

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, STATE OF FLORIDA FAMILY LAW DIVISION

In re: the Marriage of:

SARAH HANSON,

Petitioner,

Case Number: 24-DR-001150

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,

Respondent.

_____ /

PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF ORDER REQUIRING ALL DEPOSITONS TO BE CONDUCTED VIA COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY

The Petitioner, Sarah Hanson (“Wife”), by and through the undersigned attorney, and pursuant to Fla. Fam. L. R. P. 12.310, files this Motion for Entry of Order Requiring all Depositions to be Conducted via Communication Technology. As grounds therefore, Wife states the following:

1. Pending before the Court is an action for dissolution of marriage with minor children and for other related relief.
2. The parties to this action are Petitioner, Sarah Hanson (“Wife”) and Respondent, Christopher Hanson (“Husband”), collectively, (the “Parties”).
3. Husband presently represents himself pro se.
4. Both Parties intend to take depositions in this matter.
5. Husband has engaged in unusual, harassing, and sometimes inappropriate conduct in this matter. Most recently, Husband has falsely accused the undersigned attorney of threatening him with a “bat.” Despite the undersigned attorney clarifying his innocuous statement, as recently as February 10, 2025, the date of the filing of this motion, Husband continues to incorrectly claim that the undersigned attorney threatened him.
6. Additionally, Husband filed a pleading with the Court wherein he admitted that he has both severe mental conditions and psychiatric issues. More specifically, on May 16, 2024, Husband filed a Response to Motion to Compel Payments and Motion to Compel Evidence of Marital Assets and Financial Information [DIN 22] wherein Husband stated:

- a. Husband has “severe mental, physical, and emotional conditions...” (§ 21).
- b. Husband “is undergoing invasive treatments both for physical and psychiatric issues...” (§ 22).
- c. Husband “will soon start daily (5 days per week) TMS treatments that will increase the time and cost of necessary medical care.” (§ 22).

7. On February 10, 2025, the undersigned attorney sent Husband an email inquiring as to whether Husband would consent to taking depositions via Zoom Videoconferencing. On February 10, 2025, Husband responded as follows:

At least for a witness that's not your client, you, as the one responsible for the threat, should be the one appearing by zoom. Even with your client, it amounts to moral hazard if I'm not able to attend the depositions. In every case, one could just threaten the other attorney into having to appear by phone if your view of the law is correct. Like so many things in the case, it will take some research. Obviously in light of the history here, I have concerns about whether you and Mrs. Hanson would follow the ethical rules as well.

A copy of the email string is attached hereto as “Exhibit A.”

8. For the reasons set forth herein, neither Wife nor the undersigned attorney are comfortable participating in “in-person” depositions with Husband.
9. Fla. Fam. L. R. P. 12.310 (7) states in relevant part as follows:

A deposition may be taken by communication technology, as that term is defined in Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.530, if stipulated by the parties or if ordered by the court on its own motion or on motion of a party. A court official must determine whether good cause exists before authorizing the use of communication technology for the taking of a deposition, but a motion filed under this subdivision shall not require a hearing. The order may prescribe the manner in which the deposition will be taken. (Emphasis added).

10. Attending depositions via Zoom Videoconferencing does not impair Husband's ability to examine witnesses or show exhibits to witnesses. Accordingly, no prejudice exists to Husband if the Court enters an Order requiring that depositions transpire via Zoom Videoconferencing.
11. For the reasons set forth herein, good cause exists for the Court to enter an Order requiring that all depositions in this matter transpire via communication technology, specifically Zoom Videoconferencing.
12. Wife engaged the undersigned attorney to represent her in this action and is obligated to pay attorney's fees, costs, and suit money for professional services rendered. The Premarital Agreement addresses attorney's fees incurred for the enforcement of the provisions therein and states "Should any party hereto retain counsel for the purpose of enforcing or preventing the breach of any provision of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, by instituting any action or proceeding to enforce any provision hereof, for damages by reason of any alleged breach of any provision hereof, for a declaration of such party's rights or obligations hereunder, or for any other judicial remedy, then the prevailing party shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the losing party for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred thereby, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and costs for the services rendered to such prevailing party, whether at trial, in bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings, or on appeal." The Court should award Wife her reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and suit money incurred in connection with the filing and litigation of this motion. Furthermore, Wife asserts that Husband's refusal to agree to conduct depositions via Zoom Videoconferencing rises to the level of unnecessary and vexatious litigation, bad faith conduct, and an attempt by Husband to generate additional and unnecessary attorney's fees for Wife. Therefore, the Court should award Wife her attorney's fees, costs, and suit money pursuant to the Court's inherent authority. See Rosen v. Rosen, 696 So.2d 679 (Fla. 1997); Wrona v. Wrona, 592 So.2d 694 (Fla. 2d DCA 1991); Young v. Hector, 884 So.2d 1025 Fla. 3d DCA 2004); Sutter v. Sutter; 578 So.2d 788 (Fla. 4th DCA 1991); Moakley v. Smallwood; 826 So.2d 221 (Fla. 2002); Dralus v. Dralus, 627 627 So.2d 505 (Fla. 2d DCA 1993).

WHEREFORE, Wife, Sarah Hanson, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter a Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage awarding Wife the following relief:

- A. Enter an Order on this motion without the necessity of a hearing as permitted by Fla. Fam. L. R. P. 12.310 (7);
- B. Enter an Order requiring that all depositions in this matter transpire via communication technology, specifically Zoom Videoconferencing.
- C. Award Wife any other relief requested herein; and
- D. Award Wife her reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and suit money incurred in connection with this motion; and
- E. Granting all such other and further relief as the Court may seem proper under the circumstances.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Scott Paul Davis

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.
Fla. Bar No. 0115540
scott@davislawtampa.com
service@davislawtampa.com
TAMPA BAY FAMILY LAW & MEDIATION, P.A.
P.O. Box 118667
Tampa, FL 33679
(813) 251-6222 (telephone)
Counsel for Wife

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that, on February 10, 2025, a true and correct copy of the foregoing was served via the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal on Husband, Christopher Hanson.

/s/ Scott Paul Davis

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.

Exhibit A

Subject: Re: Hanson v. Hanson - Husband request to hear Emergency Motion filed 1-
Date: Monday, February 10, 2025 at 1:26:06 PM Eastern Standard Time
From: cahanson77@yahoo.com
To: Scott Davis

At least for a witness that's not your client, you, as the one responsible for the threat, should be the one appearing by zoom. Even with your client, it amounts to moral hazard if I'm not able to attend the depositions. In every case, one could just threaten the other attorney into having to appear by phone if your view of the law is correct. Like so many things in the case, it will take some research. Obviously in light of the history here, I have concerns about whether you and Mrs. Hanson would follow the ethical rules as well.

I will look into the law on the attorney issuing a threat issue and the cost for a videographer, and let you know what I determine. For now, please make sure that your witnesses are prepared to attend live while I continue to gather information.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Chris

On Monday, February 10, 2025 at 12:59:42 PM EST, Scott Davis <scott@davislawtampa.com> wrote:

Mr. Hanson,

In light of your email below, I assume you will consent to your depositions taking place via zoom.

Very respectfully,

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.
Board Certified in Marital & Family Law
Tampa Bay Family Law & Mediation, P.A.

P.O. Box 18667
Tampa, FL 33679
Tel. (813) 251-6222
davislawtampa.com

A/V Preeminent Rated by Martindale Hubbell
Florida's Super Lawyers - 2018 - 2024

On Feb 10, 2025, at 12:45, cahanson77@yahoo.com wrote:

Hi Ms. Heyward. I need to hear docket 98 tomorrow - an emergency motion that deals with child welfare issues and intentional tactics from Petitioner directly against their welfare. One of the issues in docket #98, emergency motion, is a request to push back the hearings set for April 3.

Docket 110- could be heard this week or April 3.

Other motions that are in draft form but will be filed as soon as I can complete them include:

Motion to transfer venue.

Motion for sanctions under FS 57.105.

Motion to Void Post Marital Agreement, based on fraud, duress, and/or estoppel.

Motion to dismiss sham pleadings,

And there may be more. Due process has been the overwhelming concern ever since I was suddenly put in this position on 12-13. I hope some become unnecessary or at least the necessary ones become less daunting after the hearing on Wednesday.

Another issue that came up late on Friday is documented in the attached email exchange that I will efile as well. I understand you may not be able to review it. However, I wanted to make you and Judge Ayers aware of it, as I find it to be a very concerning continuation of ethical violations and dirty litigation tactics, that continue to go unchecked. I'm looking into whether I have grounds to request appearance by zoom due to the antagonistic and threatening comments and behavior from Mr. Davis especially in light of what's occurred at the various hearings where I've tried to explain Mr. Davis's conduct.

In the attached, the Court will see where Mr. Davis responds to a rhetorical, metaphorical statement from myself where he not only repeats the entire idiom from my email, but he adds a couple of words that were not referenced in my email - "a bat." I know Mr. Davis is actively taking several actions that are objectively detrimental to my children's well being so it is a concern that he's now bringing weapons into serious and heated conversations. I've spoken with Tampa police about this and I'm waiting to hear back from HCSO and that may have an impact on whether I file a motion.

As far as the school issue, that doesn't help me with the witnesses from the school. I heard back from Mr. Davis, and they literally inexplicably object to the children's teachers (whom Sarah and I both deeply respect) filling out child welfare forms in advance of the GAL consideration. This needs to get addressed. I suppose I'll have to work on yet another emergency motion in light of that content.

However, I do want to call Mr. Davis and Mrs. Hanson as witnesses at the hearing this week. Do I or does Mr. Davis need to change the notice or do anything else to reflect this change and that mentioned above on documents?

I apologize that the email seems long but this is the best way I can answer your couple of questions and alert you to the development Friday mentioned above. Please let me know if you require any additional information.

Chris

On Monday, February 10, 2025 at 11:39:31 AM EST, Heyward,Dwauna <taylordl@fljud13.org> wrote:

Good morning.

On 2/12/25 the following motions will be heard:

P's M to Compel (67);

R's Discovery Motion - MD (84);

R's Motion for Clarification - Subpoenas/Discovery (91);

P's Objection - 2nd R to P (104)

Each party will have 30 minutes to argue their motions and defend the other party motions. Judge Ayers has a 1.5 day trial promptly beginning at 1:30 pm on 2/12/25

On 4/3/25 the following motions will be heard:

1:30 pm – 2:30 pm - P's GAL Motion (69); Psych Exam (77)

2:30 pm – 3:30 pm - P's Motion for Temp Relief (96)

3:30 pm – 4:30 pm - Wife's Motion for Vocational Evaluation of Husband (114)

Please respond with a list of the filing(s) you want to be heard. I am not permitted to read all the back and forth.

With respect to the schooling emails, you may call any witnesses you want to appear at the hearing and testify. Witnesses are permitted to appear via ZOOM. All parties must attend all hearings in this matter IN PERSON.

Thank you

From: cahanson77@yahoo.com <cahanson77@yahoo.com>
Sent: Friday, February 7, 2025 4:08 PM
To: Scott Davis <scott@davislawtampa.com>; Sarah Hanson <sahanson@aainsco.com>; Heyward,Dwauna <taylordl@fljud13.org>
Subject: Hanson v. Hanson - Husband request to hear Emergency Motion filed 1-

Warning: This is an external email and has a suspicious subject or content. Please take care when clicking links or opening attachments. When in doubt, contact the Helpdesk.

Hi Ms. Heyward. I'm hoping that you can help with this scheduling dispute. During the last hearing, Judge Ayers advised me to let Mr. Davis know if he missed any of the motions to be heard. I communicated that to him below, and you'll see he does not agree. The one filing, docket #98, is an emergency motion that even on 2-12 will be a month after filing it. It also characterizes the motion for clarification at docket #91 (which we are set to hear) as a motion for rehearing. The Judge entered the order after I filed the motion for clarification, and I want the JUdge to be able to call it a motion for rehearing or clarification. I can't understand what Mr. Davis's objection to that would be.

Also, Docket #110 relates to the emergency, but maybe that needs to be April? I'm hoping to at least get the emergency motion heard. please let me know on that, and is there anything the Judge needs in advance to make this an evidentiary hearing on 2-12?

The other even more urgent issue is that I need the Judge to order the children's school to complete child welfare forms. I've sent all this information to Mr. Davis. I'm hoping that the children's welfare is a top concern for them too, although he hasn't responded to me on that. We'd all be better served with more information on how the kids are doing so I'm hoping the Court will expedite this process of getting assessments on the kids. I may have to work on another emergency motion this weekend if Mr. Davis does not confirm agreement and the COurt will not assist.

I've attached the email from the school advising that they will not do it without an order. If you and the Judge can't help expedite it, I'd greatly appreciate it. Bringing the children into this was completely unnecessary and perhaps this will rectify that part of it. Thank you.

----- Forwarded Message -----

From: Scott Davis <scott@davislawtampa.com>

To: cahanson77@yahoo.com <cahanson77@yahoo.com>

Cc: Sarah Hanson <sahanson@aainsco.com>

Sent: Friday, February 7, 2025 at 11:08:37 AM EST

Subject: Re: Hanson v. Hanson - Husband's Transcript Inquiry

Mr. Hanson,

The court scheduled the motions that were filed by the court's deadline (1/6/25 if I recall correctly). I do not agree for additional motions to be added to the hearing next week. There is plenty already scheduled for the hour, especially given your propensity to regularly go far off track of the issues, and to repeat yourself. If you don't like my position, you can certainly raise the issue with the Court. I will do whatever the Court directs.

With respect to the second paragraph of your email, I am not "sending over any documentation" for two reasons. The first, is because I do not owe you any explanations or answers unless I am required to do so. We do not have "to be on the same page." I do not understand why you cannot understand this concept. The second reason is that if you can't review your own email history and understand what I am referring to, I simply can't help you. With respect, your inability to grasp reality in this matter is precisely one of the reasons I believe the Court should grant Wife's Motion for Psychological Evaluation of Husband.

Have a nice weekend.

Very respectfully,

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.

Board Certified in Marital & Family Law

Tampa Bay Family Law & Mediation, P.A.

P.O. Box 18667

Tampa, FL 33679

Tel. (813) 251-6222

A/V Preeminent Rated by Martindale Hubbell

Florida's Super Lawyers - 2018 - 2024

On Feb 7, 2025, at 08:52, cahanson77@yahoo.com wrote:

Good morning. I saw the amended notice, but you did not include the motions I described below that I need included. I was under the impression the Judge told me to advise you of other motions that I wanted to hear to include on 1 notice. Are you refusing to do that?

And please send over that documentation. There's at least a couple of times where you've thrown out allegations, 1) about me saying the kids were doing poorly, and 2) below about my "documented history..." Please send that over so we can get on the same page with some of these things. If you were mistaken, please simply acknowledge it so I know that you understand the facts.

Thank you.

Chris

On Tuesday, February 4, 2025 at 01:21:52 PM EST, cahanson77@yahoo.com <cahanson77@yahoo.com> wrote:

I was hoping I'd be able to get you a couple more motions before going to pick up the kids today. Unfortunately, new issues I have to research keep popping up.

I did want to get back to you on this and there is also the issue of updating the notices as the Judge discussed, and new dates for the depositions.

On the scheduling issue, once again, I don't believe what you're saying is true. Your assertion was:

"You have a documented history of attempting to delay this case by severely overstating the amount of time you need to prepare for a hearing or deposition."

Please point me to what you have to support that. When did that happen and what did I request vs. what was needed to prepare? I'm aware that I asked to reset on 1 occasion. YOU quickly agreed without protest. In the period just before the depositions were to take place, I had to file a motion on disqualifying a Judge and due process issues, things I literally never did while practicing law that took many hours of work. It was completely unanticipated at the time we set the depositions, and you'll have to tell me what examples you believe are in my "documented history." I'm glad it's "documented" so it should be easy for you to send over for me to evaluate.

In any event, please provide dates in the latter part of March so we can get the depositions on the calendar. I need to do the depositions separate days so please provide dates with an indication on which witness will be available on each day.

Also,

I see you are going to do an amended notice on the 2-12 hearing. That's good timing. Please also include my "emergency motion" at Docket #99 and to the extent necessary, Docket #110 (on rehearing) in case Judge Ayers wants to hear the Motion for clarification as a Motion for rehearing instead. I filed the motion for clarification before the Judge entered the order, but she did not see it or consider it. Same issues - just a question of whether she calls it a motion for rehearing or motion for clarification. I believe the motion for clarification is on there.

As far as the hearing set for April where your motion for temporary relief will be heard, I need my motion for temporary relief heard at that same time. It's in the same document as my response to your motion.

Please let me know if you have any objections to making these corrections to the Notice or if you have any questions on this. Thank you.

Chris Hanson

On Friday, January 31, 2025 at 06:18:06 PM EST, Scott Davis <scott@davislawtampa.com> wrote:

You tell me when you're able to actually commit to taking the depositions without a "probably," and I will gladly clear a date. You have a documented history of attempting to delay this case by severely overstating the amount of time you need to prepare for a hearing or deposition.

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.

Marital & Family Law and Criminal Defense Matters

Florida Bar Board Certified Specialist in Marital & Family Law

Tampa Bay Family Law & Mediation, P.A.

P.O. Box 18667

Tampa, FL 33679

scott@davislawtampa.com

Exhibit

(813) 251-6222

Recognized by Best Lawyers (2018 - 2024)

Florida Super Lawyers (2018 - 2024)

Rated A/V Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell

Online Scheduling Link: calendly.com/TampaBayFamilyLaw

Notice: Please copy service@davislawtampa.com on all pleadings, scheduling requests, or inquiries.

From: cahanson77@yahoo.com <cahanson77@yahoo.com>
Date: Friday, January 31, 2025 at 6:03 PM
To: Scott Davis <scott@davislawtampa.com>
Cc: Sarah Hanson <sahanson@aainsco.com>
Subject: Re: Hanson v. Hanson - Husband's Transcript Inquiry

In case it's not clear already, I'll review here:

In a contentious divorce case with 2 young children, you're seeking to disrupt their childhood with state intervention, but:

1) you are unable to name a single thing about either kid that's not perfect or ideal, AND

2) You can't name a single complaint about me as Husband and my parenting of the children.

Under these facts, you've challenged a long understood compromise between Mrs. Hanson and myself that allowed the children to thrive those years. Yet, your intentional conduct, that still has only one explanation/motive attempts to destroy that protection and introduce absurdly unnecessary conflict into their lives.

The truth is the truth. Your response and inability to answer such critically important obvious questions is quite probative in these facts.

And as far as that case you sent me - Fullerton - seems like this fact was pretty important there: "Here, the parties' Antenuptial Agreement provided that neither party had a duty to disclose financial information. Without first examining the validity of that agreement per the Wife's motion and request at the hearing, the trial court authorized full financial disclosure and denied the Wife's request for protective order."

That's completely different from the facts of our case or is that or similar language somewhere in the PMA?

I do need to get Sarah and Dan Sorgie's depositions on the calendar. I'm drafting 4 lengthy documents as it is still related to due process and discovery issues. It will probably be mid March before I can devote sufficient time to prep for it. Please let me know what you have available around that time.

And bully you?? How is telling you the truth and asking for the truth from you, "bullying you??" Where did I do anything other than that? Given your conduct in this case and disregard for ethical rules and my family's well being, I'm being quite cordial and understanding with you. We'll have plenty of time to sort out these facts in separate proceedings and appeals so, while I'd like to make decisions on these surgeries and move on with my life, you and Mrs. Hanson are putting concealment above any other consideration.

Please point to where I "bullied" you so I can apologize if I did in fact "bully" you. I do not like bullies. I take that as a serious accusation and don't believe I did anything of the sort unless one accepts that "the truth is mean" and shouldn't be said to someone that wants to hide it. I don't accept that. Have a good weekend.

Chris

On Friday, January 31, 2025 at 05:39:49 PM EST, Scott Davis
<scott@davislawtampa.com> wrote:

Mr. Hanson ,

I thought it productive when you took a step forward this afternoon, but you took one right back by reinstating your personal attacks and talking about my "antics." Perhaps you just can't help yourself. I am a grown man and I can take anything you try to throw at me. I will not withdraw from representing Ms. Hanson because you think you can bully me. You cannot.

The Court can decide all the issues since it's your way or nothing at all. I always think it's better when parties can reach an amicable resolution and I settle most of my cases; however, I'm happy to litigate if need be. I'll see you in court next month.

Enjoy your weekend.

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.
Board Certified in Marital & Family Law
Tampa Bay Family Law & Mediation, P.A.

P.O. Box 18667
Tampa, FL 33679
Tel. (813) 251-6222
davislawtampa.com

A/V Preeminent Rated by Martindale Hubbell
Florida's Super Lawyers - 2018 - 2024

On Jan 31, 2025, at 17:18, cahanson77@yahoo.com wrote:

Good evening -

I appreciate the more cordial and cooperative tone. hopefully this is a turning point and you can minimize any damage already done to my family. First, we need to at least understand each other's position, and I do not see any explanation for your antics besides the obvious one I've pointed out many times. Everything in this long and growing pattern demonstrates your and Mrs. Hanson's efforts to delay, conceal, and attack Husband to push him off his discovery efforts.

I get that you're telling me that's not actually what's been happening? I need to be able to follow what you are saying if you want me to go along with you. Right now, I can't possibly agree with a guardian ad litem. In fact, I think it's the worst idea imaginable for my beautiful children that are thriving in every way. To bring them into this disgusting situation in the manner that you and Mrs. Hanson have is deeply concerning to me based on my information and understanding, but I'm certainly willing to listen and be wrong if the evidence supports it.

This email is yet another effort to get some clear answers from your side to very simple, straightforward and obvious questions. You'll see my responses to various parts of your email below in red text next to the comments they address. I've asked some critically important questions in hopes you will answer in good faith so I can understand where you are coming from.

Hopefully you keep in mind the pertinent facts in considering these questions including - you stipulating to produce documents by 6-28-24, and doing nothing for 4 months, strategic trickle of documents, not even certifying close to what's required on MD's etc. As you know, the list goes on and on - with everything fitting that pattern of Wife delaying, concealing, and counterattacking to avoid discovery. For example, it would be so easy for you and Mrs. Hanson to properly certify no interests in other accounts during the relevant periods required by the mandatory disclosure rule. Why not do that to show good faith?

It seems your position is that there's another explanation for the lawfare? In other words, there's got to be some motive for these changes in Mrs. Hanson's positions and aggressive actions from you, right? You wouldn't do it just for fun and you're saying it's not because of the obvious reason - my discovery pursuits. Help me understand what your reason is please so I may consider your request.

I do hope that you'll cooperate with getting me answers on this so that we may move forward the benefit of my family. My children and I have held up unbelievably well, all things considered, but you and your antics on this case to date are extremely problematic and give rise to yet another legal issue I'm forced to investigate and pursue - when all I'm trying to do is get equal discovery to what I produced as the disclosing spouse.... when the non-disclosing spouse hasn't even affirmed what's required for mandatory disclosures. If you and Mrs. Hanson insist, we will go down the fraud path, although, again, I want to remind you and Mrs. Hanson that I did everything I could to resolve this more efficiently for all.

I still don't understand how you expect there to be a better time to come clean. I'm working on the motion to void the Post marital agreement (pre marital is irrelevant) for misrepresentation, duress, and estoppel. It's going to take this very contentious case, and make it more contentious. My goal remains to get to a constructive coparenting relationship but I can't see how you could expect that to ever happen without obtaining this discovery.

Please consider coming clean and producing the records to get this back on track. At least answer the questions below or I'll have to assume there are no good answers, and the obvious explanation is the correct one.

Also, the notices of hearing that you filed miss at least one hearing that I need noticed. The Judge asked me to get with you on that. I have a couple more I'm preparing that I think are more appropriate for the hearing in February, but perhaps we can work that out after you provide me with some understanding of a basis for all this litigation against me as a parent (when I'm doing fantastic at it) and my kids (when they're the best 5 and 7 year olds on the planet) other than Mrs. Hanson is continuing in her attempts to conceal what is now a painfully obvious fraud? I will not stop making these arguments and I'm confident some state or Federal Judge will do the right thing. I've made the facts very obvious and easy to see. Thank you and I look forward to hearing from you.

Chris

On Friday, January 31, 2025 at 02:36:42 PM EST, Scott Davis
<scott@davislawtampa.com> wrote:

Mr. Hanson,

Thank you for your email. I respectfully believe, especially in light of the Court's prior order related to the Notices of Production from Non-Parties, that no additional discovery is required unless, there are actual missing mandatory disclosure documents. If there are actual missing documents and you identify them, I will get them for you if they exist. As to your request for documentation outside of mandatory disclosure, I do not believe that it is necessary or appropriate unless or until the Court sets aside of one or both of the agreements. I believe that several cases control regarding this issue. Although the facts are slightly different, I think Smith-Fullerton v. Fullerton, 49 Fla. L. Weekly D2468a (5th DCA) Dec 6, 2024, provides a good overall discussion of this topic. I have provided a link to the case below as a professional courtesy.

https://scholar.google.com/scholar_case?case=6605432291964698078&q=Smith-Fullerton+v.+Fullerton+&hl=en&as_sdt=4,10

While I still contend that I do not "owe you answers" to the majority of allegations you raised, I do think it is important for you to know that Ms. Hanson's request for majority time-sharing, the appointment of a guardian ad litem, etc... is completely unrelated to the ongoing discovery dispute. - ??? This is really hard to understand. But I do want to follow to try and get on the same page. Sarah and I agreed on 50/50 custody for years, then at a time when the kids are doing great, and Sarah and I have no contact besides exchanges for kids and hearings on this discovery issue, Sarah suddenly needs to file increasingly slanderous and threatening litigation that has no basis in reality.

1. Your filings represent that the kids are not getting what's in their "best interest" right now, but you and Sarah are keeping secret what your concerns are? Why?

Everything I see and hear regarding my children is positive. I can't recall anyone ever saying anything negative about either of them, nor about my parenting. Lots of people care for them, and if there were some legitimate concern, I'm confident, I would have some idea what the basis is for your filings.

2. What is not ideal about the children's current behavior, personality and every aspect of their being? Serious question, so please answer.

3. The children were an area of agreement for years. What came up about my parenting that's a concern, that you've needed to keep secret for so long?

4. Why keep the concern a secret? I assume you and Sarah want what's in the children's best interest? Why wouldn't you try to get everyone on the same page first? At least share some basis for all this?

5. And what was with the timing with those 4 motions right as my attorney withdrew? How that fits in concerns me and raises more red flags.

At no time have I ever offered you or your prior attorneys a resolution of the time-sharing issues in exchange for a resolution of the discovery dispute, nor do I intend to do so. My attorney at the time, Vivian, told me that in order to get you to produce documents that you were under a court order to produce, I would have to discuss and compromise on the holiday schedule. Not sure if that's how you put it to her, but that's how it was put to me. My answer was, there's one concern here, which has been clear to all since day one. I'm not going to have the kids used as leverage.

6. Perhaps you can explain what happened during the phone call to put my mind at ease?

Those issues are completely unrelated. Without some other logical explanation, this is non-sensical to me.

Based upon the foregoing, is there any chance that you would agree to the appointment of a Guardian Ad Litem? Unless you have great answers for my questions above, absolutely not. I think the idea of this is cruel. Kids that are happy, thriving, love both their parents, and have largely been shielded from the truth of what's happening. And you want me to agree to bring them into this COurt process? Where people behave like you have? Perhaps your answers will change my view, but that's my current position.

It is not unusual for a court to appoint a Guardian Ad Litem to look at the facts and circumstances of the children and the parents to make a recommendation. In case you have not reviewed it, I included a link to section 61.403, Florida Statutes below. The recommendations are not binding, meaning that the Court is not legally obligated to follow any recommendation. If your children are thriving doing equal time-sharing as you have indicated, then it would seem to me that you would welcome the appointment of a Guardian Ad Litem to prove what you have said.

One issue I'm not sure if you and Sarah have considered - there are literally no concerns with the kids that any teacher or coach or parent or other human has raised during the months surrounding Mrs. Hanson's sudden changes in position on everything important in the case and the children's future. There've been no concerns raised about me. And your position is that the changes are still "completely unrelated to the discovery issue" -the one actual issue in the entire history of the case. I pray that the children continue to thrive, but if they have any problems, it will be quite easy to relate those to these lawfare efforts against my family.

Furthermore, if a Guardian Ad Litem is appointed now, they could do enough work to have an opinion regarding whether the Court should grant or deny Wife's Motion for Psychological Examination of Husband which is presently scheduled for hearing in April.

7. Is there anything that suggests the guardian ad litem is recommended for perfectly healthy, happy kids that are thriving? Seems like a waste of resources to me.

Exhibit A

Or perhaps you have evidence that the children aren't thriving. I'd love to see that information so that I may address it?

http://www.leg.state.fl.us/statutes/index.cfm?App_mode=Display_Statute&URL=0000-0099/0061/Sections/0061.403.html

Please let me know. Thank you.

Very respectfully,

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.

Marital & Family Law and Criminal Defense Matters

Florida Bar Board Certified Specialist in Marital & Family Law

Tampa Bay Family Law & Mediation, P.A.

P.O. Box 18667

Tampa, FL 33679

scott@davislawtampa.com<mailto:scott@davislawtampa.com>

(813) 251-6222

Recognized by Best Lawyers (2018 - 2024)

Florida Super Lawyers (2018 - 2024)

Rated A/V Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell

Online Scheduling Link:

calendly.com/TampaBayFamilyLaw<<http://calendly.com/TampaBayFamilyLaw>>

Notice: Please copy

service@davislawtampa.com<mailto:service@davislawtampa.com> on all pleadings, scheduling requests, or inquiries.

From: cahanson77@yahoo.com <cahanson77@yahoo.com>
Date: Friday, January 31, 2025 at 1:52 PM
To: Scott Davis <scott@davislawtampa.com>
Cc: Sarah Hanson <sahanson@aainsco.com>
Subject: Re: Hanson v. Hanson - Husband's Transcript Inquiry

Great. Thanks. Any interest in cooperating like this on other discovery issues to get this behind us?

On Friday, January 31, 2025 at 01:44:11 PM EST, Scott Davis <scott@davislawtampa.com> wrote:

Mr. Hanson,

In response to your email from 1:02 p.m. today, the court reporter from the hearing on December 13, 2024, was Carrie Snodgrass. See the email below from Reporters on Madison inquiring as to whether I wanted to order a copy of the transcript from the hearing. I did not order a copy.

Scott Paul Davis, Esq., B.C.S.

Marital & Family Law and Criminal Defense Matters

Florida Bar Board Certified Specialist in Marital & Family Law

Tampa Bay Family Law & Mediation, P.A.

P.O. Box 18667

Tampa, FL 33679

scott@davislawtampa.com <<mailto:scott@davislawtampa.com>>

(813) 251-6222

Recognized by Best Lawyers (2018 - 2024)

Florida Super Lawyers (2018 - 2024)

Rated A/V Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell

Online Scheduling Link:
calendly.com/TampaBayFamilyLaw<<http://calendly.com/TampaBayFamilyLaw>>

Notice: Please copy
service@davislawtampa.com<<mailto:service@davislawtampa.com>> on all pleadings, scheduling requests, or inquiries.

From: valerie@reportersonmadison.com <valerie@reportersonmadison.com>
Date: Tuesday, January 7, 2025 at 4:59 PM
To: Scott Davis <scott@davislawtampa.com>
Subject: Transcript Order

Good Afternoon, Scott -

The transcript of the hearing before Honorable Kelly Ayers, in the case listed below, has now been transcribed.

If you would like to order a copy, the cost will be $102.00.

Many Thanks,
Valerie

Reporters On Madison
813-237-2996

Recipients
scott@davislawtampa.com

Click Here To Acknowledge Receipt<[https://devel.repagencyworks.com/v4/confirm4.php?
c=2fc9be869b5743987126490f3cccadf5&e=scott@davislawtampa.com&t=sco tt@davislawtampa.com&i=117196&a=madison](https://devel.repagencyworks.com/v4/confirm4.php?c=2fc9be869b5743987126490f3cccadf5&e=scott@davislawtampa.com&t=scott@davislawtampa.com&i=117196&a=madison)>

Click Here To Add To Google/Outlook
Calendar<https://devel.repagencyworks.com/v4/depositions/addtocalendar.ph p?c=55d98a83dc5a3729c30d45bcbf4db4ad&t=r&i=117196&a=madison>

Case Style:

SARAH S. HANSON and CHRISTOPHER A. HANSON

Case Number:

24-DR-001150 (D)

Witness:

Hearing before Honorable Kelly Ayers

Date:

Friday, 12/13/2024, Time: 4:30 p.m. ET

Location:

Assignments:

Reporter: CARRIE SNODGRASS

Category:

HEARING

Details:

OUTSIDE ZOOM

<Email correspondence with Mr. Davis 2-7-25 threat referencing weapon.pdf>