FAMILY LAW DIVISION

In re: the Marriage of:

SARAH HANSON,

Petitioner,

Case Number: 24-DR-001150

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,

Respondent.

WIFE’S MOTION TO STRIKE HUSBAND’S NOTICE OF HEARING ON “MOTIONS STILL PENDING RELATED TO DISCOVERY FROM JUNE 2024_
AND FOR AN AWARD OF ATTORNEY’S FEES, COSTS, AND SUIT MONEY

The Petitioner, Sarah Hanson (“Wife”), by and through the undersigned attorney, and pursuant to Fla. Fam. L. R. P. 12.140(f), files this Motion to Strike Husband’s Notice of Hearing on “Motions Still Pending Related to Discovery from June 2024” and for an Award of Attorney’s Fees, Costs, and Suit Money.” As grounds therefore, Petitioner states the following:

1. On December 19, 2024, the Court scheduled a Case Management Conference to take place on January 21, 2025, at 4:30 p.m.
2. During the Case Management Conference on December 19, 2024, the Court specifically directed that all motions filed by January 6, 2025, that have not yet been heard will be addressed at the Case Management Conference for Scheduling Purposes. On January 2, 2025, the Court’s judicial assistant sent an email to Husband and the undersigned attorney restating the Court’s directive. A copy of the email string is attached hereto as “Exhibit A.”
3. On January 16, 2025, Husband sent an email to the undersigned attorney inquiring as to whether the undersigned objected to certain motions being heard during the Case Management Conference. The undersigned responded stating “[w]ith respect to the case management conference, it is not appropriate to have your motions heard during a case management conference. Fla. Fam. L.R. P. 12.200 governs what can and cannot take place during a case management conference. A copy of the relevant email string is attached hereto as “Exhibit B.”

4. Notwithstanding the Court’s directives, on January 17, 2025, at 9:35 a.m., Husband filed his Notice of Hearing on “Motions Still Pending Related to Discovery from June 2024.”
5. As the undersigned communicated to Husband, Fla. Fam. L.R. P. 12.200 does in fact govern what can and cannot take place during a case management conference.
6. The Court did not give Husband permission to have any of his pending motions heard during the upcoming case management conference.
7. On January 16, 2025, as a courtesy, the undersigned furnished Husband links to the Florida Rules of Family Law Procedure and the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Administrative Orders.
8. Husband’s Notice of Hearing violates the “five-day ” rule set forth in Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Administrative Order S-2024-019 (13)(B); and the “piggybacking” rule set forth in Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Administrative Order S-2024-019. The undersigned previously communicated these local rules in an email to Husband dated January 8, 2025.
9. Husband is a licensed attorney who was admitted to The Florida Bar on September 28, 2007. As of the time of the filing of this motion, Husband has been licensed to practice law for 17 years, 3 months, 21 days. Despite Husband’s tenure as a licensed attorney, he has demonstrated a disregard for the Court’s directives and a disregard for the applicable administrative orders of this circuit. Husband simply does what he wants, when he wants, how he wants.

10. For the reasons set forth herein, Wife moves the Court to strike Husband's Notice of Hearing on "Motions Still Pending Related to Discovery from June 2024."
11. Wife engaged the undersigned attorney to represent her in this action and is obligated to pay attorney's fees, costs, and suit money for professional services rendered. The Premarital Agreement addresses attorney's fees incurred for the enforcement of the provisions therein and states "Should any party hereto retain counsel for the purpose of enforcing or preventing the breach of any provision of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, by instituting any action or proceeding to enforce any provision hereof, for damages by reason of any alleged breach of any provision hereof, for a declaration of such party's rights or obligations hereunder, or for any other judicial remedy, then the prevailing party shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the losing party for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred thereby, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and costs for the services rendered to such prevailing party, whether at trial, in bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings, or on appeal." The Court should award Wife her reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and suit money incurred in connection with the filing and litigation of this motion. Furthermore, Wife asserts that Husband's Notice of Hearing on "Motions Still Pending Related to Discovery from June 2024", contrary to both the Court's directive and the applicable administrative orders rises to the level of unnecessary and vexatious litigation, bad faith conduct, and an attempt by Husband to generate additional and unnecessary attorney's fees for Wife. Therefore, the Court should award Wife her attorney's fees, costs, and suit money pursuant to the Court's inherent authority. See Rosen v. Rosen, 696 So.2d 679 (Fla. 1997); Wrona v. Wrona, 592 So.2d 694 (Fla. 2d DCA 1991); Young v. Hector, 884 So.2d 1025 Fla. 3d DCA 2004);

Sutter v. Sutter; 578 So.2d 788 (Fla. 4th DCA 1991); Moakley v. Smallwood; 826 So.2d 221 (Fla. 2002); Dralus v. Dralus, 627 627 So.2d 505 (Fla. 2d DCA 1993).

WHEREFORE, Wife, Sarah Hanson, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage awarding Wife the following relief:

- A. Strike Husband's Notice of Hearing on "Motions Still Pending Related to Discovery from June 2024";
- B. Award Wife her reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and suit money;
- C. Award Wife any other relief requested herein; and
- D. Granting all such other and further relief as the Court may seem proper under the circumstances.

Happy new year, Ms. Heyward. Judge Ayers wants me to have the motions I currently need heard by 1-6-25.

Happy New Year to you all. All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes.

I really need answers to these couple questions in order to make a determination on precisely what I need to file.

Please let me know if I can get answers to the couple questions raised below on the motion to withdraw and whether Judge Ayers had the chance to review the Motion for Clarification before issuing the order on the subpoenas.

The Motion for Clarification is a pending motion that was filed before 1-6-25, so it will be addressed on 1-21-25. Please know that we do not receive copies of any filings other than emergency filings. We do have certain reports that are generated with respect to certain types of filings that Judge Ayers does review on a regular basis. Accordingly, Judge Ayers would only review a filing if it is provided to me or when she is preparing for a hearing. And, unless there is a particular need (i.e., emergency motions or expedited motions) filings are not forwarded to me.

If I don't hear back before the weekend, please let Judge Ayers know that it will be impossible for me to get all motions/responses before the 1-6-25 hearing.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

I've asked Ms. Hodz for the motion to compel draft that was prepared by my attorneys several times and I'm still waiting on that. If I don't get that before the weekend, that would also make it impossible for me to get everything filed.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

And on Mr. Davis's motion to appoint a guardian ad litem, I do not see where I was served or ever provided with that document despite requesting from Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis multiple times.

You may bring this matter up with Judge Ayers on 1-21-25.

I'm hoping the Court can assist on those couple things as well, or there will be more to file after 1-6-25.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. This does not prohibit further filings in this case, but any filings filed after 1-6-25, will not be addressed on 1-21-15, but rather will be addressed at a later date.

Thank you

Ok. On the form you initially attached, it says the motion for rehearing was granted and the motion to withdraw would be heard at the motion hearing. That was a mistake but your last email was accurate?

And please let me know about whether the Judge had a chance to review the motion for clarification on the chase subpoenas. It does not appear that any of my arguments were addressed.

Mr. Hanson,

I am not going to take the additional time address the issues that I previously addressed.

I do object to you scheduling any motion for hearing during the upcoming case management conference. Judge Ayers was crystal clear when she told us that during the case management conference, she will schedule for hearing any motions that were filed by the deadline earlier this month.

As to mediation, if I recall correctly, at some juncture, you sent an email suggesting that perhaps we should mediate after the depositions. I am fine with that. If you prefer to mediate prior to the depositions, that is fine also. The bottom line is that I have no preference as to when we mediate. Outside of clearing with my and Ms. Hanson's availability, you can decide. If you would like to mediate after the depositions, please procure dates and I will gladly coordinate with you.

This is my last email to you today unless you procure mediation dates that you would like to clear with me.

You understand it would take you far less time and you'd get far fewer emails if you simply pointed out where I'm incorrect. You're adding facts but not pointing out any that are incorrect.

You're also ignoring the fact that I strenuously objected to you not attending the hearing. you had no concerns about not attending a hearing where the opposing party insisted on your attendance and you were a focal point of the hearing, without permission. That alone is quite concerning.

You didn't answer my question on any objection to hearing the completely separate issues on the discovery outstanding since June.

I told you I found the records for my MD that were mailed to me and offered to drop them off. Do you want me to do that?

And what about the mediation. The court instructed us to set. I've responded to you and the mediator a couple times. Were we excused from setting a mediation or do you just know we're excused from that too??

Mr. Hanson,

I previously addressed this issue with you. Once again, your assumptions are incorrect, and this is yet another email wasting time. The fact that you apparently did not like my answer does not change anything.

I made the decision that it was not necessary for Ms. Hanson or me to attend the hearing. How did I know this? I knew this because the hearing had to do with issues between you and Ms. Hodz; and my experience from 27 years of practicing law told me that it was not necessary to attend. Nobody "made [me] aware that I did not have to attend," I did not receive "confirmation that [I] didn't have to attend," and I absolutely do not have a special relationship with Judge Ayers or her judicial assistant.

Additionally, with respect to the hearing on Ms. Hodz's motion to withdraw on December 13, 2024, Ms. Hanson and I were not required to attend that hearing either. I usually do not attend hearings on a motion to withdraw filed by opposing counsel. I made the decision to attend this hearing to make sure you did not attempt to address issues with the Court that were not scheduled for hearing.

It appears that your continuous unnecessary emails are not going to stop unless or until I file a motion for attorney's fees for the unnecessary litigation tactics.

With respect to the case management conference, it is not appropriate to have your motions heard during a case management conference. Fla. Fam. L.R. P. 12.200 governs what can and cannot take place during a case management conference.

If you are going to continue to represent yourself pro se, I recommend that you review the local administrative orders for family law cases and the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure. As a courtesy, I am providing links below for your reference.

Mr. Davis. I took the Court off of the email. So you can respond to just me.

I don't understand how any of your emails explain how you knew that you didn't have to attend the hearing last week.

It seems that it's either, A. You were made aware that you didn't have to attend somehow, or

B. Your relationship is such with the Court that even though you attended with your client on the exact same issue at the previous hearing on the subject, you knew that you didn't have to attend just by sending an email the day before the hearing, telling the Court you weren't attending and saying let me know if you want me to attend the hearing I was noticed for, where my conduct is at the core of the issue, and the opposing party has made it clear that he expects me to attend.

Please advise which it is or where I'm mistaken with the dichotomy presented above.

It's critical to how I'm going to proceed next, so please let me know as soon as you can.

And are you objecting to hearing the motions that relate back to my August motions at the hearing on Monday?

Did you get confirmation you didn't have to attend?

I don't see where your email addresses the question of, why you attended the hearing on Mrs Hodz initial motion to withdraw, but not this hearing on the very same topic?

Here's your answer from 11:18...

There were no ex-parte communications. I knew it was not necessary for Ms. Hanson or me to attend yesterday's hearing because it pertained to the order granting the motion for Ms. Hodz to withdraw from your case. I did not wish to waste your wife's money by attending a hearing that was not pertinent to her case. This is why I sent an email to Ms. Heyward on Wednesday advising that we did not intend to attend the hearing; but stating that if Judge Ayers wanted to attend, Ms. Heyward could respond to my email instructing us to attend. Once again, you are making incorrect and inaccurate assumptions. Respectfully, your request for our attendance did not necessitate our attendance.

Please just underline for me where you address that question on attending one hearing but not the other.

Also, I believe you were noticed for the hearing that occurred yesterday. Were you ever excused by the Court from attending the hearing yesterday other than you telling the Court you didn't want to attend?

Please clarify those couple issues for me as I have a concern about the way the hearing progressed yesterday and need to file something for appellate purposes.

You file a barrage of factually absurd motions in as my attorney is withdrawing over my objection.

And you expect me to go hearings on the children's welfare in 39 days?

Mr. Davis's tactics are central to the issues for tomorrow's hearing and he's hidden from scrutiny long enough.

I truly hope there is some accountability tomorrow.

Hi Ms. Heyward, as I mentioned in an email to Mr. Davis yesterday and to you and Mr. Davis today, I'm drafting something requesting alternative relief, specifically, pushing back the hearings on the guardian ad litem and psych issues.

I request that Mr. Davis and Ms. Hanson attend so that we can get that issue addressed.

Dear Ms. Heyward,

I am writing to inform the Court that because the only issue being heard tomorrow at 1:30 p.m., is Mr. Hanson's Motion for Rehearing on Order Granting Ms. Hodz Withdraw, Ms. Hanson and I do not plan on attending the hearing as we do not have an interest or position regarding this issue. If Judge Ayers prefers that Ms. Hanson and I attend, please let me know.

Thank you very much for your time and assistance.

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.

Hello Dwauna – Can you please clarify for me what is being heard on 1/9/2025 at 1:30 pm? It's unclear to me from the emails below. I want to be sure Ms. Hodz attends if necessary. Thank you as always.

Jennifer

Please see responses in BOLD

Happy new year, Ms. Heyward. Judge Ayers wants me to have the motions I currently need heard by 1-6-25.

Happy New Year to you all. All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes.

I really need answers to these couple questions in order to make a determination on precisely what I need to file.

Please let me know if I can get answers to the couple questions raised below on the motion to withdraw and whether Judge Ayers had the chance to review the Motion for Clarification before issuing the order on the subpoenas.

The Motion for Clarification is a pending motion that was filed before 1-6-25, so it will be addressed on 1-21-25. Please know that we do not receive copies of any filings other than emergency filings. We do have certain reports that are generated with respect to certain types of filings that Judge Ayers does review on a regular basis. Accordingly, Judge Ayers would only review a filing if it is provided to me or when she is preparing for a hearing. And, unless there is a particular need (i.e., emergency motions or expedited motions) filings are not forwarded to me.

If I don't hear back before the weekend, please let Judge Ayers know that it will be impossible for me to get all motions/responses before the 1-6-25 hearing.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

I've asked Ms. Hodz for the motion to compel draft that was prepared by my attorneys several times and I'm still waiting on that. If I don't get that before the weekend, that would also make it impossible for me to get everything filed.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

And on Mr. Davis's motion to appoint a guardian ad litem, I do not see where I was served or ever provided with that document despite requesting from Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis multiple times.

You may bring this matter up with Judge Ayers on 1-21-25.

I'm hoping the Court can assist on those couple things as well, or there will be more to file after 1-6-25.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. This does not prohibit further filings in this case, but any filings filed after 1-6-25, will not be addressed on 1-21-

15, but rather will be addressed at a later date.

Thank you

Ok. On the form you initially attached, it says the motion for rehearing was granted and the motion to withdraw would be heard at the motion hearing. That was a mistake but your last email was accurate?

And please let me know about whether the Judge had a chance to review the motion for clarification on the chase subpoenas. It does not appear that any of my arguments were addressed.

So Ms Hodges is my attorney again in the interim?
Can you please let me know if she will be advised of this?
