

DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
SECOND DISTRICT

CASE NO. 2D2025-1936
Lower Case No.: 24 DR 1150

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,

Appellant (Respondent in underlying),

v.

SARAH HANSON,

Appellee (Petitioner in underlying).

RESPONSE TO APPELLANT'S MOTION TO SUPPLEMENTAL RECORD

COMES NOW Appellee, Sarah S. Hanson, to respectfully request this Court Deny the Motion to Supplement the Record as filed by Appellant, Christopher Hanson, and, states:

1. The sole issue before this Court is whether the trial court erred in denying transferring venue to another County.
2. Appellant's Motion to Supplemental the Record focuses on a video allegedly maintained by the Courthouse of what occurred at one of the hearings before Judge Ayers.
3. Appellant's Motion plainly states he does not have the recording as the Clerk did not release same as per its exemption from disclosure.
4. It is clearly improper for this Court to Order the video or have any involvement with the video as 1) the trial court did not consider the video in its ruling and 2) the admissibility of the video has not been ruled upon by the lower court 3) the 13th Judicial Circuit has not made an appearance in these proceedings, nor should it at this juncture.

5. Moreover, the video has no bearing whatsoever on this appeal. Judge Ayers removed herself from this ongoing litigation by granting Appellant's Motion to Disqualify. The disqualification of the judge cannot logically serve as the basis for venue transfer. The relief was the disqualification of the Judge. The relief sought was acquired and no legal basis (as set forth within the Answer Brief) exists to transfer the case.
6. Also, Appellant's supplementation of the record with Judge DePaul's basis for recusal likewise has no bearing on the issues before this Court. The basis and reason for the recusal is entirely unknown and could have been for a variety of reasons. She had no involvement in the case, never interacted with either party and it is merely an Order whereby she recused herself from the initial assignment.
7. None of the documents referenced by Appellant were referenced or considered by the trial court.
8. As the appellate court, the Second District Court of Appeal does not have jurisdiction to consider matters outside the record, not ruled upon by the trial court. It is a fundamental jurisdictional issue.

9. The Judiciary is not on trial in this divorce proceeding.

The unsupported conspiracy theories and delusions that haunt Mr. Hanson are not record and are not evidence to support a venue transfer.

10. The opinions of the Judges may be appealed, which has occurred on multiple occasions already in these proceedings although no substantive rulings have yet to even occur in the underlying proceedings.

11. The issue of whether venue may be transferred is what is directly before this Court. The Court is bound by the law and considering matters not part of the record or considered by the trial judge are well beyond the scope.

12. The undersigned does not represent the 13th Judicial Circuit and is not in a position to argue on its behalf surrounding surveillance videos or its Judges. A proper lower suit or claim needs to be brought for the Court itself to respond and address. See generally, Shaw v. Shaw, 334 So.2d 13 (Fla. 1976)

13. Appellant's Motion serves for no other purpose but further delay.

14. Appellee therefore requests denial of the subject Motion.

WHEREFORE, Appellee, Sarah S. Hanson, respectfully requests this Court deny Appellant's Motion to Supplment the record, for fees, and costs, and for any other relief this Court deems just and proper.
