

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA
CIVIL DIVISION

CHRISTOPHER HANSON, individually and as attorney for himself and attorney/
next friend for his minor children,

Plaintiffs/Petitioners,

v.

Case No.: 25-CA-010255
Division: B

THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, et al.

Defendants/Respondents.

HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY CCC
MAY 12 2026 AM 7:41

ORDER

1. In an order dated April 18, 2026, the parties were ordered to submit by email all dates between May 18, 2026, to June 19, 2026, on which they are available for a final evidentiary hearing. To date, Plaintiff has not complied with that directive. Instead, in an email dated April 29, 2026, Plaintiff stated that he would not provide dates of availability until the Court clarified the material facts in dispute. The Court rejects Plaintiff's ultimatum. It is the parties' responsibility to identify the disputed facts of any case, not the Court's. Plaintiff is therefore ORDERED to comply with the April 18, 2026, Order to provide dates of availability. Failure to comply with the Court's Order will result in the Court unilaterally setting the final evidentiary hearing.

2. On April 9, 2026, Plaintiff filed "Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Final Order Compelling Production of Public Records and Entry of Peremptory Writ of Mandamus with Incorporated Memorandum of Law." Plaintiff subsequently filed an identical motion on April 14, 2026. Although improperly titled, the motions appear to seek summary disposition under Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.510. If Plaintiff wishes to have these two motions heard in lieu of the final evidentiary hearing, Plaintiff must notify the Court and provide dates of availability. While the Court will endeavor to schedule a summary judgment hearing expeditiously, it must comply with the timing requirements of Rule 1.510, which prohibit the Court from setting a summary judgment hearing until at least 10 days after the deadline for serving a response. Defendants' response deadline is no later than 40 days after service of the motion for summary judgment.

3. Counsel and the parties are reminded that substantive arguments concerning the merits of the case, disagreement with rulings, or requests for court action are not to be communicated via email. Such arguments and communications must be addressed in court or in written motions. Email communications must be limited to scheduling matters only.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers in Clearwater, Pinellas County, Florida, this 5th day of May 2026. A true and correct copy of the foregoing has been furnished to the parties listed below.
