v.

THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, et al.

Defendants/Respondents.

ALTERNATIVE WRIT IN MANDAMUS

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on Plaintiff's "Amended Verified Petition/Complaint for Writ of Mandamus, Declaratory Relief, and Attorney's Fees" ("the Amended Petition/Complaint") filed on November 13, 2025. The Court, having reviewed this filing pursuant to Rule 1.630, Fla. R. Civ. P., and having found that it alleges a prima facie entitlement to some or all of the relief requested therein, hereby issues this Alternative Writ in Mandamus and incorporates the Amended Petition/Complaint herein by reference.

WHEREAS, Plaintiff alleges the existence of a clear legal right to the performance of certain ministerial acts as described in the Amended Petition/Complaint, and alleges that Defendants have a nondiscretionary legal duty to perform those acts, and further alleges that no other adequate remedy exists,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

1. Defendants are hereby commanded forthwith to perform the ministerial act(s) described in the Amended Petition/Complaint, namely: produce those records identified in Part A of the Prayer for Relief in the Amended Petition/Complaint or, in the alternative, to respond and show cause in writing why this Court should not issue a peremptory writ compelling such performance.

2. With respect to the remainder of Plaintiff's Prayer for Relief, Defendants are commanded to comply with or respond to show cause why the Court should not grant the relief requested, in whole or in part.
3. On or before March 4, 2026, Defendants shall file such written response as provided in Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.140, failure to timely respond may result in entry of a peremptory writ of mandamus without further hearing.
4. In light of Defendants' prior appearance in this action, their filing of responsive pleadings, and the parties' participation in hearings before this Court, the Court finds that the entry and electronic filing of this Alternative Writ in Mandamus constitutes sufficient service.
