Thats really disappointing. Do you see anything wrong with the facts or law that Ive argued?? Seems like a straightforward case of 1st amendment abuse with most of the work done. Is that the defendants are too broad and powerful? Has the Florida State University College of law first amendment clinic communicated with anyone other than myself about the cases Ive described? There is definitely an effort in media to suppress the story and I need to ask. Please follow my public records request will follow. Thank you.
