Hello Dwauna – The attached Expedited Motion to Withdraw as Counsel for the Husband was filed today. Good afternoon,

Please advise if you are available for any of the time slots listed below. Thank you.

She did zero work on it despite my requests that she do so and advise on whether I should plead for primary custody or agree to 50/50. She never responded on that, and I believe is still refusing to tell me when it's actually due, is that right, Ms. Hodz?

Right after the conference with Mr. Davis, Ms. Hodz's attitude completely changed from "this is routine, I'll get you the records," to "I don't think I can help you." I hired Ms. Hodz to help when the other side won't cooperate with something reasonable, not suddenly find a reason to quit.

I had the same experience with Ms. Samarkos. Her attitude was that "we'd be working it out with OC any day" before talking with Mr. Davis. After the call with Mr. Davis, the message was, "they're not going to cooperate on literally anything."

My family shouldn't have to suffer increased delays, costs, and stress because Ms. Hodz finds the work is more contentious than she'd like. I'm not the one making all this contentious. I really need an opportunity to lay some of this out in a concise manner before and at the hearing.

I'm truly unavailable each of the times sent in the message below - kid commitments and doctor appointments. I'm ok keeping the hearing right around January 6, 2025. Or I can try between Christmas and New Years but otherwise I'm busy with multiple medical appointments, obligations with the kids and holiday plans.

I don't believe there is any good faith reason to withdraw especially in light of the prejudice - more delay, expense, and negative impact on our family. I'm not making any demands on anything other than my sole objective in the case which has always remained the same since I first spoke to Katherine about 8 months ago, getting some discovery back from Petitioner as timely as possible.

I'm waiving any attorney client privilege so Ms. Hodz - please feel free to file anything that I wrote and/or disclosed in otherwise privileged conversations.

It's amazing that Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis are able to connect so quick in this instance, when it's directly opposed to my interests.

It took Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis several weeks if not a couple of months to connect on a simple phone call for my urgent issue that I thought was at the center of all this. Ms. Hodz has placed me in a terrible position, giving me only 4 days notice of her immediate withdrawal, with the refusal to answer any questions starting immediately on Monday 12-2.

It's been nearly 10 days since her sudden motion to withdraw, and Ms. Hodz still hasn't provided me with my file.

Ms. Hodz was kind enough to confirm that she did no work on the motion to compel the response to my RTP, precisely the reason I retained her in the first place - the first attorney agreed to get that filed before the 10-28 hearing and failed.

Ms Hodz also requested an extension on a response and counter petition when she knew I was very anxious to address some claims in that, and to the best of my memory, she never discussed the extension with me.

All of this has been rushed upon me directly against my pleas to Ms. Hodz for information and more time. Even with a couple weeks for me to prepare for the hearing on this motion, I'm extremely confident that any other option I have is worse in light of the history here. It's very important that I have a chance to lay that out given the likely prejudice, not the least of which is finding a 3rd attorney to take my case when the 1st and 2nd ones didn't do any of the actual legal work. It seems like they both put that off and when everything couldn't just get wrapped up in a mediation agreement, she refused to help.

I have never practiced in circuit or county Court in my life. I was a work comp defense attorney for 16 years under the JCC/DOAH. It's a completely different system so all of this is foreign to me.

This simple discovery issue is the single biggest obstacle to everyone getting through this. It's the root of all this and it's easily fixable if we just get some information out there and Ms. Hodz helps me through the relevant law and procedures.

Ms. Hodz is still my attorney of record. I'm asking her to remain my attorney and help me thru at least this simple discovery issue that's already required 2 attorneys who initially told me it would be very routine to get 3 years of records. I already provided that and far more extensive records in response to their discovery requests.

A lawyer of Ms. Hodz's caliber should be responsible for completing that assignment when nothing has changed about the objectives and the urgency from when she accepted the case.

It's worth noting that Ms. Hodz had already indicated her intent to withdraw based on my refusal to resolve an issue she wanted resolved before I sent any email to Mr. Davis. I told her I'd negotiate in good faith on everything required of me, but besides that, my sole objective remained getting the records I sought from the start of this.

Also, I advised that I would immediately stop emailing Mr. Davis if Ms. Hodz simply agreed to actively work on my case again.

Are you able to answer if there is a record from the hearing in case I can't make it? May I request that the Court record it somehow for me?

And can someone please send me the zoom link. I don't see it right now and I'm in the car. Thanks.

Hi Ms. Heyward - I am not trying to be difficult now and haven't been throughout this process. It really bothers me that you and others probably have the opposite impression from looking at recent filings.

Sorry for the lengthy email here. I need to condense it and get it and some other info in a pleading, I assume? If you have a minute to talk tomorrow, I can save you the trouble of reading all this by explaining my position over the phone. I have a few questions I'm hoping you may be able to answer for me about any rights I may have.

I really just want this behind me and I'm doing what I think is best to get to a timely fair result. I'm pleading the Court to give me some more time to prepare for this hearing because Ms. Hodz withdrawing in the manner she is attempting will absolutely be unduly prejudicial to my objectives in this case and our family's future.

I'm trying to attend this hearing but it may not be possible. The doctor's appointment was reset but I still have gymnastics and a kids party commitments. I certainly want a chance to be heard on this.

Ms. Hodz was kind enough to confirm that she did no work on the motion to compel the response to my RTP, precisely the reason I retained her in the first place - the first attorney agreed to get that filed before the 10-28 hearing and failed.

Ms Hodz also requested an extension on a response and counter petition when she knew I was very anxious to address some claims in that, and to the best of my memory, she never discussed the extension with me.

She did zero work on it despite my requests that she do so and advise on whether I should plead for primary custody or agree to 50/50. She never responded on that, and I believe is still refusing to tell me when it's actually due, is that right, Ms. Hodz?

Right after the conference with Mr. Davis, Ms. Hodz's attitude completely changed from "this is routine, I'll get you the records," to "I don't think I can help you." I hired Ms. Hodz to help when the other side won't cooperate with something reasonable, not suddenly find a reason to quit.

I had the same experience with Ms. Samarkos. Her attitude was that "we'd be working it out with OC any day" before talking with Mr. Davis. After the call with Mr. Davis, the message was, "they're not going to cooperate on literally anything."

My family shouldn't have to suffer increased delays, costs, and stress because Ms. Hodz finds the work is more contentious than she'd like. I'm not the one making all this contentious. I really need an opportunity to lay some of this out in a concise manner before and at the hearing.

I'm truly unavailable each of the times sent in the message below - kid commitments and doctor appointments. I'm ok keeping the hearing right around January 6, 2025. Or I can try between Christmas and New Years but otherwise I'm busy with multiple medical appointments, obligations with the kids and holiday plans.

My only requests are that we consider it an evidentiary hearing and set aside an hour to consider this motion that's critical to this litigation. Please let me know on any guidance you can offer and again, please excuse this to the extent it's just a rant. Thanks.

Hi Ms. Heyward - I am not trying to be difficult now and haven't been throughout this process. It really bothers me that you and others probably have the opposite impression from looking at recent filings.

Sorry for the lengthy email here. I need to condense it and get it and some other info in a pleading. I assume? If you have a minute to talk tomorrow, I can save you the trouble of reading all this by explaining my position over the phone. I have a few questions I'm hoping you may be able to answer for me about any rights I may have.

I really just want this behind me and I'm doing what I think is best to get to a timely fair result. I'm pleading the Court to give me some more time to prepare for this hearing because Ms. Hodz withdrawing in the manner she is attempting will absolutely be unduly prejudicial to my objectives in this case and our family's future.

All of this has been rushed upon me directly against my pleas to Ms. Hodz for information and more time. Even with a couple weeks for me to prepare for the hearing on this motion, I'm extremely confident that any other option I have is worse in light of the history here. It's very important that I have a chance to lay that out given the likely prejudice, not the least of which is finding a 3rd attorney to take my case when the 1st and 2nd ones didn't do any of the actual legal work. It seems like they both put that off and when everything couldn't just get wrapped up in a mediation agreement, she refused to help.

I had the same experience with Ms. Samarkos. Her attitude was that "we'd be working it out with OC any day" before talking with Mr. Davis. After the call with Mr. Davis, the message was, "they're not going to cooperate on literally anything."

28, 2024 hearing and it was agreed by all parties involved that Grace M. Samarkos, Esquire remain as Husband's counsel until the conclusion of matters related to the Motions set for October 28, 2024. The Court sought the submission of memorandums from both counsel for the Wife and the Husband following the October 28, 2024 hearing. Attorney Samarkos timely submitted the Husband's Memorandum on November 7, 2024 thus concluding the work to be done by Harris, Hunt & Derr, P.A. so as to allow the undersigned counsel to substitute in.

Said submission was untimely and the undersigned counsel communicated objection to the same to the Court on November 12, 2024. The Court has not yet ruled on the Respondent's Motion for Ruling on Petitioner's Amended Objection to Notice of Production from Non-Party.

14. The primary pending issues of dispute from the Husband's perspective at the time of the breakdown as to representation were solely discovery related. The undersigned counsel has sought all appropriate extensions of time and communicated the same so as to ensure no interim prejudice to the Husband. There are no other hearings scheduled in the matter. Mediation has not been scheduled. There were no issues as to interim timesharing at the time of the filing of the undersigned's Motion to Withdraw.

interim representation pending the hearing on the Motion to Withdraw and the allegations made in writing against both the undersigned counsel and Attorney Davis as to delay, prejudice and detrimental impact to his matter are distressful, concerning and necessitate the Court's immediate attention.

An Order Granting Joint Stipulation for Substitution of Counsel was entered on November 8, 2024 and the undersigned counsel entered a Notice of Appearance on behalf of the Husband on November 11, 2024. The undersigned counsel was counsel of record for the Husband for slightly over one month prior to the filing of the initial Motion to Withdraw.
11. The undersigned counsel worked with the Husband and his prior counsel as to ongoing discovery issues between October 3, 2024 and November 8, 2024 to ensure a smooth transition of representation as prior counsel was pursuing matters through the conclusion of the work related to the Respondent's Motion for Ruling on Petitioner's Amended Objection to Notice of Production from Non-Party and Respondent's Motion to Compel Petitioner's Compliance with Mandatory Disclosures heard on October 28, 2024.

It has been communicated clearly and continuously to the Husband via email that due to the existing circumstances and the pending Motion to Withdraw the undersigned counsel would not be taking any further affirmative actions on his behalf unless necessary to protect the interests of the Husband.

In response to the scheduling of the undersigned counsel's Motion to Withdraw for January 6, 2025 on the Court's open docket for 5-7 minutes the Husband has requested a live and in-person hearing with a minimum of one hour reserved in numerous and persistent communications to both Attorney Davis and the undersigned counsel.

Hi Ms. Heyward - I am not trying to be difficult now and haven't been throughout this process. It really bothers me that you and others probably have the opposite impression from looking at recent filings.

Sorry for the lengthy email here. I need to condense it and get it and some other info in a pleading. I assume? If you have a minute to talk tomorrow, I can save you the trouble of reading all this by explaining my position over the phone. I have a few questions I'm hoping you may be able to answer for me about any rights I may have.

I really just want this behind me and I'm doing what I think is best to get to a timely fair result. I'm pleading the Court to give me some more time to prepare for this hearing because Ms. Hodz withdrawing in the manner she is attempting will absolutely be unduly prejudicial to my objectives in this case and our family's future.

All of this has been rushed upon me directly against my pleas to Ms. Hodz for information and more time. Even with a couple weeks for me to prepare for the hearing on this motion, I'm extremely confident that any other option I have is worse in light of the history here. It's very important that I have a chance to lay that out given the likely prejudice, not the least of which is finding a 3rd attorney to take my case when the 1st and 2nd ones didn't do any of the actual legal work. It seems like they both put that off and when everything couldn't just get wrapped up in a mediation agreement, she refused to help.

I have never practiced in circuit or county Court in my life. I was a work comp defense attorney for 16 years under the JCC/DOAH. It's a completely different system so all of this is foreign to me.

This simple discovery issue is the single biggest obstacle to everyone getting through this. It's the root of all this and it's easily fixable if we just get some information out there and Ms. Hodz helps me through the relevant law and procedures.

Ms. Hodz is still my attorney of record. I'm asking her to remain my attorney and help me thru at least this simple discovery issue that's already required 2 attorneys who initially told me it would be very routine to get 3 years of records. I already provided that and far more extensive records in response to their discovery requests.

A lawyer of Ms. Hodz's caliber should be responsible for completing that assignment when nothing has changed about the objectives and the urgency from when she accepted the case.

It's worth noting that Ms. Hodz had already indicated her intent to withdraw based on my refusal to resolve an issue she wanted resolved before I sent any email to Mr. Davis. I told her I'd negotiate in good faith on everything required of me, but besides that, my sole objective remained getting the records I sought from the start of this.

Also, I advised that I would immediately stop emailing Mr. Davis if Ms. Hodz simply agreed to actively work on my case again.

I don't believe there is any good faith reason to withdraw especially in light of the prejudice - more delay, expense, and negative impact on our family. I'm not making any demands on anything other than my sole objective in the case which has always remained the same since I first spoke to Katherine about 8 months ago, getting some discovery back from Petitioner as timely as possible.

I'm waiving any attorney client privilege so Ms. Hodz - please feel free to file anything that I wrote and/or disclosed in otherwise privileged conversations.

It's amazing that Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis are able to connect so quick in this instance, when it's directly opposed to my interests.

It took Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis several weeks if not a couple of months to connect on a simple phone call for my urgent issue that I thought was at the center of all this. Ms. Hodz has placed me in a terrible position, giving me only 4 days notice of her immediate withdrawal, with the refusal to answer any questions starting immediately on Monday 12-2.

It's been nearly 10 days since her sudden motion to withdraw, and Ms. Hodz still hasn't provided me with my file.

Ms. Hodz was kind enough to confirm that she did no work on the motion to compel the response to my RTP, precisely the reason I retained her in the first place - the first attorney agreed to get that filed before the 10-28 hearing and failed.

Ms Hodz also requested an extension on a response and counter petition when she knew I was very anxious to address some claims in that, and to the best of my memory, she never discussed the extension with me.

She did zero work on it despite my requests that she do so and advise on whether I should plead for primary custody or agree to 50/50. She never responded on that, and I believe is still refusing to tell me when it's actually due, is that right, Ms. Hodz?

Right after the conference with Mr. Davis, Ms. Hodz's attitude completely changed from "this is routine, I'll get you the records," to "I don't think I can help you." I hired Ms. Hodz to help when the other side won't cooperate with something reasonable, not suddenly find a reason to quit.

I had the same experience with Ms. Samarkos. Her attitude was that "we'd be working it out with OC any day" before talking with Mr. Davis. After the call with Mr. Davis, the message was, "they're not going to cooperate on literally anything."

My family shouldn't have to suffer increased delays, costs, and stress because Ms. Hodz finds the work is more contentious than she'd like. I'm not the one making all this contentious. I really need an opportunity to lay some of this out in a concise manner before and at the hearing.

I'm truly unavailable each of the times sent in the message below - kid commitments and doctor appointments. I'm ok keeping the hearing right around January 6, 2025. Or I can try between Christmas and New Years but otherwise I'm busy with multiple medical appointments, obligations with the kids and holiday plans.

My only requests are that we consider it an evidentiary hearing and set aside an hour to consider this motion that's critical to this litigation. Please let me know on any guidance you can offer and again, please excuse this to the extent it's just a rant. Thanks.

I am unable to attend as I explained in an email last night. I object to the hearing occurring without me. And I simply cannot be there. Hope has a 7 year check up this afternoon and then gymnastics and a Christmas party and I cannot miss all of that.

Also, as the litigant, do I have any rights. This was filed without my review. The timeline Ms Hodz has laid out is draconian and unbelievably and almost purposefully prejudicial.

If the hearing will go forward without me, please let me know and I'll do my best to get some information filed for the Courts consideration. Please let me know either way.

Good afternoon. I did my best to document my position in the formal objection and argument and other filings.

I'm trying to attend this hearing but it may not be possible. The doctor's appointment was reset but I still have gymnastics and a kids party commitments. I certainly want a chance to be heard on this.

Are you able to answer if there is a record from the hearing in case I can't make it? May I request that the Court record it somehow for me?

And can someone please send me the zoom link. I don't see it right now and I'm in the car. Thanks.

Hi Ms. Hayward - I am not trying to be difficult now and haven't been throughout this process. It really bothers me that you and others probably have the opposite impression from looking at recent filings.

Sorry for the lengthy email here. I need to condense it and get it and some other info in a pleading, I assume? If you have a minute to talk tomorrow, I can save you the trouble of reading all this by explaining my position over the phone. I have a few questions I'm hoping you may be able to answer for me about any rights I may have.

I really just want this behind me and I'm doing what I think is best to get to a timely fair result. I'm pleading the Court to give me some more time to prepare for this hearing because Ms. Hodz withdrawing in the manner she is attempting will absolutely be unduly prejudicial to my objectives in this case and our family's future.

All of this has been rushed upon me directly against my pleas to Ms. Hodz for information and more time. Even with a couple weeks for me to prepare for the hearing on this motion, I'm extremely confident that any other option I have is worse in light of the history here. It's very important that I have a chance to lay that out given the likely prejudice, not the least of which is finding a 3rd attorney to take my case when the 1st and 2nd ones didn't do any of the actual legal work. It seems like they both put that off and when everything couldn't just get wrapped up in a mediation agreement, she refused to help.

I have never practiced in circuit or county Court in my life. I was a work comp defense attorney for 16 years under the JCC/DOAH. It's a completely different system so all of this is foreign to me.

This simple discovery issue is the single biggest obstacle to everyone getting through this. It's the root of all this and it's easily fixable if we just get some information out there and Ms. Hodz helps me through the relevant law and procedures.

Ms. Hodz is still my attorney of record. I'm asking her to remain my attorney and help me thru at least this simple discovery issue that's already required 2 attorneys who initially told me it would be very routine to get 3 years of records. I already provided that and far more extensive records in response to their discovery requests.

A lawyer of Ms. Hodz's caliber should be responsible for completing that assignment when nothing has changed about the objectives and the urgency from when she accepted the case.

It's worth noting that Ms. Hodz had already indicated her intent to withdraw based on my refusal to resolve an issue she wanted resolved before I sent any email to Mr. Davis. I told her I'd negotiate in good faith on everything required of me, but besides that, my sole objective remained getting the records I sought from the start of this.

Also, I advised that I would immediately stop emailing Mr. Davis if Ms. Hodz simply agreed to actively work on my case again.

I don't believe there is any good faith reason to withdraw especially in light of the prejudice - more delay, expense, and negative impact on our family. I'm not making any demands on anything other than my sole objective in the case which has always remained the same since I first spoke to Katherine about 8 months ago, getting some discovery back from Petitioner as timely as possible.

I'm waiving any attorney client privilege so Ms. Hodz - please feel free to file anything that I wrote and/or disclosed in otherwise privileged conversations.

It's amazing that Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis are able to connect so quick in this instance, when it's directly opposed to my interests.

It took Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis several weeks if not a couple of months to connect on a simple phone call for my urgent issue that I thought was at the center of all this. Ms. Hodz has placed me in a terrible position, giving me only 4 days notice of her immediate withdrawal, with the refusal to answer any questions starting immediately on Monday 12-2.

It's been nearly 10 days since her sudden motion to withdraw, and Ms. Hodz still hasn't provided me with my file.

Ms. Hodz was kind enough to confirm that she did no work on the motion to compel the response to my RTP, precisely the reason I retained her in the first place - the first attorney agreed to get that filed before the 10-28 hearing and failed.

Ms Hodz also requested an extension on a response and counter petition when she knew I was very anxious to address some claims in that, and to the best of my memory, she never discussed the extension with me.

She did zero work on it despite my requests that she do so and advise on whether I should plead for primary custody or agree to 50/50. She never responded on that, and I believe is still refusing to tell me when it's actually due, is that right, Ms. Hodz?

Right after the conference with Mr. Davis, Ms. Hodz's attitude completely changed from "this is routine, I'll get you the records," to "I don't think I can help you." I hired Ms. Hodz to help when the other side won't cooperate with something reasonable, not suddenly find a reason to quit.

I had the same experience with Ms. Samarkos. Her attitude was that "we'd be working it out with OC any day" before talking with Mr. Davis. After the call with Mr. Davis, the message was, "they're not going to cooperate on literally anything."

My family shouldn't have to suffer increased delays, costs, and stress because Ms. Hodz finds the work is more contentious than she'd like. I'm not the one making all this contentious. I really need an opportunity to lay some of this out in a concise manner before and at the hearing.

1. Can you check with help desk and make sure no one except you and I have access to our division on JAWS?
2. Was my web page updated?
3. When preparing for my doc for today, there were quite a few hearings that had no notes that you scheduled, so I had to go look for NoH and for example my first OD at 10 does not have a NoH, so I have no idea what the hearing is...and the hearing was scheduled by you on 9/30. See also Krempel, Thank you! ☺. I appreciate you!
4. Can you pull a couple of those dry erase markers, blue if we have them and put them on my desk?
5. Can you run through my dismissal docket for today and tomorrow and let me know if you see anything that needs to be adjusted? Thanks.

Thanks. I am sending you a ruling on Hanson in a bit that needs to go out right away to Paul Davis, attorney and Mr. Hanson pro se ONLY, please

Subject: Email regarding topics and status of discovery issues for 12-18-24 hearing

Caution: This is an external email. Please take care when clicking links or opening attachments. When in doubt, contact the Helpdesk.

Good morning all. My understanding is that I was to send a list of outstanding discovery issues in advance of the status conference, by noon today. I hope we can come up with a plan to move the case forward. I saw the Court's position on the subpoena so I've removed that from the list although that is likely to come up again especially given the motion to set aside Marital agreement mentioned below.

1 - The MD's are still incomplete despite several months of follow up. I sent Mr. Davis another deficiency notice on 12-6-24. I will proceed with a motion for contempt and enforcement hopefully before Thursday's conference.

2 - there is the RTP sent out on 8-14-24 that Mr. Davis objected to. I hope to have a motion to compel on that done this week. I'm drafting a second request for production that should be ready to send later today.

3 - Motion to set aside the post marital agreement. I hoped this would resolve any objections to the discovery to allow the case to move forward. Unfortunately, I heard from Mr. Davis this morning that Mrs. Hanson still objects to setting aside the post marital agreement. I'm aware of no basis for the objection and from the balance sheets, it looks like Mrs. Hanson may get significantly more money from the divorce resolution with the post-marital agreement set aside. Perhaps this is something we can address briefly at the conference as I cannot understand the obstruction under these circumstances.

4 - 57.105 sanctions motion that will be drafted and completed at the expiration of the 21 day safe harbor period.

5 - depositions of Mrs. Hanson and her father set for 1-30-25.

6 - mediation. I have a link that I'll try to use to send dates that I can do it.

Of course, there's a lot that's been thrown at me and I still don't even have Ms. Hodz's complete file. There will be other necessary discovery beyond the above, but this is what I know for sure

I'm still hoping that we can agree on some things to make this go efficiently before the depositions go forward. I'm open to just about any compromise that will allow the relevant discovery to go out so we can work towards a fair resolution.

I look forward to our conference on Thursday. Please let me know if you want to discuss anything in further detail prior to the conference. Thanks.

I'm sorry. I misunderstood the Judge last week. I thought she asked me to do email her and Mr Davis directly. I'm sure it was email, but should've emails you and Mr Davis only?

And I'll put a note on my computer to remind me on case number.

Do I need to do anything to fix this in this case or damage is done and just leave it alone? Thank you.

Ruling on Respondent's Motion for Ruling on Petitioner's Amended Objection to Notices of Production from Non-Party.

The Court SUSTAINS Wife's Amended Objection to Notices of Production from Non-Party (Doc 30) as the parties entered into a Premarital Agreement and Marital Separation Agreement. The subpoenas shall not be issued to the Non-Party.

At this juncture, the Court is not issuing a ruling with respect to the validity of either agreement, as that issue has not been challenged by either party or properly brought before this Court.

I'll be filing a motion for clarification or rehearing depending on whether it's entered before I can get around to that.

To the extent that it is entered, I object that it doesn't mention my prior counsel's objection to considering Mr. Davis's late filing of his memo/argument and I believe that should be addressed.

And it doesn't state that the Judge made no finding as to whether the post marital agreement is enforceable.

Please let me know if you need anything else from me.

Good afternoon, Ms. Heyward,

At 12:30 p.m. today, the Court held a case management conference in this matter. Judge Ayers instructed me to submit Wife's proposed Order Sustaining Wife's Amended Objection to Notices of Production from Non-Party that the Court ruled on via email on or December 16, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. The proposed Order is attached in Word format.

Judge Ayers advised that Mr. Hanson has until the close of business on Monday, December 23, 2024, to register any objections to the proposed Order or alternatively submit his own proposed Order.

Thank you, very much and Happy Holidays.

Perhaps Mr. Hanson missed it, as the proposed Order does address what Judge Ayers included in her email regarding the agreements. It specifically states "At this juncture, the Court is not issuing a ruling with respect to the validity of either agreement, as that issue has not been challenged by either Party or properly brought before the Court."

Subject: Email regarding topics and status of discovery issues for 12-18-24 hearing

Caution: This is an external email. Please take care when clicking links or opening attachments. When in doubt, contact the Helpdesk.

Good morning all. My understanding is that I was to send a list of outstanding discovery issues in advance of the status conference, by noon today. I hope we can come up with a plan to move the case forward. I saw the Court's position on the subpoena so I've removed that from the list although that is likely to come up again especially given the motion to set aside Marital agreement mentioned below.

1 - The MD's are still incomplete despite several months of follow up. I sent Mr. Davis another deficiency notice on 12-8-24. I will proceed with a motion for contempt and enforcement hopefully before Thursday's conference.

2 - there is the RTP sent out on 8-14-24 that Mr. Davis objected to. I hope to have a motion to compel on that done this week. I'm drafting a second request for production that should be ready to send later today.

3 - Motion to set aside the post marital agreement. I hoped this would resolve any objections to the discovery to allow the case to move forward. Unfortunately, I heard from Mr. Davis this morning that Mrs. Hanson still objects to setting aside the post marital agreement. I'm aware of no basis for the objection and from the balance sheets, it looks like Mrs. Hanson may get significantly more money from the divorce resolution with the post-marital agreement set aside. Perhaps this is something we can address briefly at the conference as I cannot understand the obstruction under these circumstances.

4- 57,105 sanctions motion that will be drafted and completed at the expiration of the 21 day safe harbor period.

5 - depositions of Mrs. Hanson and her father set for 1-30-25.

6- mediation. I have a link that I'll try to use to send dates that I can do it.

Of course, there's a lot that's been thrown at me and I still don't even have Ms. Hodz's complete file. There will be other necessary discovery beyond the above, but this is what I know for sure.

I'm still hoping that we can agree on some things to make this go efficiently before the depositions go forward. I'm open to just about any compromise that will allow the relevant discovery to go out so we can work towards a fair resolution.

I look forward to our conference on Thursday. Please let me know if you want to discuss anything in further detail prior to the conference. Thanks.

Happy new year, Ms. Heyward. Judge Ayers wants me to have the motions I currently need heard by 1-6-25.

Happy New Year to you all. All motions filed by 1-5-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes.

I really need answers to these couple questions in order to make a determination on precisely what I need to file.

Please let me know if I can get answers to the couple questions raised below on the motion to withdraw and whether Judge Ayers had the chance to review the Motion for Clarification before issuing the order on the subpoenas.

The Motion for Clarification is a pending motion that was filed before 1-6-25, so it will be addressed on 1-21-25. Please know that we do not receive copies of any filings other than emergency filings. We do have certain reports that are generated with respect to certain types of filings that Judge Ayers does review on a regular basis. Accordingly, Judge Ayers would only review a filing if it is provided to me or when she is preparing for a hearing. And, unless there is a particular need (i.e., emergency motions or expedited motions) filings are not forwarded to me.

If I don't hear back before the weekend, please let Judge Ayers know that it will be impossible for me to get all motions/responses before the 1-6-25 hearing.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

I've asked Ms. Hodz for the motion to compel draft that was prepared by my attorneys several times and I'm still waiting on that. If I don't get that before the weekend, that would also make it impossible for me to get everything filed.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

And on Mr. Davis's motion to appoint a guardian ad litem, I do not see where I was served or ever provided with that document despite requesting from Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis multiple times.

You may bring this matter up with Judge Ayers on 1-21-25.

I'm hoping the Court can assist on those couple things as well, or there will be more to file after 1-6-25.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. This does not prohibit further filings in this case, but any filings filed after 1-6-25, will not be addressed on 1-21-15, but rather will be addressed at a later date.

Thank you

- A. On June 4, 2024, Husband filed two (2) Notices of Production from Non-Party with the associated proposed subpoenas duces tecum without deposition (the "Subpoenas") directed to JP Morgan Chase Bank, NA [DIN 29] and Chase Bank [DIN 28].

3. At this juncture, the Court is not issuing a ruling with respect to the validity of either agreement, as that issue has not been challenged by either Party or properly brought before the Court.
4. All prior Orders of the Court not specifically modified herein remain in full force and effect.

In re: the Marriage of:

SARAH HANSON
Husband,

Case No.: 24-DR-1150

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON
Respondent.

MOTION FOR REHEARING UNDER RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 1.530 ON
ORDER GRANTING MS. HODZ WITHDRAWAL

The Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, hereby files this motion for rehearing and states the following:

1. Husband continues to pursue the sole objective, obtaining discovery into Wife's financial situation, as described in his first substantive filing from May 16, 2024 at Docket #22.
2. At Docket #22, paragraphs 6-12, Husband describes the financial reality of the last few years of the couple's marriage during which Wife refused to contribute more to household expenses even as Husband's health suffered.
3. While the parties were able to avoid attorney involvement for every other issue, Wife's refusal to disclose financial information required legal attention as Husband knew he'd be unable to coparent effectively with that information outstanding especially given current health and career prospects.

4. Husband reviewed the circumstances leading to Ms. Hodz sudden and immediate insistence on withdrawal (effective December 2, 2024) and those details will not be included here. (See also Exhibits attached to and referenced in Objection to Motion to withdraw, Docket #72).
5. On December 13, 2024, the Court held a brief hearing and granted the Expedited Motion to Withdraw filed by Cortes Hodz Family Law & Mediation, P.A. and Vivian Cortes Hodz, Esq., with both parties and their counsel appearing via ZOOM. The order was entered without detailed findings on the reasons for withdrawal or the impact on the Husband's case. (See Order Granting Motion to Withdraw as Counsel of Record for Respondent/Husband).
6. The US Constitution, through the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, guarantees due process, ensuring that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. Similarly, the Florida Constitution, under Article I, Section 9, echoes this protection.
7. In the context of this divorce, due process rights require adequate notice to give a litigant sufficient notice and time to prepare for litigation related events. Garden v. Garden, 834 So.2d 190 (Fla. 2d DCA 2002)
8. Husband received only 1 day notice, giving him insufficient time to prepare for the withdrawal hearing, which undermines both Federal and Florida due process rights.
9. It's unclear whether this Honorable Court ever had the opportunity to review the basis of Husband's objections, but those are present at Docket #72 and attachments referenced therein.
10. Husband moves for a rehearing and to vacate the order granting Ms. Hodz's motion to withdraw as counsel, arguing a violation of due process under Florida and federal laws.

11. The hearing on the motion to withdraw was scheduled with insufficient notice, contravening due process under both the Florida and Federal Constitutions.

12. The Husband's right to counsel was infringed upon as requests for legal assistance on critical tasks, like the motion to compel and response to the amended petition, were ignored, impacting his ability to proceed with the discovery, the sole objective assigned to each of his attorneys.

13. "The notice requirement implicates due process concerns of notice and opportunity to be heard; obviously, then, the notice and motion must be timely and must afford the client an opportunity to respond." Garden v. Garden, 834 So.2d 180, 192 (Fla. 2d DCA 2002). The Court also suggested that such withdrawal can violate due process if it materially affects the client's case.

14. Husband desperately wants to limit the conflict with Wife in order to get back to productive coparenting with trust and communication, but these discovery pursuits are a necessity before that can happen, due to current health, career, and financial situations.

15. While Husband believes the children are continuing to thrive, there's extensive research showing that extended periods of conflict are more likely to result in behavioral and self esteem problems.

16. Husband is well aware of the suffering that can result and has always insisted on timely action to move this matter forward in order to avoid negative impacts on the children.

17. Given Husband's urgency to resolve this conflict as quickly as possible, the manner in which Ms Hodz withdrew was likely to and has caused significant prejudice in proceeding with this case as described below.

18. Ms. Hodz failed to provide updates, documents, or work product related to the Chase subpoena, the motion to compel and even the deadline for a response to the Amended petition.

19. The court made no findings regarding the reasons for withdrawal, despite explicit objection and argument from the Husband about the severe impact on his case, including ongoing discovery issues and custody discussions.

20. There was no clear reason for the withdrawal, and the allegations in the more detailed expedited motion to withdraw primarily involve events that occurred after Ms. Hodz had refused to do any work on the file. Husband had no choice but to try and advance his case.

21. Furthermore, Husband's communications with both Mr. Davis and Ms. Hodz were respectful and reveal no dishonest or unethical actions on his part.

22. Husband offered to immediately cease emails with Mr. Davis if Ms. Hodz would agree to advance his case.

23. Instead, the withdrawal seems to stem from Ms. Hodz's sudden change of outlook after her long delayed conference with Mr. Davis.

24. Certainly, there is no evidence of anything unethical or dishonest from Husband that would make withdrawal mandatory.

25. Husband submits that more resistance from the opposing counsel than one would like is not a good reason for withdrawal.

26. Husband's waiver of attorney-client privilege by filing communications with the Court on December 13, 2024, should render any claim of irreconcilable differences transparent and subject to scrutiny. The absence of specific, definitive reasons for such a claim in the Expedited Motion to Withdraw is inexcusable given this transparency. (See Email filed by Husband on December 13, 2024).

12/22/2024 11:25 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 4

27. The withdrawal has caused significant prejudice by stalling critical aspects of the case, leaving the Husband unable to adequately respond to legal maneuvers by the opposing side, including the Wife's Motion for Judicial Default filed due to the Husband's failure to respond to the Amended Petition for Dissolution of Marriage as he was not even advised that the due date was the same day as the hearing held on 1 day notice at a time when Husband was unavailable. (See Wife's Motion for Judicial Default).

28. While Ms. Hodz immediately ceased any work and assistance on December 2, 2024, it took 10 days for her to even attempt sending the file materials.

29. A Dropbox with file materials was provided by Ms. Hodz's office on December 12, 2024, at 6:49 pm, but it was: 1) less than 24 hours before the hearing, and 2) incomplete.

30. Husband has identified that a crucial draft Motion to Compel, which was purportedly attached to a separate email, is missing from the provided materials. (See Email from Husband to Vivian Cortes Hodz dated December 16, 2024).

31. Multiple communications were sent to Ms. Hodz on December 15, 16, and 17, 2024, by Husband, highlighting the missing documents, with no response from Ms. Hodz or her firm.

32. The absence of these documents, particularly the draft Motion to Compel which is central to the case, significantly prejudices the Husband's ability to proceed, especially in light of the Wife's motion for judicial default.

33. Husband's response to the Amended Petition was overdue by 73 days despite being represented by counsel during the entire relevant timeframe. (See Wife's Motion for Judicial Default).

34. Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.540 provides for relief from orders where there was a mistake, inadvertence, or neglect, relevant here due to the lack of notice, legal support, and the implications of the judicial default motion.

35. Wherefore, Husband requests this Court to set aside the previous order allowing Ms. Hodz to withdraw, and require Ms. Hodz to continue with current efforts to complete the work discussed both prior to and after her notice of appearance. Specifically, Ms. Hodz, "assured" Husband that "he would get the information he needed to move forward." (See email dated October 21, 2024 6:08pm).

36. Additionally and alternatively, the Husband requests the Court to order Ms. Hodz to immediately produce by email:

- The Motion to Compel previously drafted, preferably in Word format.
- All other file materials and communications not included in the December 12, 2024 Dropbox, along with an explanation for any materials not turned over.

37. Husband further seeks to address the judicial default motion, arguing that the delay in responding to the Amended Petition was due to the lack of legal representation and access to necessary case documents, which exacerbates the prejudice already suffered.

Please see responses in BOLD

Happy new year, Ms. Heyward. Judge Ayers wants me to have the motions I currently need heard by 1-6-25.

Happy New Year to you all. All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes.

I really need answers to these couple questions in order to make a determination on precisely what I need to file.

Please let me know if I can get answers to the couple questions raised below on the motion to withdraw and whether Judge Ayers had the chance to review the Motion for Clarification before issuing the order on the subpoenas.

The Motion for Clarification is a pending motion that was filed before 1-6-25, so it will be addressed on 1-21-25. Please know that we do not receive copies of any filings other than emergency filings. We do have certain reports that are generated with respect to certain types of filings that Judge Ayers does review on a regular basis. Accordingly, Judge Ayers would only review a filing if it is provided to me or when she is preparing for a hearing. And, unless there is a particular need (i.e., emergency motions or expedited motions) filings are not forwarded to me.

If I don't hear back before the weekend, please let Judge Ayers know that it will be impossible for me to get all motions/responses before the 1-6-25 hearing.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

I've asked Ms. Hodz for the motion to compel draft that was prepared by my attorneys several times and I'm still waiting on that. If I don't get that before the weekend, that would also make it impossible for me to get everything filed.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

And on Mr. Davis's motion to appoint a guardian ad litem, I do not see where I was served or ever provided with that document despite requesting from Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis multiple times.

You may bring this matter up with Judge Ayers on 1-21-25.

I'm hoping the Court can assist on those couple things as well, or there will be more to file after 1-6-25.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. This does not prohibit further filings in this case, but any filings filed after 1-6-25, will not be addressed on 1-21-15, but rather will be addressed at a later date.

Thank you

Subject: RE: SC 13th Judicial Circuit v. Hodge

Please see comments in PDF.

Happy New Year, Mr. Hodge. Judge Ayres wants to discuss the national emergency heard by 1-6-26.

Happy New Year to you all. All matters filed by 1-6-26 that have not been filed yet will be addressed on 1-13-26 for scheduling purposes.

I have read answers to some sample questions as well as what a counterclaim or possibly what I need to do.

Please let me know if you get answers to the sample questions, what Judge Ayres wants to discuss and what Judge Ayres said the county should do. Hodge is not a party to the case. He is just a party to the national.

The Motion for Clarification is a pending matter that was filed before 1-6-23, so it will be addressed on 1-27-23. Please know that we have no intention of any other clarification regarding things. We do have certain reports that are generated with regard to specific types of things that Judge Jones does review on a regular basis. Accordingly, Judge Jones would not review a thing that is provided to me or when she is preparing for a hearing. And, unless there is a particular need (i.e., emergency medical or expedited needs), things are not provided to me.

If I don't hear back before the meeting, please let Judge A just know that it will be impossible for me to get all national requests before the 1-5-23 hearing.

All requests filed by 1-4-23 that have not been yet filed will be addressed on 1-27-23 for scheduling purposes. Any other requests submitted for review will be addressed on 1-27-23 if a 1-5-23 1-27-23.

The last of the 1-4-23 the motion for clarification that was prepared by the attorney's representatives and I will review on this. I think that that's the way we should do it. The need for the review, especially for me to get everything done.

All requests filed by 1-4-23 that have not been yet filed will be addressed on 1-27-23 for scheduling purposes. Any other requests submitted for review will be addressed on 1-27-23 if a 1-5-23 1-27-23.

And on Mr. Davis's motion to request a question and answer, I do not see where there are any issues provided with that document despite the fact that Mr. Davis and Mr. Davis's motion is not.

You may be the one who is with Judge Jones on 1-27-23.

For today the Court can review on those cases that are not, or there will be more to the other 1-27-23.

All requests filed by 1-4-23 that have not been yet filed will be addressed on 1-27-23 for scheduling purposes. This means that the Court will review on the cases that are filed on 1-5-23, and the Court will address on 1-27-23, and the Court will be addressed on 1-27-23.

I really need answers to these eight questions in order to make a decision about my promise which I need to file.

Please let me know if I can go forward in the eight questions about below on the answer is enforce and whether Judge expects the chance to make the answer by Conclusion before issuing the order on the subject.

If I don't hear back before the weekend, please let Judge know that it will be impossible for me to get all information before subject the 1-4-25 hearing.

I've asked Mr. Holtz for the answer in concept since this was prepared by the attorney general's office and I'm not waiting on him. If I can't get this before the weekend, that would also make it impossible for me to get everything filed.

And to Mr. Don't mention it, request a promise of time, I've not seen it since I was asked to give promise only that it means subject to hearing. This 1-4-25 and 1-6-25 Don't multiple times.

The Legislature Court can handle the other subject as well, so there will be no more to the subject 1-6-25.

Thank you.

Any claim for law enforcement? The judge had a chance to review the motion for certification on the claim submitted. I have not appear that any of my arguments were addressed.

I don't see where your email addresses the question of, why you attended the hearing on Mrs Hodz initial motion to withdraw, but not this hearing on the very same topic?

Here's your answer from 11:18..

There were no ex-parte communications. I knew it was not necessary for Ms. Hanson or me to attend yesterday's hearing because it pertained to the order granting the motion for Ms. Hodz to withdraw from your case. I did not wish to waste your wife's money by attending a hearing that was not pertinent to her case. This is why I sent an email to Ms. Heyward on Wednesday advising that we did not intend to attend the hearing, but stating that if Judge Ayers wanted to attend, Ms. Heyward could respond to my email instructing us to attend. Once again, you are making incorrect and inaccurate assumptions. Respectfully, your request for our attendance did not necessitate our attendance.

Please just underline for me where you address that question on attending one hearing but not the other.

Also, I believe you were noticed for the hearing that occurred yesterday. Were you ever excused by the Court from attending the hearing yesterday other than you telling the Court you didn't want to attend?

Please clarify those couple issues for me as I have a concern about the way the hearing progressed yesterday and need to file something for appellate purposes.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA
FAMILY LAW DIVISION

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF:
SARAH S. HANSON,

Case No.: 24-DR-001150 (D)

Petitioner/Wife,

and

CHRISTOPHER A. HANSON,

Respondent/Husband.

ORDER ON HUSBAND'S MOTION FOR REHEARING ON ORDER GRANTING MS. HODZ WITHDRAW

THIS CAUSE came before the Court for hearing on January 9, 2025 on the Husband's Motion for Rehearing Under Rule of Civil Procedure 1.530 On Order Granting Ms. Hodz Withdraw. The Wife and her counsel Scott Davis, Esq. did not appear. Vivian Cortes Hodz, Esq. and Lawrence Hodz, Esq. appeared via ZOOM video conference. The Husband, CHRISTOPHER A. HANSON, appeared via ZOOM. The Court having reviewed the motion together with the Court file, having heard from Lawrence Hodz, Esq. and the Husband, and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, hereby ORDERS as follows:

1. The Court granted a hearing on the Husband's Motion for Rehearing as the initial hearing was held on one-day notice. The Court granted a hearing to allow the Husband additional time to prepare and provide a legal basis that would preclude Ms. Hodz from withdrawing in this case.
2. Mr. Hodz referenced Rule 4-1.16(b) of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar as the basis for the request for withdraw. Rule 4-1.16(b) of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar was also cited in the Expedited Motion to Withdraw and stated, inter alia, that a lawyer may withdraw if "the client insists upon taking action that the lawyer considers repugnant, imprudent, or with which the lawyer has a fundamental disagreement" and "if the representation . . . has been rendered unreasonably difficult by the client."

3. The Husband failed to establish a legal basis for the Court to deny the Expedited Motion to Withdraw filed on behalf of Cortes Hodz Family Law & Mediation, P.A. and Ms. Hodz on December 11, 2024.
4. Other than the rehearing that occurred, all relief requested in the Husband's Motion for Rehearing Under Rule of Civil Procedure 1.530 On Order Granting Ms. Hodz Withdraw is DENIED. Ms. Hodz and the law firm of Cortes Hodz Family Law & Mediation, P.A., remains relieved of all further responsibility of representing the Husband.

Good morning Ms. Heyward. I have a couple questions about the schedule and this hearing set for Monday. I just want to make sure the Judge is aware that Docket #84 relates to Mandatory Disclosures that fail to even attempt to comply with the Rule's requirements, information that was stipulated to be produced back in June of 2024, a motion filed on August 9, 2024, and a Court Order effective October 28, 2024.

Mr. Davis had been in violation of the Court's 10-28-24 order for well over a month before he filed the sudden barrage of 4 motions on December 13, 2024, just as Husband's counsel withdrew over his objection.

Also, Docket #91 relates to a subpoena issued in June of 2024 and a motion filed August 9, 2024. The determination on the motion was put off by Mr. Davis submitting a memo late. There are several important issues that require clarification on this, and again, it's confusing why Husband's only concern in this matter will be put off to be dealt with simultaneously months later, motions filed for the sole purpose of creating leverage to conceal the information Mr. Hanson seeks in discovery. These are serious discovery violations that I've raised in numerous pleadings, including at Docket #72, 80 84, 91.

Putting these issues at the root of the case off is severely prejudicial and confusing to Husband as it seems that the discovery violations go uninvestigated while they serve precisely the improper purpose for which they are filed.

If there are reasonable explanations for now these 15 plus actions from Mr. Davis, it will make things go more smoothly. Getting the information out in the open and having determinations on these issues present since the beginning should benefit both parties and the Court. Putting them off and adding them with 4 separate motions filed at a very inopportune time for Husband is extremely prejudicial and only further complicates what in the beginning was a relatively straightforward issue. Getting answers to the original questions is the only way for the resulting, more recent disputes to ever untangle.

I reached out to Mr. Davis about whether he has an objection to hearing these 2 motions Monday, but I have not heard back. Please let me know if I need to file anything formal. I'm working on at least 4 different pleadings currently that all need to be filed. I will try to file before Monday, although it will certainly be impossible to get one before then. If I need to file this rather than sending by email, please let me know. Thanks.

Chris

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA
FAMILY DIVISION

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF

SARAH HANSON,
Petitioner,

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,
Respondent,

HUSBAND/RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR
REHEARING ON COURT'S 12-30-24 ORDER ON CHASE SUBPOENA
AND EMERGENCY MOTION TO CONTINUE HEARINGS ON WIFE'S
MOTIONS FILED ON 12-13-24

The Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON files this Motion for Rehearing and/or Clarification and, in support thereof, states:

1. Husband filed a Motion for Clarification relating to the Chase order on December 30, 2024. To the extent the Court will not automatically hear that or treat it as a Motion for Rehearing, Husband respectfully submits this motion for rehearing, incorporating all arguments made at Docket #91.
2. In Ms. Heyward's December 16, 2024 email, she notes, "the Court is not issuing a ruling with respect to the validity of either agreement, as that issue has not been challenged by either party or properly brought before this Court." (Attached as Exhibit A, p. 14 below).
3. Given Husband's filing of his Answer and Counter Petition before the filing of the Court's order, the Order on the Chase subpoena is inaccurate on its face given Husband's challenge to the enforceability of the Post Marital Agreement (PMA) when the above email was drafted. (Docket #79, ¶20-22, 24 in Answer and ¶10 in Counterpetition).

4. Even though given the current financial disclosures, Wife would almost certainly be entitled to more money than the $100,000 Husband paid on the PMA, nevertheless, she still refuses to agree to waive discovery objections in exchange for voiding the PMA. (Docket #90 – transcript of December 19, 2024 status conference. p.7, L12-20).

5. That fact alone demonstrates the critical relevance of this discovery. The only logical explanation for this is clearly that Wife is hiding assets.

4. Given that enforceability of the (PMA) is officially before this Court for adjudication and the completely illogical position of Wife in the paragraph above (assuming full financial information was actually produced by Wife), the Court should enter an order allowing for the Chase Subpoenas to go out immediately to assess enforceability of the PMA and push the case toward resolution.

5. Additionally, the Court has apparently scheduled hearings on Motions to compel psychological evaluation and a motion to appoint guardian ad litem for hearing on January 21, 2025.

6. It's completely impossible to have any meaningful hearing on those most critical issues that will impact the children's welfare, certainly in a negative manner if people disrupt it.

7. Furthermore, the Court has still not addressed the singular issue that spawned all of this lawfare against Husband.

8. Husband has raised at least 15 different inappropriate actions from Mr. Davis in pursuing this case and placed that before the Court multiple times.

9. There's never been any inquiry, assessment or comment on his conduct.

10. The Court has a couple of times now, described how easy Mr. Davis is to work with, referring to him as a "Teddy Bear,"

11. It's very difficult for Husband to understand those types of comments given Mr. Davis's conduct in this case. It's unclear if the Court finds Mr. Davis's tactics reasonable or if there is some apparent refusal or disinterest in assessing the very specific inappropriate litigation tactics pursued by Mr. Davi and described by Husband on numerous occasions.

12. Resolving the discovery issues that arose 7 months ago, (that Husband always expressed would be the impetus for lots of ugliness if not timely addressed) must be the Court's priority and this needs to be clarified ASAP so Mr. Hanson is not suddenly rushing to chase down several teachers, coaches, friends, etc., for affidavits and possible deposition testimony. The filings are so far toward the opposite of reality that it's clear Wife and Mr. Davis are willing to sink to any level that might help them conceal financial information.

13. Husband requests the Court's attention ASAP, as the impacts on the children, health, and overall well-being of the family are under increasing threat of damage from all of these completely unnecessary and inappropriate delays, and the 1-9-25 hearing was cut while Husband was trying to put additional information on the record.

WHEREFORE, the Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, requests the Court enter an Order:

- A. continuing any hearing on the motions for guardian ad litem and motion for psychological evaluation for at least 3 months.
- B. Setting a hearing/status conference ASAP to address the timeline of hearing these motions – 7 months no resolution on a stipulate mandatory disclosure issue vs. giving Husband at best 39 days to defend something that impacts his children's future in a manner that can only cause damage – and try to limit the issue and push back Wife's motions if still necessary.
- C. overruling the objection and allowing the Chase Bank subpoena at issue to go out as drafted.
- D. Confirming that the list of 15 plus actions of Mr. Davis that resulted in active litigation detrimental to the children, the unnecessary delays and harm to Husband and children will be addressed by the Court at the January 21, 2025 hearing.
- E. Alternatively on the Chase subpoena, Husband respectfully requests that the Court overrule the objection at least in part and allow the subpoena to go out requesting at least the 3 years of records leading up to entry into the PMA.

- F. Alternatively, Husband requests rehearing and clarification regarding how the Court handled Mr. Davis's late filing of his post hearing memo and Ms. Hodz's objection to the same.
- G. Alternatively, Husband requests rehearing and clarification on whether the Court considered the Husband's answer and counter petition.
- H. Alternatively, should the Court sustain Wife's objection to these subpoenas, Husband requests rehearing and clarification on the Court's findings on Wife's litigation tactics discussed herein and on Husband's argument under FRFP 12.380(b)(2)(C) supporting waiver of the objection.
- I. Wife to pay attorney's fees and costs associated with this matter including but not limited to Husband who is doing his best to serve as his own lawyer.
- J. Granting Respondent all other and further relief as this Court deems just and necessary.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a true and correct copy of the foregoing has been furnished to all designated on e-service list on this 9th day of January, 2025.

I apologize for that oversight although the statement, that neither party challenged either the pre or post marital agreement is inaccurate.

Husband specifically challenged the post-marital agreement in the Answer to Amended Petition and Respondent Counterpetition filed on December 16, 2024.

That is one of the arguments that I'm including in a Motion for Rehearing/Clarification I'm working on today.

I should be able to get that filed today or tomorrow. But obviously I object to the order as drafted.

And it doesn't state that the Judge made no finding as to whether the post marital agreement is enforceable.

IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA
FAMILY LAW DIVISION

In re: the Marriage of:

SARAH HANSON
Husband,

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON
Respondent.

MOTION FOR REHEARING UNDER RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 1.530 ON ORDER GRANTING MS. HODZ WITHDRAWAL

The Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, hereby files this motion for rehearing and states the following:

1. Husband continues to pursue the sole objective, obtaining discovery into Wife's financial situation, as described in his first substantive filing from May 16, 2024 at Docket #22.
2. At Docket #22, paragraphs 6-12, Husband describes the financial reality of the last few years of the couple's marriage during which Wife refused to contribute more to household expenses even as Husband's health suffered.
3. While the parties were able to avoid attorney involvement for every other issue, Wife's refusal to disclose financial information required legal attention as Husband knew he'd be unable to coparent effectively with that information outstanding especially given current health and career prospects.

12/22/2024 11:25 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 1

4. Husband reviewed the circumstances leading to Ms. Hodz sudden and immediate insistence on withdrawal (effective December 2, 2024) and those details will not be included here. (See also Exhibits attached to and referenced in Objection to Motion to withdraw, Docket #72).

5. On December 13, 2024, the Court held a brief hearing and granted the Expedited Motion to Withdraw filed by Cortes Hodz Family Law & Mediation, P.A. and Vivian Cortes Hodz, Esq., with both parties and their counsel appearing via ZOOM. The order was entered without detailed findings on the reasons for withdrawal or the impact on the Husband's case. (See Order Granting Motion to Withdraw as Counsel of Record for Respondent/Husband).

6. The US Constitution, through the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, guarantees due process, ensuring that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. Similarly, the Florida Constitution, under Article I, Section 9, echoes this protection.

7. In the context of this divorce, due process rights require adequate notice to give a litigant sufficient notice and time to prepare for litigation related events. Garden v. Garden, 834 So.2d 190 (Fla. 2d DCA 2002)

8. Husband received only 1 day notice, giving him insufficient time to prepare for the withdrawal hearing, which undermines both Federal and Florida due process rights.

9. It's unclear whether this Honorable Court ever had the opportunity to review the basis of Husband's objections, but those are present at Docket #72 and attachments referenced therein.

10. Husband moves for a rehearing and to vacate the order granting Ms. Hodz's motion to withdraw as counsel, arguing a violation of due process under Florida and federal laws.

{00671948-3 }

12/22/2024 11:25 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 2

11. The hearing on the motion to withdraw was scheduled with insufficient notice, contravening due process under both the Florida and Federal Constitutions.

12. The Husband's right to counsel was infringed upon as requests for legal assistance on critical tasks, like the motion to compel and response to the amended petition, were ignored, impacting his ability to proceed with the discovery, the sole objective assigned to each of his attorneys.

13. "The notice requirement implicates due process concerns of notice and opportunity to be heard; obviously, then, the notice and motion must be timely and must afford the client an opportunity to respond." Garden v. Garden, 834 So.2d 190, 192 (Fla. 2d DCA 2002). The Court also suggested that such withdrawal can violate due process if it materially affects the client's case.

14. Husband desperately wants to limit the conflict with Wife in order to get back to productive coparenting with trust and communication, but these discovery pursuits are a necessity before that can happen, due to current health, career, and financial situations.

15. While Husband believes the children are continuing to thrive, there's extensive research showing that extended periods of conflict are more likely to result in behavioral and self esteem problems.

16. Husband is well aware of the suffering that can result and has always insisted on timely action to move this matter forward in order to avoid negative impacts on the children.

17. Given Husband's urgency to resolve this conflict as quickly as possible, the manner in which Ms Hodz withdrew was likely to and has caused significant prejudice in proceeding with this case as described below.

(65671849-3)

12/22/2024 11:25 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 3

18. Ms. Hodz failed to provide updates, documents, or work product related to the Chase subpoena, the motion to compel and even the deadline for a response to the Amended petition.

19. The court made no findings regarding the reasons for withdrawal, despite explicit objection and argument from the Husband about the severe impact on his case, including ongoing discovery issues and custody discussions.

20. There was no clear reason for the withdrawal, and the allegations in the more detailed expedited motion to withdraw primarily involve events that occurred after Ms. Hodz had refused to do any work on the file. Husband had no choice but to try and advance his case.

21. Furthermore, Husband's communications with both Mr. Davis and Ms. Hodz were respectful and reveal no dishonest or unethical actions on his part.

22. Husband offered to immediately cease emails with Mr. Davis if Ms. Hodz would agree to advance his case.

23. Instead, the withdrawal seems to stem from Ms. Hodz's sudden change of outlook after her long delayed conference with Mr. Davis.

24. Certainly, there is no evidence of anything unethical or dishonest from Husband that would make withdrawal mandatory.

25. Husband submits that more resistance from the opposing counsel than one would like is not a good reason for withdrawal.

26. Husband's waiver of attorney-client privilege by filing communications with the Court on December 13, 2024, should render any claim of irreconcilable differences transparent and subject to scrutiny. The absence of specific, definitive reasons for such a claim in the Expedited Motion to Withdraw is inexcusable given this transparency. (See Email filed by Husband on December 13, 2024).

27. The withdrawal has caused significant prejudice by stalling critical aspects of the case, leaving the Husband unable to adequately respond to legal maneuvers by the opposing side, including the Wife's Motion for Judicial Default filed due to the Husband's failure to respond to the Amended Petition for Dissolution of Marriage as he was not even advised that the due date was the same day as the hearing held on 1 day notice at a time when Husband was unavailable. (See Wife's Motion for Judicial Default).

28. While Ms. Hodz immediately ceased any work and assistance on December 2, 2024, it took 10 days for her to even attempt sending the file materials.

29. A Dropbox with file materials was provided by Ms. Hodz's office on December 12, 2024, at 6:49 pm, but it was: 1) less than 24 hours before the hearing, and 2) incomplete.

30. Husband has identified that a crucial draft Motion to Compel, which was purportedly attached to a separate email, is missing from the provided materials. (See Email from Husband to Vivian Cortes Hodz dated December 16, 2024).

31. Multiple communications were sent to Ms. Hodz on December 15, 16, and 17, 2024, by Husband, highlighting the missing documents, with no response from Ms. Hodz or her firm.

32. The absence of these documents, particularly the draft Motion to Compel which is central to the case, significantly prejudices the Husband's ability to proceed, especially in light of the Wife's motion for judicial default.

33. Husband's response to the Amended Petition was overdue by 73 days despite being represented by counsel during the entire relevant timeframe. (See Wife's Motion for Judicial Default).

[00671949-3]

12/22/2024 11:25 PM Electronically Filed: Hillsborough County/13th Judicial Circuit Page 5

34. Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.540 provides for relief from orders where there was a mistake, inadvertence, or neglect, relevant here due to the lack of notice, legal support, and the implications of the judicial default motion.

35. Wherefore, Husband requests this Court to set aside the previous order allowing Ms. Hodz to withdraw, and require Ms. Hodz to continue with current efforts to complete the work discussed both prior to and after her notice of appearance. Specifically, Ms. Hodz, "assured" Husband that "he would get the information he needed to move forward." (See email dated October 21, 2024 6:08pm).

36. Additionally and alternatively, the Husband requests the Court to order Ms. Hodz to immediately produce by email:

- The Motion to Compel previously drafted, preferably in Word format.
- All other file materials and communications not included in the December 12, 2024 Dropbox, along with an explanation for any materials not turned over.

37. Husband further seeks to address the judicial default motion, arguing that the delay in responding to the Amended Petition was due to the lack of legal representation and access to necessary case documents, which exacerbates the prejudice already suffered.

Happy new year, Ms. Heyward. Judge Ayers wants me to have the motions I currently need heard by 1-6-25.

I really need answers to these couple questions in order to make a determination on precisely what I need to file.

Please let me know if I can get answers to the couple questions raised below on the motion to withdraw and whether Judge Ayers had the chance to review the Motion for Clarification before issuing the order on the subpoenas.

If I don't hear back before the weekend, please let Judge Ayers know that it will be impossible for me to get all motions/responses before the 1-6-25 hearing.

I've asked Ms. Hodz for the motion to compel draft that was prepared by my attorneys several times and I'm still waiting on that. If I don't get that before the weekend, that would also make it impossible for me to get everything filed.

And on Mr. Davis's motion to appoint a guardian ad litem, I do not see where I was served or ever provided with that document despite requesting from Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis multiple times.

I'm hoping the Court can assist on those couple things as well, or there will be more to file after 1-6-25.

Thank you.

Chris

Happy new year, Ms. Heyward. Judge Ayers wants me to have the motions I currently need heard by 1-6-25.

Happy New Year to you all. All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes.

I really need answers to these couple questions in order to make a determination on precisely what I need to file.

Please let me know if I can get answers to the couple questions raised below on the motion to withdraw and whether Judge Ayers had the chance to review the Motion for Clarification before issuing the order on the subpoenas.

The Motion for Clarification is a pending motion that was filed before 1-6-25, so it will be addressed on 1-21-25. Please know that we do not receive copies of any filings other than emergency filings. We do have certain reports that are generated with respect to certain types of filings that Judge Ayers does review on a regular basis. Accordingly, Judge Ayers would only review a filing if it is provided to me or when she is preparing for a hearing. And, unless there is a particular need (i.e., emergency motions or expedited motions) filings are not forwarded to me.

If I don't hear back before the weekend, please let Judge Ayers know that it will be impossible for me to get all motions/responses before the 1-6-25 hearing.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

I've asked Ms. Hodz for the motion to compel draft that was prepared by my attorneys several times and I'm still waiting on that. If I don't get that before the weekend, that would also make it impossible for me to get everything filed.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. Any other issues with respect to same, can be addressed with the Court on 1-21-25

And on Mr. Davis's motion to appoint a guardian ad litem, I do not see where I was served or ever provided with that document despite requesting from Ms. Hodz and Mr. Davis multiple times.

You may bring this matter up with Judge Ayers on 1-21-25.

I'm hoping the Court can assist on those couple things as well, or there will be more to file after 1-6-25.

All motions filed by 1-6-25 that have not been yet heard will be addressed on 1-21-25 for scheduling purposes. This does not prohibit further filings in this case, but any filings filed after 1-6-25, will not be addressed on 1-21-15, but rather will be addressed at a later date.

Ok. On the form you initially attached, it says the motion for rehearing was granted and the motion to withdraw would be heard at the motion hearing. That was a mistake but your last email was accurate?

And please let me know about whether the Judge had a chance to review the motion for clarification on the chase subpoenas. It does not appear that any of my arguments were addressed.

Thanks for getting back to me so quickly. I assume I need to get a court reporter for this? Mr. Davis - please let me know if you'll have a court reporter there. Otherwise, I'll confirm arrangements to have one.

I've had ongoing complications with the sinus infection since 12-14-24. I see the ENT tomorrow for a follow up. I can file medical records if the Court wants to see them, but there's no way that I can prepare for Mr. Davis's motions, especially the guardian ad litem and the psychological evaluation. With being so sick thru the holidays, I didn't get into them in time to complete the work. In fact, I still don't even have a copy of the Motion to appoint Guardian ad Litem. I'm going to try and make it to the Courthouse this afternoon to get it, but it seems like someone could just email it to me?

I emailed Mr. Davis about hopefully resolving the motion for default and motion to compel. I'm hoping that we can take those off the docket ourselves. Mr. Davis, please get back to me on that when you can.

The more I prepare for the other 2 motions, the more concerned I am about the preparation necessary for them. I'll need to get statements from various teachers, parents, coaches, and relatives for that. I'm hoping I don't need depositions for all those individuals, but I'm continuing research it.

I'm going to try and file something on the hearing tomorrow and the hearings set for 1-21-25 before the hearing tomorrow. Thanks again and I apologize if this crosses beyond the scheduling line for acceptable emails.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA
FAMILY DIVISION

IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF

SARAH HANSON,
Petitioner,

and

Division: D

CHRISTOPHER HANSON,
Respondent.

HUSBAND/RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR
REHEARING ON COURT'S 12-30-24 ORDER ON CHASE SUBPOENA
AND EMERGENCY MOTION TO CONTINUE HEARINGS ON WIFE'S
MOTIONS FILED ON 12-13-24

The Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON files this Motion for Rehearing and/or Clarification and, in support thereof, states:

1. Husband filed a Motion for Clarification relating to the Chase order on December 30, 2024. To the extent the Court will not automatically hear that or treat it as a Motion for Rehearing, Husband respectfully submits this motion for rehearing, incorporating all arguments made at Docket #91.
2. In Ms. Heyward's December 16, 2024 email, she notes, "the Court is not issuing a ruling with respect to the validity of either agreement, as that issue has not been challenged by either party or properly brought before this Court." (Attached as Exhibit A, p. 14 below).
3. Given Husband's filing of his Answer and Counter Petition before the filing of the Court's order, the Order on the Chase subpoena is inaccurate on its face given Husband's challenge to the enforceability of the Post Marital Agreement (PMA) when the above email was drafted. (Docket #79, ¶20-22, 24 in Answer and ¶10 in Counterpetition).

4. Even though given the current financial disclosures, Wife would almost certainly be entitled to more money than the $100,000 Husband paid on the PMA, nevertheless, she still refuses to agree to waive discovery objections in exchange for voiding the PMA. (Docket #90 – transcript of December 19, 2024 status conference, p.7, L12-20).

5. That fact alone demonstrates the critical relevance of this discovery. The only logical explanation for this is clearly that Wife is hiding assets.

4. Given that enforceability of the (PMA) is officially before this Court for adjudication and the completely illogical position of Wife in the paragraph above (assuming full financial information was actually produced by Wife), the Court should enter an order allowing for the Chase Subpoenas to go out immediately to assess enforceability of the PMA and push the case toward resolution.

5. Additionally, the Court has apparently scheduled hearings on Motions to compel psychological evaluation and a motion to appoint guardian ad litem for hearing on January 21, 2025.

6. It's completely impossible to have any meaningful hearing on those most critical issues that will impact the children's welfare, certainly in a negative manner if people disrupt it.

7. Furthermore, the Court has still not addressed the singular issue that spawned all of this lawfare against Husband.

8. Husband has raised at least 15 different inappropriate actions from Mr. Davis in pursuing this case and placed that before the Court multiple times.

9. There's never been any inquiry, assessment or comment on his conduct.

10. The Court has a couple of times now, described how easy Mr. Davis is to work with, referring to him as a "Teddy Bear."

11. It's very difficult for Husband to understand those types of comments given Mr. Davis's conduct in this case. It's unclear if the Court finds Mr. Davis's tactics reasonable or if there is some apparent refusal or disinterest in assessing the very specific inappropriate litigation tactics pursued by Mr. Davi and described by Husband on numerous occasions.

12. Resolving the discovery issues that arose 7 months ago, (that Husband always expressed would be the impetus for lots of ugliness if not timely addressed) must be the Court's priority and this needs to be clarified ASAP so Mr. Hanson is not suddenly rushing to chase down several teachers, coaches, friends, etc., for affidavits and possible deposition testimony. The filings are so far toward the opposite of reality that it's clear Wife and Mr. Davis are willing to sink to any level that might help them conceal financial information.

13. Husband requests the Court's attention ASAP, as the impacts on the children, health, and overall well-being of the family are under increasing threat of damage from all of these completely unnecessary and inappropriate delays, and the 1-9-25 hearing was cut while Husband was trying to put additional information on the record.

WHEREFORE, the Respondent, CHRISTOPHER HANSON, requests the Court enter an Order:

- A. continuing any hearing on the motions for guardian ad litem and motion for psychological evaluation for at least 3 months.
- B. Setting a hearing/status conference ASAP to address the timeline of hearing these motions – 7 months no resolution on a stipulate mandatory disclosure issue vs. giving Husband at best 39 days to defend something that impacts his children's future in a manner that can only cause damage – and try to limit the issue and push back Wife's motions if still necessary.
- C. overruling the objection and allowing the Chase Bank subpoena at issue to go out as drafted.
- D. Confirming that the list of 15 plus actions of Mr. Davis that resulted in active litigation detrimental to the children, the unnecessary delays and harm to Husband and children will be addressed by the Court at the January 21, 2025 hearing.
- E. Alternatively on the Chase subpoena, Husband respectfully requests that the Court overrule the objection at least in part and allow the subpoena to go out requesting at least the 3 years of records leading up to entry into the PMA.

- F. Alternatively, Husband requests rehearing and clarification regarding how the Court handled Mr. Davis's late filing of his post hearing memo and Ms. Hode's objection to the same.
- G. Alternatively, Husband requests rehearing and clarification on whether the Court considered the Husband's answer and counter petition.
- H. Alternatively, should the Court sustain Wife's objection to these subpoenas, Husband requests rehearing and clarification on the Court's findings on Wife's litigation tactics discussed herein and on Husband's argument under FRFLP 12.380(b)(2)(C) supporting waiver of the objection.
- I. Wife to pay attorney's fees and costs associated with this matter including but not limited to Husband who is doing his best to serve as his own lawyer.
- J. Granting Respondent all other and further relief as this Court deems just and necessary.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a true and correct copy of the foregoing has been furnished to all designated on e-service list on this 9th day of January, 2025.

I did not wish to waste your wife's money by attending a hearing that was not pertinent to her case. This is why I sent an email to Ms. Heyward on Wednesday advising that we did not intend to attend the hearing; but stating that if Judge Ayers wanted to attend, Ms. Heyward could respond to my email instructing us to attend. He did not appear for the hearing. Did I miss an email somehow or how was Mr. Davis informed when I was not? thanks.

I don't see where your email addresses the question of, why you attended the hearing on Mrs Hodz initial motion to withdraw, but not this hearing on the very same topic?

Here's your answer from 11:18...

There were no ex-parte communications. I knew it was not necessary for Ms. Hanson or me to attend yesterday's hearing because it pertained to the order granting the motion for Ms. Hodz to withdraw from your case. I did not wish to waste your wife's money by attending a hearing that was not pertinent to her case. This is why I sent an email to Ms. Heyward on Wednesday advising that we did not intend to attend the hearing; but stating that if Judge Ayers wanted to attend, Ms. Heyward could respond to my email instructing us to attend. Once again, you are making incorrect and inaccurate assumptions. Respectfully, your request for our attendance did not necessitate our attendance.

Please just underline for me where you address that question on attending one hearing but not the other.

Also, I believe you were noticed for the hearing that occurred yesterday. Were you ever excused by the Court from attending the hearing yesterday other than you telling the Court you didn't want to attend?

Please clarify those couple issues for me as I have a concern about the way the hearing progressed yesterday and need to file something for appellate purposes.

And I'm almost certain you attended the emergency motion to withdraw hearing even on 1 day notice. What was the difference there?

Since the late 1970s, there has been a growing interest in the use of the term "cultural studies" in the United States. This interest has been fueled by a number of factors, including the increasing awareness of the role of culture in society, the growing importance of the media in shaping public opinion, and the increasing diversity of the American population. As a result, there has been a growing emphasis on the study of culture and its relationship to society, politics, and the economy. This has led to the development of a new field of study, cultural studies, which seeks to understand the ways in which culture shapes and is shaped by society.

And even after being aware of my objection, you assumed I didn't have any right to request your presence at the hearing?

Mr. Hanson,

There were no ex-parte communications. I knew it was not necessary for Ms. Hanson or me to attend yesterday's hearing because it pertained to the order granting the motion for Ms. Hodz to withdraw from your case. I did not wish to waste your wife's money by attending a hearing that was not pertinent to her case. This is why I sent an email to Ms. Heyward on Wednesday advising that we did not intend to attend the hearing, but stating that if Judge Ayers wanted to attend, Ms. Heyward could respond to my email instructing us to attend. Once again, you are making incorrect and inaccurate assumptions. Respectfully, your request for our attendance did not necessitate our attendance.

Thank you and have a nice day.

And I'm almost certain you attended the emergency motion to withdraw hearing even on 1 day notice. What was the difference there?

There were no ex-parte communications. I knew it was not necessary for Ms. Hanson or me to attend yesterday's hearing because it pertained to the order granting the motion for Ms. Hodz to withdraw from your case. I did not wish to waste your wife's money by attending a hearing that was not pertinent to her case. This is why I sent an email to Ms. Heyward on Wednesday advising that we did not intend to attend the hearing, but stating that if Judge Ayers wanted to attend, Ms. Heyward could respond to my email instructing us to attend. Once again, you are making incorrect and inaccurate assumptions. Respectfully, your request for our attendance did not necessitate our attendance.

Thank you and have a nice day.

I don't see where your email addresses the question of, why you attended the hearing on Mrs Hodz initial motion to withdraw, but not this hearing on the very same topic?

Here's your answer from 11:18...

There were no ex-parte communications. I knew it was not necessary for Ms. Hanson or me to attend yesterday's hearing because it pertained to the order granting the motion for Ms. Hodz to withdraw from your case. I did not wish to waste your wife's money by attending a hearing that was not pertinent to her case. Once again, you are making incorrect and inaccurate assumptions. Respectfully, your request for our attendance did not necessitate our attendance.

Please just underline for me where you address that question on attending one hearing but not the other.

Also, I believe you were noticed for the hearing that occurred yesterday. Were you ever excused by the Court from attending the hearing yesterday other than you telling the Court you didn't want to attend?

Please clarify those couple issues for me as I have a concern about the way the hearing progressed yesterday and need to file something for appellate purposes.

Subject: Re: Judicial Automated Workflow System orders for case 24-DR-001150 - Div D; Domestic Relations/Family

Caution: This is an external email. Please take care when clicking links or opening attachments. When in doubt, contact the Helpdesk.

Good morning Ms. Heyward. I have a couple questions about the schedule and this hearing set for Monday. I just want to make sure the Judge is aware that Docket #84 relates to Mandatory Disclosures that fail to even attempt to comply with the Rule's requirements, information that was stipulated to be produced back in June of 2024, a motion filed on August 9, 2024, and a Court Order effective October 28, 2024.

Mr. Davis had been in violation of the Court's 10-28-24 order for well over a month before he filed the sudden barrage of 4 motions on December 13, 2024, just as Husband's counsel withdrew over his objection.

Also, Docket #91 relates to a subpoena issued in June of 2024 and a motion filed August 9, 2024. The determination on the motion was put off by Mr. Davis submitting a memo late. There are several important issues that require clarification on this, and again, it's confusing why Husband's only concern in this matter will be put off to be dealt with simultaneously months later, motions filed for the sole purpose of creating leverage to conceal the information Mr. Hanson seeks in discovery. These are serious discovery violations that I've raised in numerous pleadings, including at Docket #72, 80 84, 91.

Putting these issues at the root of the case off is severely prejudicial and confusing to Husband as it seems that the discovery violations go uninvestigated while they serve precisely the improper purpose for which they are filed.

If there are reasonable explanations for now these 15 plus actions from Mr. Davis, it will make things go more smoothly. Getting the information out in the open and having determinations on these issues present since the beginning should benefit both parties and the Court. Putting them off and adding them with 4 separate motions filed at a very inopportune time for Husband is extremely prejudicial and only further complicates what in the beginning was a relatively straightforward issue. Getting answers to the original questions is the only way for the resulting, more recent disputes to ever untangle.

I reached out to Mr. Davis about whether he has an objection to hearing these 2 motions Monday, but I have not heard back. Please let me know if I need to file anything formal. I'm working on at least 4 different pleadings currently that all need to be filed. I will try to file before Monday, although it will certainly be impossible to get one before then. If I need to file this rather than sending by email, please let me know. Thanks.

Chris
