Sor I said, it's not our mission to connect people to journalists – it's just not wha o public statements, amici, etc.). Jane Bambauer, the First Amendment prof also is not tasked with connecting people to journalists – she does research. You can reach out to her if you want: janebambauer@ufl.edu

I understand your frustration and wanting to get off the phone, but I was going to refer you to some other folks who might help, who do connect people to journalists/legal help on these issues

- Florida First Amendment Foundation – they deal with FOI and First Amendment issues.
- New First Amendment law clinic at FSU – their mission is to help people with these problems.
- Florida Center for Government Accountability (they have their own publication, the Trident, that writes about these issues)

Hi Dave. Thank you for your time. I was really disappointed with what you had to say. From researching your organization and its mission statement and history, I truly thought that you would help me in this nightmare of state and judicial corruption. There are rampant violations of due process, access to judicial records, and the separation of powers. Its a vast network of powerful and corrupt individuals that only a competent and ethical journalist can hold accountable. As I understand it, you simply cant help and dont know any journalists? You did mention something about doing a survey or a study on my case. Yes, please do that. The case numbers are as follows. Also, you mentioned one other person whom I could contact with university of Florida. Will you please send her contact information over for me? Again, I am very disappointed that the Brechner Freedom of Information Project is not able to assist with getting publicity for this important info about active and intentional public records concealment. The violations here, including judge [REDACTED] lly to protect the powerful, are certainly harming me and family, and certainly many others who are ss the misconduct of these powerful insiders. Where should my family turn? If I misunderstood anythi ny suggestion for me beyond contacting your colleague and continuing to reach out to journ me know. Ill be happy to get you any information you need about the active public records litigation d 13th/6th circuit for the survey or whatever data review you do. Thank you for your time. Hi Dave! Thanks for the response. I would really appreciate a quick discussion next week. The legal issues are as under control as they can be. What's confusing me more are the trends in public access to records, increasing exemptions, costs, and flat-out non-compliance in many cases. I'd really appreciate a few minutes of your time next week. Whenever you get a chance, please let me know what day/time would work and all put it on my calendar. Have a great conference and be safe!

Chris,

Thanks for reaching out. I'm not sure if we are the right people to help – we don't do legal work. We focus on research and education in access to public records (I have a Ph.D., not a J.D., so I can't give legal advice). I'm happy to chat with you, but I wouldn't be able to do so until late next week – I'm organizing a conference that runs Sunday-Tuesday in D.C. and under the gun. But could chat Thursday or Friday next week when I'm back in the office.

Good morning. I've called and left messages a few times. However, I just noticed that I had your email address wrong. I'm having trouble with the Florida Bar and the 13th Circuit Court concealing records that are obviously not exempt from production. They have confirmed the existence and I've paid for them, but they intentionally concealed and continue to conceal the target records. I have the matter in litigation. I believe there is significant judicial misconduct throughout this matter that demonstrates an apparent two-tier system of justice. I'm really hoping that the Brechner Freedom of Information Project will look at some of this information with an open mind and an understanding that this type of corruption within the judiciary is dangerous and must be investigated. Rather than overwhelm you with attachments, I think it would be more helpful if someone could speak to me about the case and determine if FAF is willing to get involved. Thank you.
