THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, et al.

Defendants/Respondents.

ORDER ON REMAINING ISSUES OF PLAINTIFF'S FEBRUARY 16, 2026 MOTION

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on "Plaintiff's Verified Motion for Rehearing and Reconsideration on Judge Coleman's February 10, 2026 Order and Writ, to Enforce 'Prima Facie' Finding, Vacate Sua Sponte Procedural Delays (Dockets #47 & #48), and Strike Unauthorized Pleading (Docket #55)" filed on February 16, 2026. In the motion, Plaintiff requested that the Court: (1) vacate the January 13, 2026 Orders (Dockets #47 and #48) as void for lack of due process and bias; (2) strike Defendant's "Response in Opposition" (Docket #55) as untimely and filed pursuant to a void order; (3) issue a peremptory writ of mandamus requiring Defendants to produce requested records within 48 hours; and (4) award attorney's fees and costs pursuant to § 119.12, Florida Statutes.

On February 24, 2026, the Court entered an Order deeming issue number one moot and directing the parties to provide dates of unavailability to coordinate a date for hearing on the remaining three issues. The Court heard oral arguments from the parties on March 11, 2026. Upon review of the record, the applicable law, and the arguments presented, the Court finds the following:

1. Plaintiff seeks to strike Defendant's February 2, 2026 "Response in Opposition" (Docket #55) as untimely and filed pursuant to a void order. However, on March 4, 2026, Defendants filed a Response to Amended Petition for Writ of Mandamus and Incorporated Memorandum of Law as per the Alternative Writ in Mandamus Entered on February 17, 2026" (Docket #65). This response supersedes the February 2, 2026 "Response in Opposition." Plaintiff's motion and argument cite no legal basis upon which the Court could appropriately grant the requested relief. Accordingly, Plaintiff's request to strike Defendant's February 2, 2026 "Response in Opposition" (Docket #55) is DENIED.

2. Plaintiff next requests issuance of a peremptory writ of mandamus compelling Defendants to produce the requested records within 48 hours. The Court has adhered to the procedural requirements for extraordinary remedies by issuing an alternative writ of mandamus and ordering a response. During the hearing Plaintiff explained that he was not aware that such a writ had issued already from this Court. The Plaintiff's motion and arguments do not provide any legal exception under which the Court could move forward in the manner envisioned by Plaintiff. Since Plaintiff has not demonstrated a legal basis for the Court to deviate from the requirements established under Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.630, the request for a peremptory writ of mandamus is DENIED.

3. Finally, Plaintiff seeks an award of attorney's fees and costs pursuant to § 119.12, Florida Statutes. This action remains ongoing. The Court has not yet entered a final judgment determining whether any party is entitled to relief on the merits. An award of attorney's fees and costs under § 119.12, Florida Statutes, is premature. The Court reserves ruling on this issue and Plaintiff's rights to seek such relief at the appropriate time following resolution of the case remain intact.
