no
19 financial interest other than those disclosed.

20 THE COURT: So what are you missing?

21 MR. HANSON: But, Your Honor, there is more to 22 it. It's not that she doesn't comply with mandatory
23 disclosures, but it's a pattern of intentional
24 conduct meant to delay and conceal things and that's 25 what I don't know why I'm not able to get out to the

1 Court, but all Mrs. Hanson and Mr. Davis' conduct
2 relates to delaying things and concealing records.
3 So if you could look at document --

4 THE COURT: Well, there is a form that you have 5 to sign when you comply with mandatory disclosure.
6 So you need to look at that list of mandatory
7 disclosures and you need to tell me what she didn't 8 comply with so I can make sure she does. It's very 9 simple.

10 MR. HANSON: But, Your Honor, I feel like I keep 11 getting pushed away from my large argument here which 12 is we need to look at the pattern of delays and the 13 harassment and burden that has now included going
14 after my children and trying to put them to a 15 guardian ad litem when I've asked Mr. Davis for any 16 information to suggest that my kids are doing
17 anything less than perfect.

18 THE COURT: I want to pause and make sure I keep 19 you on time.

20 MR. HANSON: Sure.

21 THE COURT: This motion is for enforcement and 22 finding of contempt for failure to comply with order
23 on mandatory disclosure. All I can look at on this 24 motion is -- if you've got another issue with her
25 conduct unfortunately you have to file a motion.

1 Right now you're telling me they didn't comply with
2 mandatory disclosures and I need to know what
3 mandatory disclosures she didn't comply with so I
4 make sure that she does.

5 MR. HANSON: See, Your Honor, obviously
6 Mr. Davis wants to keep each of these separate. So
7 the Court doesn't see the pattern of where everything
8 he's doing is in violation of the ethical rules and 9 designed to keep me from getting records. So that's 10 the problem, it's the pattern. It's over, and over,
11 and over again.

12 THE COURT: You filed this motion.

13 MR. HANSON: I know I did, Your Honor, but I'm 14 trying to get you to understand.

15 THE COURT: Stop. You filed it as a singular
16 motion. So you are asking me -- I'm bound by the 17 confines of the law. You asked me for a motion to 18 say that she didn't comply with mandatory
19 disclosures. Then next I'm going to go and look at 20 your next motion. If you have a motion that you
21 somehow want me to sanction Ms. Hanson because of 22 Mr. Davis' alleged conduct that would have to be a
23 motion. Mr. Davis is only prepared to argue what you
24 put in your motion and he has the opportunity to 25 prepare to defend this. So I can't have you argue

1 something that's not in a motion. That's how the law
2 works. It's not my rule. I can't do it.

3 MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, the other motion
4 all of this stuff is included.

5 THE COURT: Well, let's go to that next and tell
6 me how you want to handle this motion right now.
7 What are you missing so I can ask Ms. Hanson --

8 MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

9 THE COURT: Stop. We can't talk over each other
10 because we have this wonderful court reporter. So I
11 need you to tell me what you are missing from the 12 mandatory disclosures so I can ask Ms. Hanson how 13 long she needs to get to you and you can get to 14 her -- she can get it to you.

15 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, if you can look at
16 Paragraph 15 --

17 THE COURT: Would love to.

18 MR. HANSON: -- No. 84. It starts Wife and 19 Mr. Davis completed two of what they entitled
20 certificate of compliance, although they make no
21 attempt to comply with the requirements in Rule 22 12.285.

23 THE COURT: Perfect. Tell me how.

24 MR. HANSON: So the language in the original and 25 amended certificates only certify that Wife had no

1 interest in any relevant accounts or assets in the 2 last 12 months. Going back to the 12 months before
3 she signed it. Which would take you to October of 4 2023.

5 THE COURT: Stop again. Tell me what documents
6 you want.

7 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I want them to certify
8 that she has no other financial interests
9 besides those that --

10 THE COURT: From what period to what period?

11 MR. HANSON: What is required in the mandatory
12 Rule 12.285.

13 THE COURT: And my understanding is that's two 14 years.

15 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I believe two years
16 and --

17 THE COURT: What bank statements do you want or 18 do you want them to certify they don't exist? From 19 what period to what period?

20 MR. HANSON: You know, the attorneys that 21 withdrew on a days notice and the Court moved up the 22 hearing a few weeks over my objection made it real
23 difficult for me to review all the banks records,
24 research new law and get up to speed with Florida due
25 process and federal due process. So I can't tell you

1 the precise records. The problem is -- the main
2 problem that I have is they're not even swearing that 3 what they provided to me is everything. They're
4 playing games. They stipulated to have the records
5 to me June 28th --

6 THE COURT: Okay. We're not focusing.

7 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, that's directly
8 relevent to my issue.

9 THE COURT: Stop. Look at Paragraph 17 you say
10 Wife is only swearing that she had no interest in 11 relevant accounts from October of 2023 forward and 12 her attempts to save the marriage were already over.
13 So are you saying that you would like to make sure
14 that she didn't have any interest in relevant 15 accounts from October 2023 or date of filing or to 16 today?

17 MR. HANSON: No, backwards.

18 THE COURT: Okay. What -- you want before
19 October 2023.

20 MR. HANSON: Right. Your Honor, she's gotten 21 three years of records from me and I was the 22 disclosing spouse. I disclosed all assets.

23 THE COURT: I don't need to know that.

24 MR. HANSON: It doesn't matter --

25 THE COURT: I just need to know what you want.

1 MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

2 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, stop. I need you to
3 tell me what records you want from her.

4 MR. HANSON: Three years of financial records
5 going back from the date of the post marital 6 agreement.

7 THE COURT: Could you remind what date that is 8 or approximately?

9 MR. HANSON: I think it was October of 2023 or 10 November 2023.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So you want three years prior 12 to approximately October 2023 and that's when you did
13 the postmarital or the premarital?

14 MR. HANSON: That was the postmarital agreement
15 was around then.

16 THE COURT: So stop right there. So, Mr. Davis, 17 what is your response to he's requesting three years
18 of bank statements?

19 MR. HANSON: All financial documents,
20 certification that she's provided me with everything.

21 THE COURT: That would be required in the 22 mandatory disclosure, can we --

23 MR. HANSON: Well, anything she has an interest
24 in. I believe that is mandatory disclosure.

25 THE COURT: I would concur with that. So he

1 would like you to comply with mandatory disclosure
2 for the three years prior to October 2023. Your 3 response, Mr. Davis.

4 MR. DAVIS: That's not what 12.285 provides.
5 12.285 provides for 12 months and date of filing for 6 certain records. I'm happy to go through it. I
7 brought the rule. And 24 months for others. The 8 only thing off the top of my head that goes three 9 back is deeds and tax records. But my position is 10 respectfully Mr. Hanson has not actually identified a 11 single document that he claims is required by the 12 actual rule, not what he wants, the actual rule that 13 hasn't been provided.

14 THE COURT: Response, Mr. Hanson?

15 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, the problem is that 16 they're constantly skirting the rules to conceal
17 information and this is another example of it. They 18 delayed. They stipulated to produce things by June.
19 Did nothing. No excuses. No responses to my 20 attorneys. Then they trickle documents over to me
21 gradually to put off enforcement of the Court's order
22 entered on October 28th of 2024.

23 And so -- so I've looked at the documents. I'm 24 not perfectly familiar with the rule. It confuses me
25 every time I read it. I can't -- I was not focused

1 on getting you a list of documents. I'm focused on 2 getting them to provide me with the truth of what
3 they're required to provide me with. That's what 4 I've been trying to do for nine months. And it's 5 taken a huge toll on me, on my kids and there are 6 things that are happening that I can't believe that a
7 court of law is allowing.

8 So, you know, getting them to do three years,
9 like I gave them three years for their
10 interrogatories, that were filed against me as a
11 warning shot, not to try and pursue her records. I
12 think that's being very reasonable on my end when I
13 disclosed all my assets at the time of the 14 postmarital agreement. She didn't disclose anything.
15 To the extent she told me anything about her finances
16 before the postmarital agreement it's already 17 inconsistent with what she has produced.

18 THE COURT: Hold for a second. Did you request
19 of him documents outside of the rule, the mandatory
20 disclosure rule, Mr. Davis? He keeps bringing that 21 up at the hearing.

22 MR. DAVIS: My client did before I became her
23 attorney when she was pro se.

24 THE COURT: She requested documents of him?

25 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

1 THE COURT: So you as her attorney have not
2 requested any documents outside the rule?

3 MR. DAVIS: No, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: Was it her that did it?

5 MR. HANSON: Perhaps ask why she did it.

6 THE COURT: Raise your right hand.

7 Thereupon,

8 SARAH HANSON,
9 a witness, having been duly sworn to tell the truth,
10 the whole truth and nothing but the truth, was 11 examined and testified as follows:

12 THE WIFE: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Don't forget we're on a time crunch,
14 but if you want to ask her a couple questions related 15 to this motion I'll allow you to do so.

16 MR. HANSON: Sure.

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. HANSON:

19 Q. What was the reason for filing those 16 pages of 20 interrogatories at that date when we had already reached 21 the marital separation agreement, the only dispute was 22 whether I would get financial documents from you?

23 MR. DAVIS: Objection to relevance.

24 THE COURT: I'm going to allow her to answer the
25 question.

1 A. I wasn't represented by an attorney and neither
2 were you and you had sent me many text messages accusing
3 me of criminal fraud and of attempting to defraud you and 4 we were still pro se. At the time I filed a motion for 5 the Court to monitor communication and I went to the form
6 rules within the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and I
7 copied those interrogatories.

8 My thought process being I needed -- I didn't --
9 the financials I thought the interrogatory mirrored the 10 mandatory disclosures and you had not given me an 11 affidavit. I had given you an affidavit before the 12 lawyers were involved. And the interrogatories I was 13 actually trying to get your medical information because I
14 was concerned over the children's welfare and the 15 financial aspect of it I thought just mirrored the 16 mandatory disclosures because I wasn't reviewing those 17 either and --

18 THE COURT: Okay. We're not going to use this 19 as an opportunity to say unkind things to each other.
20 So she's answered your question. She was pro se and 21 she was really fishing more for your medical records.
22 That's why she sent out the things that she cut and 23 pasted. She didn't do it -- Mr. Davis didn't do it.
24 She did it. Just like you keep telling me you don't 25 know what you're doing in family law. She didn't

1 know what she was doing in family law either.

2 MR. HANSON: I have quite a bit of
3 correspondence I would like to provide around that 4 timeframe and a follow-up question.

5 THE COURT: One more question. It can't be
6 personal and getting back together and that stuff.
7 It has to be about this motion.

9 BY MR. HANSON:

10 Q. So you mentioned in your response that I
11 threatened to pursue fraud against you. Did I ever 12 threaten to pursue fraud against you in any way other than 13 when I was pleading with you to let us avoid attorney
14 involvement? I told you I don't care if it was cheating
15 and I don't care what --

16 A. You were --

17 Q. Can I finish the question, please?

18 A. No.

19 THE COURT: Ma'am.

20 MR. DAVIS: Objection, relevance and compound
21 question.

22 THE COURT: Let him finish the question.

23 BY MR. HANSON:

24 Q. Any time where I mentioned pursuing fraud or 25 doing anything like that wasn't that something where it

1 was only if you make us put our family through this
2 dispute, fight over this where it's been way worse than I
3 could have imagined, but I knew it wouldn't be good, but 4 didn't I tell you if you just cooperate with me and
5 provide the records as long as I what I paid you is fair I
6 didn't really care about the money, it was just about --

7 A. I have --

8 THE COURT: Stop.

9 BY MR. HANSON:

10 Q. It was that I needed answers, not -- I never 11 wanted to make this ugly or pursue fraud or anything like 12 that. The only time I ever mentioned that was if you made 13 our family go through all of this.

14 MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance and compound
15 question.

16 THE COURT: Sustained.

17 MR. HANSON: So she doesn't have to answer the
18 question?

19 THE COURT: No. Anything else?

20 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, isn't that an important
21 question?

22 THE COURT: No, sir. You're trying to use this 23 motion to harass her and ask her additional 24 questions. She has already stated she did not know
25 what she was doing. She went into the forms and she

1 cut and pasted and she was really trying to get your
2 medical records. I find that to be sufficient and 3 I'm denying the motion without prejudice.

4 MR. HANSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor, you're not
5 going to make them swear to -- to do what the rule
6 requires them to do?

7 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'm going to deny the 8 motion without prejudice to allow you to file an 9 amended motion with a list of all documents under the 10 rule that they have not complied with. Mr. Davis, as 11 an officer of the court, have you complied fully on 12 behalf of your client with the rule of mandatory
13 disclosure?

14 MR. DAVIS: I didn't do an audit today. So I
15 want to be clear on that. My paralegal did the 16 mandatory disclosures, which at the end of the day I
17 recognize I'm responsible for, but I cannot as an 18 officer the court say 100 percent, yes, there is no
19 documents missing.

20 THE COURT: I'm going to charge you with doing 21 an audit and if you have missed anything in the 22 mandatory disclosure you have 10 days to provide them
23 to Mr. Hanson.

24 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I have to make more of 25 a record on this. They stipulated to do something by

1 June 28th the only issue -- the only thing that I
2 wanted -- they didn't do anything. Made me wait
3 until October just before the hearing and started
4 trickling documents out to say, okay, I'll cancel the 5 hearing. You entered the order on October 28th of 6 2024 making everyone to do something about it. To 7 make her answer these questions. Make her at least 8 her swear to what the rule requires her to swear to.
9 What's the basis for not making her swear to what the 10 rule requires? How does the Court justify that?

11 THE COURT: What do you want her to swear to?

12 MR. HANSON: That she has no other financial
13 interests during the periods required in the rule.
14 She's only -- her document is worded very 15 strategically where it says I didn't have anything
16 for the past year. So she's saying that from 17 October 2023 she didn't -- October 2023 forward she 18 didn't have any other financial interests. The rule
19 requires a lot more disclosure than that. I want her
20 to swear that she didn't have any other financial 21 interests at any period covered by the rule. And I
22 think it just blows my mind that the Court doesn't 23 see that.

24 THE COURT: You will file an amended compliance
25 with mandatory disclosure within 10 days stating you

1 complied fully with the rule. Does that work for
2 you?

3 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am. I believe we have 4 required by the rule.

5 THE COURT: Right. Can you do an audit like you
6 said?

7 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

8 THE COURT: Make sure and then file an amended
9 certificate of mandatory disclosure stating that you
10 were in full compliance when you filed the other one
11 and make sure she swears to it and if not state which 12 document that you did not comply with or you somehow
13 missed and send them to him. Is 10 days sufficient 14 for you? Actually, I'll give you the same date, the 15 24th.

16 MR. DAVIS: I need additional time.

17 THE COURT: How many days do you need?

18 MR. DAVIS: Two weeks, please.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So it will be the 26th.
20 Would you like to also have the February 26th? I
21 gave you 24th.

22 MR. HANSON: Sure.

23 THE COURT: That was 12 days. Mr. Davis has 24 asked for 14 days. Would you like me to change your 25 date to the 26th?

1 MR. HANSON: Sure.

2 THE COURT: So now on the first motion you have 3 until February 26th. And Mr. Davis is going to do an 4 inventory of the mandatory disclosures and he's going
5 to do an amended certificate of compliance which will 6 say we are strictly in compliance with the rule or 7 he's going to say that he did find that something was 8 missing and that he's provided it to you and he's 9 going to identify it.

10 MR. HANSON: But he's going to swear that 11 what --

12 THE COURT: He's not, she's going to swear.

13 MR. HANSON: She's going to swear that what she 14 has provided complies with the fact that she is 15 swearing under oath that she has no other financial 16 interests during the periods required in the rule.

17 THE COURT: Only what is required in the rule.

18 MR. HANSON: But she has to swear to that?

20 MR. HANSON: Okay.

21 MR. DAVIS: I just want to put on the record, if 22 I may.

23 THE COURT: Go ahead.

24 MR. DAVIS: Number one, Mr. Hanson to the best
25 of my knowledge hasn't identified a single document

1 that he believes is missing.

2 THE COURT: I just denied his motion.

3 MR. DAVIS: Okay.

4 THE COURT: In part with leave to amend if he
5 wants to file an amended motion that gives you a
6 specific list of what he thinks you're missing under 7 the rule.

8 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

9 THE COURT: So he doesn't have to file that 10 motion. He can choose to, but he should probably 11 wait until he gets your information, and if he gets 12 your information and he believes something is missing
13 he can file a motion with a specific list of what is 14 specifically missing under the mandatory disclosure
15 rule.

16 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am. I understand that. I
17 just to the extent that she has to incur fees to do
18 something previously done when he hasn't identified
19 anything. I will comply with the Court. I'm not 20 arguing with the Court. I just want to place that on 21 the record.

22 THE COURT: Did she swear -- did she sign that 23 under oath is his issue and I think -- I know you
24 have to do that. You're saying that she didn't 25 swear?

1 MR. HANSON: She -- there is a pleading, but the
2 pleading is strategically worded and doesn't comply
3 with the rule. It just says she doesn't have any 4 other financial interests in the last year from when 5 she signed it. Which they put it off from the 6 stipulated date of June until October and that's not 7 compliant with the rule. So she's swearing to 8 something, but it doesn't comply with the rule.

9 MR. DAVIS: She did swear in the original
10 certificate of compliance which is dated
11 October 22nd.

12 THE COURT: October 22nd of --

13 MR. DAVIS: -- 2024.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am. I believe that's --

16 THE COURT: I see it. Hold on.

17 MR. DAVIS: It should be 44.

18 THE COURT: I got it.

19 MR. HANSON: It's at Document No. 44?

20 THE COURT: Yes. So, Mr. Davis, pause for a
21 second. So look at Document 44, Mr. Hanson, and tell 22 me what you -- what issue you have with that?

23 MR. HANSON: I'm sorry. I got kicked out of 24 Hover here. I just have to ask, Your Honor, does it
25 concern you at all that Mr. Davis has such a problem

1 with the idea that you're asking him to swear to
2 something that just complies with the rule?

3 THE COURT: Absolutely not because he doesn't
4 want to commit perjury. He has not personally made
5 sure that his paralegal did not make a mistake and 6 accidentally didn't scan in one bank account. So he 7 wants to make sure before he, as an officer of the 8 Court, he's taken responsible for his paralegal. But 9 if I'm going to ask him as an officer of the Court,
10 which is subject to going to the Florida Bar, if he's 11 absolutely sure, he has the right to make sure that 12 his staff did it correctly. And I respect that he's 13 taking that extra precaution.

14 MR. DAVIS: If I may, one can really never know
15 for sure because I only have the documents in any 16 given case provided by my clients.

17 THE COURT: Okay. I don't see a problem with 18 this disclosure.

19 MR. HANSON: I'll show it to you, Your Honor.
20 It's very clear. In my motion I address it. So
21 the -- I'm sorry. I got kicked off the internet.

22 THE COURT: I want you to know you're at 23
23 minutes.

24 MR. HANSON: Just for my time?

25 THE COURT: Yeah, you're done.

1 MR. HANSON: When they've responded --

2 THE COURT: They've only talked five minutes.

3 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, can you give me a copy
4 of it?

5 THE COURT: I don't have a copy.

6 MR. DAVIS: Which one?

7 THE COURT: The certificate of mandatory
8 disclosure.

11 MR. DAVIS: I do.

12 THE COURT: He's got a copy. Just to let you
13 know where I'm going now, Mr. Hanson, unless you show
14 me some error in that I'm going to flip it and I'm 15 going to have you responsible for telling Mr. Davis
16 what is missing and then Mr. Davis will respond.

17 MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, so the -- each of 18 the --

19 THE COURT: And I do have it on my screen, so
20 I'm able to see it.

21 MR. HANSON: Okay. So if you're looking at the 22 motion, my problem is where does she swear to the 23 requirements that she has no other assets in any 24 other account besides what is disclosed for the 25 period described in the rule? Where does she swear

1 to that?

2 THE COURT: Mr. Davis, do you understand that
3 question?

4 MR. DAVIS: I do. I've been doing this for 5 almost 27 years and I don't know that she has the --
6 for example, I'm looking at one. No. 8, 12 months of 7 banking account statements. She provided Chase,
8 Fifth Third, Fifth Third, two of them are by minor
9 children. I don't think she has to say and none
10 other exists.

11 THE COURT: So the question is does the rule
12 state in addition to what you have to provided do you
13 have to say I also swear there is no other documents
14 that exist? And that's what I need to know. Do you 15 have a copy of the rule?

16 MR. DAVIS: I do.

17 THE COURT: I see what he's saying, he wants to 18 make sure there is a catchall, but I don't believe -- 19 I would be shocked that the rules says that because 20 people supplement throughout the case because things
21 do come up. For instance, the trial I'm in right
22 now, she just sold some jewelry in the last couple of 23 months. So she had to supplement the mandatory
24 disclosures because things come up while you are 25 trying the case.

1 MR. DAVIS: By identifying with particularly the 2 documents that are being delivered. Certifying the 3 date of service. Swear and affirm under oath
4 disclosure is complete, accurate and in compliance
5 with the rule and unless she indicates otherwise.

6 THE COURT: And you said that in your last
7 paragraph.

8 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I'm sorry. I'm sorry,
9 Your Honor. I'm denying the motion --

10 THE COURT: Stop.

11 MR. HANSON: They don't say that they don't have 12 any other interest accounts.

13 THE COURT: Stop.

14 MR. HANSON: This is the fraud. It's happening
15 right in front of you and you're allowing it.

16 THE COURT: Stop. Stop. The rule does not 17 require her to do that. So if you would like to get 18 that information from her you are more than 19 willing -- you can take her deposition and ask her.
20 The rule does not require it. They have complied
21 with the rule. I'm denying your motion without 22 prejudice. You may file an amended motion giving 23 Mr. Davis a list of the documents that you are 24 missing compliant to the rule and he will have 20
25 days to respond to them. All right. The next motion

1 is --

2 MR. HANSON: It says she must swear that you're
3 complying with the rule which means that you
4 completed all your --

5 THE COURT: She did swear.

6 MR. HANSON: Where does it say that?

7 THE COURT: Verification pursuant to Section
8 92.525 Florida Statutes. Under penalties of perjury
9 I declare that I have read the foregoing certificate
10 of compliance with mandatory disclosures and the 11 facts alleged are true and correct to the best of my 12 knowledge and that's what is required by the rule.

13 MR. HANSON: It doesn't say that she complied.
14 It just says it's true. It says that she said read
15 the rule and the facts in here are true.

16 THE COURT: This is the normal form that they 17 use. I'm moving on to the next motion.

18 MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, then you're 19 letting her get away with fraud. And it's -- that's 20 been happening for a long time --

21 THE COURT: Stop.

22 MR. HANSON: -- and it's unfortunate.

23 THE COURT: The first paragraph says she submits
24 the certificate of compliance with mandatory
25 disclosures as required by Florida Family Rule of Law

1 of Procedure 12.285 as described below. In support
2 of the certificate Wife states the following. She 3 states it all and she signs it.

5 THE COURT: Next motion. Mr. Hanson, I ruled.

6 MR. HANSON: -- my question is what's the 7 purpose of making her do that?

8 THE COURT: I've ruled. Take her deposition and 9 ask her that, if you want to. It's not required by 10 the rule. I can't make up the rules, Mr. Hanson.
11 The Legislature makes the rules. I follow them. So
12 if you have other questions and you want to make up
13 rules take her deposition and ask them.

14 The next motion is Husband's Respondent Motion
15 for Clarification on Court's 12/16/24 Email on Order/
16 Objection to Chase Subpoenas dated 12/30/24 by 17 Mr. Hanson. Mr. Hanson, what would you like me to do 18 with this motion?

19 MR. DAVIS: Your Honor, before move on, can I
20 ask one question clarifying as to whether I have an 21 obligation or not from the Court's last ruling?

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. DAVIS: You initially said she has to do a
24 new certificate of service. Is that no longer
25 required?

1 THE COURT: Correct. All right. What are you
2 asking for --

3 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, do I have any option to 4 get another judge involved?

5 THE COURT: No, you do not. I've already ruled
6 on your motion to disqualify me.

7 MR. HANSON: On this other motion I'd like you
8 to look at Document 97, please.

9 THE COURT: I have them printed. I printed all
10 your motions.

11 MR. HANSON: I'd like to go through Paragraph 12 35.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. HANSON: It says the parties stipulated to 15 exchange some discovery no later than June 28th, but
16 Mr. Davis --

17 THE COURT: Hold on. Mine is not matching
18 yours.

19 MR. HANSON: Docket 97 is a memo.

20 THE COURT: Oh, I apologize. Let me pull it up.
21 All right. I'm sorry, 35?

22 MR. HANSON: 35A, yes. I'd like to go through 23 the list and get answers from Mr. Davis about why we 24 all these actions that specifically delay. So what 25 was the reason --

1 THE COURT: You can't ask Mr. Davis questions.

2 MR. HANSON: Okay. Well, I would like the Court
3 to consider what's the reason for stipulating to do
4 something by June 28th and doing nothing for four 5 months?

6 MR. DAVIS: Is he asking me a question?

7 THE COURT: No.

8 MR. HANSON: I'm asking --

9 THE COURT: Hold on. I need to see if -- is 10 this the motion for -- your motion for clarification?

11 MR. HANSON: It's a memo in support of it, Your 12 Honor, Docket 97.

13 THE COURT: Let me see what you're asking for in 14 your motion to make sure because I thought you
15 were -- this was the whole --

16 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I'm trying to make an 17 argument.

18 THE COURT: You can't. You can only argue your 19 motion. So I'm going to see what relief you
20 requested from me to make sure you can ask these 21 questions. So you want me to overrule the objection
22 and allow Chase Bank subpoena issued.

23 MR. HANSON: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So let's do that. So let's 25 go. 77A why do you want me to change my ruling and

1 allow the Chase Bank subpoena to go out?

2 MR. HANSON: Number one, Your Honor, she -- we 3 should be in equal positions to evaluate the 4 postmarital agreement. It's supposed to be a fair
5 process. She has three years of my finances to look
6 at. I have one of hers.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hanson --

8 MR. HANSON: How is that fair, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: I'm going to deny that request
10 because I've already told you in court and in writing
11 right now your objection to the post-judgment
12 agreement is only ripe for trial. I have told you
13 numerous times if you want me to address the validity
14 of that you have got to file a motion and once I
15 review that motion if I agree with you, you would be 16 entitled to those financial documents. I'm not 17 saying that again. I've put it in writing and I've 18 told you. Right now I cannot challenge the validity
19 of the prejudgment or the post-judgment because there
20 is no motion in front of me.

21 MR. HANSON: But Your Honor --

22 THE COURT: Going to B.

23 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it's a mistake in view
24 of the law. May I explain?

25 THE COURT: Sure.

1 MR. HANSON: So disclosure matters, right,
2 disclosures occur in the State of Florida, right?

3 THE COURT: You can't ask me questions.

4 MR. HANSON: I disclosed everything to 5 Mrs. Hanson before we signed the PMA and she didn't 6 disclose anything to me.

7 THE COURT: File a motion.

8 MR. HANSON: But, Your Honor --

9 THE COURT: File a motion. I'm not saying it
10 again.

11 MR. HANSON: So, Your Honor, what I'm telling 12 you is, is that I shouldn't have to be robbed of the 13 protections of the PMA --

14 THE COURT: File a motion.

15 MR. HANSON: But it doesn't need a motion.

16 THE COURT: Yes, it does.

17 MR. HANSON: Once there is not disclosure --

18 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson.

19 MR. HANSON: Casto v. Casto -- may I tell you
20 the case law? Your Honor, I apologize. I'm not 21 trying to be disrespectful. My kids are involved and 22 I --

23 THE COURT: This has nothing to do with your 24 kids.

25 MR. HANSON: It has everything to do with my

1 kids. It has everything to do with my kids.

2 THE COURT: Go ahead. Show me the case.

3 MR. HANSON: Para Del Ray v. Para Del Ray
4 (phonetic) and it's cited --

5 THE COURT: I want you to show me case law that 6 says if I have not filed a motion to contest the 7 validity of an agreement I'm still entitled to 8 discovery. That's all I need to see.

9 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, there is the petition
10 where I'm saying that.

11 THE COURT: You can do that at the final
12 hearing, but you can't do it -- stop. You can do it
13 at the final hearing, but you haven't asked me to 14 look at it before the final hearing. It's so simple.

15 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I need to also put on 16 the record, I'm confused because I thought that your 17 assistant took this motion off of the calendar.

18 THE COURT: No. She showed me on four different
19 occasions that she told you, Mr. Hanson, these are 20 the four motions that are being heard. These are the 21 four motions that are being heard on April 13th. She 22 also told me that you kept saying that there was 23 another motion that was set for today, which clearly
24 was not. I went back and looked at my notes and I
25 looked at my notes in JAWS. These are the four

1 motions that we agreed to when we had a Zoom hearing.
2 Next is B. Husband respectfully requests that the 3 Court overrule the objection at least in part and 4 allow the subpoena to go out for at least three years
5 of records leading up to the entry of the PMA.
6 Again, that's denied. There is no motion in front of 7 me.

8 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I'd like to make an
9 oral motion for -- to void the PMA?

10 THE COURT: You need to list why, so Mr. Davis
11 can come in and tell me why it is valid.

12 MR. HANSON: Okay.

13 THE COURT: I can't just make him do that right
14 now.

15 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, may I finish explaining 16 the case law?

17 THE COURT: No. I want you to show me a case --

18 MR. HANSON: Para Del Ray --

19 THE COURT: Does it say -- stop. We have to 20 take turns. I want you to show me a case that says
21 if I am challenging the validity of a PMA and I don't 22 have a motion before the Court, can I ask the Court
23 to produce discovery?

24 MR. HANSON: Well, Fullerton (phonetic) is one
25 of them -- actually, Fullerton is perfect. I filed

1 it earlier.

2 THE COURT: Tell me what it says, Mr. Hanson.

3 MR. HANSON: Well, Fullerton was a case in the 4 PMA there was a term where it said neither party is 5 entitled to discovery. We don't have that term. And 6 in Fullerton the trial court even though there was a
7 term in the PMA that said neither party is entitled
8 to discovery the trial court still ordered discovery
9 to check into the reasonableness of the PMA which is 10 what I'm asking the Court to do.

11 THE COURT: I agree. File a motion.

12 MR. HANSON: I don't think there had been a
13 motion filed in it yet.

14 THE COURT: They filed a motion challenging the 15 PMA that's why it's before the Court. There is no
16 way --

17 MR. HANSON: It was a discovery issue in 18 Fullerton.

19 THE COURT: Give me the case.

20 MR. HANSON: Okay. I filed correspondence on it
21 earlier both Para Del Ray and Fullerton support this 22 and the idea is this, Your Honor, if there is not
23 disclosure then to determine whether it is reasonable
24 or unreasonable discovery is needed.

25 THE COURT: But you haven't even asked me to

1 look at the PMA and see if it's legal or challenge
2 it. You have to challenge -- right now you have a
3 valid PMA and until you ask me to look at it because 4 you're challenging it I can't address the discovery
5 issue.

6 MR. HANSON: By what rule?

7 THE COURT: Show me by what rule I can.

8 MR. HANSON: I mean, there is not --

9 THE COURT: This case is over.

10 MR. HANSON: There is not a rule that you can do
11 everything that you can do. There is rules against 12 things.

13 THE COURT: Once you sign a PMA you're settling
14 your case. It's over. All I need to do is enter a 15 final judgment. Stop.

16 MR. HANSON: There was no attorney involvement.

17 THE COURT: Then file a motion. I'm not saying
18 it again.

19 MR. HANSON: All right.

20 THE COURT: All right. No. C. Mr. Hanson, once
21 you enter into an agreement with your wife the case
22 is over. I enter a final judgment. Unless you ask
23 me to do something different.

24 MR. HANSON: I've been begging you, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Then file a motion.

1 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I don't want -- I don't 2 want her to go to jail for fraud. I'm not trying to 3 go through all of those things.

4 THE COURT: Because you file a motion doesn't
5 mean she's going to go to jail for fraud.

6 MR. HANSON: Things are bad enough with our
7 family. Do I have to go through and review text
8 messages and emails for years to demonstrate her
9 fraud?

10 THE COURT: All you have to do is file a motion
11 I'm challenging the PMA based on one, two, three,
12 four, five. Set it for a hearing. I'll decide if 13 there is some issues with it and then you can pursue
14 finding out what should happen. But I can't hear a
15 motion on the PMA when you haven't filed one. I'm 16 done. I'm not saying that again.

17 C, alternatively should the Court sustain Wife's
18 objection to the subpoena, Husband requests
19 clarification regarding how the Court handled
20 Mr. Davis' late filing of his post-hearing motion and 21 Mr. -- Mrs. Hodz's objection to same.

22 MR. HANSON: Right. So he's broken every 23 discovery rule and every ethical rule that I can 24 imagine. Files his memo late and you just review it
25 and do what he wants, but don't comment --

1 THE COURT: I don't recall if I reviewed it.

2 MR. HANSON: You told us that you did. You told
3 us you did during a hearing that you decided whether 4 you could review it or not --

5 THE COURT: Did I?

6 MR. DAVIS: I don't recall.

7 MR. HANSON: -- and you entered an order doing
8 exactly what he asked even though it was late and, I
9 mean, I don't know -- has there been any consequence
10 for any of these discovery violations?

11 THE COURT: I don't recall reviewing it. I can 12 review my notes, but if I didn't review it, I still 13 entered an order based on what my notes said. What 14 proof do you have that I used Mr. Davis' late filing
15 to support of drafting that order? What proof do you 16 have?

17 MR. HANSON: That you asked both parties to file
18 motions --

19 THE COURT: That's not my question. Mr. Hanson,
20 my question is how do you know if I reviewed that?
21 You said I told you I did.

22 MR. HANSON: Well, what else would have caused
23 you to rule in their favor when you needed both sides
24 to issue a memo to review and to decide how to review
25 it? Did my client -- did my attorney's motion make

1 you rule in their favor?

2 THE COURT: No. I look at my extensive notes
3 that I took from the hearing. I want to them to add
4 there position on it. And then I make my ruling
5 based on my notes and if I need additional 6 information from the memorandums I read them. All
7 right. Next is --

8 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, if I may, I know I only 9 have a little bit of time. I would like to get some 10 information about whether these things are okay with 11 the Court or not.

12 THE COURT: What is okay?

13 MR. HANSON: So stipulating to do something,
14 does that mean anything in this Court?

15 THE COURT: File a motion.

16 MR. HANSON: I'm just asking does it mean
17 anything?

18 THE COURT: Next. I'm moving to D.
19 Alternatively should the Court sustain Wife's
20 objection to these subpoenas. Husband requests
21 clarification on the order regarding its limitation
22 to Chase subpoenas and the timeline from when the 23 Court may address them. I'm not saying it again,
24 there is no motion in front of me on the PMA.
25 They're denied.

1 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I have additional
2 arguments that I want to make in favor of getting the 3 subpoena out.

4 THE COURT: You don't have a motion in front of 5 me to challenge the PMA. I'm not addressing it. E.

6 MR. HANSON: But, your Honor --

7 THE COURT: Stop. Alternatively should the 8 Court sustain Wife's objection to these subpoenas
9 Husband requests clarification on the Court's ruling
10 on Wife's litigation tactics discussed herein and on 11 Husband's argument under Florida Rule 12.380
12 supporting a waiver of the objection and the 13 acceptable. I am not waiving discovery. I'm not
14 saying that it's not proper. I'm just saying there
15 is no motion in front of me. And until there is a
16 motion in front of me that talks about the validity
17 of the PMA I'm not permitted to do anything else
18 because that's a signed valid contract that I should 19 be entering a final judgment on.

20 MR. HANSON: Even though there is no
21 disclosures?

22 THE COURT: I don't know because there is not a
23 motion in front of me.

24 MR. HANSON: There is many motions in front of 25 you.

1 THE COURT: I haven't read the PMA because
2 nobody has challenged it.

3 MR. DAVIS: Your Honor, may I add one thing?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MR. DAVIS: For purposes of the record the Court
6 already denied his motion for rehearing on this.

7 THE COURT: I know.

8 MR. HANSON: That's what I was confused about 9 why it's being heard.

10 MR. DAVIS: So timeline wise the motion for -- 11 the motion for clarification was filed before the 12 Court entered the order. So the Court entering the 13 order really makes the motion for clarification moot.

14 THE COURT: Is that the order I entered 15 yesterday?

16 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. HANSON: That's why I was confused. I
19 didn't look at this motion today because I thought
20 you cancelled it.

21 THE COURT: Perfect. So this is denied as moot
22 because I entered the motion for rehearing yesterday.

23 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I would just like to 24 say that if you would look at things in my favor on 25 one issue the case would be over. We would get the

1 records and move on. But instead my kids are getting
2 dragged through hell. Being lies told about them.
3 People are telling lies about me as -- insinuating
4 lies about me as a father. No one can name anything
5 negative about what I have done as a father. No one
6 can name one problematic thing with my kids. They 7 want to send a guardian ad litem to them rather than 8 just asking the teachers how they're doing.

9 So what this Court is doing in prolonging this 10 and, you know, you say that there is nothing that 11 allows you to allow me to get a subpoena. There are 12 discovery violations that allow you to overrule their 13 objections and that's one of the arguments I wanted
14 to make, but I thought we weren't hearing this today.
15 But I want to go through at least 15 discovery
16 violations that they've made.

17 THE COURT: I've already ruled.

18 MR. HANSON: And the rule that says that the 19 Court may overrule an objection to discovery based 20 upon discovery violations. If there is ever a time 21 in history to use that rule it's this time when the 22 only issue is the records that are at issue with the 23 subpoena and they've committed 15 discovery
24 violations specifically to delay and conceal that.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Where is that in your motion?

1 MR. HANSON: It's in the motion. Your Honor,
2 what is the motion that you're looking at?

3 THE COURT: I already denied that as moot
4 because I entered the motion for rehearing yesterday.

5 MR. HANSON: You just asked me what the argument
6 was and now you don't want to know?

7 THE COURT: I can't. Mr. Davis just brought to 8 my attention that when I ruled on the motion for 9 rehearing yesterday this deemed this moot and he's 10 correct. So next.

11 MR. HANSON: So you don't care about the 12 discovery violation? That's all okay with this 13 Court?

14 THE COURT: I didn't say that. I don't see you
15 listing 15 --

16 MR. HANSON: It's in the motion. I guarantee
17 it. I'm flustered because I don't know what number 18 it is.

19 THE COURT: This is not about 15 discovery
20 violations. This is about you asking me to clarify
21 why I would not allow the Chase subpoenas to go out.
22 And I ruled on that yesterday with my motion for 23 rehearing. And, again, the reason that I do not
24 allow the Chase subpoenas to go over is there no
25 motion in front of me contesting the validity of the

1 PMA.

2 MR. HANSON: And why is it that the discovery
3 violations don't justify overruling their objection?

4 THE COURT: File a motion.

5 MR. HANSON: It's in the motion that's what I'm 6 telling you. It's in the motion.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Davis?

8 MR. HANSON: I guarantee you it's in the motion,
9 Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. But this motion is moot based 11 on the fact that I entered the order on the rehearing
12 yesterday.

13 MR. HANSON: So you denied it based upon -- but 14 now you're telling me that there is an argument that 15 I didn't really address. You can't tell me why you
16 didn't overrule their objection because of the 15
17 discovery violations specifically designed to conceal
18 the records that I want.

19 THE COURT: You can't have the records because 20 there is not a motion in front of me.

21 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, the motion asks for 22 exactly what you're saying --

23 MR. DAVIS: I just want to say the irony of 24 Mr. Hanson continuing to address the issue regarding 25 the records being provided late, it's res judicata.

1 It's already been adjudicated by the Court. The
2 Court granted his motion to compel. The Court found
3 they were late. The Court found an entitlement to 4 fees. He won. I don't understand why this has to be 5 a continued issue.

6 MR. HANSON: Clearly they're hiding something.
7 The issue when they wouldn't swear what's in the 8 rule, I just that flabbergasts me, that the Court is 9 what you did is good enough.

10 THE COURT: It's not required by the rule, sir.
11 I can only enforce the law. The rule does not say
12 that they have to make that statement. I cannot just 13 make up law by myself. I have to follow the law.
14 The final motion is Wife's Motion to Strike Husband's 15 Appearing on Motion Still Pending Related to 16 Discovery June 24th and for Award of Attorney's Fees
17 and Costs and Suit Money. Mr. Davis?

18 MR. DAVIS: That's not the one set.

19 THE COURT: Oh, did I grab the wrong one. Maybe
20 she printed the wrong one.

21 MR. DAVIS: The one that is set is our objection
22 to second request for production and motion for 23 protective order. It's documented as one --

24 THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. One what?

25 MR. DAVIS: It's Wife's objection --

1 THE COURT: It's 110.

2 MR. DAVIS: Oh, I'm sorry.

3 THE COURT: No, that's his objection. I know
4 the numbers by heart. It's 101.

5 MR. DAVIS: It is 101. I thought I had it wrong
6 on my notice of hearing.

7 THE COURT: Let me correct it. It's Wife's
8 Objection to Husband's Second Request for Production
9 of Documents and Motion for Protective Order. Mr.
10 Davis?

11 MR. DAVIS: Has the Court had an opportunity to 12 review it?

13 THE COURT: No. But go ahead.

14 MR. DAVIS: I really think it speaks for itself
15 and I was just trying to save time. Paragraph one,
16 Mr. Hanson asks for all documents that support Wife
17 made any disclosure of her financial interests that 18 may support enforceability of the postnuptial
19 agreement and I objected to it as being vague.

20 THE COURT: Response?

21 MR. HANSON: I don't think there is anything
22 that she disclosed. The only thing that she 23 disclosed a couple of months before the postmarital
24 agreement was signed she didn't -- she took the 25 lowest withholdings from her paychecks for three or

1 four years in a row. She did it again in 2022 and 2 her bill was about $18,000. She said she didn't have 3 enough money to pay the $18,000 and --

4 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, they're objecting based 5 on the fact that it's vague. Is it vague or not?

6 MR. HANSON: No, it's not vague. If they're 7 saying that that they disclosed anything, if they 8 didn't disclose anything, which I think they didn't,
9 then they just say none. I'm asking anything that 10 you disclosed about finances.

11 THE COURT: Any and all documents that support
12 that Wife made any disclosure of financials. That's 13 all about the PMA again.

14 MR. HANSON: Right.

15 MR. DAVIS: It's also an enforcement proceeding.
16 It's not post-judgment. It's prejudgment. There is 17 nothing to enforce. It's a valid contract unless or 18 until Mr. Hanson files a motion for it to be set
19 aside and if the Court grants it.

20 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Number two,
21 Mr. Davis?

22 MR. DAVIS: Mr. Hanson is seeking from 23 Mrs. Hanson communications between me or any 24 representative of my law firm. And (A) any 25 representatives from Harris Hunt & Derr. (B) any

1 representatives of Cortes Hodz Family Law Mediation,
2 including text messages, et cetera. It's not
3 relevant. It's not reasonably calculated to lead to 4 admissible evidence. It's a fishing expedition and 5 only sought for purposes of harassing, annoying and 6 frustrating Mrs. Hanson.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, response?

8 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, there is one issue in 9 the case, everything I do to ask for to try to get it
10 resolved Mr. Davis delays it. He scares my attorneys 11 off. The Court denies it. So I'm just trying to get 12 information. I know how dirty his behavior has been 13 and I'm documenting it. It's going to the Florida
14 Bar. It's going to be published. It's going to 15 be -- I have -- all I'm doing is telling the truth.

16 So I'm going to say it as loudly and as many 17 places as I can and it's just another example of me
18 trying to get information and anything that relates 19 to what they're hiding they find a way to delay it.
20 Or they find a way for you to say, no, I can't do
21 that. So it's just another -- I wouldn't ask for it
22 if I didn't think it was admissible or would lead to 23 admissible evidence.

24 THE COURT: Number three, Mr. Davis.

25 MR. DAVIS: All communications between

1 Petitioner and Scott Davis and any representative
2 from his law firm. And just for the record there are 3 two law firms over the course of this representation.
4 My prior law firm DML Attorneys, PA and my current
5 law firm. Enclosing any records or documents
6 referencing a timeline or strategy for producing
7 documents in the manner to cause delay or accomplish
8 concealment and/or offering any explanation that 9 Mrs. Hanson about the timeline for production of 10 records and/or strategy to delay production of 11 records or accomplish concealment.

12 Number one, the request is vague. Number two,
13 it's not relevant to the subject matter of the 14 pending action because at least in part the Court
15 granted the motion to compel. This issue should be 16 deemed to be over. This is a fishing expedition.
17 It's only sought for purposes of harassing, annoying
18 or frustrating Mrs. Hanson. It's not reasonably
19 calculated to lead to admissible evidence.

20 Communications between Ms. Hanson and me or anyone
21 with my firm, and right now I'm on my own except a
22 contract paralegal, fall within attorney/client
23 privilege and/or Work Product Doctrine. So -- and I
24 just noted because Mr. Hanson made this note in his 25 request for privileged objections send a request of

1 production the party claiming the privilege is 2 required to file a privilege log, but not until after 3 the Court has already ruled on other legal 4 objections.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, response?

6 MR. HANSON: The same thing, Your Honor. I'm 7 trying to figure out what they're doing with these 8 records, how they -- what records Mrs. Hanson had and 9 what records Mr. Davis had at which times because 10 someone strategically trickled documents. Someone
11 gradually put out the records in a very specific way
12 to kind of make it look suspicious and then make it a
13 couple of more months and then, you know, my attorney
14 would now say we have to go through sending a good
15 faith letter and it's been since October 28th that I
16 had the order and then just today finally the 17 enforcement and contempt is heard and they're not to 18 comply with the rule. So the timing of it, Your 19 Honor, it's -- I have one goal. To be able to move
20 on and co-parent with Mrs. Hanson and that requires
21 getting some of these answers. So everything that 22 I'm asking for is relevant and critical to our 23 family's well-being.

24 The sooner the Court would consider that rather 25 than just say I'm not going to order it because there

1 is nothing that says I can I would appreciate it,
2 but, you know, all I can do is keep telling the truth
3 but --

4 THE COURT: But, Mr. Hanson, it would be really
5 scary if I all of a sudden started making up rules
6 and laws and enforcing them. I mean, that's why we 7 have the Legislature they give me these rule books
8 and give me statutes and --

9 MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

10 THE COURT: Stop. They give me the case law. I
11 have to follow them. And you talk about due process, 12 you need to know what Mr. Davis is going to come in 13 and ask me and Mr. Davis needs to know what you are 14 going to come in and ask me so that they can prepare.
15 So I've tried to work with you as much as I can, but 16 I have to follow the law. That's my only job.

17 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I had entire motions
18 with the basis of the motion was Mr. Davis' conduct
19 and you didn't even make him come.

20 THE COURT: The motion --

21 MR. HANSON: So you're telling me we can only 22 talk about what's in the motion.

23 THE COURT: Correct.

24 MR. HANSON: And I pleaded with the Court to 25 have Mr. Davis come so we can get some answers and

1 see if I can even get a third attorney. Or if it's 2 going to be the same thing where, you know, my first
3 two attorneys had the conversation with Mr. Davis and 4 it went from easy to get the records to it will be
5 impossible. And I've asked the Court time and time
6 again to investigate what happened with those 7 conversations so that we have answers --

8 THE COURT: I can't do that. I'm not 9 permitted --

10 MR. HANSON: You're not permitted --

11 THE COURT: -- to investigate what Mr. Davis
12 talked about to any lawyer in Hillsborough County.

13 MR. HANSON: In a case that's before you where 14 I'm alleging misconduct --

15 THE COURT: What misconduct are you alleging?

16 MR. HANSON: I'm alleging that he's 17 intentionally concealing documents. He's 18 intentionally doing things for the purpose of delay,
19 burden and harassment. I'm --

20 THE COURT: What evidence do you have on that?

21 MR. HANSON: I have the strategic trickle of 22 documents. I have the pattern of doing nothing for 23 four months in response to the one thing that I
24 needed.

25 THE COURT: And I already gave you fees on that.

1 MR. HANSON: I have strategically drafted
2 certificate of noncompliance. I have the fact that I
3 know that they tried to leverage a holiday schedule
4 for the kids.

5 MR. DAVIS: Absolutely not true and I will
6 welcome him to bring in Ms. Hodz to testify because 7 that's absolutely not true.

8 MR. HANSON: Ms. Hodz told me that unless I
9 cooperated with them on the holiday schedule they 10 weren't going to be sending over any additional 11 records even though there is an order requiring them 12 to.

13 THE COURT: And I ruled in your favor and gave 14 you fees on that. You already won that, sir.

15 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, you're not making them
16 to swear what's in the rules. So I don't know how I
17 won.

18 THE COURT: The rules do not require them to 19 swear to that.

20 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, of course --

21 THE COURT: Mr. Davis?

22 MR. DAVIS: Ma'am.

23 (Indiscernable crosstalk.)

24 MR. HANSON: -- you don't have to swear to it.

25 This is what you are supposed to do, but don't swear

1 to it.

2 THE COURT: They did swear to it. The rule does 3 not --

4 MR. HANSON: They didn't swear to what is in the 5 rule at all, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Take her deposition.

7 MR. HANSON: It doesn't matter what her
8 deposition says. They didn't swear to what's in the 9 rule. They flat out didn't do it.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hanson, show me in the 11 rule where it says that you must also swear that you
12 don't have anything other documents?

13 MR. HANSON: Okay. I will.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Davis, can you check your 15 calendar on 2/25?

16 MR. DAVIS: At what time, ma'am?

17 THE COURT: I have either 2 o'clock or 18 3 o'clock.

19 MR. DAVIS: Either one of those are fine.

20 THE COURT: All right. No, I'm going to do the 21 3 o'clock. And that's going to be on the order to 22 show cause, your motion and I'm going to finish this
23 Document 101. And I will have read it, so it will go 24 quick on that. Mr. Davis, do you have a copy of the 25 rule with you?

1 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Brandy, may I have that?

3 MR. DAVIS: My client wrote on the last page.

4 THE COURT: No, I can't look at that then.

5 MR. DAVIS: It's only committee notes.

6 THE COURT: I got it.

7 MR. DAVIS: Okay.

8 THE COURT: I don't want to see any notes.

9 MR. DAVIS: How long is that hearing, ma'am?

10 THE COURT: An hour. All right. It's in J.

11 All parties subject to automatic mandatory disclosure
12 must file with the Court a certificate of compliance.
13 And it lists the form identifying with particularity
14 the documents that have been delivered and certify
15 the date of service of the financial affidavit and 16 documents by that party. The party must swear or 17 firm under oath that the disclosure is complete,
18 accurate and in compliance with this rule. Unless 19 the party indicates otherwise with specificity in the 20 certificate of compliance.

21 MR. HANSON: I mean, that couldn't be more
22 clear. And that's what they're trying to avoid and 23 why isn't the Court curious about why they're trying 24 to avoid that? Why is that big deal?

25 THE COURT: I don't believe they're trying to do

1 that. I think it's a form that Mr. Davis used that
2 he filled out. So would you like them to amend it
3 and use that exact language when she signs it?

4 MR. HANSON: Of course, I would like for them to 5 swear to what is required in the rule. I don't think 6 that's a crazy thing to ask for.

7 THE COURT: You can have that. Will you just 8 put in the last paragraph that language and have her
9 sign it?

10 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Done.

12 MR. HANSON: I don't know what that language is,
13 but I'll look at it, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: No, it's what the rule says. You
15 just paraphrased it, Mr. Davis.

16 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

17 MR. HANSON: They're clearly trying to avoid it.
18 They have been in violation of an order since
19 October 28th because of this, so I would like fees
20 and costs on that, too, Your Honor. It would have 21 taken two minutes to fix that. I've asked --

22 MR. DAVIS: The Court already denied the motion
23 and he's asking for fee.

24 THE COURT: I'm asking you if you will do that.

25 MR. DAVIS: Sure.

1 THE COURT: That motion is moot because I
2 already did the motion for rehearing. But I'm asking
3 Mr. Davis even though there is not a motion in front
4 of me would he please do that to make you happy and 5 satisfy you. He's stipulating and agreeing to do
6 that. So that will be done. So maybe you just need
7 to update your form and I know we get accustomed to 8 forms and that might have been updated in 2024 and 9 you didn't notice it.

10 MR. HANSON: Will there be an order on that,
11 Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 MR. HANSON: Can I draft it and send it to you?

14 THE COURT: Well, I don't know what your -- 15 yeah.

16 MR. HANSON: I'm going to draft something that 17 says they comply with the rule and make it specific 18 where they actually have to comply with the rule.

19 THE COURT: You can -- you did an ore tenus
20 motion to which they stipulated to. I did not rule
21 on it. They're going to amend their certificate of 22 mandatory disclosure to use the specific language in 23 the rule and refile it. If you want to send me an 24 order on your ore tenus motion that they stipulated 25 that they will use the exact language in the rule and

1 will refile it. I'm happy to do that. Send it to me
2 in Word, please. And then as far as your other
3 motion I'm going to stamp it as moot due to the fact
4 of rehearing. And then Mr. Davis you will prepare
5 the order on the first one I heard. The second
6 motion we're going to hear when I come back.
7 Mr. Hanson, I'm setting an order to show cause
8 hearing for 3 p.m. on 2/24.

9 MR. HANSON: So, Your Honor, getting --

10 THE COURT: That was the wrong date. Hold on.

11 MR. HANSON: So the objections were overruled.

12 THE COURT: I can't finish them. So we're going
13 to come back 2/25 at 2 o'clock -- I meant 2 o'clock.
14 I meant three. I apologize 3 p.m. on 2/25.

15 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: In person and in my courtroom.

17 MR. HANSON: So, Your Honor, the objections to 18 the motion to compel are going to be heard at that 19 time.

20 THE COURT: Five through however many there are.
21 I've just heard four.

22 MR. HANSON: What happened to the first one?

23 THE COURT: I didn't rule on them yet.

24 MR. DAVIS: It's not the motion to compel. It's 25 the objections.

1 THE COURT: Objections. We are going to come
2 back and I'm going to hear the objections and finish
3 the objections. I will have read it. My JA
4 accidently printed the wrong one. I read the wrong
5 document. I'll have read it. So we can quickly get 6 through that and then we are going to do an order to 7 show cause as to why I shouldn't limit both of your 8 communications with my JA. Mr. Davis is filing a
9 motion to limit your two communications. I'm going
10 to hear that and that's it. And then I'll see you
11 back.

12 MR. DAVIS: I thought the Court was doing an 13 order to show cause as to both. Also our 14 communications with each other. I really won't need
15 to file a motion if the Court is doing that. I mean,
16 I had one almost done, but I don't really need to if 17 the Court is doing it.

18 THE COURT: I was going to do an order to show
19 cause, so I'll do it. If you want to file a motion
20 you can. But I'm not setting it because it's not 21 filed.

22 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

23 MR. HANSON: The only things that will be heard 24 on 2/25 at 3 p.m. is the rest of the objections and 25 the order to show cause stuff?

1 THE COURT: Order to show cause is going to be
2 two parts. One is going to be with respect to the 3 communications with my JA and then the communications
4 between the two of you and you are going to argue
5 that amongst the two of you to me.

6 MR. HANSON: And there is two requests to 7 produce that I've issued, are we going to do the 8 objections on both of them at that time?

9 THE COURT: No. We're only doing the one that I
10 didn't finish today.

11 MR. HANSON: Okay.

12 THE COURT: And then we've got four motions I 13 believe off the top of my head scheduled for 14 April 13th.

15 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: If you want anything else scheduled
17 reach out to my JA, tell me the docket number and 18 I'll tell you how we are going to reschedule it or 19 schedule it. Mr. Davis?

20 MR. DAVIS: I just want the Court to know that I
21 am not going to argue against the order to show
22 cause. I'm absolutely fine with the Court doing both
23 of the things that are contemplated even though I
24 haven't read it, but limiting communication.

25 THE COURT: You want to think about it I'm

1 certain.

2 MR. HANSON: I think that our communications are 3 very telling.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So when we come back we will 5 talk about it.

6 MR. HANSON: And I think everything he's written
7 has a good story.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So then when we come back
9 he's already stated that he wants it limited. So
10 when we come back you can tell me to how many per 11 day, Mr. Davis, and then you'll tell me how you don't 12 want them limited and then I'll make a ruling.

13 MR. HANSON: Just so I know, Your Honor -- I'll 14 research it.

15 THE COURT: Yeah. I have to go because I'm in 16 the middle of a trial.

17 (Thereupon, these proceedings were concluded at 1:48 p.m.)
