Public Records Request: W016446-060426 of 6/4/2026

Record Type: General/Multiple Requests Records

Request Description: RFA No. 25-6861 (complaint re: Scott Paul Davis); follow-up to Request No. W015656-111025

Christopher Hanson:

The Florida Bar acknowledges receipt of your public record request dated June 3, 2026, and I am responding in accordance with Rule 2.420, Florida Rules of General Procedure & Judicial Administration, and applicable law. Please send all communication regarding this request to my attention.

Category 1 - The requested records relating to RFA 25-6861 have been disposed of pursuant to judicial branch and bar records retention schedule and are no longer available.

Category 2 - Rule 2.420(m)(3) and §119.07(4)(d), Florida Statutes, authorize and establish fees applicable to the production of public records for inspection or copying within the judicial branch. The Florida Bar has adopted a policy that any time spent in excess of 30 minutes constitutes "extensive labor" and will be charged. Please note that Florida law does not provide for the waiver of fees due to indigency, public interest, etc.

Your estimated invoice is as follows:

Attorney Labor - ($65.89 Per Hour): $65.89

Clerical Labor - ($23.47 Per Hour): $23.47

Category 3 - The requested records relating to RFA No. 25-6861 have been disposed of under judicial branch and bar records retention schedule. In any event, The Florida Bar has no responsibility to identify records that might support your claims. See Bivens v. Tony, 368 So. 3d 16 (Fla. 4th DCA 2023) (agencies are not required to “pore through their own records to answer specific questions”); Doe v. DeSantis, 390 So. 3d 1245 (Fla. 1st DCA 2024) (“[t]his is akin to an interrogatory seeking information, not a request to produce public records”).

Please provide a check or money order for $89.36, made payable to The Florida Bar and sent to my attention. If the actual cost for extensive labor is more than the estimate remitted, you will receive an additional invoice for the balance, which must be paid before the records will be provided. However, if the estimate is more than the actual cost, the balance will be returned to you.

If you do not reply within 30 days from the date of this letter, we will assume that you no longer wish to receive the records, and your request will be closed.

Sincerely,

Rick Courtemanche
Deputy General Counsel
