

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA FAMILY DIVISION

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF

SARAH HANSON,
Petitioner,

Case No.: 24-DR-1150

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,
Respondent,

MOTION TO STRIKE WIFE'S MOTIONS FOR GUARDIAN AD LITEM, PSYCHOLOGICAL EVAL, VOC EVAL, AND TEMPORARY RELIEF
FOR LACK OF PROSECUTION/COMPLIANCE WITH COURT'S REQUEST FOR SUMMARY OF WIFE'S TESTIMONY.

The Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON files this pleading and corresponding material pursuant to Fla. Fam. L. R. P. 12.150 and 12.160, and in opposition to Wife's motion to appoint guardian ad litem, motion for psychological evaluation, and motion for vocational evaluation and states:

1. The parties attended a hearing on April 3, 2025 on various motions from Wife including a motions for appointment of a guardian ad litem, psychological evaluation, vocational evaluation, and for temporary relief.
2. The Court requested that Wife's Counsel provide, "a summary, IN WORD, copying Mr. Hanson, with a summary of the testimony presented by Ms. Hanson at the hearing on Friday" in an email dated April 7, 2025. (Provided below at p. 4)
3. Mr. Davis responded to the Court also on April 7, 2025 (at 10:02am) stating that he would be "happy to do that" and would need "a couple of days."
4. It is now April 15, 2025, and Wife's counsel has not produced the summary of Wife's testimony nor provided any explanation as to why not.
5. Husband is confused as to when and what the next event on the Court's calendar is, but respectfully requests the opportunity to complete the hearing from April 3, 2025 before the Court issues any ruling in favor of Wife on these issues as Husband has not presented his case nor arguments.

6. Husband has sought explanations from Mr. Davis for any basis for these motions for the past few months, with specific requests starting by November 25, 2024. (Docket #70)

7. Despite the welfare of the children purportedly at issue per Wife, no explanation was ever provided either to Husband informally nor in any Court filings.

8. Then, again, Wife's Counsel attempted trial by ambush on April 3, 2024 with Wife recounting some actual events with certain false information added or relevant facts excluded resulting in various levels of dishonesty, some extreme.

9. Husband has not yet had the opportunity to even complete the cross examination of Wife nor offer his own testimony that will offer the Court a factual description of events with appropriate context.

10. However, nothing beyond relatively minor marital spats were even alleged to have occurred during Wife's 2 hours of testimony on direct.

11. Accordingly, Wife's counsel remains hesitant to reduce the allegations to writing as there is nothing in the same universe as true that would meet Wife's burden of demonstrating cause for a guardian ad litem or the other relief sought.

12. The Court should strike the motions for the reasons outlined in Husband's previous filings at Docket # 172, 84, 145, and various other filings that demonstrate a lack of good faith in pursuing the relief.

13. For example, despite these alleged concerns, Wife has not sought to take Husband's deposition.

14. Husband has offered to assist in getting his medical records that will show excellent compliance with treatment recommendations and improvement in some important areas... if Wife and her counsel cared to actually look into the issues they're placing in conflict.

15. Regardless, the Court should enter an order striking the motions now or in the alternative giving Wife a time certain to provide the requested "summary, IN WORD, copying Mr. Hanson, with a summary of the testimony presented by Ms. Hanson at the hearing on Friday."

WHEREFORE, the Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, requests the Court enter an Order requiring:

- A. Striking the motions for appointment of a guardian ad litem, psychological evaluation, vocational evaluation, and for temporary relief,
- B. Requiring Wife to pay Husband attorney's fees and costs associated with this filing,
- C. Granting Respondent all other and further relief as this Court deems just and necessary.

Mr. Davis,

Please provide the Court with a summary, IN WORD, copying Mr. Hanson, with a summary of the testimony presented by Ms. Hanson at the hearing on Friday. The Court, is otherwise, preparing the orders with respect to same. Thank you
