

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA
FAMILY LAW DIVISION

CASE NO.: 2024-DR-001150
DIVISION: A

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF:

SARAH HANSON,
Petitioner/Wife,

and

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,
Respondent/Husband.

RESPONDENT/HUSBAND'S NOTICE OF FILING CERTIFIED TRANSCRIPT OF THE APRIL 17, 2026 MOTIONS HEARING

Respondent/Husband, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, appearing self-represented, hereby files the certified transcript of the April 17, 2026 motions hearing in this case, and in support states as follows:

1. TRANSCRIPT BEING FILED. Attached starting at page 5 of this filing is the certified transcript of the motions hearing held before the Honorable Matthew Felix on April 17, 2026, in the above-styled case (Case No. 2024-DR-001150).

Please note: The court reporter's cover page contains a typographical error, incorrectly identifying the venue as the Sixth Judicial Circuit in Pinellas County. However, the transcript correctly identifies the presiding judge as the Honorable Matthew Felix, the parties as Sarah Hanson and Christopher Hanson, and the case number as 2024-DR-001150, confirming it is the official record of the 13th Judicial Circuit proceedings.

2. PURPOSE OF THIS FILING. Respondent files this transcript so that the formal record of this case contains the verbatim record of the proceedings of April 17, 2026. The April 17, 2026 hearing has been expressly cited and quoted at material passages in Respondent's pending Request for Judicial Notice (Docket #303, filed May 18, 2026), and filing the transcript itself completes the record on which any ruling on that pending Request will be made.

3. PASSAGES IDENTIFIED BY RESPONDENT AS MATERIAL.

For the convenience of the Court and the parties — and without argument — Respondent identifies the following passages as material to matters currently pending and to matters expected at the May 29, 2026 hearing:

- a. Tr. p. 181, lines 5–8: The Court's statement, verbatim, "I can make the ruling without findings of facts, and if the Second DCA says I need to find facts, then I'll do so." This statement is quoted at paragraph 18(g) of Respondent's pending Request for Judicial Notice (Docket #303). It should be noted here that Respondent has appealed to the 2nd District Court of Appeal for relief on three occasions. There are a total of 12 orders issued by the 2nd District Court of Appeal. Every one of them fails to provide any analysis or justification for denying relief. In fact the vast majority of the Second District Court of Appeals orders have no particular judge attached to them.
- b. Tr. pp. 32–34, 42, 50, 53–56, 180–181, 187–188, 239–240, and 247: On-record requests by Respondent for findings of fact on the structural-conflict ground — specifically, that the presiding trial judge in this dissolution case is a named defendant in Respondent's parallel public-records mandamus action, Case No. 25-CA-010255, captioned Hanson v. Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Court, et al. The structural-conflict ground had previously been preserved at Docket entries #255 (Verified Motion to Disqualify All 13th Circuit Court Judges, filed 12-19-25, #257 (Motion to Vacate / For Rehearing, filed 01-12-26), #290 (Notice of Invocation of Constitutional Rights), and #294 (Notice of Filing Additional Evidence of Structural Conflict).
- c. Tr. 25:4–8: "What is the explanation for not taking me up on offering to sign medical releases, offering to go to your psych eval? I offered to have a court order entered..."

Tr. 46:20–21: "He has the option of getting my records. I've already signed releases..."

Tr. 121:21–22 (Davis Admission): "We need a guardian ad litem to look at his mental health records. He has offered to produce those to me. That is true."

This documentation confirms the bad faith litigation tactics, addressing Petitioner's and Davis's refusals of Respondent's offers to provide medical records, medical releases, attend evaluations, etc.

- d. Tr. 21:8–11: "...I've agreed to go to their psych eval, anything they want. I'll go to it, and I put that in writing for months and they haven't taken me up on it --"

Tr. 29:12–15 (Davis Admission): "Mr. Hanson is correct. He has said that he would take a psychological evaluation and he has said that he would do a vocational evaluation..."

Tr. 31:25–32:2: "And they've been on nearly for a year that I was willing to go, and they didn't do anything."

This provides the Court with critical information on the still pending, yet completely unnecessary and retaliatory motions for a psychological evaluation and vocational evaluation. Respondent has offered to attend voluntarily. Yet, Davis continues with the motions even though it makes sense to get those evaluations before allowing state intervention on happy healthy children.

- e. Tr. 125:21–24 - "And that's why Mr. Davis and Mrs. Hanson blocked their teachers from filling out child wellness forms.

Davis and Petitioner don't want information about how well they're doing..." Davis's refusal to allow the children's school to fill out child wellness forms.

4. AUTHENTICATION. The attached transcript is a true and correct copy of the certified transcript prepared of the proceedings of April 17, 2026, as received by Respondent from the court reporter.

5. RELATIONSHIP TO PENDING REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE AND OTHER RELIEF. Respondent notes that the April 17, 2026 transcript is critical to understanding the continuing injustices and due process violations as described in the Request for Judicial Notice (Docket #303, filed May 18, 2026). The transcript is attached here so that the Court has the underlying document in the Court's file rather than relying solely on identification by reference. Nothing in this Notice should be construed as supplementing, amending, or modifying Docket #303.

CERTIFICATION

I, Christopher Hanson, both as Respondent/Husband and as an officer of the Court, declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

(2) WHEREUPON, the following proceedings were
(3) stenographically reported and transcribed as follows:

(4) THE COURT: Good morning. We are here
(5) on Case Number 24-DR-1150. Hanson versus
(6) Hanson. Appearances for the record starting
(7) with the Petitioner/Wife, please.

(8) MR. DAVIS: Scott Davis, counsel for
(9) the Petitioner/Wife Sarah Hanson.

(10) THE COURT: Good morning, counsel. How
(11) are you?

(12) MR. DAVIS: Good morning, Judge. How
(13) are you?

(14) MS. HANSON: Sarah Hanson, Petitioner.
(15) Good morning.

(16) THE COURT: Good morning, Mrs. Hanson.
(17) How are you?

(18) MS. HANSON: Good. Thank you.

(19) THE COURT: For the Respondent, please.

(20) MR. HANSON: Christopher Hanson, both
(21) the Respondent and the attorney For
(22) Respondent.

(23) THE COURT: Good morning, sir. How are
(24) you doing?

(25) MR. HANSON: Doing okay.

(1) THE COURT: Good, good. All right.
(2) So, obviously, I have set on this matter
(3) today. I have it set for a full day, and I
(4) have 12 items listed for hearing today
(5) pursuant to the notice of hearing.

(6) Pursuant to the notice of hearing, like
(7) I said, there's 12 matters listed. I'm not
(8) going to read them on all. Before we went
(9) on the record, I received exhibits from the
(10) Petitioner/Wife, and I asked
(11) Respondent/Husband if he had his exhibit,
(12) and I believe there are some preliminary
(13) matters that you want to bring up; is that
(14) correct?

(15) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. I
(16) E-mailed your exhibits to your judicial
(17) assistant overnight really.

(18) THE COURT: Overnight? When was it?

(19) MR. HANSON: Starting around 6:00 p.m.
(20) last night, and then there's some a couple
(21) of days as well at 6:00 a.m. -- or 6:00 p.m.
(22) until about 4:00 a.m.

(23) THE COURT: Okay. So after we were
(24) closed?

(25) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

[Page 6]

(1) THE COURT: Okay.

(2) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

(3) THE COURT: Okay.

(4) MR. HANSON: But the first I received
(5) Mr. Davis' exhibits was this morning.

(6) THE COURT: I understand.

(7) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(8) THE COURT: But you are asking for the
(9) Court to print them out?

(10) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I didn't know
(11) that the Court needed them printed out. I
(12) apologize. The type of law that I did,
(13) everything was done by computers. There was
(14) very little paper. I'm sorry.

(15) THE COURT: No. I'm not asking for an
(16) apology. I'm asking if you reviewed my
(17) procedures.

(18) MR. HANSON: I'm sure I did at one
(19) point, Your Honor, but I think we are a
(20) little bit past notebooks and procedures in
(21) this case.

(22) THE COURT: Why do you say that?

(23) MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

(24) THE COURT: You're saying we don't have
(25) to follow procedures or use exhibits or --

[Page 7]

(1) MR. HANSON: Respectfully, Your Honor,
(2) I don't think that you have any interest in
(3) the truth or the law. I think you are
(4) hiding evidence that is critical to my
(5) case.

(6) THE COURT: Okay.

(7) MR. HANSON: I had to go through months
(8) of the most painful time in my life last
(9) night to prepare this hearing.

(10) THE COURT: I'm sorry. I don't
(11) understand. You said you had to go through
(12) months of the most painful time in your life
(13) last night.

(14) MR. HANSON: I had to go through text
(15) messages and things to prepare this hearing.

(16) THE COURT: Okay.

(17) MR. HANSON: Because I figured you
(18) would probably do what you've done all
(19) along, which is protect Mr. Davis and
(20) protect Judge Ayers.

(21) THE COURT: Okay.

(22) MR. HANSON: And the fact that you're
(23) continuing to do that, respectfully, Your
(24) Honor, is the most reprehensible thing I've
(25) ever seen a judge and an attorney do.

(1) THE COURT: Okay. I'm not sure how I
(2) can take that respectfully, but fine.

(3) MR. HANSON: Okay. No, I think that
(4) you should take as perhaps you shouldn't be
(5) in the case. I'm accusing you and the 13th
(6) Circuit of active, bad faith concealment a
(7) video that the judge made a critical part of
(8) the record in this case.

(9) THE COURT: I completely understand.

(10) MR. HANSON: Have you reviewed that
(11) video, Judge.

(12) THE COURT: I have reviewed your
(13) motion.

(14) MR. HANSON: Have you reviewed the
(15) video?

(16) THE COURT: I have not.

(17) MR. HANSON: Judge, we're here on the
(18) same motion today that Judge Ayers heard
(19) that day.

(20) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I --

(21) MR. HANSON: How is that critically
(22) relevant.

(23) THE COURT: I appreciate where you're
(24) going. What I'm asking is if you -- if you
(25) brought exhibits for me? That's the

(1) singular question that I'm asking.

(2) MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

(3) THE COURT: The reason I'm asking is
(4) because my procedures require them. I have
(5) 770 cases in my division. We do not print
(6) out everyone's exhibits before every
(7) hearing. It's not practical for us to do
(8) it, number one. And, number two, we
(9) certainly can't do it if we receive E-mails
(10) after hours and before we open.

(11) So that's the only thing I'm trying to
(12) figure out right now.

(13) MR. HANSON: And, Your Honor, I did not
(14) bring exhibits.

(15) THE COURT: Okay. And you're saying
(16) you didn't bring exhibits because it's your
(17) belief that I have no interest in following
(18) procedures or the law.

(19) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it's -- I
(20) don't believe that we should be going
(21) forward today. I think that the case is
(22) still on a stay. I informed your office of
(23) that early in the week. You could have
(24) lifted the stay.

(25) THE COURT: We had a hearing on that,

[Page 10]

(1) did we not?

(2) MR. HANSON: There's no order on it.

(3) THE COURT: That's not my question. My
(4) question is: Did we have a hearing on it?

(5) MR. HANSON: There was a hearing where
(6) it was addressed and at the last hearing I
(7) raised it. I didn't think there had been an
(8) order lifting the stay and I objected to
(9) proceeding.

(10) THE COURT: At the last hearing where
(11) we addressed it, did I make a determination
(12) of whether or not we would go forward?

(13) MR. HANSON: You allowed Mr. Davis to
(14) file a Notice of Hearing. Again, Your
(15) Honor, the case law that I've cited says
(16) that the law of the case is what's written
(17) in the orders. We don't make orders and
(18) follow them verbally.

(19) So that's the case law that I've relied
(20) on. And the bigger use the structural
(21) conflict where I already feel such intense
(22) animosity from you.

(23) THE COURT: I'm sorry about that. I
(24) apologize. It's not my intention.

(25) MR. HANSON: Yeah. You know, Your

(1) Honor, I'm -- you know, I'm here to do my
(2) best. My kids are the most important thing
(3) in my life, and there's nothing that I can
(4) apparently do to protect them. I'm doing
(5) the best I can.

(6) THE COURT: Okay.

(7) MR. HANSON: It's been two years I've
(8) been doing this and not one person has
(9) accused me of any wrongdoing.

(10) Judge Ayers filed a Bar complaint
(11) against me and the bar complaint consisted
(12) of citing two rules and then including a
(13) bunch of statements that I've made online.

(14) She didn't allege that any of them are
(15) false. My defense is that every statement
(16) that I made is true, and the bar has been
(17) sitting on that for five months --

(18) THE COURT: I'm not here to litigate
(19) the bar complaint. I did not make
(20) compliant. I'm not a part of that. I'm not
(21) here to litigate those issues.

(22) MR. HANSON: What I'm trying to tell
(23) you, Your Honor, is that I waived any
(24) attorney-client privilege with either
(25) attorney representing me. I came here with

(1) one problem. My story has been consistent
(2) every step of the way.

(3) Clearly, under the law, I'm entitled to
(4) these basic records. The Court has --

(5) THE COURT: That's what we're going to
(6) hear today, right?

(7) MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, it's
(8) animosity already and it's the course of
(9) events that have already taken place in the
(10) case where there's been so many chances to
(11) do the right thing. And if the Court -- for (12) example, the video. There is no basis to
(13) continue concealing that.

(14) The 13th Circuit hasn't even identified
(15) the communications that they're concealing
(16) related to the December 24th hearing when
(17) Judge Ayers colluded my own attorney to take
(18) her away on a day's notice because she
(19) didn't want to do the work anymore after
(20) talking with Mr. Davis.

(21) I don't have any answers that what was
(22) happening during the conferences with Mr.
(23) Davis and my attorneys --

(24) THE COURT: What case number is that?

(25) MR. HANSON: It's this case.

(1) THE COURT: The case against the 13th
(2) Judicial Circuit?

(3) MR. HANSON: No. It's this case
(4) against -- it's the Hanson V. Hanson case --

(5) MR. DAVIS: The dissolution, sir.

(6) THE COURT: We're here on the
(7) dissolution matter, correct?

(8) MR. HANSON: Yes. I'm telling you I
(9) was represented by two lawyers in the
(10) case.

(11) THE COURT: No, I understand that, but
(12) you're talking about the case against the
(13) 13th, correct?

(14) MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, they're
(15) inextricable. They're -- evidence that's
(16) relevant in this case is within the 13th
(17) Circuit's control and even though it's
(18) critically relevant to why we're here today,
(19) the 13th Circuit is baselessly concealing
(20) it, violating all of their responsibilities
(21) under the constitutional transparency like
(22) the rules don't apply to them.

(23) THE COURT: But you would agree that I
(24) can't order anything in that case, right? I
(25) don't represent --

(1) MR. HANSON: But you can order this
(2) case be transferred, Your Honor, and that's
(3) the only appropriate --

(4) THE COURT: But we've already had that
(5) motion. I ruled on that motion and you
(6) appealed that motion -- or that ruling.

(7) MR. HANSON: And, Your Honor, it wasn't
(8) denied on the merits. And I'm not being
(9) clear with what the Second DCA reviewed --

(10) THE COURT: But that's not me. That's
(11) the Second DCA.

(12) MR. HANSON: But you're asking me --

(13) THE COURT: We've already dealt with
(14) that.

(15) MR. HANSON: I don't agree that we've
(16) dealt with it, Your Honor. I don't think
(17) you can deal with the structural defect,
(18) especially, as it's getting more and more
(19) entrenched where this is the most animosity
(20) that I've felt from you in any hearing.
(21) And, you know, it's --

(22) THE COURT: I'm sorry. Because why?
(23) Why?

(24) MR. HANSON: Mr. Davis E-mailed me at
(25) 8:15 about notebooks and rubbing it in my

(1) face that I wasn't going to have a notebook
(2) for him today.

(3) THE COURT: And that's animosity from
(4) me? I'm sorry.

(5) MR. HANSON: No, it's the same issue
(6) that I feel like you came in with that
(7) animosity against me with where I'm --
(8) whether I brought a notebook in is so far
(9) irrelevant to what the issue is before the
(10) Court. It's a global issue. All I want is
(11) one thing. All they want to do is obstruct
(12) and conceal.

(13) All of these smaller motions that we
(14) may have to hear today, they're all
(15) distractions. They're all their efforts at
(16) concealment and obstruction and harassment
(17) and holding things over my head.

(18) And it's -- if we get into it, I'll
(19) make it perfectly clear on each one how the
(20) evidence couldn't possibly support that
(21) suddenly after months of just delaying, they
(22) need to file four motions as my attorney is
(23) getting withdrawn from me over my objection
(24) baselessly where I can't even inquire.

(25) Suddenly, that's when they need the

(1) motions. And the timelines that we'll talk
(2) about today, Your Honor, I left it all.
(3) It's so clear what's going on here, but it's
(4) so clear that the 13th Circuit isn't willing
(5) to see it because that would mean
(6) consequences for the internal people at the
(7) 13th Circuit.

(8) And, respectfully, it doesn't seem like
(9) the 13th Circuit is willing to entertain any
(10) reality where that happens. And it's really
(11) scary for me because this is my career.

(12) I never had an issue with any attorney
(13) or judge, any bar complaint against me or
(14) anyone else in 18 years. Never had a
(15) problem.

(16) And then this case comes along and it's
(17) a nightmare of two years and counting. And,
(18) Your Honor, I don't know what I did to bring
(19) that on. I think the first thing that, if
(20) we have to go forward today, is that May (21) 2024 filing where my position then is
(22) exactly what it is now.

(23) And I pleaded with the Court to not let
(24) it get ugly, and I could not have imagined
(25) how ugly it's gotten.

(1) THE COURT: Okay.

(2) MR. HANSON: And no sign of relief.

(3) THE COURT: Okay. Well, I do want to
(4) address, I apologize if you feel animosity.
(5) That was not my intention.

(6) More than anything else, I was asking
(7) for your exhibits so that I can do what I
(8) think I need to do today, which is
(9) adequately assess the motions under the law.
(10) And any animosity that you're feeling
(11) certainly is not my intention. I'm just
(12) asking if my procedures were being followed
(13) with regard to those exhibits and bringing
(14) me copies of those exhibits. Okay?

(15) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

(16) THE COURT: Okay. All right. So, as I
(17) understand it, your argument with regards to
(18) I'm not proceeding today has to do with an
(19) order looking to stay; is that correct?

(20) MR. HANSON: That would be the first
(21) layer, Your Honor. There is no stay that's
(22) entered, and the case law that I had cited
(23) in my motion -- Notice of Continuing
(24) Objection to Lift Stay, all stands for the
(25) requirement that the law of the case is in

(1) the orders. And the Court is without
(2) jurisdiction to proceed in the absence of
(3) formal order lifting the stay. And this
(4) isn't especially a solid stay in that the
(5) Second District Court of Appeal approved it.

(6) My plan this week was appeal to the
(7) Second DCA court lifting the stay, but I
(8) couldn't find it. So that's when I
(9) contacted the Court and asked about the
(10) status of the stay, and I didn't hear
(11) anything about it until yesterday afternoon
(12) when the judicial assistant told me that we
(13) wouldn't know until tomorrow.

(14) So I was expecting that we would get
(15) here and that we might talk about some
(16) preliminary matters. I mean, I prepared as
(17) best I could for more, but, you know, Your
(18) Honor, I just -- I've been trying to get
(19) discovery.

(20) Up until yesterday, they had not
(21) responded to any discovery at all in two
(22) years. They objected to everything I sent
(23) out. They didn't even follow the law and
(24) the requirements of mandatory disclosure.

(25) THE COURT: But, Mr. Hanson, you're

(1) arguing for this hearing not to go forward.
(2) And my understanding is that we will address
(3) some of those discovery issues at this
(4) hearing. So I'm not -- I'm not sure what
(5) you're asking for? Are you asking to
(6) address those issues or to continue this
(7) hearing?

(8) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, since you came
(9) on the case in June of 2025, I told you I
(10) did not envy the position you were in, but I
(11) told you that the discovery had to get
(12) ordered. My argument based upon the
(13) guardian ad litem is that it's not based in
(14) reality. There's nothing that is --
(15) especially given the timeline of when it was
(16) sought, there is nothing that could
(17) conceivably support it and it was in a
(18) retaliatory way right after my attorney had
(19) told me that to get them to comply with the
(20) pending order --

(21) THE COURT: I'm sorry to interrupt, Mr.
(22) Hanson, but I don't feel like you're
(23) addressing my question.

(24) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

(25) THE COURT: I feel like you're going

(1) off on -- my question, specifically, was --
(2) you're starting, you're starting to mention
(3) issues with regards to discovery not being
(4) addressed, but you're also asking for this
(5) hearing to be continued because of the no
(6) order lifting the stay.

(7) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I
(8) did go off on a bad tangent there. Please,
(9) feel free to interrupt me.

(10) What I was trying to get at was that we
(11) should address the discovery, let that go
(12) forward, and then we're moving things
(13) along --

(14) THE COURT: So, I'm sorry, a partial
(15) stay?

(16) MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

(17) THE COURT: Or --

(18) MR. HANSON: Simply getting the
(19) discovery going that should have been done
(20) going two years ago that Mr. Davis
(21) intentionally delayed, strategically
(22) trickled off documents to put off
(23) enforcement of an order.

(24) THE COURT: Help me out. Procedurally,
(25) how can I do that if you're saying we

(1) shouldn't go forward?

(2) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it's your
(3) courtroom. I'm telling you that that's the
(4) result that would move the case forward
(5) efficiently, and I wouldn't object to it.
(6) But if the Court is inclined to hear the
(7) guardian ad litem motion under these
(8) circumstances when my -- I've agreed to go
(9) to their psych eval, anything they want.
(10) I'll go to it, and I put that in writing for
(11) months and they haven't taken me up on it --

(12) THE COURT: Again, I'm still stuck
(13) procedurally understanding your position.

(14) MR. HANSON: My position, Your Honor,
(15) is that my arguments are based upon that
(16) what I've been requesting all along and that
(17) it was at issue long before they started
(18) filing their retaliatory stuff. If that can
(19) be addressed and ordered, Your Honor, I
(20) think that you can pause the stay momentary
(21) for me to issue the discovery, and then
(22) reinstitute the stay, if you want to.

(23) I think that you can pause -- or lift
(24) the stay and go forward with just ordering
(25) discovery. I don't even think that we need

(1) hearings on it, Your Honor. They've
(2) violated so many discovery rules that
(3) instead of holding them accountable for
(4) that, Judge Ayers didn't even make them
(5) follow the basic law for mandatory
(6) disclosures.

(7) So despite that being the only issue
(8) that I ask for, and them violating multiple
(9) discovery rules instead of what the order
(10) would require, which is sanctions, they get
(11) benefits. Because, clearly, they're trying
(12) to put out of discovery issue.

(13) Judge Ayers let them do less than
(14) what's required by the law and agreed with
(15) them on anything that I actually asked them
(16) to do beyond the mandatory stuff, so that
(17) stuff should be addressed. That stuff
(18) should be addressed immediately and start to
(19) get the case back on the right track or the
(20) case should be transferred.

(21) THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Davis, any
(22) response to the request to, I guess,
(23) continue this hearing because of an order
(24) not being entered on the last hearing, which
(25) I lifted the stay?

(1) MR. DAVIS: Well, yes, sir. The order
(2) wasn't entered. Mr. Hanson had numerous
(3) objections to the order. And rather than
(4) responding quickly, I decided to wait a
(5) little while before responding so that I was
(6) aware. And, unfortunately, it slipped
(7) through the cracks, and I didn't submit it.
(8) But everybody who has been involved in the
(9) case knows what the Court ruled.

(10) Additionally, I think what makes this
(11) issue really moot is that the Second
(12) District Court of Appeal affirmed the
(13) Court's denial of the transfer on April
(14) 15th. And that -- I don't know that it's
(15) made it to the Court file yet, but it's
(16) Exhibit 14 in Volume One of my exhibits.

(17) THE COURT: Okay.

(18) MR. DAVIS: I have lots to say about
(19) the other things, but I don't know that it's
(20) relevant. I will ask because we're now 20
(21) minutes into our first of eight hours
(22) reserved for the Court. And this is
(23) traditional; Mr. Hanson trying to
(24) filibuster, for lack of a better way of
(25) saying it, his way through not having the

(1) Court address the issues that are before the
(2) Court today.

(3) We have tried extensively to get our
(4) motions heard. They were previously set
(5) last April before Judge Ayers. We had a
(6) hearing; it wasn't finished. The Court was
(7) going to enter an order, but Mr. Hanson
(8) filed to disqualify her, so that didn't
(9) happen.

(10) Then we were set in August of 2025
(11) before this Court, and the issue came with
(12) the stay, and the Court continued the
(13) hearing. And we understand, we're not
(14) criticizing the Court, but we've been trying
(15) for over a year to get these issues heard,
(16) which is, respectfully, and this isn't
(17) directed towards the Court -- it's overall
(18) situation -- it's completely unreasonable.

(19) So we'd like to have our motions heard
(20) today and Mr. Hanson's.

(21) THE COURT: I believe there's 12
(22) motions set, and I see one, two, three,
(23) four, five, six -- six titled Wife's motions
(24) and six titled Husband's motions.

(25) MR. DAVIS: I haven't counted them,

(1) sir. I believe you're correct.

(2) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, if I may just
(3) respond to it -- to what Mr. Davis said
(4) there? What is the explanation for not
(5) taking me up on offering to sign medical
(6) releases, offering to go to your psych eval?
(7) I offered to have a court order entered,
(8) whatever you needed to get that resolved.
(9) And then if there were real concerns about
(10) the welfare of the kids, I just don't
(11) understand why you wouldn't take me up on
(12) that, and then you'd have it for the
(13) guardian ad litem argument.

(14) This was a year ago. It's not a year
(15) ago, several months ago when I first started
(16) offering this, so if the concern is not
(17) moving the case along, that demands an
(18) explanation.

(19) MR. DAVIS: Where there has to be who
(20) he's going to go to, the scope of the
(21) evaluation, who is going to pay for it.
(22) There's -- other than, "Sure, I'll go,"
(23) there are other things that have to be
(24) determined.

(25) MR. HANSON: But there is an effort

(1) made to my offer. There's no like, "Hey,
(2) we'd like for you to go."

(3) THE COURT: Hold on real quick. I hear
(4) what you're saying, Mr. Hanson. I assume
(5) that you're talking to the Court now, right?
(6) Because -- it was a response to Mr. Davis,
(7) but any communication between the two of you
(8) guys would be outside of court. I don't
(9) govern those things.

(10) I mean, if you are arguing that a
(11) position they're taking is contrary to their
(12) actions, that's fine. But I'm not assuming
(13) that there's dialogue going on between the
(14) two of you right now. Is that fair?

(15) MR. HANSON: I sent an E-mail now and
(16) then, but I don't talk to Mr. Davis on the
(17) phone.

(18) THE COURT: Oh, no. I wasn't implying
(19) communication was verbal in-person. I just
(20) meant communication, in general. It sounded
(21) to me like you were asking him a question.

(22) MR. HANSON: Oh, just right now?

(23) THE COURT: Yes.

(24) MR. HANSON: I apologize. I didn't
(25) mean to.

(1) THE COURT: Okay.

(2) MR. DAVIS: I was going to address in
(3) preliminary matters this morning those very
(4) issues and see if he wanted to stipulate on
(5) any of them, but we're still on Mr. Hanson's
(6) preliminary issues.

(7) THE COURT: Correct. All right.
(8) Anything else with regards to the
(9) continuation of this hearing with regards to
(10) the order lifting the stay. Mr. Davis?

(11) MR. DAVIS: No, sir.

(12) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson.

(13) MR. HANSON: The only thing that I
(14) would add is that I didn't have the
(15) opportunity to appeal it to the Second
(16) District. And I will be filing a motion for
(17) rehearing and a motion for formal written
(18) order and looking at appellate options for
(19) that -- that order, so that's not
(20) necessarily over.

(21) As to the stay, specifically, nothing
(22) other than what I've said, Your Honor.

(23) THE COURT: Okay. All right. I will
(24) note that the -- that we had discussed this.
(25) I don't believe there is any ambiguity in

(1) how the Court was proceeding.

(2) The notice of hearing was filed on
(3) February 16th is my understanding for this
(4) matter. While I understand your arguments,
(5) Mr. Hanson, I don't believe that there's
(6) any -- I don't believe that you are in a
(7) position of not knowing what the Court was
(8) doing absent a written order.

(9) I think you still have your appellate
(10) remedies. I'm not precluding any of that,
(11) so I'm going to go forward today.

(12) MR. HANSON: Only other thing I would
(13) add, if I may, Your Honor, is that by the
(14) time we attended the hearing, I didn't see
(15) an order lifting the stay, and I referenced
(16) that during the hearing, and then asked the
(17) question earlier this week, and didn't hear
(18) the result of the Court's order until this
(19) morning.

(20) I think that introduced the confusion
(21) where I truly didn't know. I didn't expect
(22) that we would be going forward today, so I
(23) just wanted to add that for the record, Your
(24) Honor. I understand you've ruled, but I
(25) wanted to make sure it's clear.

(1) THE COURT: Okay. All right. Any
(2) other preliminary -- I think you said you
(3) had a preliminary matter?

(4) MR. DAVIS: I do and I don't know what
(5) the Court wants to do about Mr. Hanson's
(6) exhibit issue, but I'm going to leave that
(7) to the discretion of the Court. I'm not
(8) going to make any arguments. Whatever the
(9) Court thinks is appropriate is -- we'll
(10) accept.

(11) With respect to preliminary matters,
(12) Mr. Hanson is correct. He has said that he
(13) would take a psychological evaluation and he
(14) has said that he would do a vocational
(15) evaluation, but the identity of who will do
(16) those and how extensive the psychological
(17) evaluation will be and who's going to pay
(18) for it is still an issue.

(19) I don't know if Mr. Hanson wants to
(20) address that and stipulate to that to take a
(21) couple of motions off the table. We're
(22) happy to or we can proceed. Whatever the
(23) Court and Mr. Hanson would like to do.

(24) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(25) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I wouldn't

(1) understand what authority there would be for
(2) me to pay for psychological evaluation that
(3) I don't think is necessary or appropriate.
(4) And I haven't researched that. You know,
(5) that wasn't placed at issue. We'll go to
(6) whoever I have to go to.

(7) I do workers' comp litigation, so I
(8) know that there's people that are on either
(9) side, and I believe there's generally some
(10) rules about a list of three sometimes --

(11) THE COURT: Sure. I've done that
(12) before.

(13) MR. HANSON: I've done some research
(14) about what my rights are, but as to -- I
(15) suppose it would just be the preliminary
(16) matter that I agree to whatever the law
(17) requires of me, and I would need to just
(18) research.

(19) THE COURT: Okay. So here's what we
(20) can do if there is an agreement for, you
(21) said, a voc and psych; is that correct?

(22) MR. DAVIS: Yes, Your Honor.

(23) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I still have a
(24) preliminary matter that hasn't been
(25) addressed.

(1) THE COURT: That we need to address
(2) before we handle this issue?

(3) MR. HANSON: Yes, before we handle any
(4) motions. I don't think that we should be
(5) getting into motions until all the
(6) preliminary issues are fully handled.

(7) THE COURT: Okay. I was trying --

(8) MR. DAVIS: If I may respond briefly.
(9) The authority is in Chapter 61 for payment
(10) of the voc eval and the psychological eval.
(11) It's in Chapter 61.

(12) And Mr. Hanson is now arguing, well, I
(13) wasn't on notice on that. I need additional
(14) time. I need to research it. These
(15) motions -- one, the psychological motion was
(16) filed in December of 2024. We're in 2026.
(17) I believe the voc eval motion was filed in
(18) January of '25. If I'm off, I'd be off by a
(19) handful of weeks. It might have been
(20) January.

(21) So the fact that we ask that the Court
(22) require Mr. Hanson to pay for these things,
(23) he's been on notice for well over a year.

(24) THE COURT: Okay.

(25) MR. HANSON: And they've been on nearly

(1) for a year that I was willing to go, and
(2) they didn't do anything.

(3) THE COURT: No, I understand.

(4) MR. HANSON: So I don't understand.

(5) The burden -- they're were the ones -- the
(6) ball was in their court. If they wanted to
(7) push the eval, they could have talked to me
(8) about it. They could have talked to the
(9) Court about it.

(10) MR. DAVIS: And he just told the Court
(11) that he wasn't willing to pay for it, which
(12) is exactly where I knew --

(13) MR. HANSON: I --

(14) MR. DAVIS: If I may speak? Which is
(15) exactly where I knew this was going to go.

(16) MR. HANSON: And, Your Honor, I still
(17) have the preliminary matter before I'm
(18) willing to get into any of these motions.

(19) THE COURT: MR. HANSON: The structural
(20) conflict, Your Honor. I filed some
(21) documents that really highlight the extent
(22) to which it exists and how clear the
(23) Constitution is that no man can sit as his
(24) own judge.

(25) The Court would need to make some

(1) finding that what I'm pursuing in the case
(2) against yourself, Your Honor, and the 13th
(3) Circuit is a sham lawsuit; otherwise, it's a
(4) structural conflict where there is a real
(5) conflict of interest.

(6) I can point out numerous ways in which
(7) your interests are now aligned with
(8) concealing what they've been concealing and
(9) continuing to conceal what Judge Ayers did
(10) and --

(11) THE COURT: And, I'm sorry, let me -- I
(12) just want to make sure I'm clear. When you
(13) say structural conflict, you mean the fact
(14) that you had sued the 13th Judicial and
(15) myself, and I'm still presiding over the
(16) family law case.

(17) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. That's a
(18) structural conflict and it's a particularly
(19) strong one because if you look at the
(20) documents I filed, I recently filed a motion
(21) for summary final order in the mandamus case
(22) against the 13th Circuit and yourself. And
(23) the Attorney General is representing the
(24) 13th Circuit.

(25) I had complained to the Attorney

(1) General's Office, asking them to investigate
(2) the 13th Circuit months before they started
(3) representing the 13th Circuit, and so
(4) there's that extra conflict of interest in
(5) there.

(6) And the 13th Circuit -- there's a
(7) motion for sanctions pending against you in
(8) the 13th Circuit, and the fact that I
(9) believe there is culpable animosity when I
(10) got in here today, that's why you can't have
(11) structural conflicts.

(12) And my family is not going to move on
(13) or heal with this type of proceeding where I
(14) simply don't believe that it is fair that I
(15) have any chance of getting a fair process.

(16) I think I've spoken now against
(17) powerful people, and there's a lot of
(18) retaliation coming my way. And, especially,
(19) when my kids are involved. They don't --
(20) they don't need to be in the middle of that.

(21) And as to the Florida Bar claim, I
(22) filed a lawsuit in the Second Circuit Court.
(23) And it's clear that the Florida Bar is
(24) concealing E-mails with Mr. Davis relating
(25) to his misconduct in this case and there's

(1) no good faith basis for it. I've --

(2) THE COURT: Is that part of the
(3) structural conflict that you're arguing at
(4) this point?

(5) MR. HANSON: It is, Your Honor, because
(6) Ayers' and Davis' misconduct is so
(7) intertwined. It was Ayers that was excusing
(8) him from attending hearings where his
(9) misconduct was at issue. It was Ayers who
(10) was calling him as a teddy bear rather than
(11) looking at the facts what was going on. It
(12) was Ayers that was interrupting me and
(13) refusing to allow me to speak about his
(14) misconduct.

(15) And the fact that the Florida Bar has
(16) covered that up and the Second Circuit judge
(17) in Tallahassee, there is no -- she refused
(18) jurisdiction. It's -- there is some
(19) questions in the law that are just yes or
(20) no. It's clear she has jurisdiction. She
(21) doesn't want to get on the wrong side of the
(22) Florida Bar, and she's not following the
(23) law. In the case against the 13th
(24) Circuit --

(25) THE COURT: You're talking about the

(1) Second District court judge, here?

(2) MR. HANSON: That's the Second District
(3) court judge where I had to appeal it to the
(4) First Circuit Court of Appeal. With the
(5) Sixth Circuit Court judges who were
(6) appointed as conflict judges, the first
(7) judge was Judge Frayman who literally muted
(8) me when I was only trying to make a record
(9) during the hearing.

(10) He raised defenses that the Attorney
(11) General had not raised for the 13th Circuit,
(12) ruled on them without letting me speak, and
(13) gave the 13th Circuit defendants and the
(14) Attorney General an additional 20 days that
(15) they weren't entitled to.

(16) So it's the first party presentation
(17) violation I've ever seen in my career where
(18) the judge steps into the role of defense
(19) attorney for the 13th Circuit, and I was
(20) able to get that judge disqualified.

(21) The next judge at the first hearing
(22) with him, he commits the second party
(23) presentation violation principle I've ever
(24) seen where he also stepped into defense
(25) counsel's shoes for the 13th Circuit and

(1) gave them another 20 days.

(2) MR. DAVIS: I, respectfully, have to
(3) object at this juncture. May I address the
(4) Court? It's a continuing filibuster. We're
(5) now 30 minutes into the hearing.

(6) THE COURT: I'm well aware of the time.
(7) That's why I set the full day.

(8) MR. DAVIS: It's 25 percent into our
(9) hearing already to make the same arguments
(10) he's made -- I've lost count of how many
(11) times --

(12) THE COURT: I understand.

(13) MR. DAVIS: -- because he doesn't want
(14) to address the issues that are set before
(15) the Court today. And we're just asking the
(16) Court to please address the issues that are
(17) set before the Court today and,
(18) respectfully, conduct the hearing on what's
(19) at issue.

(20) THE COURT: I understand. You'll have
(21) the opportunity to respond, Mr. Davis. I'm
(22) well aware of the time. I'm watching.

(23) MR. DAVIS: Thank you, sir. You may
(24) continue, Mr. Hanson.

(25) MR. HANSON: I need to be able to make

(1) my record because this goes to the heart of
(2) this case. The second judge delays things
(3) again.

(4) And the why they did that is because
(5) the facts in the law are so clear that I'm
(6) entitled to the relief. So it is the
(7) opposite of the sham pleading. It a slam
(8) dunk pleading. Where, again, at the hearing
(9) just a couple of days ago the -- at
(10) post-disqualification, second conflict
(11) judge, again all of the facts and law were
(12) clear he needed to issue the writ to force
(13) the 13th Circuit to turn over these
(14) documents. And he wouldn't do it.

(15) And no explanation under the facts of
(16) law. He just wouldn't do it. Then I filed
(17) another motion for sanctions and issuance of
(18) the writ. If the Court looks at the
(19) pleading, it's conclusive again. So we're
(20) proceeding without these records that I'm
(21) clearly entitled to under the facts and law.
(22) They go to the very core of the issues.

(23) The my argument is that Judge Ayers was
(24) biased and inappropriate throughout, and I'd
(25) already filed to disqualify her in February

(1) of 2025. And at this hearing in April of
(2) 2025 when she was repeatedly rolling her
(3) eyes at me when I already expressed concerns
(4) about her bias and then lied about it is
(5) critically evident -- critically relevant to
(6) what's happened in the case already.

(7) Assuming I'm correct, which I don't
(8) even know if anyone has watched the video.
(9) The last position I heard from the 13th
(10) Circuit on the video other than this vague
(11) security exemption, which under the law the
(12) 13th Circuit has an obligation to produce
(13) affidavits, security system information, to
(14) confirm that there's actually evidence it
(15) was a security camera. They haven't
(16) produced any of that. And so I think
(17) there's real questions about whether that
(18) was a stay, a pretextual, post-hoc label
(19) that someone put on it because they didn't
(20) want to give it up because they knew it was
(21) going to be problematic for Judge Ayers.

(22) You know, Judge Ayers has announced to
(23) run again, and the importance of getting
(24) that document clearly outweighs any security
(25) concerns. The video is pointing at the --

(1) where the judge sits, and that's not
(2) reviewing any unknown security information
(3) that there's cameras that cover the judge --

(4) THE COURT: I'm sorry. Real quick,
(5) Mr. Hanson. I understand what you're
(6) saying, but do you agree that that's not for
(7) me to rule on here today and that I don't
(8) have any authority in that matter?

(9) MR. HANSON: Well, on the mandamus
(10) part, I do believe you have authority. You
(11) could say I have a hearing on the same exact
(12) motion that was filed in December of 2024
(13) that Judge Ayers heard for four or five
(14) hours on April 4th of 2025. There's video
(15) of it that's been the subject of extensive
(16) litigation where it looks like the plaintiff
(17) is going to get their records once the
(18) delays come to an end.

(19) THE COURT: I'm trying to get to that.
(20) I haven't even gotten to that yet.

(21) MR. HANSON: So, Your Honor, but I
(22) don't understand why it hasn't been done in
(23) over a year now. And you want me to move
(24) forward with these issues, and I haven't --
(25) and, respectfully, Your Honor, I have not

(1) seen any sign of good faith.

(2) Everything that I've asked for has been
(3) denied and I think pretty much universally
(4) against the clear facts and law that we've
(5) required relief in my favor. So it's -- I
(6) was scared to come here today. I was having
(7) panic attacks coming here today.

(8) I don't think I have any protection
(9) whatsoever under the law. No one will
(10) rule -- will make any findings of fact about
(11) these things that I'm saying, you know, the
(12) judges in all these different circuits and
(13) the appellate judges in the Second DCA, all
(14) of them could step in and do something.

(15) And I don't think it's debatable
(16) whether this is a severe problem and whether
(17) it's unlawful. The structural conflict law
(18) is clear and my position remains that given
(19) clarity of -- clarity and strength of the
(20) litigation against Your Honor and the 13th
(21) Circuit and the fact that at the core of
(22) that litigation is evidence I've been trying
(23) to get for a year to make arguments on
(24) hearings that we're here for today.

(25) And, respectfully, Your Honor, you're

(1) part of the 13th Circuit, and you're pushing
(2) us forward on these hearings when you all
(3) have had a year to cooperate. I started
(4) requesting the video during the hearing, and
(5) then the next day from the chief judge. So
(6) the fact that I don't have that critical
(7) piece of evidence to use in my arguments to
(8) the Court and creating a record to the Court
(9) seems like a massive conclusive problem that
(10) we just can't go forward.

(11) We're lacking the evidence, and we have
(12) this animosity because of this arguing over
(13) the evidence. That's why structural
(14) conflicts are automatically unconstitutional
(15) unless there is some finding that the case
(16) was a sham created to disqualify the judge.
(17) And the opposite of that is true in this
(18) case, Your Honor. So I would appreciate
(19) some findings of facts as to whether the
(20) Court agrees there's a structural conflict
(21) and whether the Court is going to find that
(22) my attempts at litigation are sham
(23) pleadings. So I think that has to be done
(24) before we get into any motions.

(25) THE COURT: All right. Mr. Davis?

(1) MR. DAVIS: Well, number one, the
(2) structural conflict motion I believe
(3) Mr. Hanson filed last night -- may be early
(4) hours this morning. I think it was last
(5) night -- isn't set for hearing today, so
(6) that's number one.

(7) Number two, whether or not Judge Ayers
(8) rolled her eyes at Mr. Hanson or not has
(9) nothing to do with the 12 motions that are
(10) set before the Court today. Number three,
(11) if Judge Ayers rolled her eyes at him -- and
(12) she's been disqualified from the case -- so
(13) what? Sometimes judges roll their eyes.

(14) There was a judge that used to be in
(15) family court many, many years ago who is no
(16) longer a judge who rolled her eyes regularly
(17) at lots of people, myself included, and she
(18) was still very fair.

(19) You know, he's attacking other judges
(20) now in the Sixth Circuit. He's -- the irony
(21) of the whole thing is that Mr. Hanson is
(22) suing people, trying to create a conflict.

(23) MR. HANSON: If you don't like the
(24) judge -- the precedent he wants to set, "If
(25) you don't like your judge, just sue them.

(1) You can get a new judge." That's what he's
(2) trying to do.

(3) This would open up the flood gates to
(4) litigation. So if you have a temporary
(5) relief hearing; they don't like their
(6) ruling, no problem. Sue the judge; you can
(7) get a new one.

(8) That's preposterous. The evidence is
(9) completely irrelevant to these proceedings.
(10) His 13th Circuit lawsuit is irrelevant to
(11) today's proceeding, other than some of the
(12) things that he's alleged to, I believe, is
(13) relevant to his mental health state, but
(14) he's basically been trying to filibuster.

(15) We're now 43 minutes into the first
(16) hour of today's proceedings with Mr. Hanson
(17) trying to keep today's proceedings from
(18) proceeding -- from going on. I don't know
(19) why he's so afraid to have the Courts hear
(20) the motions that have been filed on their
(21) merits. Thank you.

(22) THE COURT: Okay. Anything in
(23) response, Mr. Hanson?

(24) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I'm just -- it
(25) stuns me beyond belief that Mr. Davis can

(1) say that I'm just suing the judges to try
(2) and create a conflict. So there's not just
(3) the video from May 4th of 2025. There's the
(4) communications that the circuit has hidden
(5) related to the December 2024 hearing where
(6) my attorney was taken away without allowing
(7) me any opportunity to inquire as to the
(8) reasons, and I would still have an attorney
(9) likely if Judge Ayers had not colluded with
(10) them to set something on a day's notice
(11) knowing that I wasn't available, and all of
(12) that is in the record.

(13) The 13th Circuit has not even
(14) identified the communications beyond a
(15) certain class of materials protected by
(16) judicial immunity that they've put into the
(17) confidential stack.

(18) Judicial immunity doesn't apply at all
(19) to mandamus cases. I'm not suing for
(20) damages. So it's -- they fail what the law
(21) requires of them in multiple ways to the
(22) point that it's bad faith. They don't
(23) identify the documents that they have to per
(24) the law. They don't provide a privilege
(25) law. They don't cite any specific

(1) confidentiality provisions, and they don't
(2) attempt to redact what they can. They don't
(3) watch the video to weigh -- they're not
(4) doing anything that they need to do.

(5) And I would ask -- not only did Judge
(6) Ayers roll her eyes, she lied about it, and
(7) then threatened me with getting the video.
(8) I just -- I don't understand how that could
(9) be considered anything other than precisely
(10) relevant to this, given what my arguments
(11) are, that she was still biased, she
(12) corrupted the case to the point where we
(13) certainly shouldn't be doing what Mr. Davis
(14) want us to be doing here today.

(15) MR. DAVIS: Which is just having a
(16) hearing on the merits. That's all.

(17) MR. HANSON: I wasn't done, sir. He
(18) invoked my mental health state. What does
(19) Mr. Davis know about my mental health state?

(20) He has the option of getting my
(21) records. I've already signed releases, but
(22) I think it's pretty inappropriate for an
(23) attorney to sit and attack an opposing
(24) litigant over his mental health when he has
(25) the opportunity to investigate it and all he

(1) wants to do is denigrate it. He doesn't
(2) want to know the truth. He just wants to be
(3) a bully.

(4) And it's been going on the whole time,
(5) Your Honor, and Judge Ayers would say he's a
(6) teddy bear if this happened. So it's such a
(7) pervasive bias that has affected every
(8) aspect of the proceedings. And, Your Honor,
(9) I just want to get through this. I want it
(10) to be over with just like I did in May 2024,
(11) but I want it to be done fairly so we can
(12) move on and co-parent.

(13) I think that a transfer has to be done
(14) or, like I said, discovery, and then if they
(15) want me to do -- some of their motions, the
(16) voc and psych, fine, but guardian ad litem
(17) that should absolutely be off limits
(18) today.

(19) THE COURT: Based on my understanding
(20) of the argument, what's been set for hearing
(21) today, including but not limited to, I
(22) believe, there was a prior motion after you
(23) named me in a lawsuit for disqualification
(24) of me; is that correct?

(25) MR. HANSON: I don't -- there may have

(1) been one for all 13th Circuit Court
(2) judges.

(3) THE COURT: I think so.

(4) MR. DAVIS: I think it named Your Honor
(5) and the 13th Circuit Court Judges. That's
(6) my recollection. I'm happy to look.

(7) MR. HANSON: And I know you're not
(8) going to like this, Your Honor, but I have
(9) to bring up one other point before --

(10) THE COURT: Let's finish this one
(11) before we go on to another one.

(12) MR. HANSON: I just wanted to brace you
(13) for it.

(14) THE COURT: I just don't want to lose
(15) track of the thread before we go on to
(16) another one.

(17) MS. HANSON: What are we looking for?

(18) THE COURT: My understanding that there
(19) was a motion to disqualify me, either me as
(20) individually or the entire circuit that
(21) addressed the structural argument that --

(22) MR. DAVIS: I thought there was. A
(23) motion --

(24) MS. HANSON: It's not in this case. It
(25) was in the other case. It was filed in the

(1) 13th Circuit. The first judge before he was
(2) disqualified got it.

(3) MR. DAVIS: There is a motion to
(4) disqualify all 13th Circuit judges and
(5) that's Dock 255. I thought there was one
(6) that also named this the Court, but I could
(7) be wrong.

(8) THE COURT: Let me see. 255. Verified
(9) Motion to Disqualify all 13th Circuit
(10) Judicial Judges.

(11) MR. DAVIS: I just got kicked out of
(12) hub. Sorry.

(13) THE COURT: You see that, Mr. Hanson?

(14) MR. HANSON: I did not, Your Honor.

(15) THE COURT: Okay.

(16) MR. HANSON: You said 255.

(17) THE COURT: That's the docket number,
(18) yes.

(19) MR. HANSON: I can pull it.

(20) THE COURT: That's dated 12/19/25, if
(21) that helps. The Court uses docket numbers
(22) probably most frequently than others do,
(23) so...

(24) MR. HANSON: I got kicked out of
(25) Internet altogether.

(1) MR. DAVIS: Yeah, I did too. I got
(2) kicked out of, which is probably the same
(3) thing.

(4) THE COURT: Okay. I'm looking at
(5) Motion to Disqualify filed on 12/19/2025 at
(6) Docket 255. And then an order on same at
(7) 258 entered on 1/8/26. That order denied
(8) Respondent's Notice of Related Cases and
(9) Motion to Disqualify all 13th Circuit Court
(10) Judges.

(11) So I'm finding the argument presented
(12) here today regarding the structural argument
(13) were addressed there, so I'm going to deny
(14) the request at this time.

(15) MR. HANSON: And remember, Your Honor,
(16) I did say that I had --

(17) THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. I thought
(18) it was unrelated -- I thought it was
(19) subsequent.

(20) MR. HANSON: No, it was on that topic.
(21) I just didn't want to interrupt there.

(22) THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

(23) MR. HANSON: What I think the Court is
(24) missing is that there is a formal motion for
(25) sanctions now that will escalate it to

(1) contentious and adversarial structural
(2) conflict. And the relevance of the
(3) records -- I won't repeat myself there, but,
(4) Your Honor, I have a difficult time with the
(5) -- what is the motivating factor to force
(6) anything for Mr. Davis' side to go forward
(7) today given their course of discovery
(8) violations, obstruction, refusal to set
(9) depositions. The first I got any discovery
(10) responses was late last night, which I
(11) haven't had to chance to look at, but --

(12) MR. DAVIS: Well, actually, Ms. Hanson,
(13) that's true. Strike that.

(14) THE COURT: I'm sorry. Go ahead,
(15) Mr. Hanson.

(16) MR. HANSON: They haven't done anything
(17) to show any urgency with pursuing these
(18) issues given that my offers are standing out
(19) there for months and months. And they
(20) haven't alleged any, any change in
(21) circumstances.

(22) There's no problems with the kids.
(23) There's nothing where -- I suppose that gets
(24) back into the stay argument some, but my
(25) argument is that the structural conflict at

(1) least the Court should allow me to complete
(2) that litigation and try to get the records
(3) that I find relevant to making these
(4) arguments.

(5) If the Court forces us to go forward
(6) today, then it's forcing me to go forward
(7) with an incomplete record, which benefits
(8) the 13th Circuit because then it gets this
(9) hearing out of the way where then I don't
(10) have the argument anymore that there's a
(11) hearing coming up where it's the exact same
(12) motion that Judge Ayers' misconduct occurred
(13) in, and it's critically relevant. So it
(14) serves the 13th Circuit purposes in that
(15) sense. And it's just unfair. I've tried to
(16) pursue this piece of evidence that's
(17) critical to my argument for a year.

(18) THE COURT: You're talking about the
(19) video again?

(20) MR. HANSON: I'm talking about the
(21) video and the communications.

(22) THE COURT: You're talking about the
(23) discovery.

(24) MR. HANSON: And that's what's so
(25) frustrating is there are layers of

(1) concealment now that I have to unpack just
(2) to get simple discovery, but circumstances
(3) have changed since that order was denied.

(4) Since the motion to disqualify where
(5) the case was denied, and I cannot imagine a
(6) bigger structural conflict than the one we
(7) have right here. Again, I need to address
(8) the findings of facts, whether I have
(9) constitutional rights that are being
(10) considered here.

(11) Why the Court is ignoring the federal
(12) case law where due process is the floor. We
(13) can't go below the due process floor. And
(14) case law is clear that no man can be a judge
(15) in his own case. And we have that to an
(16) extreme here, so I just request the Court as
(17) to some factual finding as to why these new
(18) circumstances still have no impact on the
(19) Court's insistence on going forward.

(20) THE COURT: Okay. Anything in regards
(21) to that request for factual finding which
(22) remain?

(23) MR. DAVIS: That's up to the Court.

(24) THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. All
(25) right.

(1) MR. DAVIS: If the Court wishes to,
(2) that's fine; if the Court doesn't wish to,
(3) that's fine.

(4) THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Hanson?

(5) MR. HANSON: The only other thing would
(6) be that there are no factual findings on the
(7) denial of the motion to transfer that was
(8) heard back in June of --

(9) MR. DAVIS: I have to object at this
(10) juncture. The Second District has ruled.
(11) This is continued filibuster. We're now at
(12) 9:55, approximately, 12.5 percent.

(13) THE COURT: I appreciate the argument.
(14) You don't have to keep repeating the time.

(15) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(16) THE COURT: I know what you're saying.
(17) If you want to make a record, I get it. I'm
(18) not going to preclude you from making it.
(19) I'm looking at clock too. I hear you.

(20) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(21) THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead,
(22) Mr. Hanson. But, yeah, I mean, I thought we
(23) were talking about structural conflict now,
(24) not the transfer of venue?

(25) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, they are

(1) interrelated issues. They both involve the
(2) due -- The 14th Amendment and then under the
(3) U.S. Constitution in Article 9 under the
(4) Florida Constitution. And the Court is
(5) seemingly ignoring those arguments and
(6) facts, which is preventing it from getting
(7) appropriate appellate review.

(8) I suspect that the PCA from the Second
(9) District confuses me, but there are no
(10) findings of fact on any of these issues that
(11) I'm aware of. And I believe that that is
(12) actually required of you to go forward.

(13) Is there has to be some findings from
(14) the Court that explain why the structural
(15) conflict, federal constitutional due process
(16) floor is not -- is not impacted by the
(17) Court's actions. It's not violated by the
(18) Court's action. That's the purpose of
(19) filing an invocation of rights. They need
(20) to be addressed.

(21) THE COURT: Okay.

(22) MR. HANSON: A simple denial of it and
(23) saying we are going to go forward, that
(24) doesn't -- that doesn't address what's
(25) required in order to ignore federal binding

(1) precedent on structural conflicts.

(2) THE COURT: Okay. The Court is going
(3) to stand on its previous order. We can go
(4) forward.

(5) MR. HANSON: And the Court is refusing
(6) to give me any factual findings on my notice
(7) of invocation of constitutional rights.

(8) THE COURT: That matter is not set for
(9) today, okay. And I hear the argument. I'm
(10) standing on my prior order.

(11) MR. HANSON: Whether it's set for today
(12) is immaterial. It's a constitutional
(13) floor --

(14) THE COURT: I understand.

(15) MR. HANSON: -- to anything that the
(16) Court goes forward with is ab initio -- void
(17) ab initio in light of the conflict,
(18) especially if the Court is going to refuse
(19) again to make any factual findings.

(20) It looks like the Court is just burying
(21) its head in the sand to the simple fact that
(22) the 13th Circuit is hiding records, they're
(23) benefiting from pushing this forward. And
(24) rather than do the right thing, they just
(25) ignore the facts.

(1) I think that's totally inappropriate
(2) when I've raised these constitutional issues
(3) for months now.

(4) THE COURT: Okay. Anything else you
(5) want to put on the record, Mr. Hanson?

(6) MR. HANSON: Just the connection with
(7) the Florida Bar. We have --

(8) THE COURT: I believe you already
(9) mentioned that.

(10) MR. HANSON: That Judge Ayers complaint
(11) part that it's still pending against me in
(12) this investigation phase, and --

(13) THE COURT: I understand that. You
(14) mentioned that earlier.

(15) MR. HANSON: But, but that's relevant
(16) to the structural conflict because pushing
(17) this forward today is not only unfair in
(18) these proceedings, but it complicates things
(19) in the mandamus proceedings before me as
(20) well.

(21) It's really difficult to try to
(22) consider this process and participate in it.
(23) It's just -- the Court is refusing to
(24) acknowledge reality, and the reality is
(25) there is this massive structural conflict.

(1) So I just want to make that very clear
(2) for the record.

(3) THE COURT: All right. Moving forward,
(4) I believe there are some discussion about
(5) stipulating to a vocational evaluation and a
(6) psychological evaluation?

(7) MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, I
(8) believe you said that we were going to go in
(9) order of when the motions were filed. And
(10) my May of 2024 motion was the first one that
(11) was going to be heard.

(12) THE COURT: Okay. I completely
(13) understand. No, no. Time to take break, if
(14) we need to. Let's go. Is five minutes
(15) enough?

(16) MR. DAVIS: I just want to run to the
(17) second floor to grab a water.

(18) THE COURT: That's fine. We will come
(19) back at 10:10. Is that okay, Mr. Hanson?

(20) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(21) THE COURT: Let's be back at 10:10.

(22) (WHEREUPON, a recess was taken at 10:00
(23) a.m. through 10:10 a.m.)

(24) THE COURT: All right. I believe right
(25) before we took a quick break, there was some

(1) discussion as to whether or not there could
(2) be stipulations regarding a couple of
(3) motions. And then, I believe, Mr. Hanson, I
(4) believe you had indicated that you wanted to
(5) proceed in the order that the matters were
(6) set; is that correct?

(7) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

(8) THE COURT: Okay. Typically, if we can
(9) -- if there can be some stipulations, we try
(10) to handle those, but if not that's -- are
(11) you saying that you don't want to discuss
(12) any stipulations or only discuss
(13) stipulations in the order that we get to
(14) them as they appear on the notice of
(15) hearing?

(16) MR. HANSON: As they appear on the
(17) hearing, and I think I was kind of willing
(18) to resolve is the issues on the -- on the
(19) vocational eval and psych eval. I'm happy
(20) to go with what the law requires. I just
(21) want to research more and --

(22) THE COURT: Research more what? I'm
(23) sorry. I don't -- research the law or what?

(24) MR. HANSON: I don't want to pay. I
(25) don't see how there is a law that requires

(1) me to pay. I would object, if they expect
(2) me to pay. I assume they are asking for it,
(3) they would pay. So I think, yeah, it's just
(4) more complicated than -- my agreement to go
(5) with the understanding that I didn't have to
(6) pay for it.

(7) Paying for my own waste of time, in my
(8) opinion, just doesn't seem reasonable. I
(9) just want to research it.

(10) THE COURT: I understand, Mr. Hanson.
(11) I'm just trying to figure out the order we
(12) are going in, not the arguments for it.

(13) So you're saying you don't want to
(14) address it now, but then you're talking
(15) about what you're willing to do with
(16) regards, so I guess I'm a little confused.

(17) MR. HANSON: I guess, I'm trying to say
(18) it wasn't quite as simple as we're almost
(19) done with these two and just finish up the
(20) stipulations. That's why I want to do the
(21) order.

(22) THE COURT: Well, I don't feel like
(23) we've really gotten into it. We just talked
(24) about maybe doing it. The Court hasn't
(25) given its opinion on it at all. That's what

(1) I'm just trying to figure out, what we're
(2) doing.

(3) MR. HANSON: I prefer we go into the
(4) order that we decided.

(5) MR. DAVIS: That's fine.

(6) THE COURT: All right. Let's do that.

(7) MR. DAVIS: 22 is up first. And,
(8) Judge, if I may address the Court, I know
(9) that the Court's got a computer screen, I
(10) imagine, with Hover, but if it's helpful for
(11) any reason, all the exhibits -- excuse me.
(12) Strike that. All the motions are in my
(13) exhibit book.

(14) THE COURT: Okay.

(15) MR. DAVIS: In case paper copies are
(16) helpful to the Court.

(17) THE COURT: Yeah. No. I appreciate
(18) that. What I have set first is Husband's
(19) Response to Motion to Compel Payments and
(20) Motion to Compel Evidence of Marital Assets
(21) and Financial; is that correct?

(22) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

(23) THE COURT: Okay.

(24) MR. HANSON: And one other preliminary
(25) matter, Your Honor, if I may. At some point

(1) I need to offer testimony today. I've never
(2) had my deposition taken. I've never had an
(3) opportunity to take any testimony, so I
(4) don't know how the Court wishes to do that.

(5) Argument bleeds into facts, so, you
(6) know, I thought about it. I really don't
(7) know what the most efficient way is. I can
(8) testify about the motion by motion, I can
(9) try and testify about everything more
(10) generally. Whatever Your Honor prefers.

(11) THE COURT: Okay. Well, I mean, I was
(12) going to take them in the order that they
(13) appear on my -- on the notice of hearing at
(14) your request and the acquiescence of
(15) Mr. Davis. Okay?

(16) So, typically, what I do when I have a
(17) motion is I ask the moving party if they
(18) want to do an opening statement. Opening
(19) statement in my mind is argument, and then
(20) if there is going to be testimony, I put any
(21) witnesses under oath, then I go from
(22) there.

(23) MR. HANSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

(24) THE COURT: That's how I typically do
(25) it.

(1) MR. HANSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

(2) THE COURT: Okay. So, as I was saying
(3) before, my understanding is that we have
(4) Husband's Response to Motion to Compel
(5) Payments and Motion to Compel Evidence of
(6) Marital Assets and Financial Info.

(7) I believe everyone agreed that that is
(8) the motion at hand. I was going to say then
(9) is, Mr. Hanson, you may proceed with an
(10) opening, if that's what you you'd like to
(11) do.

(12) MR. HANSON: Thank you, Your Honor.
(13) This was my first filing in this matter and
(14) my first circuit court filing ever. I did
(15) not have an attorney. I really wanted to
(16) avoid getting attorneys involved. And
(17) Petitioner and I had done well with living
(18) separately, 50/50 custody.

(19) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance. We're
(20) talking about financial payments.

(21) THE COURT: Compel evidence marital
(22) assets and financial payments evidence.

(23) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. I was
(24) just trying to give a little bit of
(25) background of what was going on in the case

(1) when this was filed. It was back in May of
(2) 2024, so I think that's relevant for the
(3) Court to consider ruling on it now.

(4) I mean, it still has relevance now.
(5) It's similar, but the circumstances when it
(6) was filed -- I can try and keep it more
(7) brief, Your Honor.

(8) THE COURT: Yes, please. I mean, I
(9) hear what you're saying. You think it's
(10) relevant, but how is it relevant? Just
(11) saying you think is relevant, you know,
(12) directs me a little bit, but I need some
(13) understanding of why it's relevant, not just
(14) that you think it is, if that makes sense.

(15) I'm not trying to nitpick. I'm just
(16) trying to under -- It's hard for me to
(17) understand a counter to a relevant objection
(18) if you're not saying why it's relevant.

(19) MR. HANSON: It's relevant to how
(20) simple the issues were, how one dimensional
(21) this entire case is.

(22) THE COURT: Okay.

(23) MR. HANSON: Everything is going well.
(24) We are separated. We're living in separate
(25) houses, 50/50 custody. I've provided the

(1) Court and Mr. Davis with all the texts by
(2) E-mail. I can work on getting you paper
(3) copies of it today, I suppose, if you need
(4) them.

(5) But the texts support that everything
(6) is going well until May of 2024 when I start
(7) talking to Mrs. Hanson about mandatory
(8) disclosures and financial assets. And just,
(9) I believe, the Court has some information on
(10) this, but Mrs. Hanson kept her income
(11) separate from mine the last several years of
(12) the marriage and did not allow me access to
(13) the account.

(14) And during the three or four years
(15) leading up to 2024, as the marriage was
(16) deteriorating, I was making significantly
(17) less money. And Sarah was making more
(18) money, and I was asking her to contribute
(19) more and she would never -- she would tell
(20) me that it was all going to credit cards and
(21) student loans. She wasn't able to
(22) contribute.

(23) I never had access to all of that
(24) marital income. Things -- the mortgage,
(25) taxes, insurance, all the big things just

(1) came out of my accounts and I didn't worry
(2) about it for most of the marriage, but
(3) especially as I started having some clear
(4) problems, I was making less money, that just
(5) coincided with the marital problems because
(6) I was asking her mother about the accounts,
(7) and she reacted aggressively to any time I
(8) would bring that up.

(9) So this filing was -- when it was clear
(10) that she was not going to cooperate with
(11) sharing any of the information about the
(12) marital -- marital assets that she had
(13) been.

(14) THE COURT: Okay.

(15) MR. HANSON: And I give the Court
(16) background on how simple of an issue this
(17) is. It's a contentious one, but it's one
(18) that could be disposed of quickly.

(19) All I was asking for is information.
(20) It wasn't something that had to lead to
(21) litigation. It was a peace-of-mind thing,
(22) and I pleaded with the Court for efficiency
(23) in it. Knowing that things -- that I had
(24) concerns that this could get dragged out.
(25) Then after that I hired an attorney -- and

(1) one other piece of background here that's
(2) important is that this May 22nd -- I'm
(3) sorry. It's Docket Number 22. It's filed
(4) on May 16th.

(5) THE COURT: I have that.

(6) MR. HANSON: The item that I was
(7) responding to was Mrs. Hanson sending me a
(8) barrage of 16 pages of interrogatories,
(9) which she knew that was exactly the type of
(10) busy work distraction that I wanted to
(11) avoid. So it was just an attack on me in an
(12) effort to dissuade me from pursuing this
(13) discovery.

(14) Well, I got all of that discovery to
(15) her timely, and the stipulation between
(16) Mr. Davis and my counsel at the time -- and
(17) that's where Mr. Davis' delay tactics --

(18) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance because
(19) he filed this in May of 2024. The
(20) allegations in the motion -- he didn't amend
(21) it -- are all prior to him retaining
(22) counsel, prior to this other discovery
(23) dispute being an issue.

(24) THE COURT: Yeah. I -- Mr. Hanson,
(25) we're dealing with the portion of the motion

(1) that has to do with the compel evidence of
(2) marital assets and financial information.

(3) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor, and part
(4) of my detail comes from I don't understand
(5) where I'm losing the Court with how simple
(6) this could be. Maybe I'm doing too much
(7) detail to try to get you to follow with what
(8) I see. And I apologize if I'm doing that.

(9) THE COURT: Well, help me out with
(10) this: What is it that you're asking for in
(11) discovery? Motion to compel Evidence of
(12) Marital Asset. I mean, obviously, I have
(13) the motion in front of me but --

(14) MR. HANSON: Right.

(15) THE COURT: -- like tell me what it is
(16) that you want as far as opening goes. And
(17) we'll let Mr. Davis do an opening in
(18) response, and then if we need to start
(19) taking testimony, we'll do that. But, do
(20) you know what I'm saying?

(21) MR. HANSON: I think so, Your Honor.

(22) THE COURT: I think that would be
(23) helpful. You're entitled to present the
(24) case as you see fit, of course, right? But
(25) I'm just responding to your statement where

(1) I'm not sure where I'm losing the Court.

(2) I'm just trying to give you a response to

(3) that. Does that make sense?

(4) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. I think

(5) so.

(6) THE COURT: Okay.

(7) MR. HANSON: I was requesting marital

(8) assets going back seven years at that time.

(9) I was willing to compromise on it, but

(10) that's where the -- I put in the motion

(11) seven years because that's how long she had

(12) been putting assets separately.

(13) I put together a joint account just

(14) days after we were married. She spent out

(15) of the account, never contributed anything

(16) to it, and it's -- it was a driving factor

(17) in what led to the divorce. My earning less

(18) money was clearly a factor, and then her

(19) refusal to share the information -- and, I

(20) apologize, if I'm getting into stuff that's

(21) happened since, but I think it's just

(22) relevant now to whether the Court grants

(23) relief here.

(24) She has refused to agree to void the

(25) post-marital agreement even though --

(1) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance. It's
(2) outside the scope of this motion.

(3) THE COURT: I believe the pre-marital
(4) agreement is attached to the motion, right?

(5) MR. HANSON: Either the motion or the
(6) response. I'm not sure.

(7) THE COURT: I'm sorry. The response.

(8) MR. HANSON: Yeah. It looks like it is
(9) there.

(10) THE COURT: But --

(11) MR. HANSON: What I'm trying to get at,
(12) Your Honor, is that fairness requires this
(13) discovery. It was a major issue at the time
(14) that we were trying to make the marriage
(15) work and a major issue at the time that the
(16) marriage failed. And Florida family law
(17) provides for broad access of information to
(18) ensure that everyone walks away believing
(19) they have a fair deal. That's what I was
(20) asking for here.

(21) THE COURT: Okay.

(22) MR. HANSON: And it's time that the
(23) Courts move the case forward in a fair
(24) manner, and that involves granting this
(25) motion and striking objections requiring the

(1) timely response from Mrs. Hanson as well.

(2) THE COURT: And, once again,

(3) Mr. Hanson, I'm sorry. I think I asked you

(4) before, specifically, what are you -- I

(5) guess, are you asking for mandatory

(6) disclosure 12.285 or what?

(7) MR. HANSON: I was asking for her to

(8) produce seven years of financials.

(9) THE COURT: But when you say,

(10) "financials," that can be a broad scope.

(11) MR. HANSON: Mandatory disclosures.

(12) THE COURT: That's why I'm saying,

(13) 12.285 mandatory disclosures?

(14) MR. HANSON: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

(15) THE COURT: I'm trying to understand

(16) the specific request. But you're saying

(17) seven years?

(18) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. That's

(19) what I was requesting for. I mean, I would

(20) compromise at less than that. I've gotten

(21) less than one right now when I've given her

(22) three.

(23) THE COURT: Mr. Davis?

(24) MR. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor. May

(25) it please the Court. So this motion was

(1) filed prior to Mrs. Hanson providing any
(2) mandatory disclosure. And while Mr. Hanson,
(3) despite being a licensed attorney, does not
(4) including a wherefore clause, which does, in
(5) fact, make it difficult for everyone to know
(6) exactly what he's asking for in this motion.

(7) I think paragraph 34 is probably, so to
(8) speak, is wherefore statement where he
(9) requests the Court enter an order requiring
(10) Mrs. Hanson to provide bank statements that
(11) document her use of marital assets
(12) throughout the marriage to investigate
(13) whether the financial disclosures are
(14) accurate.

(15) And it goes on -- the Court can read
(16) that, but everything about whether the
(17) marriage was working and why -- we are in a
(18) no-fault state. Why the divorce was filed,
(19) that's -- all of that is irrelevant.

(20) The parties kept their bank
(21) statements -- bank accounts separate during
(22) the marriage. It wasn't just Mrs. Hanson,
(23) it was also Mr. Hanson. Notwithstanding,
(24) there is a prenuptial agreement in place.
(25) There is a separation agreement in place.

(1) The Court previously ruled on this
(2) extensive documentation regarding discovery.
(3) Insofar as Mr. Hanson seeking mandatory
(4) disclosure, Mrs. Hanson filed a certificate
(5) of compliance with mandatory disclosure on
(6) October 22nd, 2024, and that's document
(7) 44.

(8) THE COURT: Okay.

(9) MR. DAVIS: And a couple of days later,
(10) give or take, a handful of days later we had
(11) the hearing on the Motion to Compel. We
(12) were late on our mandatory disclosure, and I
(13) acknowledge that. Judge Ayers granted the
(14) Motion to Compel, found an entitlement to
(15) fees, reserved on the amount of fees and
(16) ordered us to comply -- to provide the
(17) records that hadn't yet been complied.

(18) So very shortly thereafter,
(19) specifically, on October 31st, which is
(20) document 46, we filed our Amended
(21) Certificate of Compliance with mandatory
(22) disclosure providing the rest of the
(23) documents.

(24) And then my office -- I received an
(25) E-mail from Vivian Cortez Hodz who was

(1) Mr. Hanson's attorney at the time
(2) requesting -- it's in Exhibit 27. We'll get
(3) to it later or I can talk about it now,
(4) whatever the Court prefers -- requesting
(5) additional documents above and beyond
(6) mandatory disclosure.

(7) I asked Mrs. Hanson; she said, "Sure,
(8) I'll send to them to you," and she did. So
(9) we filed our supplemental financial
(10) disclosures providing more information
(11) regarding her retirement accounts than the
(12) Rule 12.285 requires, and that was done on
(13) November 25th, 2024. So, let's see, 13 days
(14) after Mrs. Cortez Hodz requested it, and
(15) that's Dock 55.

(16) The Court, Judge Ayers, entered --
(17) these as they're known in this case, the
(18) Chase subpoenas come up frequently. We had
(19) a hearing on that, presented written
(20) argument to the Court, and the Court entered
(21) an order sustaining Wife's Amended Objection
(22) to Husband's Notices of Production from
(23) Non-party on December 20th of 2024. That's
(24) document 93.

(25) Then the Court entered an order denying

(1) his objection and Motion for Clarification
(2) Rehearing on the Court's 10/20 -- excuse me.
(3) 10/10/2025 orders denying request for
(4) emergency hearing. That was on 2/10/25.
(5) And I missed the document number when I was
(6) preparing these exhibits. I apologize, but
(7) that's our Exhibit 30.

(8) THE COURT: Okay.

(9) MR. DAVIS: And then entered an order
(10) denying his motion for clarification on
(11) 2/12/2025. That's Dock 129. That's also 31
(12) in our exhibits, and entered an order
(13) denying his Motion for Enforcement and
(14) finding contempt for failure to comply with
(15) the Court's order on mandatory disclosure.

(16) And the Court denied that because we
(17) had to hearing on that. And, ironically,
(18) Mr. Hanson's motion on the mandatory
(19) disclosure issue did not identify any
(20) document that was allegedly missing from
(21) your mandatory disclosure.

(22) And when the Court asked him what's
(23) missing, Mr. Hanson wasn't able to identify
(24) any document that he believed was missing
(25) from mandatory disclosure. And, therefore,

(1) she denied his motion. And that's at
(2) document 130, and it's Tab 32 in the book.

(3) So Mr. Hanson's motion at Dock 22 does
(4) not provide any particular time that he's
(5) seeking to compel. He has received
(6) mandatory disclosure. There are other
(7) motions he's filed regarding the Chase
(8) subpoenas and the like. I believe some of
(9) them were set for hearing today, so this
(10) particular motion should be denied.

(11) THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hanson?

(12) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor, just a
(13) couple of things. Mr. Davis referenced a
(14) pre-marital agreement. That has zero
(15) relevance to anything that's occurring right
(16) now. It's a red herring.

(17) And as far as the marital -- the
(18) Certificate of Compliance is concerned,
(19) the -- wife and Mr. Davis worded them very
(20) strategically. And, remember, I talked to
(21) you about the June 28th, 2024 stipulated
(22) date of exchange for mandatory disclosures
(23) and I had to also do the interrogatory
(24) responses for that, so that's June 28 of
(25) 2024.

(1) And, again, mind you -- and you'll see
(2) from the text messages -- the only is just
(3) getting discovery into marital assets. It
(4) was clear from the docket of May 22nd, 2024,
(5) so --

(6) MR. DAVIS: That's res judicata. The
(7) judge has already -- so I object. Judge
(8) Ayers has already ruled on that in the
(9) hearing on the Motion to Compel where she
(10) granted it. So I don't know why we're
(11) talking about mandatory disclosure because
(12) it was granted.

(13) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson.

(14) MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, a couple
(15) of things. Number one, it brings it back to
(16) the central structural conflict here. He's
(17) relying on Judge Ayers, and the Court is
(18) sitting on evidence that's going to show
(19) just how dishonest and biased she is.

(20) And the Court would seem to have
(21) handled this in the manner thus far where
(22) it's going to cover for Judge Ayers and me
(23) and my family are going to suffer from her
(24) misconduct while she enjoys a complete lack
(25) of accountability.

(1) So I am arguing that the reliance on
(2) Judge Ayers is completely misplaced
(3) especially when there is critical evidence
(4) from December 2024 when she revoked my
(5) attorney without cause, without notice --

(6) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance. It
(7) doesn't go to prove or disprove any material
(8) fact in issue in this motion.

(9) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, what I'm trying
(10) to figure out is what is it that you're
(11) asking for and what is it that you have not
(12) gotten?

(13) MR. HANSON: I am asking for seven
(14) years of financials is what I'm asking for
(15) much. And there's also a wherefore clause
(16) in the motion right after Mr. Davis stopped
(17) reading --

(18) THE COURT: I'm not worried about the
(19) wherefore clause. What I'm trying to
(20) understand is, specifically, what you're (21) asking for. So when you keep saying, "seven
(22) years of financials," financials is a very
(23) broad term to me. It's hard for me to
(24) understand with specificity what you mean by
(25) that.

(1) MR. HANSON: Like a mandatory
(2) disclosure. Like all evidence of --

(3) THE COURT: Pursuant to --

(4) MR. HANSON: Property interest.

(5) THE COURT: -- 12.285; is that --

(6) MR. HANSON: It's not pursuant to
(7) 12.285. It's more of a request for
(8) production. It's not -- it's not a perfect
(9) motion, Your Honor. Obviously, I'd never
(10) done a motion in circuit court or family
(11) law.

(12) THE COURT: And I'm not saying you need
(13) to file a perfect motion. I'm just trying
(14) to understand with specificity the request.

(15) MR. HANSON: I would like for
(16) Mrs. Hanson to reveal all financial assets
(17) and interests for seven years leading up to
(18) the request that I understand that I may
(19) have to compromise for lower a number.

(20) THE COURT: Time frame is a little, is
(21) a little excessive in my mind.

(22) MR. HANSON: And I think I even
(23) understood that when I drafted it. I just
(24) wanted to compromise at something. You
(25) know, she had me do three years from I think

(1) it was May of 2024 when I had --

(2) THE COURT: Three years is I think
(3) around where the Court would land on that.
(4) But, once again, I'm trying to -- so, as I
(5) understand, as I understand it at this
(6) point, you're saying that I want these
(7) documents. And you're saying, "I initially
(8) asked for seven years; I provided three. I
(9) know I may have to compromise on that."
(10) Right?

(11) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

(12) THE COURT: And, as I understand
(13) Mr. Davis' argument, he's saying he provided
(14) it.

(15) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, they didn't
(16) even comply with mandatory disclosure
(17) because what they did is they utilized their
(18) initial delay period to limit what they had
(19) to swear to.

(20) So their Certificate of Compliance says
(21) that they swear they don't have any other
(22) interest in other accounts during the last
(23) 12 months. They were supposed to do that in
(24) June, but because they didn't do it until
(25) October and made no effort to actually

(1) comply with the stipulation, it shifted the
(2) period they swore to only 12 months before
(3) October of 2024.

(4) Well, as you'll see from the text
(5) later, the marriage was over by October of
(6) 2023.

(7) THE COURT: Okay.

(8) MR. HANSON: So by delaying it four
(9) months, they were able to allow what likely
(10) would have been relevant months to fall off
(11) the map. That's one of my biggest problems
(12) with this is that their discovery violations
(13) are rampant throughout the case and have
(14) never suffered one consequence ever for it.

(15) Even a post-hearing motion was due
(16) after the October 28th of 2024 hearing on
(17) discovery into some financial information,
(18) Mr. Davis was late.

(19) MR. DAVIS: Objection to relevance.
(20) This has also been previously addressed by
(21) the Court. It's res judicata that. And it
(22) doesn't go to prove or disprove any material
(23) fact at issue in Mr. Hanson's motion that
(24) was filed at Dock 22.

(25) THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hanson, I

(1) understand that you're trying to provide
(2) some background, I guess, maybe. But that
(3) may be relevant, I guess, in the request for
(4) these things along those lines.

(5) Once again, so you're saying that
(6) because they filed a Certificate of
(7) Compliance later than when it was due, it
(8) shifted the time in which they needed to
(9) provide documents; is that correct?

(10) MR. HANSON: It shifted what they swore
(11) to.

(12) THE COURT: Okay.

(13) MR. HANSON: In other words, you're
(14) supposed to swear to the period going back
(15) from -- what the rule requires. And the
(16) rule is complicated. I've looked at it
(17) before.

(18) THE COURT: I have to --

(19) MR. HANSON: You probably know it
(20) backwards and forward, but I -- it requires
(21) certain things for certain time period. I
(22) believe it measures from the date of filing,
(23) but it certainly doesn't remember -- doesn't
(24) proceed back from --

(25) THE COURT: It's okay. It's all right.

(1) It's not the end of the world. Sorry. Go
(2) ahead.

(3) MR. HANSON: I was just saying that it
(4) certainly doesn't proceed back to a year
(5) before they actually get around to filing
(6) it. In other words, they shouldn't benefit
(7) to having to swear less to the rule because
(8) they're late on the discovery and that's
(9) what they did.

(10) And they've never actually sworn
(11) without some qualifier as to whether there's
(12) actually income there.

(13) THE COURT: Sworn as to some qualifier
(14) as to whether there is actually some income
(15) there?

(16) MR. HANSON: I can find it for you here
(17) in one of my motions on it, but it's always
(18) just -- so the first one was just the last
(19) 12 months, and then the second one I don't
(20) recall offhand. I'll be able to tell it to
(21) you in just a moment.

(22) THE COURT: But let me ask you this:
(23) With regards to the Certificate of
(24) Compliance for mandatory disclosure at
(25) Docket Entry 44 and the amended financial

(1) disclosure at Docket Entry 46, is there --
(2) are you saying that those documents were not
(3) received or that those certificates were not
(4) accurate?

(5) MR. HANSON: They were received.
(6) They're not in compliance with the rule.
(7) They fudged it.

(8) THE COURT: No, no, I understand. And
(9) that's not my question. I understand that
(10) that is your argument. But what I'm asking
(11) is like if they list, specifically, that
(12) they provided bank statements for 12 months
(13) for this period of time for this account,
(14) are you saying that you did not get those?

(15) You're saying you shouldn't have got
(16) those or there should have been a different
(17) time frame?

(18) MR. HANSON: I'm saying they didn't
(19) produce enough. Your Honor, it's very
(20) simple what's going on here. They're hiding
(21) marital assets, and they wouldn't even fully
(22) comply with mandatory disclosures, objecting
(23) to every discovery effort that I've made
(24) even though my motion to void the
(25) post-marital agreement that is pending, if

(1) granted, would result in giving her more
(2) money, so I shouldn't even have had to file
(3) the motion --

(4) MR. DAVIS: Objection to relevance.
(5) It's way outside the scope of document 22.

(6) THE COURT: Yeah. What I'm trying to
(7) figure out is, like I said, I'm trying to
(8) craft in my mind what might be a resolution
(9) of this manner. And in doing so, I'm trying
(10) to understand if there is some consensus as
(11) to what has already been produced.

(12) MR. HANSON: What has already been
(13) produced is on its face incomplete and
(14) logically grossly off from what the actual
(15) numbers are. Otherwise, it's inconceivable
(16) that she would take the position that I'm
(17) going to keep objecting to you getting any
(18) discovery into my Chase bank accounts and
(19) anything else, even though just giving me
(20) some transparency would net me a lot more
(21) money assuming that she would be honest;
(22) she's choosing litigation instead of that.

(23) THE COURT: I'm not worried about the
(24) effects at this point. I'm just trying to
(25) understand the requesting what's there,

(1) right?

(2) So, for example, if I were to agree
(3) with you, Mr. Hanson, and I say, "Okay. We
(4) can do three years of mandatory financial
(5) disclosures," right? What I'm trying to
(6) understand is how to word that and craft
(7) that so that we can all understand what that
(8) means so we can identify time frame, and
(9) also to avoid any sort of duplicative
(10) disclosures pursuant to what's already been
(11) done.

(12) MR. HANSON: Sure. I don't need
(13) anything that they've already sent me to be
(14) sent.

(15) THE COURT: I don't think that you're
(16) asking for that. That's what I'm trying to
(17) figure out, what has been produced.

(18) MR. HANSON: Sorry. I missed the
(19) question. Yes. Whatever has been produced,
(20) I don't need to receive those same documents
(21) again.

(22) THE COURT: Okay. And there's no
(23) concern or claim that what is listed in
(24) those certificates of compliance mandatory
(25) disclosure you did not receive, right? You

(1) agree that what's in there you got?

(2) MR. HANSON: What's in the filings.

(3) THE COURT: Yes.

(4) MR. HANSON: I would assume that the
(5) filings are accurate, but I haven't, you
(6) know, looked to make sure that they fit
(7) exactly with what was produced.

(8) I'm not trying to be difficult, Your
(9) Honor, but I'm not asking for anything
(10) that's already been produced.

(11) THE COURT: Okay.

(12) MR. HANSON: But I can't say with
(13) certainty that their pleading matches up
(14) perfectly with what was produced.

(15) THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Davis then, I
(16) believe, as I understand it, the request is
(17) for 12.285 disclosures going back seven
(18) years, but with the concession from
(19) Mr. Hanson that he understands he may need
(20) to compromise on that number back from the
(21) date of the filing of the request for
(22) mandatory -- what, what?

(23) MR. HANSON: I thought it was the date
(24) of filing the Petition for Dissolution. I
(25) think it is.

(1) THE COURT: Well I'm asking what your
(2) request is.

(3) MR. HANSON: Oh, yes.

(4) THE COURT: So you're saying three
(5) years, 12.285 disclosures with three years
(6) going back before the date of the filing
(7) Petition for Dissolution of Marriage.

(8) MR. HANSON: The original petition,
(9) because there was an amended one. But, yes,
(10) the original one.

(11) THE COURT: All right. And I have the
(12) original petition filed on 1/26/24, and that
(13) was filed as a Joint Petition for
(14) Dissolution of Marriage with Dependent
(15) Children; is that correct?

(16) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

(17) THE COURT: Thank you. Okay.
(18) Mr. Davis, if the request is for three years
(19) of 12.285, going back three years before the
(20) date of that filing of the petition of
(21) 1/26/24, with the caveat that there's no
(22) requirement to produce anything that's
(23) previously been produced. Is there a
(24) response to that?

(25) MR. DAVIS: Yes, Judge. May I have a

(1) moment.

(2) THE COURT: Absolutely. Did you want a
(3) moment to confer with your client or a
(4) moment to review?

(5) MR. DAVIS: No, sir. I just want a
(6) moment. Well, my computer, to be honest,
(7) with you, sir.

(8) THE COURT: No worries.

(9) MR. DAVIS: So, Judge, we have rules.
(10) We have the Florida Family Law Rules of
(11) Procedure that we all have to follow. There
(12) is no request prior to Dock 22 Request for
(13) Production or anything along those lines for
(14) anything outside of mandatory disclosure.

(15) Mr. Hanson's motion doesn't ask for
(16) three years, seven years, five years. It
(17) doesn't ask for that. If he hasn't filed a
(18) request for production, then he's going
(19) about it procedurally incorrect. And to
(20) grant this motion that was filed prior to
(21) the filing of any request for production
(22) would be a complete deviation from the law.
(23) So the Court should deny this motion.

(24) In response to the Court's question,
(25) there is a prenuptial agreement that has not

[Page 90]

(1) yet been set aside. There's a -- we'll call
(2) it a post-nup. It's a marital separation
(3) agreement that has not yet been set aside.
(4) Those issues have to be addressed prior to
(5) the Court considering Mr. Hanson's
(6) additional discovery request, which this
(7) motion doesn't even properly request because
(8) there's been no request for production filed
(9) prior to the filing of Mr. Hanson's response
(10) to motion to compel payments and motion to
(11) compel evidence of marital assets and
(12) financial information filed February 16th,
(13) 2024.

(14) THE COURT: Okay. So, as I understand
(15) it, Mr. Davis, you're saying that the --
(16) this motion doesn't properly state what it
(17) is that he's requesting as we've tried to
(18) flush out in today's hearing, correct? And
(19) there are two agreements that you're saying
(20) need to be ruled on before even the
(21) discovery shall proceed.

(22) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir. And there's no
(23) request for production or request to produce
(24) that was filed prior to the filing of this
(25) motion.

(1) THE COURT: I understand.

(2) MR. DAVIS: So if there was a request
(3) for production filed and we objected to it
(4) and we are having a hearing on whether the
(5) objection should be sustained, overruled,
(6) what have you, sure. But we're not -- it
(7) wasn't -- this -- that's not what happened.
(8) And we're not trying anything by consent
(9) that was not pled in the four corners of his
(10) motion.

(11) THE COURT: Okay. So, I guess, what
(12) you're saying is that if he had filed a
(13) request for production of mandatory
(14) disclosure for this time frame, and then
(15) that preceded as it would normally through
(16) the course and scope, either a response or
(17) an objection, and then that was set for a
(18) hearing, that's where we should be
(19) procedurally properly today, is that -- is
(20) that what you're saying?

(21) MR. DAVIS: That's correct.

(22) THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hanson?

(23) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I would just
(24) add to Mr. Davis' comment about there being
(25) rules that there's discovery rules and

[Page 92]

(1) there's rules of professional conduct, and
(2) whether that document strictly complies as a
(3) request to produce, I can't make that
(4) argument that it applies strictly, but
(5) you've got to -- you've got a mess here.

(6) You've got Judge Ayers who did nothing
(7) fair the entire time that she was on the
(8) case.

(9) MR. DAVIS: That's irrelevant to -- I
(10) have to object. It's irrelevant. It
(11) doesn't prove or disprove any material fact
(12) at issue. Interestingly, when this motion
(13) was filed and it was prior to my being
(14) retained by Mrs. Hanson, I think all we had
(15) had is a case management conference in front
(16) of Judge Ayers. So anything that Judge
(17) Ayers may or may not have done, not relevant
(18) to this motion because it was filed before
(19) then.

(20) MR. HANSON: And, again, Your Honor, my
(21) request here is clear. I raised an issue
(22) over misconduct. I mean, there's
(23) information about physical assaults in there
(24) where -- the Court has powers in equity
(25) where it can look at this and say this

(1) person was struggling. And I acknowledge
(2) that I was having real struggles with my
(3) health then, and the stories remain
(4) consistent for two years. This is all he
(5) wants. It's time to order something.

(6) So I would respectfully request that
(7) the Court uses its powers in equity to award
(8) at least three years and consider just how
(9) universal is the obstruction has been from
(10) Mr. Davis and the Wife.

(11) Every time there's discussion of me
(12) getting some records -- even getting them to
(13) re-word their certificate of compliance,
(14) Judge Ayers wouldn't even have them reword
(15) their certificate of compliance and made me
(16) waste thousands of dollars and hundreds of
(17) hours of legal in trying to get it done.
(18) Every decision I've made has been with the
(19) goal of getting things efficient and, Your
(20) Honor I --

(21) MR. DAVIS: Again, I have to object to
(22) relevant. It doesn't go to --

(23) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I was -- I'm
(24) still talking.

(25) MR. DAVIS: This is how it works. It

(1) doesn't go to prove or disprove any material
(2) fact at issue.

(3) THE COURT: All right. I hear the
(4) objection. You may proceed, Mr. Hanson.
(5) But, once again, I'm really trying to -- I'm
(6) trying to narrow down on specific issues so
(7) I can check things. Does that make sense?
(8) I'm trying to -- I'm trying to move forward.
(9) And I, certainly, I've heard your arguments
(10) in total with regards to all the moving
(11) parts. And I'm not going to disagree with
(12) you that there are a lot of moving parts,
(13) but I'm trying to ask very specific
(14) questions and deal with issues individually
(15) at a time.

(16) MR. HANSON: And I understand that,
(17) Your Honor, but do you understand my
(18) argument that the moving parts are a
(19) distraction?

(20) THE COURT: Are a distraction?

(21) MR. HANSON: Are a distraction because
(22) there's only two issues: There's the
(23) request for information and the attempt to
(24) obstruct and conceal it. Every action in
(25) this case can be seen through that lens.

(1) And their reaction to the Court considering
(2) ordering three years is the same thing.

(3) It's -- and I should also bring up,
(4) I've offered to resolve any issue that they
(5) want to resolve if they just would show some
(6) transparency on the financial end. And that
(7) has been a non-starter with them since day
(8) one. And I don't know if now is a good time
(9) to get into some testimony about the events
(10) that led up to this request in May of 2024.

(11) Well, Your Honor, I respect that you
(12) want to move through things today.
(13) Ultimately, I think it will come down to
(14) it's not a perfect request to produce, but
(15) it does request relief, and I think that the
(16) facts justify it.

(17) So I don't know that me arguing more is
(18) going to be productive unless you'd like to
(19) hear testimony on it.

(20) THE COURT: I don't know that -- I
(21) mean, I'm not sure that any testimony is
(22) going to change. I mean, all of these
(23) things are just apparently legal arguments.
(24) That's with regards to discovery and scope
(25) of discovery and what you're asking for.

(1) MR. HANSON: My argument is that the
(2) facts are so severe, and that there's been
(3) so much unfairness, and that we're here on a
(4) guardian ad litem motion.

(5) THE COURT: Well, we haven't gotten to
(6) that part yet.

(7) MR. HANSON: I know, Your Honor, but
(8) it's just that --

(9) THE COURT: You want to go in order,
(10) so...

(11) MR. HANSON: That's just the thing
(12) that's holding over my head. Like just the
(13) thought of a stranger coming in and bringing
(14) their attention to the divorce after we've
(15) been good for two years, it just -- it
(16) terrifies me. So I come back to that and
(17) that I still don't have any discovery to
(18) make my argument on that including the
(19) video. So there's a lot --

(20) MR. DAVIS: I'm going to object to
(21) relevance.

(22) THE COURT: Yeah. We're bleeding into
(23) the next -- next things, I think, but as I
(24) understand it, your request is for three
(25) years of mandatory disclosures going back

(1) from the date of the filing of the initial
(2) petition, correct?

(3) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor, I think
(4) that minimum is the appropriate.

(5) THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Davis, as I
(6) understand your argument, you're saying that
(7) it was not properly pled in this motion, and
(8) there are other pending matters that need to
(9) be disposed of before the discovery should
(10) be ordered; is that correct?

(11) MR. DAVIS: Correct, Your Honor, and
(12) the rule -- for some reason I couldn't find
(13) it, but I certainly know is 12.350. And, in
(14) fact, Mr. Hanson's former counsel did file a
(15) request for production on 8/14/24, but
(16) that's not relevant to Dock 22. The Request
(17) for Production is Dock 38.

(18) MR. HANSON: Which I believe is also
(19) set for hearing today.

(20) MR. DAVIS: And we filed an objection
(21) to the first Request for Production and
(22) Motion for Protective Order, so -- timely,
(23) which we filed that on 9/10/24, and that's
(24) Dock 41.

(25) MR. HANSON: And we should have that

[Page 98]

(1) Request to Produce. I don't believe that
(2) was ever the subject of an order.

(3) THE COURT: So you reference 12.350,
(4) correct, Mr. Davis?

(5) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(6) THE COURT: Okay. I need to pull up
(7) the rule. All right. So with regards to --
(8) I'm sorry. I was covering my mouth when I
(9) was speaking, and I apologize. 12.350,
(10) Production of Documents and things an entry
(11) of inspection for other purposes. "Scope:
(12) Any party may request any other party
(13) produce and permit. The party making the
(14) request or someone acting in the requested
(15) party's behalf to inspect and copy of any
(16) designated documents including
(17) electronically stored information, writing
(18) drawings."

(19) And so correct me if I'm wrong,
(20) Mr. Davis, but you're saying that the
(21) request herein as articulated today, does
(22) not comport with this rule, correct?

(23) MR. DAVIS: Correct.

(24) THE COURT: Okay. All right.

(25) MR. DAVIS: And the motion predates the

(1) request for production that his --
(2) Mr. Hanson's former counsel did file on
(3) 8/14/24.

(4) THE COURT: I'm sorry. 8/14/24, what
(5) was the docket on that again?

(6) MR. DAVIS: One moment, sir.

(7) THE COURT: Oh, no worries. I can find
(8) it.

(9) MR. DAVIS: I've got it. It's 38.

(10) THE COURT: Thank you.

(11) MR. HANSON: And, Your Honor, one way
(12) to do this might be to get responses to this
(13) request to produce because I don't believe
(14) there's ever been an order on this. If
(15) that's more acceptable to Mr. Davis and
(16) Mrs. Hanson.

(17) MR. DAVIS: Well, that's not set
(18) today.

(19) MR. HANSON: You were advised that it
(20) was all on her hearings by the Court, I
(21) believe.

(22) THE COURT: That request for production
(23) seems to be in large part overlapping
(24) 12.350, but it seems to be --

(25) MR. DAVIS: That's typical. I

(1) acknowledge that's typical.

(2) THE COURT: Now, I do want to hear a
(3) little bit more about the arguments with
(4) regards to the what you're saying are two --
(5) and when I say, "you're saying," I'm not
(6) saying it's incorrect, but the pre -- a
(7) prenuptial agreement and post-nuptial
(8) agreement, correct?

(9) MR. DAVIS: That's correct, sir.

(10) THE COURT: And am I correct,
(11) Mr. Hanson, you are saying that those have
(12) been challenged?

(13) MR. HANSON: The pre-marital agreement
(14) is completely relevant. The only issue is
(15) marital property and the pre-marital
(16) agreement doesn't address property. The
(17) post-marital agreement there were no
(18) disclosures. And that automatically invokes
(19) Casto v. Casto and the burden is on the
(20) non-disclosing spouse to prove
(21) reasonableness, which opens the door for
(22) discovery.

(23) THE COURT: And it has been challenged;
(24) is that correct?

(25) MR. HANSON: But I don't need to

(1) challenge it.

(2) MR. DAVIS: That's not Dock 22.

(3) MR. HANSON: I don't need to challenge
(4) it. It's not that --

(5) THE COURT: One second --

(6) MR. HANSON: Once there's no
(7) disclosures --

(8) THE COURT: One second, please,
(9) Mr. Davis. I promise I'll give you the
(10) opportunity to respond.

(11) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir. I'm sorry.

(12) MR. HANSON: It's Docket 146. That's
(13) got to be on the notice of hearing, but
(14) regardless Casto v. Casto doesn't require me
(15) to challenge it. I did and I'm risking a
(16) couple hundred thousand dollars or more by
(17) challenging it, but I want this peace of
(18) mind.

(19) THE COURT: Respondent's Motion to Void
(20) Post-marital Agreement on Grounds of Duress,
(21) Coercion, Fraud and to Supercede Prior
(22) Orders on Discovery and Enter an Order
(23) Specifically Allowing Subpoenas for Chase
(24) and Other Financial Institutions and
(25) Ordering the Wife to fully comply with

[Page 102]

(1) 12.285, Mandatory Disclosures; is that
(2) correct?

(3) MR. HANSON: Docket 146, you say?

(4) THE COURT: Yes.

(5) MR. HANSON: Yes. And I just want to
(6) make my point clear is that in Casto v.
(7) Casto it doesn't require the motion to void.
(8) It's once there is --

(9) MR. DAVIS: Object. I'm not trying
(10) this issue by consent.

(11) THE COURT: I understand. Mr. Hanson,
(12) I feel like you're making a point that
(13) I'm -- I guess, I'm not asking you to make.
(14) I think I simply asked the question, was it
(15) challenged.

(16) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(17) THE COURT: Saying you didn't have to
(18) is fine, but you did it, right?

(19) MR. HANSON: Right.

(20) THE COURT: So I'm not understanding
(21) why you're making that point.

(22) MR. HANSON: I'm just making that point
(23) because it further reflects the
(24) inappropriate nature of the delays. Judge
(25) Ayers told me that -- hinted to me that, you

(1) know, you need to file a motion to void it
(2) thinking that I wasn't going to be willing
(3) to risk all that money to do it. I'm
(4) sorry --

(5) THE COURT: I don't know what she was
(6) thinking or what you're thinking she was
(7) thinking. I don't --

(8) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry, but that's the
(9) issue on the post-marital agreement is that
(10) there is admittedly no disclosures from
(11) wife, and whether the motion to void is
(12) there or not, it opens the door for
(13) discovery.

(14) THE COURT: Okay.

(15) MR. DAVIS: May I respond?

(16) THE COURT: You may.

(17) MR. DAVIS: Mr. Hanson says the
(18) pre-marital agreement is not relevant;
(19) however -- just lost this. Sorry. Sorry.
(20) Just a second.

(21) THE COURT: No worries. Starting on
(22) page 6 and --

(23) MR. DAVIS: Going to page 7 of the
(24) pre-marital agreement that Mr. Hanson argues
(25) is irrelevant to discovery, "The parties

(1) mutually agree that all of the earnings,
(2) income and financial entitlements resulting
(3) from a party's personal services, skill,
(4) effort, work, investments, retirement or
(5) disability prior to their marriage, together
(6) with all of the property acquired or income
(7) therefrom shall be the separate property."

(8) MR. HANSON: That doesn't --

(9) MR. DAVIS: And it goes on to state
(10) about jointly-owned assets, spousal rights
(11) and dissolution, alimony, debts, et cetera.

(12) So, I believe, the pre-marital
(13) agreement is also relevant.

(14) MR. HANSON: On its face it's not.
(15) He's describing that pre-marital assets and
(16) producing income during the marriage stay
(17) separate, but income from employment, that
(18) is not what it's describing at all.

(19) THE COURT: What's it describing?

(20) MR. HANSON: It's describing if there's
(21) something is a pre-marital asset, it's going
(22) to remain a personal asset, and if it
(23) appreciates or earns money, that would
(24) remain a personal asset. It's not -- it was
(25) something that was discussed during the

(1) pre-marital agreement that we were not going
(2) to exempt -- marital assets and property
(3) were going to remain marital assets and
(4) property.

(5) And I don't believe this argument has
(6) been made anywhere. I thought that we all
(7) agreed that the pre-marital agreement was
(8) irrelevant.

(9) THE COURT: I'm sorry. I'm getting --
(10) perhaps I'm getting a little confused
(11) because you're saying you want three years
(12) of financial information going back before
(13) to the date of filing, but that is
(14) irrelevant because this agreement doesn't
(15) contemplate that.

(16) MR. HANSON: It doesn't contemplate.
(17) You're telling me that you read that to read
(18) that is marital income? That's income from
(19) separate pre-marital assets, Your Honor.

(20) THE COURT: Well, yeah. What it says
(21) here is, "The parties mutually agree that
(22) all of the earnings, income and financial
(23) entitlements resulting from a party's
(24) personal services, skill, effort, work,
(25) investments, retirement or disability prior

(1) to the marriage together with all the
(2) property acquired or income derived
(3) therefrom, shall be and remain the separate
(4) property of the party to whom the earnings,
(5) income, retirement pay or financial
(6) entitlements were attributable."

(7) MR. HANSON: Right.

(8) THE COURT: So. That's what it says.

(9) MR. HANSON: But it doesn't say that's
(10) marital income, Your Honor. It clearly
(11) doesn't -- does not describe -- you can
(12) describe marital income in three words. You
(13) have to give meaning to every word in there.

(14) When you do that, it talks about
(15) preexisting ownership and income from that.
(16) It does not talk about marital income.

(17) THE COURT: Okay. And here's what I'm
(18) trying to understand. You're saying that --
(19) so, as I read it, and perhaps I'm wrong. I
(20) just want -- I want to talk through this so
(21) I can understand each party's position,
(22) right?

(23) But it says, "The parties mutually
(24) agree that all of the earnings, income
(25) financials resulting from the party's

[Page 107]

(1) services, skill, work and investments,"
(2) right?

(3) MR. HANSON: What is after that
(4) investments.

(5) THE COURT: Investments, retirement or
(6) disability prior to their marriage.

(7) MR. HANSON: Okay. That's an important
(8) clause.

(9) THE COURT: Okay. But what I'm talking
(10) about, everything prior to their marriage,
(11) right?

(12) MR. DAVIS: I think it says -- the way
(13) I read it is if they were disabled prior to
(14) the marriage and they had income from,
(15) essentially, disability income.

(16) THE COURT: Okay. So the argument is
(17) that the -- from your perspective,
(18) Mr. Hanson, is that this clause only refers
(19) to anything earned before the marriage and
(20) anything that was derived from those
(21) earnings prior to the marriage.

(22) MR. HANSON: Clearly. And I don't even
(23) think this was noticed. I think this was
(24) back when Judge Ayers was looking at the
(25) initial discovery issues. So I would like

(1) to see where this is raised in anything for
(2) today because I would need to go back and
(3) look at that, but it is very clear that
(4) marital income -- there might even be a
(5) clause that say marital assets remain
(6) marital assets. It's never been a --

(7) THE COURT: But what I'm trying to --
(8) the reason I'm looking at it, Mr. Hanson, is
(9) I'm trying to understand the proprietary of
(10) the discovery request and whether or not
(11) it's reasonably likely to lead to
(12) discoverable material or the matters at
(13) issue in this case.

(14) MR. HANSON: Right. I would like to
(15) just know where this has been placed at
(16) issue before the Court.

(17) THE COURT: I was just telling you why
(18) I was looking at it.

(19) MR. HANSON: Okay. But if they haven't
(20) raised it, but...

(21) MR. DAVIS: I'm happy to answer that
(22) actually.

(23) THE COURT: Do you need towels or
(24) anything?

(25) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry. I just spilled

[Page 109]

(1) just a drop of Celsius here. It wasn't my
(2) fault. Thank you.

(3) MR. DAVIS: May I continue?

(4) THE COURT: Yes.

(5) MR. DAVIS: Where it was raised as an
(6) actual issue was when Mr. Hanson's former
(7) counsel filed a Request for Production, an
(8) actual Request for Production comporting
(9) with the rules rather than what we're
(10) talking about in Dock 22 on August 14th,
(11) which is Dock 38, and then we, I, filed the
(12) objection to the Respondent's First Request,
(13) which was filed on September 10th, 2024,
(14) which is timely under the rules.

(15) Paragraph 3 -- oops, sorry, 4 says, "On
(16) or about October 25th, 2016, the parties
(17) executed a pre-marital agreement. A true
(18) and accurate copy is attached hereto as
(19) Exhibit B. And I go on to argue that it
(20) calls for a complete waiver of various
(21) different things, and I make the argument
(22) that's not set for today. So I'm not going
(23) to go through it at this time, but when
(24) Mr. Hanson says, "I want to know where they
(25) made this objection," the answer is the

(1) objection was made on September 10th, 2024,
(2) roughly a year and a half ago. I was just
(3) extending the Courtesy of answering his
(4) question.

(5) THE COURT: Attached to that objection
(6) is that Request for Production; is that
(7) correct?

(8) MR. DAVIS: I'm sorry?

(9) THE COURT: I did that again. I put my
(10) hand in front of my mouth when I was
(11) talking. I'm sorry. And attached that to
(12) objection is the Request for Production as
(13) previously requested?

(14) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir, that's correct.
(15) That's Exhibit A.

(16) THE COURT: Gotcha. Okay. Anything
(17) else on that matter, Mr. Hanson?

(18) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. This had
(19) been dealt with -- I'm not able to -- unless
(20) the Court wants to take a quick break, I
(21) don't have the exact section that I'm
(22) looking for, but the pre-marital agreement
(23) has been a non-issue for the vast majority
(24) of the case, and it certainly does not
(25) change the marital assets as being marital

[Page 111]

(1) assets. Income from employment during the
(2) marriage is always marital assets.

(3) THE COURT: When you say, "is always
(4) marital assets," do you mean under your
(5) prenuptial agreement?

(6) MR. HANSON: Yes. Yes, the prenuptial
(7) agreement didn't impact it. And that was
(8) the understanding at the time that we talked
(9) about --

(10) MR. DAVIS: You can't testify about the
(11) understanding at the time of the entry in
(12) the agreements. It's parol evidence.

(13) THE COURT: Objection to parol
(14) evidence. Any response to that objection?

(15) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I was a party
(16) to the contract, and I recall that being an
(17) issue because I would have preferred that it
(18) did separate out marital income.

(19) THE COURT: But, as I understand the
(20) parol evidence, there needs to be some
(21) finding of ambiguity before we get into
(22) that.

(23) MR. DAVIS: Correct.

(24) MR. HANSON: And I don't think
(25) there's --

(1) THE COURT: And you're saying there's
(2) no ambiguity, so we can't get into that.

(3) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry. I'm saying
(4) there's no ambiguity?

(5) THE COURT: Right.

(6) MR. HANSON: Correct.

(7) THE COURT: That's my understanding of
(8) what you're saying.

(9) MR. HANSON: I don't think that there's
(10) ambiguity. If the Court does, then, you
(11) know, obviously, that's the only thing that
(12) matters.

(13) THE COURT: No, that's not the only
(14) thing that matters. I'm just trying to
(15) understand where we are, right? So if
(16) there's an objection based on parol evidence
(17) rule and you're saying there's no ambiguity,
(18) then we cannot get in to that other stuff.
(19) We have to look at the face of the
(20) agreement, is my understanding. Is your
(21) understanding or different?

(22) MR. HANSON: My understanding would be
(23) that if there is a dispute as to what the
(24) agreement means; in other words, I don't
(25) think that there is -- there's any anything

(1) is unclear about it. But, you know, if
(2) Mr. Davis or the Court suggest that there is
(3) something unclear about it, then I think
(4) that would open the door for me to be able
(5) to discuss it.

(6) THE COURT: Right.

(7) MR. HANSON: But, again, Your Honor, we
(8) get down into these smaller issues. The
(9) bigger issue is that there was -- I'm sorry,
(10) Your Honor, I'll let you lead where you want
(11) to go next.

(12) THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Davis, I
(13) certainly understand where you're coming
(14) from procedurally, okay, but what I -- my
(15) goal, certainly, and as I understand is --
(16) and I want to be careful how I say it
(17) because I understand where we are in the
(18) case because we're talking about this case
(19) specifically and the length of time that
(20) things have been pending.

(21) I want to -- I want to start to try to
(22) get things moving forward. Okay. And --
(23) but, obviously, I have to protect everyone's
(24) rights and due process with regards to all
(25) that also. Okay? So I'm not going to

(1) preclude any objections, but I'm going to
(2) order three years of mandatory disclosures
(3) be --

(4) MS. HANSON: Can I ask a question?

(5) THE COURT: Let me finish before you
(6) ask your question. I'm not sure if I'm
(7) going to answer your question or not, but
(8) I'll give you the opportunity to do so.
(9) Okay?

(10) So I'm going to order three years of
(11) mandatory disclosure going back three years
(12) from the date of the filing initial petition
(13) on January 26th 2024. Okay.

(14) MR. DAVIS: Despite that not being
(15) noticed properly for hearing and there being
(16) a prenuptial agreement and a postnuptial
(17) agreement, which we respectfully take the
(18) position that that's the essential
(19) requirement of law.

(20) THE COURT: I understand, Mr. Davis.
(21) Let me finish, please.

(22) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir. I'm sorry.

(23) THE COURT: That's what I'm going to
(24) order at this time. As I said -- as I
(25) started to say before, started going and was

(1) asked a questions and then interrupted --

(2) MR. DAVIS: I'm sorry I interrupted.

(3) THE COURT: I'm not going to preclude
(4) any objections to that. You can make your
(5) objections and we'll set that for a hearing
(6) specifically. Okay? But what I want to try
(7) to do is get timelines moving proceeding
(8) forward. Okay? I didn't order this
(9) discovery and say you have to produce -- you
(10) don't -- I'm not precluding any right to
(11) make an objection, all right, and then we'll
(12) have to deal with that specifically.

(13) Because as you stated, it wasn't --
(14) those objections aren't specifically stated
(15) for today, and that other thing isn't stated
(16) for today. And if there is an argument
(17) regarding the ambiguity or applicability of
(18) the prenuptial agreement, I want to give
(19) people the opportunity to hear about that.

(20) But if there is a reading of this
(21) document that can be reasonably made to say
(22) that moneys earned during the marriage are
(23) marital assets, then the discovery is, I
(24) think, in balance. And if the argument is
(25) that that's not what the agreement says, and

(1) that's an objection that's made, we'll hear
(2) and deal with that later. Okay?

(3) MR. DAVIS: I understand the Court's
(4) ruling.

(5) THE COURT: Okay. And, once again, I
(6) appreciate you saying, "I understand." I
(7) get where you're coming from. I certainly
(8) do.

(9) MR. DAVIS: And that's the Court ruling
(10) on Dock 22?

(11) THE COURT: Correct. Mr. Hanson,
(12) anything with regard to that?

(13) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, just I feel
(14) like I'm getting closer, but they're not
(15) going to produce anything. They're going to
(16) kick the can down the -- further down the
(17) road, and I just I -- don't know how much
(18) longer it's going to be, but it demonstrated
(19) an unflinching intent to conceal this. And
(20) leaving these doors open is not going to
(21) move this case forward, but that's my
(22) concern. I understand your ruling.

(23) THE COURT: I appreciate your concern.
(24) Noted. We'll cross those bridges when we
(25) get there. 30 days?

(1) MR. DAVIS: 30 days if that's what the
(2) Court is ordering.

(3) THE COURT: Okay. And if I didn't say
(4) it, I want to be clear, I'm not ordering the
(5) production of documents that have previously
(6) been produced. However, I would ask in
(7) strict compliance that you reference that,
(8) you know, documents for this time period
(9) were produced pursuant to this certificate
(10) of compliance. Does that make sense?

(11) MR. DAVIS: Yes.

(12) THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Okay.
(13) All right. Next matter I have on the Notice
(14) of Hearing is Wife's Motion to Appoint
(15) guardian ad litem. Is that what we have,
(16) Mr. Davis?

(17) MR. DAVIS: Yes.

(18) THE COURT: Is that what we have,
(19) Mr. Hanson?

(20) MR. HANSON: I believe that is the next
(21) one on the list. But, again, Your Honor, I
(22) got to bring up the structural conflicts,
(23) the missing evidence that 13th Circuit has
(24) that is critical to my arguments and is
(25) critical to the history of the case and the

(1) extent of the misconduct and corruption
(2) that's ruled over this case.

(3) It's really difficult to understand how
(4) I'm forced to be moving forward with this
(5) under these circumstances where the Court is
(6) essentially in possession of the last
(7) attempt at it. And one thing I hadn't
(8) mentioned yet is after the April 4th of 2025
(9) hearing, Judge Ayers requested that
(10) Mr. Davis write up a summary of the support
(11) for the guardian ad litem.

(12) MR. DAVIS: Actually, a subject of a
(13) separation motion that is set for today, so
(14) I would ask that we address that in order
(15) just like Mr. Hanson has addressed.

(16) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(17) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I think
(18) that -- like I've told you, there is one
(19) issue in the case and they bleed together.
(20) And Mr. Davis is able to avoid spotlights on
(21) his misconduct by getting just really
(22) specific and one issue at a time.

(23) You can't see patterns with one issue
(24) at a time. You need broader context to
(25) understand the extent of the delay, harass,

(1) burden and obstruct strategy. And this is
(2) the number one harassment mechanism that
(3) they've used.

(4) THE COURT: Appointment of the guardian
(5) ad litem?

(6) MR. HANSON: Yes, yes, Your Honor. My
(7) kids are -- they blocked their school from
(8) filling out child wellness forms.

(9) THE COURT: But isn't this getting into
(10) an argument for guardian or not?

(11) MR. HANSON: It is, Your Honor. I'm
(12) sorry, Your Honor. I didn't sleep at all
(13) last night. I'm losing track of my thoughts
(14) here.

(15) THE COURT: As I understand it, you are
(16) raising the structural argument.

(17) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. I'm
(18) sorry if I'm just doing the same thing
(19) again, but I just want it to be clear for
(20) the record.

(21) THE COURT: Okay. The Court will stand
(22) by its prior decision with regards to that.

(23) With regards to the Motion for an
(24) Appointment of the Guardian Ad Litem, just
(25) as before, I'll allow each party to do an

(1) opening and then take testimony and
(2) witnesses, if necessary, okay?

(3) Mr. Davis, your motion.

(4) MR. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor. May
(5) it please the Court. There are two minor
(6) children at issue. They are elementary-age
(7) school children. They're both girls. We
(8) certainly acknowledge that 62.132(c)(1)
(9) Florida Statutes is a presumption that equal
(10) timesharing is the best interest of the
(11) children.

(12) Mrs. Hanson's amended petition alleges
(13) that it is not in the best interest of the
(14) children to have equal timesharing with both
(15) parties. That it's in the best interest of
(16) the children to have majority timesharing
(17) with the mother.

(18) As I've indicated in paragraph 6 of the
(19) motion, on May 16th of 2024, Mr. Hanson
(20) filed a motion that we just addressed is
(21) response to Motion to Compel Payments and
(22) Motion to Compel Evidence of Marital Assets
(23) and Financial Information at document 22
(24) where he said the following: He has severe
(25) mental, physical and emotional conditions.

(1) It's paragraph 21. He is undergoing
(2) invasive treatments for both physical and
(3) psychiatric issues, that's paragraph 22.

(4) He will soon start daily
(5) five-times-per-week TMS treatments that will
(6) increase the time and cost of medical care.
(7) That's mental health treatment. That's
(8) paragraph 22 as well.

(9) And that he acknowledged that when he
(10) previously refused to provide payments for
(11) children's expenses, he did it out of anger
(12) and frustration. So what we want is a
(13) guardian ad litem to and Mr. Hanson
(14) vehemently opposed to it even though there
(15) are other times that he's alleged that
(16) Mrs. Hanson engages in bad parenting and
(17) Mrs. Hanson isn't doing the right thing and
(18) that he should have majority timesharing
(19) even though he hasn't pled it.

(20) So we need a guardian ad litem to look
(21) at his mental health records. He has
(22) offered to produce those to me. That is
(23) true. But I'm not the guardian ad litem. I
(24) can't get in there and make assessments.

(25) We need somebody to go in there and

[Page 122]

(1) make assessments, get the records, talk to
(2) his doctors, look at what he's taking for
(3) medication, look at what he's, you know, his
(4) medical history, any pain medication that he
(5) may or may not be on, his surgical history.
(6) Talk to the children, find out what's going
(7) on behind the scenes because that's
(8) important in some of these cases and make a
(9) recommendation to the Court as to what's in
(10) the best interest of the children.

(11) The irony of the whole thing, the
(12) guardian can come back and say he's a great
(13) dad and you should do equal timesharing.
(14) That is a feasible thing that could happen.
(15) So we want somebody to go and do the
(16) investigation. Mr. Hanson wants me to
(17) investigate, but I can't testify to the
(18) Court.

(19) This is a third-party. Who benefits is
(20) the children who's looking out for the
(21) children, who's talking about the best
(22) interest of the children. I don't represent
(23) the children; I represent one of the
(24) parties. So me doing an investigation
(25) doesn't do us much good. So that's really

(1) the thing. Is they're at odds. He has a
(2) significant history of mental health
(3) according to what he filed himself, and he
(4) says I'm shaming him. He's made this
(5) argument before, belittling him, but I'm
(6) not. I'm simply saying this gentleman
(7) raised his mental health as an issue in the
(8) case by way of his own pro se filing. So
(9) that's why we believe that this case and
(10) this children need the guardian ad litem.

(11) There's a substantial history of
(12) problems between the parties relating to the
(13) children, which I will, you know, bring
(14) forth by testimony. And that's where we
(15) are. I really think, if the Court is so
(16) inclined, that the Motion for Psychological
(17) Evaluation be part of the same testimony.
(18) And, quite frankly, the timesharing issues
(19) and the Motion for Temporary Relief.

(20) If the Court doesn't want it, fair
(21) enough, but for judicial economy, I think
(22) it's all kind of tied together.

(23) THE COURT: It's my understanding that
(24) part of the request encompassed in the
(25) motion for an appointment of a guardian ad

(1) litem is for the cost to be apportioned
(2) entirely to the husband, subject to
(3) reallocation; is that correct?

(4) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(5) THE COURT: Okay. And there was not a
(6) specific individual listed in the motion as
(7) the request; is that correct?

(8) MR. DAVIS: No, sir. I have three that
(9) I can give the Court.

(10) THE COURT: I'm not asking for that
(11) yet.

(12) MR. DAVIS: Right. Okay.

(13) THE COURT: Okay. Opening response,
(14) Mr. Hanson, to the Motion to Appoint a
(15) Guardian Ad Litem.

(16) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor. And,
(17) again, with all due respect, the amount of
(18) corruption, dishonesty, gross and cruel
(19) behavior that I've encountered the last two
(20) years in the family law system is shocking.
(21) And I've heard horror stories about guardian
(22) ad litem. It's a for-profit system.

(23) I've litigated cases in work comp for
(24) 18 years, and I know how hired experts work,
(25) and it's not for the good of the party.

[Page 125]

(1) It's not for the good of the kids. It's for
(2) the good of their wallets. And, Mr. Davis'
(3) statement, there's nothing in there to
(4) suggest that the kids could be any better
(5) than they are, and I don't think that they
(6) could be.

(7) So he's saying that it's in their best
(8) interest to have a guardian ad litem --

(9) THE COURT: I'm sorry, I was reacting
(10) to the comment: "There is nothing in there
(11) that the kids couldn't be any better than (12) they are." I'm sorry. I'm just trying to
(13) unpack it.

(14) MR. HANSON: What I'm trying to say,
(15) Your Honor, is my kids are doing -- they're
(16) thriving and excelling in every aspect of
(17) life. They don't talk to counselors, they
(18) think about the divorce, they don't hear
(19) anything negative about their mom from me.
(20) They're doing incredibly well.

(21) And that's why Mr. Davis and Mrs.
(22) Hanson blocked their teachers from filling
(23) out child wellness forms. They don't want
(24) information about how well they're doing,
(25) and that's pretty gross.

(1) They're here telling you that they want
(2) what's in the best of the kids, but they
(3) don't want you to hear from the teachers. I
(4) don't know how you can have any credibility
(5) when you come in and say that, and you don't
(6) pursue my records, you use an admission that
(7) I made, that was really hard to make because
(8) it was the right thing to do for my family,
(9) to move things along, to be honest, that I
(10) was going through a struggle. You throw
(11) that to my face --

(12) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I would ask
(13) that you address me.

(14) MR. DAVIS: I was about to ask the same
(15) thing.

(16) MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, that's a
(17) pretty serious violation of basic good
(18) faith. If he thinks there's a problem with
(19) my parenting, he's going to throw something
(20) that I said two years ago in my face today
(21) and say that's why I need a guardian ad
(22) litem. Bury his head in the sand about how
(23) well they'e doing, avoid my deposition,
(24) avoid my medical records, avoid getting a
(25) psych eval.

(1) He wants to corrupt my kids' lives.

(2) That's what he's doing. He's bringing in
(3) lies and bringing in unnecessary state
(4) interventions, strangers, who are going to
(5) talk about their futures.

(6) They are on great paths. They're --
(7) I've got to -- actually, I'd like to
(8) introduce this now, Your Honor, this is just
(9) their past month with me. I put it in the
(10) Internet, and had a -- I don't know if you
(11) call it a PowerPoint or a PDF. It just
(12) shows like their life with me the past month
(13) that I would like to introduce.

(14) I'm in a position where I have to prove
(15) I'm a good father on some level. And
(16) there's not a good way to do it. People
(17) don't want to come in here and testify.
(18) They don't want to testify on my behalf that
(19) I'm a good father, so it's a hard thing to
(20) prove it, but, Your Honor, what's the best
(21) way to share this -- this slide show.

(22) It was E-mailed to your office in the
(23) middle of the night sometime. Is there a
(24) way I can -- I've never done this before.
(25) You want it on my computer --

[Page 128]

(1) THE COURT: Well, I -- right now we're
(2) in opening statements.

(3) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry.

(4) THE COURT: So I would ask maybe that
(5) we wait until, you know, request for
(6) admission of evidence until the parties are
(7) sworn in and we take actual testimony.

(8) MR. HANSON: Okay. Okay. On the
(9) opening statement, part of it, you can't say
(10) that the kids need state intervention
(11) without suggesting that they're having any
(12) problems.

(13) I don't understand how that argument
(14) can even be made to interfere with happy,
(15) health kids. Thriving with the 50/50
(16) custody. And it's critical to look at the
(17) timeline here, Your Honor.

(18) It perfectly demonstrates their delay
(19) of obstruct, harass, conceal strategy. You
(20) know, I don't want to repeat the whole
(21) thing, Your Honor, but June of 2024 is the
(22) stipulated date of production, which I was
(23) waiting by the computer. I was -- this is
(24) finally going to be over and I'm going to
(25) get it --

(1) MR. DAVIS: Object. Talk about
(2) discovery on the guardian ad litem motion.
(3) It doesn't prove or disprove any material
(4) facts at issue.

(5) MR. HANSON: No. Especially, if I can
(6) get the video of Judge Ayers and the
(7) materials from December -- of December 2024
(8) and January of 2025 --

(9) MR. DAVIS: Also irrelevant.

(10) MR. HANSON: It will absolutely help me
(11) to continue to prove. I think I already
(12) proved that these are 100 percent
(13) retaliatory in nature.

(14) THE COURT: Request for a guardian is
(15) retaliatory?

(16) MR. HANSON: 100 percent. She knows
(17) that that would be the worst things that I
(18) would want for the kids. And she's just
(19) able to hang it over my head with no basis
(20) other than throwing my own statements from
(21) two years ago back in my face. There's
(22) nothing else that they're telling you, so
(23) there is no basis for needing it.

(24) Any suggestion that I'm less than a
(25) great, caring, doting, loving father, is

[Page 130]

(1) baseless. And the Court should really look
(2) at whether there is any evidence that this
(3) motion was made in good faith. You'll see
(4) based upon the text messages that you're
(5) going to see, mid to late 2023, I was having
(6) a really hard time, and, then again, in May
(7) of 2024.

(8) Our conversations about the kids are
(9) normal. They are doing great. 50/50
(10) custody. I'm struggling. I had a
(11) hurricane -- and, I'm sorry, Your Honor, I
(12) need to review one more fact. So five years
(13) probably working on the marriage. There's
(14) never a discussion other than 50/50 custody.
(15) We knew that --

(16) MR. DAVIS: Objection to relevance.

(17) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it goes to the
(18) retaliatory nature of the motion. And I'm
(19) going to tell you the timeline of the way
(20) they filed things. Always in agreement on
(21) 50/50.

(22) October 2nd or 3rd of 2024, Hurricane
(23) Helene had just flooded my house. Three
(24) days after that, I believe, that they filed
(25) an amended petition for dissolution seeking

[Page 131]

(1) primary custody. I was dealing with
(2) flooding and didn't see it.

(3) My lawyers -- I had two lawyers at that
(4) time. Neither of them responded to it. And
(5) the response was apparently due December
(6) 13th of 2024 to this amended petition
(7) seeking primary custody --

(8) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Relevance.

(9) THE COURT: Can you please help me
(10) understand the relevance.

(11) MR. HANSON: Sure. Sure.

(12) THE COURT: We are needing a lot of
(13) time on this hearing, and there is a lot of
(14) side departure sometimes that help -- that
(15) cause me to lose the thread of where you're
(16) going.

(17) MR. HANSON: Please stop me when that
(18) happens because I am going somewhere. I
(19) promise. I'm having a little trouble
(20) getting there as fast as I would like to
(21) today, but the point is they filed this
(22) motion out of the blue. No problems with
(23) the kids. No -- not late for school or
(24) missing activities or anything.

(25) THE COURT: I understand that's your

(1) perspective.

(2) MR. HANSON: Well, and it also
(3) reflected in the text message history that
(4) you'll see, but that October 2024 filing for
(5) primary custody was their creation of a
(6) bargaining chip.

(7) When I talked to Mrs. Hodz after her
(8) conference with Mr. Davis, number one,
(9) suddenly it went from --

(10) MR. DAVIS: Objection to hearsay and
(11) relevance.

(12) THE COURT: I mean, we're in opening
(13) now. If this the things that you're going
(14) to testify to under oath, should we get to
(15) that?

(16) MR. HANSON: I just want to make it
(17) clear that this is in the pleadings that
(18) Mr. Davis attempted to -- it was through
(19) Mrs. Hodz. I didn't speak to Mr. Davis, but
(20) Mr. Hodz suggested to --

(21) MR. DAVIS: Objection to hearsay and
(22) relevance.

(23) THE COURT: How is that not hearsay?

(24) MR. HANSON: How is whatnot hearsay?

(25) THE COURT: What Mrs. Hodz said to

(1) you.

(2) MR. HANSON: The fact that he said it
(3) has independent relevance.

(4) THE COURT: It's still hearsay, right?

(5) MR. HANSON: Well, she heard him say
(6) that. She's -- I'm getting it directly from
(7) the person -- the listener. And there's
(8) independent relevance to him -- what she
(9) told me is that I would need --

(10) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Hearsay.

(11) THE COURT: Before you get into that,
(12) the objection is to you offering hearsay at
(13) this point in the hearing.

(14) MR. HANSON: But you have the
(15) opportunity to judge my credibility, and I'm
(16) telling you what Mrs. Hodz told me.

(17) THE COURT: Well, I understand, but
(18) there's still objection to hearsay, right?
(19) Like I can assess your credibility and still
(20) not allow hearsay.

(21) MR. HANSON: But where is the hearsay,
(22) if I'm here --

(23) THE COURT: But you're testifying to
(24) out-of-court statement that someone else
(25) made.

(1) MR. HANSON: Right.

(2) THE COURT: That's the objection and
(3) that's the hearsay that's being objected
(4) to.

(5) MR. HANSON: But it has independent
(6) relevance. You don't have to -- it's not
(7) offered for the truth of the matter asserted
(8) at that level of the hearsay analysis.

(9) The fact that there was a conversation
(10) about me --

(11) THE COURT: What's it being offered
(12) for, then?

(13) MR. HANSON: It's being offered for the
(14) fact that it was said, not that what was
(15) said was true.

(16) THE COURT: The fact that she said
(17) something --

(18) MR. HANSON: Hearsay statement --
(19) hearsay has to be offered to prove the truth
(20) of the matter asserted in the statement.
(21) It's not offered like that.

(22) It's offered to demonstrate that there
(23) was some conversation that connected -- if I
(24) just stopped all of the discovery issues,
(25) they'd just go back to the 50/50 after the

[Page 135]

(1) October 25th 2024 filing. And when that
(2) didn't work and I said, no, this is the one
(3) thing that I want in discovery. That's when
(4) December 13th of 2024 comes.

(5) THE COURT: Okay.

(6) MR. HANSON: That's when Ayers sets the
(7) hearing on one day's notice, and they attack
(8) with all the motions, so it's a progressive
(9) attack --

(10) MR. DAVIS: This is about the Motion to
(11) Withdraw. It's irrelevant.

(12) THE COURT: I understand.

(13) MR. DAVIS: If he wants to have
(14) Mrs. Hodz come in and testify, he should
(15) have subpoenaed here.

(16) THE COURT: I agree. And I think he's
(17) not saying what she testified to anymore,
(18) but I understand that timeline, and that's
(19) certainly argument.

(20) I understand your argument with
(21) regards -- that's my understanding of the
(22) use of the term "retaliatory," right?

(23) MR. HANSON: Right. And there's --

(24) THE COURT: Now, what I have to decide
(25) is whether or not there's still a good faith

(1) basis for the motion or the Court could
(2) benefit from it or whatever. I think
(3) that -- is there anything else you want to
(4) say in opening in response to the motion?

(5) MR. HANSON: I would also like to add
(6) that there were communications. As soon as
(7) I found the motion or the Amended Petition
(8) for Custody, I started contacting Mr. Davis
(9) and Mrs. Hanson about what are the concerns
(10) about the kids? If you think they are not
(11) getting something that they need, let me
(12) know. I can fix it. I want to make things
(13) better for them.

(14) They never advised me of one thing I
(15) was doing wrong with the kids or concerns
(16) that they had with the kids.

(17) THE COURT: Okay. Anything else for
(18) opening response?

(19) MR. HANSON: Everything else can come
(20) out in testimony.

(21) THE COURT: Okay. All right.
(22) Mr. Davis, first witness.

(23) MR. DAVIS: I'll call Mrs. Hanson.

(24) THE COURT: Mrs. Hanson, please raise
(25) your right hand.

(1) MS. HANSON: (Complies.)

(2) THE COURT: You promise to swear to
(3) tell truth, the whole truth, nothing but the
(4) truth, so help you God?

(5) MS. HANSON: I do.

(6) THE COURT: Mr. Davis, you may proceed.

(7) MR. DAVIS: Thank you. May it please
(8) the Court.

(9) SARAH HANSON, called as a witness by the
(10) Petitioner, having been first duly sworn on oath, was
(11) examined and testified as follows:

(12) DIRECT EXAMINATION

(13) BY MR. DAVIS:

(14) Q Ma'am, please state your full name.

(15) A Sarah Sorgie, S-O-R-G-I-E; Hanson, H-A-N-S-O-N.

(16) Q Who are you presently married to?

(17) A Christopher Hanson.

(18) Q Do you and Mr. Hanson have any minor children
(19) in common?

(20) A Yes.

(21) Q And what are their names and ages?

(22) A Hope is eight years old, and Hailey is six
(23) years old.

(24) Q And where do you live?

(25) A 4112 Beeswax, B-E-E-S-W-A-X, Lane, Land O'

(1) Lakes, Florida 34638.

(2) Q And how long have you lived there?

(3) A I moved in there November of 2023,

(4) specifically, it was Veteran's Day weekend. I believe

(5) Veteran's Day was a Friday.

(6) Q And where does your husband live?

(7) A He lives at 3934 East Eden, E-D-E-N, Roc,

(8) R-O-C, Circle in Tampa, Florida -- I don't remember the

(9) zip anymore.

(10) Q It doesn't matter. He lives in Hillsborough

(11) County?

(12) A Yes, Hillsborough County.

(13) Q And did you last live at Mr. Hanson's address

(14) when the divorce was filed? Is that the last place --

(15) strike that.

(16) Is that the last place you lived together as

(17) husband and wife?

(18) A Yes.

(19) Q All right. Have you and Mr. Hanson mostly

(20) abided by a schedule since y'all separated?

(21) A Child swap schedule?

(22) Q Yes, ma'am.

(23) A Is it okay if I stay here or should I go in the

(24) chair or does it matter?

(25) THE COURT: I'm fine with each party

(1) testifying from the table --

(2) THE WITNESS: Okay. That's fine.

(3) THE COURT: As a witness, you know,
(4) you're still not to read from anything or
(5) anything like that.

(6) THE WITNESS: Right, Right. I
(7) apologize. The child swap schedule?

(8) BY MR. DAVIS:

(9) Q Yes, ma'am. What has been -- what's your
(10) schedule generally that you've been exercising with
(11) Mr. Hanson?

(12) A Currently it is every three nights, so every
(13) two and a half days. It's a rotating schedule. And,
(14) generally, we usually text each other 12 o'clock, 12:30.
(15) If it's a weekend. So, for instance, my third night with
(16) the girls is tonight -- today.

(17) And so tomorrow I would text him and say, "Hey,
(18) 12:00 or 12:30," and we swap them off of Race Track gas
(19) station off of Linebaugh off of 589. And then he'll
(20) usually say, you know, 12:00, 12:30.

(21) And then if either child is having fun, and
(22) it's a weekend day, one will ask, you know, "Can I get an
(23) extra 30 minutes or an hour, you know, we're going to be
(24) late," something along those lines.

(25) If a school day, the pickup then is just after

(1) school, pick them up in the morning, we drop them off.

(2) There is other times I see them. Is that part of --

(3) Q Sure. Go ahead.

(4) A I do make it a point to go have lunch with them

(5) at the school on the days that they're with their dad.

(6) So, for instance, this past week they were with him

(7) Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and I picked them up Wednesday.

(8) So we swap Sunday and Monday then, I go to -- I

(9) have lunch with them on that -- that's the routine for

(10) the past -- definitely in the past year. Last school

(11) year as well I would go have lunch with them.

(12) And then for a period of time I would try and

(13) go to the practices; our Hope does gymnastics for three

(14) hours. Currently, it's three days a week at three hours.

(15) I believe last year I would go for the hour -- if it was

(16) Chris' time, I would go the hour before he would be there

(17) or, yeah, it would usually be the middle hour that I

(18) would go to watch her.

(19) That I don't do as often though. Just with

(20) time and everything, and she's doing better with

(21) everything.

(22) Q What has Mr. Hanson's position been regarding

(23) you attending Hope's gymnastics on his timesharing days?

(24) MR. HANSON: I would just object. It's

(25) vague.

(1) THE COURT: Sorry. The objection to
(2) what does Mr. Hanson do on his
(3) timesharing --

(4) MR. DAVIS: What is his position
(5) regarding her attending gymnastics on his
(6) timesharing?

(7) THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

(8) MR. HANSON: And I was just going to
(9) ask that he specify as to time frame. Is he
(10) talking about two years ago? One year
(11) ago.

(12) THE COURT: Okay. I mean, I guess --
(13) yeah, if you could lay -- I mean, I have no
(14) idea gymnastics was going on that long.

(15) Are we talking about in the recent
(16) past? Historically?

(17) MR. DAVIS: Certainly.

(18) BY MR. DAVIS:

(19) Q How long has Hope been attending gymnastics?

(20) A Oh, since she was three, four. Hail -- she was
(21) probably five. Hailey would have been two or three. We
(22) got into it because for Hope, I had always done a
(23) mommy-and-baby thing. We did a Yoga class, and I didn't
(24) do that -- with Hailey I couldn't do that. I had Hope.
(25) And so with Hailey, I looked into gymnastics,

(1) so she had been -- Hailey would have been walking, so she
(2) was probably around two or three and Hope is two years
(3) older and so Hope started right around that time, so
(4) about four. She was four.

(5) Q Okay. When you and Mr. Hanson separated, did
(6) Mr. Hanson have a position regarding whether or not you
(7) should or should not attend gymnastics during his
(8) timesharing?

(9) A At the time of separation I -- it was not
(10) discussed. She -- at that time also Hailey did soccer,
(11) and gymnastics wasn't discussed, but I know for soccer I
(12) was asked not to come on his days to watch her at soccer.

(13) Q But Mr. Hanson didn't want you to attend the
(14) soccer practices if it was his timesharing day?

(15) A Correct.

(16) Q Did he tell you why?

(17) A He didn't want to be around me, I presume.

(18) Q Did you ever -- did Mr. Hanson ever take a
(19) position regarding you attending gymnastics practices
(20) during your timesharing day?

(21) A Yes. I started attending more within probably
(22) a year ago ongoing because she was struggling with some
(23) things, and to support I was going. I received an
(24) E-mail -- at the time of the stay, when the stay was
(25) entered last August of 2025. After the stay was entered,

(1) I received an E-mail telling me not to go to lunch
(2) anymore and that I'm not to go to her -- he knows I'm not
(3) seeing her at gymnastics, and I'm not supposed to go to
(4) gymnastics on his time either.

(5) I attached it as part of my Motion to Lift the
(6) Stay with the Second DCA.

(7) MR. HANSON: I would just ask where is
(8) object to hearsay.

(9) THE COURT: The hearsay you're
(10) objecting to is her statement regarding an
(11) E-mail she received from you?

(12) MR. HANSON: Right. Maybe it's best
(13) evidence rule, I get those confused
(14) sometimes, but if there is an E-mail, we
(15) should see the E-mail, not hear about the
(16) E-mail.

(17) MR. DAVIS: We'll she's subject to
(18) cross-examination, and his statements are
(19) not hearsay.

(20) THE COURT: Agreed. Your statements
(21) are not hearsay, and I will certainly allow
(22) you to cross-examine on that. Okay?

(23) MR. HANSON: And Best Evidence Rule is
(24) overruled too?

(25) THE COURT: I'll allow you to

[Page 144]

(1) cross-examine asking for that. Okay? So
(2) I'm going to overrule it at this time
(3) subject to cross. You may proceed, Mr.
(4) Davis.

(5) MR. DAVIS: Thank you.

(6) THE WITNESS: Can I go back and clarify
(7) one thing, though, on the child swap
(8) schedule? I had testified that the child
(9) swap schedule is what we're doing currently.

(10) Just to clarify, at the start of the
(11) separation, which would have been November
(12) of 2023, it was -- in an effort to attempt
(13) to maintain friendly relations, it was more
(14) of a constant back and forth, you know, he
(15) was working at that time or if he was
(16) stressed or something, you know, "Let me
(17) know. I'll come and get them." The swap
(18) almost became a daily swap, which was really
(19) too much change and/or it became, "Hey, I
(20) can't have them. I'm really busy this week.
(21) Will you take them this week?"

(22) So there was no structure in the very
(23) beginning. It started -- 2024 is when it
(24) became more structured as to the every three
(25) nights, and I think they were still in

[Page 145]

(1) school, so it would have been spring of
(2) 2024. That's an estimate. I just thought
(3) I'd clarify that point.

(4) BY MR. DAVIS:

(5) Q Have there been problems between you and
(6) Mr. Hanson regarding the timesharing schedule?

(7) A Yes.

(8) Q And when did that start?

(9) A Well, I mean, problems is kind of broad.

(10) Q Did y'all have disputes regarding the
(11) timesharing schedule?

(12) A Yes. I -- I want something more stable. I,
(13) you know, it's a rotating -- it's a rotating weekend.
(14) The kids don't have -- one parent gets the children for
(15) one Friday to Sunday or one Friday to Monday, excuse me.

(16) One full weekend only occurs once a month for
(17) each parent because of rotating, so if it's three weeks.
(18) So I know it's like, "Okay. This is my last Friday with
(19) you. It's going to be three weeks before I get another
(20) Friday again" because it's a constant movement with it.

(21) It really creates instability and chaos. I did
(22) propose a year -- it had to have been a year ago, I
(23) proposed doing every other weekend, and then I had
(24) proposed a Wednesday, a set Wednesday for him to have
(25) them on Wednesdays -- the kids on Wednesdays.

(1) I mean, obviously, I am trying to get more than
(2) 50/50. So I proposed that initially; he said no. And so
(3) I proposed something different. I proposed every other
(4) weekend and then he also -- he could get every Wednesday,
(5) but then Thursdays we would rotate.

(6) So the kids -- the girls then would not be with
(7) him Wednesday to a Sunday or with me Wednesday to a
(8) Sunday. It would be -- he would have them Wednesday,
(9) Thursday, and then I would have them that weekend. And
(10) then he would have them Wednesday; I have them Thursday,
(11) then he would have them that weekend. Monday and Tuesday
(12) would be with me. Those would be the two constant kind
(13) of days, the start of the school week.

(14) THE COURT: I understand.

(15) A And then I've been asking for a holiday
(16) schedule. We don't have a holiday schedule. The first
(17) time when I left in November, I had just moved into the
(18) new house, I had three piece of furniture with me.
(19) Things were a bit chaotic, so I didn't have them on that
(20) Thanksgiving. I was only a couple weeks down.

(21) My sister came to help me. She helped me paint
(22) their bedrooms. My big thing was setting up their
(23) bedrooms. So she helped me paint their bedrooms and was
(24) busy with that. So I said, you know, "You can have them
(25) for Thanksgiving."

(1) And then that Christmas, which was our first
(2) time being separated. My sister-in-law and brother at
(3) that time lived in Alabama. And she had just finished
(4) her round of chemo, and I wanted to go visit them for the
(5) Christmas holidays because it was going to be the first
(6) Christmas. Because normally they came down to us.

(7) And so I had asked, "I'd like to leave the
(8) state and take the girls to Alabama." I -- he had -- he
(9) said a week was too long. He ultimately agreed to I
(10) think four days is what we drove -- we drove up. He had
(11) them Christmas Eve and Christmas morning. And that was
(12) the compromise. I would be able to leave the state then,
(13) and he got them that Christmas morning.

(14) So he -- and my youngest sister, she was down
(15) for that time. So the four of us drove up then. Christmas
(16) day I think we left around 2:00 or 3:00 -- 2:00 in the
(17) afternoon, which I don't recommend doing. Everything was
(18) closed.

(19) But we drove up to Alabama and got there. I
(20) think it was like 8:00 o'clock. There's a time
(21) differential with where they're at, so that Christmas we
(22) were there. And so then I assumed that following
(23) Thanksgiving and Christmas to balance it out, I would
(24) have them Christmas morning and Thanksgiving Day; he
(25) wouldn't agree to that.

[Page 148]

(1) It had to fall, per him, on whatever day the
(2) rotation was. If Thanksgiving fell on my day, then I
(3) would get them that day. If Christmas falls on that day,
(4) then I got them that day; otherwise, he would get them if
(5) it fell on his day. Which, to my understanding, it
(6) doesn't matter. I guess that would be hearsay.

(7) So that was trying to negotiate that Christmas,
(8) that was 2024, that was when he had Attorney Hodz, and
(9) Mr. Davis was involved at that point. And I was trying
(10) to get them that time. I, ultimately, I did have them
(11) that Thanksgiving because it fell on that. That would be
(12) last year. No, I had them -- I didn't have them
(13) Thanksgiving and I didn't have them Christmas morning.

(14) Again, I didn't have them on those days, from
(15) what I recall. I did have them this last Thanksgiving
(16) because we played kickball. That would be 2025, so I did
(17) have them that Thanksgiving. And then I had them this
(18) Christmas morning because it fell on that day. But,
(19) again, we're swapping Christmas Day, you know, they open
(20) all their gifts, you do all this stuff. And then you
(21) play with them and then at 12:30, they're up and leaving.

(22) So, for me, and I think when I read the holiday
(23) schedules with what the Court has, it says, you know, I
(24) think it's like a week and you swap weeks, something
(25) along those lines. So I -- I -- we don't have a holiday

[Page 149]

(1) schedule. Last Mother's Day I did not return them. It
(2) fell on the rotating day. Halfway through the day, it
(3) would have been an exchange day because it was a Sunday.
(4) I bought tickets for a magic show at the Straz
(5) Center for, I think, it was a four o'clock or five
(6) o'clock showing. I don't recall the exact showing time,
(7) but it was in the evening and so I said I wasn't giving
(8) them back. Mr. Davis was involved in some of those
(9) discussions, and I was -- I received harassing texts all
(10) throughout the day, and I was accused of kidnapping on
(11) Mother's Day.

(12) Q So to be clear, Mr. Hanson was of the position
(13) that he should have timesharing with the children on
(14) Mother's Day?

(15) MR. HANSON: I object. That's
(16) leading.

(17) MR. DAVIS: Clarify.

(18) THE COURT: I think it is
(19) clarification, I mean, but I don't know --

(20) MR. DAVIS: I can ask it a different
(21) way.

(22) THE COURT: Okay.

(23) BY MR. DAVIS:

(24) Q Was Mr. Hanson taking the position that he
(25) should have timesharing during Mother's Day of 2025?

[Page 150]

(1) A I'm going to change your wording slightly.

(2) Q Okay.

(3) A I mean, yes, he wanted the kids back, which was
(4) still in the timesharing. It really came down more, in
(5) my opinion, to control and controlling me in the sense of
(6) I did not ask -- because I was told I did not ask his
(7) permission; therefore, I was in violation.

(8) So, to me, it wasn't so much about necessary --
(9) to me it was more about controlling and me having -- me
(10) being submissive to him was my interpretation of the (11) text. But, yes, his position was he should have had the
(12) kids back at six o'clock or a certain time.

(13) After the show we went out for pizza, and then
(14) he was insisting on having them back that night to
(15) staying the night with them, which I didn't agree to
(16) because, I mean, school is the next morning, and we were
(17) all having a nice time.

(18) It's like I don't think it's unreasonable to
(19) just spend a whole day. They were expecting to come back
(20) home with me, sleep in their beds and all that. I
(21) wouldn't agree to that then, so the next morning I took
(22) them to school.

(23) Q Did you have other disputes regarding
(24) timesharing?

(25) A Yes. If swaps -- swaps are an issue if -- the

[Page 151]

(1) swaps, he will not agree to a swap within a particular
(2) week. He wants to store up swaps to create days for, you
(3) know, eventually he'll have a week stored up of swaps, so
(4) if I need to swap a day, it's kind of like, "Okay. No,
(5) I'm going to reserve this day, and then I'm going to use
(6) it later on for like a vacation period or something like
(7) that." There is no set schedule for the vacation
(8) period --

(9) THE COURT: I'm sorry. I was a little
(10) confused.

(11) THE WITNESS: Sure.

(12) THE COURT: When you said swaps, you're
(13) not talking about exchanges, you're talking
(14) about --

(15) THE WITNESS: When I have them for a
(16) day --

(17) THE COURT: Trading days?

(18) THE WITNESS: Yes. So I have them on a
(19) particular day and --

(20) THE COURT: No, I understand now. I
(21) just wanted to make sure I was understanding
(22) your terminology because sometimes --

(23) MR. DAVIS: I was going to ask her to
(24) clarify that because I could tell the Court
(25) was --

[Page 152]

(1) THE COURT: Sometimes when people say,
(2) "swap" they're talking about exchange, the
(3) actual exchange.

(4) THE WITNESS: No.

(5) MR. DAVIS: I got the sense it wasn't
(6) making sense to the Court, so...

(7) THE WITNESS: So by way of example,
(8) most -- actually, just recently, a friend --
(9) actually, she's my friend. She's also the
(10) gymnastics coach, but we've become friendly.
(11) She has two daughters around our daughters
(12) ages. They do gymnastics altogether. She
(13) was pregnant. She went into labor. I was
(14) on-call for her to go pick up her girls
(15) while her and her husband were, you know,
(16) with the baby because the hospital is
(17) actually by my house.

(18) They're 15 minutes from my house, so I
(19) went and picked up the kids, but it was a
(20) school day. I took her kids to school, and
(21) I picked them up after school. Hope and
(22) Hailey were at school as well, but that
(23) would be a day for Chris to pick them up.

(24) In talking to them, you know, they were
(25) like, "Well, are Hope and Hailey going to

[Page 153]

(1) come?" You know, and I was like --

(2) THE COURT: Talking to them?

(3) THE WITNESS: Excuse me. Talking to
(4) mom. The coach is my friend. The mother of
(5) the kids I was going to babysit. They're
(6) asking if Hope and Hailey were going to come
(7) by or if Chris and I could exchange a day so
(8) that I could have them -- Hope and Hailey
(9) that Friday -- and I would do a sleepover
(10) with the four girls.

(11) So I didn't even want to ask, but I did
(12) propose it. And I proposed, you know, "Can
(13) I, you know, I have them this Friday. I'm
(14) watching the two other young girls." I'm
(15) not trying to say their names, "And, you
(16) know, they can have a slumber party. You
(17) can pick them up on Saturday, and you can
(18) have them next Wednesday."

(19) His initial objection was, no -- as I
(20) recall, you know, the initial objection was,
(21) "No, I, you know, it has to be" -- it was a
(22) Friday night for Wednesday night. I was
(23) like, Well, "Actually, it's spring break."
(24) So our girls were on spring break that week,
(25) so there was no school Thursday. So, in my

[Page 154]

(1) mind, it was a fair swap.

(2) Friday night is also usually gymnastics
(3) night and Wednesday night is also gymnastics
(4) night. So it was going to be an even trade.
(5) He wouldn't agree to that. He told me he
(6) had plans on Thursday morning so he couldn't
(7) agree with that. I asked for another date
(8) to be proposed, and the proposal was he
(9) would take a day and reserve it for sometime
(10) in the summer.

(11) THE COURT: Okay.

(12) THE WITNESS: I'm not agreeable to it,
(13) the accumulation of days, because we don't
(14) have a set schedule. I think I had
(15) originally proposed -- you know, I think
(16) it's standard for the Court to do a week of
(17) vacation, two weeks of vacation. There is
(18) something in there that's standard. We
(19) don't have that.

(20) And so -- and we were going to have
(21) this hearing, so I was like, "I'm not going
(22) to agree to accumulation of days" because
(23) then it's like, "Okay. Well, I'm going to
(24) be gone for a week and doing something."
(25) And also I am challenging the 50/50, so...

(1) BY MR. DAVIS:

(2) Q Let's move on.

(3) A Okay. Sorry.

(4) Q Have there been problems relating to your
(5) participation in gymnastics competitions?

(6) A Yes.

(7) Q Tell the Court about that?

(8) A So Hope does gymnastics. 2024 was her first
(9) competition -- series of competitions, we'll say. It was
(10) her first -- competing for the first time. It was our
(11) first experience with it.

(12) There was the -- there was a competition that
(13) was in Daytona Beach, so it was an overnight hotel stay.
(14) All of the team was going to stay in the hotel. All of
(15) the parents were going to stay in the hotel. It was a
(16) team event. It was a team thing.

(17) I -- he had them for the full weekend, I
(18) believe. He didn't get a hotel for Friday night, and
(19) Hope was a bit distraught about it because a lot of
(20) people went up Friday night. The traffic to Daytona is
(21) really bad, so that's why they had done that.

(22) But then Friday morning he did ask me -- Hailey
(23) had dance class; so he was like so Hailey can go the
(24) dance class why don't you take Hope to gymnastics. I
(25) said great. I'm always ready, willing and able to pick

[Page 156]

(1) the girls up. So I got to -- I got there in the morning
(2) and I took her, but I was given the explicit instruction
(3) I was not to get a hotel room that would be distracting
(4) where the girls would see me. I was instructed that I
(5) was not allowed to participate in any of the team events,
(6) and then if I did go then he would not go with the girls,
(7) so --

(8) Q You're instructed by whom?

(9) A By Chris -- by Mr. Hanson that if I did -- if I
(10) was intending to go, then he -- because there was going
(11) to be, obviously, there was going to be a team dinner at
(12) one of the restaurants. And I was instructed that if I
(13) was going to go, then he was not going take the girls and
(14) they would go find something else to do.

(15) Q So Hope would not be able to participate in the
(16) gymnastics competition?

(17) A Not -- she would participate in the
(18) competition, but she would not be able to participate in
(19) any team events or get-togethers if I was going to be
(20) present after the fact.

(21) Q Did he tell you why?

(22) A He -- it's the same -- the kids are doing well;
(23) they don't need you there; you're a distraction; it's
(24) uncomfortable for both of us to be there at the same
(25) time, so I made a point -- I drove back that night. I

[Page 157]

(1) didn't get a hotel room or anything. There was also --

(2) Q Would you have stayed if Mr. Hanson had not
(3) have insisted on that?

(4) A Yes.

(5) Q Okay. Was this problem another year?

(6) A Yes. With the competitions --

(7) Q What year?

(8) A 2025 was -- it was, again, a Daytona

(9) competition. I did have them that first night, so I did
(10) stay the first night. I took them up to stay that night
(11) with them; he did not come up.

(12) I have no problem with him attending anything.
(13) I've never told him not to attend something of any of the
(14) festivities, but he came up midday the next day. He made
(15) it in time before the competition started, but we went
(16) up --

(17) THE COURT: You're talking Saturday?

(18) THE WITNESS: Yes. It was -- her
(19) competition would have been that Saturday
(20) afternoon and we went up Friday night
(21) because then they stayed Saturday night.

(22) THE COURT: So Saturday would have been
(23) the exchange day?

(24) THE WITNESS: Yes. And it was the
(25) exchange day. So -- and, again, there was

[Page 158]

(1) going to be -- they were actually going to
(2) do the same team dinner they did the night
(3) before, I believe, but, again, it was the
(4) same rules applied. I was not to
(5) participate or go to any of the dinners or
(6) anything after the competition.

(7) Something that was odd I thought also
(8) that trade-off, I remember. He was very
(9) insistent that Hailey -- because Hailey
(10) wasn't in the competition. She was just
(11) with me, you know, with us.

(12) He was very specific that she had to be
(13) ready for his pickup when he got there, and
(14) I was like, "Okay." Mind you, the
(15) competition -- the hotel room is here,
(16) competition area is here, and there's a
(17) street, then there's the parking lot. So
(18) everything is right there; I wasn't off
(19) premises.

(20) And so I thought it was because he was
(21) going to take her to the pool or do
(22) something with her. And I walked her out
(23) because Hope had started her competition or
(24) they had gone to do their exercises, and
(25) when he got there he had brought the dogs,

[Page 159]

(1) both of the dogs -- his dogs. And I
(2) exchanged Hailey, so Hailey went over to
(3) him. I was like, you know, she can stay;
(4) she doesn't have to go, but I thought they
(5) were doing something.

(6) He's like, "No. No. She's coming with
(7) me." I'm like okay. So Hailey went with
(8) him. They crossed the streets with the
(9) dogs. I guess, they checked in and then
(10) they came right back. It just stood out to
(11) me as very odd and of a controlling kind of
(12) nature, the fact that this is his time; she
(13) has to go with him at this time as opposed
(14) to just letting her go -- and she came over
(15) in the competition and sat and colored and
(16) it wasn't anything, but that just stood out
(17) to me with the pattern of stuff, I guess.

(18) BY MR. DAVIS:

(19) Q To be clear, Mr. Hanson's position is if you
(20) went to the team dinner that night, he would take the
(21) girls and leave?

(22) A Yes. That was my understanding. There is also
(23) a -- aside from the competitions banquets, there have
(24) been two team award banquets; one in each after the
(25) competitions. So January of 2025, actually, I think --

[Page 160]

(1) yeah, 2025. And the second one was February of 2026, so
(2) this past year. I was not allowed -- the first year I
(3) reserved and you had to pay tickets. I paid all the
(4) tickets.

(5) Q When you say paid all the tickets, whose
(6) tickets?

(7) A I paid Chris' ticket, my ticket and Hailey's
(8) ticket to attend the awards banquet for Hope through the
(9) gym. There is a team chat, of which we are both on, and
(10) the coach responded with a question mark. She says, "You
(11) know you bought three tickets." I said, "Yes, you know
(12) that's fine." And Chris immediately messaged me telling
(13) me I'm not to go. Telling me not to go -- I'm okay -- to
(14) the banquet and if I wanted to go, he will not go with
(15) the kids.

(16) And so I said, "Okay." And so I messaged the
(17) coach, I said, "You know, I'm not going to be able to
(18) go -- I can't go." And she refunded me my ticket. I
(19) said, you know, "I'll keep his." I don't -- well, you
(20) know, he hasn't paid me back for those. That's part of
(21) my expenses. So I didn't go to the banquet. Excuse me.

(22) And this past year it was the same thing. I
(23) didn't deserve this time, but I said, "Are you going to
(24) go to the banquet?" And it was, "Yes, if you're not
(25) going." But that wasn't the only -- if I wasn't going to

[Page 161]

(1) go, so I didn't go. And then -- but that also occurred
(2) with Hailey and soccer in August of 2024.

(3) Hailey was in Soccer Shots Saturday mornings,
(4) and with the -- sometimes, you know, this happens. Like
(5) we don't do the proper exchange with all the equipment.
(6) And Chris had -- I remember one time he had the cleats or
(7) something, and so he showed up at the practice that was
(8) actually for Hope. It was Hope's practice that time
(9) because she was trying to do Soccer Shots with
(10) gymnastics, but -- he showed up and stayed and watched
(11) the practice. And that was fine, and we stood on the (12) sidelines and we chatted.

(13) And actually that happened more than once where
(14) he would come, which was fine. Then Hailey was going to
(15) have her medal day in August, and I said, "Oh, I'll see
(16) you at your medal day," because we had an exchange,
(17) probably a Friday or whenever it was. I don't recall,
(18) but we exchanged and I said, you know, "I'll see you
(19) Saturday because I'll be at your medal day."

(20) And I ended up that night, you know, he got
(21) word that I was going to show up, and he said don't, you
(22) know, I had to guarantee him I would not show up;
(23) otherwise, they would not go to medal day. He said he'd
(24) send me pictures. You know, to be frank, I'm not there
(25) to take pictures. I'm there to be supportive and, you

[Page 162]

(1) know, be part of the moment.

(2) So I guaranteed I wouldn't go because he said
(3) they would just go to Busch Gardens if I didn't
(4) guarantee, and so I didn't go. But that was the start of
(5) missing, you know, the little things. Sorry.

(6) Q You need a second?

(7) A No.

(8) Q Has Hope in the past had difficulty prior to
(9) going to her father's --

(10) MR. HANSON: I'm going to object to
(11) that. It's vague, requires speculation and
(12) lack of predicate.

(13) THE COURT: Okay. With regards to any
(14) speculation, I'll allow the witness to
(15) testify with regards to her understanding,
(16) and I'll be giving it the weight it deserves
(17) with regards to predicate with regards to
(18) that.

(19) I do want some things with regards to
(20) that. Would you lay the time frame that
(21) we're talking. I don't know if we're
(22) talking about the beginning of the
(23) separation? Yesterday?

(24) BY MR. DAVIS:

(25) Q In 2025 and even earlier, did Hope regularly

[Page 163]

(1) cry before going to Mr. Hanson's?

(2) MR. HANSON: Again, I'm going to object
(3) that it's vague, that it implies a
(4) connection when there's no necessary
(5) connection.

(6) THE COURT: Okay. I'll allow you to
(7) cross --

(8) MR. HANSON: Kids cry sometimes. What
(9) does it have to do with me.

(10) THE COURT: It's a speaking
(11) objection.

(12) MR. HANSON: Sorry.

(13) THE COURT: Okay. I'll overrule the
(14) objection. I'll allow you to cross-examine
(15) and give it the weight it deserves. I
(16) certainly understand kids cry.

(17) THE WITNESS: Can I go further back and
(18) answer it?

(19) BY MR. DAVIS:

(20) Q Certainly --

(21) A For my -- for time purposes, both girls early
(22) on miss their mom, okay, they were four and six at the
(23) time of me moving out -- leaving, however, you want to
(24) word it.

(25) There was -- there was a big struggle in the

[Page 164]

(1) adjustment of, you know, "I miss mommy," and a lot of
(2) crying that occurred. We would talk -- is it okay if I
(3) talk about an incident?

(4) THE COURT: You keep asking me
(5) questions. I can't direct your testimony.

(6) THE WITNESS: I think I'm looking to
(7) you, but I think I'm trying to talk to --
(8) there was an incident. It was Thanksgiving
(9) of 2023 where they were crying on the phone.
(10) We do nightly phone calls. So they
(11) were crying on the phone, and I stayed on
(12) the phone because they were saying that they
(13) missed mommy. And I was trying to help and
(14) appease the situation. And they eventually
(15) stopped the crying. They went and brushed
(16) their teeth, but they wanted me to stay on
(17) the phone because they wanted to say
(18) goodnight when we came back, so I stayed on
(19) the phone.

(20) Then they came back and we said
(21) goodnight, and they went to bed, so that was
(22) observing the crying of missing mommy. I
(23) did then receive a barrage of text messages
(24) from Mr. Hanson accusing me of spying,
(25) telling me that he was going to cut me off

[Page 165]

(1) from talking to them on the phone. And that
(2) persisted, you know, I wasn't spying. I
(3) wasn't -- my kids are crying.

(4) There was then during exchanges, you
(5) know, they were so rapid. There's a lot of
(6) missing mommy. And there is missing daddy
(7) as well, okay. I'm not going to say it's
(8) only me they miss. You know, if they had a
(9) particularly great time, it goes that way.

(10) Ultimately, as the days progressed, so
(11) 2023 to 2024, the actual three-night
(12) exchange was proposed by the kids. Okay.
(13) That's the reason why I believe Mr. Hanson
(14) ultimately agreed to it.

(15) Hope expressed, you know, she's the
(16) more vocal and opinionated one. So she
(17) expressed -- she said, "Well, what about
(18) three nights and three days?" And so we
(19) came to this compromise of the two and a
(20) half.

(21) And in my drop-offs with her, I observe
(22) her being very anxious and having a lot of
(23) anxiety.

(24) MR. HANSON: Excuse me. I just got to
(25) object and move to strike for lack of

[Page 166]

(1) qualification, speculation, self-serving.

(2) THE COURT: Okay. I'm not taking it as
(3) any sort of expert diagnosis or testimony.
(4) It's just observations of a mother.

(5) MR. HANSON: I still. I don't see how
(6) you can see it as anxiety, but...

(7) THE COURT: Your objection is
(8) overruled.

(9) THE WITNESS: Her face. I mean --
(10) BY MR. DAVIS:

(11) Q Tell the Court what you observed.

(12) A Her face withdrawal. There was a lot of -- on
(13) the exchange days become very tense days. To describe --
(14) it's just -- both girls are shorter with each other. I
(15) think there's anger involved. I'm not a kid expert.
(16) I'll freely admit that, but they are more short-tempered
(17) with each other and, you know, it's like, "Listen, you
(18) guys," the exchanges themselves are very stressful.

(19) But then the -- you know, I would be told.
(20) It's like, "No, you know, we haven't had enough time with
(21) you" or "We want to stay with you longer" or something
(22) along those lines. Those are the days where I'm not
(23) taking them to school and dropping them off.

(24) So, listen, I'm elated. When I pull up and
(25) they're excited to see daddy, I feel good, okay. It is a

[Page 167]

(1) good exchange in my opinion. If there is not either
(2) because there is a disagreement -- I don't know why
(3) they'er not excited every time, but they just weren't for
(4) a good period of time.

(5) At school when I do the exchange at school, and
(6) by exchange, I mean I'm dropping them off at school. I'm
(7) saying goodbye, but they know I'm not picking them up
(8) that day. Particularly, with Hope it was, you know, "No.
(9) I'm going to miss you." That's kind of how the lunches
(10) started. I was like, "Well, I'm going to see you then."
(11) You know, "I can't come Tuesday, but, you know, I'll see
(12) you Wednesday. Would you like me to bring you some
(13) lunch?"

(14) And so that's how the lunches started is "We're
(15) going to see each other now, and I'm going to talk to you
(16) tonight." But the -- it became more clingy, albeit
(17) saying goodbye, saying very hard in the mornings. This
(18) occurred for over a year, 2024 into 2025 with the
(19) adjustments. And, in my opinion, the adjustments were
(20) not really occurring to where they were accepting this
(21) shared timing thing that we have.

(22) They weren't adapting, I guess, is what I felt.
(23) I felt like Hope was very stressed about it. She
(24) definitely has more anxieties. And I talk to her all the
(25) time. She is more vocal, so both the children are very

[Page 168]

(1) different. Hope is very vocal, but she's also not.

(2) Like she will withdraw. I've worked with her a

(3) lot. "You've got" -- you know, "Let's talk about this

(4) emotion you're feeling. If you're angry at me, tell me

(5) you're angry." And we've had very candid discussions

(6) where she even, you know, she expressed herself to me.

(7) She said, "I'm not" -- she said, "You're not going to

(8) listen to me." I said, "Yes, I will. Just tell me."

(9) You know, let me know too, you know, what am I doing

(10) wrong.

(11) And she said, you know, one of the things she

(12) says she feels like she gets a lot of criticisms.

(13) Everyone is telling her the things she's doing wrong.

(14) She feels like she's never being told she's doing

(15) anything good. I apologized to her and I told her,

(16) "Listen, that's on me, then." "Like I need to tell you

(17) more that you're doing a good job." And she expressed

(18) shock that I had said that.

(19) You know, she's like seven -- like six or seven

(20) at this point. I said, "No sweat, you are doing a very

(21) good job." You know, because what we were talking about

(22) was just doing better on something else that I thought

(23) was trivial, but to her it was a big deal. So kids are

(24) -- I don't know her world or what she's seeing or

(25) thinking, and I'm trying to understand it more with her,

(1) and she does express herself more.

(2) Hailey will not talk. Hailey bottles
(3) everything up emotionally. She gets very angry when she
(4) has a tantrum, and if I ask her, "You know, what is
(5) bothering you," she will scream, "I don't want to talk
(6) about it" and there is no getting through that wall with
(7) her, so I don't really know what's going on with her on
(8) the inside.

(9) In light of all of this that was occurring, and
(10) nothing on the judge -- nothing on you, Your Honor, but I
(11) wasn't getting any relief with the Court as to what we
(12) could do with the situation or having them assessed.

(13) I did reach out to Mr. Hanson to have them go
(14) into counseling. I do feel like they would benefit
(15) significantly from counseling. The other thing I did
(16) suggest also is because they would say that they missed
(17) mommy. And, listen, if they say if they miss daddy, I
(18) would always -- excuse me, I'm trying not to say the word
(19) always or never, but I would offer like, "Like, do you
(20) want to call him right now?" "Do you want me" -- you
(21) know, what's going on?

(22) There was a time we were at Elevate -- this is
(23) just an example. Hailey -- we were at Elevate. Hailey
(24) had had a birthday party at Elevate, and then we were at
(25) Elevate again, subsequently, and she said she really

(1) missed daddy. I said, "Do you want me to invite him?"
(2) She said, "yeah." And I texted him to invite him to come
(3) and hang out with us. Just to say, "Hey, you know, my
(4) sister-in-law is here," which who he knows.

(5) THE COURT: You invited him?

(6) THE WITNESS: I invited him. He didn't
(7) come, but, you know, just trying to help
(8) them out. I did also want to get them a
(9) phone. I wanted them to be able to call --

(10) THE COURT: Sorry. Real quick. You
(11) said you had asked dad if the girls could
(12) get counseling?

(13) THE WITNESS: Yes.

(14) THE COURT: What was the response?

(15) THE WITNESS: No.

(16) THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Go on.

(17) THE WITNESS: Well, it was more
(18) involved than just a no. It was, "Tell
(19) me -- give me the argument as to why. Why
(20) do they need it," you know kind of thing.

(21) And there is no getting through, in my
(22) experience, there's not really a logical
(23) argument I can put forth towards him to
(24) change his mind on something. That's my
(25) past experience, so the answer was no.

(1) BY MR. DAVIS:

(2) Q What do you mean by that?

(3) A I -- we've been married -- we were married --
(4) we went through marriage counseling. If -- this is going
(5) to be really hard to try to explain. If Mr. Hanson
(6) thinks something, that becomes fact for him. Okay. This
(7) is my observation.

(8) There is no convincing him of anything
(9) different, at least coming from me. I am branded a liar,
(10) I will be -- and then I'm just trying to manipulate facts
(11) or I'm accused of gaslighting, whatever it is. And it
(12) can be extremely insignificant. An example -- I have
(13) several examples, but I'll just talk about a couple one
(14) was coming to mind.

(15) I was stopped at a stop light. He had
(16) suggested -- this is when we were married, towards the
(17) end. He had suggested that the girls -- that -- at one
(18) point he suggested that we see the Paw Patrol movie when
(19) it came out.

(20) And it had come out, and I was sitting at a
(21) stop light. I don't know, bored, and I started looking
(22) at my phone, and I pulled up movie times at Paw Patrol,
(23) just looking at them. I looked at -- I was looking at (24) opening night. I didn't buy a ticket. I didn't make the
(25) suggestion.

[Page 172]

(1) I was just looking at opening night. I was
(2) curious if a kids movie gets sold out because at AMC, you
(3) can reserve seats. So I was curious if it was reserved
(4) or not. And he's like, "What are you doing?" I was
(5) like, "Oh, I was just looking at Paw Patrol" --

(6) Q Moving forward to get to the point.

(7) A Okay. Sorry. And, ultimately, that became a
(8) massive argument and fight. And my explanation of I was
(9) just looking at the times; I didn't buy the ticket; I
(10) didn't suggest we go. And he told me that it was an
(11) attack on him, and there was no convincing otherwise. So
(12) this was other thing of me being cruel to him by looking
(13) at the movie times.

(14) Q Is it a common occurrence?

(15) A Yes.

(16) Q Is it a common occurrence during the divorce?

(17) A Yes, yes.

(18) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry. What was a
(19) common occurrence? What's the common
(20) occurrence? I don't understand what she's
(21) referring back to?

(22) THE COURT: She's saying instances of
(23) times when anything that you do not agree
(24) with becomes fact in the way that you react
(25) to things, is my understanding.

[Page 173]

(1) THE WITNESS: Yes.

(2) BY MR. DAVIS:

(3) Q Well, let's go back to Hope and Hailey?

(4) THE COURT: Real quick, Mr. Davis.

(5) We're at about 12:20 and I do want to give a

(6) brief break for lunch.

(7) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(8) THE COURT: I'm not asking for extended

(9) period of time, but is there -- I don't know

(10) how much more direct you have?

(11) MR. DAVIS: A fair amount.

(12) THE COURT: Okay. So why don't we take

(13) a break now, if that's okay.

(14) MR. DAVIS: Certainly.

(15) THE COURT: Because we just finished

(16) one topic and it sounded like you were going

(17) into another topic.

(18) Is that okay, Mr. Hanson?

(19) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(20) THE WITNESS: I was going to mention

(21) one more thing in connection with the

(22) counseling. Can I testify to that. That

(23) would be much shorter.

(24) THE COURT: Yeah. That will be fine --

(25) THE WITNESS: Just so I can --

[Page 174]

(1) THE COURT: Yeah. I want --

(2) THE WITNESS: -- because I don't want
(3) to forget.

(4) THE COURT: So I want a clear breaking
(5) point, so if it's regarding a prior topic,
(6) that's fine.

(7) THE WITNESS: It's just, it's just I
(8) was going to point out with the counseling
(9) in connection with the kids, I had also
(10) asked permission for a phone to give them
(11) phones.

(12) THE COURT: Oh, you did mention that
(13) you were going to get a phone. Sorry I
(14) interrupted you.

(15) THE WITNESS: So, yeah, so I wanted to
(16) get them a phone so that they could call.
(17) In the current day and age, it's cell phones
(18) the parents have for them to have access to
(19) me, if they're missing me randomly, they
(20) want to call me or text me, they have to go
(21) through their father's phone or get
(22) permission from him.

(23) Or even with me, unless my phone is
(24) sitting there and they grab it and send a
(25) message, you know, they don't have -- they

[Page 175]

(1) just don't have free access to it. And so I
(2) had asked him to get them a phone to which
(3) was a staunch no. And my argument though
(4) because I did try to say, here's a good
(5) point, the kids have free access to each
(6) parent whenever they're missing us. It does
(7) not have to be a smart phone. There are
(8) phone that exists that are just for calling
(9) or just for texting.

(10) I'm not trying to give my kids access
(11) to YouTube and, you know, the Internet, but
(12) they can certainly pick up the phone. And
(13) another valid point I feel like it was
(14) pretty valid was, you know, kids in the 80s
(15) and 90s, early 2000s had full access to a
(16) divorced parent through a landline.
(17) Everyone has phones back then.

(18) I do come from a divorce household. If
(19) I needed to call my dad or my dad wanted to
(20) call me, I picked up the phone and I called
(21) him. Right now, I mean, we're in this
(22) advanced age of technology, but I have two
(23) kids that don't have access to a phone to
(24) get it. And it was a staunch no. And when
(25) they went back after the exchange, they were

[Page 176]

(1) questioned and, you know, searched or
(2) whatever about whether I had actually given
(3) them one or not. So I thought that was --
(4) so the phone, they don't have a phone.

(5) MR. HANSON: I just have to object
(6) to --

(7) THE COURT: Okay.

(8) MR. HANSON: -- speculation on question
(9) and search.

(10) THE COURT: Okay. As to what happened
(11) when the kids went back to your house?

(12) MR. HANSON: Right. How on earth does
(13) she know what happened at my house?

(14) THE COURT: I understand. I'm not -- I
(15) will certainly allow you to cross-examine on
(16) that. I'm not going to, you know, I get
(17) where you're coming from in regards to that.

(18) All right. So coming back at one
(19) o'clock enough time for you all?

(20) MR. DAVIS: Certainly.

(21) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(22) MR. HANSON: Yes, sir.

(23) THE COURT: Okay. I don't want to rush
(24) anyone. I, you know, I don't know if anyone
(25) has any dietary needs or anything like that,

[Page 177]

(1) so I'm proposing that if there is no
(2) objection, then I'll come back at one
(3) o'clock. Thank you.

(4) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor, can
(5) I leave the stuff here?

(6) THE COURT: Yes. Please take whatever
(7) you want with you because I want to secure
(8) the Courtroom so there aren't any
(9) allegations of someone going through other
(10) people's stuff. Okay.

(11) So whatever you leave in here, the
(12) Courtroom will be locked, but take whatever
(13) you want to take with you. Okay?

(14) MR. HANSON: Yes, sir.

(15) (WHEREUPON, a luncheon recess was taken at (16) 12:22 p.m. through 1:05 p.m.)

(17) THE COURT: All right. Back on the
(18) record. Are we ready to proceed?

(19) MR. DAVIS: Yes, Your Honor.

(20) THE COURT: I believe you were in your
(21) direct on your first witness. Mrs. Hanson,
(22) correct?

(23) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(24) THE COURT: All right. You may
(25) proceed.

(1) BY MR. DAVIS:

(2) Q As a result of some of the difficulties that
(3) Hope was having with respect to exchanges, did you get
(4) her involved in some type of counseling?

(5) A I did.

(6) Q And what did you do?

(7) A The girls go to Cambridge Christian School.
(8) They've been going there since they were two, both of
(9) them. Well, the two-year-old class. Hope was three.
(10) There is somebody who had put out pamphlets for
(11) kids with anxiety issues. Biblical -- she's a biblical
(12) counselor. She's with Heart and Song Counseling, and I
(13) reached out to her.

(14) I told her how we were going through a divorce
(15) and had gotten pretty contentious, and I felt it was
(16) negatively impacting the -- my daughters more so -- I
(17) think it's -- I would like both to have counseling.

(18) Hailey was in speech, and I can't afford her to
(19) be in counseling. I just can't afford it with paying her
(20) speech. I explained to her the situation, and she said
(21) she would meet with Hope. And so I'm paying for it, I
(22) haven't asked for reimbursement of it, and it's -- I try
(23) to do twice a month with her meeting with this woman and
(24) so I put her in with her.

(25) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, this is the

[Page 179]

(1) first I'm hearing of this, and I have to
(2) strenuously object.

(3) THE COURT: Object to hearing about it
(4) or object to what?

(5) MR. HANSON: Object to the fact that
(6) she's taking actions on my children due to
(7) this Court's delays in misconduct and bias
(8) and corruption against their interest.

(9) THE COURT: Object -- I'm sorry. Go
(10) ahead. I apologize.

(11) MR. HANSON: She's -- she's focusing
(12) the kids' attention on the divorce for her
(13) own personal, selfish, greedy motives.
(14) There's no need for these kids to be in
(15) counseling. I talked to her teachers about
(16) it. They are happy, healthy kids. It
(17) serves her and her corruptive, greedy
(18) motives for her to put them in counseling,
(19) and it's appalling.

(20) I'm the father of those kids. I'm
(21) there half the time, and it's absolutely
(22) appalling that she's making unilateral
(23) decisions about their health without me.

(24) THE COURT: Okay. So, as I understand,
(25) you're objecting to, I guess, it's ore tenus

[Page 180]

(1) motion to stop the kids from going to
(2) counseling; is that --

(3) MR. HANSON: No, for a recess, Your
(4) Honor. There are so many problems with the
(5) proceedings in here right now. That -- I
(6) don't want to go over them again because I
(7) understand that you're intent on proceeding,
(8) but I deserve some findings of fact in terms
(9) of -- do you agree that the Ayers' video is
(10) relevant to the issues today, or is the
(11) Court's position it's just not relevant.

(12) THE COURT: Well, we've already handled
(13) this issue. You're re-raising it?

(14) MR. HANSON: But you haven't -- you
(15) haven't said what the facts are. You avoid
(16) the facts to do what you want to put things
(17) off. But the facts are -- it's your
(18) responsibility to find facts and to put them
(19) in an order so that I can get them appealed.

(20) It's a problem if we just avoid them,
(21) and --

(22) THE COURT: It may be -- and I'm not be
(23) flip about that, okay. My point is that
(24) you've raised this before; I've already
(25) ruled on it --

[Page 181]

(1) MR. HANSON: But you haven't. You
(2) haven't found any facts on it. You avoid
(3) it. You don't rule on it. You just say I'm
(4) going to ignore it.

(5) THE COURT: I can make the ruling
(6) without findings of facts, and if the Second
(7) DCA says I need to find facts, then I'll do
(8) so.

(9) MR. HANSON: You're harming our family.

(10) THE COURT: I apologize. I'm sorry you
(11) feel that way --

(12) MR. HANSON: It's obstructive at this
(13) point.

(14) THE COURT: Is there anything else?

(15) MR. HANSON: I would like a recess.

(16) That is extremity upsetting news to me.

(17) THE COURT: How long?

(18) MR. HANSON: A week? Two weeks?

(19) THE COURT: The Court: Denied.

(20) MR. HANSON: Okay. Well, Your Honor,
(21) do you understand why I'm upset.

(22) THE COURT: I do.

(23) MR. HANSON: I'm trying to protect my
(24) kids from --

(25) THE COURT: I understand.

[Page 182]

(1) MR. HANSON: -- focusing their
(2) attention on this ugliness. And she
(3) unilaterally did that without the Court's
(4) involvement, without my involvement. And it
(5) seems like the Court will just excuse it
(6) like they do everything on Mr. Davis and
(7) Mr. Hanson's side.

(8) And it's just getting really hard to
(9) sit through such a joke of a process where
(10) you're not going to order them to do
(11) anything. You didn't order them to do
(12) anything on the Request to Produce.

(13) They're just going to delay it more,
(14) and you won't even say whether the video is
(15) relevant. You just hide from the fact that
(16) the circuit is hiding critical evidence in
(17) the case. And I don't really understand how
(18) I can be trapped in such a circumstance when
(19) I'm consistent and forthcoming for two years
(20) enduring this, and it just seems like there
(21) is no end.

(22) So I think that that comment alone and
(23) that development of what I tried to avoid
(24) for two years is happening without the Court
(25) involvement, without my involvement, despite

[Page 183]

(1) the active litigation for two years. I
(2) would hope the Court sees a problem with
(3) that too.

(4) MR. DAVIS: We couldn't involve the
(5) Court because Mr. Hanson keeps kicking the
(6) can down the road one way or the other.
(7) This is the first time we've been able to be
(8) in court on substantive motion regarding the
(9) children in slightly over a year, and
(10) hearing that it was slightly over a year
(11) ago, Judge Ayers couldn't rule on it because
(12) he filed a second motion to squash.

(13) MR. HANSON: Actually, Judge Ayers
(14) couldn't rule because you refused to put
(15) anything in writing, so it was impossible to
(16) swear a guardian ad litem. And that's in
(17) the record. You were asked to do it; I
(18) filed a Motion to Compel you to do it --

(19) MR. DAVIS: And that's been resolved by
(20) Judge Ayers.

(21) MR. HANSON: And she let you hide from
(22) it. She let you continue --

(23) MR. DAVIS: Actually, that's your
(24) assumption, Mr. Hanson. That's why we're
(25) here on a Motion for Psychological

(1) Evaluation --

(2) MR. HANSON: That's because the 13th

(3) Circuit is hiding records --

(4) THE BAILIFF: Folks.

(5) THE COURT: Right. Mr. Hanson, I'm

(6) going to ask you to address me again. Okay?

(7) MR. HANSON: You're going to ask me to

(8) do what?

(9) THE COURT: To address me, not address

(10) Mr. Davis.

(11) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I hope you can

(12) appreciate what's going on here to some

(13) extent, just as a human, have some

(14) understanding that --

(15) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, you've objected

(16) following an answer to a question. I'm

(17) trying --

(18) MR. HANSON: Well, it's not just a

(19) question, it's new information harmful to my

(20) kids.

(21) THE COURT: I'm trying to explain where

(22) I am, and I want to give you the opportunity

(23) to talk, which is why I stopped when you

(24) interrupted me. Okay.

(25) And I hope you understand that when I'm

[Page 185]

(1) trying to recite where I am, and you're
(2) saying that it's not just an answer to a
(3) question. I'm not saying it's everything to
(4) you or to her, okay, I'm just telling you
(5) where I am. Okay.

(6) There was testimony that came out;
(7) you've objected to that testimony. And I'm
(8) trying to understand what legal objection
(9) you have or what request you have. You
(10) requested a recess of a week or two weeks,
(11) which I denied.

(12) MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, it's not
(13) just an objection to the testimony, it's an
(14) objection to active medical engagement with
(15) my kids that I knew nothing about until
(16) right now --

(17) THE COURT: I understand. That's what
(18) the testimony is saying to you. I get
(19) that.

(20) MR. HANSON: But it's more than
(21) testimony. It's the kids are involved in
(22) invasive treatment that I'm not involved
(23) with. And isn't there a requirement as the
(24) agreement that we had as 50/50 that these
(25) things have to be discussed with me and

[Page 186]

(1) approved with me?

(2) THE COURT: I don't know if you're
(3) asking me the question. I'm not -- I'm not
(4) answering those questions now. So that's
(5) why I'm asking is this an ore tenus motion
(6) or what is your request? And the only thing
(7) I've heard you say is a recess of a week or
(8) two weeks, which I've denied.

(9) MR. HANSON: Okay. I guess, Your
(10) Honor, I just have to suffer through it and
(11) keep fighting.

(12) THE COURT: I'm trying to understand
(13) the legal objection or the request right
(14) now? That's where I'm at.

(15) MR. HANSON: And, Your Honor, this is
(16) so new to me that I don't even understand
(17) where I need to go to research it exactly,
(18) but it's my understanding that it's a
(19) problem that in a contentious divorce one
(20) party unilaterally, without discussing with
(21) the other party, is pushing the kids into
(22) treatment.

(23) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'm not
(24) agreeing or disagreeing with your
(25) understanding. What I'm asking is what you

[Page 187]

(1) want. What is the request of the Court.

(2) MR. HANSON: I would like some time to
(3) be able to research what my options are.

(4) THE COURT: Okay. And I'm denying that
(5) at this time as far as a recess from these
(6) hearings for you to do research on that.

(7) MR. HANSON: And it would be helpful
(8) for you if you get through this hearing
(9) today while still hiding the video of Judge
(10) Ayers.

(11) THE COURT: Why would that be helpful
(12) for me?

(13) MR. HANSON: To get through this so
(14) then the hearing is over, and then Judge
(15) Ayers, the video of her misconduct, sort of
(16) gets swept a little father under the
(17) rug.

(18) THE COURT: I'm sorry. Is your request
(19) for a break so that we don't finish this
(20) hearing or so you can do research on this
(21) issue?

(22) MR. HANSON: So I can do research on
(23) this issue, but what the Court is doing and
(24) ignore the structural conflict in acting out
(25) the personal interest, the conflict against

[Page 188]

(1) fairness is a major problem independently.

(2) THE COURT: I understand that's your
(3) position. It's the third time you've raised
(4) the structural argument. I'm going to stay
(5) with my decision on that --

(6) MR. HANSON: And you're going to
(7) continue to refrain on commenting on whether
(8) the video is relevant.

(9) THE COURT: I'm not changing or going
(10) back on anything I've done so far with
(11) regard to that issue. Okay?

(12) MR. HANSON: So you don't just don't
(13) have an opinion on whether it's relevant?

(14) THE COURT: I am not giving an opinion
(15) on it at this point.

(16) MR. HANSON: And you're not going to
(17) watch video?

(18) THE COURT: I didn't say that. But,
(19) Mr. Hanson, we moved passed that issue.

(20) Mr. Davis, you may proceed.

(21) MR. DAVIS: Thank you.

(22) BY MR. DAVIS:

(23) Q What was your intention in getting counseling
(24) for Hope?

(25) A I didn't know how to address her anxieties

[Page 189]

(1) anymore. I didn't know what to say, and I've been
(2) wanting -- I wanted to get them help. I just want her to
(3) have someone to talk to. The person is not a mental --
(4) she's not a mental health counselor. It's, I believe,
(5) her title is a biblical counselor. It's a
(6) Christian-based school, and so they meet -- I don't know
(7) what they talk about. I don't have updates. I don't get
(8) reports. It's nothing like that.

(9) It's someone for Hope to talk to in a safe
(10) setting so she can get proper guidance on anything she
(11) has stress over. It can be anything, it can be her
(12) friends, it can be if she's bothered with me, if she's
(13) bothered with her dad. It can be anything.

(14) My -- I never told her to hide it, okay, I just
(15) want to put that out there, but I told her she didn't
(16) have to talk about it with anybody, that she was seeing
(17) somebody. My biggest fear right now in relaying this is
(18) that something is going to happen or she's going to be
(19) questioned about it or something bad is going to happen
(20) or the school is going to be attacked or this counselor
(21) is going to be attacked.

(22) I just wanted to get her help, and I knew it
(23) would come out eventually, but there was no animosity in
(24) doing it. I'm trying to help her, and she has helped.
(25) It's benefited her greatly on the days that she's met

[Page 190]

(1) with her and she -- we have really good goodbyes. That
(2) anxiety that is there is not there as often.

(3) She's doing much better since she started
(4) seeing her. And, again, it's not consistent. It's once
(5) or twice a month. And sometimes I schedule it, and she's
(6) not available or she doesn't make it, but it has been
(7) beneficial to her.

(8) THE COURT: Is there an incident where
(9) Hope actually had to actually care for
(10) Hailey and put her to bed during
(11) Mr. Hanson's timesharing.

(12) A Yeah.

(13) Q Can you tell the Court about that?

(14) A It was during the nightly phone calls; they
(15) were at a hotel.

(16) Q Why were they at the hotel?

(17) A The house, my understanding, was being
(18) remodeled, so they were spending time at hotels while the
(19) house was being remodeled. I don't know which hotel they
(20) were at. I remember it was late. It was after 9 o'clock
(21) when they called.

(22) Q What time is her bedtime?

(23) A On a weekday, the goal is 8:30 -- between 8:30
(24) and 9:00 just because we get home from gymnastics late,
(25) both houses do, but on a weekend, I mean, 9 o'clock;

[Page 191]

(1) 9:00, 9:30 is probably the norm just based off timing and
(2) kids want to have a little more fun at night, so it's not
(3) -- it used to be 8:00, 8:30, but it used --

(4) Q Okay. What happened next?

(5) A She had called, they had called. It's a video
(6) call when we talk to them. And on the video call I was
(7) talking to her and Chris was not -- he was in the room,
(8) but he was on the bed. And I don't know if -- I don't
(9) know if he was passed out. I don't know if he was
(10) sleeping or what happened, but on the phone -- I stayed
(11) with them on the phone the entire time.

(12) And she went to show Chris that her hairbrush
(13) was cleaned out. She was like, "I cleaned out my
(14) hairbrush," and he grunted and that was it. And then she
(15) preceded to put Hailey to bed. She read her her bedtime
(16) story. I stayed on the phone because they asked me, "Can
(17) you stay on the phone?" I said, "absolutely."

(18) They stayed on the phone and she put her little
(19) sister to bed and they walked around and I said, you
(20) know, "I'm going to stay on the phone with you until
(21) you're asleep or in bed." And they walked around and
(22) turned all the lights off in the hotel room, and then
(23) they went into the bed. And Chris didn't make a sound
(24) the entire time other than that grunting when she pointed
(25) out the hairbrush.

(1) And I was distraught after the call because I
(2) didn't know where even what hotel they were in, and she
(3) would have been 7 or 8. Well, she's 8 now. It would
(4) have been the summer of -- after all the hurricanes,
(5) summer of 2025 when that happened.

(6) Q Does Mr. Hanson have a history of alcohol
(7) use?

(8) A Yes.

(9) Q Tell the Court about that.

(10) A All throughout dating, he drank heavily. We
(11) met in 2009.

(12) Q Let's talk about more currently.

(13) A Currently he drank heavily during Hope's first
(14) year of birth. He did put it aside. He didn't go to
(15) A.A. or anything, but I know the girls know what a happy
(16) hour is, and I don't -- I'm not there currently, so I
(17) don't know if he's back to drinking heavily or if he's
(18) drinking when they're not around.

(19) I know he'll go on dates so, you know, I know
(20) there's drinking involved, but I don't know to the extent
(21) at this point, but there is a past of heavy drinking of
(22) straight vodka.

(23) Q Does Mr. Hanson have a history of marijuana
(24) use?

(25) A Yes.

[Page 193]

(1) Q Tell the Court about that.

(2) A He uses pot. He used pot while we were
(3) together. Even recently for the separation for his back,
(4) really bad, back pain. He is a candidate for surgery,
(5) but he's been putting off of surgery, based on
(6) recommendations of doctors and what not. I know he'll
(7) get injections, but he uses the pot as well to subside.

(8) And I know last -- after the hearing last April
(9) during the trade, he had really red eyes and I don't know
(10) why.

(11) Q That caused you a concern?

(12) A Yes.

(13) Q Does Mr. Hanson have a history of using
(14) prescription pain medication?

(15) A Yes.

(16) Q Tell the Court about that.

(17) A Yes. He uses pain medication --

(18) MR. HANSON: I need to object. They
(19) can have all the medical records. They were
(20) offered releases. This is speculative
(21) nonsense, hiding their heads in sand as to
(22) reality and then testifying about stuff they
(23) don't know.

(24) THE COURT: So your legal objection is
(25) speculation?

[Page 194]

(1) MR. HANSON: Speculation and best
(2) evidence and argumentative. It's
(3) intentional ignorance for the opportunity to
(4) slander.

(5) THE COURT: Okay.

(6) MR. DAVIS: Interestingly, Mr. Hanson
(7) offers these records, but never provides
(8) them. If he intends to provide them, he can
(9) just send them on over, but he didn't.

(10) And it goes to circle back to earlier
(11) and he said that's why we need a guardian ad
(12) litem to review -- a neutral third party,
(13) not me. A neutral third party.

(14) THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to
(15) overrule the objection at this time. You
(16) may proceed.

(17) BY MR. DAVIS:

(18) Q I'm sorry. Tell the Court about Mr. Hanson's
(19) prescription medication history.

(20) MR. HANSON: I'm going to object. This
(21) is speculation.

(22) THE COURT: That's the same objection
(23) because you said speculation before.

(24) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I
(25) don't know. That was my objection. I'm

[Page 195]

(1) sorry it was made again.

(2) THE COURT: Okay. Same ruling.

(3) Overruled. You may proceed.

(4) BY MR. DAVIS:

(5) Q Go ahead.

(6) A No, he uses -- I mean, he has to use the
(7) medication for his back pain.

(8) Q Does Mr. Hanson have a history of anger
(9) management issues when you were together?

(10) A Yes.

(11) Q Tell the Court about that.

(12) A He gets very angry over things. He's very --
(13) he stays calm, generally, I mean, even during the first
(14) hour, I felt he was very calm. To me, that's him being
(15) calm, but anything can set him off to be angry. And it
(16) can be something that you would perceive -- or that I
(17) always perceived as, you know, "I don't know why you're
(18) so upset with me right now?" So -- and then just loses
(19) control over the anger.

(20) I don't know how else to describe it. I've
(21) never been hit. I'm not saying that he physically hit
(22) me. He has hit walls, but it's -- it can be small. The
(23) movie -- the Paw Patrol movie is the example I gave
(24) earlier. That's one of them of just getting, you know,
(25) just belligerent over that, yelling and screaming.

[Page 196]

(1) Listen, fights happen. I'm not saying that I'm
(2) a saint and we've never fought and I've never yelled, but
(3) it's more about the anger over what it is and the loss of
(4) control that occurs thereafter.

(5) Q Have you observed Mr. Hanson become angry and
(6) lose control with your daughters?

(7) A When we were together, the girls would only
(8) stay with him if he gave the okay. So if mentally and
(9) physically he was well enough on his own assessment, for
(10) example, I was going to the grocery store. I was like,
(11) "Hey, can both girls stay?" He was like, "No, take them
(12) both today." Either, "My back is bothering me today or
(13) I'm not in the mood" or something along those lines.

(14) That was when we were together. After leaving,
(15) I received -- I have received text messages from him
(16) extremity irate for things. I mean, part of the anger
(17) management blows up on the text messages for me --

(18) MR. HANSON: Object. Again, can I see
(19) the text messages?

(20) THE WITNESS: Okay.

(21) THE COURT: Legal objection is best
(22) evidence?

(23) MR. HANSON: Best evidence. Hearsay.
(24) If she's got text messages, let's look at
(25) those.

[Page 197]

(1) THE COURT: I understand. And as,
(2) again, with the prior time you objected
(3) regarding this, I'll allow the testimony.
(4) Certainly, you can cross-examine on this.

(5) I don't believe it's hearsay if they're
(6) talking about communications between the
(7) parties.

(8) MR. HANSON: But I -- she's implying
(9) that there's a record of it. How am I going
(10) to disprove that there's a record? I can't
(11) go through text messages and disprove it.

(12) THE COURT: How to craft your cross?

(13) MR. HANSON: No. I'm asking you to
(14) hold them to the Rules of Evidence. If
(15) she's going text -- if she's going to say
(16) that there is a text message, then she
(17) should produce the text message.

(18) THE COURT: I heard you say that
(19) before, and my interpretation of your
(20) objection and the Rules of Evidence is such
(21) that I'm overruling that objection. Like I
(22) said, you can cross-examine her about it.
(23) Okay?

(24) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(25) THE COURT: All right. You may

(1) proceed, Mr. Davis.

(2) MR. DAVIS: Thank you.

(3) BY MR. DAVIS:

(4) Q I'm asking you if there is a history of the
(5) angry text messages; I'm not asking you about one
(6) specific.

(7) A Yes.

(8) Q There is a history?

(9) A Yes.

(10) Q Have you seen him get angry with the girls?

(11) A Yes. And one of my reasons for referencing the
(12) text messages is he wanted to start spanking them and so
(13) he had texted me about spanking them, saying that they
(14) were dishonest, weak. I have -- it's a quote somewhere,
(15) and I can't remember the exact quote. And he wanted to
(16) start spanking them. And I said, "absolutely not."

(17) I understand spanking is a form of discipline
(18) for different parents and different kids. Our girls have
(19) never been hit, and I think it would absolutely demolish
(20) them if something like that would happen. And when you
(21) have anger management issues, you're not spanking for the
(22) appropriate reasons, in my opinion, and in my experience,
(23) you're hitting just because of something else that you're
(24) frustrated about, and so I'm very much against that.

(25) And, yes, and he has, you know, in my

[Page 199]

(1) experience with the girls, I mean, it's like I've gotten
(2) messages where, you know, "They're being ridiculous; take
(3) them." Before a tea party -- we have tea parties. Last
(4) year before the tea party, it was supposed to be a trade
(5) day, so I would get them before the tea party started.

(6) I was getting my nails done and they came
(7) running through the back. I got messages from him with
(8) him telling me how terrible they were, and he's just
(9) going to drop them off now. So things of that nature,
(10) and that's not the only time it's occurred.

(11) Q Was there a time when Mr. Hanson got angry at (12) Hailey and guilted her about her not attending Hope's
(13) dance competition?

(14) A Yes.

(15) Q Tell the Court about that and when it was.

(16) A Okay.

(17) Q And when it was.

(18) A It was -- it wasn't her last competition of (19) 2025, but it was towards the end or the middle of one of
(20) her competitions --

(21) Q What month?

(22) A It would be fall of 2025. I'm going to
(23) estimate and say -- oh, no it was October. I know when
(24) it was. It was October of 2025. Either late October or
(25) beginning of November, and I know that because Hope

[Page 200]

(1) had --

(2) Q What happened?

(3) A Sorry. Hope had -- I informed him I was not
(4) going to bring Hailey to the competition -- to Hope's
(5) competition.

(6) Q It was your timesharing?

(7) A It was my timesharing day.

(8) Q And what was Hailey doing?

(9) A Hailey was playing with her cousins.

(10) Q At your house?

(11) A At my house. They were playing Legos. The
(12) competition is about hour and a half away to two hours.
(13) It was in Winter Haven and it was at night. It was like
(14) 6 o'clock, in the evening, 4 o'clock, 5 o'clock. We
(15) weren't going to get home until late.

(16) So I texted him to let him know, "Hey, I'm not"
(17) -- you know, "Do you have any objection?" I don't think
(18) I had asked for it, but I wasn't going to bring Hailey.
(19) And the response -- my initial text I got said, "Yes,
(20) that's fine." You know, like, let her know that his --
(21) Claire, who is his girlfriend, and her daughter would be
(22) coming. And so I proceeded to tell Hailey that she
(23) wouldn't be coming.

(24) Q Is that what Hailey wanted to do is stay home?

(25) A Oh, yeah. I mean, she'd rather play with her

[Page 201]

(1) cousin than go to sit for an hour in the car -- sit for
(2) two hours in a car. I mean, she's a kid. And so she had
(3) fun with her cousins, but my phone blew up.

(4) He was furious that I wasn't bringing her to
(5) the competition, that he offered to babysit if I needed
(6) to babysitter, which I didn't. I was like, "I don't need
(7) a babysitter." This is just something that will be in
(8) her best interest is to stay and play with her cousins,
(9) and so I didn't bring her.

(10) And then that night when they were talking on
(11) the phone, I was -- I overheard the discussion where he
(12) told her how sad it was and it was such a sad day because
(13) she didn't go to the competition. And because she
(14) decided not to go to the competition, everyone was super
(15) sad.

(16) And at the end of the call -- and I did
(17) interpret it as he had been drinking that -- during --
(18) before that call, and that's my interpretation and --

(19) Q Did he appear to be trying to guilt her?

(20) A Yes. 100 percent. At the end of the call when
(21) she was saying goodbye she was all excited to talk about
(22) her day. She was, like, "Well, can I tell you about my
(23) day? You know, I had fun." And it broke my heart
(24) because it was clear -- he was, like, "Okay. Fine go."
(25) Like it was all about how he felt, not about how she

[Page 202]

(1) felt, and it crushed me.

(2) Then I end up having lunch -- I had lunch that
(3) week after the fact, and then she told me that she won't
(4) miss anymore of Hope's competition. And I said why, and
(5) she said just -- "I won't miss them." She wouldn't tell
(6) me why.

(7) And I said, "Sweetie, it was my decision. It
(8) was my decision to not bring you to the competition, and
(9) I wanted you to stay and have fun with your cousins," so
(10) I can take the weight off of her because it was clear
(11) that she was sad about it. And so I felt like she had
(12) been drastically guilted for not going, even though it
(13) wasn't her decision.

(14) Q Does Mr. Hanson have a history of insomnia?

(15) A Yes.

(16) Q Tell the Court about that.

(17) A He doesn't sleep. He doesn't sleep. It's --
(18) listen, I understand it's an issue and it's something
(19) that happens, but it impacts your moods if you don't
(20) sleep. Living with him -- me living with him, I mean,
(21) I've known him or 18, 17 years. He does not sleep well,
(22) and then sometimes it will hit him, and he will crash.

(23) But the -- not sleeping directly -- I'm not a
(24) medical professional, but I know from experience and just
(25) from life and a lay person's perspective, you have to

[Page 203]

(1) sleep or it messes with your elations. But, no, he does
(2) have insomnia.

(3) Q Does Mr. Hanson have a history of chronic
(4) depression?

(5) A Yes.

(6) Q Tell the Court about that.

(7) A He has expressed to me his own depression. I
(8) don't understand depression. I don't understand it. The
(9) TMS. What's it called? The TMS, I believe, he went for
(10) treatments. That was a facility I had looked into
(11) because part of the fighting in the marriage was he kept
(12) accusing me of not being supportive, so I found this
(13) place that wasn't drugs.

(14) I think it's magnetics that they use, so we
(15) went to the counsel session for that. And he disclosed
(16) that he has chronic depression that he's dealt with since
(17) at least college, from what I recall. And that he
(18) doesn't like taking medication for it because he doesn't
(19) like the way it makes him feel.

(20) And they said that, you know, this would be a
(21) great substitution for it. I will point out that within
(22) a week after that, he went off on me saying I was only
(23) trying to microwave his brain, and I was still not
(24) supportive. And then I learned after the separation, I
(25) guess, he started doing the treatment, but I don't know

[Page 204]

(1) how they turned out or what happened with them.

(2) Q Is there a time in the past when Mr. Hanson
(3) intentionally left you and the children stranded out of
(4) state?

(5) A Yes.

(6) Q When was that, ma'am?

(7) A It was August of 2023. I was --

(8) Q Take a breath. Start when you're ready.

(9) A We were in Michigan. He had gone up. He had
(10) driven up there with the dogs. It was the second week of
(11) -- it was the second week of the girl's school in August.
(12) They start mid-August -- or, no, I think they started
(13) second week of August, so probably the third week of
(14) August I was asked to fly up there to visit.

(15) It was kind of a last-ditch effort, I guess to
(16) save the marriage because he had stopped the counseling
(17) at the point. And I agreed to go, and I went with the
(18) girls. And the plan was I would fly up, and then we
(19) would ride together because he had the dog.

(20) So the four of us, dog counted -- no, the four
(21) of us -- five with the dog -- would drive to Kentucky,
(22) and then take a plane from Kentucky back to Florida. And
(23) in -- I -- the night before we were going to leave, the
(24) girls were staying the night at their cousin's house, and
(25) we had eaten tacos at someplace, and I wasn't feeling

[Page 205]

(1) well after a drive back from his aunt's.

(2) His relatives all live up there. It was a
(3) winding road and I have extremely bad motion sickness,
(4) especially when someone else is driving, and I wasn't
(5) feeling well. I was working that night -- just with my
(6) job I had to work.

(7) And so it was after 11:00, and he came to -- he
(8) wanted to engage in intercourse and I farted. And when I
(9) farted, it was involuntarily. I didn't do it
(10) intentionally, but he flipped out and about how
(11) disgusting I was and how embarrassed he was.

(12) I don't know why he was embarrassed. We were
(13) the only two in the room, but, I guess, he was relaying
(14) everything to his family. I don't know. But he went
(15) off. I buried my head and went to bed.

(16) The next morning he woke up still lit about how
(17) horrible a human being I am and told me I had to get a
(18) rental car and get out of the hotel, and I said I
(19) wouldn't leave my kids.

(20) And then by, I think, by 1 o'clock the rental
(21) car was ready, and he took me in and the girls to the
(22) rental car. And I had to drive across two states I
(23) didn't know. I threw up in Indiana because I was still
(24) sick from the night before, and then we boarded the plane
(25) and came home, and that was August of 2023.

[Page 206]

(1) Q Is there a time in February of '24 when
(2) Mr. Hanson made you leave Hailey's singing lesson?

(3) A Oh, yeah.

(4) Q Tell the Court about that.

(5) A So 2024 was still when I was trying -- I
(6) thought we were being friends after I had moved out
(7) because I had moved out November, 2023. And so the
(8) singing -- she was taking singing lessons, and it was
(9) near my house. We were going to exchange at the singing
(10) place -- the lesson. I had told the girls that, you
(11) know, I would stay and listen.

(12) And as soon as he walked up and saw and said
(13) that I was going to listen, I'm like, "Oh, mommy is going
(14) to stay." I got the look. The mean eyes. That's what
(15) one of -- that's -- okay. I got the look. And I knew I
(16) wasn't to stay, and so I departed and I left.

(17) Q Okay. Even though you told the girls you were
(18) going to stay?

(19) A Yeah. I told them they was a change of plans
(20) and I forgot I had to do something because he made it
(21) clear that I was not to go in the room. That's why I
(22) left.

(23) Q Was there a time in April of '24, when
(24) Mr. Hanson would refuse to let you pick the girls up
(25) midday when they didn't have school?

(1) A April, 2024?

(2) Q Let me ask you this --

(3) A There was in April -- what I recall of April of
(4) 2024 was he was supposed to go to a dinner. I was
(5) supposed to babysit for them, again, still trying to work
(6) through stuff. A friend of his was getting married. I
(7) believe it was April of 2024. He was supposed to go to
(8) dinner with all the guys because he was in the wedding
(9) party.

(10) He proposed that I get back together and
(11) dismiss this divorce proceeding; I wouldn't do it. I
(12) said no. And the reaction was that -- it wasn't good.
(13) Ultimately, he said, "You're not going to watching the
(14) kids tonight." Like, "You're not going to babysit for
(15) me." I was, like, "What are you doing with them. Are
(16) they going to be with a stranger?" Like, "What's going
(17) to happen?" My understanding is that he, ultimately,
(18) took him to the dinner with him and then brought them
(19) back home.

(20) Q So tell the Court just generally --

(21) MR. HANSON: I'm going to move to
(22) strike that. What does that imply, going on
(23) and on.

(24) THE COURT: I don't take anything by
(25) it. I'm not going that make that a part of

[Page 208]

(1) the ruling. I'm, certainly, not going to
(2) make any ruling based on that comment on
(3) some amorphous statement.

(4) Sorry. You can proceed, Mr. Davis.

(5) MR. DAVIS: Thank you.

(6) BY MR. DAVIS:

(7) Q Tell the Court of kind of a summary of why you
(8) believe having a guardian ad litem appointed is in the
(9) best interest of your girls.

(10) A I know what goes on inside the house.

(11) Q What do you mean by that?

(12) A I've lived with Mr. Hanson, and I know that
(13) there's a private life and there's a public life. It's
(14) not just directed at me, okay. It -- I don't want it to
(15) think that way. It's the totality of just everything
(16) he's dealing with, you know, if it's a job, if it's
(17) stress, if it's something, you know, anything.

(18) I have -- I have the unique understanding of
(19) what goes on inside that house. Nobody else has that,
(20) okay. Anybody outside sees the -- I don't know if it's (21) the persona or sees what the public image he wants them
(22) to see.

(23) I don't think in family law -- and this is just
(24) my own thing -- I think that everyone goes through -- I
(25) think divorce is a relatively common thing. I think, you

[Page 209]

(1) know, divorce lawyers see a lot of the same stuff. I
(2) think judges see a lot of the same stuff.

(3) And I don't want it to be perceived as I'm just
(4) trying to get custody. I'm not trying to get back at
(5) him. I don't have anything like that. I don't care,
(6) okay, I want a divorce. I want my kids to be safe, happy
(7) and healthy.

(8) But as little kids they don't know how to
(9) grapple with some of the things that I think that they
(10) witness, that I know that they probably do witness on a
(11) day-to-day basis. And I believe generally that a
(12) guardian ad litem can come in and assess the situation.

(13) If the guardian ad litem says 50/50, that's
(14) fine, then let them say 50/50. But for an obscure
(15) legislature, judge, or lawyer or someone else to come in
(16) and say it's absolutely 50/50 here when they've never
(17) been inside that house, and they don't know what goes on
(18) in that house.

(19) And I know the spouse who may be perceived as,
(20) you know -- well, I don't know, I mean, apparently, it's (21) vengeance. I mean, he said, you know, it's all out of
(22) vengeance. It's not. This has been my top priority is
(23) I'm concerned over my kids.

(24) After leaving and having a self of calmness and
(25) peace that I never had in the house, I'm like,

[Page 210]

(1) "Something's wrong." Okay. I finally was at a place
(2) where I know that it's not, it's not normal what's going
(3) on in that house. And I think a guardian ad litem can
(4) come in and assess that.

(5) I am not -- I'm not saying that he never sees
(6) his kids. I don't believe in that. Okay. I have
(7) siblings. I have a relationship with my dad, okay. I
(8) have siblings who never met their fathers. In their 20s,
(9) they went and found them. I think it's very important
(10) that kids, adults, people, as you're born here have a
(11) relationship with both parents.

(12) I am genuine on that, and that's based off of
(13) my own -- what my siblings I know went through, okay. So
(14) I'm not trying to say that, but I do think a guardian ad
(15) litem can assess and get a different view point to
(16) educate the Court or as to whether 50/50 is proper in
(17) this situation.

(18) And, again, if she comes back and says, "It
(19) should be 60/50." Okay. If she comes and says, "No,
(20) 50/50 is," that's fine. But when my kids turn 18 or when
(21) they turn 20 and this is all gone. This is all done --
(22) hopefully, hopefully this year, but maybe next -- but
(23) once this is all gone and now they're left in that house.

(24) And, let's say, you don't award the guardian ad
(25) litem, hypothetically, let's say that you don't, and then

[Page 211]

(1) you enter an order now we're stuck with that 50/50. If
(2) they come back to me in their 20s and say, "Mom, didn't
(3) you -- you left," excuse me, "You left. Why didn't you
(4) come back" or "Why didn't you help us," I can say with
(5) certainty, "I tried." Okay.

(6) And I think the guardian ad litem is my best
(7) way of presenting to the Court why it shouldn't it be
(8) 50/50. I mean, my testimony is not to try to say he's a
(9) terrible father, he shouldn't be around his kids. That's
(10) not my point. I just -- I want someone -- there's enough
(11) in there I think that someone should come in and assess
(12) whether it's proper.

(13) I got out, and I have to give them the
(14) lifeline, and this is the only lifeline -- this is the
(15) only lifeline I know to give them through this process.
(16) So that's I didn't want a guardian ad litem.

(17) THE COURT: Okay. Has Mr. Hanson gone
(18) so far as to say that he can't co-parent
(19) with you with the discovery issues pending
(20) in the divorce?

(21) A Yes. He said that multiple times. He's also
(22) refused flat out to pay. We had agreed to pay 50 percent
(23) of the expenses each. He has put in writing in E-mails
(24) that he will not pay a dime until I give him whatever
(25) discovery he's asking for.

[Page 212]

(1) Q Obviously, that's for another motion set today,
(2) but I think it's relevant here. How much does Mr. Hanson
(3) owe you right now?

(4) A It's close to 25,000. I think it's
(5) 25,800-something, but that doesn't include like I would
(6) send an expense E-mail out this month. I would send an
(7) expense E-mail, but so that doesn't include the stuff
(8) from March or the April 1st charges for gymnastics and
(9) speech, and the health insurance premium and things of
(10) nature.

(11) Q Mrs. Hanson, I'm going to show you what's been
(12) marked as identification as Wife's Exhibit 20. Do you
(13) recognize that document?

(14) MR. HANSON: What is the document?

(15) MR. DAVIS: Exhibit 20. It's in Book
(16) Two.

(17) A Family Law Financial Affidavit Long Form.

(18) Q And this is your family law financial
(19) affidavit?

(20) A Yes.

(21) Q And do you recognize it?

(22) A Yes.

(23) Q Dated October 22nd 2024?

(24) A Sure. Yes.

(25) Q And you'll acknowledge that both financial

[Page 213]

(1) affidavits or at the time you filed it, did it accurately
(2) reflect your income, expenses, assets and liabilities?

(3) A Yes.

(4) Q And have you depleted a significant portion of
(5) your savings since you filed this financial affidavit?

(6) A What was the savings amount? Oh, yeah. For
(7) sure.

(8) Q Okay. For example, your Chase savings. At the
(9) time was 76,000. Do you know approximately how much you
(10) have now?

(11) A 20,000.

(12) Q And there was another example your Ameriprise
(13) investment account was 29,000. How much do you have in
(14) that now?

(15) A That I don't know. I don't touch that. That's
(16) my retirement account or I'm using for retirement
(17) account.

(18) Q All right. And are you asking the Court to
(19) order Mr. Hanson to pay for the guardian ad litem?

(20) A Yes.

(21) Q And tell the Court why.

(22) A I'm less than -- it takes both pay checks of
(23) mine to pay my mortgage payment. I have, obviously, I
(24) have attorney's fees because they're all on my credit
(25) cards. I have -- I live on my credit cards on a

[Page 214]

(1) month-to-month, and the girls tuition is on one of the
(2) cards that I don't touch. That's -- because that was
(3) what Mr. Hanson's half to pay, so I haven't touched that
(4) one. I just make the payments as I can.

(5) I am trying to make it through. I can't
(6) refinance my house to try and get a lower pavement while
(7) I'm still married. I'm getting withdrawn more from my
(8) money -- from my bank account, the paycheck, because I
(9) have to file married but separate. That's a higher tax
(10) bracket, I've learned. And so my liabilities at this
(11) point exceed what my income is, and I'm trying not to
(12) touch the 20,000 in savings, just so I can make the
(13) mortgage payment and see how long it goes.

(14) I mean, I'll keep the credit cards. I'll max
(15) them out if I have to to pay for whatever I need to pay
(16) for, but it's getting pretty crushing at this point. And
(17) he hasn't paid me for his half. He's on my health
(18) insurance. That's part of what my expenses are. I'm
(19) paying for all of their gymnastics, all of their
(20) activities, the school. Everything goes on my credit
(21) cards. And so I've been -- well, I've been fronting it.

(22) I've been giving him the 50 percent amounts of
(23) what I'm asking him for the -- he -- for the past year
(24) and a half. He paid at the initial separation, initial
(25) year, and I was relying on that, and now I don't -- I

[Page 215]

(1) don't have that and the mortgage payment. I'm just
(2) trying to make sure I make that.

(3) MR. DAVIS: Thank you. Your Honor, at
(4) this time I'll offer into evidence what's
(5) been marked as Petitioner's Exhibit 20 and
(6) as Petitioner's One.

(7) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(8) MR. HANSON: I object to hearsay, and
(9) then I got to find -- you said, Volume
(10) 220.

(11) THE COURT: I'm sorry. The document
(12) was offered into evidence, and the objection
(13) was hearsay?

(14) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(15) THE COURT: Okay.

(16) MR. HANSON: Hearsay. I believe this
(17) corresponds with the fudge certificate where
(18) it doesn't swear to the appropriate date so
(19) I object to it based on that as well.

(20) THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to
(21) overrule the objection based on hearsay.
(22) And the document behind Tab 20 will be
(23) received as Petitioner's No. 1.

(24) MR. HANSON: And, if I may, Your Honor,
(25) I would also add that it's stale and

[Page 216]

(1) irrelevant to any current issues. It's two
(2) years old.

(3) THE COURT: Okay. With regards to I
(4) think you said something about a fudged date
(5) of filing or --

(6) MR. HANSON: So that's --

(7) THE COURT: Verification.

(8) MR. HANSON: They took advantage of the
(9) four-month delay where they just said that
(10) they were -- that they swore that there was
(11) no other account interest in the last 12
(12) months, but because they put it off for four
(13) months after the stipulated due date, they
(14) were able to get out of swearing for those
(15) four months.

(16) THE COURT: Okay. And then with
(17) regards to the staleness of the evidence,
(18) certainly, there was testimony -- as a
(19) matter of fact, I'll allow you to cross
(20) examine on it, of course. The document on
(21) Tab 20 will be received as Petitioner's No.
(22) 1.

(23) MR. DAVIS: Thank you. May I address
(24) the Court when you're finished.

(25) THE COURT: I have to mark this. All

[Page 217]

(1) right. The documents behind Tab 20 in
(2) Volume II of petitioner's notebook will be
(3) received as Petitioner's No. 1.

(4) (Petitioner's Exhibit No. 1 received in
(5) evidence.)

(6) MR. DAVIS: Thank you.

(7) THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Davis?

(8) MR. DAVIS: Are we only doing the
(9) guardian ad litem motion or is it the Court
(10) taking testimony for the psychological
(11) evaluation and the parenting? It makes no
(12) difference to me.

(13) THE COURT: One at a time.

(14) MR. DAVIS: One at a time, yes, sir.

(15) Thank you.

(16) THE COURT: Thank you.

(17) BY MR. DAVIS:

(18) Q Mrs. Hanson, I'm going to turn your attention
(19) to Exhibit 33. You recognize this E-mail string?

(20) A Yes.

(21) Q And this is the E-mail string regarding Hope's
(22) gymnastics banquet in 2025 that you previously testified
(23) to?

(24) A Yes.

(25) MR. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor. May

[Page 218]

(1) I offer into evidence what's been marked for
(2) identification as Petitioner's 33, as
(3) Petitioner's 2.

(4) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(5) MR. HANSON: I would just ask that the
(6) entire E-mail chain be included, which I am
(7) not sure if this is the entire chain or not.

(8) I can see the entire chain, which it
(9) looks to be. I don't have an objection,
(10) Your Honor.

(11) THE COURT: Then the documents behind
(12) Tab 33 will be received as Petitioner's No.
(13) 2.

(14) (Petitioner's Exhibit No. 2 was received in
(15) evidence.)

(16) THE COURT: All right. You may
(17) proceed.

(18) MR. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

(19) BY MR. DAVIS:

(20) Q I'll show you what's been marked for
(21) identification as Petitioner's No. 34. Do you recognize
(22) that E-mail string?

(23) A Yes.

(24) Q And can you tell the Court generally what it's
(25) about.

[Page 219]

(1) A I mean, should I just read it or?

(2) Q No. Tell me what it's about.

(3) A It's following the hearing he's accusing me of
(4) fraud.

(5) Q Mr. Hanson is accusing you of fraud?

(6) A Yeah.

(7) MR. DAVIS: All right. Offer what's
(8) been marked for identification as
(9) Petitioner's 34 and as Petitioner's 3.

(10) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(11) MR. HANSON: It's just the E-mails from
(12) February 14th. Just that one E-mail. I
(13) guess, there's a second one from February
(14) 12th.

(15) I have no objection.

(16) THE COURT: Okay. Then the documents
(17) behind Tab 34, will be received as
(18) Petitioner's Number 3.

(19) (Petitioner's Exhibit No. 3 received into
(20) evidence.)

(21) THE COURT: You may proceed.

(22) MR. DAVIS: Thank you.

(23) BY MR. DAVIS:

(24) Q I'm going to show you what's been marked for
(25) identification as Petitioner's Exhibit 35. Do you

(1) recognize the E-mail string?

(2) A Um-hum, yes.

(3) Q All right. And does the E-mail string accuse
(4) you of weaponizing the children, abandonment of
(5) cooperation and parent's failure to adhere to
(6) long-standing custody agreements?

(7) A Yes.

(8) Q Does it make multiple complaints about what he,
(9) Mr. Hanson, alleges that you have done?

(10) A Yes.

(11) Q Does it also make other demands relating to
(12) your case?

(13) A Yes, discovery depositions.

(14) MR. DAVIS: All right. At this time
(15) I'll offer into evidence what's been marked
(16) for identification as Petitioner's 35 as
(17) Petitioner's Four.

(18) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(19) MR. HANSON: Again, no objection to the
(20) attachment, but hearsay and information
(21) within it, I reserve any objections.

(22) THE COURT: Reserve any objection,
(23) like, what do you mean by that?

(24) MR. HANSON: So if there's something in
(25) there where Mr. Davis says that he heard

[Page 221]

(1) something from his client, I would object to
(2) that information being used for the truth of
(3) the matter asserted; in other words, it
(4) could be hearsay in the E-mail.

(5) If you want me to read through all
(6) these E-mails right now, I can to see if
(7) there is. But I don't object attachment,
(8) but if there's objectionable material in
(9) there, independently, then I would have an
(10) objection to that.

(11) THE COURT: Okay. I guess, I guess,
(12) what I'm trying to work out is when that
(13) objection would be raised or -- because if
(14) it's received into evidence, then I will
(15) review it. Do you know what I mean? And
(16) that would be up to the presence of the
(17) parties or whenever I can review it.

(18) So I don't know when you would raise
(19) that subsequent objection that you are
(20) reserving on?

(21) MR. HANSON: And I got this information
(22) this morning, you know, the materials for
(23) the hearing. You want me to try and review
(24) it all right now and see if there's anything
(25) objectionable, I can, but there are several

[Page 222]

(1) of these few pages and it will take
(2) sometime.

(3) You know, it's more of a -- there might
(4) be hearsay or other objectionable material
(5) in there that I just want to reserve the
(6) objection unless you want me to take the
(7) time to read all of these now.

(8) THE COURT: Well, like I said, if
(9) you're asking for an objection to be
(10) preserved or the right to make an objection
(11) to be preserved, I feel like I need to rule
(12) on it now before I move into evidence.

(13) MR. HANSON: Okay. Then I got to go
(14) back and read all the other E-mails too
(15) then, you know, especially with the things
(16) have gone on. I have to be very, very
(17) careful to what I agree to. So, you know,
(18) if you want to give me a few minutes, I can
(19) look at these. Mr. Davis can tell me the
(20) numbers --

(21) THE COURT: Well, the other ones have
(22) already been admitted.

(23) MR. HANSON: Okay. I would have
(24) thought the Rules of Evidence generally
(25) apply. I didn't know that an objection

[Page 223]

(1) to -- I would need to make an objection to
(2) preserve the Rules of Evidence, but that
(3) would have been my intent to preserve the
(4) Rules.

(5) THE COURT: I'm sorry. I just want to
(6) make sure I understand. You are saying that
(7) you didn't know you needed to make an
(8) objection to preserve that objection?

(9) MR. HANSON: Well, the Rules of
(10) Evidence apply, right? I mean, the Rules of
(11) Evidence are applied to what you look at to
(12) reach your ruling. And when there's, you
(13) know, a 10-page document, if there's hearsay
(14) or other inadmissible material in it, I
(15) think that there's still applicability of
(16) the Rules of Evidence. Does the Court
(17) disagree.

(18) THE COURT: I'm not under examination
(19) here. I'm trying to understand what you're
(20) saying. So you're saying that if no
(21) objection is made, it's automatically
(22) preserved and like an Appellate Court just
(23) needs to apply any objection that may
(24) possibly be made on their own or -- I'm
(25) trying to understand what you're saying.

[Page 224]

(1) MR. HANSON: What I'm saying is that
(2) these are long exhibits and you're asking me
(3) in three seconds whether there is an
(4) objection.

(5) THE COURT: Correct.

(6) MR. HANSON: And if I'm doing my job
(7) right, I would look at the document and see
(8) if there's anything objectionable.

(9) THE COURT: Okay. And you're asking
(10) for that time now, right?

(11) MR. HANSON: If that's -- yes. Yes. I
(12) suppose I am.

(13) THE COURT: Okay.

(14) MR. HANSON: And have you already
(15) admitted the other ones where I don't have a
(16) chance to look at those anymore? Is it just
(17) 35 that I have a chance to look at?

(18) THE COURT: I did because I asked you
(19) at that time if you had any objection, and
(20) you said no to each one of those.

(21) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(22) THE COURT: And then we moved on. And
(23) now we're on the documents behind Tab 35.

(24) MR. HANSON: And, again, Your Honor, I
(25) won't object. The issues here are very

[Page 225]

(1) simple. The Court will do what it wants to
(2) do, but it's not going to hinge on one of
(3) these E-mails.

(4) THE COURT: All right. Documents
(5) behind Tab 35 will be received as
(6) Petitioner's Number 4.

(7) (Petitioner's Exhibit No. 4 received in
(8) evidence.)

(9) THE COURT: You may proceed, Mr. Davis.
(10) I'm sorry. I said did --

(11) MR. DAVIS: I didn't know -- I didn't
(12) hear you say, "You pray proceed."

(13) THE COURT: I'm sorry. I'm sorry. If
(14) I didn't --

(15) MR. DAVIS: I was just waiting for the (16) Court to --

(17) THE COURT: No. Maybe I said it in my
(18) head and thought I said it. You may
(19) proceed.

(20) MR. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor.
(21) I'll tender the witness.

(22) THE COURT: Okay. Any
(23) cross-examination, Mr. Hanson?

(24) MR. HANSON: Yes. There is quite a
(25) bit, and I have a quite a bit of testimony

(1) to offer myself.

(2) THE COURT: Okay. Well, we're doing
(3) cross now.

(4) MR. HANSON: Okay. I just wanted to
(5) let you know --

(6) THE COURT: I did not make any
(7) assumptions about you not having any.

(8) MR. HANSON: Yeah. At Judge Ayers'
(9) hearing where I want the video, I wasn't
(10) even allowed to testify. She was going to
(11) rule against me.

(12) CROSS-EXAMINATION

(13) BY MR. HANSON:

(14) Q Mrs. Hanson, I'll probably call you Sarah by
(15) accident.

(16) A That's fine.

(17) Q Are you fine if I call you something else?

(18) A No. I don't care.

(19) Q You mentioned quite a bit about what goes on in
(20) that house like it was a house of horrors of some sort.

(21) What goes on in that house that you know that
(22) is so severe? What are you referring to?

(23) A Your temperament. Things that get said. Your
(24) anger. If you don't -- the uncertainty of, you know, I
(25) mean, for me, when I was getting in trouble, the

[Page 227]

(1) uncertainty is always that. Walking an eggshells.

(2) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I have sent a
(3) video to the Court a couple of times. I
(4) think as recently as this week. It's a Ring
(5) video. May I either resend that to you or
(6) figure out a way I can play that to the
(7) Court and enter that into evidence.

(8) THE COURT: Okay. Through this witness
(9) or?

(10) MR. HANSON: Yes, yes. It's a video of
(11) this witness in the home during this period.

(12) THE COURT: Mr. Davis, are you familiar
(13) with this exhibit? Do you know what it is?

(14) MR. DAVIS: I've seen it.

(15) THE COURT: Any objection to it being
(16) played?

(17) MR. DAVIS: Well, he has to admit it
(18) first. I'm not trying to be smart, but...

(19) THE COURT: I understand, but --
(20) because I don't know what it is. I haven't
(21) seen it.

(22) MR. DAVIS: I don't think it's super
(23) relevant, but it's fine.

(24) THE COURT: Okay. Typically, what I do
(25) with like videos and things along those

[Page 228]

(1) lines is because we're not allowed to
(2) receive like a flash drive because we don't
(3) know where it's from or whatever and that
(4) kind of thing.

(5) So, typically, what I will ask you to
(6) do is log into Zoom, you can share your
(7) screen, and we'll play it up there.

(8) MR. HANSON: Okay. I think I can do
(9) that. Actually, I might need someone with
(10) more computer skills to walk me through.
(11) Oddly, I can't read that well or without my
(12) glasses. I just wanted to tell you.

(13) THE COURT: I try to tell you that this
(14) is the screen that shows up there. I was
(15) trying to find the "preferences" so I can
(16) give you the Zoom information.

(17) Do you have it, Mr. Hanson?

(18) MR. HANSON: I'm in Zoom. Generally, I
(19) just need, I guess, a meeting to join.

(20) THE COURT: Yeah. Meeting ID is 969.

(21) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry. I got to
(22) figure out where to type it in. Do I hit
(23) join first.

(24) THE COURT: I think you can join the
(25) meeting.

[Page 229]

(1) MR. HANSON: I think that's how it
(2) works. Please tell me again, Your Honor.

(3) THE COURT: 969-8050-9625.

(4) MR. HANSON: Okay. And then I just
(5) have a link here. I'm trying to, like I
(6) said, do I share screen.

(7) THE COURT: I don't see you in the Zoom
(8) room yet.

(9) MR. HANSON: Oh, I see my own picture
(10) and think I'm in there.

(11) THE COURT: Typically, you need to ask
(12) to share screen. Give it a second, then the
(13) request will pop up on my end, then I have
(14) to hit allow.

(15) MR. HANSON: Share.

(16) THE COURT: Maybe turn off your
(17) microphone. Try joining in. It says
(18) "disabled." You have to request permission
(19) to share.

(20) MR. HANSON: And it says that -- it
(21) says "disabled share."

(22) THE COURT: If you can see my screen in
(23) there, I have two of you in here. One of (24) them is muted.

(25) MR. DAVIS: I think the Court can mute

(1) him up in the right.

(2) MR. HANSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

(3) THE COURT: No problem.

(4) MR. HANSON: So I click screen share
(5) and it says, "disabled share." It says,
(6) "Host disabled screen sharing." "Okay." Is
(7) my only button.

(8) THE COURT: And I'm never on that end,
(9) so, typically, my understanding is there is
(10) a request permission to share.

(11) MR. HANSON: Oh, maybe it's under
(12) more.

(13) THE COURT: I'm sure as you can
(14) understand I don't have the automatic
(15) sharing on.

(16) MR. HANSON: It looks to me like it's a
(17) set something of some kind where it doesn't
(18) give me an option to request it, but let me
(19) try a couple of other things.

(20) THE COURT: I mean, all I can say,
(21) Mr. Hanson, is people do request it all the
(22) time, and I think that's how --

(23) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(24) THE COURT: Sir, can you see my screen
(25) up there? You see my thing? Do you have

[Page 231]

(1) one of these?

(2) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(3) THE COURT: If I hit that, that's like
(4) host tools for sharing.

(5) MR. HANSON: Mine is a green share
(6) screen button, but it looks like that,
(7) otherwise, and then is that immediately to
(8) host disabled.

(9) THE COURT: You should be able to
(10) share.

(11) MR. HANSON: Okay. This is November
(12) 7th of 2023, which is an important date when
(13) it comes to this it's at 7:15 a.m.

(14) THE COURT: November 7th 2023.

(15) MR. HANSON: Sarah is still living in
(16) the house.

(17) (WHEREUPON, Mr. Hanson, sharing screen; video
(18) playing.)

(19) MR. HANSON: That's what it was like
(20) living in my house when she was -- after her
(21) $100,000 payment is -- it was -- and, I'm
(22) sorry, Your Honor, I'm not arguing to you,
(23) but I'm asking questions here, Your Honor.
(24) I apologize.

(25) BY MR. HANSON:

[Page 232]

(1) Q Do you recall that day, Mrs. Hanson?

(2) A November 7th of 2023?

(3) Q Yes.

(4) A I believe, I believe that's when I filed for
(5) divorce the first time.

(6) Q It was also when you were pushing me to sign
(7) documents related to purchasing your home where I was
(8) going to be on the promissory note as well, right?

(9) MR. DAVIS: Relevance. Outside the
(10) scope.

(11) THE COURT: How is it relevant?

(12) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, Mrs. Hanson,
(13) just went on a two and a half hour petty,
(14) divorce problems, exaggeration of two years
(15) suggesting that my house is a house of (16) horrors.

(17) THE COURT: Okay.

(18) MR. HANSON: This is what my house was
(19) like when Mrs. Hanson was still there. It
(20) was -- I was walking on eggshells.

(21) THE COURT: I understand that, and that
(22) can be part of cross. But I guess my
(23) question is -- the objection came after you
(24) said, "This was the day" -- I don't remember
(25) the exact words that you used, "but

[Page 233]

(1) pressuring me to sign documents regarding
(2) the purchase of the home," right?

(3) MR. HANSON: Right.

(4) THE COURT: That specifically, how is
(5) that relevant?

(6) MR. HANSON: Because Mrs. Hanson made
(7) it seem as though I am this controlling,
(8) anger-management, problem person, and it's
(9) the opposite of true.

(10) THE COURT: I understand that, but how
(11) is the specific question about signing
(12) documents that day relevant?

(13) MR. HANSON: Because she was bullying
(14) me into signing something that I was scared
(15) to sign, and that is consistent with our
(16) history and our relationship is I was the
(17) one trying to get along and I still am.

(18) And we're going to go through all of it
(19) where Mrs. Hanson's testimony is a gross
(20) exaggeration of a few stories that are
(21) true --

(22) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'm asking to
(23) please focus on just the question. Yes, we
(24) will go through all of it, but that's not
(25) what we're talking about right now.

[Page 234]

(1) MR. HANSON: Yes. I understand that.

(2) THE COURT: So --

(3) MR. HANSON: What I'm getting at is
(4) that Mrs. Hanson's rationale for wanting a
(5) guardian ad litem is largely that I was
(6) controlling and angry and aggressive, and
(7) the opposite is true in that when she needed
(8) me to sign something --

(9) THE COURT: So you're saying it's
(10) relevant because it shows something contrary
(11) to what her testimony was?

(12) MR. HANSON: It shows that she was the
(13) bully, angry, aggressive force, not me.

(14) THE COURT: All right.

(15) MR. HANSON: And there's no actual --
(16) I'm sorry, Your Honor. I'll continue with
(17) questions whenever -- I don't know if you're
(18) done talking to me about this issue. Fine,
(19) I'll --

(20) THE COURT: I'm trying to understand
(21) your objection. I'm asking you to respond
(22) to the objection with regard to relevance.

(23) And I'm trying to direct that a little
(24) bit so we're not talking about everything
(25) that she testified to, just the specific

[Page 235]

(1) question that you posed that was objected
(2) to.

(3) MR. HANSON: But I need to address
(4) everything she testified to because it's
(5) simply not accurate.

(6) THE COURT: I'm not saying you can't.
(7) I'm not saying you can't, but right now
(8) we're addressing an objection to one
(9) specific question. And I'm not saying you
(10) won't -- and you said, "Are we're going to
(11) address all of it?" And I said, "Yes, we
(12) are, but not right now." Right now we're
(13) talking about an objection to one
(14) question.

(15) MR. HANSON: Separate from the video,
(16) the question about this was around the time
(17) where you were pushing to me to sign this
(18) document?

(19) THE COURT: Correct.

(20) MR. HANSON: I think that's critically
(21) relevant because she was pushing for her to
(22) leave the house and go to 50/50 custody at
(23) the time.

(24) THE COURT: Okay. With regards to the
(25) objection to it being outside the scope,

[Page 236]

(1) Mr. Davis, do you want to strictly adhere to
(2) the scope of direct and cross and have him
(3) recall her on his direct?

(4) MR. DAVIS: That's up to the Court.
(5) That's fine. If you want to go outside --
(6) Your Honor, but it probably makes more sense
(7) for efficiency --

(8) THE COURT: I'll allow it if the
(9) parties are okay with it.

(10) MR. DAVIS: If Mr. Hanson will agree,
(11) I'll agree.

(12) THE COURT: Do you understand that
(13) question, Mr. Hanson?

(14) MR. HANSON: I didn't follow, Your
(15) Honor.

(16) THE COURT: Okay. So, very typically,
(17) when we have direct and cross, cross is not
(18) allowed to go outside the scope of the
(19) direct.

(20) MR. HANSON: Right.

(21) THE COURT: Okay. However, a lot of
(22) times in family law we will allow both sides
(23) to go outside the scope of the direct so you
(24) don't have to go through the formality with
(25) resting on this witness, staying within that

[Page 237]

(1) scope, and then recalling her on your
(2) direct -- does that make sense -- or in your
(3) defense of this motion?

(4) MR. HANSON: I think so. I would
(5) rather do them separately, I think. I mean,
(6) the direct seems like it was so broad to me
(7) that I think most everything will be within
(8) the scope, but if there's things that are
(9) outside the scope, then I can do them
(10) separately.

(11) THE COURT: So you'd rather not go
(12) outside the scope of direct?

(13) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I do want
(14) efficiency too, but I think -- I think I
(15) prefer to proceed that way, but if it's
(16) slowing us down, then I'm okay doing the
(17) other option as well.

(18) THE COURT: Okay. Then we will allow
(19) each party to go outside the scope of the (20) direct on cross. Okay?

(21) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(22) THE COURT: All right.

(23) MR. HANSON: All right. So I'd like to
(24) submit the video.

(25) THE COURT: I'm sorry. Real quick. I

[Page 238]

(1) still haven't ruled on the actual objection
(2) yet.

(3) MR. HANSON: Sorry.

(4) THE COURT: I'll overrule the
(5) objection. I'll allow it. So, I guess, the
(6) question is: This was the day that you were
(7) also forcing me to sign documents -- or
(8) forcing -- I'm sorry. I keep using the
(9) wrong words, but pressuring me to sign
(10) documents about the purchase of another
(11) property; is that correct?

(12) MR. HANSON: The day of or the day
(13) before. Very close.

(14) THE COURT: Okay. Mrs. Hanson?

(15) THE WITNESS: Having you sign off on my
(16) house so I could buy it, that went on for at
(17) least a week.

(18) BY MR. HANSON:

(19) Q Right. I think it was just the day before or
(20) the day of --

(21) A This was the day you said you wouldn't sign,
(22) and so I filed for divorce because the only way I would
(23) be able to buy a piece of property is if we were legally
(24) divorced.

(25) Q And you filing for divorce, you admitted that

[Page 239]

(1) you did not make any financial disclosures in conjunction
(2) with the post-marital agreement, right?

(3) MR. DAVIS: Object. Relevance?

(4) THE COURT: Relevance with regards to
(5) the motion for a guardian ad litem?

(6) MR. HANSON: We're going to do it -- I
(7) mean, I still think it's relevant because my
(8) argument still is that it is 100 percent
(9) retaliatory and baseless. And the fact that
(10) the finances or the driving force from me
(11) since 2024 is -- it's critical to my
(12) argument that everything that Mrs. Hanson
(13) and Mr. Davis are saying with respect to the
(14) guardian ad litem is baseless and
(15) retaliatory in nature due to the finances.

(16) THE COURT: Okay.

(17) MR. HANSON: The only goal is to
(18) conceal the marital income and assets, and
(19) this is just distraction and harassment.

(20) Your Honor, frankly, given the number
(21) of ethical violations that have occurred,
(22) the Court's complete lack of consideration
(23) or attention to those and continuing in this
(24) matter as though everything has gone normal
(25) is problematic. And especially when there's

[Page 240]

(1) no findings on these constitutional
(2) questions, which I think is problematic.

(3) THE COURT: Okay. I will overrule the
(4) objection. And I'm taking this as the
(5) fourth time you are raising those arguments,
(6) and the Court is going to remain with its
(7) prior ruling on it. Okay?

(8) BY MR. HANSON:

(9) Q Okay. As far as the gymnastics events, the one
(10) where you decided not to take Hailey, that was the first
(11) one that Claire was going to be at, right?

(12) A After I told you I was planning on not taking
(13) her, you told me, "Let Hailey know that Claire and Enzo
(14) will be there."

(15) Q And your testimony is that you had no idea that
(16) Claire was going to be at the gymnastics meet when you
(17) first told me that Hailey was not going to go?

(18) A I knew Hailey was going to go when -- I knew
(19) Claire was going to go in the text message, but my idea
(20) to not bring Hailey and let her stay, I had no idea if
(21) Claire would be there or not.

(22) Q Did you tell me that Hailey was not going to go
(23) before or after I told you that Claire was coming?

(24) A Before -- my opening text to you was letting
(25) you know, "Hey, I'm not I'm looking -- I wasn't planning

[Page 241]

(1) on bringing Hailey. I was going to have her stay with
(2) her cousins." That was my first -- that's what opened
(3) the discussion.

(4) Q So your testimony is that when you decided to
(5) leave Hailey with her cousins the day of that gymnastics
(6) meet, you had no idea that Claire was going to be there?
(7) That's your testimony, right?

(8) A My opening statement to you -- you told me in
(9) your first text to me back, I acknowledge you told me
(10) Claire was going to be there and Enzo was going to be
(11) there --

(12) THE COURT: And I'm sorry, but who is
(13) Claire.

(14) MR. HANSON: A girl that I am dating.

(15) THE COURT: Sorry. I'm just trying to
(16) put people in place, and I'm trying to
(17) understand what the relevance of that might
(18) be.

(19) BY MR. HANSON:

(20) Q But my question is very simple: When you first
(21) told me that Hailey was not going to be coming to that
(22) gymnastics meet, did you have any idea that Claire was
(23) going to be coming at the time that you told me that
(24) Hailey was not coming?

(25) A I'm not trying to legal gymnastics with you,

[Page 242]

(1) but the way you're wording it when I finally said, "Hey,
(2) she's definitely not coming," I did know that Claire was
(3) coming; however, when my opening text to you telling you,
(4) "Hey, I'm going to leave Hailey behind," I did not know
(5) that she was coming.

(6) I have no problem with Claire hanging out with
(7) the kids.

(8) Q Because Hailey told me that you wouldn't let
(9) her come to gymnastics --

(10) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Calls for
(11) hearsay.

(12) THE COURT: Mrs. Hanson, hold on one
(13) second. There is an objection.

(14) THE WITNESS: Okay. Sorry. No, I
(15) apologize.

(16) THE COURT: The objection, Mr. Hanson,
(17) to the form of the question is that includes
(18) hearsay, is that correct, as to what the
(19) children said?

(20) MR. DAVIS: Yes.

(21) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(22) MR. HANSON: It's the independent
(23) relevance that she said it, Your Honor. The
(24) question for Sarah is whether it's true or
(25) not, but the fact that she said it. I'm

[Page 243]

(1) telling you --

(2) THE COURT: But how do we know if she
(3) said it or not.

(4) MR. HANSON: I'm here. You can judge
(5) my credibility. It's the fact that it was
(6) said that's relevant. It's a question for
(7) Mrs. Hanson. The fact that Hailey said it
(8) to me, I'm perfectly capable of declaring,
(9) Judge, my credibility.

(10) You don't need to judge Hailey's
(11) credibility as to whether it was said, but
(12) it was said. And it raises a question of is
(13) that true, did you tell Hailey she couldn't
(14) come.

(15) THE COURT: Okay. Based on the form of
(16) the question, I'm going to sustain that
(17) question.

(18) BY MR. HANSON:

(19) Q Did you tell Hailey that she couldn't come to
(20) the gymnastics meet the day that Claire was coming?

(21) A I told Hailey during lunch after she didn't
(22) come that I'm the reason that she didn't go to the
(23) gymnastics meets, and it wasn't here decision. That's
(24) what I testified to earlier too.

(25) Q My question is when you all were making the

[Page 244]

(1) decision about whether Hailey was going to come, did you
(2) tell Hailey or did you prevent her in any way from
(3) coming? Your testimony is 100 percent Hailey's decision
(4) that she didn't want to come?

(5) A No. I -- we didn't have a discussion with
(6) Hailey like that. I told Hailey -- I went over to Hailey
(7) and said, "Hey, she's playing on her top bunk with
(8) Legos -- playing Legos. They were building Legos with
(9) Leo. " And I said, "Hey, we're going to need to get ready
(10) for the competition" -- I don't want to get her in
(11) trouble. I'm not comfortable testifying to this with
(12) you.

(13) She -- I told her after the fact, "You tell
(14) daddy it was my decision you didn't go." And she was
(15) fine not going; she was playing with her cousins.

(16) THE COURT: Are we done with this
(17) video, Mr. Hanson?

(18) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor, I did
(19) want to submit it as my first exhibit, but I
(20) can, I guess, stop sharing screens.

(21) MR. DAVIS: I have no objection. I
(22) don't know how the Court is going to receive
(23) it, but...

(24) THE COURT: Was it -- it was -- it
(25) was -- did you say it was E-mailed to the

[Page 245]

(1) Court.

(2) MR. HANSON: It was E-mailed two or
(3) three different times. The last time it was
(4) two or three days ago. I can send it right
(5) now to whatever E-mail you want.

(6) THE COURT: If you wouldn't mind
(7) sending it to my judicial assistant.
(8) Obviously, copy Mr. Davis on it.

(9) MR. DAVIS: Was it just that video?

(10) MR. HANSON: That's the only video that
(11) I'm entering at this time.

(12) THE COURT: Yeah. I would ask that the
(13) E-mail that you send just contain that
(14) video.

(15) MR. HANSON: Do you want me to do it
(16) right now? Do you want me to make a note.
(17) It shouldn't take that long to back up. I
(18) don't want to hold you up.

(19) THE COURT: As long as I receive it
(20) before Monday.

(21) MR. HANSON: Okay. I got the E-mail
(22) drafted. And you said, just the link?

(23) THE COURT: Just the link, please. And
(24) in there just, you know, include the link
(25) and say, you know, Respondent's Exhibit

[Page 246]

(1) Number 1.

(2) MR. DAVIS: I think it's one, isn't it?

(3) THE COURT: Didn't I say one?

(4) MR. DAVIS: I thought you said 4.

(5) THE COURT: No, Respondent's Exhibit

(6) Number 1.

(7) (Respondent's Exhibit No. 1 received in
(8) evidence.)

(9) BY MR. HANSON:

(10) Q And you testified about a guardian ad litem at
(11) the April 4th of 2025 hearing as well, right?

(12) A That was the -- one of the pending motions to
(13) be heard, yes.

(14) Q Was your testimony today different from your
(15) April 4, of 2025 in any way?

(16) MR. DAVIS: Object to vague. Although
(17) it's in my exhibit book. I have no
(18) objection to it being admitted and for the
(19) Court review it, although it's a long
(20) transcript, if the Court wants to.

(21) MR. HANSON: And the video is something
(22) that just has to be reviewed in any credible
(23) the Court. There is a video of judicial
(24) misconduct and bias that has corrupted this
(25) case since day one. And if the --

[Page 247]

(1) MR. DAVIS: Whether or not Judge Ayers
(2) rolled her eyes or not has nothing to do
(3) with the parties.

(4) THE COURT: This is about the sixth
(5) time the argument has been made. I'm not
(6) changing my rule.

(7) MR. HANSON: Yeah. And I really think
(8) that's a big problem.

(9) THE COURT: I understand. I am well
(10) aware that you think it's a problem
(11) evidenced by you bringing it up multiple
(12) times --

(13) MR. HANSON: Do I have any options
(14) to --

(15) THE COURT: I cannot advise you as to
(16) your legal options.

(17) MR. HANSON: All right. I'll look into
(18) that myself.

(19) BY MR. HANSON:

(20) Q So let's look at what your concerns were
(21) exactly. You said that I drink alcohol heavily when Hope
(22) was a baby, and she knows what a happy hour is. Is that
(23) your testimony that I heard?

(24) A Well, I think it's a mischaracterization. I --
(25) I'm not with him the house with you anymore. You drank

[Page 248]

(1) heavily throughout our courtship and in the first year of
(2) our marriage, and then Hope was born in our second year
(3) of the marriage, and you still drank.

(4) And then did testify that you stopped drinking,
(5) but I do believe you are drinking again, and I know that
(6) the girls know what a happy hour is.

(7) Q What makes you think that -- what do you mean
(8) by drinking again?

(9) A Chris, you would drink vodka. You would drink
(10) straight vodka.

(11) Q That's not my question. What do you mean by
(12) drinking again?

(13) A What do you mean?

(14) Q You just said --

(15) A Because I said I don't -- I'm not in the house
(16) with you, so -- but you have a proclivity to drink, and I
(17) don't -- so I don't know the frequency of which you are
(18) drinking. I do not know what you are drinking, but for
(19) many, many years, I mean, you can drink a bottle of
(20) vodka.

(21) Q It just seems slanderous to me to focus on
(22) things that are seven, eight years ago. And I want to
(23) remain focused on the time periods that matter here.

(24) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Argumentative.

(25) And calls for legal conclusion as to the

[Page 249]

(1) time frames that matters here. That's for
(2) the Court to understand.

(3) THE COURT: I understand. I'm not
(4) making any determinations based on that,
(5) Mr. Davis.

(6) MR. DAVIS: I understand, but it's also
(7) argumentative.

(8) THE COURT: I understand. Mr. Hanson,
(9) I would ask that you stick to question at
(10) this point in the hearing. Okay?

(11) BY MR. HANSON:

(12) Q When was the first time that we talked about
(13) divorce?

(14) A The actual divorce? You put it in an E-mail
(15) before going to one of your client's birthday parties.

(16) Q Was it after you assaulted me in the car going
(17) back from Bone Fish?

(18) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Assumes facts
(19) not in evidence.

(20) THE COURT: Hold on.

(21) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry.

(22) THE COURT: Do you want me to rule on
(23) the objection?

(24) MR. HANSON: Yes, of course, Your
(25) Honor.

[Page 250]

(1) THE COURT: Any response to the
(2) objection?

(3) MR. HANSON: I can ask another question
(4) first.

(5) THE COURT: Okay.

(6) MR. HANSON: I was just trying to move
(7) it faster.

(8) BY MR. HANSON:

(9) Q Did you assault me in 2018 driving back from
(10) Bone Fish?

(11) A No. I did not assault you.

(12) Q Did you strike me with a closed fist?

(13) A No.

(14) Q Did you -- do you know the incident I'm talking
(15) about?

(16) A I assume you're referring to after -- I'm
(17) assuming Bone Fish.

(18) Q Yes. So you know the incident leaving Bone
(19) Fish that I'm referring to?

(20) A Yes.

(21) Q What happened in your words?

(22) A Well, okay, we were at dinner with you, your
(23) dad, your dad's girlfriend, and Hope was a baby. And you
(24) were drinking vodka Martinis straight, and your dad's
(25) girlfriend was drinking.

[Page 251]

(1) And I saw her suck on an ice cube from her
(2) drink and give it to Hope to take -- this is at the end
(3) of dinner, and so I took the ice cube from Hope, and I
(4) said we would go outside to play.

(5) When we went outside in the front of Bone Fish,
(6) there were cars -- it was by the parking lot where it was
(7) at, and so I put Hope in the car because it was safer.
(8) It was away from -- it was just better.

(9) And then when you guys came out, I went to get
(10) out to bring Hope to say goodbye to everybody. And you
(11) said no. You accused me of ruining the evening, and then
(12) you got in the car behind me.

(13) And Hope was in -- and then when you strapped
(14) Hope into her car seat, you -- she started crying because
(15) she doesn't like to be in the car seat. I was
(16) pregnant -- and I was pregnant with Hailey, but pregnant
(17) enough the belly was sticking out near the wheel.

(18) Oh, it probably would have been around January
(19) or February when that happened. And Hope started
(20) screaming and crying, and you started laying into me
(21) about what a horrible -- I don't remember what you said.
(22) I mean, it's it was eight -- it was a very long time ago,
(23) and you we were complaining about me. And then I told
(24) you I didn't like you. I just --

(25) Q Did you swing your fist at me?

[Page 252]

(1) A I did not swing my fist, no. I've never made a
(2) fist and thrown it at you.

(3) Q Have you ever admitted in writing that you hit
(4) me in the car?

(5) A Admitted in writing?

(6) Q Yeah. Have you ever acknowledged it in a text
(7) message or in an E-mail?

(8) A I mean, not that I know of. If you accused me
(9) of it though when we were going through all our fights, I
(10) would have apologized. I mean, it's entirely plausible.

(11) I know in deposition though when you were
(12) questioning me, you acknowledged that you moved so I
(13) didn't hit you. And I remember that in deposition where
(14) I said, "Well, you just said I didn't hit you."

(15) Q No. You hit me twice, and then I moved so you
(16) couldn't hit me anymore, but you were still swinging.

(17) Did you cross multiple lanes of traffic going
(18) on North Dale Mabry as we were driving back from Bone
(19) Fish while you were swinging at me?

(20) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Compound.

(21) Assumes facts not this evidence, and the
(22) first part was argumentative.

(23) THE COURT: Any response, Mr. Hanson?

(24) MR. HANSON: Which pardon was
(25) argumentative.

[Page 253]

(1) THE COURT: The first part. I believe
(2) that you are referring to Mr. Davis' part
(3) where you said, "No, you hit me twice, then
(4) I moved so you couldn't hit me a third
(5) time."

(6) MR. DAVIS: Yes.

(7) THE COURT: I'll sustained with regards
(8) to that. You're not under oath. That's in
(9) response to her answer, so that -- I'm going
(10) to take that as argumentative more than like
(11) testimony.

(12) MR. HANSON: Did you -- I'm sorry.

(13) THE COURT: The next objection was
(14) assumes facts not in evidence and compound;
(15) is that correct?

(16) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(17) THE COURT: Okay. Any response with
(18) the rest of those?

(19) MR. HANSON: I mean, I can break it
(20) down. I was trying to move things along.

(21) THE COURT: Okay. Please break it
(22) down.

(23) BY MR. HANSON:

(24) Q All right. You were driving back from Bone
(25) Fish; is that right?

[Page 254]

(1) A Yes. I was driving.

(2) Q We had to go on North Dale Mabry; is that
(3) right?

(4) A Yes. That's the route I would have taken.

(5) Q Were you driving erratically?

(6) A No.

(7) Q Did you cross from the right lane over into the
(8) left-turn lane to turn left onto Kennedy?

(9) A I mean, I would have had to have gone into the
(10) left-turn lane to turn left on Kennedy from Bone Fish.

(11) Q Did you cross two lanes really quickly?

(12) A I have no idea. If there was an opening, I
(13) would have crossed it.

(14) Q And then once we got on Kennedy and we we're
(15) going back towards West Shore, did you again cross all
(16) lanes of traffic while you were screaming and swinging?

(17) A No, and no to all of it.

(18) Q Was that the first time that we started talking
(19) about divorce?

(20) A No.

(21) Q Is that when I stopped sleeping in the bedroom?

(22) A Not that I know of, no.

(23) Q I didn't start sleeping in the closet after
(24) that?

(25) A You rarely sleep. You have insomnia, and most

[Page 255]

(1) of the time you were rarely in the bed even before that,
(2) well before that. We didn't get along even when Hope was
(3) a baby before Hailey was born.

(4) Q Was this drive home from Bone Fish a changing
(5) point in your relationship?

(6) A Not that I know of.

(7) Q You think that our relationship was the same
(8) before and after this incident on the way home from Bone
(9) Fish?

(10) A Chris, I don't think we had much of a
(11) relationship before Bone Fish.

(12) Q Did you ever apologize to me for what happened
(13) on the drive home from Bone Fish?

(14) A I have no idea. I'm sure you demanded that I
(15) do, and I'm sure I did at some point. I mean, even the
(16) texts messages you send over, I apologize for multiple
(17) things.

(18) Q Were you yelling at me when you apologize?

(19) A No.

(20) Q And you were pretty far along with Hailey at
(21) that time. You were halfway through the pregnancy, if I
(22) remember right.

(23) A I believe so. Yeah. I said my belly was
(24) sticking out. It was that close to the wheel.

(25) Q While I was working at home, did you ever come

[Page 256]

(1) up behind me and choke me unconscious?

(2) A Unbelievable. We covered this in the
(3) deposition, Chris.

(4) Q It's just a yes or no question?

(5) THE COURT: I wasn't at the deposition,
(6) so that doesn't help me at all.

(7) THE WITNESS: I mean can I re -- I
(8) don't think it's a yes-or-no question. I'm
(9) allowed to explain or expand on that, right?
(10) I'm not -- okay. I apologize.

(11) THE COURT: Okay. So I need you to
(12) answer the question. Your attorney has a
(13) right to redirect.

(14) THE WITNESS: Okay.

(15) THE COURT: Okay.

(16) THE WITNESS: I did not come up from
(17) behind. I disagree with your
(18) mischaracterization. I did not come up from
(19) behind and choke you.

(20) BY MR. HANSON:

(21) Q Did you choke me unconscious to the point where
(22) I, actually, was out and I woke up suddenly?

(23) A There was an accident where that occurred,
(24) yes.

(25) Q Did the accident occur when your arms were

[Page 257]

(1) around my neck squeezing it?

(2) A My arm was around you giving you a hug, and
(3) then I jokingly put my arm around your neck and then,
(4) yes, you went unconscious.

(5) Q Have you ever choked anyone else unconscious?

(6) A No, I think you know that.

(7) MR. DAVIS: Stop.

(8) THE WITNESS: Your Honor, okay. I
(9) apologize. Go on.

(10) BY MR. HANSON:

(11) Q Did you tell my friends that you choked me
(12) unconscious?

(13) A After you told them and one of your friends was
(14) aware because the next day we were at Busch Gardens or
(15) the water park.

(16) Q Did you tell them that I should feel
(17) emasculated because you choked me out?

(18) A No. I've never even used that word.

(19) THE COURT: I'm sorry. Mr. Hanson, can
(20) I know the time frame we're talking about?

(21) MR. HANSON: I was working at home. It
(22) would have been around COVID.

(23) THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

(24) BY MR. HANSON:

(25) Q Have you ever raised your fist to me and told

[Page 258]

(1) me you wanted to hit me?

(2) A Not that I recall.

(3) Q Do I have any friends or including my
(4) brother -- do I have more than one person that's close to
(5) me that has told me that eventually you would kill me?

(6) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Calls for
(7) hearsay.

(8) MR. HANSON: I'm asking if she's heard
(9) it? If she's heard my friend say,
(10) "Eventually she's going to kill you."

(11) THE COURT: Okay.

(12) MR. HANSON: It's a yes-or-no
(13) question.

(14) THE COURT: Let me handle the objection
(15) first, okay? So the question is: Have you
(16) heard any of my -- anyone I'm close to say
(17) that she's -- that, essentially, he's saying
(18) that I'm going to kill you?

(19) MR. HANSON: Saying that based upon
(20) knowing us in our relationship that
(21) eventually she would kill you.

(22) THE COURT: Okay.

(23) MR. DAVIS: Number one, it would be
(24) speculation on their part. Number two, it's
(25) hearsay. And, number three, it's

[Page 259]

(1) relevance.

(2) THE COURT: Okay. With regard to
(3) speculation, I don't know if it's
(4) speculation. She either heard something or
(5) didn't hear something. All right?

(6) MR. DAVIS: Yes, it would be
(7) speculation if somebody said that, but
(8) they're speculating. But, yes, I understand
(9) that. I'm not trying to be argumentative.

(10) THE COURT: That's okay. I'm just
(11) trying to work through the objections. I'm
(12) not trying to be argumentative either.

(13) You know, I'll allow her to answer the
(14) question, but I'm not entirely sure -- I'm
(15) not entirely sure this is making me not want
(16) a guardian in the case.

(17) MR. DAVIS: I was just thinking the
(18) same.

(19) THE COURT: Do you know what I mean?
(20) Like --

(21) MR. DAVIS: If she's as awful as he
(22) says, then we need a guardian ad litem.

(23) MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, that --
(24) that plays into the problem that we have
(25) here is that they don't want a guardian ad

[Page 260]

(1) litem because of any problems with the kids.

(2) They want it to distract from the

(3) financial concealment.

(4) MR. DAVIS: No, we don't.

(5) THE COURT: I mean, I understand you

(6) keep saying that, but we're here on -- right

(7) now I'm just trying to deal with this

(8) objection.

(9) MR. HANSON: I understand that, Your
(10) Honor, but like I've told you --

(11) THE COURT: And, like I said, I've
(12) allowed the question --

(13) MR. HANSON: There is one lens to view
(14) this case through where it all makes sense.
(15) And that is since my first filing I've
(16) wanted to get financial discovery; they
(17) delayed it first hoping that I would go
(18) away.

(19) They used going back to 50/50 custody
(20) as a bargaining chip. They attacked the
(21) four motions after not doing anything right
(22) as my attorney was revoked from me for no
(23) reason --

(24) THE COURT: Heard you say that.

(25) MR. HANSON: So all of that supports

[Page 261]

(1) the story that they filed it as retaliation
(2) and as a litigation strategy. I don't know
(3) how there's any other way to view it.

(4) MR. DAVIS: I have to feel like I have
(5) to say this: Never have we ever offered to
(6) withdraw this motion for any reason.
(7) There's never been a moment since December
(8) of 2023 --

(9) MR. HANSON: And I'm not saying that.

(10) MR. DAVIS: -- no, '24.

(11) THE WITNESS: '24.

(12) MR. DAVIS: When, '24.

(13) MR. HANSON: And I'm not saying that.

(14) It was in late 2024 after they had filed
(15) just the petition, three days after the
(16) hurricane hit me --

(17) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, you're going to
(18) get an opportunity to argue this in closing.
(19) I just want to get through the
(20) questioning -- the cross-examination of this
(21) witness now, and there was an objection --

(22) MR. HANSON: I understand, but --

(23) THE COURT: -- that I overruled.

(24) MR. HANSON: -- it misstates the truth.

(25) It was not the December 13th motion that

[Page 262]

(1) they offered to withdraw. It was the
(2) October 2024 change in custody position that
(3) they filed right after the hurricane where
(4) that was the bargaining chip, so it was
(5) before December 13th of 2024.

(6) THE COURT: And, again, this is
(7) argument. I'll allow you to make the
(8) argument. I'm just trying to get through
(9) this question.

(10) MR. HANSON: Okay. I'll just respond
(11) to --

(12) MR. DAVIS: To be clear, we've never
(13) changed our position since it was filed
(14) either.

(15) THE COURT: Davis, I hear you. I'll
(16) allow you to argue that position too.

(17) MR. DAVIS: I just --

(18) THE COURT: I know you want to make the
(19) record clear --

(20) MR. DAVIS: It feels like a personal
(21) attack, which I know he's been trying to do
(22) for a long time. So I just feel like I need
(23) to make that clear. That's all.

(24) THE COURT: I understand. All right.
(25) I mean, I believe I sus -- I overruled that

[Page 263]

(1) objection.

(2) You can answer whether you heard
(3) someone close to him say you're going to
(4) kill him.

(5) THE WITNESS: No.

(6) THE COURT: Thank you. Next
(7) question.

(8) BY MR. HANSON:

(9) Q Have you ever communicated by text about
(10) friends of mine suggesting that you would kill me?

(11) A You mean have you told me that in text
(12) messages?

(13) Q Right.

(14) A Chris, you send a lot of text messages.

(15) Q I know. And it's -- it was really difficult
(16) and embarrassing to review it last night.

(17) Do you know how many times more likely it is
(18) that a daughter from a broken home will be sexually
(19) assaulted than a home that's together?

(20) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance, and calls for
(21) facts not this evidence.

(22) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(23) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it explains
(24) the multitude of text messages. Why I was
(25) trying to work things out is that I did not

[Page 264]

(1) want that consequence. And Mrs. Hanson
(2) knows that it's 15 times more likely.

(3) So when I made fun about all of the
(4) text messages I sent, I think it's relevant
(5) to note that I was trying to avoid having my
(6) daughters grow up in a situation where
(7) there's 15 more times likely that they had
(8) suffer a sexual assault.

(9) MR. DAVIS: We're in a no-fault divorce
(10) state; it doesn't matter.

(11) THE COURT: And if that's your
(12) position, I understand that that's your
(13) position.

(14) I don't know how questioning her about
(15) why you were sending the texts is better
(16) than you testifying to that.

(17) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, she -- there's
(18) a lot of things that were said that really
(19) need correcting and that's my intent.

(20) THE COURT: Okay. Then let's get to
(21) that as opposed to why you were sending
(22) them.

(23) BY MR. HANSON:

(24) Q During the years that we were staying together
(25) after of the Bone Fish incident, did you ever role your

[Page 265]

(1) eyes at me when I would suggest sex or sigh or act like
(2) it was a big chore that you didn't want to have to go
(3) through?

(4) MR. DAVIS: It's irrelevant, but --

(5) A What?

(6) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, if you would
(7) give me a little leeway. What happened in
(8) Michigan -- what Mrs. Hanson described in
(9) Michigan is very, very different and it
(10) important --

(11) THE COURT: Okay.

(12) MR. HANSON: -- the fact that she used
(13) sex as a way to make me feel low and
(14) unwanted is a necessary predicate for what
(15) happened in Michigan.

(16) THE COURT: I'm not sure I understand
(17) that. I'm -- as a family law judge, I don't
(18) get into -- I'm not -- I don't micromanage
(19) intact marriages. Do you know what I mean?

(20) MR. HANSON: I do understand that, Your
(21) Honor, and this is the last thing I want to
(22) get into. This is the last --

(23) THE COURT: It's pretty far afield from
(24) the things that I think would probably be
(25) relevant towards appointing a guardian ad

[Page 266]

(1) litem.

(2) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it goes back
(3) to that issue where it's not about a
(4) guardian ad litem. It's about concealment
(5) and harassment and it's --

(6) THE COURT: Okay. So your argument is
(7) how she interacted with you during intimate
(8) times when your intact marriage is relevant
(9) towards the concealment and harassment that
(10) you're claiming is the basis for filing this
(11) motion in 2024?

(12) MR. HANSON: Not quite that directly.
(13) It's that the course of the marriage the
(14) last few years followed a pattern where I
(15) would try to make things work, Mrs. Hanson
(16) would push me a way, and just be absolutely
(17) cruel in ways that I'll get into.

(18) And she didn't want to just walk out of
(19) the marriage. She wanted it to be mutual
(20) for me to make the decision.

(21) THE COURT: Okay.

(22) MR. HANSON: And she treated me cruelly
(23) for years.

(24) THE COURT: Okay.

(25) MR. HANSON: Trying to make it so she

[Page 267]

(1) didn't just walk out on the marriage.

(2) THE COURT: Okay.

(3) MR. HANSON: And I still don't
(4) understand what the problem was.

(5) THE COURT: But even assuming that's
(6) true, right, you're saying that that is
(7) directly relevant towards a retaliatory
(8) filing.

(9) MR. HANSON: Yes, because I believe
(10) that everything that was occurring during
(11) those years was she wasn't having any
(12) expenses, she wasn't having to pay mortgage,
(13) taxes, insurance, anything like that.

(14) She's saving money, and I believe that
(15) was the reason the marriage fell apart is
(16) that she did not want to help with expenses
(17) as I started making less money.

(18) THE COURT: Okay.

(19) MR. HANSON: And the cruelty that
(20) occurred in those years really from 2019
(21) when she hit me going home from the Bone
(22) Fish until when we actually divorced, it was
(23) a pattern of -- she would be cruel and
(24) suggest divorce and try to push -- push it
(25) out that way, and I would push back towards

[Page 268]

(1) we can figure this out.

(2) And at the time I didn't realize this,
(3) but in hindsight and looking over the text
(4) last night, there was never any intention of
(5) making it work. There was an intention of
(6) making it seem like she wasn't walking out
(7) on the marriage.

(8) What she did in Michigan is something
(9) that is the most traumatic event of my life
(10) and it's -- I'll get into some questions
(11) about that in now.

(12) THE COURT: Can we get into that, then?
(13) Because she testified with regards to that.
(14) I really -- even if everything you're saying
(15) it true, and I'm not saying it isn't. I'm
(16) saying that I don't think we need to rehash
(17) that here.

(18) You can make that argument, but
(19) let's -- if you want to get into the
(20) Michigan incident, let's get into that.

(21) MR. HANSON: Yeah. Okay.

(22) BY MR. HANSON:

(23) Q So why did I drive up to Michigan?

(24) A You were done with the marriage counseling.

(25) You didn't want to participate it in it anymore and you

[Page 269]

(1) left.

(2) Q Isn't it true that I asked you around that time
(3) that you needed to make a decision on whether you could
(4) be nice to me and respect me at the house, and I just
(5) couldn't live in the house anymore and I had to get away?

(6) A You always -- Chris you had a pattern of
(7) accusing me of that. I mean, my -- I don't understand.
(8) I think that was something you frequently accuse me of
(9) that I wasn't nice.

(10) Ultimately, when we would talk you would say I
(11) needed to treat you the way I treated the kids. You
(12) accused me of being jealous of your relationship with the
(13) girls, and I kept telling you I wasn't.

(14) Q So when I drove up to Michigan, you mentioned
(15) that I had invited you and the kids up. Isn't it true
(16) that you and I had a conversation where you said that you
(17) were ready to make an effort at really getting married
(18) again?

(19) A I said it all the time to you, but you never
(20) accepted anything I said. I would get three strikes, and
(21) then you would tell me we would have to sit and talk.
(22) The marriage counseling was very beneficial. It was
(23) through the Gottman method, and part of it is each side
(24) gets to talk and say their perspectives, and then you
(25) apologize on either perspectives.

[Page 270]

(1) And there'd be instances where then you'd be
(2) like, "I tried to let it slide, but I can't," and then
(3) when you would talk, if I tried to say, "Well, this is
(4) what I was doing," you would tell me that I was lying.

(5) I only paid for the marriage counseling. I
(6) can't believe you just said that I never put in any
(7) effort. I found the marriage counsel. I was begging you
(8) for counseling right after we got married because of the
(9) prenup.

(10) Q Are you aware of what -- of whether the
(11) counselor ever told me that there is nothing that I could
(12) ever do to make it work with you?

(13) MR. DAVIS: Object to hearsay.

(14) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, any response to
(15) that?

(16) MR. HANSON: Yeah. It's to the extent
(17) that opinion side of it's relevant, it's a
(18) medical opinion, effect on listener, it's
(19) independently relevant whether the actual
(20) matter asserted is true or not, whether the
(21) counselor was right that I could never make
(22) it work with her is secondary.

(23) The important part is that the
(24) counselor told me that, and I believe that
(25) the counselor told her that as well. That's

[Page 271]

(1) why I'm asking the question.

(2) THE COURT: I guess. I guess the
(3) question is framed, did you hear the
(4) counselor say this is different than the
(5) counselor said this; would you agree?

(6) So I think the second question would be
(7) hearsay; the first one I will allow her to
(8) answer, if she can. I think it's a fine
(9) line. I think you're couching here
(10) something really close to hearsay in the
(11) form of a question. But, specifically, in
(12) that regard, did you hear the counselor say
(13) that?

(14) THE WITNESS: He did not say that. He
(15) did not say that because Chris told me he
(16) said that. And then I asked the counselor
(17) at a group session if he had said that, and
(18) he said, "I would never use words like
(19) that."

(20) BY MR. HANSON:

(21) Q It was after we ever had any group counsel
(22) sessions. I went to him by myself and it happened?

(23) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I will ask that
(24) you please refrain from testifying during
(25) your cross-examination.

[Page 272]

(1) MR. HANSON: Yes, sir. I will try.

(2) THE COURT: I'm sorry. With regards to
(3) topics, are we at -- are moving on to a
(4) different topic or are we still?

(5) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, there is so
(6) much that came out on direct. My notes are
(7) not great.

(8) THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry.

(9) MR. HANSON: So I'm trying to --

(10) THE COURT: No, that's totally fine. I
(11) was going to ask for a quick break.

(12) Generally, I like to do it between topics,
(13) but if that is not easy to do, that's fine.

(14) MR. HANSON: It's okay, Your Honor, now
(15) is a good time.

(16) THE COURT: All right. We'll take a
(17) quick break. We'll come back at 3:00
(18) o'clock. Okay?

(19) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

(20) THE COURT: Thank you.

(21) (WHEREUPON, a recess was taken at 2:50 p.m.
(22) through 3:05 p.m.)

(23) THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hanson,
(24) continuation on cross -- continuation of
(25) cross, excuse me.

[Page 273]

(1) MR. HANSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

(2) BY MR. HANSON:

(3) Q When we were struggling with our marriage, did
(4) we take personality tests together?

(5) A Yes. After, after the counseling. I had asked
(6) for it.

(7) Q Was there a certain result that you were
(8) excited about?

(9) A I was shocked at how on point the personality
(10) test I thought was me. I couldn't believe how I thought
(11) it nailed me.

(12) Q Did it show that you had more masculine traits
(13) than I do?

(14) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance, and
(15) there's some admissibility issues that
(16) psychological testing that personality tests
(17) -- nobody is here to interpret. It's
(18) hearsay.

(19) THE COURT: Okay. Relevance still.

(20) MR. HANSON: She was cruel about it.
(21) She would tell me that I'm more feminine
(22) than she is, that she was more masculine
(23) than I was.

(24) THE COURT: Okay. When I'm saying
(25) relevance, I'm not asking you to give me

[Page 274]

(1) facts surrounding the question. I'm asking
(2) you to tell me why the question is relevant
(3) to the issue at hand.

(4) MR. HANSON: It's the same idea, Your
(5) Honor, that there were years where it was
(6) efforts to make it work on my part and
(7) cruelty in return. And in an effort to just
(8) make the divorce happen, but make it mutual.

(9) And I was just so committed to trying
(10) to make it work that it was a cycle where it
(11) would happen again and again where I would
(12) be hopeful that it would work and the
(13) cruelty and anger would come back. And
(14) that's important to my overall argument with
(15) this guardian ad litem issue is 100 percent
(16) retaliatory and unnecessary, fabricated to
(17) assist with the overall delay, harass and
(18) conceal argument.

(19) And the way that she treated me during
(20) these months and years before the litigation
(21) started is relevant to the truth here and,
(22) Your Honor, none of this is anything that I
(23) want to be discussing, but this the position
(24) I'm in.

(25) I'm not going to be able to move on

[Page 275]

(1) without a fair process here and without
(2) getting some answers about years of deceit
(3) and difficulties with my career and asking
(4) for help and being met with, "Nope, I can't
(5) help with any money. You're not going to
(6) get access to my account." And, Your
(7) Honor --

(8) THE COURT: This is way far afield to
(9) responding to the objection, sir.

(10) MR. HANSON: I understand that. I
(11) don't mean to do that, but the relevance --

(12) THE COURT: But you keep doing it a lot
(13) and I keep asking you not to and just
(14) respond to the objection on the table.

(15) MR. HANSON: It's not intentional, Your
(16) Honor --

(17) THE COURT: Okay.

(18) MR. HANSON: I'm just -- there's
(19) information that needs to come out and it's
(20) not. It's a five, six now seven-year
(21) disaster of facts that matter, but they're
(22) ugly and they're dense. And I don't think
(23) that we need to be getting into all of this.
(24) I think that there could be --

(25) THE COURT: But you're asking the

[Page 276]

(1) question.

(2) MR. HANSON: Right. But, Your Honor,
(3) I've been waiting for two years for and
(4) answer to a simple financial discovery. So
(5) I'm just trying to make sure that my rights
(6) and our ability to move on is protected and
(7) that requires me to be detailed --

(8) THE COURT: But, Mr. Hanson, and again,
(9) and I'm sorry to interrupt you, but I do
(10) have to stop you because, again, now you're
(11) talking about financial discovery.

(12) And my question has to do with how she
(13) felt -- how is how she felt about the
(14) results of a personality test relevant?

(15) MR. HANSON: It's relevant because her
(16) motive all along was to try and make the
(17) divorce seem mutual.

(18) THE COURT: And you said that before
(19) with regards to the question regarding her
(20) reactions when you were asking her to be
(21) intimate, and you agreed to move on from
(22) that.

(23) And I said, "Even if that is true."

(24) MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, I mean,
(25) maybe we have a different understanding of

[Page 277]

(1) what's relevant or maybe I know more where
(2) I'm going to make it relevant and maybe you
(3) will agree.

(4) THE COURT: At this point there's an
(5) objection on the table with regard to it, so
(6) I'm asking you to try to articulate that for
(7) me.

(8) MR. HANSON: And I think I did, Your
(9) Honor. I think you were thinking I was
(10) going too far with explaining it, and it's
(11) not my intention to start testifying. I
(12) have a lot to say, but I know that's not
(13) what's on the -- what I'm supposed to be
(14) doing right now.

(15) THE COURT: At this point I'm going to
(16) sustain the objection with regards to how
(17) she felt about the results of the test
(18) personality test. Okay?

(19) BY MR. HANSON:

(20) Q Did you ever use the personality test to try
(21) and emasculate me or feel less than you?

(22) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Relevance.

(23) MR. HANSON: I don't understand how
(24) that is irrelevant when I'm saying that I
(25) was bullied and harassed for years while she

[Page 278]

(1) concealed financial evidence, and now the
(2) bullying and harassment has Mr. Davis on
(3) board and, for large part, the Court on
(4) board too, and it's just everyone is
(5) gaslighting me now.

(6) And I think all of that is important as
(7) part of this story because it shows just
(8) how -- how far off from reasonable handling
(9) of this simple discovery dispute we've
(10) come.

(11) THE COURT: Okay.

(12) MR. HANSON: And it seems like the
(13) Court is actually considering ordering a
(14) guardian ad litem on a case where the person
(15) pushing for it --

(16) THE COURT: Sir, this is -- this is
(17) argument now.

(18) MR. HANSON: Okay. But argument and
(19) relevance or hand-in-hand. I'm trying to
(20) get you to let me ask the questions I need
(21) to to show the relevance. And I agree I've
(22) bled too far into argument at times, but I
(23) do think that this line of questioning is
(24) relevant.

(25) THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Davis. I'm

[Page 279]

(1) sorry. I thought you wanted to say
(2) something.

(3) MR. DAVIS: I decided not to say it.
(4) Thank you.

(5) THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the
(6) objection. I don't believe it's relevant.

(7) BY MR. HANSON:

(8) Q Before you came up to Michigan to visit me, do
(9) you remember having a conversation where I -- actually
(10) let me back up before that.

(11) Did you ever tell me that you had tried to get
(12) along with me as long as we didn't have a sexual
(13) relationship?

(14) A No, I never said that. And, for the record, we
(15) had sex the night before in Michigan.

(16) Q With the kids in the hotel room?

(17) A Yeah.

(18) Q That was pretty unusual, right?

(19) A I don't want to go into detail.

(20) Q I don't either, Sarah. I really don't.

(21) A I mean, I don't know why you're bringing up
(22) sex, so...

(23) Q Because it was the first night that we were
(24) going to be in a hotel room or a house without our
(25) children as a married couple. The first night --

[Page 280]

(1) A What?

(2) Q -- was at this hotel in Michigan. And before
(3) she came to Michigan -- you want me to ask questions
(4) or -- I'm sorry, Your Honor, I know that I'm not doing
(5) this in the right order right now. I don't -- just tell
(6) me what to do?

(7) THE COURT: You're in cross.

(8) MR. HANSON: I know. Okay. So no
(9) objection. Discussion.

(10) THE COURT: There is no objection on
(11) the table. Right now you're just
(12) testifying.

(13) BY MR. HANSON:

(14) Q Before you booked your flight to Michigan, did
(15) we have a conversation about trying to get back together
(16) and making it work?

(17) A Yeah. We had those conversations frequently.

(18) Q But that was part of your decision to come up
(19) to Michigan was that we were going to try and make it
(20) work?

(21) A I mean, you want to know why -- my decision to
(22) come to Michigan was I knew I had to go to Michigan in
(23) order to show you that I was willing to try and make it
(24) work, but I did not want to go to Michigan, but it had
(25) nothing to do with trying to make it work with you.

[Page 281]

(1) It was because the kids were in school the
(2) second week and I didn't want to take them out of school,
(3) and I had to pay the expense of the ticket on the flight
(4) back.

(5) Q It was the first night that we were going to be
(6) in a hotel room without our kids or a hotel room or house
(7) without the kids in it?

(8) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Asked and
(9) answered.

(10) MR. HANSON: Did you answer the
(11) question or no?

(12) THE COURT: I'm not sure I heard an
(13) answer to the question, so.

(14) THE WITNESS: I don't know.

(15) BY MR. HANSON:

(16) Q It was a big deal. And the text message was
(17) so -- it was nice, and I was excited about it, and before
(18) you made the decision to book the flight, do you recall
(19) when I asked you -- you understand that I do want to be a
(20) loving married couple. That's the only way that it will
(21) work is if we actually tried to care for each other, not
(22) just not hate each other. Do you remember that?

(23) A No. You had called -- you had called and there
(24) was something that you had said. It wasn't that -- I
(25) mean, what you are saying right now is the same stuff you

[Page 282]

(1) would always recite after everything, but you would
(2) always put it on me to be the caring, loving couple.

(3) I mean, it was never -- you had no changes to
(4) make in the relationship, according to you --

(5) Q Just please wait for a question. I'm trying to
(6) stay on topic --

(7) MR. DAVIS: Well, I'm going to ask the
(8) witness be able to answer the question.

(9) MR. HANSON: I wasn't trying to be
(10) rude, Your Honor. I know you're getting
(11) frustrated with me. I'm just trying --

(12) THE COURT: I'm not getting frustrated
(13) with you. I'm getting frustrating that the
(14) Court's requests aren't being followed.

(15) You keep testifying during questioning,
(16) but I think you asked her if she recalled
(17) that. And you are allowed to answer, ma'am,
(18) but I think it would help the Court a lot if
(19) you just answer the question directly as
(20) best you can.

(21) THE WITNESS: Okay.

(22) THE COURT: And if there's something
(23) your attorney feels he needs to redirect you
(24) on, then he can do that.

(25) THE WITNESS: Okay. Sure.

[Page 283]

(1) THE COURT: Thank you.

(2) BY MR. HANSON:

(3) Q And I don't know if I got a yes or not. Did
(4) you recall the question about are you willing to make the
(5) effort to become a loving couple again and the long pause
(6) that there was before you said yes?

(7) A I recall you asking me a question. I don't
(8) believe that was the question, and there was a pause that
(9) you called me out on for pausing.

(10) Q Okay. And then the night when we were finally
(11) going to have time to ourselves, you were working, right?

(12) A And so were you.

(13) Q And when I did start to get into bed and say
(14) something about sex, did you lift your left leg towards
(15) me?

(16) A No.

(17) Q What was the timing like in terms of me getting
(18) into bed and asking about sex versus you farting? Was it
(19) responsive?

(20) A It -- I had the laptop on my lap. I was still
(21) working, and you did climb into bed. I don't know at
(22) what point the fart came out, but it was a fart.

(23) Q So you're denying that it was responsive to my
(24) request?

(25) A I didn't fart intentionally in response to any

[Page 284]

(1) request; it was a fart.

(2) Q The next day I made sure that you got to a rent
(3) a car, right?

(4) A You sure did. I mean, I booked the rent a car;
(5) I paid for the rent a car.

(6) Q But I made sure that you got there. You
(7) weren't in any danger. You weren't stranded?

(8) A You drove me to the ren a car.

(9) Q Right. I made sure you guys got in there; said
(10) goodbye to the girls?

(11) A Yeah.

(12) Q Did you ever tell Hope that -- strike that.
(13) Does Hope ever not tell the truth?

(14) A I'm not bringing -- I'm not testifying to this
(15) on my kids. I'm sorry. But I cannot say whether or not
(16) and this is something that will come back on them. I
(17) can't testify to that. Whether my kids or lie or not?
(18) They're kids.

(19) Q Of course kids lie. I don't --

(20) A I don't understand -- I have to object to that
(21) question. What's the relevance of that.

(22) THE COURT: Mr. Davis, do you want to
(23) talk to your -- is she appearing on her own
(24) behalf?

(25) MR. DAVIS: Technically, she's

[Page 285]

(1) co-counsel, but that's not withstanding.
(2) Like I understand where the Court is coming
(3) from. It really isn't relevant. I think
(4) we're really going far afield.

(5) MR. HANSON: Well, I'm going to get
(6) into some alienation attempts with this --

(7) MR. DAVIS: Well, if she's alienating
(8) the kids, all the more reason for a GAL.
(9) Let's go. Let's hear it.

(10) MR. HANSON: Mr. Davis, you are one of
(11) the most corrupt, dishonest people I've ever
(12) met in this world. And the fact that --

(13) MR. DAVIS: I know. I'm corrupt and --
(14) (Cross-talking)

(15) THE COURT: We're taking a five
(16) minute's break, and I'm asking you again,
(17) Mr. Hanson, please direct your comments to
(18) me, not Mr. Davis.

(19) MR. HANSON: Yeah. Your Honor, I'm
(20) going to be asking the Court to make some
(21) findings of fact about --

(22) THE COURT: You can. We're going to
(23) take a five-minute break and we'll resume
(24) after that.

(25) (WHEREUPON, a recess was taken at 3:15 p.m.)

[Page 286]

(1) through 3:20 P.M.)

(2) THE COURT: All right. I believe the
(3) question on the table was and, I'm sorry, I
(4) cannot recall which child we were asking
(5) about. Was it Hope or hailey?

(6) THE WITNESS: Hope.

(7) THE COURT: Hope. The question was:
(8) Does Hope ever not tell the truth. And your
(9) objection was to relevance; is that correct,
(10) ma'am?

(11) THE WITNESS: Um-hum.

(12) THE COURT: Okay. Relevance.

(13) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, again, I don't
(14) want to get too much into argument, but
(15) please tell me to shut up if I cross that
(16) line. But there's issues with Hope where
(17) she doesn't tell the truth sometimes like
(18) all kids, but her mom told her that I can't
(19) see inside her brain so she can tell me
(20) whatever she wants.

(21) THE COURT: Her mom told her -- so mom
(22) was saying as mother to the child, you're
(23) saying she's said, "I can't see inside your
(24) brain."

(25) MR. HANSON: No, she's saying, "Dad

[Page 287]

(1) can't see inside your brain. He can't tell
(2) you that you're not telling the truth." And
(3) when she's not there -- and I might be going
(4) to far with the argument, Your Honor, but
(5) the relevance is that she's emboldening a
(6) six-year-old at the time, maybe a
(7) seven-year-old to thinking, "I get to lie
(8) all I want to dad. He can't see inside my
(9) brain."

(10) And it became a real problem for some
(11) period of time, but that's, you know, I just
(12) turned it into argument instead of question,
(13) so...

(14) THE COURT: Any response?

(15) MR. DAVIS: Well, the next question
(16) would be hearsay, if we're talking about
(17) what the child said.

(18) THE COURT: And, I mean, that's not
(19) entirely on the table yet.

(20) MR. DAVIS: Can I address the Court.

(21) THE COURT: Sure.

(22) MR. DAVIS: It isn't responsive. You
(23) know, what these folks need is a 61.20
(24) evaluation instead of a guardian ad litem.
(25) That's really what they need.

[Page 288]

(1) The Court can, obviously, do that sua
(2) sponte on the Court's own motion. I don't
(3) have a motion on the table, but that's psych
(4) evals for everybody.

(5) THE COURT: I believe before we started
(6) in order, there was some discussion about
(7) agreeing to that, there was just some
(8) question as to cost, right? Am I wrong?

(9) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, we need to get
(10) out of this system that's been two years.
(11) We were much better than this until May of
(12) 2024. What's happened to us in the justice
(13) system is really, really, really tragic.
(14) And it didn't have to, and it's going to be
(15) a big story for a long time now.

(16) MR. DAVIS: Well, that's sounds like
(17) he's trying to threaten everyone.

(18) MR. HANSON: Well, no. I'm trying to
(19) tell you accountability and the truth have a
(20) way of rearing their head no matter what you
(21) do. And just from the litigation that's
(22) going, it's getting worse and worse for
(23) those involved.

(24) And eventually accountability will come
(25) because the mandamus cases are as clear as

[Page 289]

(1) can be, we've got a federal suit that's
(2) drafted that is even stronger. And I just
(3) need out of this system because you're
(4) tearing us apart.

(5) We've -- if you look at our text
(6) messages, we're able to co-parent at times.
(7) She is so intent on concealing these
(8) records, she will do anything to do it. the
(9) Court should have ordered them a long time
(10) ago, and there's no excuse for not doing it.
(11) There's no excuse for not doing it earlier;
(12) there's no excuse for not doing it now.

(13) You're tearing our family apart, you're
(14) hurting your kids, and it's really
(15) unthinkable that we're acting like none of
(16) this happened. the Florida Bar is literally
(17) hiding evidence about his misconduct.

(18) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'm sorry you
(19) feel that way.

(20) MR. HANSON: It's true. I'll prove it
(21) all.

(22) THE COURT: I'm not asking you to prove
(23) it all or not prove it all. What I'm asking
(24) is did you -- my question was very simple.
(25) It had to do with whether or not there was

[Page 290]

(1) an agreement to go to a psychological
(2) evaluation?

(3) MR. HANSON: All of that stuff is just
(4) tearing us apart more.

(5) THE COURT: So, no, there isn't?

(6) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I am so taken
(7) aback by some of the things that are said
(8) today --

(9) THE COURT: You can't answer the
(10) question of the Court?

(11) MR. HANSON: The question about the
(12) psych.

(13) THE COURT: Yes.

(14) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I just want to
(15) be out of the system. I want answers --

(16) THE COURT: I don't understand that as
(17) a response to my question.

(18) MR. HANSON: How do you think that a
(19) psych eval for anyone is necessary more so
(20) than just reviewing the evidence that's at
(21) issue.

(22) THE COURT: How do I think? I'm sorry.
(23) I'm not in a position to answer questions at
(24) this time.

(25) My only question to you is: Were we

[Page 291]

(1) not in the position at the beginning of this
(2) case in which you said you would agree to a
(3) psych and a voc eval?

(4) MR. HANSON: And, Your Honor --

(5) THE COURT: And if you're retracting
(6) from that, that's fine. I'm just trying to
(7) understand where we are.

(8) MR. HANSON: Your Honor --

(9) MR. DAVIS: While he's thinking about
(10) that, may I address the Court. I'm
(11) referring to a social investigation study,
(12) which is the whole thing, but that includes
(13) a psych evaluation for everybody.

(14) The point was if his arguments are that
(15) Mrs. Hanson is bad and has issues and is
(16) alienating and everything else, why not just
(17) go that way. Psych evals for everybody. We
(18) get to the truth. We get to the bottom
(19) line.

(20) Mr. Hanson is concerned with the truth;
(21) we get to the truth.

(22) MR. HANSON: Can we also have an
(23) evidentiary hearing about Mr. Davis' conduct
(24) in this case where the Court will actually
(25) make findings?

[Page 292]

(1) THE COURT: I'm sorry. I --

(2) MR. HANSON: I don't know why the Court
(3) protects him. I mean, he's broken every
(4) rule. He doesn't deny it.

(5) MR. DAVIS: I have --

(6) MR. HANSON: Well, then let's have it
(7) -- let's put you on the stand and let me ask
(8) you questions.

(9) MR. DAVIS: This is -- I'm not a party
(10) at this case. Mr. Hanson doesn't seem to
(11) understand that --

(12) MR. HANSON: No, I understand it --

(13) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson --

(14) MR. DAVIS: Mr. Hanson's position is --

(15) THE COURT: I'm going to ask you please
(16) to direct your comments to me. Okay?

(17) MR. HANSON: Mr. Davis is an absolute
(18) menace.

(19) THE COURT: I understand you think
(20) that --

(21) MR. HANSON: And this Court is
(22) responsible to some degree for allowing him
(23) to continue to do what he has to my family.
(24) There's no excuse for him to do what he's
(25) done, and the evidence is clear that it's

[Page 293]

(1) always been harass, disrupt, delay.

(2) And it's really, really outrageous that
(3) no one will acknowledge those simple truths.
(4) I mean, the Florida Bar who is in charge of
(5) protecting the public from unscrupulous
(6) lawyers is hiding E-mails that they use to
(7) cover up misconduct for him.

(8) And instead of coming clean, they have
(9) a judge who refused to exercise
(10) jurisdiction. They're making it hard to get
(11) the record to the First District Court of
(12) Appeal.

(13) It's -- I don't know how people in the
(14) Court system can continue to act like this
(15) is just normal. It's -- the Court system
(16) has duties and obligations to the truth.
(17) And, Your Honor, I know you don't want to
(18) look at any of this and you're not under
(19) oath and you don't have to answer my
(20) questions, but you have to see some of this
(21) for the just complete muddy, disgusting,
(22) hateful, dishonesty that it is that's
(23) infected my family and it didn't have to
(24) happen.

(25) THE COURT: Okay. Do you agree or

[Page 294]

(1) would you consent to a social investigation?

(2) MR. HANSON: No, Your Honor, I do not
(3) agree to anything that's invasive especially
(4) with my children. You know.

(5) THE COURT: Goal is just going to be
(6) federal court from now on.

(7) I don't think that the state courts
(8) have any intention of coming clean or
(9) helping me, so federal courts will be my
(10) only option.

(11) I'm going broke; Sarah says she's going
(12) broke. I don't know if we'll be able to
(13) afford our kid's private school. And I know
(14) the Courts won't be liable for it, but
(15) they'll be responsible for it. I mean, it's
(16) the Court that's done this, so things are
(17) getting so ugly and bad for my question --

(18) THE COURT: Just answer the question,
(19) sir.

(20) MR. HANSON: I said, no, I will not
(21) agree to any social investigation. Our
(22) family doesn't need that. Our kids are in
(23) private school. It's just --

(24) THE COURT: I'm not asking for why.
(25) I'm just asking for yes or no. Okay. Then

[Page 295]

(1) we were still on the question -- Mr. Davis,
(2) I hear you with what you're saying the Court
(3) has an option to do sua sponte. I'm going
(4) to decline to take that up at this time.
(5) I'd like to get through this hearing.

(6) As a general statement, I'm going to
(7) ask Mrs. Hanson if you can answer the
(8) question if Hailey doesn't ever tell the
(9) truth.

(10) THE WITNESS: Hope --

(11) THE COURT: I'm sorry.

(12) THE WITNESS: That's okay. I don't
(13) know. I mean, I -- she's a pretty good
(14) accountant of like when she witnesses
(15) something, she's great at repeating it.
(16) With teachers, she's the go-to for the hall
(17) monitor. If two kids are having a scrapple.
(18) Her interpretation of things in talking to
(19) her, I know she has a different
(20) interpretation of things sometimes. I'm not
(21) going to call my child a liar though, if
(22) that's what we're trying to get at, and I
(23) think things get misunderstood by kids.

(24) THE COURT: Okay. Next question,
(25) Mr. Hanson.

[Page 296]

(1) BY MR. HANSON:

(2) Q Sarah, I don't think either of our kids are
(3) liars. I think they're the most incredible people in the
(4) world, but kids lie --

(5) A I have text messages from you saying otherwise.

(6) Q Well, then please share those text messages --

(7) A I'm not going to go through, but --

(8) Q That's my question now.

(9) A -- you've called them liars.

(10) Q Well, show them to me because someone can be a
(11) liar. They can still lie and still be a wonderful person,
(12) especially a six- or eight-year-old. It doesn't mean
(13) that it's okay to lie.

(14) A Yeah. I'm not endorsing lying.

(15) THE COURT: Okay. Well, show me the
(16) text message you're talking about, please.
(17) You referenced me saying -- denigrating the
(18) kids.

(19) A You can ask your question.

(20) Q I'll wait for this one, please.

(21) A Well, no, I --

(22) Q You made a representation. Let's see what I've
(23) said about our kids.

(24) MR. DAVIS: I might ask that we not
(25) further delay this hearing.

[Page 297]

(1) THE COURT: I hear you, Mr. Davis, but
(2) she literally interrupted him and said, "I
(3) have these messages." I think she opened
(4) the door to this.

(5) MR. DAVIS: I wasn't saying -- I was
(6) just --

(7) A It has to do with the spanking. Actually, it's
(8) quoted in the interrogatory answers.

(9) Q What date are you looking at, please?

(10) A I'm looking to the Answers to Interrogatories.
(11) I had a quote where you wanted to spank them. "Daddy
(12) said you are a liar."

(13) MR. DAVIS: Right there.

(14) A No. This one says, "My first morning in the (15) house, he told him" -- but maybe the word lie. Okay.
(16) Actually, no, here's a scenario. I mean, this was a
(17) situation where.

(18) I mean, Hope told me you told her she had to
(19) confess. You had her in the shower telling her she had
(20) to confess to you that she was lying about whether she
(21) heard you get off the bike and come in from the
(22) playground.

(23) And she said, "I didn't hear you." And you
(24) said, "Yes, you did. You're lying about that." And you
(25) had her confess and she was in the shower and she was

[Page 298]

(1) very upset because -- and then her -- she was upset
(2) because she confessed that the lie wasn't that she heard
(3) you; the lie that she had to say that she heard you. And
(4) she was very distraught by that.

(5) Q Were you there?

(6) A No, but --

(7) Q And, I believe, you did say that sometimes kids
(8) have their own interpretations or they might say their
(9) own thing, right?

(10) A Yeah.

(11) Q So maybe she did lie to me. That's possible,
(12) right?

(13) A Okay. But, I mean --

(14) Q Just say yes or no. It's possible she lied to (15) me, right?

(16) A In that instance?

(17) Q Yes.

(18) A I believed her.

(19) Q I understand you believed her, but it's
(20) possible that a seven-year-old lied because she wanted to
(21) take another lap around the playground?

(22) A I'm not --

(23) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Calls for
(24) speculation.

(25) MR. HANSON: Is it possible?

[Page 299]

(1) THE COURT: Hold on. I need to deal
(2) with the objection first. The question is:
(3) Is it possible that she lied, and the
(4) objection is calls for speculation.

(5) I'm going to overrule that. I'll allow
(6) you to answer the question if you think you
(7) can. I understand that we're talking about
(8) her child and whether or not the child is
(9) possible or capable of telling a lie.

(10) MR. DAVIS: I understand the Court's
(11) ruling. I'm not arguing.

(12) A I'm not comfortable calling my daughter a liar,
(13) okay. So I've already said she might misinterpret
(14) things, they might misunderstand something. And to
(15) correct me and on the text I was referring to is October
(16) 11th of 2024. You said you wanted to start spanking the
(17) both girls because they were selfish, dishonest, and
(18) weak.

(19) Q October 11th of 2024. Let's finish what we
(20) were talking about there. And do you understand that I'm
(21) not calling the kids a liar or saying that what Hope did
(22) was a big deal.

(23) I'm saying that you intervening and emboldening
(24) Hope to tell me whatever she feels like and I can't --
(25) and I can't know whether she's lying or not is

(1) problematic.

(2) Do you understand that we need to have some
(3) sort of a united front and not try to --

(4) A I never said that to her. You keep saying that
(5) I embolden her to lie to you. I never had a discussion
(6) with her on something like this. I have no idea what
(7) you're talking about.

(8) Q I thought you just said you just testified that
(9) you had a suggestion where she said that she didn't hear
(10) me and that I made her lie and confess?

(11) A That was in like 2024. That was on -- that was
(12) on a phone call conference. That was a very quick thing.
(13) She was unburdening herself, in my opinion. And it
(14) wasn't -- there was no drawn-out discussion on that. I
(15) told her I believed her.

(16) Q Can you read the whole text message for me that
(17) you just referenced where it said that I would --

(18) A I don't have the whole text message here.

(19) Q Oh, I have it here. It says, "That's great on
(20) what you said about things at your house. They're
(21) amazing kids" --

(22) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Improper
(23) impeachment.

(24) THE COURT: Sustained.

(25) MR. HANSON: I have a question about

[Page 301]

(1) the texts that I'm going to read. Is that
(2) not acceptable? Can I read the text and
(3) then ask the question?

(4) THE COURT: I don't know. I don't know
(5) what the question is. And you've asked her
(6) if she would read the whole thing, and she
(7) says she doesn't have it, right, so it
(8) appears as if you're now trying to either
(9) impeach or contradict her testimony with
(10) this, and I think that's improper
(11) impeachment.

(12) BY MR. HANSON:

(13) Q When you testified a moment ago that you had
(14) some notes that suggested that I wanted to spank the kids
(15) because they are dishonest, selfish, and weak.

(16) You would agree that has a certain angry and
(17) spiteful tone, right?

(18) A You want to spank my kids, so, yeah, I would
(19) say I was angry.

(20) Q No. I'm talking about the way you characterize
(21) the text message?

(22) A What? I just -- I read it from the -- from
(23) what's in the interrogatory.

(24) Q I'm looking at the actual text message, and
(25) it's nothing like what you are describing?

[Page 302]

(1) A Okay. Well, hang on because I have -- I pull
(2) up the conversation if we're going to discuss this. No,
(3) it's right there. It says, that -- I mean, do I read
(4) what he texted to me where I quoted that from? I don't
(5) really know what to do with this?

(6) THE COURT: Are you saying you found it
(7) now? Because you said --

(8) THE WITNESS: Yeah, I found it in the
(9) actual full text.

(10) THE COURT: Okay. Can you read it?

(11) THE WITNESS: It said, "Okay. That's
(12) great. What you said about things are at
(13) your house. They are amazing kids, so no
(14) surprise there, but there are issues where
(15) they are becoming dishonest, selfish, and
(16) weak." "I'll do some research on it."
(17) That's referring to spanking from the prior
(18) message, "but I've talked to some other
(19) parents who have made me want to consider it
(20) as an option."

(21) Again, for the record, the "it" is the
(22) spanking. "Hope you know that I only care
(23) what's best for them long term. It's not
(24) always easy. $2,000 for a kid's birthday
(25) party is insane to me. We could do

[Page 303]

(1) Adventure Island cheaper than that," and

(2) then it goes on about the beach.

(3) I said, "I'm not in charge of other

(4) kids. I'm not okay with mine being spanked,

(5) especially these two."

(6) BY MR. HANSON:

(7) Q So, you would agree, that I wasn't talking

(8) about spanking them out of anger? I was trying to raise

(9) a conversation with you about whether it would be a good

(10) idea to consider something like that; is that fair to

(11) say?

(12) A No. I disagree.

(13) Q So you think that text message where I say I

(14) would do some research on it is like an angry, like I'm

(15) going to hit these kids message?

(16) A It went on for several texts back and forth,

(17) and I think the act of spanking these two little girls by

(18) a grown man who I think has anger management issues is a

(19) huge problem.

(20) MR. HANSON: And, Your Honor, I'm

(21) almost as frustrated as you are, but I'm

(22) frustrated too. There is a long exchange

(23) here. I mean, it's 3:46. It's relevant in

(24) terms of it shows a thoughtful --

(25) THE COURT: I'm not sure what you mean

[Page 304]

(1) when you say I don't know if I'm as
(2) frustrated as you are?

(3) MR. HANSON: Because I wanted -- her
(4) answer makes it sound like it's an angry --
(5) like I've got some anger management problems
(6) or something.

(7) There's long text messages here where
(8) I'm talking about pros and cons about it.
(9) I've never spanked either kid.

(10) THE COURT: I understand. You can --

(11) THE WITNESS: I can clarify.

(12) THE COURT: Please -- you can argue
(13) that she's taking it out of context and
(14) ascribing a meaning to it that it's not
(15) there. That's part of the argument you can
(16) make.

(17) MR. HANSON: But then I got to go
(18) through all of these texts and it's another
(19) 15 minutes. And that's what I was debating
(20) in my mind --

(21) THE COURT: I can't tell you strategy
(22) wise whether or not you should or shouldn't.
(23) That's up to you, but what you're saying I
(24) understand and that's argument, and you can
(25) make it. I'm not precluding you from it.

[Page 305]

(1) BY MR. HANSON:

(2) Q Have you ever expressed any concerns about my
(3) parenting to any doctor or medical provider?

(4) A What do you mean?

(5) Q Have you ever, ever expressed any concern about
(6) anything I did as a parent to either of our kids to any
(7) doctor or medical provider?

(8) A I've had questions. I've question the
(9) pediatrician on some thing whether it was normal or
(10) not.

(11) Q What's that?

(12) A The kids at this age them walking around naked
(13) all the time in front of you. You were there when I
(14) questioned her.

(15) Q I don't -- strike that. I changed jobs in
(16) 2021; is that right?

(17) A You changed jobs from Rissman to Burton, but I
(18) don't recall the exact year.

(19) Q To Sandy Brooks, but a different firm.

(20) A Okay.

(21) Q My income went down, right?

(22) A That's what you represented.

(23) Q I started asking you more about trying to help
(24) out; is that right?

(25) A Not in 2021 when you transferred jobs.

[Page 306]

(1) Q Gradually between 2021 and 2024, I was asking
(2) you more about helping out with expenses because I was
(3) making less money?

(4) A Okay. Well, I did help out with expenses. I
(5) was helping out with expenses.

(6) Q But my question is gradually between 2021 and
(7) 2024, I was asking you more and more about where your
(8) income was going, whether you could help with more of the
(9) expenses, right?

(10) A No. I was helping with expenses.

(11) Q Did you ever contribute anything to the
(12) mortgage when you lived there?

(13) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevancy as it
(14) pertains to this motion.

(15) MR. HANSON: Again, it's retaliation,
(16) Your Honor.

(17) THE COURT: I'm sorry. I'm really
(18) trying to understand the retaliation
(19) argument. You're saying that you asking her
(20) to help with expenses during the intact
(21) marriage before the date of filing is
(22) related to the retaliation that you're
(23) saying is the filing of this motion because
(24) as I understand your retaliation argument,
(25) you're saying that this motion was filed in

[Page 307]

(1) retaliation?

(2) MR. HANSON: So retaliation -- thank
(3) you, Your Honor. Retaliation probably is
(4) not the most precise word. It is
(5) obstructing and harassing.

(6) THE COURT: So this motion is filed for
(7) the purposes of obstructing and harassing?

(8) MR. HANSON: Right. So the sole issue,
(9) financial discovery. And what was going on
(10) in the marriage is I'm making less money,
(11) asking for more help. She's saying, "No, I
(12) can't help. All my money is being spent on
(13) credit cards and student loans."

(14) THE COURT: I get that.

(15) MR. HANSON: Then she gradually
(16) eventually leaves the marriage, but really
(17) difficult times where it was close to
(18) ending, and it happened as I'm asking for
(19) assistance.

(20) As my income goes down, she wants out,
(21) and I can't get any discovery. I can't even
(22) get her to complete mandatory disclosures.
(23) But -- and now we have it --

(24) THE COURT: But what I'm trying -- I'm
(25) sorry. Go ahead.

[Page 308]

(1) MR. HANSON: And then you look at that
(2) in conjunction with the timeline of the just
(3) delay, do nothing, file the amended petition
(4) for primary custody, and then the all-out
(5) attack with motions on December 13th as
(6) Judge Ayers set a hearing on one day's
(7) notice. That timeline and I'll get into --

(8) THE COURT: But as we sit here today,
(9) I'm trying to figure out if right now, it
(10) would help this the Court to appoint a
(11) guardian ad litem to help make a
(12) determination on the issues that are before
(13) the Court.

(14) MR. HANSON: And what I'm trying to
(15) explain --

(16) THE COURT: Like that's where I am at
(17) right now.

(18) MR. HANSON: It is such a non-issue,
(19) it's hard to believe.

(20) THE COURT: The parenting issues are a
(21) non-issue; is that what you're saying?

(22) MR. HANSON: I think Sarah loves her
(23) kids, and I want them to have a loving mom.
(24) I don't -- I mean, part of me now wants to
(25) consider more than 50/50 custody, but the

[Page 309]

(1) kids are -- at my house the kids have been

(2) so amazing and bright especially --

(3) THE COURT: But you keep saying that.

(4) You keep saying that, and I hear you loud

(5) and clear that you're saying, "Kids are

(6) doing great. We don't need anybody else in

(7) these kids' lives because they're perfectly

(8) fine."

(9) MR. HANSON: And I don't think anyone

(10) else has said anything differently.

(11) THE COURT: But I'm trying to

(12) understand how whether or not you asked her

(13) to help out with more of the expenses a

(14) couple of years before the date of filing is

(15) relevant to how they're doing now, and the

(16) issues I need to determination going

(17) forward --

(18) MR. HANSON: It's to show you --

(19) THE COURT: I'm sorry. I'm not quite

(20) making the -- I'm not quite making the

(21) connection.

(22) MR. HANSON: It's to show you that her

(23) conduct even while we were theoretically

(24) still working on the marriage is consistent

(25) with someone who is concealing assets and

[Page 310]

(1) looking for a way to get out with the assets
(2) as I was making less money --

(3) THE COURT: But even if that's true,
(4) okay -- and, once again, I'm not saying it
(5) is true, but I'm saying that for the sake of
(6) argument. Even if you prove that point in
(7) that hearing, how does that help me to
(8) determine whether or not we should have a
(9) guardian.

(10) MR. HANSON: It shows you --

(11) THE COURT: Because guardians don't
(12) typically deal well financial issues.

(13) MR. HANSON: It's a pretext. It's a
(14) distraction. It's an obstruction. I'm
(15) trying to show you what's simply true.

(16) The timeline of their obstruction and
(17) delay combined with while we were supposedly
(18) trying to make the marriage work, it's all
(19) consistent --

(20) THE COURT: I hear you.

(21) MR. HANSON: But the guardian ad litem
(22) is so offensive to me because it's such a
(23) non-issue that is not a real problem. It's
(24) a distraction and it's working.

(25) THE COURT: I heard you. I heard you.

[Page 311]

(1) But, like I said, if they're saying there
(2) are these issues that we need to have
(3) determined with regards to determinations
(4) upcoming that are pled in an amended
(5) petition regarding timesharing, all right --

(6) MR. HANSON: I'm telling you that
(7) that's being done as a distraction to try
(8) and avoid producing any discovery.

(9) THE COURT: Okay. And then I have to
(10) weigh whether or not I believe that to be
(11) the case weighing the credibility of the
(12) witness and weighing the credibility of your
(13) testimony too, right?

(14) MR. HANSON: And, hopefully, all of the
(15) relevant evidence?

(16) THE COURT: Right.

(17) MR. HANSON: But that's an issue right
(18) now.

(19) THE COURT: But what's determined to be
(20) relevant is in part what I have to do also.
(21) I mean, in family law, I'm the finder of
(22) fact, and I have to call these balls and
(23) strikes too.

(24) MR. HANSON: And that's why this Ayers
(25) issue, it just can't be ignored like it has

(1) been.

(2) So do you want me to continue, Your

(3) Honor.

(4) THE COURT: I do want you to continue.

(5) I mean, we're still in cross and there's

(6) redirect and that's only one witness, and

(7) we're at 4:00 o'clock almost.

(8) BY MR. HANSON:

(9) Q I've sent you E-mails and texts from before May

(10) of 2024 when you first got into the Courts telling you

(11) all I wanted was some transparency, and I would cooperate

(12) with whatever you wanted with the divorce and time,

(13) right?

(14) A No.

(15) Q How about this as a compromise? You waive any

(16) objections to financial discovery, and I'll waive an

(17) objection to a guardian ad litem? Would you agree with

(18) that?

(19) A We've already been ordered to produce three

(20) years. Do what?

(21) MR. DAVIS: Say yes.

(22) THE WITNESS: What do you -- why.

(23) THE COURT: Hold on. Real quick. It

(24) sounds like you're making an offer?

(25) MR. HANSON: Yes.

[Page 313]

(1) THE COURT: You guys want to talk about
(2) this.

(3) MR. HANSON: I want to be able to get
(4) the financial discovery before the kids get
(5) involved in -- with the guardian ad litem.

(6) MR. DAVIS: Three years.

(7) THE COURT: Do you guys want to talk
(8) about this?

(9) MR. HANSON: Waiving any financial
(10) discovery. If the guardian ad litem is
(11) going to get involved, I want a waiver of
(12) any --

(13) MR. DAVIS: You want 20 years? I
(14) mean --

(15) MR. HANSON: We weren't married 20
(16) years.

(17) MR. DAVIS: I know.

(18) THE COURT: Well, I think it's fair to
(19) say -- what's the scope of -- what's the
(20) exact offer on the table? Do you know what
(21) I mean?

(22) (Discussions were held off the record.)

(23) THE COURT: Everyone agrees we're off
(24) the record.

(25) (WHEREUPON, a recess was taken at 3:50 p.m.)

[Page 314]

(1) through 4:05 p.m.)

(2) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, do you agree?

(3) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(4) THE COURT: All right. Back on the
(5) record. When we went off the record, there
(6) was some discussion about perhaps
(7) stipulating to financial disclosure and a
(8) guardian.

(9) After some discussion off the record,
(10) it is apparent that there is no agreement to
(11) be made, so we're back on the hearing
(12) continuing with the hearing. Fair enough?

(13) MR. DAVIS: Yes.

(14) MR. HANSON: I would like to know what
(15) discovery Mr. Davis has provided?

(16) THE COURT: So one of the statements
(17) before was they did not provide any
(18) discovery until yesterday; is that correct,
(19) Mr. Hanson?

(20) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(21) THE COURT: I recall earlier in the
(22) hearing, I recall talking about a Notice of
(23) Mandatory Disclosure --

(24) MR. HANSON: So that's mandatory and
(25) they haven't even done everything that's

[Page 315]

(1) mandatory. Judge Ayers let them off with
(2) what's mandatory.

(3) THE COURT: Your statement was they
(4) didn't file anything until yesterday.

(5) MR. HANSON: Any discovery. I don't
(6) consider Mandatory Disclosures and not even
(7) complying with them responding to
(8) discovery --

(9) THE COURT: Sorry. I consider that
(10) discovery, so maybe there's just a semantic
(11) difference --

(12) MR. HANSON: Well, it's mandatory. And
(13) they haven't even done what's mandatory.
(14) And then they haven't responded to Request
(15) to Produce for non-objectionable stuff where
(16) there's Motions to Compel pending.

(17) I asked you to enter an order on that
(18) and you wouldn't even enter an order for
(19) something where there's no objection such
(20) as a Motion to Compel --

(21) THE COURT: I would like to get back to
(22) cross-examination at this point.

(23) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I don't see
(24) how we're going to finish this motion
(25) today --

[Page 316]

(1) THE COURT: I'd like to get as much
(2) done as we can, and then we'll reschedule.

(3) MR. HANSON: But, Your Honor we can do
(4) so on discovery. There is a Motion to
(5) Compel --

(6) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I am going to
(7) decline to move away from this motion at
(8) this time because you very, specifically,
(9) said you wanted to handle them in the order
(10) that they are listed.

(11) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, you are
(12) playing games to again delay things.

(13) THE COURT: Games?

(14) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(15) THE COURT: Okay. I disagree with you.

(16) MR. HANSON: Okay. We're going to get
(17) nothing done today. We're going to be in
(18) this horrible fight and hatred and
(19) disjusting mud-slinging because you won't
(20) get evidence of your fellow judge committing
(21) gross misconduct destroying a family.

(22) You'll protect her ruling class
(23) position as a judge more than my kids who
(24) may suffer their whole lives because of this
(25) because you up there on the bench have to

[Page 317]

(1) protect each other.

(2) And no matter what evil you do, it just
(3) gets to go along as business, and us
(4) commoners just have to deal with the pain
(5) and corruption as you all see fit. There's
(6) video of it in this case. You all are
(7) hiding stuff when you're not even naming
(8) what you're hiding. And you expect me to
(9) think that is a fair process. This is so
(10) absurd, Your Honor.

(11) This is, really, really maddening. I
(12) mean, it's -- and I don't think that you can
(13) disagree with me, Your Honor. I don't think
(14) that anyone can. It's just a matter of
(15) fact.

(16) I mean, you have a video of a judge
(17) rolling her eyes and lying and saying I'm
(18) going to get it to prove it, and then the
(19) whole circuit hides it. Other circuits
(20) helps them hide it. the Florida Bar helps
(21) them hide the misconduct.

(22) How am I supposed to come to court and
(23) think that my family is protected or that my
(24) life matters or my kids matter?

(25) THE COURT: I'm sorry that you feel

[Page 318]

(1) that way.

(2) MR. HANSON: Okay. Well, can you
(3) answer my questions, Your Honor? Do you
(4) think those are some concerns.

(5) THE COURT: I disagree with your
(6) assertions, and I'm sorry you feel that
(7) way.

(8) MR. HANSON: Which ones? Which ones do
(9) you disagree with?

(10) THE COURT: You can pick. I'm not here
(11) to answer your questions. I'm asking to you
(12) continue with your cross-examination of this
(13) witness.

(14) MR. HANSON: Well, again, I would like
(15) to state on the record that I did find for
(16) the prenuptial agreement in Section E, it
(17) specifically defined that marital income
(18) becomes marital assets. So the prenuptial
(19) agreement is a non-issue.

(20) I can show you where that is. In
(21) giving them the out of saying -- if you guys
(22) want to object, you still can --

(23) MR. DAVIS: Judge, I'd like to ask --

(24) MR. HANSON: I'm talking. I'm talking,
(25) sir.

[Page 319]

(1) MR. DAVIS: He's talking --

(2) MR. HANSON: No. Why is he allowed to
(3) interrupt me? And he's allowed to make fun
(4) of me, and --

(5) MR. DAVIS: I'm not making fun of
(6) him.

(7) MR. HANSON: -- making fun of me for
(8) having some depression, and you haven't said
(9) a think, Your Honor.

(10) THE COURT: I absolutely did. I said I
(11) understand that you say that, and if you
(12) want to file a motion, we can address it.

(13) MR. HANSON: You saw it with your own
(14) eyes.

(15) THE COURT: And I told you you can file
(16) a motion if you want to address it.

(17) MR. HANSON: Okay. So you're just
(18) going to give me more work to do -- it's --
(19) I'm working 70 hours a week right now.

(20) THE COURT: I'm sorry about that.

(21) MR. HANSON: Yeah. And you could fix
(22) some of it right now, but you won't. I
(23) don't know if you're hoping that I'll just
(24) lose it and have a heart attack or what the
(25) delay is, but --

[Page 320]

(1) THE COURT: I'm sorry that you think
(2) that. That's not it at all.

(3) MR. HANSON: Well, what is the delay
(4) reason then? Why can't the video just come
(5) out? You're the 13th Circuit.

(6) THE COURT: I'm not sure that I would
(7) agree with that statement that "I am the
(8) 13th Circuit."

(9) MR. HANSON: I imagine you could access
(10) if you wanted.

(11) THE COURT: Here on a Motion to Appoint
(12) a Guardain Ad Litem, and this issue has been
(13) brought up repeatedly today --

(14) MR. HANSON: And I believe it's gross
(15) misconduct --

(16) THE COURT: I'm asking you to continue
(17) your cross-examination of the witness that's
(18) on the stand.

(19) MR. HANSON: So the Court's refusing to
(20) look at the previously-discussed prenuptial
(21) agreement language in order to actually
(22) force them to do something today? We're
(23) going to stick with you guys just keep
(24) objecting.

(25) THE COURT: I'm sorry?

[Page 321]

(1) MR. HANSON: So I thought that we were
(2) talking about the three years that you
(3) ordered them to produce.

(4) THE COURT: We're going back to the
(5) first motion?

(6) MR. HANSON: Well, yes, Your Honor. I
(7) thought that the reason that you said, "Well
(8) you guys can just object to stuff. You
(9) don't actually have to produce stuff." I
(10) thought that was because you thought the
(11) prenuptial agreement was shaky on whether
(12) marital property -- whether marital income
(13) became marital property.

(14) I found it, and it is absolutely
(15) defined as marital property.

(16) THE COURT: I haven't made a
(17) determination on that yet. If that's going
(18) to be one of their objections, then I said
(19) we he will deal with it when we get there.

(20) MR. HANSON: But it's just in black and
(21) white --

(22) THE COURT: But, Mr. Hanson, again, I'm
(23) asking you to continue with your
(24) cross-examination for the third time now.

(25) MR. HANSON: But, Your Honor, I know

[Page 322]

(1) that nothing will be done with that, and
(2) it's just going to get back to this tension
(3) and --

(4) THE COURT: Are you refusing to
(5) continue?

(6) MR. HANSON: No, Your Honor, I'll
(7) finish it.

(8) THE COURT: Because this is the fourth
(9) time I've asked that now.

(10) MR. HANSON: And I apologize if I've
(11) been overrule frustrated, but the finances
(12) and the -- I don't know if I'm going crazy.

(13) Maybe -- maybe there is no reason for
(14) me to be upset and this is just the way
(15) things are. I can't see that as being --
(16) I'm going to continue with the
(17) cross-examination.

(18) THE COURT: If you have more cross,
(19) yes, please.

(20) BY MR. HANSON:

(21) Q When was it that you put the girls in
(22) counseling?

(23) A I only put one. Sometime last year in 2025 in
(24) the fall, midway through the semester. At some point, I
(25) don't know if it was October or November.

[Page 323]

(1) Q What do you believe gave you the authority to
(2) do that without discussing it with you?

(3) A I had discussed it with you; you said no.

(4) Q And what do you believe gives you the authority
(5) to have the superior voice where you get to decide what's
(6) best irrespective of what I think?

(7) A My understanding is that parents can enroll
(8) their children, when it comes to mental health
(9) considerations, even if it's a joint -- even if there's
(10) joint decision making, my understanding is that mental
(11) health trumps all, and that a parent can enroll a child
(12) in mental health.

(13) Q Where does that come from?

(14) A I think it's in the rules.

(15) Q Did you ever consider getting the Court
(16) involved?

(17) A Yes.

(18) Q Why didn't you?

(19) A I couldn't get access to the Court. You had
(20) the case stayed multiple times.

(21) Q Why didn't you -- you filed a Motion to Lift
(22) the Stay, right?

(23) A We filed a motion for rehearing for the stay;
(24) that was denied. A motion -- an appeal was done and the
(25) Court -- the appellate the Court said go back to the

[Page 324]

(1) trial the Court and have them consider it. Then we had
(2) two hearings at the trial the Court level, and then when
(3) we were going to have -- the Court lifted the stay and we
(4) were going to have our first hearing, you filed a lawsuit
(5) to disqualify the Court again, which resulted in a
(6) nullity for the stay essentially.

(7) Q Why didn't you in your Motion to Stay say,
(8) "Hey, there's this urgent need for counseling that my ex
(9) won't agree to. Court, can we lift the stay for this
(10) urgent need for counseling." Why not include that?

(11) A That wasn't a consideration that I had. I saw
(12) that this was a woman who assisted with anxieties and I
(13) wanted to get her help.

(14) Q I thought you said that you wanted to get the
(15) Court's involvement, but the case was stayed so you
(16) couldn't?

(17) A It was stayed.

(18) Q So the question was why didn't you in your
(19) Motion to Stay present there's this urgent need for
(20) anxiety treatment?

(21) A I didn't think about that.

(22) Q So when you said that you tried to or you
(23) wanted to get the Court involved for the anxiety issue,
(24) that wasn't true?

(25) A No. I wanted the Court involved in all of

[Page 325]

(1) this.

(2) Q So you understand the distinction? You're
(3) saying that you wanted to involve the Court for this
(4) psychological or anxiety issue, but then you didn't for
(5) the Motion to Stay I believe you said because you weren't
(6) thinking about it. Which is it?

(7) A The -- what are you talking about? Listen, I
(8) wanted to get my kids help; you said no. I'm hitting a
(9) roadblock with the Court --

(10) Q Did you ask the Court for help with this
(11) counselor issue?

(12) A No.

(13) Q Why not?

(14) A Because my understanding is that a
(15) individual -- a parent of a child can have mental health
(16) counseling done. But, again, I don't think it's mental
(17) health counseling because she's not licensed with the
(18) state.

(19) It's more spiritual biblical type stuff, so I
(20) also didn't view it as -- it was someone for her to talk
(21) to, but she is a counselor, but I don't know if it's,
(22) quote, unquote, mental health.

(23) Q Just so I'm clear, did you ever have any intent
(24) of involving the Court in the this mental health
(25) counselor that you set Hope up with?

[Page 326]

(1) A Yeah. I mean, I brought it up right now in the
(2) Court. I didn't keep it hidden.

(3) Q After it's been going on for how long?

(4) A Fall of 2025 after school had started.

(5) Q Almost six, eight months?

(6) A Well, we're four months into this year, so
(7) four, five, six -- not eight. It would probably be
(8) probably around six months.

(9) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry?

(10) MR. DAVIS: I wrote a note --

(11) THE COURT: That's not for you to his
(12) client.

(13) MR. DAVIS: Right.

(14) BY MR. HANSON:

(15) Q Are you open to have a discussion about whether
(16) this counseling is a good idea or helping, or you just
(17) make the decisions now and I found out when you feel like
(18) telling me?

(19) A I know that it's helping her.

(20) Q So do I get a say anymore or it's just all you?

(21) A I don't think -- if when it comes to the mental
(22) health counseling, my understanding is that somebody
(23) can -- if you're allowed to. I am asking for primary
(24) decision making, so I mean that depends on the Court's
(25) order on it.

[Page 327]

(1) Q Do you have it?

(2) A No, not yet.

(3) Q But you're exercising it like you do?

(4) A No, only with the counselor.

(5) Q If you're concerned about how the kids are
(6) treated in my home, why wouldn't you take my deposition
(7) to ask me about it?

(8) A Chris, discussions with you and me,
(9) depositions, however you want to look at it, are not
(10) fruitful. There is no reasoning with you on something
(11) especially like this. Your interpretation of a lot of
(12) things, in my opinion, is just very one-sided.

(13) So, you know your -- you know your issues, if
(14) you're honest with yourself, you know your concerns, you
(15) know your temperament. You can go back and read the text
(16) messages that you've sent me, but you think all of those
(17) are reasonable. I don't understand that.

(18) Q There are definitely some that I was
(19) embarrassed of, but I will say -- strike that. Okay. So
(20) what is the biggest concern that causes you that the
(21) children need a guardian ad litem?

(22) A Emotional abuse.

(23) Q You think that I emotionally abuse my kid?

(24) A That's the topic I'm putting in, but
(25) emotional -- my concern is emotional -- the emotional

[Page 328]

(1) atmosphere.

(2) Q Can you be any more specific?

(3) A I mean, it's your -- it's an ongoing behavior.

(4) It's the way you behave and the way you act.

(5) Q How much contact do you and I have in a week?

(6) A We have little to no contact since I've left

(7) the house.

(8) Q So what makes you think that you know how I

(9) act?

(10) A I lived with you for many, many for -- I've

(11) been with you for 17 years, and look at you're acting

(12) with adults in the Court -- Chris, this is a divorce

(13) case --

(14) Q My kids --

(15) A -- and there's three different lawsuits going

(16) on.

(17) Q My kids haven't corrupted anybody's lives. I'm

(18) happy as can be with my kids, and I'd like to go ahead

(19) and show some videos of that. Now, I'm stuck in a room

(20) with people that have tortured my family.

(21) A Okay.

(22) Q That's a little bit different. That's a pretty

(23) frustrating situation to be in when you're trapped under

(24) people that have power but no ethics. And that's where I

(25) am now?

[Page 329]

(1) A Again, this is your -- this viewpoint. This
(2) viewpoint that you have, it goes on the kids as well.
(3) You're anxieties go on the kids as well. You --

(4) Q What evidence do you have of any of that?

(5) A I was told at lunch one day that you gave them
(6) mean eyes. I mean, the fact that they have a term for it
(7) saying, "mean eyes," and it was a response to one of them
(8) saying -- well, Hope, because you'll know.

(9) She said her leg is sore. I said, "How was
(10) your morning this morning?" She said, "Oh, I got the
(11) mean eyes today." I said, "Why did you get the mean
(12) eyes?" And she said, "Because I told daddy my leg was (13) sore."

(14) And I said, "Well, did he give you any ice or
(15) anything." She said, "No, he rolled his eyes and walked
(16) away from me." I said, "Well, was your leg sore.
(17) Because you guys were rough housing." And she said,
(18) "Yeah, from the day before." I said, "Honey, it's okay
(19) that your leg was sore. It's okay that you guys rough
(20) house, but I do disagree with the reaction of you feeling
(21) like he's angry at you because you said to that her --
(22) because she said that to you."

(23) And I don't even like telling you this stuff
(24) because I am terrified that you are going to interrogate
(25) them after all of this.

[Page 330]

(1) MR. HANSON: May I play just the slide
(2) slow of the last month of me and my kids and
(3) just random pictures and experiences that
(4) we've had, Your Honor, and ask
(5) Mrs. Hanson --

(6) THE COURT: I think it would be more
(7) appropriate for you to do that, like, your
(8) testimony, not her cross of her.

(9) MR. HANSON: I just wanted to ask --
(10) she said so many things about how I do these
(11) horrible things to the kids, and I wanted to
(12) ask her about -- I'll do what you ask --

(13) THE COURT: I'm sorry. You want to ask
(14) her about those the pictures?

(15) MR. HANSON: Right, right. I want
(16) to -- I -- there is this disconnect between
(17) these things that she's saying about the way
(18) my house is, and then I just want to show
(19) her pictures --

(20) THE COURT: Wait. Let me ask -- let me
(21) ask something really quick. Is she -- or
(22) did she witness any of the events that are
(23) in these pictures --

(24) MR. HANSON: No, but she doesn't
(25) witness any of the events in my home and

[Page 331]

(1) she's implying --

(2) THE COURT: No, no, no. I understand
(3) that. If she has one opinion and you're
(4) going to show pictures that purport
(5) something else, that's just part of
(6) argument. You know what I mean?

(7) MR. HANSON: I suppose I do, but --

(8) THE COURT: If she agrees or disagrees,
(9) it doesn't change your argument. If she
(10) wasn't there, she can't independently verify
(11) or disprove anything that you're going to
(12) show her, right?

(13) MR. HANSON: I was hoping for the --

(14) THE COURT: Tell me if I'm wrong. I'm
(15) trying to understand what you're asking.

(16) MR. HANSON: You're probably right, but
(17) I'm just holding out hope that she'll see
(18) them and say, "You're right, they look like
(19) happy kids," and we'll end the hearing on a
(20) high note. That's my dream, but...

(21) THE WITNESS: I can clarify my
(22) position.

(23) THE COURT: I appreciate you're saying
(24) that that's what you're hoping for. I don't
(25) know if that's --

[Page 332]

(1) MR. HANSON: Like there's -- how do you
(2) prove that you're a good dad? How do you
(3) prove that your kids are healthy?

(4) THE COURT: I can tell you sometimes in
(5) these cases we have guardians.

(6) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, with the level
(7) of corruption that I've dealt with so far
(8) and what I've heard about guardian ad litem
(9) and Judge Ayers, that keeps me up at nights
(10) is having some people --

(11) THE COURT: I probably shouldn't have
(12) made that comment, but we're in the middle
(13) of cross, do you know what I mean? And
(14) you're asking about -- I mean, and certainly
(15) I think everything you're saying, I'm
(16) certainly open to hearing you say in
(17) closing, you know, but I'm really just
(18) trying to get through the different parts of
(19) this hearing.

(20) You're 100 percent correct. There's no
(21) way we're going to finish today. What I
(22) would like to spend the last two minutes of
(23) our day on is setting some very specific
(24) parameters going forward as far as timing in
(25) concluding.

[Page 333]

(1) I'm going to ask how much more time you
(2) need for cross. I'm going to ask how much
(3) more time you need for other witnesses, and
(4) how much more time you will need for direct,
(5) and we're going to keep to those times going
(6) forward. Okay? Is that all right,
(7) Mr. Hanson?

(8) MR. HANSON: Yes, Your Honor.

(9) THE COURT: Okay. Continuation on
(10) cross, please.

(11) BY MR. HANSON:

(12) Q When we were communicating back in May of 2024
(13) and I was encouraging you to cooperate with simple
(14) discovery, did I express concerns about what it could do
(15) to us financially if we got into a protracted litigation
(16) problem?

(17) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance.

(18) THE COURT: Same argument with regards
(19) to motive for the filing of this?

(20) MR. HANSON: Very close, Your Honor.

(21) THE COURT: Very close.

(22) MR. HANSON: I would have to think
(23) about it for a minute, but I think it's very
(24) close, if it's not the exact same thing.
(25) It's the general idea of there is no concern

[Page 334]

(1) about the kids' welfare. There is other
(2) things going on.

(3) THE COURT: I get that point. I don't
(4) think we need more questioning on it.

(5) MR. HANSON: My point is that theory of
(6) the case that I have, there's support for it
(7) anywhere.

(8) THE COURT: I am aware.

(9) MR. HANSON: The truth is revealed in
(10) patterns, and the patterns are that the more
(11) you look at the facts, the more you see that
(12) the guardian is a pretext.

(13) THE COURT: Okay.

(14) BY MR. HANSON:

(15) Q When we went to go see a movie, did you ever
(16) steal candy in the movie theater in front of the kids?

(17) A No.

(18) Q At the West Shore Theater?

(19) A No. I was -- I usually bring my own candy.

(20) Q Well, this -- when there was a banquet this
(21) year for the kids, it was on a Saturday night for
(22) gymnastics banquet, right, Saturday night?

(23) A Okay.

(24) Q Did I offer to trade nights with you so that
(25) you could go with the kids?

[Page 335]

(1) A You were sick. You didn't feel well.

(2) Q Toothache.

(3) A Right, something. And you asked if I would
(4) take them, and I said absolutely. And I even texted the
(5) organizer; I said, "Hey, I'm going to come tonight. I'm
(6) going to be there." And then you wanted -- you were
(7) making demands in return. I don't recall what the
(8) demands were.

(9) I think you wanted like a whole swap day or
(10) something. You wanted a swap day for me to take them for
(11) the couple of hours, and then I proposed something. And
(12) then you came back and said, "Forget it. I'm fine. I'll
(13) take them," and then you pulled it off from me.

(14) Q So it was the same thing with your sleepover
(15) night? That was a Friday night?

(16) A Yeah.

(17) Q And the banquet was a Saturday night. On both
(18) occasions, you said you can have next Wednesday. Well,
(19) Wednesday all you do is drive to gymnastics and back.
(20) You're stuck on Hillsborough Avenue for hours.

(21) So the problem agreeing with a schedule with --
(22) I'm sorry. Would you agree that when we tried to agree
(23) on a schedule, any agreement that you're going to reach
(24) is always going to favor you?

(25) A No. You -- I propose something and last

[Page 336]

(1) Wednesday -- when I proposed that Wednesday from that
(2) Friday of the sleepover, it was a spring break and Friday
(3) night is gymnastics and Wednesday night is gymnastics.
(4) It was an exact same swap.

(5) I don't recall what I proposed with the
(6) banquet. I know it got shot down pretty immediately.
(7) And whenever I do propose, you never come back with a
(8) counter. I won't say never. I don't know if you have or
(9) haven't. But, generally, you don't come back with a
(10) counter; you just say forget it.

(11) And it's like, "Well, what are you proposing?"
(12) I don't -- there's no discussion. There's no
(13) communication there. So it's like, "Okay. I can't go to
(14) the banquet."

(15) Q Are you aware that I've had plans to go to
(16) Michigan with the children over the summer?

(17) A This past summer?

(18) Q Yes.

(19) A I'm aware that you were inquiring about taking
(20) them to Michigan. I know you took them the year after.

(21) Q Had you initially agreed to six nights for me
(22) to go?

(23) A Not that I recall. Six nights? Not that I
(24) recall. I recall -- no, wait. I recall thinking of
(25) the -- my understanding is that -- of the general

[Page 337]

(1) vacation plan of the Courts, I think they usually do one
(2) week or two-week. And I do recall saying something where
(3) you had inquired for taking them for a week to Michigan,
(4) and my -- initially, I was -- I remember thinking, "Okay.
(5) That's your week, and then I'll have a week of vacation
(6) as well."

(7) But that was never really ironed out or agreed
(8) to, and then I did backtrack because I started thinking I
(9) don't think I can agree to a week. I'm worried about the
(10) kids with you that long, and I couldn't -- you weren't
(11) working with me at all on any other schedules. And so I
(12) did, I said, "No. I wasn't agreeable to the full week."
(13) I cut back. I said I was agreeable with four days, which
(14) was the similar time frame that I had for Alabama when I
(15) went there for that Christmas.

(16) Q So I had found flights to go up there or six
(17) nights, cleared it with you, and then you moved the
(18) goalpost, right?

(19) A No. You had not -- no, you had not. No, I
(20) disagree. I think that's your interpretation of it, but
(21) the request on the Michigan -- was, actually, yeah, I
(22) even -- the request on Michigan was not like, "Hey, I
(23) want to take them" and I said okay. And then, all of a
(24) sudden, a week later you gave me dates. That's not what
(25) happened.

(1) I kept asking for specifics, and there was a
(2) lag of a time frame. You had told me you planned on
(3) going to Michigan, and then when I kept asking for dates
(4) and you proposed different flights or something, I said I
(5) wasn't agreeable for that long of time.

(6) Q So on May 31st of 2025, you texted I'm fine
(7) with you having a week vacation, and then I also get a
(8) week vacation?

(9) A Right. That's what I just said.

(10) Q So that's May 31st?

(11) A Um-hum.

(12) Q But June 10th. So 10 days later I had planned
(13) sometime between July 11th and July 20th that worked with
(14) family and friends?

(15) A Yes.

(16) Q Six to seven nights?

(17) A Yeah.

(18) Q So 10 days after initially telling me I had a
(19) week, you told me you have only -- it was either three or
(20) four days that you gave me?

(21) A Something. Yeah, I said I was agreeable to
(22) less.

(23) Q You would agree that was a direct interference
(24) with something you had just agreed to 10 days earlier?

(25) A Well, yeah. I mean, I thought about it. I

[Page 339]

(1) mean, I'm trying to get to the Court. I'm challenging
(2) the 50/50. We don't have anything set in place.

(3) And so I was like, you know, that's actually
(4) not -- I felt, like -- I felt like I was being taken
(5) advantage of because the last time when I did a
(6) mini-trip -- twice I went to Alabama, once was only with
(7) a three-day time span, and then the other time was that
(8) time. So I thought we were going to have a hearing and
(9) get the matter resolved a little bit quicker.

(10) Q So you're saying that you changed your mind
(11) about giving me a week in those 10 days because you
(12) thought about something with Alabama?

(13) A No, I thought about the kids. I thought about
(14) the fact that this doesn't really -- I want to work with
(15) you because I know co-parenting is important, but at the
(16) same time I was worried about them being with you for an
(17) entire week. And when you're with your family, you do
(18) drink.

(19) Q Have the kids ever had any injuries with me?

(20) A I'm sure.

(21) Q What? What Injuries? How have they gotten
(22) hurt?

(23) A I mean, what do you mean by injuries?

(24) Q So you --

(25) A I'm sure they've had bruises. They have

[Page 340]

(1) bruises with me. They have bruises with both of us.

(2) They're kids.

(3) Q I understand that, but you talk like I'm some
(4) bad parent where the kids aren't safe with me. What
(5) evidence or what information is there that gives you that
(6) concern?

(7) A I am not proposing that they always have a
(8) terrible time with you or that you are this terrible
(9) parent all the time. What I am saying and what I have
(10) testified to are there's these instances that give me
(11) pause and concern over their welfare long-term with the
(12) 50/50. I think stability is extremely important in their
(13) lives, so I don't know what your question was.

(14) Q So you've said that there's that conversation
(15) where I brought up whether spanking would be a helpful
(16) tool with them, and I used to drink more than I should
(17) have, and we were talking about eight years ago.

(18) Is the last time that --

(19) A No. I recently testified as to Hope putting
(20) Hailey to bed. I'm pretty sure you were passed out drunk
(21) that night.

(22) Q How dare you? How dare you say that to me?

(23) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Argumentative?

(24) THE COURT: The Court: She testified
(25) that it was her interpretation.

[Page 341]

(1) Q That I was drunk.

(2) A You were passed out on the bed.

(3) Q I have no idea what you're talking about, but
(4) that's just -- I don't drink -- I mean, maybe in the last
(5) year I've had three beers around my children.

(6) This is her cruelty and complete lack of any
(7) basis for her position, just hateful spewing of hurtful
(8) things.

(9) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I would ask
(10) that you please continue with your direct
(11) examination.

(12) BY MR. HANSON:

(13) Q So your only evidence is that I was sleeping?

(14) A No. I don't know what you were doing.

(15) Q But you're saying that you assumed I was drunk?

(16) A I'm saying I watched my seven-year-old put my
(17) five-year-old to bed and turn off all the lights in a
(18) hotel room. I have limited access to them when they're
(19) with you.

(20) And, to me, that is grossly inappropriate.
(21) But, no, my testimony is not as to as much as your
(22) interactions with them as you blowing up on text messages
(23) with me. As, I mean, every single thing is a fight with
(24) you. It's the totality of the circumstances. It's the
(25) totality.

(1) Q The totality of the circumstances is that I
(2) have one request some financial transparency and peace of
(3) mind. That's all I've had for two years, and I deal with
(4) this hatred and just lies and distractions because she
(5) doesn't want to give that transparency.

(6) That's the entire case, and The State is
(7) creating a really, really dangerous and scary situation
(8) here by just pushing -- by just letting this go along
(9) while hiding from the simple facts in front of it because
(10) they're inconvenient for the Court.

(11) THE COURT: Anymore cross-examination?

(12) MR. HANSON: I'm not done with
(13) cross-examination, Your Honor --

(14) THE COURT: Okay. Then I ask that you
(15) stick to cross.

(16) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, what do I --
(17) strike that.

(18) BY MR. HANSON:

(19) Q Okay. Sarah, would you agree to an in camera
(20) inspection of your bank accounts by the Court?

(21) MR. DAVIS: Object to relevance.

(22) MR. HANSON: Relevance. It's the only
(23) issue in the case.

(24) MR. DAVIS: No, it's not, and it's
(25) irrelevant and immaterial as to the guardian

(1) ad litem issue. It doesn't go prove or
(2) disprove. And she's being asked basically
(3) if she'll agree to something, but it doesn't
(4) prove or disprove any material fact at
(5) issue.

(6) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, why can't we
(7) just do an in camera inspection. Like, what
(8) is her objection to that? I produced more
(9) when I was the disclosing spouse, she always
(10) had all of my account information.

(11) How after two years can I not get an in
(12) camera inspection on less material that I've
(13) had to produce directly to her?

(14) MR. DAVIS: That's not even pending
(15) today. And, Your Honor, may I address the
(16) Court --

(17) MR. HANSON: It's not, Your Honor, but
(18) this is way past what's pending. You're
(19) concealing evidence. If I were doing that,
(20) you would sanction me. You're doing that, I
(21) can't even talk about it.

(22) THE COURT: I've said to you,
(23) Mr. Hanson, we're going to address the
(24) matters in the order that they are listed on
(25) the Notice of Hearing at your request.

[Page 344]

(1) MR. HANSON: Well, the document 22
(2) brings up that.

(3) THE COURT: We already handled that
(4) matter. We're on to the second issue --

(5) MR. HANSON: But you've ignored the
(6) core problem --

(7) THE COURT: -- Motion for the Appointment of
(8) Guardian Ad Litem.

(9) MR. HANSON: -- and the structural
(10) conflict where the tribunal --

(11) THE COURT: You've already brought that
(12) up and I ruled on that.

(13) MR. HANSON: Is your ruling that it's
(14) just okay for a tribunal to hide relevant
(15) evidence from litigants?

(16) THE COURT: We're moving on.

(17) MR. HANSON: So that means that's your
(18) ruling? That's it's acceptable for a court
(19) to hide relevant evidence to protect another
(20) judge at the Court? What else is the ruling
(21) other than that?

(22) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I would
(23) appreciate if you didn't interrupt you when
(24) I was talking.

(25) MR. HANSON: I didn't interrupt you.

[Page 345]

(1) THE COURT: Yes, you did. I was in the
(2) middle of talking before you started your
(3) last sentence.

(4) I said that I've already addressed that
(5) matter, and I'm not going to readdress it
(6) for the fifth or sixth time. You keep
(7) bringing it up, and I'm declining to do so.

(8) I've asked you repeatedly to continue
(9) and finish with your cross. At some point
(10) if you keep not continuing with your cross,
(11) I'm going to have to end your cross. Okay?

(12) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, you're the
(13) Judge. You can do what you want, but I
(14) don't agree with that.

(15) THE COURT: Which part? That you're
(16) not continuing on the cross or that I will
(17) have to end your cross if you don't continue
(18) with it?

(19) MR. HANSON: That you've addressed the
(20) concealment of evidence issue.

(21) THE COURT: Okay. Are you going to
(22) continue on your cross?

(23) MR. HANSON: I am, Your Honor. I'm
(24) sorry. I'm just disorganized. I have notes
(25) all over here, and I really am trying to

[Page 346]

(1) find --

(2) THE COURT: Yes, you are. If you want
(3) a minute, that's fine. I'm just trying to
(4) make sure I understand.

(5) MR. HANSON: Yes, yes.

(6) THE COURT: Okay.

(7) BY MR. HANSON:

(8) Q So your Mother's Day issue that you discussed,
(9) isn't it true that I texted you before Mother's Day and
(10) asked you if you wanted extra time with the girls that
(11) day?

(12) A No, not that I recall or that I saw, I guess.

(13) Q And what was going on at school that Monday
(14) morning right after Mother's Day? Was there something
(15) special at school that Monday morning?

(16) A Hailey was graduating kindergarten. They had
(17) the graduation ceremony for kindergarten.

(18) Q And did I tell you that I wanted to take her to
(19) that?

(20) A I understand that you want to take her to that.
(21) I mean, I didn't mean schedule the dates for everything.

(22) Q You refused to bring her to me the evening
(23) after you were done with the concert, right?

(24) A Yes. We all, we went out to dinner and then we
(25) were driving --

[Page 347]

(1) Q Just yes-or-no question. You refused to take
(2) her to me, right?

(3) A Yeah.

(4) Q Even though Monday morning was my day and I
(5) should have been the one to take her to kindergarten,
(6) right?

(7) A I -- I don't -- I mean, well, no. I don't
(8) think Monday was your day was -- Sunday was not your day
(9) because that was Mother's Day. That was the holiday was
(10) Sunday, so they would have stayed the night with me to
(11) Monday.

(12) Q Well, who says that? We are on a three-three
(13) day schedule?

(14) A Okay. That was the Mother's Day. That's the (15) holiday. You get them for Father's Day. They stay the
(16) night. I get them for Mother's Day.

(17) Q Well, I offered you more time, but I said that
(18) I would like to have them for the kindergarten
(19) graduation, but you unilaterally decided that wasn't
(20) going to happen, right?

(21) A How -- what -- you're not --

(22) Q Yes or no? You unilaterally decided you were
(23) going to have them for Mother's Day?

(24) A Yes. I -- yes. And I also had -- you were
(25) talking to my lawyer and, yes, we were saying I was going

[Page 348]

(1) to get them Mother's Day, yeah. I unilaterally decided

(2) I'd get them on the national holiday for Mother's Day.

(3) Q So I texted you on Thursday and said did you
(4) want some extra time on Mother's Day; your response was,
(5) "I plan on having them all day on Mother's Day. I have
(6) tickets to a show that starts at 5:30."

(7) Did you ever clear that with me and say, "Hey,
(8) I'm going to have them all day on Mother's Day" or "Can I
(9) have them all day on Mother's Day?"

(10) A No. It's Mother's Day.

(11) THE COURT: I believe she just said she
(12) unilaterally did that.

(13) Q Okay. But my point is that I was offering you
(14) more time and instead of working with me or communicating
(15) with me, it seems like it's like counseling; what you say
(16) goes.

(17) Do you have any examples where I've done
(18) anything like that without communicating with you?

(19) MR. DAVIS: Objection. Argumentative.
(20) Compound.

(21) THE COURT: Argumentative with it seems
(22) like the counseling --

(23) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(24) THE COURT: Portion of the question.

(25) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

[Page 349]

(1) THE COURT: I'm not going to take that
(2) as her testimony. That sounds more like
(3) argument to me, so I do believe that's
(4) argumentative. If you want to make that
(5) connection in closing, you can.

(6) With regard to the question,
(7) specifically, do you have any instances in
(8) which I unilaterally made decisions; is
(9) that --

(10) MR. HANSON: Yeah. I can rephrase the
(11) other part.

(12) BY MR. HANSON:

(13) Q With the Mother's Day and with the vacation to
(14) Michigan and with the -- can someone help me? The third
(15) one you just said --

(16) THE COURT: Do you mean the counseling?

(17) MR. HANSON: Counseling. Thank you.

(18) BY MR. HANSON:

(19) Q With those three things, I didn't have any
(20) input, did I?

(21) A With the counseling, you did. I asked you and
(22) you said no, which I thought was unreasonable.

(23) Q I didn't have any --

(24) A With the -- with the mother's Day, it was
(25) Mother's Day. I did not understand I need to ask

[Page 350]

(1) permission to spend the day with my daughters that --

(2) Q What --

(3) A And with the Michigan, I proposed instead of
(4) the week something different because of everything and
(5) what we were going through. And you -- I mean, I don't
(6) know, you never responded to that. You said no or
(7) something.

(8) Q But it's not worth going to Michigan for --

(9) A And in response to your question as to whether
(10) you've unilaterally done things, yes you have.

(11) Q What?

(12) A For the daddy-daughter dance, I -- you were
(13) going to pick them up for the daddy-daughter dance this
(14) past April is the dance or, I don't know, April or March.
(15) And I asked you to come and get them from the house, so
(16) it would be like a proper pick-up because it was my time
(17) with them.

(18) And then for my pick-up to get them back, you
(19) unilaterally picked someplace I didn't know and made me
(20) drive significantly further for me to try to get them and
(21) didn't coordinate that with me.

(22) I had to go to work -- I had to fly to
(23) Atlanta --

(24) Q I'm sorry. We'll get right back to this, but I
(25) got to catch this. So you're saying that me unilaterally

[Page 351]

(1) doing something is me picking a gas station to meet at
(2) that that's the unilateral decision that I got to make?

(3) A That's just what came to mind. I have to go
(4) through more text messages and everything else. I mean,
(5) you know, I'm trying to get through it all, but there are
(6) times where you have unilaterally done things. And a lot
(7) of it has to do with making me go someplace or do
(8) something that, you know, isn't mutually agreeable to me
(9) either.

(10) Q Please describe what happen you're talking
(11) about?

(12) A Okay. Kicking me out of the banquets, kicking
(13) me out of medal days, not letting me go and participate
(14) in group activity functions with the kids and the
(15) teams.

(16) Q You would agree that it's better for the kids
(17) to not see us fighting than to have us together and have
(18) us fighting?

(19) A Why would we be fighting at an awards
(20) banquet.

(21) Q I don't think it's helpful to answer that
(22) question?

(23) THE COURT: All right. Are we at a
(24) natural stopping point with regard to
(25) topics, Mr. Hanson?

[Page 352]

(1) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I just had
(2) another point of my brain that I think I
(3) last it, okay. It might be years before it
(4) comes back.

(5) THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well,
(6) obviously, we have not concluded with the
(7) Motion for the Appointment of Guardian Ad
(8) Litem.

(9) How much more time is -- with regards,
(10) and, I mean, I'm asking for the estimate --
(11) do you think you'll need on cross,
(12) Mr. Hanson?

(13) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I know I
(14) didn't do a great job of sticking to
(15) questions, let alone thinking about so many
(16) of the guardian ad litem motion.

(17) Do you mean total cross-examination on
(18) anything?

(19) THE COURT: No, just for this witness.

(20) MR. HANSON: I would hope 30 minutes.

(21) THE COURT: 30 minutes?

(22) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I have to go
(23) through this, but that would be my guess. I
(24) think that I got 30 minutes to go.

(25) THE COURT: Okay. How much time do you

[Page 353]

(1) think redirect of the witness?

(2) MR. DAVIS: How much time do I need for
(3) what, sir? I'm sorry.

(4) THE COURT: Redirect for this witness?

(5) MR. DAVIS: None.

(6) THE COURT: None. Okay. Do you have
(7) any other witnesses you'd call in support of
(8) this motion?

(9) MR. DAVIS: Mr. Hanson.

(10) THE COURT: Okay. How much time do you
(11) think you need for Mr. Hanson?

(12) MR. DAVIS: Probably not a tremendous
(13) amount, if -he answers the questions
(14) directly.

(15) THE COURT: I know I'm asking for an
(16) estimate. I know that there are --

(17) MR. DAVIS: I'd say an hour just to be
(18) conservative, but I do have a request for
(19) the Court.

(20) THE COURT: Okay. What's that request.

(21) MR. DAVIS: Would the Court please rule
(22) on the motion. The Second DCA says we have
(23) due process if we've been given equal time.

(24) I brought this up this morning. Almost
(25) an hour was wasted for this hearing, and Mr.

[Page 354]

(1) Hanson has been trying to drag, stall and
(2) delay this by over and over going back and
(3) hitting different topics that aren't the
(4) guardian ad litem motion.

(5) We want to get done with this. The
(6) guardian ad litem motion was filed 490 days
(7) ago, and we've been here all day.

(8) THE COURT: Yeah.

(9) MR. DAVIS: I ask the Court just to
(10) admit his financial affidavit and make a
(11) ruling.

(12) THE COURT: Okay. All right. I
(13) appreciate certainly where you're coming
(14) from on that. I'm not comfortable making a
(15) ruling without giving Mr. Hanson the
(16) opportunity to testify in his own defense of
(17) the motion. You said one hour for your
(18) directs of him; is that correct?

(19) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

(20) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, assuming cross
(21) and your own direct at the same time, how
(22) much time do you think you'll need to
(23) testify in defense of the Motion to Appoint
(24) a Guardian Ad Litem?

(25) MR. HANSON: I'm sorry. Assuming cross

[Page 355]

(1) and direct at the same time.

(2) THE COURT: Right. Like he's going to
(3) put you on the stand, right. You have the
(4) opportunity to cross, quote, unquote,
(5) yourself, but we're going to go outside the
(6) scope of that direct.

(7) So that would be the cross and the
(8) direct at the same time, so you get the time
(9) to respond to whatever he asks you on
(10) direct, and then put on whatever you want to
(11) tell me, if it's outside the scope of that
(12) direct.

(13) MR. HANSON: So I get to testify or
(14) have somebody ask me questions.

(15) THE COURT: Well, you pro se, so
(16) there's no -- you are representing yourself.
(17) There is no --

(18) MR. HANSON: Bring someone in to ask --
(19) read a statement or have an outline to
(20) present testimony.

(21) THE COURT: No. You would be doing
(22) that yourself.

(23) MR. HANSON: Okay. So I don't need
(24) someone to ask questions. I can just have
(25) an outline and a testify.

[Page 356]

(1) THE COURT: Correct. Now, after you do
(2) that, you'll be subject to cross.

(3) MR. HANSON: Right. I look forward to
(4) that.

(5) THE COURT: So I'm asking how much time
(6) do you think you'll need?

(7) MR. HANSON: On the guardian ad
(8) litem.

(9) THE COURT: Yes.

(10) MR. HANSON: There's a lot of text
(11) messages that I need to go through so I
(12) would say three hours.

(13) THE COURT: Okay.

(14) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, what I'm going
(15) to show with the text messages --

(16) THE COURT: I'm not asking.

(17) MR. HANSON: You seem frustrated with
(18) the three hours.

(19) THE COURT: No, no, no. I'm not asking
(20) you to tell me why at this point. Okay? So
(21) that puts us at four and a half more hours
(22) on just the guardian ad litem motion. All
(23) right.

(24) May 22nd, are you available, Mr. Davis?

(25) MR. DAVIS: One moment, please. Yes,

[Page 357]

(1) sir.

(2) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, are you

(3) available on May 22nd?

(4) MR. HANSON: It's a Friday. I can

(5) be.

(6) THE COURT: So yes?

(7) MR. HANSON: Yes.

(8) THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Davis, I'd ask

(9) that you prepare a Notice of Continued

(10) Hearing starting with the Motion to Appoint

(11) Guardian Ad Litem, and then the remaining

(12) issues that were listed in today, if time

(13) permits.

(14) MR. DAVIS: Okay.

(15) THE COURT: I'm going to keep the

(16) parties, within reason, a few minutes here

(17) and there to the representations about the

(18) amount of time they're going to take. So if

(19) I feel as if you're using that time on

(20) outside matters, your time is still running.

(21) Okay?

(22) MR. DAVIS: Yes, sir. From what time

(23) to what time?

(24) THE COURT: Starting at 9:00.

(25) MR. DAVIS: Until.

[Page 358]

(1) THE COURT: We listed five hours, if
(2) you guys are available the whole day I'll
(3) give you the whole day.

(4) MR. DAVIS: I'm available.

(5) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson?

(6) MR. HANSON: I would prefer not doing
(7) that. Attempt to do a full day, it's
(8) difficult to do it. If the Court tells me I
(9) have to, I will, but it's -- I don't think
(10) it's productive after four or five hours.

(11) MR. DAVIS: But, Mr. Hanson, is the one
(12) that says we're trying to delay the case, so
(13) we'd like --

(14) MR. HANSON: No. You're trying to hide
(15) evidence so and your misconduct. You're
(16) trying to hide those things --

(17) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I'd ask you to
(18) please continue to address the Court and not
(19) Mr. Davis.

(20) MR. HANSON: What a joke.

(21) THE COURT: To me?

(22) MR. HANSON: It's to the Court. The
(23) Court is a joke. And, Your Honor, I think
(24) that you have to agree with that. I mean,
(25) are lawyers supposed to hide evidence?

[Page 359]

(1) Judges ain't supposed to hide evidence?

(2) THE COURT: I'm asking you to stop
(3) addressing Mr. Davis directly.

(4) MR. HANSON: And I'm asking you to
(5) address his behavior and to address Judge
(6) Ayers' behavior --

(7) THE COURT: I already ruled on that.

(8) MR. HANSON: -- and you're saying no
(9) because I'm not as powerful as they are.

(10) THE COURT: I disagree, Mr. Hanson.
(11) Mr. Hanson?

(12) MR. HANSON: What?

(13) THE COURT: I've addressed that
(14) already. I said if you want to file a
(15) motion with regards to that, I will deal
(16) with that.

(17) I am going to caution you about calling
(18) this the Court a joke again. Okay?

(19) MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I don't know
(20) how you can expect me to call it anything
(21) else. And, with all due respect, it's -- I
(22) get to go home and see these kids, and I
(23) know what you're doing to them, and there's
(24) is no excuse for it.

(25) And the fact that I have to come here

[Page 360]

(1) and see the Court respect him like he's an
(2) honest attorney and everything is just kind
(3) of happening in good faith and like Judge
(4) Ayers was fair.

(5) Do you know how crazy that is? Do you
(6) know how backwards that is to what actually
(7) happened? Can you have some sympathy that
(8) in the Court of law in the free state of
(9) Florida the world shouldn't be like that.

(10) THE COURT: Are you done?

(11) MR. HANSON: If --

(12) THE COURT: Yes or no?

(13) MR. HANSON: Am I done?

(14) THE COURT: With your statement.

(15) MR. HANSON: I don't think there is
(16) anything else I can say that is going to be
(17) helpful, Your Honor. Nothing got
(18) accomplished today other than fighting and
(19) for ugliness.

(20) I would beg of the Court to remove the
(21) -- well, you don't have to actually produce
(22) anything for the three-year order that they
(23) get a object to it, it's been over two
(24) years.

(25) Can't we just place a requirement on

[Page 361]

(1) them that they actually have to produce
(2) three years. That will make the guardian ad
(3) litem issue so much easier.

(4) THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I've addressed
(5) that issue. Okay.

(6) MR. HANSON: Not to any reasonable
(7) person. You addressed it to continue to
(8) protect Davis and --

(9) THE COURT: And one more time, I'm
(10) going to caution you with regards to your
(11) tone to this the Court and calling this
(12) Court a joke. Okay?

(13) MR. HANSON: I didn't call the Court a
(14) joke again. I said --

(15) THE COURT: I asked you, specifically,
(16) if that statement was to me; you said yes.

(17) MR. HANSON: I said to the Court.

(18) THE COURT: Yes, correct. And that's
(19) what I'm cautioning you with regards to.

(20) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(21) THE COURT: Okay. You've been put on
(22) notice.

(23) MR. HANSON: Okay.

(24) THE COURT: Thank you. We're done for
(25) today. That hearing will be for five hours.

[Page 362]

(1) MR. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

(2) THE WITNESS: Can I ask a question?

(3) THE COURT: Yes.

(4) THE WITNESS: Is there any way to get a
(5) set holiday question without testimony or a
(6) set -- even if it's 50/50 until the guardian
(7) ad litem decided.

(8) THE COURT: I'm not going to -- I'm not
(9) going to rule on things that aren't set for
(10) a hearing. Okay? Thank y'all very much.

(11) (Court adjourned at 4:50 p.m.)
