(2) THE COURT: All right. Appearances for the record
(3) starting with Petitioner, please.

(4) MR. DAVIS: Scott Davis, counsel for Petitioner,
(5) Sarah Hanson?

(6) THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon, Mr. Davis.
(7) How are you?

(8) MR. DAVIS: Good afternoon, your Honor. I'm well.
(9) How are you, sir?

(10) THE COURT: Good, thank you. And good afternoon,
(11) Ms. Hanson. How are you?

(12) MS. HANSON: Good afternoon, your Honor. Thank you.

(13) THE COURT: And for the Respondent. Sorry,
(14) Mr. Hanson, go ahead.

(15) MR. HANSON: That's okay. It's Chris Hanson for
(16) the Respondent and as the Respondent.

(17) THE COURT: Good afternoon. How are you doing?

(18) MR. HANSON: I'm okay. Thanks, your Honor.

(19) THE COURT: Good. And, Madam court reporter, can you
(20) hear me all right?

(21) THE COURT REPORTER: Yes, your Honor.

(22) THE COURT: All right. Fantastic. All right. I
(23) have us here on a case management conference for
(24) scheduling; is that correct, Mr. Davis?

(25) MR. DAVIS: Yes, your Honor.

[Page 5]

(1) THE COURT: And is that what you have also,
(2) Mr. Hanson?

(3) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I do need to just place a
(4) standing objection if I may in terms of I don't know
(5) that there's ever an ordering lifting the stay, and also
(6) about the petition for writ of prohibition. So I think
(7) that any action here is void ab initio and object to any
(8) proceedings in the Thirteenth Circuit in this matter.

(9) THE COURT: Okay. I understand. I did see and note
(10) that there was a writ of prohibition filed -- prohibition
(11) filed, excuse me. I do not see any stay as a result of
(12) that writ. My understanding and belief is I have
(13) discretion to proceed with regards to that. So in the
(14) absence of a specific stay with regards to the writ of
(15) prohibition that I believe was filed either yesterday --
(16) was it yesterday, Mr. Hanson?

(17) MR. HANSON: It was late last night, your Honor.

(18) THE COURT: Okay. Understood. Then what I'm going
(19) to do, I'd like to get -- I'd like to get some time on the
(20) calendar, and, obviously, if we have further direction
(21) from the Second District Court of Appeals with regards to
(22) that we will, of course, heed their direction. But
(23) looking at the matters that are outstanding I believe we
(24) will at least need a full day. Is that your belief,
(25) Mr. Davis?

(1) MR. DAVIS: Probably, your Honor. However, I do have
(2) a concern. May I address it? It's not responsive to the
(3) Court's question per se.

(4) THE COURT: Sure.

(5) MR. DAVIS: The age of the matters that we need to
(6) have heard is very significant. The motion for guardian
(7) ad litem was filed on December 13th of '24. It's docket
(8) index number 69. It's 418 days old. The same as the
(9) motion for psychological evaluation. And then
(10) Ms. Hanson's motion for temporary relief filed January 6,
(11) '25 is 393 days old. And so they've been set for hearing
(12) twice with Judge Ayers not ruled on, with your Honor
(13) canceled because of Mr. Hanson's writ. But my concern is,
(14) sir, the significant delay in the proceedings. And I know
(15) how scheduling works and sometimes if we're going to take
(16) a day that's going to push it out further than maybe two
(17) half days. And I just -- technically, two out of three
(18) of those can be ruled on under 12.200 in a case management
(19) conference. But we just want to, you know, get the case
(20) moving, Judge, and get relief rather than the drag-stall
(21) delay that's been transpiring. Thank you.

(22) THE COURT: Okay. Let me --

(23) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, if I may respond.

(24) THE COURT: Yes.

(25) MR. HANSON: So the thing that's been pending the

[Page 7]

(1) longest is the only real dispute between us and that's the
(2) financial discovery. And if you look at docket number 22
(3) in the family law case you'll see that before I even had
(4) an attorney I noted that she had concealed this income for
(5) years. This is marital income. And that was my only
(6) issue. And I knew it could get ugly so I pleaded with the
(7) Court and explained some health problems I was having at
(8) the time just pleading for efficiency. And under the law
(9) I now know it's perfectly clear that I'm entitled to those
(10) records. She admitted that she didn't make any
(11) disclosures at the time of the postnuptial agreement. And
(12) the law is just clear that I get them. She didn't want to
(13) give them to me and Mr. Davis helped her avoid giving them
(14) to me. And the Thirteenth Circuit Court has helped her
(15) avoid giving them to me. And the pain and damage that
(16) that's caused, that corruption, because that's what it is,
(17) it's fixing a case against what the law requires, and
(18) that's discovery in this matter. And the Court has
(19) prioritized and allowed wife and Mr. Davis to weaponize my
(20) kids baselessly talking about a guardian ad litem.
(21) Mr. Davis complains that it's been so many days since
(22) those matters were heard; I've offered in writing multiple
(23) times to appear for these psychological evaluations,
(24) appear for the vocational evaluation. I want to keep
(25) things out of my children's life. And the fact that now I

[Page 8]

(1) have this case pending against the Thirteenth Circuit
(2) where the Thirteenth Circuit has engaged in concealment of
(3) records to protect Judge Ayers. They failed to refute
(4) those allegations multiple times and they're represented
(5) by the Attorney General who's failed to refute those
(6) allegations even in formal pleadings and at a hearing and
(7) the animosity that I got in that first hearing on the
(8) public records case from Judge Frayman with whom --

(9) MR. DAVIS: I have to object at this point. It has
(10) nothing to do with what's before this Court. It's a
(11) completely different lawsuit.

(12) THE COURT: I understand. I understand. And,
(13) Mr. Hanson, I'm not saying that that's not relevant or an
(14) issue, okay, but for me and what's before me -- what I'm
(15) thinking is maybe I can give you guys a day and we go
(16) through all of this stuff again --

(17) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, and what I was getting at
(18) with all of that is that Mr. Davis talks about how long
(19) it's been pending since the December 13th, 2024 motions
(20) which were filed under clearly situations that violated
(21) the ethical rules, there's no need for them. They're
(22) retaliation. They're obstruction. The only thing that's (23) at issue is my financial discovery and their efforts to
(24) dispute it. Mr. Davis had a chance to write the order for
(25) the guardian ad litem and there's nothing in the record to

[Page 9]

(1) support it so he simply didn't do it and then Judge Ayers
(2) excused him from it. That's one of the motions that
(3) pending. So the Court doesn't have to make it so
(4) complicated. Allow the discovery that was always going to
(5) be allowed under the law and then see what that shows.
(6) See if what I've been saying all along that everything
(7) else is retaliation. See if that just magically
(8) resolves --

(9) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson --

(10) MR. HANSON: -- instead of putting me and my family
(11) through this guardian ad litem ridiculousness that is
(12) clearly just -- the record is perfectly consistent with
(13) everything that I've written in this case and there's no
(14) dispute from any judge or party about what I've said and
(15) I have to keep coming to court and playing like the
(16) guardian ad litem is a real issue. It is retaliation and
(17) obstruction.

(18) THE COURT: I've heard you say that and that's fine.
(19) I have no objection or problem with you making those
(20) arguments, but at a hearing. This is a case management
(21) conference. So I'm happy to hear, and I think I mentioned
(22) to you before with regards to the discovery issue, I have
(23) no problem ruling on that, but it has to be at a hearing
(24) where everyone is noticed and then we have the opportunity
(25) for a response. And that -- I'm just trying to get a

(1) hearing date on all of it right now. And if -- and if
(2) truly your position bears out that it's retaliatory, then
(3) I'll take that into consideration for ruling on anything
(4) but I want to have a hearing with due process where
(5) everyone is noticed and then we can proceed.

(6) MR. HANSON: Well, then, your Honor, I would ask for
(7) a short hearing to start with to address solely the
(8) discovery issues. Those have been pending the longest.
(9) My first filing before any attorneys in May of 2024
(10) addressed this discovery issue. Everything -- the only
(11) thing that I've done since, and I've waived any
(12) attorney-client privilege with both law firms that
(13) represented me, the only thing I've ever asked anyone to
(14) do is to get these records without having my kids get
(15) dragged into it.

(16) THE COURT: Okay.

(17) MR. HANSON: It's almost two years now. I think it's
(18) reasonable to ask for the discovery to go first because
(19) that's going to be the basis for all of my arguments on
(20) the guardian ad litem stuff is that it -- now I have the
(21) financial evidence that shows, okay, this is why they
(22) fudged the certification on the mandatory disclosures.
(23) I'll have the answers I need to make those arguments.
(24) It's unfair to put me in a position where I have to go
(25) argue about the guardian ad litem when they have been

[Page 11]

(1) successfully weaponizing the kids all along and I haven't
(2) been allowed my discovery to prove that.

(3) MR. DAVIS: Your Honor, this is why nothing gets done
(4) in this case. This is exactly why nothing gets done in
(5) this case because Mr. Hanson hijacks this case to make his
(6) complaints about everything but what's at issue. The
(7) primary issue in this case is these minor children.

(8) THE COURT: I understand. So both of you ask for
(9) different hearing times without knowing what I have
(10) available and how long I have available out there.

(11) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(12) THE COURT: Let me tell you guys what I have when I
(13) can offer you a full day. Okay. I have March 19th and
(14) 20th. Do either of these work for you guys?

(15) MR. DAVIS: No. I'm actually out of state.
(16) Unfortunately, that's spring break for kids. I'm sorry.

(17) THE COURT: No, that's all right. I understand.
(18) That's why I have it open because it was spring break.

(19) MR. DAVIS: I wish I did, but I don't.

(20) THE COURT: How about the 27th?

(21) MR. HANSON: I can't do the 27th. It's my brother's
(22) birthday and he's going to be in town from Michigan.

(23) THE COURT: Okay. How about the April 17th?

(24) MR. DAVIS: Works for me.

(25) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I can do April 17th, but I

[Page 12]

(1) would again say that if you have an hour block any time
(2) before that that's what will move the case forward.
(3) Forcing us to spend an entire day going through
(4) retaliatory and obstructive motions that anyone with a
(5) fair reasonable eye would look at this case and say this
(6) is all retaliation, they were trying to keep him from
(7) getting the records, it's really cruel to my family.

(8) MR. DAVIS: That's absolutely not true. And, you
(9) know, honestly, the Court should appoint a guardian ad
(10) litem now because he has filed litigation on behalf of his
(11) minor children against the Thirteenth Circuit. That
(12) necessitates a guardian ad litem being appointed.

(13) THE COURT: Why do you have such ill will towards my
(14) children, Mr. Davis?

(15) MS. HANSON: No.

(16) THE COURT: Stop, please. Everyone stop. Everyone
(17) stop, please. We're not addressing each other at the
(18) hearing.

(19) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, this is absolutely --

(20) THE COURT: We're not -- we're not addressing --

(21) MR. HANSON: You're in attendance. You're a
(22) defendant in my case. How can I expect you to be neutral
(23) with my children? You're a defendant.

(24) THE COURT: I understand.

(25) MR. HANSON: You've covered up concealment of

(1) records and you have a chance to help hide that further
(2) and you're the judge in my case. How is that fair to me?

(3) THE COURT: I understand. I have --

(4) MR. HANSON: Please answer my question, your Honor.
(5) I think due process requires an answer there.

(6) THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hanson, I was in the middle of
(7) starting my answer when you cut me off. Okay? So that
(8) issue has been addressed between counsel and I believe I
(9) have every right to proceed in this case. Okay? And I'm
(10) trying to proceed in this case.

(11) MR. HANSON: I think it's outrageous and completely
(12) violates my due process rights, but, you know, I'll go to
(13) federal court here soon.

(14) THE COURT: You have every right to address and
(15) proceed along the avenues that you think are necessary,
(16) sir. I've said from the beginning and I'm saying it
(17) again, my goal here is to move this case forward.

(18) MR. HANSON: Are you aware that the Thirteenth
(19) Circuit concealed records related to the December 13th,
(20) 2024 and January 9th, 2025 records that they did a bait
(21) and switch --

(22) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I am not going to be
(23) addressing any direct questions to the Court other than
(24) with regards to scheduling at this time.

(25) MR. HANSON: But it's part of the case.

(1) THE COURT: All right. Then as I said, we said the
(2) 17th; is that correct?

(3) MR. DAVIS: Yes, your Honor.

(4) THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hanson, you said you were
(5) available on the 17th?

(6) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I don't have anything on my
(7) calendar, I will tell you that, but is the Court refusing
(8) me an opportunity to address the discovery issues at a
(9) hearing before that?

(10) THE COURT: Is the Court refusing you an opportunity
(11) to address the discovery issues at a hearing before that.
(12) Mr. Davis, would you agree to setting that matter
(13) individually before?

(14) MR. DAVIS: No, sir, I do not, respectfully.
(15) Mr. Hanson has his own view of the case.

(16) THE COURT: Yes or no? That's fine.

(17) MR. DAVIS: No, sir, I do not.

(18) THE COURT: Okay. Then Mr. Hanson, we will address
(19) it on the 17th.

(20) MR. HANSON: But doesn't that tell you something,
(21) your Honor?

(22) THE COURT: Can I please --

(23) MR. HANSON: Doesn't that tell you something?

(24) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, please allow me to respond.
(25) Okay. We will address the issue on the 17th. If you

(1) believe that the result of that is prejudicial with
(2) regards to going forward, I promise you I'll hear those
(3) arguments. Okay?

(4) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, the idea of going forward
(5) with a hearing on the guardian ad litem with my discovery
(6) issue on the finances have been covered months earlier.
(7) It's been pending for months longer. They just delayed
(8) things for the first several months and then when I
(9) refused to back down that's when they attacked with the
(10) motions attacking my kids. Making me attend a hearing on
(11) a guardian ad litem for my children when it's clearly a
(12) weaponization and obstruction tactic before I even get a
(13) real hearing on the discovery issue it confirms the bias
(14) that is structural and requires withdrawal in this case.
(15) It shows that the Court is on board with delaying the
(16) discovery because that benefits wife and Mr. Davis's
(17) tactics. And I have a major issue with that on top of the
(18) direct structural conflict.

(19) MS. HANSON: I have a question. Can I ask the Court
(20) a question?

(21) THE COURT: One second, please. Mr. Hanson, I
(22) appreciate your position. I'm not saying I agree with it.
(23) I'm trying to get people at a hearing set to move the case
(24) forward. I understand you disagree. Ms. Hanson, you said
(25) you had a question?

(1) MS. HANSON: Yeah, I have a question on the
(2) scheduling. So I fully appreciate there's a pending writ
(3) that's up with the DCA. I fully -- I appreciate the Court
(4) getting us in on the date for April 17th. I was just
(5) going to ask, you know, obviously, this is procedural in
(6) scheduling, we have had two hearings canceled without any
(7) discussions, you know, based off of other filings. I was
(8) going to inquire of the Court, you know, even if the DCA,
(9) you know, enters a stay or request to show cause in the
(10) event that this is wound up, because, obviously, this
(11) hearing is set two months down so in the event that the
(12) DCA can make a decision before that time will the Court
(13) still preserve this date up until it's no longer feasible
(14) to have this date based off of whatever the Second DCA
(15) says is my request or inquiry.

(16) THE COURT: I don't want to give an opinion as to
(17) what hasn't happened yet or whatnot, but, you know, my
(18) intention would be to proceed if we can.

(19) MS. HANSON: Okay. And my concern, your Honor, just
(20) stems from, you know, once something gets canceled
(21) basically we'll have another CMC to try to have another
(22) hearing and then like everything is kind of being pushed
(23) back that way so I was just making an informal request to
(24) try and keep it on the calendar because if the DCA comes
(25) back with a ruling -- you know, just keep it on the

(1) calendar as long as possible without a cancellation or
(2) having even a new date put on even if it has to be
(3) canceled just to preserve this Court's time so we're not
(4) in December doing --

(5) THE COURT: I understand what you're saying but I'm
(6) not going to make any decisions on things that I
(7) don't -- I can't offer until I know -- I'm not going to
(8) make a blanket rule or say this will happen no matter what
(9) without knowing what else --

(10) MS. HANSON: Okay. I understand.

(11) THE COURT: Sorry. Okay. All right. Then,
(12) Mr. Davis will you do a notice of hearing?

(13) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(14) THE COURT: And I would like to address pending
(15) matters in the order that they were filed.

(16) MR. DAVIS: Okay.

(17) THE COURT: Does that make sense, Mr. Hanson?

(18) MR. HANSON: Yeah.

(19) THE COURT: I'm not saying if you agree, I apologize.
(20) I'm saying do you understand.

(21) MS. HANSON: What if they've been ruled on? What if
(22) they've already been ruled on?

(23) MR. DAVIS: I think that's -- you know, Mr. Hanson is
(24) arguing that there are motions that have, in fact, been
(25) ruled on by the Court's predecessor judge.

[Page 18]

(1) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, Judge Ayers did suppress
(2) some of the discovery requests that I make, the earliest
(3) ones. I don't know what the order is. There's two
(4) issues in the court. There's my request for discovery and
(5) then the efforts to obstruct, distract, conceal. That's
(6) all that is going on. I would just ask that the discovery
(7) be heard first and that occur first if the Court really is
(8) going to put all of that at one hearing. Isn't the
(9) importance of getting it right for the kids paramount
(10) where if I'm saying that I need this financial discovery
(11) that I've been asking for all along to make my argument
(12) on the guardian ad litem shouldn't the Court allow that to
(13) happen first?

(14) THE COURT: Okay. We'll do that first.

(15) MR. HANSON: Okay. So can we just do that next week
(16) or something, your Honor? This has been hanging over my
(17) head now for more than two years including before
(18) litigation and now with litigation almost two years. And
(19) that's the only issue. That's the only thing --
(20) everything will fall into place after that. Can we just
(21) do that today or next week?

(22) THE COURT: I've heard the request before. I asked
(23) Mr. Davis if he would agree to that and he said no so --

(24) MR. HANSON: But he's been concealing records and
(25) violating the ethical rules for years, for over a year.

(1) Why do we still give him an option?

(2) THE COURT: Well, I understand that that's your
(3) position but I'm going to have everything heard on April
(4) 17th.

(5) MR. HANSON: But he's not disputed that. I've made
(6) detailed public comments about everything that's happened
(7) and he says that it's all inaccurate and then I ask him
(8) for one sentence that's inaccurate and he can't give me
(9) one.

(10) MR. DAVIS: That's because I will not give him,
(11) Mr. Hanson, my valuable time in saying that the nonsense
(12) that he's been spewing for over a year is not true.

(13) THE COURT: We're here in a case management
(14) conference and, you know, once again, I haven't sworn
(15) anyone in, we're not taking testimony. This is for
(16) scheduling matters only.

(17) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it is unfair, it is
(18) prejudicial towards me and it demonstrates the Court's
(19) bias, that the Court will not address this discovery
(20) issue before bringing my kids into the very center of it.

(21) THE COURT: We're addressing your discovery issue
(22) first on the 17th.

(23) MR. HANSON: Right, but there's certainly an hour of
(24) time between now and then. I've asking the Court for
(25) efficiency for a year and a half, almost two years,

(1) telling the Court it was having a big impact, conflict
(2) within the family and finances and the stress levels at
(3) home. I mean, you can look at docket 22 that explains
(4) that issue and just pleads with the Court not to let
(5) exactly what's happened and worse happen. So isn't there
(6) an hour of time or half hour of time that the Court can
(7) give to address this discovery issue for me?

(8) THE COURT: I offered two earlier dates and there's
(9) conflicts, one of which was yours.

(10) MR. HANSON: Those are full days. Don't you have an
(11) hour of time somewhere that you could do this?

(12) THE COURT: I can give you a day on those days but as
(13) I said before, Mr. Davis is disagreeing on that.

(14) MR. HANSON: Yes, your Honor, but don't you need to
(15) discovery to have a hearing on the merits of something
(16) like bringing the state into kids' lives?

(17) THE COURT: As I've said to you before, I will
(18) totally hear that argument on the 17th.

(19) MR. HANSON: Right. But you could hear it
(20) beforehand, your Honor. You're just helping them put that
(21) discovery issue off, which is what they wanted all along.
(22) You have an hour of time on your calendar that you could
(23) give us. You don't want to because it helps you --

(24) MS. HANSON: I'm going to object to the harassment of
(25) the judge at this point.

[Page 21]

(1) THE COURT: Ms. Hanson, I appreciate it. It's not
(2) your standing to object. Mr. Hanson, I completely and
(3) totally disagree with you.

(4) MR. HANSON: Okay. Well --

(5) THE COURT: I have an hour. I've asked opposing
(6) counsel if he would agree to do that separately. Okay?

(7) MR. HANSON: You can force him to do it.

(8) THE COURT: But I want his consent -- please do not
(9) interrupt me, Mr. Hanson. I let you speak. I'm asking
(10) you to give me the same courtesy. Okay?

(11) MR. HANSON: Yes, your Honor.

(12) THE COURT: Thank you. I prefer to coordinate
(13) between the parties and the counsels with regards to
(14) hearings and Mr. Davis has not agreed to that. Okay. I
(15) understand that you don't think that's appropriate, you do
(16) not agree. That's why I'm doing -- I'm setting your
(17) matters first for the 17th.

(18) MR. HANSON: But then do I have to hear -- do we have
(19) to hear the guardian ad litem issue right after that?

(20) THE COURT: Everything is set for the 17th but if
(21) you --

(22) MR. HANSON: That's cruel. That's absolutely cruel,
(23) your Honor.

(24) THE COURT: Okay. I disagree. I apologize if you
(25) feel that way. I'm sorry. That's the way I'm going to

[Page 22]

(1) proceed. Okay?

(2) MR. HANSON: Have you noted my mini pleadings that
(3) explain all of the ethical and discovery violations of
(4) Mr. Davis?

(5) THE COURT: Have I noted? What do you mean by noted?

(6) MR. HANSON: Have you seen all of the discovery
(7) violations that have been unrefuted in Mr. Davis's
(8) pleadings that have gone unchecked? And the Court can't
(9) say, hey, Mr. Davis, you've got to make an hour for this
(10) discovery issue, Mr. Hanson has been asking for it for
(11) over a year, you need to make an hour for it? Or it's
(12) just up to Mr. Davis, if he wants to keep concealing the
(13) Court is going to let him keep concealing?

(14) THE COURT: We're talking about scheduling. I am --
(15) I am scheduling it for the 17th.

(16) MR. HANSON: Well, I think that that is a blatant
(17) demonstration of the Court's bias and the unfitness of the
(18) Thirteenth Circuit to rule over my family law case. I
(19) think it's cruel and --

(20) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, that's full request to
(21) change my decision.

(22) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I'm sorry, I was trying to
(23) finish something.

(24) THE COURT: I apologize. You're repeating yourself.
(25) I heard you say it's cruel and a violation --

[Page 23]

(1) MR. HANSON: I mean, it's a tyrannical situation
(2) where the judge -- the Courts just think they're above the
(3) law now and it's really, really concerning to me.

(4) THE COURT: I'm sorry that you feel that way. I'm
(5) setting it for the 17th. Mr. Davis, will you do a notice
(6) of hearing?

(7) MR. DAVIS: I will, sir. Thank you for your time.

(8) THE COURT: Thank you.

(9) (At 12:24 p.m., the proceeding was concluded.)
